inherit it ? Did they ever fail in their behavior between promise and fulfillment ? Of course they did, but they never lost HOPE. They never lost sight of the promise, though time and circumstances were so opposite sometimes to how they thought I would work.

The same is true for many of you now. I have made many promises to you.
And many are wondering, “When Lord ? – When will You come and do all You have promised ? “ My Beloveds, I am not slack in My promises. I am IN YOU. I am CHRIST IN YOU, the Hope of Glory. I have spoken over and over again to many of you, because I want you to hold on to your hope, though it would seem to you I am delayed. MY TIMING IS PERFECT ! It always brings the results that I want ! So relax, and know that when I speak something you can COUNT on it ! I will fulfill all I have purposed for your life. Your job is to continue contending for that promise. Don't give up. FIGHT the good fight of FAITH. Speak only what I have said, and not what the enemy has told you !

He is a liar and the father of all lies. He is trying to steal and rob, and to make you feel disqualified as if I am such a weak God that I cannot fulfill My promises. Surely in a flood of many waters, I will sustain you !

Ps 32:6-7 NKJV For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You
In a time when You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters they shall not come near him. 7 You are my hiding place; You shall preserve me from trouble; You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

I have also given many of you promises about your children. Those promises I am not slack on either. I have all in hand. Do not fret when things seem bleak and do not be dismayed. Rejoice and praise for the soon coming glory will brighten your days ! Do not give in to grief and sorrow ! Again the enemy is just trying to steal your joy ! The JOY OF THE LORD IS YOUR STRENGTH !! Remember ? So shout aloud, and praise Me in the middle of your circumstances… This is the way to OVERCOME ! Thank Me even for what seems impossible and sad to you ! THANK ME, and praise and dance, and sing, and shout for joy ! Do not allow the enemy the upper hand !
REJOICE and be EXCEEDINGLY GLAD ! This will set him off tilt ! This will quench his firey darts and you will find yourself in a whole new place of JOY inexpressible and overflowing ! STOP COMPLAINING and begin to rejoice, and watch what I will do !

Remember how great My love is for you. Remember that I love you as I love My own SON ! I have told you and I will tell you again and again ! I never get tired of telling you that I love you ! I never get tired of YOU ! I am wanting your company. I am wanting that time with you. Relax, and be strong and of good courage ! Know that I have all in the palm of My hands.
Just PRAISE and WORSHIP. Just speak the promise into being ! Do not speak out the lies of the enemy ! Overcome evil with good. Overcome the lies with MY TRUTH. Put on the garments of PRAISE for the spirit of heaviness ! I am longing to be with you, and you will not wait much longer to see your hearts Desire."

Rom 11:26-31 NKJV And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob; 27 For this is My covenant with them, When I take away their sins."
28 Concerning the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the election they are beloved for the sake of the fathers. 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30 For as you were once disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, 31 even so these also have now been disobedient, that through the mercy shown you they also may obtain mercy.

1 Cor 11:25-26 NKJV In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

Heb 7:22 NKJV by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a better covenant.

Heb 8:6-11 NKJV But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises. 7 A New Covenant (Jer 31:31-34) For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8 Because finding fault with them, He says: "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah — 9 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the LORD. 10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Heb 8:11-13 NKJV None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. 12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more." 13 In that He says, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

Heb 9:11-14 AMP But [that appointed time came] when Christ (the Messiah) appeared as a High Priest of the better things that have come and are to come. [Then] through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with [human] hands, that is, not a part of this material creation, 12 He went once for all into the [Holy of] Holies [of heaven], not by virtue of the blood of goats and calves [by which to make reconciliation between God and man], but His own blood, having found and secured a complete redemption (an everlasting release for us).
13 For if [the mere] sprinkling of unholy and defiled persons with blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a burnt heifer is sufficient for the purification of the body, [Lev 16:6,16; Num 19:9,17,18.]
14 How much more surely shall the blood of Christ, Who by virtue of [His] eternal Spirit [His own preexistent divine personality] has offered Himself as an unblemished sacrifice to God, purify our consciences from dead works and lifeless observances to serve the [ever] living God

Heb 10:16-18 NKJV "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them," 17 then He adds, "Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more." 18 Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Heb 13:20-21 NKJV Benediction, Final Exhortation, Farewell
Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Rev 11:19 NKJV Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

"EVEN NOW!"
by Catherine Brown

> "Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. So the sisters sent word to Jesus, 'Lord, the one you love is sick.'" John 11:1-3

Jesus Cares

Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus. Twice, in just a few verses (v3, v5), we learn that Jesus cared deeply for the sisters and their brother. It's important for us to acknowledge this because, otherwise, the family's circumstances and Jesus' initial response to them might cause us some bewilderment. We can depend on the Lord's love to be our strong foundation in times of trouble. In times of desperation and devastation, we can rely completely on Jesus.

Negligence Or Knowledge

Jesus was in close proximity to the village where Lazarus lay extremely ill. It was perfectly achievable for Jesus to go and visit Lazarus and heal him from whatever sickness or disease was afflicting him. However, despite the severity of the situation, Jesus delayed His visit to Lazarus for two days and, in the interim period, Lazarus passed away.
Without a firm underpinning of Jesus' love in our lives, God's timing and chosen method of response might seem puzzling and, perhaps initially, frightening to us.

Do we look at delay and become concerned that the Lord is somehow negligent in our circumstances? Jesus' disciples also wrestled with similar questions.
One evening, during a terrible storm, the Lord and the disciples were out in a boat on the lake. The Lord was completely exhausted and fell into a deep sleep. Meanwhile, the waves and the wind became higher and the disciples became exceedingly afraid. Still the Lord slept on, utterly spent and unable to waken.
When the Lord did not immediately awaken, the disciples cried out in terror, "Don't you care about us, Lord?" Jesus stood up, commanded the waves and the water to be still, and restored peace in the elements and peace in the hearts of His men. Both Jesus' actions and His words demonstrated the depth of His love for them and the authority given to Him by Father God.

Jesus is not neglectful; he has intimate knowledge of every detail and facet of our lives. Jesus has the words of life and knowledge that are our anchor in life's storm, which bring us out of defeat and into victorious living. When doubts and anxieties arise in our hearts, the Lord wants to reassure us and give us peace. At times like these, we just need to rest in the love of God and remember to trust Jesus. Jesus comes to us today and says to the storms that rage around us, "be still." Precious one, receive His peace.

Kingdom Perspective: Word Of Knowledge

Jesus had the word of knowledge about Lazarus' life locked deep in His heart. He knew that, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it." John 11:4
The Lord wants us to view our lives through this Kingdom perspective that, no matter what we face, He is our everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. We need to ask the Lord for His perspective in our circumstances.

Walk By Light

> "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? A man who walks by day will not stumble, for he sees by this world's light. It is when he walks by night that he stumbles, for he has not light." John 11:9, 10

Life is not always sunshine and laughter. There are times when our hearts are broken by unexpected tragedy. At such times we may stumble and be in great need of God's help and healing. It is possible to become so preoccupied by circumstance that one can forget to focus fully on Jesus.
However, it is not with a rebuke, but with words of tenderness that the Lord beckons to us, calling us out from the shadow of melancholy into the glorious Light of His love. The shadows may be feelings of doubt, helplessness, hopelessness, heartbreak, or fear. They may be shadows of worthlessness, shame, pain, or loss of vision. In our weakness, we come to Jesus, in whom we find rest for our souls and hope for our hearts. We do not need to feel strong and have all or, indeed, any of the answers. Jesus is THE answer. He is our ever present strength and shield. Jesus is compassionate towards us and loves us with an everlasting love. Jesus is with us whether we are aware of His manifest presence or not. His promise to us is that He will never leave us or forsake us -- no matter what. There is nothing in heaven or earth that can separate us from His love.

> "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up." John 11:11

Even Now - Martha, A Champion Of Faith!

> "On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home. 'Lord,' Martha said to Jesus, 'if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.'" John 11:17-22

Even Now!

What an incredible transition for Martha! Martha had once been disciplined by the Lord for having a wrong attitude towards Mary, who sat at the feet of Jesus, whilst Martha was busy around the house (Luke 10:38-42).
Here was Martha, now a champion of faith, being the first to make her way towards Jesus. Martha's heart was overshadowed with sorrow at the sudden death of her brother, yet she pursued the presence of Christ in her difficult circumstances. Her attitude towards Jesus was one of love and respect. She did not blame Jesus for her brother's death or look for someone to accuse. She refused to feel sorry for herself, but instead, chose to hope in Christ, being full of faith for her dead brother to be healed.
Her magnificent words, "even now," are surely a wake up call to the depths of our beings, to rise up and say "even now," Lord we will believe you for a miracle in our personal situations, whatever they may be. Even when all looks dark, as we are confronted with death and despair, as we weep with those who are suffering, will we say, "even now!" Jesus is our strong deliverer, the Resurrection, and the Life.

Entering Into the Kingdom

by Bill Somers

> For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Romans 14:17

The Kingdom of God is Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost. What does this mean? I believe that these are the signs or results of entering into the kingdom. That is to day, if you have entered into the Kingdom of God, they you should have Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost, and that on a continual basis. In these days we experience Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost on a hit and miss basis. But God is calling us to a place where we will have Righteousness, Peace and Joy in the Holy Ghost all the time. That place is the Kingdom of God!

I have heard several explanations of this which I will lay out and show that they are just differing ways of expressing the same idea.

The Kingdom of God is wherever God is King.
If you are at a place where you are if full agreement with the word of God, completely submitted to his authority and fully and instantly obedient to his command, they you can say that Jesus is your King in every area, without reservation.

The reason Jesus manifested the Kingdom is that he was totally in accord with and submitted to the Father.

The Kingdom is entered by Repentance.
You can enter the Kingdom by a full repentance. Repentance means a turning, Here it must mean a turning away from sin, and towards righteousness. Or a turn away from walking in the flesh and a renewed walking in the spirit.

> Jesus words to Nicodemus.
> "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." John 3:3

Here Jesus speaks of seeing the Kingdom. This is a reference to seeing in the sense of understanding. The natural man cannot discern the things of the Spirit, that is the Word of God, and so only those who are born again can understand what the bible says about the kingdom.

> "Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." John 3:5

Here Jesus speaks of entering into the Kingdom. The requirements are to be born of water and of the Spirit, So what does this imply? Well being born of water refers to baptism which we are told is to bury the old man of the flesh. It means to be dead to the flesh and dead to self. Then Jesus explains what it means to be born of the Spirit.

> The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

This is saying that those who are born of the Spirit will come and go wherever the Spirit leads them. That is to say they are completely led by the Spirit of God.

So if you are fully dead to self and completely led by the Spirit, you have entered into His Kingdom, in this life.

What the Kingdom is not.
This means that the Kingdom is not heaven. It does not refer to entering in to heaven, the place for departed souls of the righteous. It is not God's presence. God manifests his presence here on earth in many ways and at many times. Those who experience this do not have to be in His Kingdom.

What the Kingdom is.
The Kingdom is God's Rule.
The Kingdom is the End Time Revival
The Kingdom is the Millennium.

> For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 1 Cor 4:20.

> *Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God,neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. 1Cor 15:50

God is calling us to enter into His Kingdom in these last days. Remember that the Bible tells us "… that we must through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God. Ac 14:22

Envy
Rick Joyner

Envy -- One of the Most Deadly of the 'Evil Works'!"

What is Envy?

One of the "works of the flesh" I'd like to study from Galatians 5:20 is "envying." This is similar to "jealousy," but not quite the same. Jealousy is more directed at a person, while envy is directed more at possessions, positions, or what they have. Though all of these works of the flesh are to some degree intertwined and overlapping, the apostle listed them separately for an obvious reason, and so we should look for their distinguishing characteristics as well.

Like jealousy, envy is one of the most deadly of these evil works, as we are told that even Jesus was crucified because of envy (see Matthew 27:18; Mark 15:10). The Pharisees and Sadducees were envious of the great crowds that followed the Lord. This, too, is where many of the divisions and infighting in the body of Christ begins.
When one church in a place starts to grow or prosper, or a special grace or anointing comes upon them, church history establishes very consistently that this will likely result in persecution from other churches and other church leaders. This is a deadly trap that many church leaders have been just as prone to fall into as the leaders of Israel in the first century.

Envy can be one of the most destructive of all of the works of the flesh because it usually affects church leaders, who then infect their followers, defiling many people, bringing devastating enmities and divisions in the church. These leaders will usually claim to be protecting the sheep or defending the truth, but the Lord is not fooled and we must not continue to be either. Either jealousy or envy will be found at the root of almost every division in the body of Christ. We must learn to recognize these evils when they arise in our own hearts or in those we accept as leaders.

As the Lord taught in the Parable of the Sheep and Goats in Matthew 25:40,
"Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me." NASB
Therefore, if we are envious or jealous of any of His people and thereby persecute them, we are actually being envious of the Lord Himself and are persecuting Him. The way we treat His people, even "the least" of them, is the way we are treating the Lord.

How Envy Works

One of the most tragic ways that envy has manifested itself in church history has been with the way a passing generation tends to persecute the emerging generation instead of blessing them and helping them prepare for their own purposes. Just as King Saul became envious of David, those who are insecure in their position will be threatened by any new movements or ministries that emerge and often attack them. This has been repeated in almost every spiritual generation to date.

The worst curse that was ever placed on Israel was if they forsook the Lord, they would devour their own young. Is this not exactly what has happened to almost every generation in church history, when, for a period of time, the greatest threat to the life of emerging leaders would be their own spiritual parents?

It is easy for a subtle form of pride to come upon those who are mightily used by the Lord, causing them to think that if the Lord desires to do anything great on the earth, He would certainly call on them first. Many great leaders have fallen to this pride that actually disqualifies them from further use by the Lord. Since they believe they are the best candidates for accomplishing any major purpose of the Lord, they cannot conceive that any such thing which comes through others could be from the Lord.

Therefore, they reject it and often persecute it.

There will be a time when the hearts of the fathers and sons are united. Then we will know that the end of this age is truly near, just as we are told in the last chapter of Malachi. Until then, we need to understand that those who arise with a special anointing or grace for leadership of a new emerging church or movement will most likely be attacked, and most likely by the present church leadership.

As a ministry we, too, have been subject to this quite often and have learned to expect it in every new city or situation that we enter to do a work for the Lord. Not all leaders will do this, but we have learned to count on some doing it. When we first moved to Charlotte, we were welcomed by most everyone until we started drawing large numbers of people. Then some began attacking us and, as we have continued to grow, the attacks have increased.

However, many, if not most of the church leaders in Charlotte, blessed us when we came and have continued to bless us, help us, and cheer us on -- even those who had some of their people begin coming to our church. This has been one of the greatest examples of true Christian nobility and true Christian leadership that I have witnessed, and is a great inspiration. I have come to trust these like few others. I believe that much of the fruit of our own ministry should go to their account. When these come to us with a word of concern or correction, we listen because we know that they have our best interests at heart. These are the ones we look to as the true elders in our city.

One reason that I have studied this specific problem in the church for so long is that I do not want to fall to it myself. Understanding is light, and when you have light on your path you should keep from stumbling. Even so, to date I really have not been tested the way that others have, and do not know how I would react to it. I hope that I would do well and try to smoothly pass the baton when it is time. However, one characteristic that I think leads to stumbling is thinking that it could not happen to us because we understand it. Understanding helps, but we must always keep in mind the exhortation to "let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall" (I Corinthians 10:12, NKJV).

Our Best Opportunity to Be Transformed in the Lord's Image

I have also come to believe that many who have run well for their whole lives fall to this near the end of their lives simply because they have not been healed of the afflictions that others brought upon them -- which is simply the failure to forgive. Unforgiveness leads to bitterness, and bitterness will defile or poison many others. Because as a ministry and I personally are almost continually attacked by someone, we have to preach, teach, and practice forgiveness continually. This is hard, but it is also our best opportunity to be transformed into the Lord's image.

We have one pastor in the Charlotte area that seems to be making a good living just attacking us. Once, when I was listening to his radio broadcast and he was saying many things that were not true about us (and some that were), I asked the Lord if He would stop this man. The Lord replied instantly, "Yes, but who do you want to take his place?" I got the point and have been content to let this man continue attacking us for many years now. I think it may continue through him and others until we have been conformed to the Lord's image, who laid down His own life even for the very ones that were torturing Him. Since we obviously still have quite a way to go to be like Him, I expect this to continue, maybe for as long as we are here.

Combating Envy

Another way we have tried to combat this tendency to be envious or jealous of others is to give positions of authority in our ministry only to those who show a genuine devotion to equipping and raising up others. One of the main things that I look for in leaders is the joy on the face of leaders when those under them do well. Our key leaders all tend to get more excited about those that they have trained being used by God in a major way than they do when they are personally used by God. These are true spiritual fathers and mothers who are deserving of "double honor."

Paul the apostle observed that we have many teachers but not many fathers, and I think the same is still true (see I Corinthians 4:15). We tend to call them spiritual fathers who are older and experienced, but being a father has nothing to do with age or experience as much as it does the ability to reproduce.
Just as in the natural most become fathers when they are rather young, the true equipping ministries which are listed in Ephesians 4 may also be quite young. There are many who do ministry well, but rarely train or equip others. We need to question whether such are really the equipping ministries listed in Ephesians 4, as their primary purpose is to equip others to do the work of the ministry.

We will begin to take this calling to equip others seriously when we know that this will be the only way the church can attain to "the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13 NASB).

Success!

I try to keep as the focus of my life that the ultimate reward of success in this life is to hear the Lord say on that great day, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:21 NKJV). As a pastor, I also realize that for me to hear those greatest words, I must do all I can to ensure that all the Lord has entrusted into my care hear those same words as well. I therefore must keep in mind that my hope of success is the success of those who are a part of our ministry or members of our churches.
Because of this, I am compelled to measure my own job for the Lord by how well others are accomplishing their purpose. We preach this continually, and I know some get tired of hearing it, but I do not intend to quit. I know when this ceases to be a basic value that we have in ministry, we will have diverted from a basic purpose we have.

If we truly see that a basic measure of our own success is the growing anointing and success of those we have trained, it is much harder to be envious of them. For this reason I believe that John the Baptist is one of the greatest examples of true godly leadership. His whole job was to point to Jesus and to prepare the way for Him, not just build his own following. He knew all along that the One coming to follow him was much greater and considered himself not even worthy to untie His shoes. Then, when the Anointed One came, he rejoiced just to hear His voice, being a true friend of the Bridegroom, and rejoiced to decrease as He increased. For this reason, John was honored by the Lord as being called the greatest man born of a woman. Such true nobility of spirit is the hallmark of those who truly are the greatest.

Emancipation Of Africa And The Black Race

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

There is a place in God’s heart for the liberation of the black race and Africa. Many cries have come before the Lord and God has sent a deliverer. He has sent Moses. He has sent Joseph for the posterity of the African people.

He has put Moses in strategic places of the world preparing them for the liberation of Africa. Some have been trained already and God wants them back in Africa to produce a change and to liberate the people from the curses some Africans are battling.

He has also sent Joseph into a foreign land so that Africans away from home could be saved and well kept. Africans got to come together. They got to be one. Joseph and his brothers got to unite.

God is bringing liberation to Africa and to the black people in Diaspora. He is going to bring freedom from corruption, slavery, discrimination, diseases, poverty etc

God is bringing healing to the nations. If you would meditate on Romans 8 and see the liberation of Africa with the eyes of the Spirit, you would know what I am talking about.

All nations are represented before God and it may surprise you to know that they were all in Eden as well. The African nations were present in Eden and are all represented before God. There are angels for every nation and these angels could put on the native attire of each land. They represented each tongue. For each tongue is a nation before God. These angels would fight for the nations they are assigned to. They stand before God beholding his face.

God has remembered Egypt and he is saying to her what he said in Isaiah 19:19-25. I believe the same word goes to the other nations of Africa.

A lot of people had thought the African race was cursed by Noah when he said - cursed shall be Canaan but, it ain't so. The people of ham are blessed and are really blessed and thank God for the redemptive work of Christ. We are made free by the blood of the lamb. Its time intercessors begin to cry more on behalf of the nations. Liberation is coming. Lets sing it, shout it for it would surely come.

A lot of people want to see a black president of USA. It could happen. The discrimination of the black people could fade away. Just like that. Its already happening as Africans and black people are already holding top positions in governments, senates and in world organizations.

Awake ye nations. Awake ye black people. Its time for Africa. Its time for the black people to rule, subdue and replenish.

Eye Of The Lord

Kathleen Pirl

My eye is on my land Israel,
Full of blood, fire, and smoke.
Cataclysmic changes are coming.
I will purge the Middle East with fire,
A great earthquake will come to this region
Changing the geo political structure.

I stand in the congregation of my people
Those that have made a covenant with me,
I will extend my mercy to them.
But I will thoroughly purge the threshing floors of iniquity.

The rubble is being removed from my church,
The foundations of eternity will be laid,
Even the redemption of Jerusalem.

Seek the Lord while He still may be found,
For He will raise up a strange work of judgment,
A work of righteousness and truth.
A judgment more to be desired than gold,
An assaying to bring forth my holiness and glory.

I am doing a new work a work of foundational reconstruction in my holy temple.
My measuring line is going out from Jerusalem,
Measuring every man, woman, and child.
I am weighing them with regards to my justice, compassion, and faith.

Many will soon die here,
Much blood will run.

Vengeance is mine I will repay.
I will lay my hand against the compromised and those walking in the Egyptian ways.
I will draw out with my judgments.
I will draw my people out of Egypt's ways,
Come out and be separate touch no unclean thing.

For my church I am about to draw out true teachers and prophets.

I am about to draw out the political and military leaders of the earth with judgments.

So be wise O Kings of the earth

And acknowledge the Sovereign King of Kings.

For the time is short!

The harvest is almost complete!

The darkness is increasing when no man can work!

And the light of my glory will be on my holy ones!

I am holy, laughing at the nation's rage as they conspire against me and my holy ones,
For I am installed on my holy hill Zion.

I am removing lampstands now.
I will remove many lampstands now,
Those who have scattered and fleeced my flock.
I will gather the remnant flock from all the nations.

I will raise up my tabernacle,
The sure mercies of David.
The Lion of Judah roars from His holy habitation!

Endure until the end!

For a whirlwind and tempest of fire is coming.
The glory of the Lord shall fill the earth as the waters cover the seas.

HOLY! HOLY! HOLY! IS THE LORD ALMIGHTY!
WHO WAS AND WHO IS AND WHO IS TO COME!
THE WHOLE EARTH IS FILLED WITH HIS GLORY!

Nov 19, 2005

Something has been happening every month on the 24th. This time it is a release for his people to go out and to be blessed but it also is releasing of his judgments. Zechariah 1:17--2:12. At first he was somewhat angry with the sinners but now he's extremely angry and his mercy is really falling on his people. The enemy has really been trying to split us up but there are "craftsmen" coming to send the enemy on their way. God's people will become so numerous that you won't be able to count them. God calls for all those who are lost to come to him and no enemy can touch us because it would be touching the "Apple of his eye" Be content with God and do not lose hope because soon and very soon God will be upon us first spiritually then later physically right before us. Be still and listen because from this day forth he has awoken the spirit, the glory, his spirit, his glory, within us.

The Lord gave the above to my daughter on Nov 19, 2005. I believe the second part of Haggai is starting to take place. The verse in Haggai where it speaks of the lord shaking the heavens, the earth, the dry land and the sea is slowly happening. After the lord gave my daughter the above word he spoke to me to look at the USGS report. He then wanted me to look at volcanoes. There has been allot of activity with both and it has been increasing. The earth is in travail. We are seeing earth quakes in diver places. The first prophetic word the lord gave my daughter regarding Katrina did happen. We didn't understand the dates until Gabriel a friend in the lord explained it on this site. Now the second wave is upon us and is coming.

God gave a prophetess named Cheryl Matthews a vision two days ago regarding Haggai. In the beginning of the vision she saw a torch that was the color of yellow gold fire. Then she saw a sword. Next she was taken and shown the earth shaking and then a volcano exploded violently. After these two things she was shown water pounding the earth and holes opening up in the earth. The lord spoke to her after one of the visions to look at the time it was 12:28 a.m. the next time he showed her it was 12:29 a.m. He spoke to her to remember the time. We believe and feel like it is confirmed in our spirit that the above is dates. Only God knows for sure and time will tell. He also showed her 1:11 am which she doesn't feel like it is a date. After this she said she was in a church in the vision and she heard a man call her name and said read Haggai chapter 1 and 2. I believe the gold fire she saw is the glory and the sword is judgment. Maybe the lord is saying I will pour out my glory at the same time of these events. If the above are dates then the end of this month might become a major change in the world we know today. We will be safe during it all. Psalms 91. I do believe we are in the beginning stages of THE LORD SHAKING THE HEAVEN, THE EARTH, THE DRY LAND IN THE SEA TO BRING FORTH THE SONS OF GOD.

Also he gave both me and the prophetess above the scripture Isaiah 60. He is soon to pour out his glory! God bless everyone as we end this year and begin the next established in our places to do his work. Be ready for the lord to show himself!

The anointing is on me so strong while writing below that I'm feeling heat all over me.---

I heard the Lord speak to me today with much authority and thus saith the Lord:

I hear the Lord saying...

For how long should I have spoken to you backsliding church and nations. I called to you for repentance but only few hearken unto my prophets. Are you blind that you do not see my signs? For I wept for you, Church, and called out to thee and you turned your face from Me and seeked that which was not of Me.

Do you not know that time has run out on you, for I will come through the land with My judgments. Soon and very soon I will be upon you. Will you then seek those things which you chose over me, for they will be taken from you. Did I not give you much time to get prepared and repent? I have stood up from my weeping position.

You will see Me and know that I have come across the land.

Emerging Picture of Changed Church

Seeing The Emerging Picture of Changed Church

The continuing reformation that is considered to have officially began in 1517 is taking another step forward. Much is said but not so much understood about the exodus of the faithful from the "institutional church".

Many clearly see that the church is facing massive change. We are all somewhere between dug in with our heels and ready to fight change - to fleeing to the wilderness mountains to wait for the picture of the new to present itself.

Pieces and parts of the new are sprouted and growing forth from the spiritual into the natural. One of these parts is relatively small group churches led by shepherds who encourage everyone to participate with the spiritual gifts given them by the Holy Spirit.

Another part of this picture is seeking true Holy Spirit leadership rather than human hierarchy. It is very clear that the new is based on relational connections rather than institutional structure. Another part of the new is immersion into all facets of living. The great division between "religious" life and all other life is melting. The new church is just as likely to meet at work, school or home as in a special building.

These are some of the emerging parts to the picture but how do they fit together and how does the larger meetings and various church structures fit into the picture. Many institutional church people have there heels dug in and are resisting change while many others are wondering how should we change and how does the picture fit together.

Many large structured churches are recognizing the need to also have small groups meeting in homes and other places outside the main church building. They are to some degree seeking to move with the change as far as they can see it and as far as it does not threaten the existing traditional structure.

History of the ongoing reformation has been that the catholic church changed very little through the early reformation and ousted those who would not remain conformed to their unchanged expression of church. The next level of Protestant church after many denominational divisions built its walls like the Catholic church had done and strongly resisted the next level of Pentecostal restoration and again ousted those who received the newly restored truth and experience. This pattern has continued from the days when Jesus preached greater truth and was ousted by the religious order of His day until now.

There is a strong propensity for this pattern to continue to reproduce itself.

However, there are multitudes who will not be left behind and will move with the Holy Spirit into the newly restored experiences and revelation of God and His Word. Leaving that which is behind let's move on to into the reality of intense intimate personal relationship with Father God and love based relationships with one another.

Having come through the blood of Jesus let us walk as He did in the empowerment of the Holy Spirit motivated by God's passionate love. Let us now experience the things in practical reality that we may have been taught but have not experienced in the past expressions of institutionalized church.

Let us focus on the picture of the new church as the pieces that are beginning to fit together for some with ears to hear and eyes to see who are now beginning to see.

There will be mass meetings of many believes coming together in citywide meetings and regional meetings for glorious praise, worship, prayer and fellowship. These glorious meetings will not be the primary church. The primary church - the foundation of the church will be the autonomous small groups bonded together by the Holy Spirit led by local shepherd elders. Autonomous yet connected to many other groups all fitting together as each joint supplies what it is gifted with from the Holy Spirit.

Jesus through the Holy Spirit will truly be head and no man will stand in His place. Elders will know by the Holy Spirit the Lord's direction and represent into their group what God is doing. The cross connection of apostles and prophets from these fellowships will flow from group to group and city to city representing what they see and hear God doing into the groups and cities they are sent to and are called for by the local elders.

How should an institutional church begin now to restructure itself and its systems to be part of the emerging picture of changed church.

First, we must resist the temptation to resist change and hold tightly to the ways of the past. No matter how good they may have been.

Secondly, begin to release the people and teach them they are not laity sitting before clergy but can be filled and led of the Holy Spirit to minister to one another. It will not be easy to step aside and make room long enough for people to begin to arise in their calling.

Thirdly, assist in the development of autonomous home church groups and teach them to hear God for themselves. Help them to know the are not coming to church; they are the church.

Fourthly, get connected with apostles and prophets and ministries that are moving toward the fulfillment of the new emerging picture of the changing church. A word of caution, do not be entrapped by mislead or false leaders seeking to take control of you and your people.

Fifth, begin to make your physical facilities and resources available for special meetings and gatherings of home group churches and function as a part of the citywide church. Seek to assist and serve the church not capture it or rule over it.

These are indeed major adjustments and the whole picture is not yet clearly visible to us but as we begin to move in the vision we see much more regarding our part in the emerging changed church will become given to us by the Holy Spirit.

The existing institutional churches that will go through the difficult changes and basically dissolve what has been to become a part of the new will be greatly blessed and used. There will be multitudes of new believers and dropouts from the past that will come alive and bring forth a great harvest

Esther Related To Recent History

Christa Behr

Dear Friends. Some years ago I send this bible study about Ester to some of my friends. A short time ago I was for a week on the island of Patmos in Greece and I had time to add some parts it. We plan to print it as a little booklet in Uganda. I pray that the Lord will speak through this thoughts to you. From the 3rt of September to the 12th I like to go back to Patmos with a small group to pray there. Let me know if you are interested. Shalom! Christa

Thoughts about the book of Esther related to recent history and our time

It is a real question for the Jewish people and also for us as Christians, how it was possible that the Holocaust could take place in civilised countries like Germany and Austria. Germany and Austria were so-called Christian countries, as at least 90% of the population was baptised and many musicians, poets and philosophers came forth from there. Still the worst murder one ever heard of, was initiated and carried out through our nations. These are difficult questions, but we have to ask them, because if we do not seek answers, the danger of repeating the same tragedy is unavoidable.

I believe that the book of Esther is partly giving us an answer. Before we look into the book of Esther I like to quote a word that Jesus spoke in Luke 11, 23- 24 "He who is not with Me is against me, and he who does not gather with Me, scatters. When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places seeking rest; and finding none, he says I will return to my house, from which I came. And when he comes and find it swept and put in order. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked then himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse, then the first."

Being passive is a very dangerous way to live. If we know the word of God but we do not live according to His word, we open the doors for very evil spirits. This applies not only to a person but also to a whole nation. It is not enough that a nation knows about the word of God. Jesus is warning us that if we do not really fill our house with the Holy Spirit other evil Spirits will take advantage and it will be worse with that person or nation then ever before. Apostle Paul writes in his letter to the 2. Thessalonians 2, 10- 12 "..and every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness."

I do ask myself the question how to bring real fruit of repentance and this is one of the reasons why I'd like to share about the book of Esther. The book of Esther gives us more insight in what happened in the time of the second world war and today.

The name Esther comes from the word, "nistar" and means hidden. God is hidden in the book of Esther and we don't even find the word God or prayer in the book of Esther. There is a hidden history of God with His people and I believe that the book of Esther has a special prophetic meaning for our time.

We read in Esther: 3, 1 "After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him." Just before this took place, Mordecai a Jew, saved the life of the king by telling him about a plot made against him. The king placed exactly the wrong person in the most prominent position.

Haman was a descendent from the house of Agag, the king of the Amalekites. The Lord told King Saul to destroy the people of Amalek totally, but he kept their king Agag alive. 1 Sam 15, 2 "That says the Lord of Hosts: I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he ambushed him on the way, when he came up from Egypt. Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and nursing child, ox an sheep, camel and donkey."

This disobedience cost him the kingdom and the throne of Israel and the prophet Samuel had to tell him: Obedience is better then sacrifice and that the Lord has chosen another king. After this the prophet Samuel went and anointed David. Haman was a descendent of king Agag, who would not have existed, if king Saul would have been obedient to the word of God.

As Joshua was battling against Amalek centuries before, Moses grew tired during his intercession for Israel. Hur and Aaron needed to hold up his hands to support him in prayer. Through this the battle for Israel was won. It seems that it was firstly a prayer battle which brought the victory over the people of Amalek. God has determined to battle against the spirit which is behind the people of Amalek and there were no other people in the Bible, whom God was willing to destroy completely.

Exodus: 17: 14-16 " Then the Lord said to Moses, write this for a memorial in the book and recount it in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-Lord-Is-My-Banner, for he said: Because the Lord has sworn, the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

In the year 2000 we where a small group praying and fasting at the memorial place at the former death camp in Treblinka. The Lord spoke to us, that as we deal with the spirit which is behind the Nazi Movement, we are dealing with the spirit of Amalek. A few days later we had the privilege to be part of the „March of the Living" which takes place every year from Auschwitz I to Auschwitz II Birkenau. The main Rabbi at that time was Rabbi Lau from Jerusalem and he finished his speech at Auschwitz II Birkenau with exactly this word from Exodus 17, 16 „Because the Lord has sworn, the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation." We understood that this impression was right and looked up all the scriptures about the people of Amalek.

Why was the Lord so angry with the people of Amalek? We find the answer in Deuteronomy 25, 17 "Remember what Amalek did to you on the way as you were coming out of Egypt, how he met you on the way and attacked your rear ranks, all the stragglers at your rear, when you were tired and weary, and he did not fear God. "Therefore it shall be, when the Lord your God has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which the Lord your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you will blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You shall not forget."

The people of Amalek did not fight like soldiers would fight in a normal war. Normally the strong young men went in front of their people and they fought against the army of the enemy, which was also set up with their strong young men. But the Amalekites attacked the rear guard of the Israelites which meant, the mothers and children and elderly or the weak ones from behind. Today you would say the civilian people. God confirms in His word that this strategy is without the fear of God and their way of attacking was totally evil and cruel. In this same spirit the concentration camps were built and especially the weak ones, the mothers and children, the elderly were right away tricked and what was looking like showers, was in reality the gas chambers. To give an example. I will try to describe the worst death camp of all the camps which was in Treblinka. Firstly there was no camp at all to live and the Jewish people needed to wait in the trains until their turn came to be gassed. Probably more then one Million Jews were killed here in only 13 months. Everything on the railway station was a trap. Many of the people where no longer alive when they arrived in the death camp Treblinka after a long and cold journey without water and food. From the little village Treblinka a train track was leading into the woods. A mock-railway station was set up there with signs to Berlin and Warsaw. A clock was painted on the wall always showing 12 o'clock. Next to the ramp was a house decorated with a "Red Cross". The older people or those who could not walk anymore were brought here and right away murdered by shooting them in the neck. All those who could still walk needed to go to a pathway called the "Schlauch" which means the "pipeline". Shortly after. they had to undress, and go on to the gas chambers. The 13 gas chambers where decorated with a "Star of David" to make them believe that it was a synagogue. Even a curtain from a torah shrine in a synagogue was put in front of the gas chambers with a word in Hebrew from Psalm 128, verse 20: "This is the gate of righteousness the righteous will enter." I often think about how we mocked God Himself in a terrible way and what will happen to our nations, who did this, if there is no real repentance, followed by fruit of repentance? Paul wrote in his letter to the Galatians 6, 6 "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows." This truth relates not only to one person but also to a whole nation. Sin is not going away just if we wait and let the time go on. We are called to confess our sins and the sins of our people before God and the victims of our transgressions.

Today the same spirit of Amalek is operating in America, Israel or Iraq through the terror attacks. We saw how a passenger plane crashed into the Twin Trade Towers in New York City, or young suicide bombers go into discotheques, restaurants or busses full of civilian people. This is the same spirit that stood behind the Nazi Movement, the spirit of Amalek who does not know anything about the fear of God.

Haman is accusing the Jews before the King, with an accusation, which continues over thousands of years.

Esther 3: 8-9 "Then Haman said to the King Ahasuerus, "there is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; their laws are different from all other peoples, and they do not keep the kings laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain. If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the kings treasuries."

There was always the problem that the Jews were different and lived according to their own laws, which are connected with the God of Israel. Just to be different was already a reason for persecution. The accusation is that the Jewish people do not keep the kings law was only the truth, if the king or anybody else was demanding to receive godly honour and worship for himself. Then of course the Jewish people could not be part of it because they knew the fist commandment not to worship other Gods. Exodus 20,1- 3 „I am the Lord your God,…You shall have no other Gods before me." This commandment is also for us as Christians and that is the reason why so many believers in Jesus as the Messiahs have lost their lives in the first centuries during the time of the great persecution under the roman Caesars.

Money also always played a big role in the Middle Ages and in the time of the Nazi regime. If someone borrowed money from a Jewish person in the Middle Ages, and he was not willing to pay it back, he took care that the Jewish person was falsely accused and killed. Then he was free of the debts which he needed to pay back. The Nazi's took over all the possessions of the Jewish people and even cut their hair off, before they went to the gas chambers, and used it. They also took the gold teeth out of the mouths of dead Jewish bodies. Very similarly, in our time the economy and the oil coming mostly from Arab states, plays a bigger role in the negative attitude of western countries towards Israel as many would like to admit.

Haman planned to kill all Jewish people in the whole kingdom of Ahasveros. (His kingdom reached from Kush to Hodu, which means from Ethiopia to India with the main centre in today's Iraq.) Haman's reason for wanting to kill the Jews, was related to the faith of this people in the of God of Israel. Mordecai was willing to greet Haman but because he knew, the first commandment, worship God alone, he was not willing to change his faith and to honour Haman as a God. That's why Haman got so angry at Mordecai. Hitler did not only demand to be greeted but he demanded to be greeted with "Heil Hitler" which means salvation is coming from him. The people needed to fall down before Haman and worship him like a God. Haman wanted to have a "Final Solution". It was hindered at that time through the prayer and fasting of Esther and Mordecai with their friends but sadly later agreed on under Hitler at the Wannsee Conference in Berlin February 1942.

Because the King gave Haman such great authority he wrote a letter: Esther 3:13 "And the letters were sent by couriers into all the kings provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day". The spirit which stands behind the Nazi movement is also now behind the fundamentalist Moslems. Their declared goal is the total annihilation of the Jewish state and the people.

I do not believe that the Holocaust was God's intention and if something like this would happen again it would be related to the tragic state of the church, which is sleeping for the bigger part again. Since there are many and clear approvals for a newly growing Anti-Semitism and Racism we need to wake up. We are called as Christians to stand with the first covenant people of God.

We Christians often have a strange attitude when it comes to fighting against something. We are taught to love our enemies and to love all people, but not the powers that are behind these people. The question is, how to fight these spirits standing behind these people and their ideology. Often the military can not get a hold of this terrorist, because they work together with spiritual powers. This can explain also why some leaders of the main Terror organisations are able to hide for so many years. It doesn't seem to be possible to find some of the famous leaders of these terror groups. It is firstly a spiritual prayer battle in intersession and it is a vital and real call from God to the Body of Christ.

Esther 4: 3 "As Mordecai and the other Jews heard about this new law that Haman made in the name of the King, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

The Jewish people responded like the people in Nineveh. As Esther tells Mordecai how little she can do, he gives her an answer which is also very important for us as the Body of Christ in the nations.

Esther 4:13- 14, "And Mordecai said them as an answer to Esther: Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews. For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

This word from Mordecai is a very prophetic word from God for the whole church today. If we keep completely silent today God will send help for Israel from another place but you as a church will perish. In other words you will lose your call to be salt to this world. If the church is only proclaiming what all the whole world considers as being right, then we miss the call from the Lord and our legitimacy in this world. Jesus explained it with the words in Matthew 5, 13 "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men."
In the last years we met for regular days or weeks of prayer and fasting. I believe the Lord will use our times of prayer and fasting and He is preparing us for a time like this. We also should have the courage to call for prayer and fasting meetings even if we are a small group without any program or speaker.

After Esther says she is ready to pay the price we read in Esther 4, 16, "Go gather together all the Jews which are in Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day."

Esther's maidservants in the castle surely were not Jews. We know this because it's written that she did not reveal her identity until that day. Here we see an example of Gentiles, non- Jews, who are willing to stand with the Jews in fasting and prayer for Gods intervention in saving the Jews out of danger of life and destruction.

As Esther and Mordecai started to fast, they did not had any clue how God would answer but they had faith that he would answer. They knew this could cost their lives. After Esther received grace to come before the king and he granted her request to come to her banquet, she felt she needed to wait another day to make her real request. (She felt the idea was right but the timing not.) When the king asked her why he was invited to dinner, she answered:

Esther 5: 8 "If the king regards me with favour and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."

Exactly on that night the stage was prepared and things changed for the good of the Jewish people. The king could not sleep and asked someone to read to him from the king's chronicles. There they found the story about how Mordecai had saved the king's life. It came to his attention that Mordecai was never honoured or rewarded for this act. Also, on the same night, the wickedness of Haman was fully exposed. Haman could not handle the fact that Mordecai was not afraid of him and did not bow down to him. Mordecai's fear of God was much stronger than any fear of man. Haman felt sure, because Esther had again invited him to dinner and he went ahead and at the advice of his wife prepared the gallows for Mordecai. All the evil intents of his heart came into the light. Even in the House of the King they knew, that Haman had prepared a gallows to hang Mordecai:

Esther 7: 9 "Now Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, "Look! The gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good on the king's behalf, is standing at the house of Haman." Then the king said, "Hang him on it!"

So the wickedness of Haman was exposed right away and after that, the King immediately gave order to hang him. Then the king took the ring of authority from Haman and gave the ring to Mordecai and to Esther. Through prayer and fasting the whole situation was changed and turned over. As it happened, also through the prayers of Daniel, supported by his fasting it released a fight in the heavenly places and ushered in a new time of restoration return of the Jewish people. Only during the time of fasting by Esther, Mordechai and their friends, God revealed His plan how this evil power could be broken and overthrown, which wanted to destroy and annihilate the whole Jewish people. Only in this complete dependence on God, He turned the fate to the good for the Jewish people. Esther asked for the revoking of Haman's law.

Esther 8: 5 "If it pleases the king, she said, and if he regards me with favour and thinks it is the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman, son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the kings provinces." This legitimate request was never fully answered by the king. The reason for it is in Esther 8: 8 "Now write another decree in the king's name, in behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal it with the king's signet ring-for no document written in the king's name can be revoked."

This law was never revoked, the king only gave Esther the right to declare a new law, in his name, which gave the Jews the right of self-defence towards their enemies. Even this right of Israel's self-defence is today strongly opposed by many nations. When Israel is targeting known terrorists before they are able to carry out their acts of terror , criticism is coming from many nations.

Maybe the Lord is calling today for a revoking of this law against the Jews, which Haman put in place and which was sealed with the king's ring. We know and can come in our prayers in the name of a greater king, JESUS, who has been given power over heaven and earth. He sealed His authority with His own suffering and death.

This turning point brought the fear of the Lord to many people also from the nations. Esther 8:17 "And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them." This means that people of the nations turned to the true God of Israel, because there was no other people at that time who had a revelation of the true God.

It is interesting that Mordecai and Esther are from the tribe of Benjamin and from the house of Kish. This was the family of king Saul, the house of Kish. Esther got an opportunity from God at a later point in time to put things right in bringing the judgment of God over the people of Amalek. Today our fight is not against flesh and blood or any nation, but against evil powers who try to rule over whole nations. By the grace of the Lord, God is giving us an opportunity today to stand with His chosen people, knowing that we and our forefathers have missed it before and brought bloodguilt over our nations. Esther understood that the judgment of God over the house of Haman needed to be completed.

Esther 9:13-14: Then Esther said, "If it pleases the King, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows. So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons."

Saul had sinned in not putting a ban on the people of Amalek and not killing the Amalekite king Agag. If we as believers from the Nations again leave Israel on her own in the hour of great need, and we say we did not know, we have no excuse, because we do know from history and have to learn from it. We are called by God, to be a blessing, a helper and a comfort to God's chosen people. Isaiah 40, 1" Comfort, comfort My people ! Says your God."

Essay on The Kingdom Of God

Bill Somers

2 covenants, 2 kingdoms, 2 churches.

After Jesus' return mentioned in Rev 19-20 we see that the saints will reign with him for 1000 years. Because of this it is commonly assumed that this is the beginning of the millennial kingdom. [When I say commonly assumed, that means that I'm going to disagree with it.]

Note that here people are identifying the millennium with the kingdom.

But recall that earlier in Rev we are told that he has taken his power and reigned. When does the kingdom come? Rev 12 or Rev 20?

If it comes with the return, as in rev 20, that would be in a fashion that all could see. But in the gospels he has told us that the kingdom comes without observation. So it must come as spoken of in Rev 12. If you read carefully in Rev 20 it says the saints reign with him. Perhaps this is a point where they begin to reign with him, but He has been reigning from some time earlier. But the saints that overcome and endure to the end are those who are invited to sit in his throne. [It's the most backslidden Laodicean type saints who are offered this greatest reward.]

He begins His reign, in full and the 1000 year kingdom with the outpouring of the Spirit when he comes as the latter rain. The kingdom is within his people's hearts as they give him full authority and obedience. They will follow the Lamb wherever he goes [Rev 13] because they will be willing in the day of His power. [Ps. 110}

Let's consider what exactly the kingdom is to try and see when it comes.

In Revelation, The Passover Key [Destiny Image 1991] Dan Juster writes :

> Wherever the rule of God is manifested, whether in healing, deliverance from demons, healing family relationships or starting an alternative school system, we see a manifestation of the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God came in the ministry of Jesus and continues to be shown in the ministry of the Church and of believers who affect every area of life. Hence the Gospel of the Kingdom is the good news of the opportunity to come under the rule of God and to see every area of life impacted by the power and principles of God. [page ix]
> Through the ministry of Jesus and the apostles, and through the Church today, the Kingdom of God has broken into this age. The Kingdom of God truly came in Jesus. However, it came partially. The Kingdom is already here in one sense, yet not here in others. This "already but not yet" dynamic will typify this age until the return of Jesus. Whenever we see a body healed or a marriage restored by the power of God, there is the Kingdom. However, the full coming of the Kingdom rule over all the earth, as was the hope of the prophets, awaits the return of Jesus. [page x]

Here he is talking about the kingdom being here but not yet. It reminds me that it is said he hath put all things under his feet, but we do not yet see it.

The kingdom that is here is seen in the ministry of Jesus, the apostles and the church. The kingdom to come or the full coming of the Kingdom awaits.

The kingdom is here in as much as the King is here. For those that earnestly seek him, he has never left. He has promised to be with us always.

Yet the kingdom of darkness is present also as there is a world system 'under the sway of the wicked one'. Darkness over the world and gross darkness in the hearts of people. How can both coexist? Just as wheat and tares in the same field.

One scriptural example is that of Athaliah. This wicked queen [a type of satan] reigned in Jerusalem for 6 years. Yet all during that time, the true king lived in Jerusalem too! But it was not until the beginning of the 7th year that he took up his power and overthrew her. [He was waiting for a certain level of maturity.]

Another example is that of Adonijah, a son of David [and type of anti-Christ]. Adonijah proclaimed himself king at the same time Solomon was anointed king. After a short struggle, where a fair number of David's men aligned themselves with Adonijah, Solomon prevailed, and proceeded to purify his realm.

But here we're talking about the kingdom of darkness vs. the kingdom of light. Let's get back to the Kingdom of God as seen so far and the Kingdom of God in full. What are the various possible definitions? And what does the Bible say?

The kingdom of God is wherever God is King. I often use this short definition to show that the kingdom comes when you make him king of your heart. So that way it comes 'without observation'. [In Jesus earthly ministry, He proclaimed the Kingdom was at hand because He is the King.]

Yet many of the kingdom parables describe something quite different. The story of the vineyard and wicked vinedressers, the three loaves made with leaven, the 'treelike, towering mustard plant, filled with demonic types, and others speak of a kingdom where clearly God does not rule. What's the catch?

With that in mind I'll modify the definition to state that the Kingdom is wherever God is supposed to be King. This can be where there is a small measure of God's power demonstrated, and a small measure of obedience rendered to the King. And these parables of the partial or flawed kingdom clearly speak of Old Testament times and conditions. So the partial Kingdom didn't begin with the ministry of Jesus, but it has been here all along.

It has been with God's people all along. It's found in scripture wherever God had dealings with men. It's found wherever God had a people. And all through the bible God has had some people, a remnant with whom he had a covenant, that is promises he made to them.

So the various covenants that scholars speak of means he has had this kingdom all along. These include covenants with Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, and the Children of Israel in general. We can sum them up in what is known as the Old covenant.

So What is the Kingdom of God?

The Kingdom of God is:

a. wherever God is King
b. wherever God is supposed to be King
c. wherever he has a covenant people
d. wherever God's power is at work or manifests.
e. all the above.

The Kingdom is wherever he has a covenant people; there he is supposed to be King whether they are obedient or not. The Kingdom Comes in Fullness [completion] when he truly does reign in the hearts of his covenant people. And it is seen when He is revealed in his people. [The Revelation of Jesus Christ.]

There is a promise of a new covenant where the stony heart is removed and replaced by a heart of flesh. It's a covenant where his laws are written in/on our hearts, where He is Lord of all our heart. And it's where His love fills our hearts to the point of overflowing like rivers of living water gushing forth.

Is this the New Testament of the new testament church that we see in our day?

Even though we speak of the church beginning with the New Testament, i. e. New Covenant, this church is really still under the law. Old Testament Israel is a type and picture of the New Testament Church. We have repeated all the sin, error and idolatry of Judaism, as the things that happened to them are the examples of what has happened to us. And likewise the judgment that came on Judaism is a prophecy of the Judgment that needs begin at the House of God.

We claim that we're not under the law. If so then we must be under the spirit. But however much we claim to be under the spirit, it remains to be seen. [In other words, show me the money - show me the fruit of the spirit.] And isn't that what the world is wanting to see. Show me the Fruit of the Spirit, and then I'll take you seriously.

The New Covenant is here with the Blood of Jesus and The Baptism of the Holy Ghost. But it's not yet in full. We are told that we have an 'earnest' of the spirit. That's like a down payment, or a token, a measure of the spirit.

The Old covenant is the law. It could not, and cannot produce the fullness of the kingdom anymore than the blood of bulls can bring forgiveness of sin. The Law can bring only death. It yields dead religion, dead Judaism, dead Christianity, dead faith without works, a dead fig tree, cursed because if produces no fruit.

The New Covenant was promised in New Testament times but still waits the promise of the father. The New Covenant is the Life Giving Spirit. It's not just the down payment, sample of or demo of the spirit. It's the Spirit without measure.

> Mt 8:23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.
> Ps 119:130 ¶ The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.
> Zec 4:6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

Conclusion

So the first Kingdom is a potential one. It's derived from and it corresponds to the Old Covenant. It's typified by the Law. God's presence and power are seen, but his people's allegiance to Him is spotty. These people are God's covenant people in old testament times and throughout the 'church age' till now.

The second Kingdom is the Full Kingdom. It comes from and corresponds to the New Covenant. It's typified by Grace. Where the law was not able, grace is sufficient. God's presence and power are seen and demonstrated in a peculiar people who show forth his praise. These people are God's covenant people in the end times, the saints who endure to the end and overcome by death to self and by obedience unto death. From the time of Pentecost onward, the two have overlapped. Eventually the old will pass away.

Another Scriptural parallel

In First Corinthians chapter 13 we can see, if we look with prophetic eyes, the transition to the New Covenant typified. He calls it a 'more excellent way'. Up to that point in First Corinthians we witness the spirit addressing the problems found in a church under the law. They are disputes, divisions, all manner of pride, strife, abuse and contention. The church seen in First Corinthians is a real mess.

But the more excellent way is that of Love. When he speaks of the love of the father 'shed abroad' in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, it's the result of receiving the Spirit 'without measure' [a condition equal to 'Christ being formed in you' or 'Christ in you']. References to maturity found in chapter 13 should tell us that this is the maturity spoken of in Ephesians. That is the 'measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ'.

What does it take to produce the bride without spot or wrinkle of Ephesians 5:27 The washing of the water of the word [Eph 5:26] is the Revelation of Jesus Christ to the bride that enables the Revelation of Jesus Christ in the bride. It's the completion of the mystery of God.

Another clue is found in the mention of Tychicus in Eph 6:21-22. He is a type of the Holy Spirit.

In Second Corinthians you can see, in allegory, the transition to the New Covenant completed. Here the Holy Spirit is typified by Titus. And the Later Day outpouring of the Spirit is seen in 'the coming of Titus' and the results of his ministry. Look at the description of the Corinthian church once Titus has done his work.

> 2Co 7:9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.
> 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.
> 11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

Truly this is a picture of the mature church. [You can also see her as the woman in Proverbs 31.]

Establishing the Kingdom

So contrary to what some may say, [another disagreement here], the church does not establish the kingdom [the full kingdom]. When the church gets right it becomes the kingdom.

> Mt 8:23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him..

And then she proclaims the Kingdom.

Moses tried to deliver Israel by his own strength and failed. He had to wait in the desert 40 years till the time was right. When he returned the people willingly followed him. This is a type and an allegory; it set a pattern.

Jesus tried to be about his father's work at age 12 but had to submit to his parents. When the time came and the power of the spirit was given without measure he began to proclaim the kingdom was at hand. This was a demo of God's power and also an allegory.

The church has tried and tried in her own strength for 2000 years and failed. [Like the first two days of the war against Benjamin.]

When the fullness of time comes, under the last days outpouring we are about to have, the types will be fulfilled. We'll see a church empowered by the Spirit, doing the will of the Father, and laying down their lives for the brethren.

It will proclaim that Our God Reigns. It will walk in righteousness, peace and Joy of the Holy Ghost. That's the Kingdom of God!

MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH

As prompted by Holy Spirit to finish work now on a series of End Time dreams that I received from Lord Jesus beginning August 1, 1989, most these indexed dreams are a series that I've kept filed away in a binder. As I received each dream, I typed it out and filed it away. The dreams kept coming but I received no instruction on what I was supposed to do with them. In due course, through Holy Spirit's prompting, I finally began to post the dreams on the Web in November 1997 to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

Seven and a half years have gone by, and I now bring to a close my work on these "binder" dreams for the glory of Lord Jesus. I have waited on both Him and Holy Spirit to guide me, and to reveal the interpretations to the dreams. I have also kept myself immersed in the Word of God to confirm each dream.

The themes in these dreams address the following: exhortation comfort warnings revelation of end times judgment nuclear destroyed scenes the Rapture the sleeping Saints Hell "hirelings / wolves" in sheep's clothing, threats to the five-fold ministry — backsliding harlotry sin in the Church Jacob's troubles false prophets lukewarm Saints apostasy. About two thirds of the files are lengthy in content, and the reader is hereby informed that there is much reading AS WELL AS MUCH, MUCH SCRIPTURE REFERENCE to look up. I encourage the reader to read each dream file with a Bible in hand so as to look up God's Word for confirmation, instruction, exhortation, revelation, peace, joy, hope, strength, and comfort.

In some of the interpretations and commentaries I have stressed the extreme importance and necessity of Holy Spirit's absolute control in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. From my personal experience, I could never have accomplished the intense work on each of these dreams and articles without His help. I have sought Him on a personal level, and have continued an ongoing dialog (conversing) with Him for almost twenty years. (You might say, I "pray" to Him.) I've learned to become sensitive to His "promptings" and His own special and amazing ways of revealing Himself to me. Some time ago I mentioned this to a pastor, and his immediate rebuttal was, "That is totally unscriptural. Don't do it. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to pray to the Holy Spirit."

Saints of God, prayer is "talking" to God. Holy Spirit is the Third Person of the Holy Trinity. HOLY SPIRIT IS GOD! (Acts 5:3-4) [Read Acts 5:1-11]

I shall never be able to thank that pastor enough for his comments that immediately compelled me to become even more intense in becoming intimate with Holy Spirit, learning to dialog with, follow after, walk in, operate in, flow in, and obey Holy Spirit, and not the flesh. Lord Jesus declared, "…but you KNOW HIM, for He dwells WITH you and will be IN you." (Jn. 14:17 NKJV) I KNOW Holy Spirit because He is A PERSON Who is WITH me, and is IN me. If He speaks to me in His ways, then I can certainly talk to Him in my way. I have sought the same intimacy with Him that I have with Father

God and Lord Jesus. Therefore, the result of all these dreams' work is by the ongoing active presence of Holy Spirit in my life and in my calling as a "prophet of dreams." Besides an ongoing dialog with Him, I also arrived at my spiritual and intimate walk with Holy Spirit due to my perpetual reading and intense study of the Word. Without revelation of the Word with Holy Spirit's help, and understanding of Holy Spirit's authored and inspired Word (2Tim. 3:16), I could never have entered into this type of intimate experience. Lord Jesus has all the while been in ABSOLUTE CONTROL.

My personal testimony on God's call upon my life is documented in HARLOT CHURCH — http://www.etpv.org/2004/harch.html where I detail how in 1975 God spoke to me in a dream, calling me to repentance. That dream still burns within me today, and with the I AM IN CONTROL dream they both remain the most awesome of all the dreams I've ever dreamt. After that first dream in 1975, two more dreams followed that made the most dramatic change and lasting powerful impact in my life. A year later I embraced Jesus as my Savior and Lord.

Right after I became Born Again, for years I received a steady stream of dreams that guided my spiritual and personal life. In one of those dreams, I was about to receive communion on the outdoor steps of a cathedral from a priest. As I opened my mouth to receive the host, the priest was suddenly drawn away, as though sucked back into the church while I heard a Man's Voice say, "Read the Bible." I then turned around and seemed to be suspended about 1,000 feet in the air. I looked throughout at a "sea of humanity" of every race and different ages. They all reached up with their frantic waving arms toward me, seeming desperate for something. Later, I came to understand that I was being instructed to equip myself with the Word of God in my heart to minister Lord Jesus to many of the world as well as to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to Bill Somers, Host of END TIME PROPHETIC VISION, http://www.etpv.org/, for his kind and gracious help in many ways in helping me bring these dreams and articles as well as the I AM IN CONTROL graphs to Lord Jesus' Church. I had often wondered what I was going to do with these dreams. Little did I know that Lord Jesus through Holy Spirit had prepared Bill's Web site to post these dreams to His Saints. I continue to be amazed at the awesomeness of God's blessings and provisions to His children. Bill began his Web site in 1996, and a year later I was led to him yes, by Holy Spirit and to his Web forum where Lord Jesus' dreams could be posted to His Church. "Thank you, Bill you precious and most dear and wonderful Saint of God! May God truly bless you for your labor for Lord Jesus and to His Church."

By now, there have been many questions and inquiries about who I am. My brief bio-sketch is as follows:

Age: 67 Born Again: 8/30/76 Baptized in the Holy Spirit: 10/11/76 Married 35 years
Homemaker. I tend to my husband's debilitating illness full time, and have no time to spend on the computer answering e-mails. My humble apologies to whoever has tried or would like to get in touch with me.

Finally, my prayer is that "none should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2Pet. 3:9), "Nor there is no salvation in any other [except Jesus Christ], for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

End Time Dreams Index REVISED

Celia Rose Okhuysen (USA)

[REVISED: September 11, 2005 While in prayer a few weeks ago, I asked Lord Jesus if there were any further postings to do before He calls me Home in the Rapture. The very first thing next morning, Holy Spirit strongly and clearly impressed upon me that I was to write an added amplification about Himself as His anointing would instruct for insertion into this Index. It is a strong message to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and I am yielded to obey Holy Spirit. I have therefore inserted His amplification between the two <=========> dividing lines. I have also added two later postings at the end of this Index under ADDENDUM.]

MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH

As prompted by Holy Spirit to finish work now on a series of End Time dreams that I received from Lord Jesus beginning August 1, 1989, most of these indexed dreams are a series that I've kept filed away in a binder. As I received each dream, I typed it out and filed it away. The dreams kept coming but I received no instruction on what I was supposed to do with them. In due course, through Holy Spirit's prompting, I finally began to post the dreams on the Web in November 1997 to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

Seven and a half years have gone by, and I now bring to a close my work on these binder dreams FOR THE GLORY OF LORD JESUS CHRIST. I have waited on both Him and Holy Spirit to guide me, and to reveal the interpretations to these dreams. I have also kept myself in prayer and immersed in the Word of God to confirm each dream.

The themes in these dreams address the following: exhortation comfort warnings revelation of end times judgment nuclear destroyed scenes the Rapture the sleeping Saints Hell "hirelings / wolves" in sheep's clothing, threats to the five-fold ministry — backsliding harlotry sin in the Church Jacob's troubles false prophets lukewarm Saints apostasy. About two thirds of the files are lengthy in content, and the reader is hereby informed that there is much reading AS WELL AS MUCH, MUCH SCRIPTURE REFERENCE to look up. I encourage the reader to read each document WITH A BIBLE in hand so as to look up God's Word for confirmation, instruction, exhortation, revelation knowledge, peace, joy, hope, strength, inspiration, and comfort. [Bolded, capped, underlined and bracket emphases in the NKJV scriptures are mine.]

In some of the dream commentaries I have stressed the extreme importance and necessity of Holy Spirit's absolute control in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. From my personal experience, I could never have accomplished the intense work on each of these dreams and articles without His help. I have sought Him on a personal level, and have continued an ongoing dialog (conversing) with Him for over twenty years. (You might say, I "pray" to Him.) I've learned to become sensitive to His "promptings" and His own special and amazing ways of revealing Himself to me. Some time ago I mentioned this to a pastor, and his immediate rebuttal was, "That is totally unscriptural. Don't do it. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to pray to the Holy Spirit." I shall never be able to thank that pastor enough for his comment that immediately compelled me to become even more determined to seek after and become intimate with Holy Spirit, learn to dialog with, follow after, walk in, operate in, flow in, and obey Holy Spirit and not the flesh. Lord Jesus declared, "…but you KNOW HIM, for He dwells WITH YOU and will be IN YOU" (Jn. 14:17). I KNOW Holy Spirit because He is A PERSON Who is WITH me, and is IN me. How can He remain a stranger to me if He dwells IN me? (Think about it.) He speaks to me in His way and I talk to Him in my way. I have sought the same intimacy with Him that I have with Father God and Lord Jesus. Therefore, the result of all these dreams' work is by the ongoing active presence of Holy Spirit in my life and in my calling as a "prophet of dreams." Besides an ongoing dialog with Him, I also arrived at my spiritual and intimate walk with Holy Spirit through my perpetual reading and intense study of the Word. Without revelation of the Word through Holy Spirit's help, and without understanding that it is Holy Spirit's authored and inspired Word (2Tim. 3:16), I could never have entered into this type of intimate experience with Him. LORD JESUS HAS ALL THE WHILE REMAINED IN "ABSOLUTE CONTROL."

Saints of God, prayer is "talking" to God. HOLY SPIRIT IS GOD! (Acts 5:3-4) He is the third PERSON of the Holy Trinity. A song sung throughout the universal Church of Lord Jesus is entitled, "HOLY, HOLY, HOLY." Some of the lyrics are as follows: "Holy, Holy, Holy, all the Saints adore thee…God in Three PERSONS, Blessed Trinity." Why just sing about it and not live and practice the reality of that Truth?

The GREATEST FAILURE in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth throughout Her over two thousand years' presence on earth has been to not seek the same intimacy with Holy Spirit which She has with Father God and Lord Jesus. Teaching on intimacy with Holy Spirit has been sadly lacking in the five-fold ministry which Lord Jesus "…Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body [the Church] of Christ*…"* (Eph. 4:11,12).

Throughout the Church Age Age of Grace no teaching has existed on surrendering oneself as a willing vessel as well as his/her ministry to the CONTROL of God the Holy Spirit. Had it existed, that dynamic teaching would have flowed through the universal Body of Christ throughout the ages, and She would be quite a different Presence on earth today. When surrendering to God, one surrenders to Father God, to Lord Jesus and to Holy Spirit, all Who are God the Holy Trinity! Thusly, the Church of Lord Jesus has sadly remained weak in Her relationship with Holy Spirit by failing to universally "WALK and OPERATE in the Spirit."

[Clarification: Several years ago as I prayerfully sought and pursued a desired intimacy with Holy Spirit wanting to know Him personally I was stunned to receive "a quickening with a pierced understanding" in my spirit that I was to refer to Him without "the" as a preface to His name. In other words, I now know, think of, and refer to Him as just "Holy Spirit" and not "the" Holy Spirit. (I do not refer to familiar persons with "the" before their names. For example, when I refer to my friends John or Mary I do not refer to them as "the" John or "the" Mary. I know them personally because they are my intimate friends, and thus I correctly refer to them just as John or Mary. Likewise, I do not preface Lord Jesus and Father God with "the." I know them intimately and personally.)

This immediately dissolved a confused aloofness (remoteness) within me toward Holy Spirit. As I began to address Him personally as just "Holy Spirit" I began to receive a secure warmth and release in my spirit. I became totally yielded to Him and also began to enjoy a sense of familiarity and growing intimacy with Him that I had not experienced before. In or aside from prayer I also began to "hear" Him through "stronger" promptings urgings in my spirit that have greatly encouraged me to operate unrestricted while "flowing" freely in my spiritual walk. I prayerfully share this tribute to Holy Spirit with the Church of Lord Jesus to help Her understand that a cool and confused aloofness will only continue between Her and Holy Spirit until She begins to address and treat Him as a Person, and with the same reverence and intimacy that She has with Father God and Lord Jesus.]

Throughout the ages, Holy Spirit has been looked upon as A SPIRITUAL TRUST FUND set up by Lord Jesus for His Church before His return to Glory (Jn. 17:5, 13 Acts 1:9-11). Power (Acts 1:4-8), anointing [calling] for ministering in the Offices' ministry (Eph. 4:11, 12) and in the Gifts (1Cor. 12:1-11) were given for service to God and to the Church while She walked in the fuits (Gal. 5:22, 23 Eph. 5:9), as well as for spiritual warfare (Eph. 6:12-17) and victorious living (1Jn. 5:4, 5). Holy Spirit has been looked to only for impartation of His anointing for ministry in the Offices and Gifts as well as for power, service, help, fruits, inspiration, revelation knowledge, teaching, counseling, guidance, wisdom, discernment, humility, brokenness, strength, boldness, fire (zeal) and comfort, but has never been sought after personally and intimately. Saints of God, Holy Spirit should be desired and yearned after, LOVED, adored, honored, praised, glorified, worshipped, obeyed and cherished. (Does anyone actually question just where all THAT is found in Scripture? I repeat: Holy Spirit is GOD (Acts 5:4). He is the author of the Word through His anointing upon the writers. Should He have had to "spell" this truth out to the Church? Should He have exalted Himself?)

Holy Spirit has been looked upon only as a SOURCE of spiritual Help. He has never been thought of and sought after as a PERSON. Here lies divergence (the offending difference) that leads to an impersonal rather than a personal relationship with Him. Throughout the ages Holy Spirit should have been intimately pursued by the Church, and not treated as an "impersonal and indifferent administrator" (corruptly interpreted as "it" in "itself" as in Rom. 8:16, 26 in the KJV Bible until "Himself" was correctly substituted in the NKJV Bible) bearing the anointing. He is Father God's and Lord Jesus' REPRESENTATIVE to the Church (Jn. 14:16-18, 26; 15:26; 16:7). He is the EXECUTIVE of God on earth to carry on the work that Jesus "began both to do and teach" (Acts 1:1). [See Acts 1:2-8; 5:9; 10:19; 11:12; 13:2-4; 15:28; 16:6; 20:28; 21:4-11 1Cor. 2:9-14; 12:1-30 2Cor. 3:8 Eph. 2:22; 3:5.] He was SENT by Lord Jesus (Jn. 14:26; 16:7 Lk. 24:49) to administrate (control run manage) His Church. *HE DID NOT LEAVE HER AS AN ORPHAN (Jn. 14:18) TO OPERATE IN THE FLESH. (Gal. 3:3; 5:16)

>> "But when the Helper ["Comforter" KJV] comes, <WHOM I SHALL SEND TO YOU> from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, HE WILL TESTIFY OF ME*"* (Jn. 15:26).

>> "However, when He, the Spirit of truth*, has come,* <HE WILL GUIDE YOU INTO AL-L-L TRUTH>; for He will not speak on His own authority, but WHATEVER HE HEARS HE WILL SPEAK; and He will tell you things to come. HE WILL GLORIFY ME, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that HE WILL TAKE OF MINE AND DECLARE IT TO YOU*"* (Jn. 16:13-15).

"Whatever He hears He will speak…" Holy Spirit declares Lord Jesus' words, and speaks through yielded and ANOINTED Saints of God WHATEVER LORD JESUS GIVES HIM TO SPEAK. Therefore, Holy Spirit is to administrate be in CONTROL in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth not the flesh.

How much more clearly does this have to be spelled out to Lord Jesus' Church? Why does confusion on this subject continue to reign in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth? ANSWER: the flesh.

The Church remains weak in power to overcome Satan's endless attacks, temptations, torments, harassments, deceptions, schemes, persecutions, and afflictions because of Her lack of intimacy and surrender to the One Whom Lord Jesus SENT to minister anointing and power in His absence (Acts 1:8). John the Baptist declared, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me…WILL <BAPTIZE> YOU WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT AND FIRE" (Mat. 3:11). [See Isa. 42:1]

To have Holy Spirit in Lord Jesus enter and indwell the Believer the Church (1Cor. 12:13) at the time of the new birth is one thing, but to be filled* with Holy Spirit and anointed for ministry, and empowered for service, witnessing and spiritual warfare is an entirely different thing. The moment one is baptized with the Holy Spirit is the moment when He fills (unfastens Himself *unfolds and expands Himself within) the Saint with HIS power, ANOINTING, boldness and fire for ministry and service as well as for spiritual warfare. He has already been i-n-d-w-e-l-l-i-n-g the Believer, but now He gets underway and ANOINTS the Saints yielded to Him. This was evidenced in Lord Jesus when He was BAPTIZED* [filled] *WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT (Mt. 3:16) by John the Baptist (His cousin), who had already been filled (baptized) with the Holy Spirit by God in his mother's womb (Lk. 1:13-15; 3:16, 22). THEN, and only then, did Lord Jesus begin his ministry NOT BEFORE He was baptized with the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:13-17 Lk. 4:1, 14, 15, 18, 19 Isa. 61:1). [See also Acts 10:38]

[NOTE: Shortly after I was Born Again, I asked a man of God, "How may I serve God?" His reply was brief: "BE WILLING." I then told Lord Jesus that I WAS WILLING to do anything He called me to do FOR HIS GLORY*. In His loving faithfulness, through Holy Spirit He* called and anointed me, and I have remained obedient to His "call" twenty-nine years. I quickly learned to "count the cost," and have never looked back because in the Word I learned that I could do ALL things through Christ Who strengthens me Phil. 4:13. <JESUS NEVER FAILS>]

As God, Son of the Holy Living God of Israel, Lord Jesus was spotless (Heb. 9:14), was the unblemished Lamb (1Pet. 1:18, 19), and was without sin (Heb. 4:15). ("I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance…" (Mt. 3:11). However, THAT LORD JESUS WAS BAPTIZED IN WATER FOR REPENTANCE OF SIN IS COMPLETELY OUT OF THE QUESTION. *Lord Jesus was BAPTIZED (filled) with the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:16) as symbolized with the likeness of a "flaming" dove that descended and "LIGHTED" upon Him.

Mt. 3:16 KJV: "…and he <SAW THE SPIRIT> of God descending like a dove*, and* lighting upon Him."

The word lighting is defined by Webster's Dictionary as follows: "A flame for lighting something; to make or become light; to cause to burn; burn; to conduct with a light; illuminate."

Mt. 3:16 NKJV: "…and He <SAW THE SPIRIT> of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him."

The word alighting is defined by Webster's Dictionary as follows: "to come to rest from the air; land; perch; lighted up."

>> "The SPIRIT of the Lord SHALL <REST> UPON HIM, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge AND OF THE FEAR OF THE LORD" (Isa. 11:2).

From the Greek "KHRISTOS" we get the name "CHRIST." [In Hebrew: "MESSIAH."] The English translation (meaning) of "KHRISTOS" is <ANOINTED>. Lord Jesus, Himself, declared in Lk. 4:18, "…He has ANOINTED Me…" [Isa. 42:1; 61:1] AFTER He had been baptized (filled)* with the Holy Spirit in Lk. 3:21, 22 (Mt. 3:16) and not before.

>> DO WE NOT CALL OURSELVES "CHRISTIANS" "ANOINTED ONES?" <<

If Lord Jesus needed to be baptized (filled) with the Holy Spirit for ministry "ANOINTED" (Lk. 4:18 Acts 10:38) why not His Church? HE IS THE HEAD OF THE CHURCH. The Church IS His Body (Col. 1:18, 24 Eph. 1:22, 23). Lord Jesus is to be IN CONTROL of His Body BY

HOLY SPIRIT! (Acts 1:5, 8) Lord Jesus' tender love and compassions fail not, and His tender mercies are unceasing. However, one cannot help but wonder just how grieved He has been about the DISREGARD of Holy Spirit's rightful AUTHORITY and CONTROL in His Church throughout the Age of Grace. (He specifically instructed His disciples today's Church to not begin witnessing until they were BAPTIZED with the Holy Spirit Acts 1:4, 5, 8).

Due to the lack of teaching, the universal Church of Lord Jesus has neglected OR avoided to be filled BAPTIZED with the Holy Spirit of God and has been GRIEVING (Eph. 4:30) and QUENCHING (extinguishing) (1Thes. 5:19) the FIRE and POWER of the Holy Spirit of God throughout the Church Age.

To be BAPTIZED with the Holy Spirit is to be FILLED and equipped with anointing for ministry, and power for service, witnessing, winning souls, discipling, healing (Acts 1:8), and spiritual warfare. (1Cor. 12:27, 28 Eph. 6:10-18 2Cor. 10:4-6 2Tim. 2:4)

[NOTE: Semantics (the study of meanings in language) in explaining baptized and filled enter here, but through prayer not confused debate for Holy Spirit's help in studying the Word and understanding how He indwells, fills, anoints (calls), empowers, activates, flows, ministers and operates according to the scriptures, the cloud (blur; confusion) will lift on how Holy Spirit is to be yielded to, as well as surrendered to HIS anointing*, to HIS operation,* and to HIS total control.]

Among other Scriptural accounts, interesting and definitive Scriptures that illustrate how the Christian is to "flow" in the Spirit are found in Acts 8:26-40. In the Old Testament, the Book of Ezekiel graphically illustrates how Holy Spirit entered this prophet (2:2); lifted him up (3:12; 8:3; 11:1); fell upon him (11:5); took him up (11:24); and brought him out in visions (11:24; 37:1). Why not in today's Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth?

>> "Not by might nor by power, BUT BY MY SPIRIT," says the Lord of hosts (Zech. 4:6).

Holy Spirit operates through the anointed <CALLED> vessels that are to minister in their appointed Offices of Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers (Eph. 4:11, 12). HOLY SPIRIT <ACTIVATES > [turns on sets in motion] THE ANOINTING TO MINISTER NOT THE SAINT (Acts 1:8). The anointing of these Offices never shuts down. It is always in action.

Other Saints are appointed to serve through a <MOMENTARY IMPARTED ANOINTING> when Holy Spirit operates AT WILL any of the nine Gifts listed in 1Cor. 12:1-11: revelation gifts word of wisdom, word of knowledge, discerning of spirits; power gifts faith, healing, miracles; inspiration gifts prophecy, tongues, interpretation of tongues.

GOD IS ALWAYS IN CONTROL IN THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF NAZARETH THROUGH HIS HOLY SPIRIT. (Acts 8:14-17; 9:17, 18; 19:6)

CONCLUSIVELY, the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth is to be a light in the dark (Mt. 5:14 Eph. 5:8), and is commanded to preach the Gospel to the world, win souls, heal, and do spiritual warfare (Mk. 16:15-18). The Church is also to walk in faith and to defend the Faith. The Saint of God is endued with power from on high to operate, serve, witness, and do battle with the sword of the Spirit the Word of God while emerging victoriously (2Cor. 10:3 Eph. 6:10-18). THE SAINT <LABORS> TO DO SERVICE, AND ENGAGES IN SPIRITUAL WARFARE NOT HOLY SPIRIT.

As for the Saint who has been baptized with the Holy Spirit, it is not enough for you to proclaim that you <HAVE> the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and pray in tongues. The fundamental question is this: DOES HOLY SPIRIT <HAVE> YOU? Does He have control of you as a holy vessel of God through whom He now flows and operates, and accomplishes HIS holy works in and through you for the glory of God? Do you know what God's actual call is on your life? The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is not to be boasted about, displayed (showed off) or treated as a spiritual status symbol. Spiritual pride hinders and quenches HUMBLE SERVICE THAT IS TO GLORIFY AND EXALT GOD (Jas. 4:7, 10) not the flesh (Gal. 6:7, 8).

It has been unmistakably and clearly evident throughout the Church Age that the Holy Spirit of God has NOT had CONTROL of the worldwide Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Otherwise, the world would be more spiritually enlightened because of the Sovereign Presence of the "Light unto the world" (Mt. 4:16; 5:16 Lk. 1:79; 2:32 Jn. 1:4, 5, 9; 3:19-21; 8:12; 9:5; 12:35, 36, 46 Acts 22:9, 11) and through the fullness of the Word of God being preached, taught, demonstrated, operated, and exercised WITHOUT QUENCHING AND GRIEVING THE AUTHORITY AND OPERATION OF HOLY SPIRIT in the surrendered Church unto Himself. That is not to say that Satan (Acts 26:18) would be standing helplessly on the sidelines without any interference (1Pet. 5:8 Jn. 10:10), but that the Church would be far, far, FAR more spiritual, powerful, BOLD, zealous (blazing aflame) effective, and victorious in Her warfare against Satan through the power of Holy Spirit than She has been for over two thousand years. Her neglect of "WALKING and OPERATING in the Spirit" has caused great confusion as well as much grief, pain, and heresy in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth throughout the ages, while Holy Spirit has been kept stored away OUT OF SIGHT and out of mind. Yet remembered, however, only during worship singing.

Why did Martin Luther dissent (oppose) against the Catholic Church, thus bringing about the Protestant Reformation? Y*et sadly to this day, the flesh still keeps marching on, even in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.* (Gal. 6:7,8)

Due to a lack of passion and zeal in honoring Lord Jesus, there will still be many Saints in the Church of Lord Jesus who will NOT want to yield to Holy Spirit. They are content with their spiritual status quo (existing state), and will not want to press on beyond their comfort zone. THEY DO NOT HAVE A HEART FOR GOD. "Can two walk [intimately] together, unless they are agreed?" (Amos 3:3)

Can both grieving (Eph. 4:30) and quenching (1Thes. 5:19) the Holy Spirit of God qualify as sins? Scripture does not spell this out as such. Only blaspheming Holy Spirit (Mt. 12:31, 32) sends one to Hell no matter how remorseful one becomes. (Study this Scripture.) Yet, how can Holy Spirit be so ignored, neglected, avoided, resisted, overridden, disobeyed, insulted, wronged, quenched and grieved that He would not be deeply hurt, insulted, upset, distressed, ABUSED, snubbed, affronted, offended and perhaps even angered? Yes, even resistance to the point of abandoning Holy Spirit because of PRIDE in one's own "spiritual" works through self appointment and self promotion <ABOVE> the AUTHORITY and CONTROL of the Holy Spirit of the Living God in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. A serious study and meditation on LYING TO HOLY SPIRIT AND ITS REVEALED <CONSEQUENCE> should be done in Acts 5:1-11. He has just as much prominence (importance distinction status) as Father God and Lord Jesus have. Do you not find it interesting that one can blaspheme Father God and Lord Jesus and be forgiven, but there is absolutely no forgiveness regarding the blasphemy of Holy Spirit? (Mt. 12:31, 32) Why is He so exceptional? Does this not stir a conviction in the heart of the Saints that great injustice, negligence and abuse has been done to Holy Spirit throughout the Church Age?

Many in the Body of Christ have "EXALTED" THEMSELVES WITH "SELF APPOINTED" <CALLINGS> WITHOUT "CONFIRMED TESTIMONY" to the Church of Lord Jesus about their <CALLINGS>. (1Cor. 1:26, 29; 2:9-15) The Church remains clueless, confused, and powerless against Satan's attacks and deceptions upon their minds, spirits, souls, flesh, lives, spiritual growth and maturity as well as in their ministries due to WORKS OF THE FLESH operating in the Church.

For example, there are the LARGE-SCALE IMPOSTERS masquerading WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING who have VERY, VERY CAREFULLY learned to *"talk the Talk and walk the Walk as well as many other 'ministers of songs and music' who sing the Songs and play the Music" while all along FLEECING THE FLOCK. (2Tim. 3:1-9) In many instances their songs and music do not leave one in a state of worship and adoration. There is nothing "spiritual" about either their songs or music. (Mt. 6:24)

And THEN there are the many Internet and Mail Order Ordained Ministers' Certificates popularly used for tax dodging purposes (Lk. 20:25) among other uses. Words fail to even touch upon this hypocrisy. The following Web Ordained Ministers site advertises without any scriptural reference to God, Lord Jesus or to Holy Spirit not even one reference to a Scripture! Log on and check out http://www.amfellow.org/ and its DOVE Logo!* Another site leaves one laughing as well as enlightened on this scam. http://deseretnews.com/dn/view/0,1249,595083967,00.html

And THEN there are the "can preach and cannot preach certain Scriptures' guidelines" set forth before pastors by certain denominational Church boards. This glaring practice exposes the WORKS OF THE FLESH. Is this not known as "muzzling (gagging) the ox?" (Deut. 25:4 1Cor. 9:9 1Tim. 5:18) From whence cometh such authority? Where is this taught in Scripture?

FURTHERMORE, IS HOLY SPIRIT <IN CONTROL> OF THE SCHOOLS OF DIVINITY / THEOLOGY THE SEMINARIES? Or need one ask?

IN CONCLUSION: INCREASED ABORTIONS DUE TO INCREASED ADULTRY IN THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF NAZARETH! DOES THE WORD OF GOD POINT A FINGER? (2Sam. 12:1-9 Isa. 48:22) Saints of God, it is written in the Word of God, "YOU SHALL NOT MURDER," and "YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY?" (Ex. 20:13, 14) "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (Heb. 10:31).

>> "IS NOT MY WORD LIKE A FIRE?" (Jer. 23:29)

>> Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is the TEMPLE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT who is IN you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? (1Cor. 6:18, 19)

>> Do you not know that YOU ARE THE TEMPLE OF GOD and that the SPIRIT OF GOD dwells IN you? If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are (1Cor. 3:16, 17).

>> Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness…(1Cor. 4:5).

One may question, "Is the above occurring today in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth?" Without the AUTHORITY and CONTROL of Holy Spirit in Lord Jesus' Church, one can surely believe that it is. Lord Jesus knows, and He alone will judge His Church at His Judgment Seat (2Cor. 5:10).

~~~~~~~~~~~

>> Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity" (2 Tim. 2:19).

~~~~~~~~~~~

And then there are those Saints who are NOT <CALLED> to minister in an Office or to exercise the Gifts but who proudly proclaim and exalt themselves as such, deceitfully PARADING their self "anointing" while strutting around like peacocks in the Church. These pretenders and offenders have become mavericks (rebels lone rangers) working against God's Word. Keeping in mind that those of the world do not address Lord Jesus as "LORD," could this in part be the lawlessness (walking in sin) spoken of by Lord Jesus to His Church in the following Scripture:

~~~~~~~~~~~

>> *"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who DOES THE WILL of my Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' and then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME you who practice LAWLESSNESS' " (Mt. 7:21-23).

>> Whoever commits sin also commits LAWLESSNESS, and SIN IS LAWLESSNESS (1Jn. 3:4).

SPIRITUAL ENVY, DISPUTES, SLANDER, and GOSSIP by many in the Church (Jas. 3:1-18) have become flaming and dangerous restraints as well as stumbling blocks to spiritual growth and maturity in the Body of Christ. (Eph. 4:29 Col. 3:1-17, 23-25 Rom. 7:14-25 2Tim. 2:23-26 1Cor. 3:3) [Give them a crumb of news or gossip and they'll make a BANQUET out of it. " Hear ye, hear ye!"] This continues to hinder victorious Christian living due to the lack of Holy Spirit's CONTROL in the lives of these Saints. This type of behavior does NOT bring HONOR to nor does it GLORIFY God! These Saints carnally and foolishly ignore the Scripture that declares, *"And what does the Lord require of you but to do justly [spiritually, morally, legally right], love mercy [forgive as God in Christ forgave Eph. 4:32], *and to walk humbly [without pride, self-righteousness, unfaithfulness, disobedience, slander, gossip, deceitfulness, haughtiness, pretentiousness] with your God?*" (Micah 6:8) Yes, dear Saints of God, judgment DOES begin in the House of God (1Pet. 4:17). IS IT WELL WITH YOUR SOUL? [Study: Gal. 5:16-26 Jas. 3:13-18 Rom. 8:1-17 Eph. 5:9, 10 1Jn. 4:7-11 Phil. 4:8]

>> "All flesh is grass, and all its loveliness is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, because the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever" (Isa. 40:6-8). [See 1Pet. 1:24]

>> I say then: WALK IN THE SPIRIT, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the SPIRIT, and the SPIRIT against the flesh… (Gal. 5:16,17).

>> *For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the SPIRIT [set their minds on] the things of the SPIRIT…For if you live according to the flesh you will [spiritually] die; but if by the SPIRIT you put to death the deeds of the body, you will [spiritually] live. For as many as are LED BY THE SPIRIT OF GOD, these are the sons of God…The SPIRIT Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God…(Rom. 8:5, 13, 14, 16).

The universal Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth is not walking in FAITHFULNESS, HUMILITY, HOLINESS and OBEDIENCE to God and His Word because She is compromising with, and parading before the world in vain glory, yet behaving as though She is righteous in the sight of God*. (2Chr. 16:9 1Chr. 28:9; 29:17 Jer. 9:23, 24; 16:17; 17:9, 10) She has not been FILLED with Holy Spirit's CONTROL, power and presence to do "anointed" service unto God, and to do spiritual warfare with the enemy through prayer, fasting, and the Word through which she would then emerge VICTORIOUS in the strength of Her Savior, Lord Jesus (Eph. 6:11-12 2Cor.

10:3, 4 Phil. 3:13-15, 20; 4:13). The Church is to be walking in authority through DECLARATION OF THE WORD OF GOD (Eph. 6:17) and in DEMONSTRATION OF THE POWER OF HOLY SPIRIT (Acts 1:5, 8 Gal. 5:25) throughout the world while triumphant against Satan, the adversary of the Church (1Pet. 5:8).

[The reader should do a study of the Holy Spirit of God operating throughout the Book of Acts. Read also Romans 8 where the Spirit is referred to eighteen times, and the flesh twelve times.]

After becoming Born Again (Jn. 3:3-8), many of the Saints of God want to be spoon-fed the Word, and have others pray for them rather than assume responsibility for nourishing themselves with the Word (1Cor. 3:1, 2 Heb. 5:12-14 1Pet. 2:1, 2 Jn. 8:31; 15:7), neglect learning how to pray with help from Holy Spirit, and maturing in Christ-likeness with Holy Spirit's help and zeal. They neglect to exercise strong vigilance against sin through humble DAILY heart searching and repentance before Lord Jesus in prayer (1Jn. 1:7, 9). That is how lukewarm habits set in, which in turn stunt and inhibit spiritual growth while also quenching fellowship and intimacy with their Savior and Lord.

**~~~~~~~~~~~
>> "So then, because you are LUKEWARM…I will spew (VOMIT) you out of My mouth" (Rev. 3:16).
**~~~~~~~~~~~

How does Lord Jesus feel about His Church's disregard of HIM WHOM HE *SENT (Jn. 14:26; 15:26; 16:7 Lk. 24:49) IN HIS PLACE TO ANOINT, EMPOWER, HELP AND COMFORT HER? (The additional scriptures give strong clarification to the misunderstanding of 1Cor. 12:13 by many in the Church Jn. 14:16-18, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15.) Furthermore, how does Lord Jesus feel about His Church's neglect to be baptized (filled) with and empowered by Holy Spirit so as to boldly, obediently, fearlessly, humbly and faithfully fulfill Her CALLING to be strong in the Word (Josh. 1:8, 9) while growing in Her Lord and Savior's likeness, and be victorious in spiritual warfare against Satan? Could today's Church be far more successful in her works and accomplishments? Without intimacy with, and CONTROL BY HOLY SPIRIT in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, how can She be further and totally committed, fearless and triumphant in exalting Lord Jesus in Her witness of Him to the world? (Jn. 12:47-50 Acts 26:15-18) Could Lord Jesus be speaking about this to His Church today? Is He drawing more of the world unto Himself (Jn. 6:44; 12:32) through Holy Spirit's conviction of sin (Jn. 16:8) because His Church is faithfully living for Him and "walking in the Spirit" while also preaching the Word of God, and exercising the sword of the Spirit (Eph. 6:17) with POWER, BOLDNESS, and FIRE*?*

My personal testimony on God's call upon my life is documented in HARLOT CHURCH — http://www.etpv.org/2004/harch.html where I detail how in 1975 God spoke to me in a dream, calling me to repentance. That dream which still burns within me today as well as the I AM IN CONTROL dream, http://www.etpv.org/1999/control.html and http://www.etpv.org/2004/control.html, remain the most awesome of all the dreams I've ever dreamt. After that first dream in 1975, two more dreams followed that made the most dramatic and eternal impact in my life. A year later I embraced Jesus as my Savior and Lord.

Right after I became Born Again, for years I received a steady stream of dreams that guided my spiritual and personal life. In one of those dreams, I was about to receive communion from a priest on the outdoor steps of a cathedral. As I opened my mouth to receive the host, the priest was suddenly drawn away, as though sucked back into the church while I heard a Man's Voice say, "Read the Bible." I then turned around and seemed to be suspended about 1,000 feet in the air. I looked throughout at a "sea of humanity" of every race and different ages. They all reached up, frantically waving their arms toward me while seeming desperate for something. Later, I came to understand that I was being instructed to equip myself with the Word of God in my heart to minister Lord Jesus to many in the dying world as well as to minister to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to Bill Somers, Host of END TIME PROPHETIC VISION, http://www.etpv.org/, for his kind and gracious help in many ways in helping me bring these dreams and articles as well as the I AM IN CONTROL graphs to Lord Jesus' Church. I had often wondered what I was going to do with these dreams. Little did I know that Lord Jesus through Holy Spirit had prepared Bill's Web site to post these dreams to His Church. (I continue to be amazed at the awesomeness of God's blessings and provisions to His children.) Bill began his Web site in 1996, and a year later I was led to his Web forum yes, by Holy Spirit where Lord Jesus' dreams have been posted to His Church. "Thank you, Bill you precious, most dear and wonderful Saint of God! May God truly bless you for your love, faithfulness and labor for Lord Jesus and His Church."

By now, there have been many questions and inquiries about who I am. My brief bio-sketch is as follows:

Age: 68 Born Again: 8/30/76 Baptized in the Holy Spirit: 10/11/76 Married 35 years Homemaker. I tend to my husband's debilitating and painful illness full time, and have NO TIME to spend on the computer answering e-mails. My humble apologies to whoever has tried or would like to get in touch with me. Furthermore, Holy Spirit prompts me to declare and not to debate. In other words, He instructs me on what Lord Jesus gives Him to say to me.

Finally, dear Saints of God, my prayer is that "none should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2Pet. 3:9). "Nor THERE IS NO SALVATION IN ANY OTHER, for there is no other name* [EXCEPT THAT OF JESUS CHRIST] *under heaven given among men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

Entering The Kingdom of God Age

Ron McGatlin

"Why are we still operating in theory of the kingdom instead of the reality."

Jesus spoke much about the kingdom. Indeed the gospel of the kingdom and our part in seeking, entering and experiencing it is the theme of His message. Several people have recently asked me the following question or one similar to it. "Why are we still operating in theory of the kingdom instead of the reality." This is a valid question when viewing Christendom in a collective overall sense. However, not everyone can be included in the "we" in this question. There are maturing kingdom people among us who have entered into the "ruling city" inner portion of the kingdom and are experiencing more than just the theory of the kingdom of God lifestyle.

We are beginning to recognize that there is a progressive journey into the "ruling city" of the kingdom. Not all believers are there yet and there are some extreme difficulties along the journey. There is clear biblical symbolic metaphorical language defining the spiritual territories of the ruling spiritual kingdoms and the journey of passing from one to another.

There are two spiritual kingdoms vying for the heart of man and thereby the dominion of the earth. There is the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. Each kingdom has an inner portion and an outer portion. The inner part is the capital or ruling city of each kingdom. The ruling city of the kingdom of spiritual darkness is spiritual Babylon. The entire kingdom of darkness including the outer portions and all that is under the rule of Babylon can be referred to as the Babylonian Empire or the evil world system. The ruling city of the spiritual kingdom of light is New Jerusalem, The entire kingdom of light including the outer portions and all that is ruled from New Jerusalem is the "Israel of God."

Gal 6:16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

Gal 3:29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

As those who sat in darkness we saw a great light and began to move toward it. At the point we leave darkness and enter the light we have entered the Israel of God (the kingdom). But we are not yet in the ruling city of the kingdom, the New Jerusalem. As we make the journey closer to the bright clear light of New Jerusalem, our imperfections and residue of selfish and religious ways are more visible. Fresh repentance and practical cleansing must occur before we can continue onward in our journey toward the New Jerusalem in which is the fullness of the kingdom that we seek.

There is a short answer to why "we" (some) are still operating in theory instead of reality. The short answer is: Rev 21:27: But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles. No one with a residue of Babylonian religion or selfish sinful ways can enter the ruling city of New Jerusalem. Thus many continue to battle frustrations of seeing the glorious light in "theory" but are yet not able to experience the practical reality of it. Only after having been truly completely cleansed by the process of our own cross of death to self and religious deceptions that were trained into us in Babylon, can we enter the ruling city.

Within the ruling city of New Jerusalem everything is God's way and everyone is in total alignment with His way. There is no personal frustration from any area of lack. There is always enough of everything needed to accomplish the will of God for us at the time. There are no seemingly noble and seemingly worthy works from our own initiatives or religious requirements to be done. We are at total rest in Him and truly will do only what He is doing and there is always enough to do what he is doing.

The New Jerusalem is the purified Bride of Christ. Many are on this journey and are at different points of progress of purification or cleansing from defilements. They are a part of the Body of Christ and have entered the kingdom but have not yet entered the New Jerusalem ruling city. The only reason for anyone who is truly seeking God to not enter New Jerusalem is defilement. The predominant root of defilement is the gods of self and religion. The seed that planted selfish and religious deception is the lack of experiencing the fullness of the love of God in Jesus by the Holy Spirit.

The kingdom is in the Holy Spirit.

Rom 14:17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Luke 17:21 "nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!' For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you."

The kingdom that is to set the standard of rule that changes the rule of the planet from the Babylonian style of the kingdom of darkness to the New Jerusalem style of the kingdom of light is in the Holy Spirit within God's people. The very life of Christ is manifested within His Body by the Holy Spirit. There is no kingdom of God on earth without the Holy Spirit. The "Christ in you" people entering the "New Jerusalem lifestyle" is by the fullness of the Holy Spirit. Intimacy and oneness with God is by the fullness of the Holy Spirit. The empowerment of grace and endless love of oneness with God by the Holy Spirit is the cleansing agent that produces the experience of the cross and the resurrection life that removes ALL of the defiling residue of Babylonian self and religious life.

The devastations and serious difficulties we face in the process are only the tools of destruction for our self focused and religious lives. Through this death experience of loss and devastation we reach the point that we have nothing left but Jesus. Then are we are ready to enter into the fullness of the Holy Spirt for the comfort that can only come from God. And we are ready to step into the Holy City, the ruling city of the kingdom of God, the New Jerusalem people of God - the purified remnant focused only on Jesus that have been changed and will touch those around them starting a chain reaction of spreading the kingdom of God as leaven in a lump of dough.

Mat 13:33 Another parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till it was all leavened."

It will not help to change the form of how we do church from institutional to organic or adjust our form of music nor any other attempts at improvement if we don't first experience a greater fullness of the Holy Spirit in our lives leading to a greater intimacy with God.

End Time Outline

"Which things are an allegory: ..." Galatians 4:24

The five phases: Kingdom Judgment Redemption Harvest Finale

This is an outline of the End Times from the Church's point of view. The sequence of events can roughly be broken up into 5 phases. I am going to define these phases; and then present examples from scripture where they are illustrated.

To properly understand all this, keep in mind that these phases are overlapping, except the finale. And the phases are loosely defined and will not all occur in the same part of the Body of Christ at the same time. So strive to be skillful in the word as you read this.

Phase 1. The Kingdom. This is the Lord coming to take up His Kingdom.

It is commonly taught that the millennium, Christ's 1000 year reign with his saints, begins after His return to earth. You will find as I did that things make much more since, when you realize that the 1000 years begins with Christ coming to his Church and beginning to rule there. This is the coming of the King. The Kingdom comes to the Church first, because the King comes to the Church first. Solomon began to rule in a chaotic time and gradually extended his rule by wise judgment. Likewise Jesus comes to rule in his Church and gradually extends his rule throughout the church for 3 and a half years. All the time intervals in the book of revelation are 1000 years or equal to 3 and a half years, except the 3 and a half days mentioned at the end of revelation 11. This is a textual clue that this 3 and a half years is the last 3 and half days of Daniel's 70th week.

We are not going into proving this at this point so for the sake of argument we are assuming that the Millennium, the 3 and a half year kingdom of the beast and the three and a half year ministry of the end time Church begin at the same point. That point is the kingdom phase

Phase 2. The Judgment. The coming of the King must bring judgment, because the King is the Judge and Judgment must begin at the house of God. This is the period where the Lord purges and purifies the Church by means of judgments against her. It will consist of strife within the Church, and attacks against the Church from outside as well as other general judgments. It is the great shaking.

Phase 3. The Redemption. The Lords purpose for judgment is often redemption. This phase is the ending of the judgment. It includes many elements. Revival, Restoration, Reformation and Revelation. It is God coming in awesome holiness and irresistible power. It is the Fear of the Lord and The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Phase 4. The Harvest. This is the great ingathering of souls. This time when the gospel will be preached through all the world. This is the time that the Church will become the spotless bride that Lord desires as the remaining unsaved members are brought in.

Phase 5. The Finale This is the Second Coming of Christ in clouds of glory to execute the final judgments and fight the final battles. This is when his saints and holy ones come with him and the dead in Christ will rise.

Now the following examples will not show all 5 phases, some will show just 1 or 2, others may show all 5. Recall the story of the 5 blind men who studied the elephant and each came away with a different report.

> Matthew 8. 23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.
> 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.
> 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.
> 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.
> 27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

Verse 23 speaks of the Kingdom. Jesus entering the ship is Jesus entering the Church. His disciples following him, shows the end result, his people obey him. Verse 24 and 25 illustrate the great judgments to come. The tempest of the sea, is the persecution by the people of the earth. Verse 26,27 show the restoration phase. The Lord puts a halt to the judgments and reveals his awesome power to his people.

> John 8: 1 ¶ Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
> 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
> 3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
> 10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
> 11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

Now here, Jesus coming to the temple is the Kingdom Phase. As you see the woman brought before him, notice he is seated. This is a clear picture of the Church coming before the Judgment Seat of Christ. So it is the Judgment phase. Verse 10 is the redemption and verse 11 speaks of redemption and harvest as He commissions her to GO!

> John 16: 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
> 21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
> 22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
> 23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

In this passage Jesus prophecies to the disciples regarding the judgment phase and the joy to come afterward in the redemption phase.

> Isaiah 1 21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.
> 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:
> 25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:
> 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.
> 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.
> 2:2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.
> 3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Here in Isaiah 1, verse 21 summarizes the reasons for judgment on the city, the Church. In verse 24, he declares his intention to bring that judgment. And verse 27, where Zion speaks of the Church, is a key description of his intentions where the judgment phase will lead to the redemption phase and that to the harvest, the converts. And again redemption and the converts are the subject of verses 2 and 3 in chapter 2. In this passage the phrase ‘mountain of the Lord’s House’ refers to the Church. And notice especially in verse 3 where it is referred to as the Mountain of the Lord, the House of the God of Jacob, Zion and Jerusalem!

> Isaiah 28:14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.*
> 15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
> 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.
> 17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

Here the Lord addresses the scornful men that rule this people, that is to the pastors and overseers of his Church. Verse 15 lists some reasons for the Judgment phase. Verse 16 speaks of the cornerstone being laid in Zion. This is Jesus coming to the Church and thus is the kingdom phase. And again in verse 17 judgment is mentioned along with righteousness, just as in Isaiah 1:27. Note that the line and the plummet are tools of a carpenter! Jesus uses the line and the plummet not to build with. Other tools are for that. These tools are for measurement! In other words they are instruments of judgment. The line and the plummet are used to see that the Church measures up to what God has intended for it. Lets look further.

> Isaiah 28: 24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?
> 25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in their place?
> 26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.
> 27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.
> 28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.
> 29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

Here the plowman breaks up the fallow ground. This is the judgment phase. In verse 25, he casts in the seed. This is redemption preparing for harvest. Verse 26 shows the plowman instructed by the Father, indicating that Jesus is the plowman. And in verse 28 we see threshing instruments of an unusual sort. The rod and the staff are the tools of the shepherd! So here we find Jesus the carpenter, the plowman and the shepherd, all in one passage.

> Isaiah 29: 13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:
> 14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.
> 17 ¶ Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?
> 18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.
> 19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
> 22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.
> 23 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.
> 24 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

Isaiah 29 covers much of the same ground and chapter 28. Verse 13 again gives a reason for the Judgment phase about to come. In verse 14 we see a reference to a marvellous work That marvellous work is the kingdom phase we spoke of above concerning chapter 28. This cross reference from Psalm 118 may make it clear.

> Ps 118:22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.
> 23 This is the LORD'S doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

Verse 17 alludes to a soon coming harvest, while the rest of the chapter tells the results of the restoration phase to follow the judgment. Verse 24 reminds me of Isaiah 52:8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

> Isaiah 60 1 ¶ Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
> 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

> 3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.
> 4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.
> 5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

Here Isaiah speaks of the redemption phase followed by the harvest. Verse 1, "arise, shine" speaks of his people coming through the judgment and being filled with the glory, while the rest details the harvest.

> Psalm 2: 1 ¶ Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?
> 2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,
> 3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.
> 4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.
> 5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.
> 6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

Here the first three verses speak of the persecution of the Church during the judgment phase, while verse 4 and 5 tell of the redemption . Verse 6 is of course part of the Kingdom phase.

> Psalm 48 11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
> 12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.
> 13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.
> 14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

These verses speak of the redemption phase with great rejoicing coming after the judgments, and the establishment of the Kingdom of God in the Church. Verse 14 may allude to the Finale phase.

> Psalm 65*: 1 <<To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.>> Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.*
> 2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.
> 3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.
> 4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.
> 5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:
> 7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.
> 9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.
> 10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.
> 11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.
> 12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.
> 13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

Here verse 1 says praise waiteth for thee oh God in zion. The implication here is that the Lord then must come to Zion. So this speaks of the kingdom phase. The Lord coming to his kingdom. The promise here in one of obedience as it says, unto thee shall the vow be performed. And later it says to you all flesh will come. Verses 3-5 speak of the Judgment seat. That is of being chosen to come before him. Bro. Rick Joyner tells in his vision the Hordes of Hell, that the judgment seat is terrible. That he had never seen the Lord look quite so terrible! Verse 5, in mentioning the terrible things alludes to this. Verse 7 echoes Matthew 8 where the Lord calmed the sea. It indicates that the roaring of the sea is none other than the tumult of the people. This then is the redemption phase. Verses 9-10 speak of the latter rain coming down on the freshly plowed fields. This leads to the harvest and the abundance mentioned in verses 11-13.

Psalm 74 is a prayer of the Church undergoing the judgment phase. Psalm 89 also is a prayer of the Church undergoing judgment, leading to Psalm 90 this psalm speaks the redemption phase and Psalm 91 speaks of the harvest phase. Psalm 94 is also a prayer of the Church under judgment. See especially verse 3 "…how long shall the wicked triumph?" See also Ps. 130

Psalm 119 is the prayer of the Church in the redemption phase where she is able to say I have hid thy word in my heart that I might not sin against thee. It is the heart that is the fallow ground broken up by the plowman. In Jeremiah 26:18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, ….

Here the plowman is Jesus, and his word is the sword of judgment and also the plow that breaks up the ground. But this is so it can receive the seed, (also the word) and hold it.

> Psalm 126: 1 <<A Song of degrees.>> When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.
> 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.
> 3 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.
> 4 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.
> 5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.
> 6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Here we find the judgment phase ending in verse 1, the redemption phase in verses 2-4 and the harvest in 5-6.

> Psalm 132 8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
> 9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.
> 13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.
> 14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

The key idea here is the Lord arising and coming to his place of rest, Zion, the Church. This is the kingdom phase, the passage in verse 9 speaks of the redemption phase.

> Revelation 11: 1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
> 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.
> 3 ¶ And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.
> 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

Here we see the prophet John instructed to measure the temple, the altar and the worshippers. This speaks again of the Church being judged. The measurement is to show that the Church is redeemed when it measures up. This alludes briefly to the judgment and redemption. The outer court is the outside world. The Kingdom has come to the temple, or the Church, but it will not come to the outside world till 42 months after. The two witnesses also speak of the Church and the power to come upon it during the harvest. And verse 7 speaks of the finale. All 5 phases are touched upon here.

> Revelation 12: 1 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:
> 2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

> 3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.
> 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.
> 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.
> 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Here we see the woman represents the Church. The travail she goes through is the judgment phase. The dragon ready to devour her child speaks of the persecution that is a part of this judgment. The bringing forth of the child is the redemption phase. This is also seen in John 16:21. Verse 10 tells of the kingdom phase as well as the redemption phase.

1st Chronicles 12, a revival chapter speaks of all the tribes of Israel coming together to make David King! This speaks of the redemption phase of the end times when all the denominations of the Church will come together under King Jesus.

Judges 14: 14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.
15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? is it not so?
16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?
17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

This case is especially interesting. The answer to Samson's riddle was "what is sweeter than honey and what is stronger than a lion?" Here the meat and the sweetness are types of the Word of God. Therefore the giving of the answer speaks of the Revelation of Jesus Christ. Samson is a type of the Lord and his wife, a type of the Church. The fact that it came to pass on the seventh day, speaks of the millennium. So this is the kingdom phase. His wife weeping before him speaks of the judgment phase. The giving of the answer is the Revelation of Jesus Christ and so it is the redemption phase. The wife immediately giving the answer to the philistines, a type of the world speaks of the Church revealing Jesus to the lost. This then is the harvest phase.

> Numbers 5 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
> 12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,
> 13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;
> 14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:
> 15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, ...
> 16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:
> 24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.
> 27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, > and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

> 28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

In this example, the coming before the Lord is the kingdom phase. The bitter water is the judgment phase. [Bitter tears of repentance] and the redemption phase is seen in verse 27-28. If the woman is defiled, the swelling belly speaks of being with child like the woman in Rev. 12. The rotting of the thigh is like Jacob, whose thigh was touched after he wrestled with God at Peniel.. From that point on, he could no longer depend on his own strength. So this is the redemption phase. The alternative of conceiving seed in verse 28 also speaks of pregnancy and bring forth the man-child. Here the Lord is both the High Priest and the Jealous Husband.

Second Corinthians. This entire book clearly speaks of judgment and redemption.

Ephesians This entire book speaks of the Church in the redemption phase, leading to harvest. The kingdom phase is seen in Chapter 1 verse 22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

End Time Things
Bill Somers

In this essay we will look at End Time Things, what they are, and what elements and themes in the bible can be considered end time things. Then we will look at some contrasts between the end time things and earlier ones. The Lord has kept the best for last.

First and foremost is of course the Second Advent, or Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

In the Revelation of Jesus Christ, chapter 19 depicts the Second Coming like this:

> Re 19:11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.
> 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.
> 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.
> 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
> 15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

> Jude 1:14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

There are many other references to the second advent, especially those that speak of the Son Of Man coming in the clouds.

Another theme that is clearly an end time thing is The Last Day pouring out of the Spirit. It’s mentioned in Acts 2 where we read of what will happen in ‘the last days’.

> Ac 2:16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
> 19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
> 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
> 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Here the speaker, Peter, is quoting the prophet Joel from Joel 2, where the translators used the term afterward instead of the last days.

> Joel 2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Just prior to that we see Joel mentions something called the latter rain. In natural terms the former rain was the spring rain, and the latter rain was the fall rain. These were crucial to bring the spring and fall harvests. Wheat and barley were harvested in ancient Israel in the spring, just as we harvest winter wheat in the spring today. But in this instance there is a supernatural element involved as it tells of the former and latter rain coming both in the first month. That is a double rain!

> Joel 2:23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

Over in Hosea, we read that he will come to us as the latter rain and it will be in the third day! This clarifies what Joel is saying and makes it easy to see that the pouring down latter rain is another way of expressing the pouring out of the Spirit. And the mention of the third day lines up with the expression ‘last days’.

> Ho 6:1 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> *3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

The latter rain and the pouring of the spirit are the same thing basically and are clearly end time things. As rain enables a harvest in natural terms, the latter rain speaks of end time revival [or restoration] to precede an end time harvest.

Here in Matthew the Lord clearly identifies the harvest as an end time thing.

> Mt 13:39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

The context this appears in is a series of parables on the Kingdom of Heaven or the Kingdom of God. This also is an end time thing.

The Kingdom of God is a complex topic and the Lord has much to say about it. Some of what we know is what it takes to enter the Kingdom of God. [I go into this topic at length in my article Blowing In The Wind. I could repeat most of that here, but I want to move on to the next topic.]You must be born again, you must be led by the Spirit, [John 3] and you must become as a little child [Mark 10:15].

The Kingdom of God is found wherever God is King. To speak of some future time when Jesus returns to earth to set up his Kingdom is a misunderstanding. The kingdom is not of this world, visible and political. The kingdom does not come in a way you can observe or see, it’s invisible and spiritual. Those who are led by the spirit have entered the Kingdom of God. They have become obedient in all things.

The Latter Rain Outpouring of the Spirit is what leads us into the Kingdom.

And The Kingdom of God is an end time thing.

> Re 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God*, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.*

Consider the New Covenant as mentioned in Jeremiah and Ezekiel

> Jer 31:31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
> 32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:
> 33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts*; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.*
> 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me*, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.*

This tells us of a new covenant that the Lord intends to make with his people. He will write his law in our hearts. And we shall all know Him.

Here is another description from Jeremiah 32.

> Jer 32:40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Here we see that this new covenant will make it so that his people will not depart from him. Ezekiel explains it this way:

> Eze 36:26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
> 27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes*, and ye shall* keep my judgments*, and do them.*

The Lord is promising that he will cause us to obey him! And that by putting his Spirit in us. On other words, God says I will put my spirit in you that you might not sin against me. This can only come about during the latter rain outpouring.

The key factor in each of these themes is the Holy Spirit. He plays the leading role in the End Time Outpouring, the Kingdom of God, and The new covenant. Essentially all three of these are the same thing, and the same event. So the New Covenant or New Testament is an end time thing.

There have been individual cases of people who have been led by the spirit. Certainly many of the first apostles and disciples, and down thru history as well. Today as we approach the coming of the latter rain, and the coming of the Lord at the second advent, there are increasingly more such people. Still the full force of the latter rain, and it’s impact are yet to be seen. I believe we are in the last days. You may call it the third day, the seventh day [of God’s week], the millennium or whatever. It’s in or on this day that these things will begin to happen. The end times and the end time things will come rushing at us.

Let’s look as some important contrasts.

Old Covenant vs. New Covenant

The Old Covenant is the Letter of the Law [which kills] vs. The New Covenant is the giving [without measure] of The Spirit [which quickens].

The Old Covenant is The Law of sin and death. The New Covenant is the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus

> Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
> 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
> 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
> 4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
> 5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
> 6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
> 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
> 8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
> 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
> 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. When you are led by that spirit you are not under the law; you have been [or will be] set free from sin and death!

Compare the tree of knowledge of good and evil vs. the tree of life. You can see that the fruit of the tree of knowledge, a fig tree in the story, is self righteousness, a.k.a. religion. The fruit of the tree of life is the fruit of the spirit that comes with the fullness of the Spirit.

In Hebrews 12 the Lord says basically the same thing when speaking of the mountains. The mountain that burnt with fire and smoke, vs. Mt. Zion.

> Heb 12:18 ¶ For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
> 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
> 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
> 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that > speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Note how this passage links several end time themes together. They are Mount Zion, The Church, The City of God, The Heavenly Jerusalem, The perfection of the Saints and the New Covenant. All of these are end time things.

Compare The church as depicted in 1st Corinthians vs. that of second Corinthians. The reformation of the Corinthian church happens because of the visitation of Titus. Titus in this case is a type of the Holy Spirit; his arrival totally transforms them. In Ephesians the Spirit is typified by Tychicus. In Romans He appears as Tertius. The writer of Hebrews [Heb 13:23] is Timothy. Do you see a pattern here?

The contrast between being under the law or being led by the Spirit is also expressed in Galatians as Ishmael vs. Isaac.

> Ga 4:21 ¶ Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
> 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
> 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
> 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants*; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.*
> 25 For this Agar is, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
> 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Note that here mount Sinai in Arabia is the mountain that burnt with fire, while Jerusalem which is above is the Mount Zion mentioned in Hebrews 12 above; also the New Covenant. Verse 24 says there are two covenants, the first is passing away, the second is the everlasting covenant.

In Galatians there is another discussion of being under the Law.

> Ga 2:16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
> 17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.
> 18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
> 19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.
> 20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Here one of the ideas is being dead to the law. We speak of it as death to self. In death to self, the old man is dead and the new man is Christ., You put on the new man by acting like Christ. If you act like Christ, you can't sin. You are walking in righteousness, because you are clothed with righteousness. Jesus is the Lord our Righteousness. So therefore, to say I am crucified with Christ, etc. is an end time thing. And to put off the old man and put on Christ is an end time thing.

Second Corinthians talks about becoming a new creature in Christ This too is an end time thing.

> 2Co 5:16 ¶ Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

> 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

One last note, in Matthew, Jesus warns about false prophets in the End Times.

> Mt 7:15 ¶ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.
> 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?
> 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.
> 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
> 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
> 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

We are to know them by their fruit, the real from the fake. This can only be found in those who have the spirit and the fruit of the spirit that results, from those who are totally led by that Spirit. Once we have entered into the latter day move of the Spirit, it will be clear who are really spirit led. They will have these fruits:

> Ga 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,
> 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
> 24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
> 25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

Expect The Unexpected

Jeannette Rodgers

August 12, 2005

For in this time and season, I say unto you, Expect the Unexpected.

I say unto you, your destination awaits you. You have overlooked what I have done. Look back, just Look, then move forward. Upon arrival, something new will be waiting and something new I shall do. For those things that you have considered in your mind, as you reason about what will come, are not those things in which I have predestined. You are expecting to see things as you would expect and not according to My plans that I have already put into action.

Expect the unexpected.

I AM with you and I have gone before you. I will give you peace that will surpass your own understanding. I will move in Ways that you will not understand because I AM. It will require of you a trust in Me that is more than you have had. A new level of faith that will move you out of the boat and into the water. Listen for My voice and I will lead you.

Trust in Me and not in those things that you question with doubt, as if they were from Me. Filter out I say, filter out the particles that are unclean and distracting and those things that have had you looking to and fro in confusion, as if you cannot hear Me or see Me moving. I will hold your heart steady. Expect the unexpected.

For there, I say, For there, will be the place in which I will be waiting. Place your expectation in Me alone and I shall be your defense and I will keep you as you move forward in Me. I AM able. This will require of you to step up and step out. For truly, I say unto you, It will require of you to push forward, press on and look up. Believe, trust and Expect what your mind would call unimaginable, or impossible. For I am working all things together for good. Expect the unexpected.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Expect the Unexpected

Romans 8:19-37

19 For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; 21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23 Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. 29 For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. 30 Moreover whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.

God’s Everlasting Love

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? 33 Who shall bring a charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written:

“ For Your sake we are killed all day long;   We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.”

37 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. 38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ears Will Be Opened

Barbara Lynch

April 14, 2005; 12:21 am

My people perish for lack of knowledge. But I am about to unleash a whole new spectrum of knowledge to My church. Ears will be opened to the voice of the Lord and many will fall on their faces in complete repentance for their lethargic state that they have allowed themselves to slip into. Broadminded: I am a broadminded God and I listen to all the cries, but it is time for my Body to get rid of their excuses and get ready to receive My Glory. There is a false sense of security that has enveloped My people and they must come out from under that blanket of deception. I am about to unleash My Holy Angels once again and they shall operate in Revelation Chapter 17 in all of it‘s fullness. Many will stand in complete awe at what is about to happen. Tell My people that it is time for the harlots to repent and come back to the living God. The one who created this heaven and earth. The one who gives life and takes life away. It is time for the fulfillment of all things. It is a time of complete surrender to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

April 16, 2005; 11:45 am

It is time to face the truth. My people have blasphemed Me continually day and night and they have not heeded the warnings of My prophets. They think they have forever to do what is right, but not so, saith the Lord, not so! For I am about My business of destruction at this given time and I am destroying all the man made foundations. I am tearing down everything that is not of Me. I am shaking even the very roots of the foundation. Many will stand but even more will fall. The price for foolishness is great. The insincere at heart will come under great judgment at this given time. There will be no solace for those who would not heed My voice. Mighty thundering will be heard across this great land that I have created. Many thundering in the days ahead. The lightning will flash and many will see the hand of Jehovah at work. But there will still be those who will mock and scorn. That is OK, because theirs is eternal punishment in the lake of fire. No more make believe. No more warnings. Just judgment across this great land.

April 16, 2005; 11:52 am

Now I am going to do My new thing. I have worked with My people and those that were going to heed My directions have heeded and those that were going to go in a different direction, went. Now I can accomplish all that I need to accomplish in this end time strategy. Fix your eyes upon Me and do not look away, for I am giving new directions to My faithful few and they will see all things line up with My Word. No more walking under the umbrella of deception. Only the truth will prevail at this given time. For My chosen ones are going to bring the truth to My church and no more will they sway under the pressures of the evil one. Absolute and complete commitment is what this end time strategy is all about. Those that I am using have given themselves over to Me in complete commitment to all that I am calling them forth to do. Only the faithful ones survived this mighty onslaught of the enemy. Only those, whose only agenda was to follow Me at all cost, are being used in this end time hour. You shall see the Glory fall and prevail in the church. You shall see My might angels hard at work on your behalf. I have spoken and so shall it be.

Everyone Who is of the Truth Hears My Voice

Dorothea Montague

http://www.angelfire.com/in/hislove
montagud@telus.net

For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice. (John 18:37b)

My people, My beloved people, I shall open the eyes of your understanding to the truth of what I have taught you from My Word and I say unto you, all who accept My Word as truth shall surely hear My voice as I speak to you. My people, I yearn for you to come unto Me, speaking forth to Me in prayer and, as you quiet your hearts, to hear Me speak to you.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door I will come in to him and dine with him and he with Me. (Rev. 3:20)

O, yes, My children, it is My desire that you hear My voice, speaking to you. Do not expect a loud, booming voice but rather that still, small voice with which I speak to My people.

...and after the earthquake a fire, and after the fire a still, small voice. (1 Kings 19:12)

As you spend time in your quiet place, seeking Me in prayer and listening for My voice you shall surely hear Me speak to you. Begin to record the thoughts that come into your mind and soon you shall recognize that the thoughts and words are not your own but rather from Me.

My precious people, I am preparing you for ever greater ministries and, indeed, you need to hear My voice as I direct you. You are moving into a very critical time in My plan for the world and you need to be endued with My strength to sustain you through ever more times of tribulation which shall come upon the world.

O, yes, My children, in a moment of time I could dispense with all tribulation but, were I to do so what would stop the avalanche of sin which is engulfing the world today? But you, My precious people, shall I protect in ways you cannot conceive. I have chosen a path for each of you and as you obediently walk that path you shall meet with many and shall touch their lives for Me, bringing many into My kingdom. Have I not said in My Word that I will never leave you nor forsake you and since My Word is truth you shall know that I shall be with you always.

You may ask, "In what form shall tribulation come upon the world?" What have I told you in My Word regarding what shall come in the latter days?

For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famine, pestilence, and earthquakes in various places. (Matt. 24:7)

FOR NATION SHALL RISE AGAINST NATION....

My people, I ask you, "Is this not happening in many parts of the world, even as we speak, and does these events not tell you that we are indeed living in the latter days. I am calling you, My people, to fervently pray for the leaders of the countries involved and for My plan to come into reality.

AND THERE SHALL BE FAMINE...
Are you not reading in the news media and hearing of many areas of the world where famine is prevalent and people are dying of hunger, especially little children. My children, I have promised you in My Word...

Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His mercy, to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine. (Psa. 33:18)

Yes, My people, I shall keep you alive in famine but I am calling you to bring sustenance to those who have no way to help themselves in time of famine. I am calling you to fervent prayer for the hungry of the world.

AND THERE SHALL BE PESTILENCE....
O, My people, what greater pestilence than the aids virus which has taken a multitude of lives in some parts of the world, leaving countless children orphaned. I am calling you, My people, to give of your abundance to bring help to these people. I am calling you to fervent prayer for them.

AND THERE SHALL BE EARTHQUAKES IN VARIOUS PLACES.
You, My people have had abundant evidence of earthquakes taking the lives of countless people in the world and they shall only increase in many parts of the world. I am calling you, My people, to fervently pray for survivors.

I would speak to you, My chosen ones, and say, I have not promised you immunity from the tribulations of the world and disaster could strike in your area. I am calling you to search your hearts and determine whether you stand clean before Me with all sin in your lives forgiven. I am calling you to seek My direction regarding any physical preparation I would desire that you make in preparation for the disasters that loom on the horizon. There is much that you can do to prepare and I shall speak guidance unto you. Listen, listen, My precious people, for I have much to impart unto you in direction and guidance for your lives.

Watch therefore for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming. (Matt. 25:13)

Exposing a Coming Work of Darkness

Clo DiPilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus:

As there are greater manifestations and visitations of the power and the glory of God, even so the enemy is engaging his own forces and the powers of darkness to challenge the pure, true, and glorious works of God.

He will do this through his own "lying signs and wonders", even to the point of being able to form illusions to convince people of a reality that does not even exist so that he can deceive them.

If you go to the movies, I'm not talking about Al Pacino and his creation "Simone". Neither am I talking about a mental/diabolical sickness of fabricated relationships as showcased in the story, "A Beautiful Mind". I am talking about evil spirits having permission to manifest in human form because there is something within the hearts of God's people that allows an openness for delusion. It's called NOT receiving the "love of the truth". Ref. 2 Thess. 2:9-11.

The Lord has been showing me this for several months now. However, today, He drove it home to me to the point I am wondering if it is now time to get this word out:

There will be " internet personna" that are spirits of darkness which will actually take on human form when put in the position of having to do so, but they are really evil spirits publishing the works of darkness, and if you do not have discernment everything will sound quite right, but if you have your senses exercised to discern good and evil, eventually you are going to come to conclusion that these are "angels of light" released to do the devil's work of disruption and confusion to the work of God.

The "wolf" in "sheep's clothing" is the "word" (sheep's clothing--the Lamb of God, the Word) with the wrong spirit (wolf).

The mandate of these "ministries" will be to much glorify the works of evil and darkness by majoring in the exaltation of these things. The Name of Jesus and any word from the Lord is only for the purpose of masking the true intent which is to gain confidence of souls that can be easily deceived and beguiled and led astray.

Another purpose of these ministries will be to have an agenda to wear out the saints by drawing them into false visions, ministries and concerns so they do not truly give their time and prayer focus to the true burden of the Lord and true work of the ministry.

These ministries are going to have power to impart fear, doubt and unbelief by using a reverse "spiritual psychology" of appearing to be drawing swords against the very thing they promote from the spirit realm thus drawing undo attention to works of darkness when the works of God would be accomplished in a greater way by the meditation, worship, adoration and revelation of Jesus Christ.

Beloved, I am not talking about some little lonely person who thinks they have a ministry when they don't have much of one at all, but they are able to "posture" on the internet as having something they may not truly possess because they have a certain flair for words and ability to write spiritually convincing articles. That is another article, and someone needs to hold my feet to the fire on writing it!!!

I am talking about literal diabolical spirits that are going to take on human attributes in order to do an evil work.

Some reading this have already had an inkling in the spirit of this coming attack of the enemy. The devil is the "prince of the power of the air". It is exceptionally easy for him to intercept and defile this medium called "cyberspace". He regards it as his "turf".

This is a matter which must be addressed with strong prayer until the spiritual atmosphere is fortified against this coming onslaught of satan.

Also, contend within your own spirit for the "love of the truth" as you have never done in your life. Agonize before God until you're soul is in gut-wrenching agony over it and you feel like you'd rather that God just kill you NOW so you can get it over with and just go onto heaven than to be one who will be walking or living in deception in the perilous times that will be marked by apostacy and delusion. This is how SERIOUS this word is for your soul and mine!!

To prove this is the true word of the Lord, I do believe it will be seen, but I am praying IN ADVANCE for a "cleansing wave" to come quickly on it's heels before it does it's damage. Right now, it is here in a small measure, but not to the extent we are going to see it.

I believe this is only one of several issues regarding the misuse of air-waves by both men AND devils that the Spirit is going to uncover within the next few weeks to come.

And I declare by the word of the Lord, that the air waves ARE to be wrested out of the hands of the enemy and repossessed by the Lord Jesus Christ, and His true servants. Jesus paid a price for EVERYTHING to be restored to Himself and His beloved people including the ability resonant in the very atmosphere we breathe to transmit light and sound to the glory and praise of the Lord Jesus Christ and His Coming Kingdom.

This is a serious word, and needs to be a short one, at least it's short for me!!

Always in the Love of Jesus,

Clo DiPilato Herald of His Kingdom

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

I've gotten much response to the prophetic article I sent out last night labeled, "Exposing A Coming Work of Darkness." Many share with me that the Lord has shown them things along the same lines. Others desire to have more "information" so they can be alert. And some others want to have more of a scriptural basis for believing such a thing could be true before they will accept that such a thing could be the word of the Lord.

Very rarely do I defend what I have sent forth as a prophetic word because I feel that the Lord will defend His own word, especially by allowing what He says to come to pass in His way, and in His time. However, because of the unusual nature of that word, I do feel it is right for me to share from the scriptures reasons why I do believe I've heard from the Lord. This is not for the purpose of being drawn into debate on the subject. I simply do not have time for such a thing. This is because I feel everyone who has approached me for more scriptural insight did so out of a willingness to have an "ear to hear", and not out of a divisive or contentious spirit. For that reason, it's very much in my heart at this time to give you what I feel is the scriptural foundation for the word that went out last night.

First of all, I think it would have all gone down MUCH easier if I had simply said the devil is going to stir some folks up to oppose the work of God on the internet. It would have been more palatable if I had said some demon-possessed trouble makers are going to make the lives of the true servants of the Lord miserable when they try to do God's work in cyberspace.

But that is not what I said. I said, believing I spoke under the unction of the Spirit:

"I am talking about evil spirits having permission to manifest in human form because there is something within the hearts of God's people that allows an openness for delusion."

The first thing I want to lay as clear foundation for this article is that the enemy NEVER does anything without God's permission.

The devil had to go the throne to get permission to afflict Job. Satan had very direct orders from God regarding some set limits in what he could do against Job.

And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand , So satan went forth from the presence of the Lord. Job 1:12.

Consider the story of Job and how that the devil had permission to afflict Job, and then consider the assertion of the prophet Isaiah in Isaiah 54:16 and 17.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.
17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper;

This may shock some people, but God from the beginning knew exactly what Lucifer would do. He knew that he would not keep his "first estate", and that he would plunge from his exalted position of being the chief worshipper of heaven's domain to being relegated to the role in the providence of God of being "waster". This is a statement that may defy conventional wisdom about the devil, but he was purposely created by God to destroy, not to be the everlastingly instated original angelic "pipe organ" and heavenly choir director. To believe such a thing is to conclude that God who knows all had no idea that "iniquity would be found in him." (See Ezekiel 28, and Ezekiel 28:15 specifically) (God's plan has ALWAYS been that the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Redeemed , the Bride, the Lamb's Wife, the New Jerusalem would be the principle possessors of the revelation and expression of worship!! The church is not God's "second choice" when it comes to worship.

Here's a GLORIOUS thought: The Bible talks about angels who do nothing at all before the throne of God but say "holy, holy, holy". They've been doing that forever and ever, and it will be an onoing thing for that particular class of angels because it's their calling to do so. Nothing but "holy, holy, holy".

What a sight it will be to behold in heaven these objects of passionate adoration for the Lord Jesus Christ saying "holy, holy, holy, and never wearing out, and every syllable carrying within it the very same intensity and desire as the very time it was ever spoken from the day of their creation. And yet within those beings created to glorify God, there is yet one desire yet a little bit deeper, yet a little bit stronger, yet a little bit more powerful, and they literally are "longing" for understanding they simply don't possess:

10 ¶Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:
11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. 1 Peter 1: 10-12.

Look up that word "desire" in your Strong's. It means to desire with longing, and to have the heart set upon the thing. The angels LONG and PINE for understanding of what has been so freely given to God's people, the gift of salvation, and the ANOINTING to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost!! God's people have reasons to worship and adore the Lord in ways the angels will never know, and the angels actually have their hearts set on trying to figure it out!!)

The devil has permission to activate destructive abilities, but it's part of a master plan to achieve a greater purpose, and that is why the weapon the devil is in the hands of God will NEVER prosper because GOD is in control, and He will not allow it to be so!! The enemy can only go SO FAR, and then God "reels him back in". In fact, if God sneezed in his direction, he'd drop dead. He is absolutely powerless apart the permission granted him by God.

The devil asserted to Jesus his ownership of the kingdoms of this world in the wilderness temptation, and demanded that Jesus worship him. (Luke 4:6, 7) Note very clearly, that a claim to "ownership of the kingdoms of this world" never amounted to a right to receive worship, anymore than the king of Babylon and [primary ruler of the world at that time had a right to receive worship from Daniel, or the three Hebrew children.

Jesus did not argue with the point that the devil possessed it. He argued that he had no right to expect any worship. If Jesus did not recognize that the devil had been given authority from God to rule the world for a span in time, the contest would have been ended right there in the wilderness, and Jesus could have taken over. He did not bow down and worship satan, but instead he aligned himself in oneness with His Father in recognition of the fact that an element of authority had been granted to the devil, but worship still belonged to God alone!! (Luke 4:6.) .

The devil is the "prince of the power of the air" because he has "permission", he was granted this authority by God in his fall, and for no other reason.

He is recognized in his "princehood" (to borrow a phrase from Thompson's Chain Ref. Bible) in the follow scriptures:

Jesus recognized satan as the "prince of this world".

Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. John 12:31

Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh and hath nothing in me. John 14:30

Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. John 16:11

The Apostle Paul refers to him as the "god of this world", and the "prince of the power of the air".

In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ who is the image of God should shine unto them. 2 Cor. 4:4

Wherein in times past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience. Ephesians 2:2

Now, how does all of this connect to my article where I said,

""I am talking about evil spirits having permission to manifest in human form because there is something within the hearts of God's people that allows an openness for delusion."

The Lord will give permission to evil spirits to manifest in human form because He is the God who "creates the waster to destroy", and there is a spirit of apostacy and a lack of the love of the truth in God's people that needs to be destroyed!! The purpose of these spirit beings taking on human form will be because God's people have allowed themselves to become fodder for STRONG DELUSION:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 2 Thess. 2:9-12.

Why did I highlight the scripture, "after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

It's because one of the "works of Satan" is described in 2 Corinthians 11: 13-15.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

In this portion scripture, we have three things:

1. men who are deceivers, who transform themselves into the apostles of Christ. 2. Satan who transforms himself into an angel of light. 3. Satan's ministers who are transformed as ministers of righteousness.

Now, WHO are "satan's ministers"?? It would be easy to conclude this is simply talking about charlatans and those false teachers and false prophets spoken of by the Apostle Peter in 2 Peter 2 who will bring in heresies, and deceive God's people with made up stories so they can steal their money. But there is a clue here in the scripture.

These ministers are "transformed" into ministers of righteousness.

The word used for "transformed" is not a word that indicates a process, such as would be used in the transformation of the character of the one growing in knowledge and grace of the Lord Jesus Christ from the inward perspective of a character/nature transformation.

This particular word for "transform" is the same word used by the Apostle Paul to express the glorious reality of mortality taking on immorality:

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:
21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. Phillipians 3:20,21.

The word for 'transformed' and "change" is the very same word. This is not any gradual, or organic type of change. It indicates a supernatural change. When you get to heaven do you believe you are going to have the same old body with all of it's aches and pains for a few thousand years of eternity while you go through some evolutionary or metamorphic type of process to get into your glorified body?? That certainly is NOT heaven!! The transformation will be instantaneous and miraculous, and complete when you receive your 'glorified body'.

I believe the devil's "ministers of righteousness" are a high level of spirit-beings who will be transformed/changed into beings that appear human through a supernatural process.

Now, do you think I'm treading on dangerous territory??

My friend this IS the work of an anti-christ spirit to be able to duplicate and counterfeit the things that God does.

Thessalonians tells us that antichrist sits in the temple of God showing himself that he IS God! It's more than just your carnal nature ruling when the Spirit of God should be ruling. In context, we find this "man of sin" has all power and lying signs and wonders. Your carnal nature does NOT have that. This is a diabolical force that can mimic God in order to deceive those who are deceivable.

The Bible tells us in the New Testament that there are two very specific Bible stories which those in the last days should pay heed to: One is the wilderness wanderings of the children of Israel. It's referred to both in the book of 1 Corinthians in the 10th chapter, and in the 3rd and 4th chapter of Hebrews. Notice how the devil and his "ministers", as portrayed by Pharoah and his magicians were constantly able to duplicate the works of God in the manifestation of the plagues, up til the very end of the contest. The bottom line is that we are about to the "end of the contest", and the enemy KNOWS his time is short.

Now, consider how that at this time there are many who are claiming supernatural visitations and manifestations of the glory and power of God. For the purpose of this article, I am going to assume all of these ones who are sharing such stories truly HAVE had an encounter with God and with the supernatural realm. Some have even truly had face to face encounters with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Do you honestly believe that the true Holy Ghost activity in the spiritual realm will be stepped up without the enemy seeking to counterfeit it and dilute it through delusion in some way?? I have only mentioned one little piece of the puzzle, but there are going to be many manifestations that come under the heading of "lying signs and wonders" and we are very carefully told through the scriptures that we are to be alert and watch for these things!! Matthew 24 is a classic chapter on end-time theology.

What about this verse?

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

Now, the other Bible story we're told to consider, especially when seeking to understand the end-times is the story of Noah. We usually think about the worldliness of Noah's society, and how they were "eating and drinking", and we compare it to the loose living of our day. Then as Christians, we think about how Noah built an ark, his family got into it, and were saved from the wrath of God, and we rejoice knowing that Jesus is our "ark of safety" in troubled times. We don't think much beyond these thoughts when we consider the Lord's instructions to consider the days of Noah.

But my friend, let me tell you that in Noah's time there was hideously insidious spiritual wickedness in high places going on. At that time "sons of God" came down to have relations with the daughters of men. Read about this in Genesis 6. They were a supernatural race, some believe fallen angels, and they caused a corrupt seed to be manifest in the earth. This is an exceptionally interesting Bible Study in itself, and I could not begin to do it justice. When the Bible speaks about Noah being "perfect" in his generations, it's not so much talking about his moral good character as it's referring to the gene pool of his family not being tainted with this defilement. The Lord Jesus Christ had to be born into a pure stream of humanity without mixture in order for full salvation to be realized, and that's why Noah's family was preserved. They were the ONLY pure genetic stream. All other families had been corrupted by this foul mixture with foreign spirits!!

Now, if these "sons of God" (and in the Old Testament, the term "sons of God" refers most often to angelic beings) were a spirit being, how could they have physical relations with human woman where children were actually being produced if they were not able to transform themselves into human form?? This was a phenomena of the days of Noah, for spirit beings to take on human form, and I believe it' scripturally sound to believe it will be duplicated in these last days, as one of the "lying signs and wonders".

This is all about "spirits of antichrist". What is "anti-christ"?? It's the spirit that is AGAINST the true anointing. Anti-Christ also means the "INSTEAD of Christ. " The devil has never stopped loving religion and he has never stopped in his quest for worship, and especially to destroy TRUE worshippers. He wants the attention and the glory INSTEAD of Jesus receiving it.

There are two places where the enemy will be seen wreaking havoc in the earth:

One is the lives and hearts of those who are willingly deceived because they never truly received a love of the truth. GOD HIMSELF is allowing this, and permitting it!! This is very clear in the book of 2 Thessalonians Chapter 2.

The other is where there IS a true move of God that he wishes to corrupt and infiltrate and turn astray. Amazing how that in the book of Revelation, the church that is greatly lauded/applauded for holding FAST the Name of Jesus and the faith is the very place where satan's seat is! He will ALWAYS set up camp where he can best oppose those who know the power of the Name of Jesus in revelation reality!

For now, this is long enough, and as the Lord gives me more, I will share.

I know there are many waiting for some scriptural clues on discernment of these things to come, and that will be given within the next few days.

Blessings and love in His Name,

Clo DiPilato Herald of His Kingdom

Explosive Change
Susan Cummings

Tonight, the Lord began to speak to me in my dreams. I began to have a series of dreams and within them, He showed me two scenes. In each scene, there was a scenario, a choice, and an explosion. By the time the second explosion came, I was jerked awake, as I realized that I wasn't just dreaming, but the Lord was speaking.

I then heard the Lord loudly speak these words:

Explosive Change

There will now be instant, irreversible, absolute change
Even good intentions must give way to Me
No more standing in self made plans
All things will now fall away as I pass over the lands

All human reasoning's
All self motivated plans
All need oriented solutions
All flesh inspired visions
All will now bow to Me
For I AM now passing over thee

What will you give unto Me?
What offering will I see laid before Me?
What treasures have you laid up for Me?
All will come under My scrutiny
All that remains will be what is Holy unto Me

For the cries upon the earth now so great
I have come down among men to see all that awaits
As the Earth now shakes under My Weight

Behold!

The days of men are marked and set
And My Word has birthed and now begets
From the Beginning I AM have created
My Living Force issuing forth as I stated
Laying out the expanse of Time
Building a home for this creation of Mine

Walking amongst men down through the Ages
Laying down My Life for the fallen races
Preparing the way for My Explosive Changes
Balancing the scales and paying each man his due wages

For the weight of sin will no longer have dominion over men
Who have cried out to Me from their chains and dens
And who wholly embraced My Fiery Judgments in their flesh
Now will see My Grace as I lift up, and break forth

The rest will see what their works are worth
As this new hour has fully birthed
And I inhabit the realm of Time
To bring fully forth the devils demise

All has been spoken
All will be finished
The Righteous will stand
The wicked will perish

As the final seals are opened
And the waiting seven thunders now explode
All will release the final hidden decrees
Culminating the Beginning upon the lands and the seas

Every eye will see
And every man will choose and bend their knees
As the Truth unfolds and I AM now seen
For even Time gives way to Eternity

What will you do as I explode on the scene?

Expecting The Fourth

Bill Yount

"Are You Expecting The "Fourth" Man To Show Up On July "Fourth?"

In the midst of all the threats of attacks surfacing for the fourth of July, I sensed the Lord asking me a question. "Are you expecting the "fourth" man to show up on July "fourth? Remember My Son was the fourth man in the fiery furnace when the three Hebrew children were cast into the fire. Meshach, Shadrach, and Abednego . . . if they hadn't been thrown in the flames - who would remember their names?"

On Sept.11th the enemy as far as we know planned to hit three targets using three planes as bombs to bring America down with fire. I believe the number three is significant at this time. It was right after the THREE Hebrew children were cast into the fire that the "Fourth" man (JESUS) began to be revealed to King Nebuchadnezzer who commanded this hellish plan of destruction. The King commanded first for the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than it was. The King raised the heat of the fire so hot that his own most mighty men were slain by the fire. I sense this is what's happening when we see terrorists being destroyed by fire themselves at the command of their king - Ben Laden. Notice both kings got their servants to die for them in their attacks against God's people. Again the enemy is trying to ultimately destroy God's people the Jews and America for taking a stand with Israel. .(New York City I believe has the greatest population of Jews in America and STILL does since the attack on New York City!) Hitler burned Jews in fiery furnaces to try to destroy them. Fire is still the enemy's favorite weapon.

But fire is nothing new to God. He has always used the fire of the enemy to reveal Himself in! He still uses the wrath of man to praise Him! The Lord could have stopped the fire inside of the Hebrew's fiery furnace. But He wanted to show the world that His children had something better on their worst day than the enemy had on his best day! God reveals Himself in fire!

Daniel 3:25 "The king answered and said, "Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the FOURTH is like the Son of God!" I believe any attacks from now on the Kings of the earth are going to start seeing the "fourth" man - Jesus showing up in the midst of the fires of calamities. Notice it was the fire that actually burned up the things that had the Hebrew children bound. God uses enemy fire to free us and show Himself strong on our behalf. After that furnace experience the Hebrew children never feared fire again.

Rev. 1:14 "His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire: 15: And His feet like unto fine brass , as if they BURNED IN A FURNACE!" John saw the feet of Jesus that confirmed He was the fourth man in the furnace fire with the Hebrew children! Jesus revealed Himself to John that He had walked through the fire with His people - and He is still walking with us.

Daniel 3:17 "If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of thine hand, O King. 18: But if not, be it known unto thee, O King that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up."

We can trust Him!

Emergency Mode
Bill Yount

I Heard A Strong Angel Proclaiming: "'Emergency' Mode! Alert Every Minister And Ministry To Call In Their 'Reserves'!" (Nahum 2:1)

"He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily!" Nahum 2:1, KJV

I heard the heavens rumbling with angelic activity scrambling as their urgent assignments were being shouted out: "Alert every minister and ministry to call in their reserves! There are many whose wall of prayer protection is breached and they don't know it!"

Ministers and ministries must call in their reserves of "intercessors" whom they have overlooked in the past but are urgently needed now.

"OVERLOOKED INTERCESSORS WHO ARE NEEDED FOR MINISTRY BREAKTHROUGHS!"

I heard the Captain of the Lord of Hosts commanding strong orders to ministers: "In this 'emergency' mode, every brother or sister who has wounded you or you may have wounded must be forgiven and reconciled and called upon to intercede for your life and ministry this hour!"
I saw some brothers and sisters who were holding offenses against one another, and were actually hindering their physical healing and spiritual advancement. Some of their brothers and sisters whom they refused to forgive and be reconciled with had the gift of healing for their bodies! These were some of the most powerful intercessors who were born to be a major power in the lives of these ministers and ministries.
No wonder the enemy had worked overtime to separate them!

"OVERLOOKED FAMILY MEMBERS ARE WAITING IN RESERVE TO RECEIVE THEIR CALL OF DUTY!"

I sense overlooked family members are some of the most powerful forces that will launch many ministers into never-before breakthrough -- including the prayers of their children and grandchildren! Yes, even "unsaved" family members.
I know myself and of others in ministries who have humbled ourselves before unsaved loved ones and asked them to pray for us. I sense they were at first shocked that we would respect them that much. And then the Holy Spirit seemed to begin to hover over them to cause them to seriously consider . . . "Maybe I ought to learn how to pray since I have been asked to." It knocks the walls down between the saved and the unsaved, and the Holy Spirit begins to agree with us to call those things that are not as though they already were (by faith calling the unsaved, saved!).
Many have experienced seeing their unsaved loved ones praying themselves right into God's Kingdom with this kind of request of them.

"YOUR WIFE IS YOUR MOST POWERFUL INTERCESSOR ON EARTH WHO IS WAITING IN RESERVE FOR YOU!"

I have many intercessors around the world who pray for me and my ministry. One day, in a meeting, God showed me in the Spirit many prayers from intercessors rising up to the Throne for me. Then, all of a sudden, I saw my wife's prayer shooting upward like lightning, surpassing every other prayer on earth, reaching the Father's throne room instantly, and getting immediate response!

I am not saying to just ask your wife to pray "for" you, but to actually pray "with" you. As you come into agreement in prayer you will see victories that will take place no other way! Especially praying in the Spirit together, which will cause you to become the most intimate with each other, spiritually, bringing breakthroughs in the natural realm.

"THE NAME OF JESUS ALONE IS WAITING IN RESERVE TO SHATTER THE ENEMY TO PIECES!"

I sense many who, being in a hurry and who are not taking prayer seriously, are overlooking the name of Jesus! The name above every name! Use it continually! When you just can't seem to pray . . . whisper the name of Jesus! He lives forever to make intercession for you! Remember, He is praying for you and His prayers always get through!
And pray much in the Spirit. It allows you to pray perfectly as the Spirit Himself prays through you!

"THE RESERVE CALL FOR MINISTRIES TO CONNECT, PRAY, AND FLOW TOGETHER IN BATTLE!"

Has the Lord called you to a ministry and then seemingly left planet earth? Does He seem like He is not paying much attention to you and "your" individual ministry?
The reason the Lord is not paying much attention to "individual" ministries right now is because it isn't the season for individual ministries. God is seeing through corporate vision right now . . . He's got the whole world on His mind and heart. And the best thing we can do is to try to forget ourselves and "our" ministry long enough to humble ourselves and prefer and esteem other ministries above our own, and reach out and connect with them to receive the corporate anointing that He is releasing this hour. Each of us needs the corporate power for us to be launched into our destination! As ministries confess their weaknesses and pray one for another, healing will flow like mighty waterfalls!

Miracle Gro
Bill Yount

"I SAW ANGELS POURING 'MIRACLE GRO' UPON THE HEADS OF GREAT MEN WHO HAVE FALLEN!" Judges 16:22

"Howbeit the hair of Sampson's head began to grow again after he was shaven!" Judges 16:22

"A SEASON OF MIRACLE HAIR GROWTH!"

I have heard when you get your hair cut it gets rid of the dead ends of your hair. It causes your hair to grow healthy again. When your hair is shaven the 'dead ends' are definitely all gone! You only have new beginnings!

I saw Jesus anointing many heads that were bowed down with sin and shame with fresh oil. Angels were pouring 'Miracle Gro' upon these fallen ones. These men and women who had fallen into sin knew that only by some great miracle could they be lifted up to bring honor, to ever be used again. Many were crying out to God one last time.. "Remember me!" I saw angels being released to these repented ones proclaiming, "We've got your miracle! He's the glory and the lifter up of your head!"

"WHAT DO YOU MEAN PETER FELL?"

The Lord then reminded me of a boat ride that I took on the Sea of Galilee. I was in awe of the presence of the Lord on those waters. I thought to myself. This is the sea where so many miracles took place. We were about half way across the sea. I was curious. I asked the Lord. "Are we near the place where you called Peter out of the boat and he walked on the water before he fell?" The Lord answered me... "What do you mean Peter fell? This is the sea where Peter walked!" As though He didn't understand my question. Like he didn't know of the word failure in Peter's life! Again His voice echoed across the waters.... "This is the sea where Peter walked!" God doesn't know of the word failure in your life either. If you have confessed your sin and mistakes and asked forgiveness and repented, those sins are gone, gone, gone in the first split second! I used to think they were somewhere in the bottom of the sea of forgetfullness but I had a knowing on that sea of Galilee that they were not even down there.... 'The fish ate them!"

Perhaps you've heard the story of a man who walked past a monastery every day to go to work. Every day he felt so sinful as he passed by this holy place where monks appeared to live such holy, godly lives. One morning he finally found a monk who had stepped outside the gate of that holy place. As his heart beat with awe of the holy monk, he got up the nerve to ask the secret of their holy lives behind those walls. The monk humbly uttered their secret of the ages.... "We fall down and we get up!" The man was set free by those words. "A just (holy) man falls down seven times and gets back up again!" Proverbs 24:16

"GOD DID NOT SEE THE LAST TIME YOU FELL DOWN....HE ONLY SAW THE LAST TIME YOU GOT BACK UP!"

A champion gets up one more time than he falls down and they get their picture on the front of Wheaties' boxes. That's how they get there!

"I honestly just felt a tingling in the roots of my hair!"

The Country Music Scene
Bill Yount

"I Heard The Lord Say, "I Will Invade The Country Music Scene In Nashville, Tennessee!"

In the Spirit I saw a "band of Angels" with the address of Nashville, Tennessee written on them. These Angels were picking out sheet music from what appeared to be a warehouse of songs in Heaven. These songs seemed to have been stored up for such a time as this - a time of great trouble on the earth. These songs had such simple lyrics and music that children would be able to understand and be touched by them. And yet these lyrics were so profound and had such an unusual anointing that it would cause a drunken man to put down his bottle and become sober in the presence of God. These songs would touch people in the gutter to the uppermost parts of society bringing strong conviction of what life is really all about.

As the Lord was shaking heaven and earth these songs were being shaken out of heaven dropping down into Nashville, Tennessee to be dispersed to the nations. There were songs of "deliverance" - casting out evil spirits of addictions and fear. While these songs were being played on jukeboxes in bars whole taverns began coming under the influence of the Holy Spirit while ministering Angels were showing up in places where few saints had dared to go. Bars were turning into alters! Curse words were replaced by the name of Jesus. "DJs" were being touched as these songs were being requested over and over by the lost and the "righteous."

I sense the Lord had planted many of His people in the soil of "Country" music. Now they were budding forth in the Spirit and with great discernment expressing the "love songs" of the ages from the Father's heart. Many of these love songs would minister to marriages in the Body of Christ bringing healing to many couples that had forgotten how to say and express their love for each other. The anointing of these love songs were arresting and canceling many divorces in the Body of Christ as well as in the world! The love of God was exploding in recording studios in Nashville. The voices of Angels were being dubbed on recordings replacing back up singers who thought it was their own voices. I heard the Lord say, "I will invade the country music scene in Nashville, Tennessee!" I am in the "redeeming music business" and many of My songs will come forth out of Nashville."

"Over this city of Nashville will come forth a garment (mantle) of praise for the spirit of heaviness, beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for mourning." It will be said in the days to come that "God is singing at the "Grand Ole Oprey!"

Extended Warranty

Bill Yount

"Satan Lied In 2005! Your Prophetic Word, That You Believed For This Past Year, Has An 'Extended Warranty' On It. . . It's Good For The Next Year, Or Until It Comes To Pass!'"

December 20, 2005

I sense in the Spirit that many are troubled and confused over personal prophetic words that they have received in the past, including the year of 2005. Many thought these words would surely be fulfilled by the end of this year. The year is coming to a close and many are wondering, "What went wrong?"

"Have You Read The Fine Red-Blood Print On Your Warranty?"

I am not trying to get out of the responsibility of speaking forth words, but when God says, "This is the day of something to happen," prophetically the word day can represent a season that has started for that word to come to pass. Also, I sense with words such as "2005 - THE YEAR OF THE BRIDES," can mean that 2005 represents the year of the season beginning when singles will discover the one God has for them. I sense this word had its launching in 2005 and will continue into the future to be fulfilled in these last days.

I want you to know that if December 31 comes around and you are still single, this word is not over for you. You are still in the season of discovering the one that God has for you, for these are end-time weddings He is referring to. I have had many confirmations to this word through people finding their bride or groom this year and have personally attended some of these weddings.

"Even If Your Prophetic Word Seems To Have An*expiration Date*. . . "I'm Extending The 'Warranty' On It!"

Our God is unlimited. When we think it's over, it's just begun for God! Time gets in God's way when He prepares us for the fulfillment of His word to us. We mostly use alarm clocks when we try to figure out His timing. We set a certain time, and when it doesn't happen, we get into the alarm mode. But He makes all things beautiful in His time.

You have probably heard the story of the man who asked God, "Lord, what is a thousand years like to you?" The Lord answered, "A thousand years to me is just like a second!" The man also asked the Lord, "What is a million dollars like to you?" The Lord answered the man, "A million dollars to Me is just like a penny!" The man then asked the Lord, "Lord, could I have a million dollars?" The Lord answered, "Just a second!"

I sense that Satan has lied to many in 2005, trying to convince them that their word, dream, or vision that was hoped for by the end of this year is not coming to pass after all, and therefore, it is too late. I want to encourage you. Read the fine red-blood print of your extended warranty on your prophetic word and know that you are closer to its fulfillment now than ever before!

But then again, December 31 is not here yet. . . is it?

Eyeore
Vicki Camp

Eyeore ... HIS' Burro's*

Dream/night vision

In a prophetic dream scene I was shown a hot air balloon with a basket gondola standing in front of me in the great open expanse of light blue sky with not a cloud to be seen. Inside this basket-like gondola, was a little donkey or burro standing upright (!) against the basket side nearest me. He stood there on his hind legs with his front legs and hooves dangling, one front hoof pointing one way slightly and the other hoof pointing opposite, as in a total relaxed position, and yet the burro's eyes were expectant with light point. This little burro was humorous to see in this strange placement, in this upright stance! The only way to describe this burro of thick lashed large darkest eyes and hairs of face, would be "endearing".

As I looked closer at the burro, his large eyes and ears, and the coloring of his top notch hairs I spoke in the dream, 'This little burro looks like Eyeore !...' (of Winnie the Pooh fame ;), although he was not an animation at all, but was a real live burro in this dream scene.

I watched then as the fire in the bottom of the gondola flared sending up waves of heat, which lifted the balloon up and away further from me, blowing in the currents, being steered of the wind alone it seemed, as the hot air balloon carrying the little burro was lifted swiftly away and up into the distance ....and I awoke fully.

I heard, "........Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the Lord of hosts." - Zech. 4:6b

The open sky: *"He also brought me out into a broad place; He delivered me because HE delighted in me" - Ps. 18:19

The Lord began to open this vision to me with this meaning: This burro represented servant burden bearers, sure footed mount Zion climber's. Even as the humble colt who carried our King Jesus on HIS triumphal entry into Jerusalem; bearers whom carry most precious cargo.

I was made to understand that this burro represented many of His prophetic intercessors. He spoke to me that these ones not only carry the burden of the people of God up before HIM, they also then bring the 'burden of The Lord'; HIS heart and messages shown and heard by them in those heights of Glory realm, back down from HIS Throne to earth, to share vision with God's people. For, as we know from scriptures,

"Where there is no vision the people perish (caste off restraint)……" – Prov. 29:18

The Lord confirmed the fictional name 'Eyeore' to me, in that these ones represented by this humble humorous 'appearing' dream burro are as HIS Eyes and ears; The Spirit of God always roaming, looking and searching. These ones are seers (see-er's), even as I had been impressed of the beautiful limpid deep pools of thick lashed dark eyes of this dream-burro; Friends of God, humbly cloaked servants, having audience of HIS very eye and even the more, for they are In HIS very pupil as the apple of HIS' great endearment.

"........for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye." -Zech. 2:8b

I was then impressed again of this Truth -- even as this burro appeared slightly ignobly humorous to me in this dream scene -- Our Lord will take and use what appears foolish in this world, confounding the wise and the learned. - I Cor. 1:27-31 "..... that no flesh should glory in His presence." v.31 "that, as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory in the Lord."

I hear The Lord say concerning this vision, "Yes, these friends of Mine are as Eyeore's for they are in My Eye, and I gift to them My ore to bear; My heavenly currencies of greatest wealth.

My bearers of burden are garmented humbly outwardly. Seeking for Me on the rocky heights; They find Me, for I am very near to my bearers, whom are dear to Me.

I fill their packs and vessels with wealth that is high above any human or earthly understanding.

Even as you were shown in this vision gondola; In Fiery Holy Spirit Love I lift them, My beloved ones of endearment, in My zeal heat of incense and intercession, drafting and drawing them into My very presence by My Spirit.

I delight in these most noble beloved vessels who commune of My Spirit.

I show and gift in to My bearer's the treasuries birthed out from My very Eye.

You may be sure I do this, for My people WILL HAVE My Vision delivered and be accountable; Not necessarily by the might of muscled appearing war horses and their riders, nor by the power of mortal high understanding, but through my beloved bearers prepared of ME,,,,, delivering by My Spirit .... alone." (-Zech. 4:6)

I then heard this further instruction, "be prudent".

It is prudent (frugal handling of HIS' foreseeing wealth) that I / we do not pass by, or pass over these precious bearer's, perhaps even perceiving them as 'only' humorous appearing with no word of value for our 'lofty' ears? We are to hear these servant/friends of our Lord, when they tell of what they carry, for it is birthed from the very pupil of our Lord's Heart Eye!

Gold and precious gems are being mined and discovered in heavenly courts and gifted into these 'bearers'..... most precious heavenly "ore" is being returned to us all, in response to their intercessions and communion. Our Lord's wealth-return is being laid upon these ones who are of HIS great Heart endearments; Eyeore's of the character, nature and authority of Christ.

We may look and see with our natural discernments judging them as ignominious; Or we may judge aright by HIS Spirit, listening and hearing them, for as our Lord has spoken; these burro's are some of HIS ' Most Noble beloved vessels....'

v. 2b "...........The Lord is His Name: Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.' - Jer. 33:3

Praying For The Soul Of America

Ifeanyichukwu Amakor

Jul 16, 2005
Dear Intercessors & Warriors:

Let us join hands with the Holy Spirit to save the soul of America. This battle must be fought on the threshing floor and won. This is God's battle, which must be fought by God's people for the establishment of the Kingdom of God in America and around the nations. We need a shift in the spiritual landscape of America now. The boundaries must be adjusted. Our lines must return back to beacons mounted by founding fathers of America. The Supreme Court in America to a very large extent shifted the lines. ! Please let us all join in prayer.

Please forward to as many prayer circles as possible. Also print this and take to church this weekend.

2 Chronicles 20:15 - And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

Matthew 18:19 - Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

Joshua 23:10 - One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

Prayer Directives from www.dutchsheets.org

Make radical choices to fast and pray:

Pray for President Bush: for wisdom, strength and boldness. Pray against any deception or compromise. Pray that any counsel not consistent with God's Will, would not be received. Pray that he clearly hears only God's Will - even if God has to speak sovereignly through dreams or other methods.

Pray for the Senate that they confirm the right choice. Pray against filibustering of God's chosen person. Pray that there will be no compromise among conservatives.

Pray for the appointee(s): I believe God has groomed and shaped the perfect person(s) for the Court. Pray that she or he is found, appointed, and confirmed. Pray that they have strength and wisdom for the battle.

Pray the Word: Isaiah 1:26; Psalms 2; Psalms 24; Isaiah 9:6-7 and others God will show you.

Churches: Please do not conduct business as! usual. Pray in your services - and not just one or two minute prayers before messages or offerings. Pray! Take 15-20 minutes, give up sermon times, and give even entire church services to prayer. Jesus called His house "a house of prayer."

Individuals: Participate in all of the above. Send this email to every Christian you know, especially those in leadership.

Ministries: Ditto to #5. Especially sound the alarm. Use your correspondence lists, radio programs, T.V. programs, etc., to stir people to pray.

If you would like more help in promoting prayer, we have further prayer insights on this situation, general prayer information, and even a video/DVD/CD prepared especially for this cause. Thirty minute and 80 minute versions are available at a very low cost. Use this message for your personal help in praying, play it for prayer groups and congregations, or take the information and share it yourself. It is packed with critical information and facts.

Ha! ve numerous prayer meetings throughout the week - mornings, evenings, and lunch hours. Use this to stir up the prayer ministry of your congregation. Teach and preach on it. Encourage those able and willing to fast. My congregation is doing all of the above. Take a team to Washington, D.C., to pray. These should be teams of intercessors praying outside the White House, Supreme Court, and Capitol every day. Sow finances into ministries or organizations on the front lines of this battle.

Praying church, arise! We can win this battle for the control of the number one entry point of moral and spiritual decay in America over the last 50 years. But it will only happen if we pray!

Faith And Identity

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

Nov. 18, 2005
We have just returned home from a ten-day trip with a group from Restoration of Israel Ministries. It was a wonderful refreshing time of fellowship, divine appointments, and many wonders and signs from the Spirit of Holiness. Yet the journey was not without its times of testing for the group, the memory of which will no doubt fade away in the shadow of YHVH's amazing grace. We want to thank again ROIM for hosting us during those days.

In light of our experiences in the course of the tour, it has been interesting to read on the Internet some of the materials that is in opposition to the present move of the Spirit to restore the identity of the Lost Tribes of Israel. It is not hard to discern the spirit behind these attempts to frustrate YHVH's prophetic plans to re-establish ALL Israel; strewn throughout these writings is vipers' venom, marking the identity of those who are behind such efforts. These attitudes towards the destruction of Israel are not new, they stem from ancestral hatred that originated in the conflicts of the firstborn over an inheritance. Psalm 83 says it best:

"For behold, Your enemies make a tumult; and those who hate You have lifted up their head. They have taken crafty counsel against Your people, and consulted together against Your sheltered ones. They have said, 'Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more.' For they have consulted together with one consent; they form a confederacy against You: For they have consulted together with one consent; they form a confederacy against You: The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; Moab and the Hagrites; Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre; Assyria also has joined with them; they have helped the children of Lot" (Psalm 83:2-8).

To blot out the name of Israel, is to destroy the identity of the seed of Jacob. We know that the seed has been scattered and has settled in every nation, and that the majority are, as Ezekiel puts it, " in their graves." There is only one way, for those who are lost in that grave of non-identity, to be raised to life, and that is through a Redeemer who has the right and authority to call them forth from that tomb. We, of the Ephraimite movement, know beyond a shadow of a doubt who this Redeemer is. We would not have our resurrected identity without first being born again, through the Gospel of our Messiah Yeshua. The faith that comes alive in us is that of our forefather Abraham. This "faith" identifies us immediately as those of the seed that was preserved, but was scattered, or sown, by the Mighty One of Jacob/Israel.

"Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed [sperm], not only to those who are of the law [Judah], but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all" (Romans 4:16).

This "faith", when it comes alive, begins a process that cannot be stopped by any man, except by those who at one time may have had it but have chosen to deny it. Faith begins to draw us into "repentance"- a turning away from the ways of sin or lawlessness (torah-lessness, antinomianism), and back to the ways of righteousness and holiness. Repentance turns us away from the grave, and all of the shrouds of unbelief, doubt, blindness, forgetfulness, and despair. But more important is the bringing forth of the 'new creation man', and at the same time renewing our identity as a redeemed natural "nefesh" Israelite. This present move of the Spirit, also brings the people of "the faith" back to the Torah, which is their instruction manual, as well as 'identity papers'.

From the beginning YHVH has had a plan to redeem His creation, and Israel, His "firstborn", plays one of the most important roles in this drama. Almost every day we stand in amazement as He roles back the heavens, to reveal in the light of Yeshua, His kingdom order and His righteousness in the called-out remnant. Truly His will is being done on earth as it is in heaven!

Let us celebrate this Shabbat, as we enter His rest and rejoice in His salvation. Let us return to the whole counsel of Elohim, from Genesis to Revelation.

Shabbat Shalom Ephraim

Failing To See
Miranda Easmon

Miranda14@sprintpcs.com
September, 2005

I had a heavy burden on my heart on September 21 when I got home from work to intercede on behalf of this nation, on behalf of the church system, and on behalf of all Christians for the Lord to have mercy on us and on this nation. Yes indeed the judgment of the Lord is upon this nation and this is just but the beginning of many sorrows.

I have sat back in silence and listened to the controversy regarding whether what happened in New Orleans (Hurricane Katrina) was God's judgment on America or not… and then came Hurricane Rita. I have heard many men and women of God talk about a revival while promoting conferences (business as usual), I have heard perhaps one or two talk about repentance – it seems many are avoiding it because it is a taboo in the body of Christ – currently a sensitive topic. For some strange reason, many "men and women of God" are failing to see the judgment - hands of the Lord on this nation. The Lord sent a strong message through Katrina but they wanted to rebuild and carry on with Mardi gras but I believe the Lord will ensure that it is inhabitable. Bottom line, there will be further destruction in New Orleans to get their attention because some are not hearing what the Lord is saying.

Repentance is needed not rebuilding!
There will be no sustained rebuilding without repentance!

I prayed to the Lord for an intervention during Hurricane Rita - for a miraculous intervention of a five to a category one – there was no turning around, so I prayed for minimal damage to the State of Texas and prayed that He would honour my prayer. I prayed that other men and women of God were doing the same and interceding for the state of Texas because He is a merciful Lord who hears the prayers of His servants.

The Lord intervened out of mercy showing the power of prayer and His mercy towards us. What hurricane Rita did was nothing compared to what would have happened if many men and women of God had not interceded.

Consider the hospital in Galveston and the staff that stayed to look after the patients – I could not sit back and watch as I did with Katrina. We needed a miracle. I thought about the thousands of people stuck on the Freeway. We needed a miracle else, many would perish. I thought about the devastation in New Orleans; we could not handle another disaster with such magnitude. The Lord answered our prayers but there was a condition attached to the answered prayer. If we do not repent as the body of Christ and as a nation, we will see more disasters with more intensity because of the stubbornness of our hearts – in reality that is what is going on (that was what the Tsunami was also about, and that explains the intensity and frequency of the natural disasters).

I pray that we seek His face. I pray that the men and women of God preaching the adulterated gospel, those who have given priority to receiving money and will rather preach a lie than the truth will fall on their faces and repent. I pray that the church system will come out of religion into "Truth" because, God's intention, God's purpose of a Church was never the building of structures/and organizations. His intention was to have a people transformed into the character - nature of His Begotten Son - Jesus Christ so that the whole earth would be filled with His glory – and that is the Christ in us, the hope of glory!

I pray that men and women of God will come to the realization that it is an abomination to charge for the gospel for freely we have received and freely we should give, the Apostles and Jesus Christ never put a price tag on the word of God.

I pray that those that insist on taking prayers out of schools will repent for He is the Lord God and He decides what will be and what will not be.
I pray that those who want the Ten Commandments taken out of buildings, courts and do not want the mention of His name (the name of our Lord God) will fall down on their faces and repent because surely the wrath of the Lord is upon this land - contrary to what some church system leaders believe.

I pray that we all come out of the delusion that we are in control of our lives and realize that He is the Lord God and He is the one in control and without Him, we can do nothing. He is showing us His power and His wrath, the part we do not like to acknowledge and it is coming across very loud and clear.

I pray that we humble ourselves under the mighty hands of the Lord God and come to the realization that we need His covering back on this nation else we will be destroyed - because without Him we are nothing.

I pray that we realize that accumulation of wealth through greed can be destroyed within seconds but the “Truth” which is “His word” shall remain.

I pray that Men and women of God will start interceding for this nation for the Lord is calling us to repentance because indeed many have turned their back on Him. The church that was to represent Christ has forsaken Him, it has turned into an organization with bricks and wood rather than a living organism filled with His glory. Surely, the wrath of the Lord is upon us. Let us therefore humble ourselves under the mighty hands of the Lord in repentance and prayers, and may be He will have mercy on us and relent because this is just but the beginning of many disasters and sorrows. It will hit the four corners of this nation the South, North, East and West and the four corners of the earth if we do not get down on our faces in humility and seek His face in repentance and prayers. We are an example of a nation that has turned its face from the Lord.

The Lord is using us as an example for others to see but in spite of all this…

I see the Lord birthing out His glorious church by His Spirit worldwide for I hear the whole earth travailing and groaning for the manifestation of the sons of God. That is what is happening and they are coming forth for the Lord explicitly said, the year 2004 onwards will be the year of the revealing of the sons of God - that is when they will start coming forth.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

1. Job 28:28
   And to man He said, ‘Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, And to depart from evil is understanding.’

2. Psalm 111:10
   The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all those who do His commandments. His praise endures forever.
3. Proverbs 1:7
   The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, But fools despise wisdom and instruction.
4. Proverbs 9:10
   The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

5. Proverbs 15:33
   The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom, And before honor is humility.

6. Isaiah 33:6
   Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times, And the strength of salvation; The fear of the LORD is His treasure.

Jeremiah 23
[17] They keep saying to those who despise me,
'The LORD says: You will have peace.'
And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts
they say, 'No harm will come to you.'
[18] For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD,
And has perceived and heard His word?
Who has marked His word and heard it?
[19] Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—
A violent whirlwind!
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.
[20] The anger of the LORD will not turn back
Until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart.
In the latter days you will understand it perfectly.
[21] " I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
[22] But if they had stood in My counsel,
And had caused My people to hear My words,
Then they would have turned them from their evil way
And from the evil of their doings.

Jeremiah 5
[22] Should you not fear me?" declares the LORD.
"Should you not tremble in my presence?
I made the sand a boundary for the sea,
an everlasting barrier it cannot cross.
The waves may roll, but they cannot prevail;
they may roar, but they cannot cross it.
[23] But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts;
they have turned aside and gone away.
The same Lord who made the sand a boundary for the sea an everlasting barrier so that it can not cross, has the power to let the sea cross the boundary of the sand. This is not the hand of the devil, the devil does not have that kind of power, this is the demonstration of the power of God to let us understand and know that He, The Lord God is in control of all things. He is cleansing our filth and everything that can be shaken, will be shaken. Yes, He is the same Lord that causes the earth to quake and activates the volcanoes. His voice is upon the waters and His voice shakes the wilderness.

I beseech the men and women of God to let us humble ourselves before the Lord God in repentance and prayer as the body of Christ, then as a nation.

In Him,

Faith And Patience

Rick Joyner

"It takes both faith and patience to inherit the promises of God."

> "Now Jericho was tightly shut because of the sons of Israel; no one went out and no one came in. And the LORD said to Joshua, See, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and the valiant warriors. And you shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do so for six days. Also seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark; then on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. And it shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people will go up every man straight ahead." -Joshua 6:1-5

What kind of strategy is this? It's obvious that this was not a military strategy intended in some way to soften up their enemy; rather, it was intended to accomplish something in Israel--faith, patience, and obedience. If they were going to win battles God's way, they were going to have to learn from the very beginning to do things His way.

We must keep in mind that the Lord could move His little finger and all of His enemies would cease to exist. The strategies He gives to us for victories are almost always meant to accomplish something in us--they rarely have anything to do with a strategy intended to outsmart or overpower the enemy. That has already been done. The reason for the battle is what He wants to work in us, not the enemy.

Seven Steps of God's Strategy for Working in Us

Let's look at this strategy step-by-step, adding the seventh step that Joshua adds in verse 10, to get a sense of how He is trying to accomplish these things in us:

1) The first thing Joshua had to do was see Jericho as already taken.

Joshua and the people had to have God's vision, seeing from God's perspective through their spiritual eyes, not just what their physical eyes saw.

2) They had to march around the city one time a day for six days.

In Joshua 1:3, they had already been told by the Lord, "Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you..." It is interesting that the Lord also made Abraham walk throughout the land that he was being given. There is spiritual significance to actually touching or walking in what we are claiming. For major strongholds, it will often require repetition, endurance, and faithfulness. Therefore, they had to circle the city over and over until it was imprinted in their souls that this was their land.

3) The priests had to march with the men of war carrying the ram's horns.

Priests are intercessors, and the ram's horn represented the message going forth. In many of the attempts to bring down some of the great strongholds of our time, there is an assault by the courageous, action-oriented leader types. In others, almost all intercessors will take little outward action. We need to have a joining of the men and women of action, the "men of war," and those devoted to prayer before we will see the victory.

4) On the seventh day, they had to march around the city seven times.

Seven is the number of completion, and this represented complete obedience to the strategy of the Lord. Again, this strategy was not so much to bring the walls of Jericho down, which would have been an easy thing for the Lord, but it was to bring His people into complete obedience to Him. This will be required before we will see victories over the great strongholds of our time.

5) When they heard the long blast of the ram's horn and the sound of the trumpet, all of the people were to shout, and the walls would fall down.

The ram's horn was the command of the Lord sounded through His priests. The shout was the command of the Lord which sounded through all of the people. The authority of both, in perfect harmony and timing with the Lord, is needed for the victory. We are going to have to come to this place of harmony and unity so that when the Lord gives His command through one, it is immediately echoed by the people and not run through committees or debated. That may be the democratic way, but it will not work if we are going to be a part of the ones who cross over to take the land.

6) They were then each to go in straight ahead to possess the city.

Many great victories in history were ultimately turned into great defeats because the commanders lost control of their soldiers after the breakthrough, and they all started attacking whoever and however they wanted, which resulted in chaos. For this reason, it is said of the army of the Lord in Joel 2:7-8, "They run like mighty men; they climb the wall like soldiers, and they each march in line, nor do they deviate from their paths. They do not crowd each other; they march everyone in his path. When they burst through the defenses, they do not break ranks."

Presently, the church is a long way from being able to do this because most do not even walk a straight path now, but drift about from church to church, or ministry to ministry, doing whatever pleases them rather than following the clearly revealed will of God. This will change for those who cross over. We will learn how to march in a straight line, with clear purpose and direction. And when there is a breakthrough, we will continue to have the discipline to keep going straight without crowding others.

7) "You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout!" -Joshua 6:10
Probably the greatest hindrance to spiritual advancement in the church today is the same as it was for Israel in the wilderness: the murmuring of the people--their grumbling, complaining, and second-guessing of the leadership. This absolutely will not be a part of the generation that is allowed to cross over and begin possessing the Promised Land. There are a multitude of Scriptures that address this issue, but let us just consider these three about how important it is for us to learn to control what we say:

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit." -Proverbs 18:21

"He who guards his mouth and his tongue guards his soul from troubles." -Proverbs 21:23

"If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless." -James 1:26

Obedience to the Lord of Hosts

Of course, a book could be written about each of these seven principles. It is interesting how closely the most effective leadership and management courses now follow these principles. Sports news has been filled for weeks about one who many consider the best wide receiver in the NFL, and possibly even the best athlete in the league. He was not only benched, but he was removed from his team because he would not march in line with the rest of his team, and he could not control his tongue. He was making many millions a year just for playing a game. Not only has he lost that, he may never play again for anyone. If even the most talented player begins to destroy the fabric of a team, any true leader will get rid of that person fast. The Lord refused to let a whole generation go on with Him because of this.

The first thing Israel had to do was learn to march in order. The great commanders in history are those who trained their troops well. That alone will not make you a great commander, but it is not likely you could ever be one without well-trained troops. Great commanders are not looking for the affection of their troops--they are looking for their obedience. Consider this: many churches, ministries, and movements faded away because the leader chose their lieutenants more on loyalty to themselves rather than ability or true obedience to the Lord.

Again, this opens a can of worms that to address effectively would be worthy of a whole book. Consider the following examples from historic battles because we are going to have to fight for our land, and we are going to have to take on a military mentality. There is a reason why the Lord of hosts, or Lord of armies, uses that title ten times more than His other titles.

One of the Duke of Wellington's greatest victories against the French army in his Peninsula campaign came as the result of his troops being just a little more disciplined and a little more trusting of him than the French trusted their general. The two armies marched back and forth over the same ground for nearly two weeks within sight of each other. Both generals were doing this waiting for the other to drop their guard for just a moment so that they could attack and exploit this letdown. They did not have time to tell all of their troops what they were doing. The troops just had to trust their general. Finally, the French army took a brief pause late in the afternoon, thinking it was too late for Wellington to attack them. To the shock of even Wellington's own officers, he gave the order to charge. They did not debate it--they did it, and the French were soundly defeated.

Wellington could not have done this if his troops had not been so well-trained to be willing to go through this exercise and then immediately change their routine and charge the enemy. Wellington's reward for this brilliant victory was to be made the commander over all of the allied troops. He was chosen then to lead the battle against an even greater foe: Napoleon himself, who Wellington defeated at the Battle of Waterloo.

Faith and Patience

It was basically this same strategy that allowed Sam Houston to defeat the Mexican general Santa Anna and for the Russian general Kutozov to wear down Napoleon's massive army when he invaded Russia. In both of these cases, the armies were taken to the very limits of their endurance, grieving at what appeared to be the lack of the will to fight on the part of their commanders. However, both commanders were waiting until the proper time so that they could fight and win. Afterwards, they were considered geniuses for their patience.

Few of the truly great commanders in history are ever referred to as "beloved," but rather "revered" or "respected." There are exceptions, but even they do not have one of their goals as winning a popularity contest. Victory brings far more true affection than trying to be a nice guy to everyone. If we are called to leadership, we will love our people far more, and in truth, we should be severe enough to train them right so that they do not die in the battle, but accomplish their purpose.

We must also consider how many well-meaning Christian leaders have attacked some of the great strongholds of our times too hastily, without the proper preparation, training of their people, or even having the strategy of the Lord. The result has been far too many defeats for God's people. It takes both "faith and patience" to inherit the promises of God. Many who have attacked these strongholds had faith, but they lacked patience, and so the only thing accomplished was that the saints became worn-out, and now, many have a defeatist mentality.

This will change.

False Prophets

Celia Rose Okhuysen (USA)

>> “The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has My word, LET HIM SPEAK MY WORD FAITHFULLY. What is the chaff to the wheat?” says the Lord. “Is not My word like a fire?” says the Lord, “and like a hammer that breaks the rock [hardened heart] in pieces? Therefore behold, I am against the [false] prophets,” says the Lord; [“I am even now descending upon them with punishment, these prophets] who steal My words from one another [imitating the phrases of the true prophets]. Behold, I am against the prophets,” says the Lord, “ who use their [own deceitful] tongues and say, ‘Thus says [the Lord].’ Behold, I am against the prophets,” says the Lord, “who prophesy lying dreams,” says the Lord, “and tell them and cause My people to err and go astray by their lies and by their vain boasting and recklessness, when I DID NOT SEND THEM or command them; nor do they profit this people at all,” says the Lord (Jer. 23:28, 30-32 — Amplified Bible).

>> Then the Lord said to me, “The [false] prophets prophesy lies in My name. I SENT THEM NOT, neither have I commanded them, nor have I spoken to them. They prophesy to you a false or pretended vision, … the deceit of their own minds” (Jer. 14:14 — Amplified Bible).

DREAM — August 7, 1989

It was a pale gray day. I walked in the midst of a large gathering of people in a countryside setting. They were mostly men, and all wore winter clothing. Some wore jackets while others wore coats. Strangely, however, it was not cold at all. The temperature was quite mild.

We were in an enormous open field setting. The mowed grass was “healthy” green. There were no flowers, bushes, weeds, fences nor rocks to be seen anywhere. In the far distance, I could see many, many healthy tall green trees all around the enormous field. In the middle of the open field was a very long wooden bare table with empty chairs. The people moved about casually while talking among themselves. A while later, I noticed that a few people now sat at the table. There was an empty chair at one end of the long table, but there was no chair at the other end of the table.

Later, I saw large groups sitting in audience-like fashion on both sides of the table, behind some of those already seated on both sides of the table. I now sat in the midst of the audience on one side of the table. A man in the audience, on the opposite side, to the left, stood up in the front row just behind those seated at the table. He was a portly, middle-aged man with auburn color hair and a ruddy (reddish) complexion. He was robust and healthy in appearance, and spoke with a strong accent saying, “I’m waiting to be seated at this table.” Many in the audience on both sides of the table nodded their heads in agreement as some also made similar comments.

Later, I stood about thirty feet away from a drab gray concrete building wall to my left. It now stood in the midst of the field. It had no windows. A stout, fair complexioned, white-haired woman in her mid sixties and wearing a black coat hurriedly approached me from the left, saying, “I’m here for the bride’s dress.” She then quickly walked past me toward a doorway into the building.

Approximately one hundred feet ahead of me was the same long table. All the chairs at the table were now occupied, and the audiences had grown into larger crowds on both sides of the table. They calmly talked among themselves.

Next, the white-haired stout woman rushed out of the building with her right arm stretched up high as she held a long white wedding dress by the collar with her hand—not on a hangar. As she passed me to my left with the dress draped down her arm, I clearly saw the beautiful white lace and fine delicate embroidery on the dress. The woman was quite excited and in a great hurry. She hastened towards the people, parading up one side of the table between those seated at the table and the audience, then went around behind the empty seat at one end of the table, and came down the other side between the table and the opposite audience while excitedly exhibiting the bridal dress for everyone to see. While everyone focused on the dress, I noticed that a white tablecloth now covered the empty table. The chair at one end of the table remained empty while the other end of the table remained without a chair. After a short time of exhibiting the wedding dress to everyone, the woman quickly hurried out of sight to the left.

On my way towards the table I saw an empty chair that stood by itself far away from the table. While walking by the chair, I glanced down and noticed a bride's headpiece in the form of a crown lying on its side on the empty chair. It was an exquisite crown made of stiff white lace. I picked up the headpiece, and held it up high with my right hand. I then walked toward the crowd and stood by the empty chair at the head of the table, and cried out loud for everyone to hear, "Look! It's the bride's headpiece!" Everyone looked as I held it up high for everyone to see. I did not parade it in the midst of the crowd as the older woman did with the bride's dress but stood close to the empty chair at the end of the table. Excitement began to build up in their midst as they fixed their eyes on the bride's headpiece. It had no veil. END

INTERPRETATION

The large gathering of people in the countryside represents a company of false prophets. Although the weather was mild, their wearing jackets and coats symbolizes that their hearts are cold towards Lord Jesus and His warning:

~~~~~~~~~~

>> "BEWARE OF FALSE PROPHETS, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits. *… Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, '*Lord, Lord, HAVE WE NOT PROPHESIED in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I NEVER KNEW YOU; DEPART FROM ME, you who practice lawlessness!' " (Mt. 7:15, 16, 21-23

The healthy green grass symbolizes prosperity. Their open show of "walking" on green grass reveals that they are parading as being true prophets called by God into the five-fold ministry of Eph. 4:11, 12. Inwardly, they are quietly but publicly boasting of being prosperous and blessed by "supposedly" being called to the Office of Prophet.

The full-bodied trees in the distance represent the masses in and of the world sprouting forth their endless "fruit" of unrighteousness and ungodliness. (Jn. 15:18-25 — 1Cor. 6:9, 10 — Eph. 5:5 — Rev. 21:8 — Ps. 1:4-6)

The long wooden table symbolizes a place of fellowship. Here, those few people who now begin to sit down at the table are anxious to reveal themselves to be prophets of God.

The empty chair at the end of the table represents where Lord Jesus should be seated. However, He does not KNOW these prophets as declared by Him in the above quoted Scripture. Therefore, His absence clearly reveals His rejection of these "so-called" prophets. (Eph. 4:11) It is Lord Jesus Who SENDS His Church prophets, as declared by Him in Mat. 23:24 under the anointing of Holy Spirit. (Eph. 4:11, 12)

The audiences seated behind the prophets symbolize a greater number of "wannabe" (want to be) prophets who are eager to parade themselves as prophets of God. Neither they nor those seated at the table have been "called" to the Office of Prophet by Lord Jesus through the anointing of Holy Spirit. They are walking in the flesh, and are carnally minded.

>> For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit [set their minds on] the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded [walking in the flesh] is death, but to be spiritually minded [walking in the Spirit] is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity [hostile] against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. So then, THOSE WHO ARE IN THE FLESH CANNOT PLEASE GOD. … For if you live according to the flesh you will [spiritually] die [go to Hell]; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will [spiritually] live [go to Heaven]. For as many as are LED BY THE SPIRIT OF GOD, these are sons of God (Rom. 8:5-8, 13, 14).

~~~~~~~~~~

The man with auburn color hair and reddish complexion, who stood up to declare his intention of wanting to sit at the table with the other prophets symbolizes an "imposter," seeking to justify himself as someone who has been called by God to be a prophet. His stout (fat) appearance reveals him to be corpulent: FLESHY. He has been operating "in the flesh" and not under the anointing of Holy Spirit. His "pronounced" accent is intended to proudly set himself apart from others in the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, symbolizing that he has a "unique voice" because he is speaking as God's mouthpiece to the Church. This "imposter" is a liar, and unless he repents, his fate is spelled out in Rev. 21:8.

>> "Therefore, behold I am against the prophets," says the Lord, … who steal My words among one another [imitating the phrases of the true prophets]. Behold, I am against the prophets," says the Lord, "who use their [own deceitful] tongues and say, 'Thus says [the Lord]' " (Jer. 23:30, 31 Amplified Bible).

Because of my anointing to observe, discern and operate in the Spirit, in the dream I am "assigned by the Spirit" to sit in the midst of one of the audiences to observe and discern these people to be false prophets.

The gray concrete building wall that now appears in the midst of the field symbolizes Hell. Its lack of distinction and color represents this building as unholy and unsanctified. Its lack of windows symbolizes that there was no Light within. It is a darkened den of iniquity. Housed within it is a maverick (nonconformist individualistic) church that has rebelled against the Word of God and "struck out on her own," away from an intimate, faithful, humble, obedient and worshipful relationship with Lord Jesus. She lacks conviction of sin due to her carnality.

A woman in a spiritual dream symbolizes a church and/or sin. The stout, fair complexioned, white haired "mature" woman represents an easily recognized sin-laden (flesh ridden) church. This woman symbolizes both, and has been around for a very, very long time. Here again, her stout (fat) appearance also reveals her to be corpulent: FLESHY. She has been operating "in the flesh" and not under the anointing of Holy Spirit. She has "structured" and promoted herself as a "social country club" for the Saints' pleasures and amusements rather than operate under the anointing and teaching of Holy Spirit to TEACH and exhort (encourage) them how to pray, read and study the Word of God, and to work out their salvation through fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12). Her white hair (symbolic of "wisdom") portrays deception through "counterfeit wisdom." THUSLY, the result is her fictitious teaching and consecration of "false prophets" that "tickle ears."

The symbolic color of sin is "black." The woman's black coat symbolizes her as clothed in unrighteousness through disobedience and rebellion to the Word of God Lord Jesus Christ. Her "mature" appearance reveals that she has been performing in this "theater" atmosphere far too long. Throughout the ages she has deceived many, many Saints in the Church into walking and operating in the flesh, and not in the Spirit of God. The following Scripture from the Book of Romans is written to the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth and not to worldly sinners. Saints of God, please read the following Scripture carefully and STUDY:

>> I say then: WALK IN THE SPIRIT, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. [Rom. 7:13-25] But if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law. [Rom. 8:14] Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, licentiousness [immoral; shameless; wicked], idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, SELFISH AMBITIONS*, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past,* that those who practice such things WILL NOT INHERIT THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering [patience], kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also WALK IN THE SPIRIT (Gal. 5:16-25).

The wedding dress held up high by the woman's right hand represents "hands on," symbolizing that this church has had a "firm hold" over many Saints' spiritual lives and their "dwarfed" (suppressed) spiritual growth. Their stunted spiritual development has kept them from growing and maturing in the Word of God, and walking in and after (Rom. 8:1) the Holy Spirit.

Parading the bride's wedding dress in front of everyone clearly represents this church's show of shameless pride and self-rule ("doing her own thing") without conviction through the Word of God.

The table here symbolizes teaching and fellowship. The "teaching" here is to a class of ambitious "wannabe" prophets with others waiting on the "side lines." The white (color of purity) tablecloth is intended to display a show of righteous teaching and calling of God. However, the empty table reveals that these people were not "nourishing" themselves on the Word of God.

>> "And the [false] prophets become wind, for the word is not in them" (Jer. 5:13).
~~~~~~~~~~

The wedding dress being taken to the bride reveals that this church is alert to the imminent Rapture of the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. She believes that she will be "caught up" to be with the Lord forevermore.

>> …that He might present it to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that it should be HOLY and without blemish (Eph. 5:27).
~~~~~~~~~~

However, because of this church's unfaithfulness, disobedience, pride and unrighteousness she will be left behind to suffer famine of the Word of God horrendous awful dreadful terrible unbearable atrocious unspeakable horrific ghastly hideous horrible appalling painful suffering famine consequences under the dictatorship of the Antichrist. Because of Lord Jesus' great love for her (Jn. 14:21 Pr. 10:12), and His mercy toward her because He "never leaves nor forsakes [her]" (Heb. 13:5), and is her "HOPE OF GLORY" (Col. 1:27), she will still be able to remorsefully repent of her unfaithfulness and unrighteousness so as to finally enter Glory even though she will still be persecuted and martyred for her faith in her Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ.

>> And it was granted to him [Antichrist] to make war with the saints and to overcome them (Rev. 13:7).

>> He [lamb with two horns, speaking like a dragon Rev. 13:11] was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. And he [Antichrist] causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. *Here is wisdom. The bridal headpiece in the form of a crown represents the bride's "fallen crown." When I picked it up from the chair I did not parade and display it before the people. Instead, as a called prophet of God I stood by the empty chair at the end of the table, held it up and symbolically declared   by showing the "bride's fallen crown"   her unrighteous standing before Lord Jesus as unfaithful, proud, shameless, disobedient, backslidden, rebellious, and impenitent (no remorse).

The chair with the "fallen crown" headpiece, which the bride (church) would probably have occupied, and that belonged at the other end of the table is distanced away from the table. This reveals just how far removed she is from holiness, faithfulness, obedience, righteousness and fellowshipping with her Savior and Lord. This church has left "her first love"   Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ   and is therefore "fallen." (Rev. 2:4, 5)

The missing veil symbolizes pride   no shame — haughtiness   arrogance   overconfidence   self- sufficiency.

COMMENTARY

I've read and studied the Book of Jeremiah often, and what unfolded before my understanding was stunning! It could've almost been specifically written for today's Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (JUDAH) in Chapters 1-25 in great and explicit detail. (JUDAH is mentioned in Jeremiah 183 times.) While some may debate that it specifically refers to the Israelites of that time, the Word throughout the ages expressly deals with the condition of the heart.

~~~~~~~~~~
>> "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked. Who can know it? I, THE LORD, SEARCH THE HEART, [2Chr. 16:9] I TEST THE MIND*, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings* (Jer. 17:9).

[IMAGINATION OF EVIL HEART[S]: Jeremiah 3:17   7:24   9:14   11:8   13:10   16:12   18:12   23:17]

A study of the Book of Jeremiah by the reader would bring even greater and somber revelation with deeper conviction from the "past" (Almighty and Creator God's declarations in the Old Testament) that sin is sin, no matter what shade or degree. The Word which endures forever (1Pet. 1:24-25) clearly declares in Hebrews 12:14 that "WITHOUT HOLINESS, NO ONE SHALL SEE THE LORD."

A summary at the end of the Book of Jeremiah in DAKE'S ANNOTATED REFERENCE BIBLE states that the prophecy of Jeremiah might be considered the great book on backsliding and the dangers of apostasy. Apart from this only one other book even mentions the word "backsliding" (Hosea 4:16   11:7   14:4). Jeremiah's theme seems to be that of judgment without mercy for those who become apostates and defy [challenge   treat with contempt   rebel   resist disregard disobey] God. Jeremiah's purpose was to clearly reveal the consequences of sin and apostasy; to reveal to [us] our own future in the plan of God for man; and to emphasize the fact that the destiny of every man is determined by his conformity or lack of conformity to God and His plan.

MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH

At this particular time, I would like to reveal to the Church of Lord Jesus that in mid December 2004 I received strong promptings from Holy Spirit to work on and post the remaining end time dreams I had filed away in a binder. I began to receive them in August 1989, beginning with THE RAPTURE!, http://www.etpv.org/2003/therap.html. The prompting and conviction I received from Holy Spirit was that I should finalize the few remaining dreams in an orderly but prompt fashion. Therefore, since the beginning of this year I've been working on and posting those dreams that remained while linking each dream with the previous posted dream, etc. Following the posting of this dream, there remains one more end time dream to be worked on and posted. I cannot say why I have received these strong promptings because I do not know. Perhaps I will receive a few more dreams to the Church that will be current, OR, BELOVED, WE ARE ALMOST OUT OF HERE! But ONLY and ONLY Lord Jesus knows the exact moment when He will call His Bride Home.

Fully Alive Transparent And Real

Betty Heimbach

<bjheimbach@hotmail.com>
Oct. 19, 2005

Beloved,

“You have a concern over public exposure, which could prevent you from being as transparent as I have called you to be, as I desire you to be.. Don’t allow distractions or concern over any self-revelation to prevent you from following My plan for you. Trust Me to take you where I desire for you to go and protect you as you obey Me. Keep your focus on Me and My assignment for you without undue concern over revealing something about yourself.

“I am bringing you to a new level in My ways, a new place in your spiritual journey filled with peace. There is a place for you, a place I, your God have for you that when you get there you will have peace and you will know in your spirit that it is your place. I know your heart, your desires; I know what pleases you and delights you. The place I have for you will be so comfortable and so beautiful that it will seem familiar in some ways.

“I Am, God, Jehovah, the eternal One, the God who was, who is, and who is to come; the God of the past, present and the future. the God of your past – I know everything about you and I have the power to heal and restore all things. I am the God of your present – today – I know all that is in your heart, I know My plan for you and I have it all in My loving hands. I am working in you to will and do My good pleasure. And I am the God of your future. It is all worked out. I have a plan for you and My plan is perfect It contains all that you need for life and peace and joy. Trust Me completely with your life, past, present and future. My plans for you are good and will bring you much joy as you submit to it.

“I am now clothing you anew in white, the symbol of purity and surrender. As you surrender everything, all that you are and all that you long to be, all that you have and all that you desire to Me, I am bringing you a new level in Me, a new level of purity, a deeper level of surrender, a new level of anointing and fruitfulness and a greater level of peace.

“Give up everything from the past – even those things which seem so difficult to give up. Release it all to Me. Do not be concerned with what you’ve lost or given up. Don’t look to people to fill needs. Don’t mourn over your losses. And do not attempt to patch the wound. Don’t try to put a bandage on it and make it all well. Give it all to Me and allow Me to bring complete healing in this area.

“I want to show you the two sides of a coin – heads or tails. Different views. On the one side is your calling to be an encourager – a type of cheerleader who brings the good news of the gospel to those who need to hear. One who points out that victory is ahead - in God. I call you to speak words of comfort and encouragement to those I send your way.

“On the other side is the call to be real – not putting on a cheerful façade for others, an outward face that does not match your inner self. You have not been called to be always cheerful and always smiling. Don’t paint a smile on your face to hide what’s inside. Trust Me completely with every area of your life – your emotions, your desires for your personal life and your ministry gifts and calling. Trust Me in every way in every thing and I will make everything around you alive with My presence.

“ I want you to be fully alive - not drawn back to the past with half your mind and half your emotions there, but fully living in the present, fully alive in Me. Not just barely alive, having a pulse with no other sign of life. Not just playing at life as children playing house, but fully engaged in living life to the utmost, walking in abundant life.

“Wake up to My fulfilling, satisfying, energizing, enervating, electrifying, powerful, loving presence. And you will be more alive than you have ever been or ever imagined you could be. Wake up to the abundant life that Jesus came to bring you.”

Feet And Tongues Of Fire

Lana Perry

My Precious children I love each of you so very much. I am constantly calling you closer to Me, and constantly calling each of you to come deeper. This is and will always be the cry of My heart for you My children. That I may lavish My goodness and love upon you in ways you have never known before. That I may show you My greatness and kindness, and that My Spirit may overflow in your lives.

I am now anointing My people's feet. This is a time where I am sending out My children to the nations. I am sending some of you out physically. Some of you are believing to be sent to nations, and I am calling you to go. I am calling you to stand up and to believe what I have spoken to you, and not be moved by what others around you say.

I am going to provide for many of you and you will see Me bridge together people of different cultures, different groups, and different nations. I am moving and bringing together' many things in My Spirit.

I am anointing each of your feet to move forward. To not stay where you have been, but move onto what I have for you. To not remain in the past, but move forward into the future. To be constantly listening to My Spirit and moving. Where things seem impossible, believe. Where things seem dull, believe. Where things seem too hard, believe. Believe and I will perform the miraculous before your very eyes.

Many of you are called and are going to the nations, and there you will see Me move in great ways. You will see the enemy rise up against you harder than ever before, but you will walk in great victory.

I am anointing My children's feet, and the impossible is now becoming the possible. In ways where people have said before that ‘it is not of God', they will now see that it is of Me. I am moving differently, in a way that people will see the miraculous provision of My mighty hand, and where it can only be done by My mighty hand.

I am anointing My children's feet in prayer and intercession. Many of you are interceding for nations, and I am saying to each of you that I am giving you this nation. As you continue to ask of Me, I will give the nations to you. You may not physically place your feet on these nations, but you are spiritually placing your feet on these nations. I am going to give you your inheritance. The nations are your inheritance. I am going to show each of you a Mighty move of My Spirit as you intercede for the nation that I have placed on your heart. Whether it is the nation you live in, or another nation, intercede. I have called all My children to intercede for the nations, and for the leaders of nations.

Fire is falling on many of your feet. I am pouring My fire onto your feet, onto many of you, to confirm My call on your lives. My call for you to ‘go out'. My calling on your lives to ‘go out' into your neighborhoods, into your workplaces, into your families, into the streets and proclaim My Word.

I am pouring My fire onto your feet, so that each of you will know the call that I have placed on you. Have I called each of you to sit still? No! I have called you to get up! To get up, out of your comfort zones, and spread My Word. I am calling each of you to allow Me to minister through you in your places of influence. I am calling each of you to be proactive. Do not sit around and wait for someone else to do it, allow Me, to move through you.

I am pouring My fire onto your feet My people. Listen! Listen to the call I have placed on your lives. I am now showing each of you in different ways, that which I have called you too, I am pouring My fire out onto your feet, reaffirming My calling on your lives. Listen! Do not walk away, listen.

For where your feet tread, My Spirit arrives. You take My Gospel with you wherever you go. Do not be hesitant, do not be fearful. Come to Me and listen to Me reaffirm My calling on your life, so that you may again go out, continue to go out and allow Me to move through you. Many of you are doubting your calls, and many of you are staying where you are out of fear and insecurity.

Rise up! Rise up! Rise up! I have anointed you, and I am now pouring My fire onto your feet. Listen to My call. Do not fear anymore, walk out in My confidence, My love, My boldness and My victory.
I am releasing a greater fire onto the tongues of My children. I am anointing your tongues.

Many of you are now being brought forward, brought forward by My Spirit to speak forth the Word. Many of you are being sent out, and will deliver fresh and powerful words, My Spirit flowing through you, words that have a fresh anointing. This is what I am doing. I am anointing your tongues with fire.

I am purifying many of you for the task ahead. I am purifying many of you for the calling I have on your lives. Why do you tire of the purification process? Why do you tire of becoming more like Me? Do not tire in this process. I know it is hard, but continue to surrender and allow Me to do My work in you, and conform you to be more like Me.

Many of you are being sent into places now that are places you never dreamed of going, but I am sending you there. As you speak out My Word, and allow My fire to come forth from your mouth, you will see release, you will see hope, you will see freedom come to the people receiving these words.

A greater anointing, a greater fire is now falling for those of you who are willing to speak out.
I have called all of you to speak out. Wherever you are, you are to speak out. Whether before one person, or a thousand, you are to speak out. Leave fear behind. Stop allowing fear to overtake you, and speak out.
You have I, The God of the Universe living inside you, and I will speak forth the truth through you, and My Word will NOT return void. I have anointed each of your tongues, and you will speak and My fire, will flow forth and destroy all not of Me.
I am showing My children, the importance of the tongue. I am showing many of My children the importance of speaking My truth now. Speaking My truth out and allowing the fire of the Holy Spirit to flow through you and break down the things not of Me.

Many of you are speaking words of death. Words that are bringing death to your lives, others lives, and situations. Speak life.
What does My Word say? Speak My Word! Speak life!
Do you want your tongue to be cold? Do you want your tongue to bring death upon the life of another? Or will you allow Me, the Great I Am, to pour out My fire in a greater way upon your tongue, and you may speak forth blessing, and encouragement.

Choose My children.
My army is now being raised. I do not want an army of people who speak words contrary to My Word.
I am now aligning you. I am placing each of you where you need to be.
Increase of fire and boldness is coming to My children. It's being poured out. Strongholds will be torn down by messages from My heart in ways they never have been.

This is a new day. I am bringing about a Mighty move of My Spirit on this earth, through anointing My children's feet, and tongues.
I can anoint, but you must choose.
Listen to My voice, and choose! Choose whether you will receive the fresh fire from heaven upon your feet and tongue.

In Quietness You’ll Find Strength

Many of you are crying out and are desperate for answers and breakthrough. Many of you are seeking Me for things that you have been believing for a long time, many of you are walking through the fire and trying to find strength to continue on. Many of you are facing discouragement, battle, deceit and lies, and are wanting an escape.

I see a frustration has come over My church. A frustration of wanting to see Me move and quickly. A frustration and a cry of ‘why am I not doing things the way you want Me too, or why is it taking so long? ". My children listen to Me again. Listen to what I am saying. I have the perfect timing and nothing will come to you one minute too early or one minute too late.

Many of you are searching for the answers. Crying out ‘answer Lord, answer Lord’, and I am answering you now. No matter what circumstance or situation you are in quietness is your strength.

Yes, listen to those words I speak. Quietness is your strength. What am I saying? I am saying that in the time you spend alone with Me, listening to Me, and surrendering to My will, it is there that you will find all the answers and all the guidance you have been looking for.

Stop running around. Stop running back and forward trying to work out what I am going to do or what I am doing. Stop. Stop asking people what they think, and come to Me.

Your strength to get through the trials is My strength. Where do you receive My strength? In My presence. Why is quietness your strength? Quietness is your strength because you stop talking and listen to Me. When you are quiet you are surrendering to Me, and allowing Me the room to speak into situations and circumstances. It is through My voice that you are given all the strength and all the empowerment to stand firm in Me, and to go further and further forward in what I have called you to do.

It is the continual surrender of your desires, and telling Me what I should be doing, that brings you to the place of actually hearing from Me, and receiving all I have for you. Being quiet before Me, is where I teach you to rest. Sitting still, surrendering and listening to My voice, that is where I can still your hearts, and where I can then speak forth the peace that I am longing to give you and the grace I am longing to give you in order to endure the trial or whatever situation it is that you may face.

Today, too many of My children are continually running. Maybe not physically, but in their minds. Life is busy enough as it is, to then have My children running back and forward in their mind and emotions.

It is in the quiet that you will find your strength, My strength, My strength in the words that I speak to you.

You will receive the revelation, strength, comfort and peace in My presence, being quiet.

In the quietness, you shall see who you are.
In the quietness I shall be able to show you, your reflection of yourself in Me.
In the quietness, I shall be able to guide you and empower you.

As you silence your voice, and be quiet, it is then that you will hear Me speak. It is then that your heart is pliable and able to receive that which I have for you.

Are you being quiet My church? Are you being loud in your witnessing, and quiet before Me? I am calling you to be quiet, and in that quiet you will find your strength.

I want communication, I want to hear the cries of your hearts, and I want to hear what troubles you, but as you leave time to be quiet before Me, you will see great things. You will see Me change your heart, and give you all you desire.

While you are not taking the time out to find your strength in quiet, you are not resting or receiving all that I have for you.

Many of you need to be quiet, and not complain anymore, and not continue to tell Me over and over how I must do things. You must silence your will, and all your striving and efforts, and be quiet. In quietness you shall find strength.

In quietness you shall find My strength.
What shall My strength be?

My voice speaking to you, and empowering you. THAT My children is what gives you strength, my voice empowered by My Spirit.

Will you be quiet?
Are you truly desperate to hear Me speak?

If so, then stop running around, complaining and trying to twist My arm, and be quiet, and listen to what I have to say.

The Battle Is Raging
Lanna Perry

17th March 2005

Sydney Australia

The enemy is raising up around many of you like a flood. The enemy is battling hard against a lot of you, to stop you from completing that which I have called each of you too. Many of you are feeling angry and frustrated and at the continued darts of the evil one, but do not be dismayed for I am standing with you, and in Me, you are victorious.

Many of you are feeling frustrated, even tired of the battle that seems to continue to surround you. My children, I am shifting. My children, I am shifting things, and in the heavenlies, I am moving things. Preparing paths, and moving things forward, and soon they are about to come into the natural.

Many of you are on the brink of breakthrough. Many of you are on the brink of seeing an increase of anointing being poured over your lives, and many of you are about to see situations in your lives, things you've believed for, become possible. The impossible is becoming possible.

I am holding the core of the earth and I am shaking it. I am bringing a shaking to this earth, that is going to bring about a mighty repentance and conviction to people. I am shaking the earth, I am allowing the battle to intensify to see which of you will walk through this completely, wanting all of Me, and all that I have for you.

I want to see which of you are prepared to give Me all or nothing. That is what I am calling out for. All or nothing. I do not want mediocrity or complacency I want all of you, all of each of you.

Do not be discouraged by the battle that is raging, but be encouraged knowing that I am moving mightily in each of your lives, and because of this, the enemy wants to bring about chaos and frustration to many of your lives. Trouble, and chaos. Yes, the enemy is coming in like a flood, but I am raising up a standard.

Each of you are victorious in Me. As you stand in Me and remain focused on Me, you will continue to go deeper into Me. Count the cost. Many of you have wanted the recognition for ministry but have not realised the price you must pay in order to serve Me. The recognition is mine.

I am now waking My children up. Shaking and stirring. I am shaking My church, allowing the enemy to bring about trouble to see how faithful and determined each of you are to follow Me. I do not want half-hearted followers. I want passionate followers. Warriors.

I am now stirring things within many of you. I am bringing forth, and bursting forth many tears that have come from travail, and I am bursting forth many passions and desires that I have been continually stirring within My people.

The battle is intensifying, so My children, you must continue to be prepared in Me, and continue to learn to rest in Me, no matter the circumstances. No matter what the battle brings to you, I the Lord am raising up a standard against the enemy.

The more and more each of you hunger and thirst for Me the deeper I will take you in Me. Continue to come to Me and listen to Me speak to you. Listen to Me speak My sweet words to each of you. Do not let the enemy have even a toe into your life.

Use the Sword. Use My Word, and fight off the evil one. I the Lord am battling for you in the heavenlies. The victory has been won, but I am continually training My children's hands and fingers for war. It is now a time with the shaking and stirring on this earth that I am training My children's fingers hands and fingers for battle.

For the enemy is not going to give up easily and he sees the destiny I have for each of you and does not want you to move forward in Me. He sees the great breakthrough's and open doors many of you are about to receive and is doing all he can to stop this.

He will not win, if you do not allow him too. Overall he is defeated but he can win small things in your lives if you allow him too. So don't allow him too.

Come into My presence and battle through your resting in Me. Battle through your resting in My presence. Many of you are finding it difficult to rest in My presence, feeling that many distractions are coming to you, what I say to you, is continue to press in, for I see the hearts of My children. I am seeing your hearts, and am honouring each of you greatly.

As I am shaking and stirring on this earth, as you continue to press into Me, no matter how difficult it is, I am going to pour out an overflow of My Spirit on each of you. I will pour out My Spirit over each of you in a greater way. The anointing and the Spirit is going to pour over more and more of you as you continue to press into Me My children.

The enemy is doing all he can to keep you My children away from spending time in My presence. Do not be dismayed, but continue to come into My presence, and no matter what happens, continue to press through. Continue to press in. Not through striving but through the empowerment of My Spirit. The enemy is trying to tire out you My children for what I am about to do. So even if the time you are spending with Me is not feeling deep, keep pressing in, know in faith that I am there and that I am moving. Do not rely on emotions but stand on truth. My truth.

The enemy is raging, but I the Lord your God am raging mightily by My Spirit. I am raging in each of your lives, bringing forth breakthrough, release and mighty moves of My Spirit. Do not let the enemy have a toehold. I know many of you are tired, but come to Me, and let me replenish you. Stand against this battle, as it is so fierce, stand against it in Me, as you continue to rest and press through in Me. Take up My Sword, know I am standing with you, and know that I am shaking this earth. Waking up My children, and those who are willing to give their all, I am moving forward, quickly, and the enemy does not like this.

My Spirit is stirring, My church you are on the verge of breakthrough. Do not give up. Hold on, come and let I the Lord your God love on you, and refresh you.

The Old Has Passed, The New Has Come!

Lanna Perry

Sydney Australia
15th March, 2005

The Old has gone. The Old has passed away. Why are many of you still holding onto rags from the past? Why are many of you still clinging to things of Old? Do you not see right before you the beautiful new garment I have given you?

I am not calling you My children to walk in the old, so why are you walking in the old? I am doing a new thing, yet many of you are still caught up back in the past. Why? Why let past hang up's and your past hold you back from what I have for you in the future. What I have for you now.

I am leading many of you into the promise land you've been waiting for, yet you want to move forward, but without letting go of the old rags. Why are you holding so tightly to the old rags?

Do you not want to be stretched and trust Me in new and deep ways? Do you not want to see the Lord your God move in a new and fresh way in your lives, and take you into places you've never dreamed? Then let go My children.

Many of you are crying out to Me, to release you, to set you free, to take you forward, yet you will not let go of the things of old, the past, in order for Me to take you forward.

I am not calling My army to walk in the old. I am calling My army to walk in the new.

Many of you are falling into legalism and religion, and this is not My heart. My heart is for each of you to be done with legalism and religion and walk in the newness that I purchased for you at Calvary.

Many of you are remaining where you are because you are choosing to hold onto the rags of the past. Look at these rags. They are filthy. They have been stained, and worn out, and you are still holding onto them, because they are familiar.

Let go. Let go of the familiar and grab hold of the new. Look at the beautiful garment I have placed before you, before each of you. You cannot move forward, and take hold of this new garment I have for you, until you let go of what is already in your hands.

My precious children, stop living in the old. Stop living in the past. Stop living in dreams, and lies from the past. Stop living in hopes from the past, stop living in bondage and wounds from the past.

You can CHOOSE to move forward. It is your CHOICE! You My children must let go. I will not force your hands open. You must CHOOSE to let go. As you can choose to let go, then you will be moving forward.

Many of you are still living in disappointments of the past. Many of you have given up on coming closer and deeper in Me because of disappointments in the past. Are you content to allow yourself to miss out what I have for you now, what I want to lead you onto, because you are holding onto the old rags of the past.

Many of you are feeding off old manna. Do you not want to receive fresh manna? New manna? Come to Me, and receive. Take up the call to sacrifice, listen and come to Me.

Let go of the old. Let go of the past.

Many of you are holding onto old ways that I have moved. Many of you are expecting Me to move in the ways I have in the past. I may, I may not. Let go! There is a new move of My Spirit that is filtering through My children, and My church. Embrace it. Embrace that I am a God of creativity and that I am continually moving in new and fresh ways. Stop putting Me in a box, and limiting Me to moving in one way. Stop that, and embrace the new, the freedom, of new ways I can move if I so choose.

Let Me lead each of you into the promise lands that I have for you. Let go of the past. Let go of the old, and embrace the new. Even if you do not know what the ‘new’ is that I am bringing to you, embrace it. Embrace the new, for as you do, you will see that by My Spirit I will be moving you forward, into the blessing and abundance that I do have for you.

Let go of the old filthy rag, and take up the brand new beautiful garment, that is before you.

Favour

Releasing my good news across the earth

Favour from my throne
Goodness from me deep inside
Shall flow out
Oh the mountains tremble

Receive, receive, receive Believe in me
Take heed to My Word

French Bread Soaked in Golden Oil

Mary Clark

In a vision, I saw a thick slice of French bread. Someone gave it a squeeze and I could see that it was soaked in golden oil. Why did You show this to me, Lord?

I want My children to realize something of great importance. I want you to enter into the new hour that is coming with your heads held high. I want you to know that I am with you all the way. I want you to maintain your focus on Me, looking to Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith, to get you through anything that comes your way.

That being said, let Me tell you these words of hope. Take them into your heart, beloved, and savor the passion with which they are spoken:

I, the eternal God and Creator, have something wonderful for those of you who have surrendered to My cause. I want you to know that My offering holds much in the power of My Spirit coming forth, proclaiming My goodness and offering all for which one could long. My Spirit is coming forth, beloved, in copious amounts, giving to you the long lost treasure for which you have sought. I, the Bread of Life, am supplying you. I am giving you that wonder for which your heart has longed. I am supplying you with benefits that far exceed anything you have ever known – ever realized could exist.

Now get your hearts ready to receive, knowing that the Beloved has seen fit to extract from His very being that which will send you catapulting into a new arena of rich delight. I will hold back nothing from one who is surrendered to My call. I will pour forth liberally. Be that as it may, many will not understand this wonderful outpouring. Many will look on this gift of My loving presence with an attitude of disgust. Many will want to have no part in this wonder that I am pouring forth, they will turn on their heels and say, “No, thank YOU!!!” To those I wish to speak these most profound words:

You know not of what spirit you are speaking. You know not what spirit is requiring these words from you. You know Me not! You knew Me not, and you will never know Me, if you do not take that step into My offering. You know Me not now, and you will not know Me in eternity the way that I want you to know Me. I want you to know Me in the richness of My grace, but you will only know Me in My wrath – My vengeance – on those who refuse My offering – the offering for which I gave My life – My wholehearted love and devotion. You knew Me not. You will not know Me in the rich design of My plan for you. You will be forever doomed in that place of absence from the Beloved, if you refuse this offering that I have so amply provided for you. Step into My good graces. Step into the design of My will for you. I am pleading with you to take that step now. Don’t wait. Don’t procrastinate. Receive Me and all that I am, for the hour of decision is upon you and I am about to pour forth the oil – the exciting oil of wonder that comes with being fully surrendered to the Lord your God – the One Who is looking upon you with a heart gentle with love – gentle with a wooing to draw you close – gentle with a call to draw near. Draw near. Don’t turn in this final hour. Don’t turn from My truth being made real to your heart. Don’t turn from Me – from My open arms. I am calling to you. I am about to pour forth the oil of wonder that I have provided for you, for this hour. Don’t turn away from Me. Come near. Receive. Receive all that the Beloved is offering. Don’t turn from Me – from My heart of love. Come near. Receive. Receive from the heart of the Beloved this most wondrous proposal of His love – His confounding love – His love of pleasure. Seek My heart. Seek the pleasure that is found in knowing Me. Step into the design of My will. Step into My heart. Step into Me!!!

The Mountain of Spices

Mary Clark

Song of Solomon 8:14 (Joyfully the radiant bride turned to Him, the One Altogether lovely, the Chief among ten thousand to her soul, and with unconcealed eagerness to begin her life of sweet companionship with Him she answered) Make haste, my Beloved, and come quickly, like a gazelle or a young hart (and take me to our waiting home) upon the mountain of spices! (Amplified Bible)

I cry out to you, “Come closer, come closer into the sweet companionship that I have for us to enjoy. Come closer into the waiting arms of your Beloved.” I tell you truly that time is of the essence. The waiting time is growing shorter. The time of the great announcement is nearing. Be of good cheer! I have given you glad tidings this night – words that should thrill your heart.

I am so eager for you to know Me, and for us to enter into this hour of devoted love – a love so devoted – so wonderfully inescapable – that you cannot imagine its wonder – you cannot fathom its depths nor neither understand its heights.

I am calling for you, My beloved. Come nearer to your God. Come into the embrace that will last for all time, for in so doing you will notice some things of surprising grace: Your Beloved has seen fit to extend His virtuous heart to you, His beloved. He has seen fit to explain many complicated wonders to you, and enable you to understand things for which you have pondered day in and day out, at times thinking that you will never really understand the truth of the hour. But you, beloved, will enter into a new understanding of Who I am to you, and you will be thrilled beyond all capacity.

I tell you that I am calling to you, dear one. I want you to come up higher – higher than you have ever been – higher than you have ever known existed – to the mountain of spices that I have prepared for our happy union. This is a union that will enable you to see clearly the wonders that lie in My heart. This is a union of the sweetest contentment available to anyone, anytime, anywhere.

I am calling to My beloved. Prepare yourself for the most extraordinary. Prepare yourself to enter into a new hour when My embrace will captivate you, sending you into a pleasant situation of wonder – wonder in Who I am and where I am advancing you.

The Song of Solomon holds many word pictures that are most dear to My heart. You ponder over these words, but cannot understand their depth. I wish to explain these word pictures to you. I wish for you to experience these word pictures. I wish to open for you the wonder of who you are in Me, as we, together, walk in this holy union of love, thereby living out this song of great truth.

“Mysteries, mysteries, mysteries,” you say. “Lord, you speak mysteries to us —mysteries too grand for us to fathom.” I tell you, dear one, that I am about to open those mysteries to you like never before. I fully intend to let you see into this realm of love and wonder. So get your heart ready for a deep exploration of the love of the living God, and know that with this exploration is coming an experience that will knock your socks off – knock them so far that you, beloved, will stand in awe in My presence, wondering about My goodness to you, and vowing your allegiance to follow Me up the mountain of spices where we will dwell together forevermore!!!

From Devastation To Destiny
Joni Ames

September 4, 2005
JoniAmes@aol.com

"Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13)

Whether you have been traumatized by the recent devastation from Hurricane Katrina, or another situation, I proclaim the verse above over each of you as you begin to read this article, and I declare freedom over you - from trauma, terror, anxiety, stress, fear, death and all ungodly soul connections that would cause you to experience loss of faith, loss of vision and loss of joy in the Lord, in Jesus name! I speak to your spirit man to FOCUS ON THE LORD, and upon His Word, and the report of THE LORD!

As we have all been watching the news and attempting to do what each of us can do for the victims of Hurricane Katrina, I felt the Lord wanting me to encourage the people of God to now FOCUS ON HIM for peace, instruction and insight. "Lord, You will keep him in perfect peace, Whose mind is stayed on You, Because he trusts in You." (Isaiah 26:3)

I have sensed for some time a warning that the next onslaught of terrorism would be "natural" disasters. However, the Good News is, We, the people of God, still win! No matter how things look, God is able to take us from the midst of "impossible" situations into miraculous victory!

"Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us." (Romans 8:37)

In this time, the Church and the people in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and the rest of our nation is about to rise from devastation into destiny!

"(1) Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. (2) For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the Lord will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you." (Isaiah 60:1 & 2)

There are many praying saints throughout these regions. What happened was terrible, but it was for their sake and because of their prayers that worse devastation did not occur. Those who are still living need to know that their life was spared to go forward to walk in God's purposes and destiny for their life "for such a time as this."

IF MY PEOPLE....

1 Chronicles 7:14 says, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and HEAL THEIR LAND."

On January 27th of this year, the Lord had me send out a word (ref., "If We Do, He Will Heal Our LAND" at http://JoniAmes.InJesus.com). He said that, if we followed the directives in that verse, He would literally HEAL our LAND. We really NEED this to be done.

WAS THIS "JUST A TEST" FOR WHAT IS AHEAD?

Even now, other natural tragedies are lining up to occur:

* Weather officials say we are "just now" getting into the heart of hurricane season, with at least six more hurricanes to come, and three of them expected to become major hurricanes. (http://www.nhc.noaa.gov/)

* In Southern California near the Mexican border this past week, in just one day, we had a swarm of earthquakes start near San Diego. (See http://earthquake.usgs.gov/). On September 3rd, there was a 5.8 earthquake in the Southern Mid-Atlantic ridge - out in the Atlantic Ocean! Many have been warning of an impending 8.0 or greater quake for California.

* Recent reports warn of the possibilities of the awakening of a Super Volcano in Yellowstone Park (http://www.unmuseum.org/supervol.htm).

* There have also been warnings of "a whole lotta shakin' going on" along the New Madrid Seismic Zone, which travels along the middle of the nation along the Mississippi River (See map at: http://earthquake.usgs.gov/bytopic/new_madrid.html).

* The Bird flu concern, which experts say could infect as much of a quarter of the world's population and kill as many as 180 million to 360 million people - at least seven times the number of AIDS deaths, all within a matter of weeks. (http://www.keepmedia.com/pubs/USNewsWorldReport/2005/06/27/902689)

* Some have warned that we are in danger of asteroids that may collide with the earth in some form - it has happened in times past.

Add to all of this the present "War Against Terrorism," and the present chaos in New Orleans area, and it can be pretty scary. - And if you listen to all the "conspiracy theories," it can be even more scary! - But God is faithful!

In this time, may we humble ourselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from our wicked ways, so that He will hear us from heaven, forgive our sins and HEAL OUR LAND!

TIME TO CALL FOR ANGELIC INTERVENTION

It is time to call angelic intervention from the Lord of Hosts! They can go where we cannot, and when we cannot go! Ask the Lord to send them forth to minister to the victims of Hurricane Katrina! - "Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation?" (Heb. 1:14)

"The angel of the Lord encamps all around those who fear Him, And delivers them." (Psalm 34:7)

As we call forth angelic intervention, pray what the Word has to say about what will happen: (5) Let them (our enemies) be like chaff before the wind, And let the angel of the Lord chase them. (6) Let their way be dark and slippery, And let the angel of the Lord pursue them. (Psalm 35:5 & 6)

And remember what the Lord does with Angelic help:

They are sent to rescue us and lead us to safety:
"When we cried out to the Lord, He heard our voice and sent the Angel and brought us up out..." (Numbers 20:16a)

They are sent to direct our path:
"Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared." (Ezek. 23:20)

They are sent in response to our prayers:
"It happened as the flame went up toward heaven from the altar--the Angel of the Lord ascended in the flame of the altar!" (Judges 13:20)

They are sent to destroy our enemies:
"And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel of the Lord went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses--all dead." (2 Kings 19:35)

They are sent to testify to and strengthen us:
"I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you..." (Rev. 22:16a)

"Then an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him." (Luke 22:43)

They are sent be our watchmen:
"So they answered the Angel of the Lord, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is resting quietly." (Zech. 1:11)

========================

WORSHIP IS OUR WAR-SHIP

When Job suffered all of his losses, he worshipped God. (Job 1:20-22)

It is time to call for the prophetic singers, dancers, and musicians to "COME FORTH!" for such a time as this, to help restore spiritual order, focus, and vision for God's people. Even to pray that such people will come forth from the midst of those who are victims of the present disaster in New Orleans! - We call them forth from their devastation and into their destiny as worshippers of the Most High God!

The Lord inhabits the praises of His people. He shows up on the scene! - This is definitely a time when we NEED to have OUR "air space" inhabited BY HIM! It is time to have WORSHIP be our WAR-ship and to FOCUS ON and PRAISE JESUS, our Lord & Savior. As we praise and worship the Lord, HE will inhabit our nation, thwart the enemy's plans, and HIS plans will come forth!

There was a time when the Israelites worshipped Him in the midst of a war, and it threw the enemy into so much confusion that those who came up against the Israelites all battled and killed each other! - The battle is the Lord's! (I Sam. 17:47) - As we WAR with our WORSHIP, we will be able to say:

"He has put a new song in my mouth -- Praise to our God; Many will see it and fear, And will trust in the Lord." (Ps 40:3)

The Lord showed me that when Jesus spoke in Rev. 3:7 of opening doors no man can shut and closing doors no man can open, and of the "key of David," that the key mentioned was the key to the door of the Tabernacle of David. That is, Harp (music) & Bowl (intercession) type of prayer, praise & worship - which the Lord is restoring in this time (ref. Amos 9). He said that it would open up that Rev. 4:1 door of revelation, where He says, "Come up here and I'll show you of things to come!"

For those who are willing to take that journey, tremendous wisdom, direction and revelation will be opened!

PRAY IN THE SPIRIT

When we pray in the Spirit, Jude 1:20-23 tells us that we build ourselves up in faith on the inside, keep ourselves in the love of God, help ourselves to look for mercy (instead of criticism and judgment), walk in compassion, discernment, and save others from destruction. "(20) But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, (21) keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. (22) And on some have compassion, making a distinction; (23) but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh."

Rom. 8:26-27 lets us know that when we pray in the Spirit, we also are able to pray past our own weaknesses (personal opinion, judgment, etc.) for the root issues we do not have any personal knowledge about, and are able to pray in the will of God for situations: (26) the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. (27) Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

And THEN, because we've prayed in His will, Rom. 8:28 tells us: "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose."

We do not know what the enemy's plans are or where he is at - but the Holy Spirit knows everything! As we pray in the Spirit, HE will find and destroy the enemy's schemes and carry us into victory!

====================

MOBILIZE THE CHURCH

It is time to mobilize the church - cast our nets on the other side - OUTSIDE the church walls, and thus bring in the "big haul"!

The harvest is ripe! - The stadiums that are now full of displaced people who are "in despair" are like David's army at the cave of Adullam - they are candidates to become an integral part of the Army of God!

(1) David therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. (2) And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him. (1 Samuel 22:1 & 2)

Lord, send forth the fishermen and the hunters who have TRUE HEARTS for your people, to bring in the harvest! "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says the Lord, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks." (Jer. 16:16)

It is the job of the Church, not government, to take care of people. What we do even for the least, we do for and to Jesus. So, Church, "Let's roll!"

PROPER USE OF THE PROPHETIC: FOR INTERCESSION

"But if they are prophets, and if the word of the Lord is with them, let them now make intercession to the Lord of hosts, that the vessels which are left...do not go to Babylon." (Jeremiah 27:18)

Whether the Lord told us about the disasters or not isn't the point. We don't need a pat on the back for having known about it in advance. WHAT did and will we DO with it? When we receive a prophetic word of warning, it is given to us to intercede on behalf of the people that may be affected! - To cry out to God for the salvation of their souls. And maybe even to go in, BEFORE the event would take place, to bring them to repentance, or for intercession so that the disaster would be averted or lessened! - Or go warn them to get out!

LET'S USE THE BRAIN GOD GAVE US

So many times when the hurricanes are being forecast, people ask me, "What do you think?" - Well, I think God gave us a head to use. If we are in an area that is told to evacuate, then we need to EVACUATE!

If we are not sure what the storm is going to do, let's be ready - keep our cars' gas tanks topped off; keep extra water and emergency essentials (http://beprepared.com/ or http://www.nitro-pak.com/) on hand - whether to either evacuate with, or to keep at on had to be Place of Refuge for others, if we are in a safe enough zone.

Let's have a plan in place so that our family and friends will all be able to connect with us and get to safety, or even to know if each other is okay, after the storm.

Check out the Homeland Security site for a more complete overview of how you can be better prepared: http://www.ready.gov/index.html

In the Bible, there were designated cities of refuge (Numbers 35 & Joshua 21). The Lord has been calling many to prepare to be a place of refuge in times of trouble in this day as well. I told everyone at the turn of the century to keep those "Y2K" provisions, because they would be utilized in times to come.

Pray and see whether the Lord would speak to you to have a place of refuge. Make sure that, if you feel you are to stay in place, you are in a "safe" area and have ample provision to last you, your family and any guests for 3 to 6 months or more.

God may call you to faith on this. If so, that is fine. But if He calls you to have a place of refuge, then be sure to be prepared. "In the fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, And His children will have a place of refuge." (Prov. 14:26)

FAITH

=======

"Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Heb. 11:1)

"Now the just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him." (Heb 10:38)

Have faith in God that, no matter what happens, it doesn't catch Him off guard or unprepared! God is bringing us all into a new place of trusting in Him to be our source! - Our Jehovah Jireh. Even if we do not see the provision, He does, and He can get it from where it is to where you are. Or He can stretch yours to feed 5,000 like He did with the loaves and fishes.

Remember: Whatever doesn't kill us makes us stronger. And if it does kills us, we do go to a better place!

=====================================

THE PLANS OF HELL SHALL NOT PREVAIL

In Matthew 16:18 it says, "...on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it."

A little explanation here...in that day and time, the men met at the gates of the city to make their plans. This scripture is referring to the plans of the enemy. It is basically saying that "The plans of the enemy shall not prevail against My Church!" In other words, through our prayer, praise and worship, the enemy's plans can be canceled on the planning tables, at the very gates of hell, at inception!

The prayers of the righteous avail much! Prayer in agreement adds to the power! One can put a thousand to flight; two can put ten thousand to flight.

God is still on the throne, and we are still His Church. He will NEVER leave or forsake us! And He cares about us as much as He did David, and will go after our enemies just as He did David's in Psalm 18!

================

GOD LOVES YOU!

================

His promises to remember:

"(10) The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly. (11) I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep." (John 10:10-11)

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope." (Jeremiah 29:11)

"You will keep him in perfect peace, Whose mind is stayed on You, Because he trusts in You." (Isaiah 26:3)

Job was a human being, just like us. He lost everything too - family, home, business, friends.
The friends that were left didn't act much like friends. They said it happened because he must have some hidden sin he hadn't repented of. Sounds familiar regarding the events of this day, too, doesn't it?

What did he do? In Job 1:20-22 it says: (20) Then Job arose, tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he fell to the ground and worshiped. (21) And he said: "Naked I came from my mother's womb, And naked shall I return there. The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; Blessed be the name of the Lord." (22) In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

The result? From Job 42:
(10) And the Lord restored Job's losses. when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.(1)1 Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the Lord had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold. (12) Now the Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. (13) He also had seven sons and three daughters.(16) After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations. (17) So Job died, old and full of days.

If you are reading this, and you have suffered loss, whether through Hurricane Katrina, or another situation . . . May the Lord give you the same grace Job had, and may He requite and restore you in like manner, working all things together for your good, and may the rest of your life be better than you've ever known, in Him!

Prayer
=======
Father, I thank you that no weapon formed against us will prosper (Isaiah 54:17), that the plans YOU have for us are GOOD (Jer. 29:11), and that you came to give us LIFE! (John 10:10). We thank you for the blessing of the LIFE you give to us, and we give NO place to the enemy's thoughts or plans. Help us to remember YOUR words and YOUR heart for us in this time, and to keep each other encouraged. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Weeping Of The Holy Spirit
Joni Ames

Recently many have told me that this is happening to them and contacted me to pray for them because it scared them. I have been experiencing it too...which, over the years, I've learned, usually happens with me from the Lord, and it is called, "the weeping of the Holy Spirit" or "prophetic intercession."

You may feel like crying, and tried to brush it off because you thought it was "depression from the enemy" or "the blues" creeping in or that you were "losing it?" - MANY people have been going through this lately.... Some have even had thoughts like, "There is no hope!" Or "I'm not doing anything worthwhile in life" or even thoughts of death. You are not feeling this for yourself. You are standing in the gap. - Much of it may be for the victims of Katrina, or other items of intercession - whether personal, national, or Corporate Body of Christ issues.

Do NOT ignore this, nor think that you are "losing it" or that it is just the "blues" - nor allow the enemy to turn it inward or into depression....this weeping that is coming from our inner-most beings is the weeping of the Holy Spirit - Prophetic Intercession. It isn't depression, hormones, or insanity, so cast down those imaginations!

We must not let the enemy defile it by calling it "depression," or by any other name. We also must not defile it ourselves by "turning it off" or turning it inward. To do so would be to harden our hearts to what the Spirit is saying, which would deeply grieve Him, as well as reverse its intended use and bear no fruit.

=======================================
WHAT IS THIS WEEPING SAYING TO US?
"Oh my soul, my soul! I am pained in my very heart! My heart makes a noise in me, that I cannot hold my peace, because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war." (Jer. 4:19)

The enemy of our souls is out to kill, steal and destroy, but the Holy Spirit within us wants to use us to properly do battle against the enemy. However, we must remember, "the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty THROUGH GOD for pulling down of strongholds." (2 Cor. 10:4)

SO WHAT DO WE DO WITH THIS WEEPING?

We must allow the Holy Spirit the "right of way" to take it over and to direct it. - We must turn TO it and not from it...."Today if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts" (Heb. 3:7) ~ We must not be ashamed of the weeping that He desires to cry out through us!

====================
WHAT ELSE DO WE DO?

We need to ALLOW the Holy Spirit to cry and to pray through us when this unction comes upon us and to NOT "shut it down." Additionally, don't worry about the "words" you will pray....

Romans 8:26 & 27 says...(26) "the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.." (27) "Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God."

As we allow the weeping unction of the Holy Spirit to cry out through us, we will be praying for the things for which the Spirit within us is weeping, in the way the Lord wants it prayed about, and in the will of the Lord for the outcome.

AND THEN WHAT?
===============

Romans 8:28 says... "and (then) we know that all things (will) work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose."

===========================

In other words, when those tears and/or deep groanings come, LET them! Grab your Kleenex and "go with it"! Don't stop it! ~ Be led by the Holy Spirit. ~ And understand that even if you don't have your prayer language, you are still His Sheep and you can still hear and obey the voice of the Lord and be directed to pray according to the will of God. ~ In whatever way He desires for you to pray! ~ And "pray it through!" - Until you have a "release" or a sensing that of peace that it has been "taken care of."

Don't be concerned about "words"!! ~ It may be that you will experience tears and/or groanings alone! ~ Also, we don't need to be embarrassed by tears (ours or others') if they begin to flow! We just need to "let go and let God"! ~ NOT to "fake it" or get loud to get attention! ~ It may well occur when we are all alone!!

Let's just allow the Holy Spirit total access to and through us, to be led by Him, for His purposes to be accomplished when and how He causes that unction to come. It is a time to let the "rain" of the Holy Spirit "reign!" ~ To let Him cry out through us for souls and for mercy!

Especially in this time when so many have serious needs, let us heed the voice of the Spirit to "pray it through."

Rev. 2:11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches..."

Faith Determines Cooperation
Sandy Warner

Sep 22, 2005

FAITH DETERMINES COOPERATION
There are many things that operate in My realm which you are unaware of in yours. To the exact degree you believe, is the exact degree that I reveal things to you. My dear one, your faith does matter. Your faith is very precious to Me. It is your faith which determines your level of cooperation with My ways. It is your faith which connects you to partner with Me in ushering My kingdom upon earth. Resist doubt. Resist unbelief. Resist wavering. Do not listen to the voices that say it cant be done. Yes it can, says Your God. Do you trust in the words of men, or in My Words? Hang on and cling to Me. I AM your Source. I AM your resource. I AM all you need. So let the faith in your God, Who has brought you thus far, complete that which was begun. Cooperate with Me and lets see our way through this together.

Heb 11:3 AMP
By faith we understand that the worlds [during the successive ages] were framed (fashioned, put in order, and equipped for their intended purpose) by the word of God, so that what we see was not made out of things which are visible.

Avenge Not The Demonic World
Sandy Warner

AVENGE NOT THE DEMONIC WORLD
Vengeance is Mine, it belongs to Me. I am the Judge Who renders punishment to the wicked. Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give Me this place, for I have written, Vengeance is Mine, and I will repay. Do not torment demons. Do not punish principalities.

There will come a time when I will give My saints a two edged sword which will execute vengeance and the judgment written. I will honor them with the power to punish all demonic disobedience. Even now your weapons are not of flesh against flesh, but mighty to the pulling down of strongholds. The demonic is strong in its rebellions against Me. Bind them and loose yourselves and stand strong against them and bring every thought into obedience to Me. Even so My Beloved ones, it is not yet time to punish all disobedience. Your obedience is not yet fulfilled. To do so is presumption and folly and opens doors of persecution into your own life. You reap what you sow.

2 Cor 10:4-6 NKJV
For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

Pornography Is Sin
Sandy Warner

Sep 19, 2005

PORNOGRAPHY IS SIN
The earth is coming of age and the harvest of all things is in order. Beloved ones, it is time for the weeds and tares to be uprooted in your life. You can not sup at the table of demons and My holy place. You must choose one or the other. Being intimate with the works of darkness is unauthorized and puts you outside My safe boundaries.

Pornography is sin. Pornography is worshipping and coveting graven images of sexual acts. In the Old Testament where I gave, the most basic commandments to My people, I said, thou shall not commit adultery and thou shall not covet. Desiring, longing for and lusting after another is a breach in My commandments. In the New Testament did I not say that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart? The strength of jezebel grows stronger every day as she fornicates the eyes and bodies of those who would join her bed. Only tribulation awaits those who feast with jezebel's graven images.

I have heard the cries of My people, and I AM delivering them through My Presence as I descend upon earth. I AM your loving Father, and because of My great love, I chastise those I love and I also judge sin. The more that I invade earth, the greater My judgment is upon sin. Separate yourselves and flee from the table of demons.

Repent and cry out for deliverance. Yes jezebel's lure is very strong, and I did not say fight temptation, I said flee it. Turn your back on sin. Do not dabble, do not open the door. Keep your eyes averted. Keep them as precious gates to the windows of your soul, and your vision will not be deceived and blinded.

1 Corinthians 10:21 NLT
You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too.

Rev 21:6-8 NKJV

And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts. He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

Women Of God Step Forward

WOMEN OF GOD STEP FORWARD
I have gone before you and prepared the way. Hardened ground has been broken, becoming soft and fertile to receive the gifts you have to give. Come forth women of God and step into the places I have prepared for you! Take one step forward. Your line stretches long and in perfect synch as you take your step at My command. Yes, dear ones, it is your time to move into place. Now wait for My Word and step. How glorious it is to see you, My beloved ones. You have suffered so long under the tyrannies of intimidation. You have bowed low, now let Me lift you up. Yes dear ones. Head up and shoulders back. Shine for Me.

Est 5:2 NKJV
So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that she found favor in his sight, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter.

My precious jewels My precious treasures I am walking with you every step of the way. Each step you take daily I am with you. I am walking with you, I am walking behind you to protect you, with you to accompany you, and before you to prepare the way.

Many of you are wandering along the path. Many of you are taking steps in places and directions I am not calling you to step. Do not step out of what I have called you too. Why would you want to step away from what I have for you?

Walk inline with Me. Stop allowing distractions to lure you to take steps to the left or the right, listen to My Spirit, and walk inline with Me. Follow after Me.

Many of you are seeing that the roads that I am leading you down are not easy. They are not glamorous but they are hard. They require sacrifice and surrender.

Many of you are seeing that I am the God who leads His precious jewels down the road of dying to self, down the road where you die, and I live.

Count the cost My jewels. Count the cost My treasures. Count the cost My people.

Do you truly want to walk in the perfect line of your God? Do you want to walk in the footsteps of your God? Are you willing to do what it takes to follow in My steps? If so, then surrender and continue to follow after Me.

I see some of you are trying to walk with one foot on My path and one on your own paths. Many of you are straying from what I have called you too, and I am asking you My people to rise up and walk FULLY in what I have created you to do.

I am calling you My people to walk FULLY in the destiny that I have for you. I am calling you My people to walk FULLY in the knowledge of who you are in Me.

Stop being half-hearted My people. You are tripping because both of your feet are not firmly planted in Me.

Place both of your feet in Me. Walk and follow My path, and know that every step you take I am with you. I will never leave you, I will be with you until the end of the world.

My Spirit is hovering over the church. My Spirit is crying out ‘no compromise’. My spirit is crying out ‘rise up’, My Spirit is crying out ‘walk fully in Me’, ‘follow Me completely’.

Be recklessly abandoned to Me. Many of you are hearing words and wondering, how, how must I do what the Lord is asking?

Come to Me and I will show you. Come to Me and surrender from trying to walk on your own path, with one foot on My path and one on your own, and I will show you.

Many of you are wondering which path to put your feet too. I speak to you My people come to Me, and rest. Rest on My path, and I will show you where to place your feet.

My anointing is flowing over each of you as you walk in what I have called you to walk in.

I see some of you are tired of walking the same path. Know that I am walking with you on this path and that nothing will stop you. When you walk on My path, the path I have ordained for you to walk on, nothing can hinder you, unless you allow it.

As you walk on My path, you are protected in Me, and I am guiding you. As you walk on My path, nothing can overcome you, unless you allow it too.

The enemy is trying to sway many of you off My path. The enemy is trying to tempt many of you to place one foot on your own path and one in Mine. Do not do that.

Do not be lukewarm, but walk fully in Me.

As each of you, My precious and beautiful jewels walk in Me, on the path I have created for you to walk on, you will be blessed and prosper in ways you've never dreamed.

As you walk on the path I have created for you, yes it will be hard and there will be much sacrifice, you will carry your cross and die daily, but how much greater will I shine through you?

Are you wanting to walk My path so you may be glorified, or that I may be? Because on My path, as you walk fully on My path, it is I that is glorified, not you.

Walking on your own path glorifies yourself, but walking in My path, glorifies Me.

Where will you put both of your feet My people? Choose today!

I am walking with you. I am accompanying you on this journey of life. Walk fully in the destiny I have created for you. Walk fully in My Spirit and walk fully in My anointing over you. Do not stray. Do not give into the wiles of the enemy in these last days, but walk fully in Me.

Make Me First – Not Last!
Lanna Perry

24th March 2005
Sydney Australia
My precious church, I am the Creator of all things. I have made the earth and everything that is in it. There has never been anything before me, and there will never be anything after Me. I have created things out of nothing. I have spoken forth and what I have desired has been created. With My spoken word, the impossible becomes possible.
I am grieved My church. My heart is grieved. My heart is grieved to see so many of you running to Me as a last resort and not first. Why are many of you running forward to man? What are you seeking from man? Answers! Only "I" can give you the answers you are looking for.

I am raising up My army and preparation is hovering over each of you, yet many of you are running off from the preparation and seeking man. Seeking man for My voice. WHY? WHY? Why are so many of you abandoning your first love and running to people and things that cannot help you?

Do you doubt My power? Do you doubt the power in My hand and in My voice? Why? Why are so many of you running.

Insecurity and Impatience. I love each of you so much. I speak not in condemnation but I speak to you in conviction. Conviction of My Spirit. Things are coming to this earth, that are going to shake the earth. The earth and everything in it will be shaken. Can man help you then? Surely not.

My church, My treasured possessions, I am the foundation of all things. Without Me there is nothing. Without Me there is destruction, and lies. There is NO complete truth apart from Me.

Oh My church, My Bride, do not abandon your first love anymore. Do not be half-hearted with Me. Give me your whole heart. Give me everything that you desire. Everything. Stop living with one foot in Me, and one in man.
Why run to others for comfort. Yes, I have given you each other so that you may be a comfort to each other but did I design this to be before Me? Did I create this to be above Me? Did I create relationship so that it can take My place? Surely not.

Oh church, listen to My Spirit. Do not allow the enemy to subtly lure you away anymore. Many of you are doing things which do not seem outwardly wrong, but subtly they are placing Me second. It is placing Me as the last resort and not the first.

Many of you are taking Me on when you need Me. Oh how this grieves me. Stop running to man. Stop running.
I look to each of you with great favour. I long to lavish so many of My blessings and love upon you, but you are not waiting for Me to move. Church, you are becoming impatient and running forward.

A great move of My Spirit, a great shift and shaking is coming to this earth by My Spirit, but if you have one foot on the solid foundation which is Me, and one in man, you will fall.
Return, Return to your first love. Allow Me again to be your first love. Examine your hearts and see where you have allowed Me to slip into being your ‘last love’.
I do not condemn you, I love you. I love each of you more than you could ever imagine. Put Me in My rightful place in your lives. If I want to send a word to you, I will. You will not have to organise it for Me.

Let go My church. Let go of the control. Let go of trying to manipulate Me. Let go. Surrender.

Let Me again be your first love.
It is NOT My heart for you to have Me as your last love, to be the second, third or forth step in your plans of life, when you don’t hear Me answer straight away. Listen. Listen My church.
The Spirit is speaking. Do not grieve Me anymore. Repent. Repent church! Repent My treasures.

Come to Me and let Me shower My love upon you. Let me touch your face and tell you how much I love you. Let us dance together, let Me lead, and let Me pour My love on you.

No more manipulation and control. Let go.

Come back to your first love. Return. Let go and return.

I am the beginning and the end, but My heart is to always be the first, the beginning, the ultimate in your life. Do not put seeking man for anything above Me, I am first.
Let Me again be your first love.

Rain Reign Rain Reign
Lanna Perry

22nd March 2005

My precious children, My Rain is falling now. I am pouring out My Spirit in greater ways than ever before. I am pouring out the latter rain. The rain of My Spirit.

I am pouring out My Rain now, all the droplets falling to the ground, and everything My Rain touches does not stay the same. I am sending forth the Rain of My Spirit in a Greater way.

Many of you are not coming into My presence to allow My Rain to fall on you. Many of you are still continually being distracted by things around you and it is covering you and keeping you from the Rain of My Spirit.

I am bringing about change. As My Rain falls, nothing stays the same. I love each of you so much. I love you so very much. I long to hold you in My arms and to tell you how much I love you. I am pouring out My anointing in greater ways, yet if you do not come to Me, you will not receive.

Open your hearts My people. Open My hearts My jewels and allow My Rain to fall into your hearts. As My Rain falls into your hearts, you will see the seeds I have planted in your heart continue to grow. If you are not opening your heart to Me, and allowing My Rain to touch those seeds, they will not grow. They cannot grow without My Holy Rain.

As each of you allow My Rain to fall on you, I will Reign in your lives.

As you allow My Rain to fall on you, all of you dies, and I Reign completely in your lives.

Hear this My precious and beautiful people.

As you allow My Rain to fall on you and in your heart, your flesh comes into submission, and I Reign.

When My Rain, My Spirit falls, everything comes into submission to Me. Everything!

I Reign! I Reign in this world, and in the Heavenlies. No one Reigns above Me. I Reign.

Come to Me My Precious jewels, My chosen people, come to Me and worship Me. Come and as you worship, allow My Rain to fall upon you. Open your hearts and allow My Rain to touch you.

Many of you are harboring dry and wounded places in your hearts. Allow My Rain to fall. Allow My Rain to come and to minister to those places. Allow My Rain to take the sting out of these areas. Allow My Rain to bring peace, bring healing, and bring a sealing of wholeness. Allow Me to Reign.

Many of you are hungering for more and more of Me. As you come and allow My Rain to fill you, and you drink deeply of the Rain that I am pouring out, you will see yourselves being continually filled, yet continually hungering for more. You cannot taste the goodness of Me, and not want more. My Rain, will make you hunger for more. As you continue to hunger for more and come to Me, I will continue to fill you and feed you.

I will Reign in You. As you place yourselves in a position to receive the Rain I am pouring out, I will Reign in your lives.

I am grieved at the fact that in some of your lives, you are not allowing Me to Reign completely. You are allowing Me to Reign in some areas but not others. Come to Me, Surrender and let Me Reign in all areas, and pour My fresh Rain upon you.

Many of you feel wounded from battle, dirty from sin, and feel you have still been caught in the miry clay. Come to Me, allow Me to pour My fresh Rain upon you, and wash you clean. You are clean through Me.

Come and let Me wash My Rain over you, and wash away all that is not of Me. Oh how I love each of you so dearly. I just adore each of you so much, and I long to continue to lavish My Rain upon you.

I long to Reign completely in your lives, more and more, so that I may have My way in your lives, and bless you abundantly. As you allow My Rain to fall on you, and allow Me to Reign in your lives, I will pour out a Rain of blessings upon you.

Oh sweet treasures, you have no idea how much I love you. I have chosen you. I accept you, and I marvel at your beauty. At the great work I am doing in each of you.

Allow My Rain to fall on you. Come out of the places that are keeping you from receiving My fresh Rain, and allow Me to Reign.

As My Rain falls on each of you, you will be taken deeper into worship. As you allow My Rain to soak into every part of you, you will enter a new dimension of worship.

As each droplet falls upon you, you will come deeper and fall more and more in love with Me. Your heart will melt continually, and anything in your heart not of Me, will be washed away.

My Rain does not fall without anything be touched. Growth and fertilisation will come through My Rain falling in your hearts. Open your hearts, and let Me, the Great I am Reign.

I delight in Reigning in your lives.

Will you let Me Rain on You? Will you let Me Reign over you?

I love you!

Because the exalted [thing] among people [is] an abomination before God!!

1Jo 2:3 And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if we are keeping His commandments.
1Jo 2:4 The one claiming, "I have come to know Him," and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
1Jo 2:5 But whoever is keeping His word, in this one the love of God has truly been perfected; by this we know that we are in Him.
1Jo 2:6 The one claiming to be abiding in Him just as that [One] walked ought also in the same manner himself to be walking.

My children! I would like to tell you a mystery:

The mystery which will keep (protect) you in all difficulties, fears, needs and dangers:

It is the humility of the heart before ME!

Seek after this humility in all situations, every day!

That you raise up ME and bring down (degrades) yourselve!

I have told you, that I only know these children, which have put on (attracted) these humility.

And I will give it to you also!

In humility I came to this earth,
In humility I have gone the way to the cross,
In humility I have sat down to the right of my father
And in humility I meet you!

This mystery know only few - from this ones - which are calling themselves MY CHILDREN!

And through the humility you will distinguish the sheep from my pasture and the sheep of the devil!

Humility is the band of unity and the foundation (condition) of Love to one another!

1Sa 16:7 But Jehovah said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him: for Jehovah seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but Jehovah looketh on the heart.

Gal 4:16 Therefore, have I become your* enemy by speaking the truth to you*?

1Co 14:37 If anyone thinks [that he] is a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge what I write to you*, that they are commandments of [the] Lord.

Luk 16:15 And He said to them, "_You*_ are the ones justifying yourselves [or, declaring yourselves righteous] before the people, but God knows your* hearts, because the exalted [thing] among people [is] an abomination before God.

Joh 1:14 And the Word [or, the Expression of [divine] Logic] became flesh and tabernacled among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of an only-begotten [or, uniquely-begotten] from [the] Father, full of grace and truth.

1Pe 2:4 To whom having approached [as to] a living stone, on the one hand having been rejected by people, on the other hand chosen [and] precious before God, 1Pe 2:5 and you* yourselves, as living stones, are being built up [into] a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

HAUGHTINESS CANNOT PRAISE REAL HUMILITY!

HAUGHTINESS CANNOT SEE GODS GLORY!

Phi 2:7 but He emptied Himself, having taken the nature of a slave, having come to be in the likeness of people,

Phi 2:8 and having been found in appearance as a person, He humbled Himself, having become obedient to the point of death-even of death of a cross.

DO YOU FOLLOW THIS "FOOLISH" SAVIOUR?

Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fail. (NIV) 2. Peter 1,10

First Fruits
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, Aug 5, 2005

"The first of the first fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of YHVH your Elohim. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk" (Exodus - 23:19). In today's world, there is very little significance to first fruit or to firstborn; in some circles separating milk from meat seems to be more the order of the day (if indeed that's what it means). In the eyes of YHVH and in His plan of redemption, the principle of firstborn, or first fruit, is of paramount importance. In his epistle, James, after addressing the 12 tribes, writes: "Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first fruit of His creatures" (James 1:18). Also Paul writes: "For if we are in the Messiah we are a first fruit of a new creation order", (ref. 2Cor. 5:17; Rom 8:23). James' mention of the twelve tribes is no mere coincidence, for they are the ones who had been designated as first fruit, even before Messiah's redemptive work had been executed. The concept of first fruit already had its beginning in the days of Cain and Abel, and later in the covenant that YHVH made with the line of those chosen for the position of firstborn in humanity: Noah, Shem, Ever, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

When Moshe was told by YHVH to bring His people out of Egypt, he was sent to Pharaoh with the message that, "Israel is My son, my firstborn" (Exodus 4:22). Later, after killing all the firstborn of Egypt, YHVH announced to Israel: "Consecrate to Me all the firstborn; whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Mine" (Exodus 13:2). "You shall set apart to YHVH all that open the womb, that is, every firstborn that comes from an animal which you have; the males shall be YHVH's" (Exodus 13:12).

The Hebrew word for firstborn, in Exodus 13:12 is "peh'ter", meaning to separate, or first open. Other meanings for the same root are: remove, set free, depart, split, and break through. The injunction to "set apart" or to "dedicate", in this verse, is from the same root as the noun "Hebrew". (Note: generally, the root for to set apart or to consecrate is k.d.sh, and for firstborn it is b.ch.r.) This unusual choice of words, here in Exodus 13:12, seems to highlight the idea of breaking through and passing over, while being given, or recognized as belonging to, YHVH. This makes the Hebrews, whose name is derived from their forefather, Ever, a firstborn nation dedicated and set apart unto YHVH their Elohim.

But what does it actually mean to be a firstborn or a first fruit?

According to the Torah statute it means to belong to YHVH. Those who are His, are identified as His property by being stamped (literally, or figuratively), or marked out. This principle of possession is articulated in the oft-occurring expression: "for My namesake". The notion of ownership and possession, commonplace in the world, applies no less to YHVH's relationship with His people. "But YHVH has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be His people, an inheritance, as you are this day." (Deut. 4:20); "for YHVH'S portion is His people; Jacob is the place of His inheritance." (Deut. 32:9).

A few years ago while visiting some friends who have two little boys, 3 and 5, we were told the following story: When the boys' grandmother had visited them she said to the 3 year old: "Because I love you, you are the apple of my eye". The older brother became indignant, and in defense of his younger sibling said to the grandmother: "If you love someone you don't call him fruit!" YHVH, like that grandmother, calls Israel, as a sign of endearment "the apple of My eye" (Deut 31:10). But whereas in the case of the little boy it was very clear why a dotting grandmother would so call her grandson, it is less clear in the case of Israel, in fact it begs the question: What is so lovable about a stubborn, rebellious, idolatrous, adulterous people, who are actually more like a speck in the eye? Is it for their namesake that YHVH persists in His love, or is it because they are His beloved first born? (See Ez. 36:22-32)

Moshe seemed to understand this Torah ordinance. For when YHVH was about to judge Israel, he reminded Him concerning His own inheritance: "O YHWH, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.. Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your outstretched arm" (Deut 9:26,29). Later Daniel and Ezra interceded for YHVH's people in the same way (see Daniel 9 and Ezra 9). True intercessors for Israel always understood this principle of the firstborn or first fruit. It was the most effective prayer in addressing the Almighty.

It is not only the 'possession' who is marked for the sake of identity, but the 'possessor' too is stamped for the sake of His beloved. In Isaiah, YHVH points out that Zion is engraved on the palm of His hand: "See, I have inscribed, engraved, etched you on the palms of My hands" (Is. 49:16). Is there a more direct illustration of this than Yeshua's "burrowed through" hands, described so graphically by King David in Ps. 22:15-16? YHWH's unalterable love for His possession is seen in the death of the Messiah. May we respond to Him as beautifully as the Shulamite does in the Song of Songs: "Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy as cruel as the grave; its flames are flames of fire, a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly despised. (Song of Songs 8:6-7).

The Messiah is seen standing with a winnowing fork in His hand. He has gone out to the nations for the harvest, to bring in and process that which belongs to His Father, that first fruit nation Israel (both houses), which will ultimately be placed in a basket and taken on the 8th day to the place that is called by YHVH's name (ref. Deut 26:2; Exodus 22:29-30). "Therefore the redeemed of YHVH shall return and coming with singing unto Zion and everlasting Joy shall be upon their heads" (Isa 51:11).

Follow Hard After Me

Victoria Boyson

August 20, 2005
"Follow Hard After Me!" -- A Vision of Our Journey with the Lord

Jesus and I were walking very briskly through a heavily wooded area. We traveled for some time, He in front and I behind. I knew He was taking me somewhere, that we had a destination. He told me to follow hard after Him. I repeated His words to Him to show Him that I understood what He meant, but neglected the word "hard." He corrected me, "Follow hard after me."

Following Jesus When All Seems Against Us

We kept moving, with His hand in mine, quickly through the woods. Many times heavy branches hit me in the face, but I kept following Him. Occasionally we met people as we walked; some would encourage us, while others would hurl insults at us, but we kept walking.

I looked down at one point and realized we had been walking on a narrow log the whole time, which was no more than a foot wide. Below us lay a very deep ravine. I couldn't believe we had been walking so fast on what turned out to be a very perilous passageway. But Jesus seemed confident of where and how we traveled; I grasped His hand even tighter.

We continued walking and would, on occasion, meet people who would try and convince us we were going the wrong way. When they found they could not deter us, they started throwing things at us. This made me mad, so I turned and started yelling at them. They only increased their attack against us as they pelted me with rocks and sticks.

Because I had stopped following Jesus in order to scream at our attackers, my hand had slipped from His without my realizing it and He had disappeared out of sight. Instantly, terror stuck me as I found myself on the narrow log with miles of open air below me that reached to a rocky ravine.

I dropped to my knees too afraid to journey on and terrified to go back. I closed my eyes, hid my face in my knees and cried.

Suddenly, I felt a hand on my shoulder . . . it was Jesus. He didn't scold me. He very tenderly said, "Come on, get up, we've got to keep moving." He reminded me of His command to follow hard after Him, and so we started out again.

"He Leads Me Beside Quiet Waters . . . He Restores My Soul"

In the distance, I saw a clearing where a river flowed. It glistened with the light from the sun. He said, "We'll stop there and rest a while." My journey seemed easier knowing there was a place to rest ahead of us.

As we arrived at the river, we took off our shoes and put our feet in the water. I was so tired, I just wanted to lay down and sleep, but Jesus made me eat a lunch He had prepared for us. After the meal, we lay near the bank of the river while the sun warmed us. It was really very nice.

"He Leads Me on Paths of Righteousness . . . "

We met some people at the river's edge who began to flatter me. They wanted me to stay with them and help them; they told me that I was "just what they needed!" The temptation to stay with them was very strong, because I was tired of traveling. I wanted to settle down. It felt good to be needed by them, but the Lord quickly pulled me away from them. As He did, I saw that they were wearing costumes and masks. They were not people at all, but were wolves in sheep's clothing.

I was a little angry with Jesus, because He had separated me from them. I felt He was being unfair to me at that moment, but then I realized it meant being without Him. I shuttered when I thought of how close I had been to staying with them. I determined in my heart not to follow my own reasoning, but to trust in His.

"Even in the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I Will Fear No Evil"

We continued our journey by walking along the bank of the river; it was very difficult. The banks were covered in jagged rocks and we were moving very fast. My ankles burned from all the twisting and turning they made.

But, after awhile, even our difficult journey became monotonous, and my mind began to wander. I thought of all I had endured on this journey and began to feel sorry for myself because of the insults I had endured.

Then, I remembered something that I had asked the Lord for a long time ago which He had not given to me. I started to get mad at Jesus. As my temper mounted, I stopped short and withdrew my hand from His. He turned and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Jesus," I said, feeling sorry for myself, "you didn't give me what I asked you for . . . do you remember? "

"Yes," He replied.

I was convinced that I was in the right this time. "I really need that!" I declared.

He didn't get mad or annoyed with me, He just stroked my hair and said, "You don't need that right now, honey; it would only slow you down."

Instantly my heart was at peace. As sure as I had been that I needed it, I was now just as sure that He was right. I knew now that I needed to stay focused on my journey . . . to stay focused on Him.

"You Have Prepared a Table for Me . . . "

We continued on our way for a very long time, with fewer interruptions now, because I had determined in my heart to follow hard after Him. I was beginning to understand more about Jesus, and I was learning what to expect from our journey together.

As we walked, the sky turned to a wonderful emerald blue and the trees became more and more beautiful. The air was warm and filled with fragrance. Jesus walked much slower now, not quite as hurried. I knew we must be nearing the end of our journey.

We walked into a clearing where the grass was plush and green. I knew that where we were was a secret place. It was extraordinarily beautiful, peaceful, and quiet. Giant willow trees hung like a picture frame over a gazebo by a gentle stream. Flowers filled the air with their sent; I felt I was home.

We sat down at the table where a delightful meal was prepared for us. We laughed together as we ate, and talked of our journey and how beautiful the garden was. I was so happy to be with Him in this place.

Jesus continued to surprise me with wonderful fruit and all my favorite desserts. Everything tasted better than ever before; it was filling and satisfying. With every bite, I was filled more and more with His love, and the strain of my journey faded away. As we laughed and ate, I felt that I would be content to stay in this wonderful place with Him forever. I felt so refreshed.

Unexpectedly, saints robed in white appeared all around us as though they had always been there, but I had been unable to see them. They approached our table with great joy and carried gifts for me in their arms.

Jesus spoke, "These gifts are from me. They are your reward for your dangerous journey." He beamed with joy at my surprise. "I love presents!" I exclaimed. I was so excited. They were wrapped so beautifully; I couldn't wait to open them.

"Surely Goodness and Mercy Shall Follow Me All the Days of My Life"

The first present contained a beautiful crown -- I was stunned by its elegance. I took it out of its box and placed it on my head; everyone agreed it suited me perfectly. The second box contained a robe, which was red, trimmed in white. I was in awe of the look and feel of it. I slowly ran my hand down it, admiring the feel of the fine fabric. I burst into tears at the thought of what this robe must have cost Him, and it was all for me.

I began to realize now, as if for the first time, just how much He really loves me. I looked deep into His eyes and said gratefully, "Thank you."

He smiled an understanding smile, but then laughed, saying, "Put it on!"

I put on the robe and danced around to show everyone. They laughed and applauded with great joy.

As I danced I realized that my shoes were suddenly elegant slippers. They were not the worn out leather boots I had on during my journey, but beautiful silver slippers. I had not even noticed the change and the Lord laughed with great delight at my shock.

Oh, how He laughed!

The Greatest Gift of All

There was more laughing and dancing, talking and crying.

Then, secretly, the Lord pulled a small box out of His robe and said quietly, "I have one more present for you."

I opened this gift with great reverence; I knew it must be something very special. As I opened the package and lifted the lid on the small box, I was amazed at what I saw. In this small, thin box, with no elaborate trimmings, was His beating heart!

I gasped!

"I am giving you My heart, child, please use it well," He said. "I am sending you to where your journey began and you will need all that I have given you here."

"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few, so I am sending you among the wolves to gather my sheep to Me. You must protect them. But, I have no fear in sending you, because you have all that you need . . . you have acquired it by following me!"

Your Great Journey has Only Just Begun . . .

He stood for the first time since we had arrived and, with great satisfaction at a job well done, He motioned to a small boat at the stream near by. With help from the saints, we loaded my provisions into the boat.

Jesus unhooked the boat from its shoring and gave it a gentle shove out into the stream. I waved good-bye and blew Him a kiss, but could not take my eyes off of Him.

I did not know where my journey would lead me next, but I was not afraid. I knew that He was with me, guiding and protecting. He was my gentle savior, sending me to battle with all I would ever need. I would not lack.

I realized then, my journey had not ended in this place, it had only just begun.

Flying High in the Spirit

Julie Volby

November 18, 2002
Updated: November 8, 2005

John 4:23-24 - "But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

I believe the Lord gave me a vision of those yearning to experience a deeper walk with Him in the Spirit. He showed me a kite being lifted up by the wind. It is evident that the string, which was controlled by the hands of the One flying the kite, directed the destiny or destination of the kite.

There are many in the Body of Christ who yearn to go deeper, to fly higher in the realms of the Spirit, to be free from the things of this world, to be in the very presence of their Creator. They love to praise and worship Him who is so worthy to be praised. They love to come into His courts offering praise from a thankful heart. They love experiencing His anointing oil, so warm and soothing to their souls. They love to stand under the waterfall of the Holy Spirit being refreshed by the living water He pours out. Oh, it is refreshing indeed.

The Lord does in fact desire to be worshipped. We were designed to worship our Creator. Through the simple message of a kite, He showed me that in order to keep the kite on a steady, clear path, some things must be intact. First, the one flying the kite must be the Lord Himself. Our spirits, represented by the kite, must be directly connected to Him. This is only done by making sure we are firmly grounded and attached to our lifeline, which is the Word of God, through faith in the truth of the Full Gospel of Jesus Christ. By being connected to this lifeline we are able to avoid or overcome obstacles in our paths that could so easily ensnare us. As the kite lifts off the ground, there may be a variety of obstacles (due to our flesh nature) to overcome. If we truly desire to reach the heights (in the Spirit) the Lord wants to bring us to, we must be careful not to try to get there without abiding in the Truth.

The Lord said when the Holy Spirit came He would convict the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment (John 16:8).   Remember the Spirit is not just any spirit. He is the HOLY Spirit. If He chooses to reveal something in your life or in your midst that is contrary to His holiness, do not rationalize or try to ignore it and then attempt to go higher in the Spirit. Instead, repent immediately and turn away from it. God does not take this lightly. Remember why Jesus was nailed to the Cross. Do not forget what Jesus did for you. Jesus asked His disciples to have communion in remembrance of Him. This was not to practice some religious act, nor was it only to remember His wonderful promises of peace and liberty of a life in Him. It was to remember why Jesus came to earth. He came to pay the full price for all sin. His body was broken, His blood shed for us. Therefore, we are to humble ourselves before Him, for He will lift us up in due time. Whom the Lord loves, He chastens. We are not to focus on the sin nature, but when the Holy Spirit does reveal something that is not of Him, we are to willfully turn our hearts away from it and unto Him in repentance. The Lord desires us to come to Him with clean hands and a pure heart, so that we can enjoy LIVING COMMUNION with Him and partake of the Living Word (bread) and Revelation (wine) of Him daily. This is done by acknowledging our complete need and dependency on Him, and by faith, receiving all that the Father freely offers to all who simply ask.

Worshipping in Truth apart from the Spirit leads to bondage to the law producing condemnation.

Worshipping in Spirit apart from the Truth leads to error producing deception.

Worshipping in Spirit and Truth leads to holiness producing the fullness of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit, which by definition is the Kingdom of God.

My message to the Body today is to stay firmly connected to your lifeline, the Word of God who is the Word of Life. Do not become overly focused on the experience of flying higher and higher without yielding yourself first to the Refiner's fire. We are called to be a Holy Nation, a Bride, pure and without spot. Do not untie yourself from the Truth and let your kite fly where it will, for eventually, the kite will crash and the fall will be great. Allow the Holy Spirit, just like the wind, to lift you up where He wills. At the same time, remain connected to the Word of God and test all things.

There is an increased wave of deception being unleashed in this hour and many will fall prey to its very subtle lies. I exhort you to know what you believe and WHOM (the Spirit of Truth) you believe in. Do not listen with itching ears to those things that appeal to your flesh. Be wary of those who offer you what looks good or may even taste good, such as that which was offered to Eve in the Garden of Eden. Jesus gave a serious warning regarding false prophets or anyone operating in falsehood. In Matthew 7:16, He said "you will know them by their fruits". He did not say you would know them by their accurate words.

A prophetic word is not to be received just because of accuracy.

A prophetic word is to be discerned by the fruit of the individual offering the word.

If Eve had discerned through spiritual eyes the cunning spirit of the one offering her to eat of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, perhaps she would have realized something was wrong. It is evident the serpent had beguiled her to look through her natural eyes as seen in Genesis 3:6 which says, "So when the woman SAW that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the EYES, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate." Remember the fruit of the SPIRIT is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such there is no law (Galatians 5:22-23).

Ephesians 5:9 - For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth.

Fruit is not accuracy, popularity, numbers, figures, dollar amounts, flattery, credentials, degrees, how famous a person may be, who they rub elbows with or what circles they mingle in. The fruit Jesus spoke of can only be spiritually discerned. Discernment is developed as the writer of Hebrews explains.

Hebrews 5:14 - But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Fruit is dispersed from one's lips:

Hebrews 13:15 - Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

Proverbs 18:21 - Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat of its fruit.

The serpent's words were tempting and tasty, and Eve willingly chose to receive the lie. By looking through her natural eyes, she reached out and ate. Unfortunately for Eve, and all mankind, she accepted the lie. She then partook of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, rather than the Tree of Life, which then produced death.

Matthew 7:17 - Even so a good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.

Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. Do not listen to words produced by your own natural understanding or the words of those who speak from an unrepentant heart. Instead listen to the Voice of Truth who only speaks from a heart of pure love for you. The Holy Spirit speaks words founded in the justice and righteousness of God, which is the truth that sets the captives free.

John 16:13-14 – 13 However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. 14 He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you.

The Spirit of Truth will lead you in the paths of righteousness for His Name sake to glorify HIS SON, not man.

God's power is being revealed in greater dimensions as darkness attempts to cover the earth in greater measures in this time. We will see increased signs, wonders, and miracles in the days to come, both genuine and counterfeit. We must be wise as serpents and harmless as doves to discern and know how to respond to each situation we encounter.

Know that he who is faithful in what is least is also faithful in what is much. Please take the time to be faithful with the truth you have been given and what may sometimes seem to be just a small gentle breeze or nudge of the Spirit. Allow the HOLY Spirit to lift your kite to those places He sees fit and in His appointed time and way you will soar with the eagles. God's Spirit will lift you up to the Sun of Righteousness whose brightness and glory will overtake and consume you in His love and grace. Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is liberty! Whom the Son sets free is free indeed! Be ye ready!

Freedom in Faith

Carla Rickard

The Captives have been MADE FREE
May 23 2005

Faith is truly a gift from our Father in heaven. It is also listed in the Word as fruit of the Spirit. We know we have His Spirit when we are living in and through faith in the accomplished work of Jesus Christ on the earth. There has been many debates about should we do this, or abstain from that, touch this, refrain from that. But we need to see what the Word of God speaks of such issues. They were alive and well in the time period when Jesus walked the earth. The disciples, now apostles of the Lord Jesus Christ, had to continually clarify the Word of God to new converts. If you can imagine, these new converts came into the Faith of Jesus Christ with some preconceived man made traditions and errors. We are going to begin this study by looking first at the definition of Faith.

What is Faith?
Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
Faith is the substance. Lets stop there for an examination. Substance is: that which has mass and occupies space, the choicest or most essential or most vital part of some idea or experience. Faith has weight. It occupies space! Faith is the most vital part of "the" idea or experience. We have often said " I hope so and so comes to the Lord" When faith is applied to that hope, it occupies space, it provides mass or weight in that space. It IS that which we hope for. Paul further explains faith that we might grasp its weightiness and realness. He says Faith is the evidence of things NOT seen. What is evidence? It is your basis for belief or disbelief; knowledge on which to base belief . What is our basis of belief or disbelief in a matter? It is the Word of God. Jesus was the Word made Flesh and dwelt among us. What He has said, is what we have faith to believe, or not to believe. He is the plumbline. The discerner of the written Word. Therefore we can take any scripture from the Word of God, add faith to it (giving it weight) and expect to see evidence that will prove the scripture True. The heart understands faith immediately however the mind has to attempt to formulate it into understanding. As we meditate on the Word of God we will get understanding as our minds shall be renewed by FAITH.
How Does Faith Work?
1 John 4:8
He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love

Galatians 5:6
For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

Faith is from God. Its God's gift to us. In actuality it is HIS FAITH IN us and not our's to claim alone. The scripture says that faith worketh by love. Who does the work? LOVE. Who is love? GOD IS LOVE. Knowing this should increase our faith tremendously because we will have confidence in the Love of God toward us regarding what he has said about us in the written Word.
I have heard it said " this faith thing doesn't work". No it doesn't if it isn't directly connected to Love. The Love of God is shed abroad in our hearts and activates our hearts to faith. Faith works by Love. Love, who is God, WORKS the faith that has been apportioned to us, that we might have the power to believe HIM. This is the mystery and awesomeness of the SON of God. If we want our faith to work, and it isn't working, we need to check our love walk immediately!Unfortunately you can't fake that one, pretend, or be shallow in regards to it. If it is not genuinely set in your heart, deception will creep in and tell you that it isn't working despite walking in love. IT WORKS ONLY through loving our neighbor MORE than ourselves. By By Pride. Pride must be cast down for it is a vain imagination that exalts itself against the knowledge of LOVE (God).

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Now that we have understanding on what faith is, and how it works, we can begin to PLEASE GOD. We have believed that God is, and we will be rewarded of God because we have DILIGENTLY sought Him. That little word diligently has some HUGE meaning! It means our seeking of God should be in this manner: quietly and steadily persevering especially in detail or exactness. In Faith we study the Word of God to find out WHO HE IS and WHAT HE SAYS. In Faith we receive instruction from Him and also His Character for we are the Children of God. We become the SUBSTANCE of that Word because of FAITH. We hope to be more like Him, and in Faith we BELIEVE we have already received it because of HIS WORD and then it occupies space! It occupies the space in our hearts!

The Nay Sayers
Ephesians 6:16
Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

The nay sayers are those who come against the faith that we have in Him saying it isn't so. Just like the serpent did to Eve in the garden of Eden which caused her to doubt the Word of God and therefore she changed that word. We often come acrossed these nay sayers and most often in the fellowship of saints who will say to us " it isn't so". What do we do when that happens? We take the shield of faith! For what we truly believe in our heart cannot be swayed by nay sayers. We continue to stand in position and lift up our faith by the Word of God, canceling out any form of attack against that which we know is true. It didn't say we had to throw the darts back. It just said SHIELDS UP! Stand on what you know is True. Stay away from those things you don't know from direct experience with God, and you will not waver. You will stand strong and the darts shall fall and not touch you.
1 Thessalonians 5:8
But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

Always remember as we are reminded in the above scripture, that faith worketh by LOVE! Not argument. Love alone. Shield your mind with the helmet of salvation which is the hope, the future prize of those things promised to us from the Lord. Press toward the mark.
The nay sayers are usually those who have cast off their first faith. They have walked the road of complication. Often times getting into arguments of do's and don'ts which are weeds and thorns to their faith. Faith CAN be cast off. Remain diligent in seeking the Lord!
1Timothy 5:12
Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith
When the nay sayers arise, remember this scripture Romans 3:3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? God's faith is always working. He is a FAITH God. That is illustrated throughout the scriptures! Those who have nay sayed what you have come to believe in the Lord, will not receive of the Lord in that area because of THEIR unbelief, however YOU WILL. For the faith of God that works in you will bring it to pass as you speak those things which you believe. It is how you received the gift of salvation through confessing with your heart in true belief that Jesus is the Son of God. If you are believing your loved one's will enter into the kingdom of God and you trust God to make it so, and another believes not for their family thinking that they will never change, what do you suppose will manfiest from their belief (faith).
We can't help ourselves! What is in our hearts comes out of our mouths. We are a chatting bunch. We are very quick to say what we do and don't believe. Even the lost porport their believes publicly and with great enthusiasm! What does your faith speak? Listen to your own words, make adjustments to your believes accordingly by the Word of God and walk in the fullness of what He has prepared for you THIS DAY.

Acts 14:9
The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

How do you suppose Paul perceived this person had the faith to be healed? One of the ways he may have perceived it is through the verbal response of the person to the message he was preaching. Jesus also looked for faith in people and many times by what they spoke from their own lips. Remember the centurion? He understood authority and received faith because of that experience. Jesus was so impressed to even say he had not found such faith not even in Israel.

And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

These are the very words of Jesus. He is telling us how powerful our words truly are. Did he say it would occur right in that minute? No, he left that for us to discern by personal relationship with him. He just said IT WILL HAPPEN. If you take a look at seeds, you can receive a lesson of great proportion. Some seeds because of their nature, take longer to germinate, and grow into fullness. I'm a farmer. I know lettuce grows very fast and in a season in our colder climate, I can grow it to maturity at least 3 times in that season. However corn is different. Its going to take a lot longer to produce to maturity. Even more so is the maple tree. It takes MORE time to mature from a seed planted. Where is that seed of faith? Paul tells us

But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

It is located in the heart and in the mouth! It cant be just the mouth, nor can it be just the heart. We need agreement. The mouth must agree with the heart. This is what produces the works of faith otherwise it would be dead. What we need to remember and be in patience regarding, is not all have the same proportion of faith. We all start out the same, but we all grow at different rates. We cannot judge the faith of another who is just beginning to grow in the FIRST faith.

Romans 12:6
Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

We will also speak according to the proportion of faith. No matter what you believe it eventually comes out of your mouth. Whatever is in the heart has to come out at some point. However, it is imperative that we understand that life and death is in the tongue. Do we speak Life (faith) or death (doubt)? It will be based on what we believe, and there is no condemnation if there is doubt from Christ, it just means that those are areas in our walk where we need to be strengthened by the Word of God.

2 Corinthians 4:13
We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

In part 4 we will be discussing the freedom that we have through faith in Jesus Christ. This is a more contentious issue for many as they have been taught that it is either the law or faith. However as the Word will illustrate PLAINLY to us. The law is fulfilled in love, and there are considerations to other believers to be made who have not yet grasped our freedom. Those who receive this word will know it is the GOOD NEWS of the gospel because of the freedom that we have IN Christ Jesus.

Freedom in Faith
All of our needs are met IN Christ Jesus-Faith in the Son
1. Deliverance
2. Healing
3. Salvation
4. Prosperity
5. Peace

Galatians 3:24-25
Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster

The law is our schoolmaster. It taught us that we were in sin by giving us a standard that we could not constantly live up to at all times. But after we have understood the law, and what is right and wrong, faith is to come. At that point we are no longer UNDER a schoolmaster. In a sense we have graduated. Graduated from rules and regulations and obeying these ritualistically, to understanding of the heart of God because of faith in Christ Jesus, so that we may live according to faith to please God. When faith is come, the law is imprinted on our heart. We already have it in us. Jesus is the Word. He dwells within us. The Christ dwells within us. We do not have to worry if we are keeping this or that law because the Lord left us with two commandments in which he said all the rest of the law and the Prophets hang: 1. Love our God with all our hearts, mind, and strength; and 2. Love our neighbour as ourselves.Lets look closer at what the Lord has said. Bold highlights will be used to draw your attention.

Mark 7

[1]Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.
[2]And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.
[3]For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
[4]And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.
[5]Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?
[6]He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
[7]Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
[8]For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
[9]And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
[10]For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:
[11]But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.
[12]And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;
[13]Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.
[14]And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:
[15]There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.
[16]If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

[17]And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
[18]And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;
[19]Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?
[20]And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.
[21]For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,
[22]Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:
[23]All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.
[24]And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

Jesus is PLAIN AS DAY about outer observances not being of any profit to a man. When we so put too much effort on the things that others can readily observe, we are walking into dangerous territory because both we and them can be deceived into believing they will end up being the glue to our salvation! Let faith fill our hearts.

The Law and the Prophets

Matthew22
[36]Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
[37]Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
[38]This is the first and great commandment.
[39]And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
[40]On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Jesus said that he did not come to do away with the law but to fulfill it. the law has nothing to do with the traditions of men! Men built more and more burdensome yokes side by side to the law making it most difficult for any man to fulfill it. They couldn't fulfill the basic law of God. Jesus did fulfill the law, and if we do these two commandments above, we also fulfil the law. For he states that on these 2 commandments HANG ALL THE LAW. The wonderful witness of faith in Hebrews 11 illustrates to us how it taken all together should look. now let us remember what we said at first. Now that FAITH HAS COME, we are no longer under the law as a Teacher. It had its purpose but now Faith is come and the law is fulfill. Remember again, Faith WORKETH BY LOVE! Not all will experience the freedom we are meant to experience in faith.

Hebrews 4:2
For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

Faith is active, its a substance. Its the WEIGHT of the WORD of God, that PRODUCES EVIDENCE. Many confuse the following scripture. Missing on little word can change the whole understanding of the scripture.

James 2:18
Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

James has said that our works DEMONSTRATE our faith! When we have faith, we will DO works with it. Its a natural spiritual progression. If the Word says, Honor your mother and father that you may have long days on the earth, and I believe that Word is a true command, THEN I will DO those things which support my belief. I will make sure they have enough to eat. I won't be doing something to bring shame to them. I will DEMONSTRATE FAITH in the Word. It is a witness without words.

1 John 5:4
For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

Many will ask you the complicated questions as they did Jesus. They will ask you how to develop a formula that they can take comfort in. In most cases they won't like your answer, because they will see it as too simple. But THAT is the GOOD NEWS. IT IS simple. John says in the above scripture that WHATEVER if born of God. WHAT EVER! It doesn't matter what it is, it only matters if GOD BORN it. If God BIRTHED it, that BIRTH IS the victory that overcomes the world. It is our FAITH in Him.
If we are looking for anything from the Lord we have to seek him in Faith. He WILL reward us. He says so. There is a caution set forth for us in regards to faith. Some understand their freedom much more than others. This is the proportion of Faith spoken of earlier in the study. Often times those two levels of faith will conflict between believers. One knowing that there is nothing wrong with doing " THIS" and the other believing it is " WRONG". Paul gives us an answer Romans

And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

There is a mighty POWERFUL freedom to us as believers, if we dared to truly believe in the power of faith from God. Paul simply states to those who are debating the issue, IF YOU DOUBT, and DO what you find DOUBTFUL, THEN, and ONLY THEN is it sin, because it wasn't DONE OF FAITH. Selah. No wonder their lives were in danger. I can imagine saying that today in front of many who believe certain modes of behaviour are sin. I don't think I would want to be the one to stand in front of the many who believe contrary to what my faith is telling me! But alas I must listen to the wise counsel of God which says...

1 Corinthians 2:5
That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

POWER of GOD IS AUTHORITY of GOD
FAITH IS THE ONLY WAY TO PLEASE GOD
According to the FAITH apportioned to YOU, SO BE IT.

Romans 14:22
Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth

Kicking Against The Pricks
Carla Rickard

Midnight Teaching from Christ
May 24 2005

Acts 9:5
And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks

I was just laying in bed ready to fall into sleep, when I heard the Lord say to me three times " its hard to kick against the pricks". I listened as a vision was given for me to observe.

The Vision
I seen a long stemmed rose. It had many thorns up the stem, and even smaller ones on the bottoms of the leaves close to the bud. I watched as the rose budded forth into a beautiful flower.

The Foundation to Understanding
The vision unfolded every time the Lord was revealing something to me. The Lord told me the pricks were sharp as is the Word of God, and are attached to the stem from the vine. They are like discerners of the thoughts and intents of our hearts. When we kick against these " pricks" we have been discerned.

He also said, that the pricks protect the delicateness of the Rose which is busy blooming. Not only do they keep intruders out, but they also keep beauty in. The pricks are like the guards of the flowering plant.

The Lesson of the Vision

Consider how hard Paul must have been swinging his foot against the pricks. He believed at the time with great fervour that he was doing God a favor by persecuting believers. The Lord showed me that each time Paul kicked with full power and might against the pricks surrounding the ROSE OF SHARON, he was only causing injury to himself. The pricks were fine. The Rose was fine. But he was deepening his wounds.

Jesus (the ROSE of Sharon) appeared to Paul out of great mercy for Paul and asked him why he was harassing Him so greatly. Jesus told him, it was offensive and intolerable that he be doing this. What was he doing? He was kicking, or, as the Strong's puts it " striking with the heel" ---- Read Genesis 3:15 which we happened to be speaking of a week ago---at Jesus through Christians of his time. What or who are the pricks? The pricks are actually ruinous or perilous resistance. Once again we ask to what? To THE WORD OF GOD ---JESUS CHRIST.

What Was Taught

The Lord was showing me, that it is actually perilous and a futile thing to resist the Word of God. You cannot succeed in destroying that which is indestructible! He used thorns on a rose to illustrate this to me. How the Word of God keeps in the beauty, and keeps out the seed of the enemy which desires to crush the Rose. No matter how much resistance comes against the Rose, it is futile, for the Rose is surrounded by the double edged sword of the Word of God. I understood how strong this Word to me in the night really was. NOTHING can stop the will of God. Nothing can stop the Word of God. It will do all that it is sent to do and accomplish. What a promise! May it increase your faith.

ADDITIONAL SCRIPTURES

Ge 3:15
And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

[14]And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean

So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it

Hebrews 4:12
For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Parable Of The Fig Tree

Bill Somers

> He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.
> Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?
> And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:
> And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. Luke 13:6-9

The passage above, one of Jesus' parables, can be interpreted as an allegory of the end times. Just as he interpreted the parable of the sower for his followers, we can interpret this parable in the same way. First we identify each element of the story and then explain their interaction.

The Elements.
The certain man here is God the Father. The vineyard is the world and the fig tree is the church. The fruit he is looking for is the harvest or the completion of the Great Commission. The three years are three millennia since the birth of Jesus; the church is entering its third millennium. The vinedresser is Jesus. Digging about the tree and fertilizing it speaks of the judgment on the church that must come before the harvest. Indeed the judgment is required to produce the harvest just as fertilizing is required to produce a crop.

The Action.
There is a threat of judgment on the unfruitful tree.

> He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.
> Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? Luke 13:6-7

The owner of the vineyard is God the Father. He comes expecting that it will finally bring him the fruit his heart desires, but finding none he decrees judgment, a judgment of wrath.

> Luke 3:9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

The three years are three millennia since the birth of Jesus; the church is entering its third millennium. This also hearkens back to Genesis chapter 1, where God commands the earth to yield its harvest on the third day.

> And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.
> And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.*
> And the evening and the morning were the third day. Genesis 1: 11-13*

The vinedresser is Jesus, who intercedes with his father to forestall his wrath.

> Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Hebrews 7:25

Jesus is following the pattern of intercession used by Moses in Exodus 32, Numbers 14 and other places.

> Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Psalms 106:23

So the vinedresser proposes an alternative that will make the tree fruitful. This is not a judgment of wrath, but of strong chastisement.

> And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:
> And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. Luke 13:8-9

To dig about it and dung it is to fertilize it so it will bear fruit.

> Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you John 15:16

The digging is breaking up of the fallow ground.

> Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. Hosea 10 12
> Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest. Micah 3:12
> For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.
> Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Jeremiah 4:3 -4

If we don't break up our own fallow ground, our hearts, the plowman of Isaiah 28, Jesus will come along and break it up for us. This next passage shows speaks of judgment coming to the church as a plowing on the hill of Zion. And the second verse gives the results of the plowing, revival and harvest.

> Micah 3:12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.
> Micah 4:1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

The dung speaks of reproach, and judgment.

> Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us. Psalms 44:13

A rain to water the tree and allow the fertilizer to be absorbed into its root system must follow it. This speaks of the latter rain that brings the harvest.

> Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. Hosea 6:1-3

> Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee*, when I returned the captivity of my people. Hosea 6:11*

This passage then is speaking of Judgment on the Church.

> For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: …. 1 Pet 4:17

And this is a redemptive judgment, a judgment with a purpose. It's so that the church might be purged and purified so it can be used to bring in the harvest. So it will bring forth fruit.

The scriptures are full of examples of God's people coming under judgments and how they prayed and sought him during these judgements Let these be our examples for intercession in these trying times about to come upon us.

> We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:
> Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.
> O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.
> O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. Daniel 9:5-8

> Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. Nehemiah 2:17

> Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
> Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud Psalms 123:3-4

> Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;
> Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed. Psalms 89:50-51

> And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.
Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: Nehemiah 4:2-4

All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?
All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. Lamentations 2:15-16

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach. Lamentations 5:1

Psalm 44 To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil
1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.
2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.
3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.
4 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.
5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.
6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.
8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.
9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.
10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.
11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.
12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.
13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.
14 Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.
15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me,
16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.
17 ¶ All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;
19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god;
21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.
26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

Romans 8:
31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?
32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.
34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.
38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

PUNISHMENT OR A FINAL END?
By Bill Somers

The Lord quickened a scripture from Jeremiah and gave me to understand that it expressed his heart and intention toward America as he brings His judgment on us.

> Jeremiah 30: 10. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make [him] afraid.
> 11. For I [am] with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

My understanding of this is that the coming judgment is a chastisement. That the Lord will "not make a full end of" America but "will correct ... in measure, and will not leave ... unpunished."

He also gave part of Isaiah 48, later.

> 3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did [them] suddenly, and they came to pass.
> 5 I have even from the beginning declared [it] to thee; before it came to pass I shewed [it] thee:....
> 9. For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.
> 10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.
> 20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it [even] to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

Final Generation

Maria Magruder

For I have been injecting faith into the final generation that will do great exploits in My name, says the Lord of the Armies of Heaven and earth. I have been injecting great faith by the ministry gifts that I have set in place on this earth over the last decade, and you are about to see the fruit of this injection manifest in every part of the earth. There will be no place left unturned by My army, by My mighty hand.

For I am now pouring out My power to those who have received (and not rejected) My Words into their spirits and their minds. For I am freely injecting to those who are hungry with great wisdom and understanding of My ways of the supernatural and great faith.

Many of you have not seen what you desire to see, you have heard, but have not seen. Your eyes will now be opened unto the heavenlies, you will see into the heavens, you will see into My heart and My Spirit will release upon you the life of the everlasting, eternal power from the inside of your spirit, that will cause an explosion on the outside around you, that will cause the world to see Me.

You will walk in the authority on this earth, as I have created you to do so since the beginning of this world. For you are the final generation to take My Word to all the earth in great power, as heaven has enabled you. You will find victory in every opposition and challenge that comes your way, because My power is greater than any devil, and worldly circumstance that will attempt to stop you. For as you stay plugged into My power, My anointing, My Spirit, nothing will stop you, nor will anything harm you.

Come up to the level of great faith, Believer. No longer will you just speak faith, but you will now work your faith with great manifestation of power.

James 2:18 But someone will say, you have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without your works and I will show you my faith by my works.

For faith is a mighty force that I have given measure to every Believer. Every believer has a measure of force and power. You will now not just "have: faith, but you will show your faith with force by your works of power, because you are the violent who will take it by faith, take it by force. For in My faith is the fruit of patience, those who have let patience have its perfect way and who have been diligently waiting and seeking me will see this force manifest as a great impact of an explosion in their life. As you are destined to walk in power, you are destined to be witnesses unto Me unto all the earth, you are destined to be evidence providers of who I am, says the Lord.

For those of you seeking for breakthrough in one area or another, the Lord would say to you, "I AM THE BREAKTHROUGH", "I AM THE LIFE FORCE THAT WILL BREATH UPON YOUR SPIRIT AND YOUR TEMPORARY CIRCUMSTANCE MUST BOW TO THE BREAKTHROUGH, MUST BOW TO ME, THE BREAKTHROUGH LIVES IN YOU." "I AM THE WAY THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE."

For you are the final generation that will rise up in power, as a one great un-stoppable army. For everywhere you turn you will find a place to minister My power and truth unto, and you will not be an army on the defense, but you will be a strong army on the offense, pushing back the every foul devil, every darkness, setting the captive free from bondage, as I co-labor with you and IN you.

Be at peace My sons and daughters for your season and your time of manifestation of power has come.

Fire Over France
Chad Taylor

This word that I released for France titled, "FIRE OVER FRANCE" was originally sent out in 2001. It was brought to my attention this week due to the historic news coming from France and the riots that are ensuing. We must look past the smoke and see the reality of God's will in the midst of these national calamities and controversies. The entire planet is being shaken and the stage set for His glory. A true manifestation of Isaiah 60:1-5. Please read the prophetic word below still in its original form from June of 2001. It was also translated into French and this is included below as well. Chad Taylor

Fire Over France
Chad Taylor

I saw a pillar of holy fire over France and the Lord said, 'I will burn with My glory over France. I will remember the words of former prophecies from centuries ago and now they will burn. They will burn like a city upon a hill that cannot be hid. They will burn like a pillar of fire by night and pillar of smoke by day. It will lead My people from Captivity. IT will cast the rider and the horse into the sea and My people will surely be set free.'

I saw stars falling from the sky and hitting Paris France and the Lord said, 'I will send My messengers and harvesting angels to this city. They will put in the sickle for the harvest is ripe. They will position My church in this city for harvest and revival. They will upset ancient principalities and open the leaved gates. Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut... (Isaiah 45:1).

I saw the city burning and the sea reflecting its glory and the Lord said, 'I will burn with such an intensity from this place it will be seen from across the sea and they will be in awe. The lowly and the famous shall come to this place to worship Me. I will be lifted up and then draw all to Myself. And like the sea I will cover this place with My glory. Kings and those in high place shall now turn and be saved. Those with royal blood and the blood of those that once conquered will now bow their knee to Me and be saved. This is the hour that I will light a fire in Paris France says the Lord.

I saw a generation of youth on fire like torches in the Lord's hand and then the Lord said, 'I will capture the hearts of France's youth. I will ravish their heart and take them into the secret place, the holy place. They will take up the sword of My Spirit and win nations. They will cross land and seas for Me to set the captives free. They will be gallant and do exploits. For this is the destiny of the Lord for My seed in France, "Before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you, and I ordained you a prophet to the nations" O France. I called you and set you aside. (Jeremiah 1:5).

I saw a storm forming over France with lightning and thunder and the Lord said, 'A storm of political controversy is forming over France, but from this storm they will see the Lord upon the water and they will cry out to Me. From this storm of controversy they will cry out to Me and I will hold their hand and lift them up from the storm. I will lift them up and save them. For I remember the covenants I made with their forefathers, and I will surely give them the land that I promised their forefathers. I will surely give them the land says the Lord. I will surely give them back the land.

I saw a mighty river coming out of France filling the sea and then the Lord said, 'A mighty river of revival will come from this place. A mighty river that will water Africa, that will sustain nations and cities. A river that will rush through America reminding her of her first love. A river that will bridge the gap between nations and churches creating an atmosphere for My glory. Out of France's belly will flow river's of living water. Out of France's belly rivers of living water and the nations will be healed.

Prepare Yourself O France! The Fire Of My Glory Is Upon You And The Day Of The Lord Has Drawn Nigh!

Feu sur la France.
Chad Taylor

Une parole communiqué par Chad Taylor.
Traduction française Bruno Laffitte : pmbruno@ifrance.com
Http://www.lemessager.online.fr

"J'ai vu une colonne de feu saint sur la France et le Seigneur dit:"Je brûlerai avec ma gloire sur la France. Je me souviendrai des anciennes prophéties des siècles passés, et maintenant elles brûleront. Elles brûleront comme une ville sur une colline qui ne peut être cachée. Elles brûleront comme une colonne de feu la nuit et une colonne de fumée le jour. Cela conduira mon peuple hors de la captivité. Cela perdra le cavalier et le cheval dans la mer, et c'est certain mon peuple sera libéré.

Des étoiles tombant du ciel et frappant Paris.

Je vis des étoiles tombant du ciel et frappant Paris, France et le Seigneur dit: "J'enverrai Mes anges messagers et moissonneurs dans cette ville. Ils prendront la faucille car la moisson est mûre. Ils vont mettre en place Mon église dans cette ville pour la moisson et le réveil. Ils vont renverser des anciennes principautés et ouvrir les portes oubliées. "Ainsi parle l'Éternel à son oint, à Cyrus, Qu'il tient par la main, Pour terrasser les nations devant lui, Et pour relâcher la ceinture des rois, Pour lui ouvrir les portes, Afin qu'elles ne soient plus fermées;"

Ainsi parle l'Éternel à son oint, à Cyrus, dont j'ai pris la main droite, afin d'assujettir les nations devant lui ; et j'ai desserré les reins des rois, pour lui ouvrir devant lui les deux portes oubliés, et les portes ne seront plus fermés... (Esaïe 45;1)

Paris, une ville qui brûle intensément.

J'ai vu la ville brûler, et la mer refléter sa gloire et le Seigneur dit: "Je brûlerai avec une telle intensité depuis cet endroit, cela se verra au-delà de la mer et ils seront dans une crainte respectueuse. Le plus humble et le plus célèbre viendront dans ce lieu pour M'adorer. Je serai élevé et ensuite j'attirerai tout à Moi. Et comme la mer je couvrirai ce lieu de Ma gloire. Les rois et ceux qui sont élevé, à ce moment se tourneront et seront sauvé. Ceux qui sont de sang royal et du sang de ceux qui ont conquis autrefois fléchiront le genou devant moi et seront sauvés. C'est l'heure où je vais allumer un feu dans Paris, dit le Seigneur.

Jeunesse en feu!

Je vis une génération de jeunes en feu qui sont comme des torches dans la main du Seigneur, et alors le Seigneur dit: "Je vais capturer le cour des jeunes de France.

Je vais ravir leur cour et les conduire vers le lieu secret, le lieu saint. Ils prendront l'Epée de Mon Esprit et gagneront les nations. Ils traverseront terres et mers afin de libérer les captifs. Ils seront brave, vaillant et feront des exploits. Car c'est la destiné du Seigneur pour Ma semence en France. "France Avant que je t'eusse formé dans le ventre de ta mère, je te connaissais, et avant que tu fusses sorti de son sein, je t'avais consacré, je t'avais établi prophète des nations. Je t'ai appelé et mis à part" (Jérémie 1;5)

Controverses politique

Je vis une tempête sur la France avec des éclairs et du tonnerre et le Seigneur dit: "Une tempête de controverses politique est en train de se former sur la France, mais de cette tempête ils verront le Seigneur sur les eaux et crieront à Moi. Mais au sein de cette tempête de controverses ils crieront à Moi et je prendrai leur main je les élèverai hors de la tempête. Je me souviendrai de l'alliance que j'ai faite avec leurs ancêtres et leur donnerai la terre que j'ai promise à leurs ancêtres.

Je vis une puissante rivière sortir de France et remplir la mer, et alors le Seigneur dit: "Une puissante rivière de réveil sortira de ce lieu, une rivière qui mouillera, arrosera l'Afrique, et soutiendra nations et villes. Une rivière qui se répandra, jaillira sur l'Amérique lui rappelant son premier amour. Une rivière qui comblera les fossés entre les nations et les églises en créant une atmosphère pour Ma gloire. Du sein de la France coulera des rivières d'eau vive. Du sein de la France des rivières d'eau vive et les nations seront guéries.

Prépare-toi, ô France ! Le feu de ma gloire est sur toi et le jour du Seigneur est sur le point de paraître !

When The Man Comes Around

And I heard, as it were, the noise of thunder: One of the four beasts saying: "Come and see." And I saw. And behold, a white horse.

There's a man goin' 'round takin' names.
An' he decides who to free and who to blame.
Everybody won't be treated all the same.
There'll be a golden ladder reaching down.
When the man comes around.

The hairs on your arm will stand up.
At the terror in each sip and in each sup.
For you partake of that last offered cup,
Or disappear into the potter's ground.
When the man comes around.

Hear the trumpets, hear the pipers.
One hundred million angels singin'.
Multitudes are marching to the big kettle drum.
Voices callin', voices cryin'.
Some are born an' some are dyin'.
It's Alpha's and Omega's Kingdom come.

And the whirlwind is in the thorn tree.
The virgins are all trimming their wicks.
The whirlwind is in the thorn tree.
It's hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

Till Armageddon, no Shalam, no Shalom.
Then the father hen will call his chickens home.
The wise men will bow down before the throne.
And at his feet they'll cast their golden crown.
When the man comes around.

Whoever is unjust, let him be unjust still.
Whoever is righteous, let him be righteous still.
Whoever is filthy, let him be filthy still.
Listen to the words long written down,
When the man comes around.

Hear the trumpets, hear the pipers.
One hundred million angels singin'.
Multitudes are marchin' to the big kettle drum.
Voices callin', voices cryin'.
Some are born an' some are dyin'.
It's Alpha's and Omega's Kingdom come.

And the whirlwind is in the thorn tree.
The virgins are all trimming their wicks.
The whirlwind is in the thorn tree.
It's hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

In measured hundredweight and penny pound.
When the man comes around.

And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts,
And I looked and behold: a pale horse.
And his name, that sat on him, was Death.
And Hell followed with him.

(Lyrics Johnny Cash)

I was listening to this song when the Spirit of the Lord came upon me. With great mourning I was enthralled in a vision. I seen two things occurring at once. I seen the mass exodus of many all at once with screams of horror for those who weren't ready to die, and with others I seen and heard them calling upon the name of the Lord both ready to live, and ready to die. As I seen the beginnings of labor in the earth, I seen the Lord high and lifted up, and He was preparing for HIS KINGDOM COME. As these things increase and continue on the earth, I seen the Glory of the Lord and His train not only filled the temple, but it filled the earth and I seen His People continuing to Praise and Worship Him in spirit and in truth, calling out for Him. I seen the mountains melting, and the sea roaring at the sound of His Name. I heard the Glory of Heaven. Heaven was busy shouting a triumphant shout.

On earth I seen many groaning and wailing for they knew that this thing was preparing the coming of the Lord. I seen the many membered church of Jesus Christ shouting a victory warring whoop and a dance of feet stamping on the ground in unison.

I asked the Lord what is this?

He spoke " This is my kingdom come. All these things taken together and you know it is at the very door. I'm Coming Soon. I'm coming in all My Glory. For my kingdom to come, first must the kingdom of satan be overthrown in the earth. He rages now for his time is MORE than short. You are witnessing the Pale Horse named Death and Hell that follows with him"

Revelation 6:8
And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

Fire Released From The Bones
Carla Rickard

September 11 2005

The BIRTH OF FIRE BY NIGHT

The Lord gave me a vision while deep, so deep in the Spirit during worship. He showed me the people’s veins in the congregation. Veins that had liquid fire flowing through them. The fire was a beautiful red and gold.

The Lord told me:

There is fire that has been shut up in the bones that is being released into those who are willing to be bold and fearless. There is a strong Prophetic Worship coming onto “ ordinary” people. This anointing comes in an instant. There is no need to “work it up”. It’s walking always in glory. It is beginning first in those who have been last. It is in those who have nothing but total trust and faith and abandon to Me. Those who have been using their gift, where ever they can, this anointing will fall on them suddenly.

The requirements have already been fulfilled. The requirements are trial by fire, to enter into MASTERY IN FIRE. There are few, but they are planted in various spots, who are NOW walking in MASTERY IN FIRE. For once the Fire comes, and mastery occurs, then the manifestation of rain appears! Those who have ears to hear. LISTEN and REJOICE!

Apply The Blood To The Door Posts
Carla Rickard

The Lord showed me in a vision....
The destroyer has been set loose to see if there is still faith on the earth. Anoint your doorposts with the Blood of the Lamb that the destroyer will pass over your homes and families. Remain where the Lord has said for you to be.

Exodus 12:12-14 (Amplified Bible)
[12] For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment [proving their helplessness]. I am the Lord.
[13] The blood shall be for a token or sign to you upon [the doorposts of] the houses where you are, [that] when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt.
[14] And this day shall be to you for a memorial. You shall keep it as a feast to the Lord throughout your generations, keep it as an ordinance forever.

Hebrews 11:27-29
[27] [Motivated] by faith he left Egypt behind him, being unawed and undismayed by the wrath of the king; for he never flinched but held staunchly to his purpose and endured steadfastly as one who gazed on Him Who is invisible.
[28] By faith (simple trust and confidence in God) he instituted and carried out the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood [on the doorposts], so that the destroyer of the firstborn (the angel) might not touch those [of the children of Israel].
[29] [Urged on] by faith the people crossed the Red Sea as [though] on dry land, but when the Egyptians tried to do the same thing they were swallowed up [by the sea].

Fishing In The Mist Of The Storm!

Bobby Conner

Snuggled deep beneath a warm comforter, I am sound asleep in my bed in Moravian Falls, North Carolina. The covers are pulled tight around my shoulders because of a sudden cold snap as the first prophetic event begins to unfold.

I was awakened by the sensation that the covers were being pulled away from my shoulders. Half asleep, my first impression was that my wife was trying to rearrange the covers. However, she lay quietly sleeping by my side. Quickly I turned to the other side of the bed, and it was at this point that the Lord spoke to me in a very firm yet gentle voice, Get up! It is time to go fishing!

STANDING IN THE STORM

The time was exactly 2:22 A.M. In this prophetic experience I was transported by the Spirit of the Lord from the comforts of my bed to an enormously large body of water.

Standing at the edge of this massive sea, the sky was awfully dark. The clouds were violently turbulent and the winds were swirling and blowing incredibly strong. Lightning flashed across the darkened sky and illuminated the storm-tossed sea. This was clearly not a tranquil, peaceful, serene setting but rather unsettled, troubled waters.

The waters were extremely stirred, with waves mounting high with white caps and foam. The raging wind caused the rain to sting against my face. As the lightning flashed and the thunder was crashing, the sound rolling across the waves seemed to be amplified. I shivered as the wind drove the rain deep into my clothes. It was one of the most tempestuous times I ve ever experienced, but I could feel that this storm was more than just a natural storm. I could not explain it, but I could sense that this was a very unnatural disturbance I was beholding.

MEAT FOR THE MASTER

Standing at my side, the Lord said, I am hungry! You are to catch supper. Intensely, He was steadfastly gazing over the troubled waters. I knew He was expecting me to catch some fish, but I was thinking how hard it would be to fish in such a violent storm. It was difficult for me to even stand in the strong gusts of wind. Although I did not voice my thoughts out loud, He reassuringly said to me, This is the best time for fishing. Fish are more easily caught at this time.

A PLACE OF PERFECT PEACE

Then I looked more closely at Him and noticed that His hair was not being blown about by the wind. Neither were his clothes wet and flopping wildly in the wind, as mine were. Christ, knowing that I was now observing Him, said, Come closer to ME.

As I moved ever closer to Him, the winds became calmer. When I came near to His side, there was a place of perfect peace and protection from the storm. He smiled, saying in a most comforting tone, Yes! I am still the PRINCE OF PEACE.

Even though the situation with the wind and weather had not changed, there was a quiet, calm confidence in the Lord s presence. I wondered why I didn t come closer sooner. Looking deep into my eyes, I knew that He was expecting more from me than just standing by. I could sense that He expected me to get busy obeying His command.

THE HEART OF THE LORD

I was extremely ill-prepared to fish, so I said to Him, I don t have anything to fish with...I don t have any bait.

He said, You still don t understand. I AM the bait. He then slowly placed His right hand over His heart. Holding it there a moment, He extended His hand out from His bosom. I was not prepared for what I saw. There in His hand was a part of HIS HEART, and it was the deepest crimson red, almost purple. He placed it in my hand.

I was overwhelmed with the immense worth and value of just a tiny piece of HIS HEART. I could feel its eternal worth and value, and I knew at that moment that what I had in my hand was most precious. The statement of 1 Peter 1:18-19 filled my heart:

Forasmuch as you know that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain lifestyle but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.

Truly God gave His very best to ransom and redeem fallen mankind. Christ Jesus is the ETERNAL LAMB without blemish or spot. He is the sinless perfect sacrifice. Words cannot express the worth of one single drop of the precious blood of the Lamb.

I could not think of casting this portion of His heart into the dark, troubled waters that were raging and roaring at my feet. Yet He instructed me, saying, Cast this upon the water.

Now I was openly weeping, saying, No, Lord, no! This is far too precious to cast away.

He said, What you feel is right. Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy! He filled my heart with the promise of Psalm 126:4-5: Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

I looked at the part of the Lord s heart in my hand, and it now appeared to be a very bright orange, almost illuminated or glowing. He said, Cast it out upon the water.

This portion of the Lord s heart was attached to His heart through my hand by a very thin, yet bright, scarlet line. I knew that I was to throw this as far as I could, with all my might.

THE HUGE SILVER FISH

I released it into the air. Because of its bright orange glow, I could see it clearly as it flew through the gusting wind. At the instant it came in contact with the water, an extraordinarily large shiny silver fish leaped out of the water, taking the object in its mouth. This was a magnificent, brilliant, beautiful fish, and the lightning flashed against its shiny silver body. There was no fight or pulling against the line in my hand, but this enormous fish quickly swam to the shore at our feet.

This huge fish was extremely beautiful solid silver. However, as I looked closely at the fish it appeared almost transparent. You could see into the fish, and it was filled with untold numbers of smaller precious fish.

I gazed into the face of Christ Jesus, and His face was radiating the most satisfying, pleasant, joyous smile. He spoke with great compassion saying, For this cause I came into the world: the seeking and saving of lost mankind. This is the reason I've established my church on the earth to reach mankind with MY HEART.

THE MULTIPLYING FISH

He questioned me, asking, Do you know how big this fish is?

I somehow knew this was a 55-pound fish. I said, Yes, it weights 55 pounds.

Yes, He replied, but it is 55 X 55. At these words, the fish would multiply in size each time it was touched.

THE MASTER S MEAT

He said, Pick up the fish and place it into MY HANDS. When I placed the fish into His hands, Christ placed the fish into His heart, saying, This is the meat I have to eat of.

I was thrilled and sad at the same moment thrilled because of the immense pleasure the Lord was having, yet sad at the thought that I didn't have any more of the special bait. Knowing my every thought, He said, You will always have MY HEART from MY HAND if you will come to Me. The more you give away, the more you receive.

Words could not describe the contentment I felt as I stood on these shores with Christ. I could see, without a doubt, that bringing people to Christ is the highest calling one could ever undertake. Nothing we do will bring more pleasure to Christ than presenting to HIM the souls for which He died. These are the most brilliant crowns that we will one day lay at His feet.

Now is harvest time! Only as we follow Christ can He make us to become true "fishers of men"! This is the greatest task one could ever give himself to.

Five Cleansings Are Coming To Levi

Johnny Enlow

Oct 7, 2005

Malachi 3: 1-3 "Behold, I send My messenger, And he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, Will suddenly come to His temple, Even the messenger of the covenant, IN WHOM YOU DELIGHT. Behold He is coming," says the Lord of Hosts. "But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire AND LIKE LAUNDERERS' SOAP. He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver; HE WILL PURIFY THE SONS OF LEVI, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness."

I believe we are about to enter into a most dramatic fulfillment of this scripture. Malachi is the last book of the Old Testament and the last chapter is often read as a tremendous prophetic declaration of things that we can expect in the "last days." In the last chapter, there is the promise of the "Sun of righteousness arising with healing in His wings." This is in reference to Elijah the prophet coming and turning "the hearts of the fathers to the children" and vice versa. However, I believe most have missed the overall theme of the entire book of Malachi. The first 2 chapters are almost never preached about. These two chapters are entirely a rebuke to corrupt priests and their polluted sacrifices. Malachi 3:8 speaks of robbing the Lord in tithes and offerings. This scripture has even become a "favorite" for pastors to preach to their congregations related to giving money. Yet, this scripture is generally preached completely out of the context of what is being addressed.

As you can see, from the passage I have quoted, the Lord is still addressing priests and THEIR corruption and evil. The actual corruption is that the priests are not saving up the mandated storehouse tithe out of the tithe that they are receiving from the people. The first two chapters already established that the priests were to receive tithes from the people or they wouldn't even have the means to give "polluted offerings." The storehouse tithe was a big deal because it was the benevolent fund for the widows and orphans.

I say all these things just to establish the fact that the great prophetic book of Malachi is, first and foremost, a book that speaks of the coming correction and cleansing of the priests. Once this happens, we will enter the awesome Malachi 3:18 stage where we, "shall again discern between the righteous and the wicked." After that happens, the promises declared in Malachi 4 can begin.

What The Hurricanes Have Prophesied

In previous posts, I have spoken about the hurricanes of the last couple of years. Last year's hurricanes were "John the Baptist" storms giving warnings to "prepare the way of the Lord." Even two of the storm's names were Ivan and Jeanne which are "John" in other languages (Russian and French). I also shared about the meaning of Mars' unprecedented closeness to the earth and that it signified the Lord coming near us while representing His specific designation of "Lord of Hosts." Similarly, Katrina and Rita tell us also that the Lord of Hosts is upon us and full scale changes will now be forthcoming.

Zechariah 9:14 speaks of when the Lord comes to save His people, "The Lord God will blow the trumpet, and go with the whirlwinds (hurricanes) of the south." We are just a few days past Rosh Hashanah—the Jewish New Year, and it is also called The Feast of Trumpets. The Lord has blown His trumpet and is declaring that He has come and is coming in the hurricanes of the South. Just to make sure we understand that, even the hurricanes' names have prophesied. Katrina means "cleansing" and Rita means "pearl." Our Malachi 3 passage tells us that He will come as "launderers' soap" and, of course, Jesus is our "Pearl of great price" for whom we are to give up all.

Judgment Begins In The House Of The Lord

Though many may be ready for the Lord's judgments on sinners to begin, 1 Peter 4:17 plainly states that judgment will begin in the house of the Lord. Our Malachi 3 passage further specifies that this judgment will begin upon the "sons of Levi." The Levites were the priestly tribe and, in symbolism, this title refers to pastors and shepherding ministers. The reason God will judge His Levites first is because Levites are the "walls" of our cities and nations. What shows up in the city and nation is because the Levites have "bound" or "loosed" it—through their conduct and behavior. A city of unrighteous Levites will reap and manifest great unrighteousness for the city. When the Levites cease to be the cause of the unrighteousness, then the Lord will separately judge the unrighteousness. He will actually perform whatever the righteous Levites of that city will request, as they will carry the authority to "loose" judgment or mercy.

So, we are "suddenly" upon a unique season of the Levites being dealt with so that an ensuing "unprecedented" move of God may be released. A Great Awakening has already begun, but a great mark of it will be the exposure of corrupt "Levites."

Cleansing Number One: The Defilers

I believe that the first cleansing that is released upon the "sons of Levi" is one that will surface wolves that have been disguising as shepherds. Right now, in our country, there is a large network of absolutely corrupt and defiled ministers of the gospel. They operate almost as a "Christian" mafia and they are ravaging the Body of Christ from the inside out. They are "broken levees" that are permitting every imaginable source of filth, slime, and pollution into the house of the Lord. These "pastors" are decadent in every form of the word. They are involved in pedophilia, homosexuality, incest, serial adultery, drugs, witchcraft, and some even in bestiality. Many of these "ministers" know about each other and cover for each other. They abuse teachings on submission to "spiritual authority" to hush opponents and thus hide and further their cause. They self-delude themselves into believing that because they are doing so many "good things" that this other behavior is permissible for them. Mafia boss, John Gotti, was known for many "good deeds" and acts of generosity, however, in the eyes of the law he was still a murderer and a criminal. Many of these "ministers" that I speak of are in the same category. They all will boast and demonstrate many good works; yet, they are corrupters who have opened doors in the city and nation to every fowl demon. Exposure and judgment is about to come to this group.

What is going to shock many is how widespread this behavior is. There is a "black root" of ministers whose private lives would, at times, shame the French Quarters of New Orleans. If you have wondered why the French Quarters of New Orleans was spared, it is because God must deal first with the "French Quarters" within His church. Get prepared to be shocked at who all is involved with this level of defilement. The Lord is pulling off the clothes of these "ministries" and they include very well known TV and national ministries. The cleansing will begin and, as it does, a horrific "stink" will fill the air from coast to coast and even into the nations. Be prepared because it will be worse than most think and you will be tempted to lose trust in everyone. However, be encouraged to know this is actually a coming of "the Lord whom you seek" (Mal. 3:1) and that it will be for a long-term good.

Cleansing Number Two: The Adulterers

Some may be surprised that this is a separate and secondary work of cleansing and refining. However, this group is very different from the first mentioned group – although, apart from God's intervention, they could end up in the first category.

The first group I mentioned has been confronted repetitively and have passed up multiple opportunities to repent. Unfortunately, most of them are rotten from the inside out and will die in their sin. This second group, however, will be redeemed as they come forward, confess their sins, and get clean. I believe there are many, many more in this group than the first and the exposure of the "defilers" will bring a redemptive fear of the Lord on this group.

There are many "good" pastors and ministers who have developed a wrong bond with someone in ministry and then have fallen into sin. For many, it is a secretary or some co-worker in ministry that they often interact with and, in a moment of weakness, a serious line was crossed. Now is the appropriate time for them to repent in private before the "plumb line" falls and they are exposed before many. Those involved will cease to get away with their sin as His "launderers' soap" continues to work its way through the "sons of Levi." Launderers' soap is NOT like Ivory Soap but, it is lye that burns skin yet cleans clothes. It is a lye that exposes "lies." Many ministers will be restored by the Lord after this cleansing and will serve again as true shepherds in God's house. However, I believe most from this category will lose their moral authority to lead in God's house as their personal testimony will be just too damaged to do so. I believe those who do repent before the Lord will find that the Lord will open up new spheres of ministry that do not entail being a shepherd in God's house. He really is going to 'stock' His house with true shepherds; not perfect shepherds, but shepherds who reflect the Biblical requirements for a shepherd.

Cleansing Number Three: The Hirelings

There will be no room for giddy finger pointing as this cleansing work goes deeper and deeper. The message will get more clear that sexual impurities are a big deal with the Lord. By the time the cleansing gets into its third stage, even the ministers 'casually' involved in pornography will know that they can not do that anymore. As the Lord's lye continues to expose "lies," it will now surface the "hireling."

The "hireling" is one who is primarily motivated by money. He may have started out in sincerity, but things have so changed that he makes no decision without that consideration. His entire ministry routine is guided by "minimum fees," guaranteed offerings, and book sales. His conversation with other ministers always quickly gravitates to the money considerations and even financial comparisons. He even believes that any new place of financial "bonanza" signifies some awesome anointing on His life. Of course, there are rich "hirelings" and poor "hirelings." There are poor ministers who are still making all their decisions based on the money factor. They would leave to follow a better salary at the drop of a hat if it became available. There is no real sense of call to a people or a region, but they serve anywhere if the price is right.

Biblically, the difference between a prophet and a false prophet was that a false prophet did what he did for a reward. It was called "the sin of Balaam" and it signified that one had defaulted from a true ministry position. It was not whether there was a legitimate gift or not, but whether a love for money had now become the guiding force. Unfortunately, I must say that this sin is very widespread in what is called the "Charismatic" or Spirit-filled community and the Lord will be exposing it. Again, this is a good time to repent of this sin before forced exposure brings it to the light. It is not a small thing and will cause many to default in their ministerial destiny. As a secondary caution and warning, I believe that the affection for "things" and money in preachers often precedes adultery. First, one feels entitled to "things" and then one feels entitled to people. God is pulling the "clothes" off this sin and, as a result, even more people will lose faith in Christian leaders. But, fear not as this is still "the Lord we seek" coming to His temple so that the Levites might offer "an offering in righteousness."

Cleansing Number Four: The Self-Promoters

The "launderer's soap" will continue to scrub through the "sons of Levi" and pride and self-promotion will be the target. Pride, of course, is the most subtle of all sins as it reinvents itself as we 'mature' and progress in the Lord. If pride can't induce us to shamelessly self-promote ourselves, then it can infect us with the pharisaical "at least I'm not like them" version of pride. It is generally best to just assume we have pride and to be in a place of constantly asking the Lord "where is it?"

Self-promotion is something that is not always obvious to the human eye. It is also easy to misjudge someone as self-promoting. Self-promotion is about getting ahead of God. It is about leaning on the arm of the flesh in an area that God has told us to wait on Him. It is stepping into a "political" spirit where we intentionally seek to make connections that will potentially promote us into another sphere of influence. Two ministers can actually do exactly the same thing and, for one, it is self-promotion and, for the other, it is simply responding to the Lord. If we write a book in response to the Lord, it is obedience. If we write a book to "get our name out there," it is self-promotion. In the same way, you can be on TV or the radio through self-promoting efforts or through obedience to the Lord. However, one will produce an Ishmael and one will produce an Isaac. Whatever you get through self-promotion will eventually war against your destiny and even your walk with the Lord.

The great danger of self-promoting is that it projects you to a sphere of influence without a developed character base. Every new level of influence makes one susceptible to a new assault of more "sophisticated" demonic spirits. "New levels equals new devils." Many of those in the "defilers" category arrived to their place of apparent success through the path of self-promotion. Allowing the Lord to promote us in His time is one of the basic character tests for those with significant callings. The failure to wait for that promotion is a primary disqualifier for an increased realm of spiritual authority.

Cleansing Number Five: Quenchers Of The Holy Spirit

Many "sons of Levi" will survive the first stages of refining, yet will find themselves disqualified at this fifth level of cleansing. It will not be enough for a pastor to be free from the above sins if he is guilty of quenching the Holy Spirit. This will still be considered a very serious offense in the sight of the Lord and one at which He will no longer wink. "Quenching the Spirit" can possibly be an overused phrase or concept. However, to a minister, it simply means making less room for the Holy Spirit than what the Holy Spirit has requested. It is refusing to prioritize the fruit AND the gifts of the Holy Spirit. A church that does not prioritize the presence, the power, and the person of the Holy Spirit will not properly reflect anything that the Lord will want to bless.

An entire book could be written on this theme, but the basic sin that the Lord will be judging is the sin of CONTROL. The Type A personality is a very dominant characteristic of pastors. It requires intentional steps of "dialing down" for this personality type to coexist with the organic creative person of the Holy Spirit. This personality type can preach "not by might, not by power, but by my Spirit" but has difficulty actually living it. There is too much "might and power" in this personality type.

The Lord truly will build HIS church and the Holy Spirit is the Trinity's agent of Church transformation. He is going to increase and increase as the Father pours Him out upon all flesh. The church leader that does not make room for Him will find himself being His enemy. The "launderer's soap" will not stop washing and purging until it has an infrastructure of shepherds to whom the Lord can entrust a great harvest. He will not have Defilers, Adulterers, Hirelings, or Self-Promoters—neither will He have those who restrict the Promise of the Father. He will pour out His Holy Spirit in the last days and His church will openly receive Him and allow Him to reproduce Christ in us. THEN the sons of Levi will present an offering in righteousness (Mal. 3:3).

Conclusion

I believe that over 90% of the Senior Pastors here in the United States will not survive the coming work of refining and purging that is coming to the "sons of Levi." I'm not even sure what I mean when I say, "will not survive," but that is what I hear in my spirit. This is not a minor "attitude adjustment" that is coming to the leadership, but it is an entire overhaul of the "sons of Levi." At some point, it WILL look like Katrina has gone through the Church—and the stink will be great. I have not even addressed the refining coming to the Church itself. As the Church begins to see what God is no longer condoning in the pulpit (He never did condone it—but now judgment will be seen), there will be a release of the fear of the Lord that will greatly benefit the Body of Christ. He really cannot send GREAT harvest until this process takes place. The harvest would be contaminated and become spiritual children of the existing decadence. The timing for this is NOW. We will first see His axe/acts of righteousness come down on "the defilers." When you see it, stay sober, for this is just the beginning. The Lord, WHOM WE SEEK, is coming to His House.

Further Judgments Coming
Gaylene Wolmack

September 17, 2005
Spoken in Cassville, MO
The area of southwest Missouri is soon to be judged. For you are called the Bible Belt, yet where is My Spirit? You still party and play; run here and there; do this and that. . . where is your time for Me? There is none. Well, soon there surely shall be. Judgments are coming your way. Prepare now, for this is the day of preparations.

More judgments shall come forth (judgments after Katrina and Rita) . . . from the North going down towards the South . . . from the East going towards the West . . . from the West going towards the East (not necessarily in that order).

The trucking industry is going to be effected, therefore fill up your pantries and water barrels. Get your life surrendered to the Lord. Seek Him with all diligence! Walk out of the dictates of the flesh and walk in the obedience of the Spirit!

Ye Bite And Devour One Another
Gaylene Wolmack

Many that call themselves Christians bite and devour one another (Gal. 5:15). You say, "what does that mean?" By your words that you speak to and behind one's back releases oppression and consequently destruction to another's life. Words are either used for good or for evil.

There is power released when you speak. There is life and death in the power of the tongue (Prov. 18:21). Blessing and cursing should not come from the same mouth (James 3:10). Are you speaking life/blessing into someone's situation/life, or death/cursing? Are you innocent or guilty? Judge for yourselves Discipline yourself to listen to your own conversations and thoughts. You might be amazed at the death that is being formulated through you. The adversary loves to seed strife amongst the brethren for the purpose of giving place to him that he might kill, steal and destroy. Unforgiveness gives place to the devils (I Cor. 1:10,11). My thought is that unforgiveness is one of the means in which strife comes from. Unforgiveness gives birth to bitterness, of which defiles many (Matt. 15:11). Heed the following scriptural warnings:

Heb. 12:14,15 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord; looking diligently lest any man fall of the grace of God*; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled.*

Matt. 12:36 But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment*. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.*

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, BUT that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers (Eph. 4:29). This is the time that those of us coming out of the preparation chambers will no longer be hearers of such conversations! We will no longer be a participant in such defilement by listening to the corrupt communications. This does not mean the false brethren won't be ex-posed and the brethren that have gone astray made accountable. Such as John exposing the truth about Diotrephes (III John 9), Paul exposing Alexander (II Tim. 4:14). This is obviously not considered idle or corrupt conversations. So, I suggest you allow the work of sanctification to be done by the Holy Spirit so the prophets of the Lord do not have to point out your sins (Jere. 23:22).

Let me quote scripture again. . . there is life and death in the power of the tongue (Prov. 18:21)! So many think they know about everyone's life and make judgment statements to them or to others pertaining to them; they need to do this or they need to do that; or they shouldn't do this or that, when in fact, you probably know nothing about what the Lord is doing in the other person's life. In fact, your judgments are at times the very thing that you do. Do you realize the severity of judging one's situation and you're wrong? Let's go to Job and find out the consequences of your words and solutions for someone's life when it isn't from the Lord.

Job 42:7 And it was so that after the Lord had spoken these words unto Job, the Lord said to Eliphaz, the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends; for ye have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has.

If you'll read their counsel to Job, you'll find it sounds like good counsel, BUT it wasn't the correct judgment/counsel pertaining to Job's situation! Would you like God's wrath kindled against you for a few moments of folly in your criticizing or judging someone?

Gossip is rampant within the Christian world! Brethren, this ought not to be so. Love is to be our motivating factor of whatever we say about most brethren. I say most because there is a time to openly expose/ make accountable some brethren, as stated above. Paul did multiple times but with the attitude of wanting them to come to repentance or be removed from fellowship with the brethren.

You wonder why your life is so meaningless and you may have continual afflictions . . . check out your own conversation and attitude of heart. Envy and strife give place to confusion and every evil work (James 3:16)!

For the innocent, the following is the weapon of warfare that I use daily:

Isaiah 54:17
No weapon (something prepared; any apparatus; artillery; whatsoever) that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment (verdict) thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord and their righteousness is of Me, saith the Lord.

Florida Holds The Keys

Kelly Brooks

As I have been watching the events unfold in our great nation and praying for Terri Schiavo, the Lord has been speaking to me about the crucial hour in which we live in this nation. I heard the Lord say, "Florida holds the keys" (Key Largo, Key West, Florida Keys.) What happens here is what happens in the West and this entire Western nation. This is not about one human life but the life of the entire nation or the death of it is hanging in the balance. We have to pray that the scales of justice be tipped on the side of life. We are at the 11th hour in this nation. As Terri's parents file with the 11th circuit again, pray that justice be done. The clock is about to strike 12 and God often answers just before the midnight hour. We must pray that God make a way where there seems to be no way.

I also heard the Lord say, "There is a burning Bush in Florida, what happens here will spread like wildfire to the rest of this nation," please continue to pray for Gov. Bush that he will make the right decision in spite of what public opinion says. He is at a crossroads, no matter what decision he makes his life will be forever changed. Pray that he have wisdom and use every legal means of power that he can, and that he fear God and not man. The judges are making their decisions but God is the ultimate judge. James 2:13 says, because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment. There is no in between. We either love life and hate death, or we love death and hate life. This nation must choose life over death. Proverbs 18:21 says, "The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit."

On February 18, 2003 Brother Kenneth Hagin prophesied that 2005 would be the year of judgment. The issue of life is at stake, and this nation will be judged for the choice it makes. Pray for the judges to choose mercy over judgment and life over death. The Lord also reminded me of our past presidential election in which he spoke to Kenneth Copeland and said, "We as Christians will be responsible for how we vote. If we vote for the wrong person, and that person gets into office then we will be judged for it, and if we choose not to vote we will also be judged for it." I believe once again we have a choice to make. We may not be able to physically go to Florida, but we have a responsibility to pray for righteousness to prevail once again.

Flying Swarm

Vicki Camp

9-11-05 Early today, Sunday, a vision came to me suddenly ... Swarming out in front of me was a huge flat plane of flying insects; flying in front of me and away from me -- outward and forwards. I knew they were hornets and/or wasps ! I looked at these, this great dark swarm flying out ahead, in wonder - pondering with Lord for some few minutes as this vision lingered,,, oh so real seeming. "What are these, Lord ?"
Then came to me scriptures I had recently been reading in Ex. 23, and which I later today have looked up and re-read.

From v. 20 and on in this chapter, God is instructing Israel to take the land of Canaan, giving commandments and promises, and in some how-to's ....God assures them of these three,.

* The LORD will send HIS' angel ,, before them to make their way ahead of them. (I personally believe this angel is our Lord Jesus Christ, for this one bears GOD's Name.)

* The LORD will send HIS' fear before them, sent ahead amongst the inhabitants,, * and The LORD will send hornets before them -- to pre-fight in Israels' 'taking of this promised land' !

v. 28: "And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you........"

What struck me as I read the whole text,, is that GOD says HE will 'go before' them and that the battle is HIS (such as at Jericho), but at other times Israel must fight to drive-out these integral people groups and tribes in order to gain their land / inheritance -- which is given them of and from The LORD GOD ....
Either way or both = the God' miraculous, or our fighting battles; Both together, HAND in hand - We can see and know that our God goes before them (us), ahead of them (us), to pre-fight and prepare their / our way !

"Now all these things happened to them (Israel, O.T.) as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come." - I Cor 10:11

There is a day and time when our enemies will fear our very approach for The Lord will send hornets of fear ahead of us - that is, the very 'fear of The Lord' will pre-step before us, saints. We can and will see this occur as we go forward speaking in strong prophetic God' Voice,

"Flee, flee now, all agents of satan for we come, WE COME In Christ, imprinted with HIS' Name, to win the many, many persons for HIS' Kingdom !", and these will be fleeing.

Even as young David spoke prophetically to that giant Philistine Goliath, before striking and killing him with a single small stone,
(in part) "........ for the battle is the Lord's, and He will give you into our hands." - I Sam. 17:47, and note too: 'all the assembly' is to see The Lords' / David's victory.

As always with prophetic visions brought back up to remembrance, though this one is very fresh; I can re-see those hornets still, a dark ominous swarm flying ahead of God's troops (us) .... pre-flying ahead, pre-going, pre-paring the way of victory.

It's very Truth - God can and does use anything HE so want and chooses to use,,, even insects and human beings.

Faith Multiplied Into Joy And Power
Sandy Warner

Jan 12, 2005
Precious ones, heaven smiles upon you as you put feet to your faith and literally walk out what you believe. A little bit of faith goes a long way. As you apply faith to your walk and also go through death to self will, I always multiply your mustard seeds. I have adorned your walk with diamond studded jewels. You also have golden memorial stones planted in your garden from places where you have been.

Do not look backwards at your sorrows of loss dear ones. Do not personalize areas where you have walked into death to self and granted Me Lordship over your life. You are NOT bad. As you have yielded all to Me, I see only exemplary behavior from your lessons sometimes so difficult to learn. My priceless ones, from My loving hand, I see only advancement for you, along with future joy. In that day as you remember those special walks of faith you will notice that I have wired these memorial stones with My power. These, your stones shine all the way up to heaven and will become your delight as your walk of faith is transformed into your walk of power.

There is one essential thing that you need in walking through the threshold of this great field ready to be taken…. Make sure that your feet are shoed with peace. You must learn the secret of truly resting upon Me, letting My Word carry you, where you place all your weight into My strong arms of love. As you feel the warmth of My embrace, I shall flood your body, soul and spirit with peace and you shall come into the rest I have prepared for you since the beginning. This walk shall put all enemy under foot. Then allow Me to carry you into the Voice of many waters, where My Presence goes to the nations. As you jump into My arms, My Presence shall bubble forth inside and all around you.

Eph 6:15 NKJV
…and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

Rom 16:20 NKJV
And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly.

Isa 52:7 NKJV
How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings glad tidings of good things, who proclaims salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

To Forgive
Sandy Warner

Jan 16, 2005

TO FORGIVE

Papa You told me to always forgive, seven times seven that I might live.
For if I don't forgive others, this I see -
How can You also totally forgive Me?

It is in extending mercy that I receive back
My seeds sown from going around the track.
These endless circles have got to stop.
I know not how, until I reach the top.

On this tall mountain, this stumbling block.
My life keeps ticking going around the clock.
Faith moves mountains and sends them to sea.
Why oh why can't I heal me?

I have taken on too much to see the whole
What I need today is Your touch to my soul.
Help me to release the anger I feel
And come into alignment with Your truth that is real.

My forgiveness releases the soul that is hardened.
It allows You to work because I have pardoned.
Let not this person be tormented with hell
Rather please release and please make well.

For all of us are in need of repair
We each have faced our own despair.
I can not hold back what You freely give.
I release my judgment so that we both may live.

Matt 6:14-15 NKJV
"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

To Stretch Or Grow Past Your Boundaries
Sandy Warner

Jan 10, 2005

To Stretch Or Grow Past Your Boundaries?
Listen to wisdom before you extend a course past your comfort zone. Whether you stretch yourself or another stretches you past your boundaries, when the tension is removed, you will snap right back into your comfort zone. As you arrive back at your starting place and wonder at what pulled you out, you will not be sure about anything. This is the reaching out in works without established faith.

Like zeal without knowledge, many take a risk, then wonder: "Will this explosion burst forth in power to final breakthrough, or will it turn into anger as I am cut back?" And that is the demonic ploy to captivate those who stretch past their boundaries without being proved.

Beloved ones, the road to faith is built one step at a time, and that road is built by My loving hand of confirmations. If you wait for My confirming Word, then what I build in your life shall be true growing and not stretching. With growth you will accomplish your breakthrough, and you shall be able to maintain it.

Rom 10:2 AMP
I bear them witness that they have a [certain] zeal and enthusiasm for God, but it is not enlightened and according to [correct and vital] knowledge.

To Wash The Shame Off Begging Parents
Sandy Warner

Jan 14, 2005
After years of shame in begging for heart's desires and earnest needs, the skeletons in the closets are being cleared out. The parental rods of authority could hold not another ounce of weight, for they have bent and bowed low under the pressure of unyielding children. As the parents bow low in humble places, I have promised them a lighter load. I will lift them up and graft them in with their children for a new day of resurrection power. The possibilities will be endless as they plug into My resurrection life. Why seek ye the living among the dead? They are not here, but they are risen into newness of life!

Luke 12:2-3 NKJV
For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Five Movements In The Earth Today

Robert I Holmes

Recently I was asked to bring a message to a leadership conference in Australia. There were men and women from every state in Australia. The weight of this word was heavy upon me, but as I shared it I realised it was for a broader audience too.

As I pondered what God was doing in the earth, I thought back to a recent encounter with God. In November 2005, during a time of great sickness and being bed-ridden, I was caught up to heaven. Many things were said during that time, but I saw five movements in the "earth opera" which bear telling at this time:

1. There is a movement from fishing to hunting.

Jeremiah 16:14-16, "I am now sending for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall catch them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks." The day of the fisherman is passing, the day of the hunter is here.

Paul demonstrated a hunter approach · To the Jews in the Synagogue (Acts 9:30); · To the Greeks in the Areopagus (Acts 17:22); · To the Romans in Ephesus (Acts 26:1).

Hunting means you must come into the environment of those you pursue. You can not sit on the banks of the river and cast the net in. You must enter the world the catch live in. God is moving on marketplace ministry. I have seen this in Zambia, Malawi, the USA and Australia.

2. There is a movement from majestic ships to small boats

Isaiah 33:20-23, "There [in Zion] the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor majestic ship can pass by". In the last days God is not going to allow two kinds of church:

· Majestic ships, full of weaponry and soldiers for their cause - money in the boat and for the captain. · Galley's with oars, full of slaves under the decks serving to the beat of the drum.

The day of marching to the beat of one pastors drum is over. The day when we yield our passions to one local body, and do what the pastor says is over. Leaders across the body must adapt to the fact that it is our job to raise others up. We are here to release, to discover what is in the heart of the people.

The day of the famous vessel, bringing gold and wealth into the house of one man or ministry is quickly passing. The early church brought wealth to the feet of the apostles, yes that's true. But it was distributed to each as they had need. When was the last time you saw a famous TV ministry distribute it's wealth to the needy? If they believed so strongly in their own prosperity message, or reaping and sowing, don't you think they themselves would be doing more sowing?

3. There is a movement from religion to righteousness

Jeremiah 22:1-5, "Go down to the house of the King of Judah. to he who sits on the throne of David. act with justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor anyone who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the alien, the orphan, and the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place."

God wants us to take real care for those who have need.

· If we obey this command, kings that serve David will come. · If we do not, kings of a foreign nation will come and ransack the place. · Is it going to be the world in the church, or the church in the world.

4. God's judgments are in the earth

1 Chronicles 16:12-14, "Seek the Lord and His strength, seek His face continually. Remember His wonderful deeds that He has done, His marvels and the judgments of His mouth. He is the Lord our God; His judgments are in all the earth".

The church, and more broadly the Body of Christ, has entered a strong season of weighing, testing and judging. The Lord is watching our conduct - especially toward leaders.

In the context of the fact the leaders are falling all over the place. John Paul II is dead. Paul Cain, Darrell Evans, Roberts Liardon, Ed Traut and many others have fallen. God is in the earth and how are we going to take the "audit" coming up.

5. God is underscoring fathers and sons

Malachi 4:5,6 "I will send you the prophet Elijah before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. He will turn the hearts of parents to their children and the hearts of children to their parents, so that I will not come and strike the land with a curse."

If you look at every reference to the "day of the Lord", or the last day of judgment a few things happen just before it. The restoration of all things, starting with this one thing - fathers and sons.

Everywhere I travel, this theme is being preached and stressed. I have written at length on this in my book, "The Spirit of Elijah" so I will not repeat it again here. But clearly God wants the body to relate as a family, not as a structured business.

False Manifestations or Abused (revised)

Bill Somers

October 14, 2007

I want to modify my stand on this issue as expressed in last weeks article as reprinted below.

My stand was based on reaction to various writers asserting that The Toronto Blessing and Brownsville Revival were false and demonic. And that many of the same writers are claiming that the current crop of phenomena are also false and demonic in origin. These include Angel Orbs, gold dust, jewels, oil, feathers and other such items. While these accusers claimed that all such were false, I was determined to claim that they are all true and some are just being misused. Now I am prepared to acknowledge that some are false as well. So I stand corrected.

Nevertheless, many of these are being misused and the central problem remains the mixture present among God's people and the intentions of those receiving them. So I'm saying that yes, there are some false, but also that many are true.

I recommend studying the following teaching from the late Derek Prince.

False Manifestations or Abused

October 7, 2007
A lot of this chatter about false prophets and manifestations is really missing an important point.

If people have problems with the "prophetic movement" or various manifestations, does it mean that we are plagued with false Prophets and demonic signs? I don't think so. Am I saying these are True Prophets? Not exactly. We have people with genuine gifts, but perhaps the true Prophets and Apostles are yet to be revealed.

The source of all this, the jewels, the gifts, the anointings, the gold dust, and the Toronto - Pensacola business is from the Lord. It's just that there is 'mixture' in those who are receiving them. These are spiritual gifts, and these gifts get abused.

Merchandising your ministry is abusing a spiritual gift. Using the Holy Laughter refreshing to fleece the sheep is abusing a spiritual gift. Selling words of personal prophecy is abusing a spiritual gift. Prophesying after the flesh, putting your own opinions or pet peeves into a prophecy, is abusing a spiritual gift. If the Prophets are calling for repentance, but the Pastors are taking up an offering, what then?

Gifts vs. Fruit

Spiritual Gifts do not produce the Fruit of the Spirit. But many think that as long as their gifts are working, that they are right with God! King Solomon had great gifts. If we look at his final end where he turned and worshipped other gods, does that mean he was a false prophet and do we need to remove the books he authored from the bible?

So what does produce Fruit of the Spirit? Seeking the Kingdom first, and walking in the Spirit.

I think that these people will get their chance to repent, but some will go from being like Baalam the Prophet to becoming like Baalam the soothsayer.

The Real Test?

Here’s something I found while looking over some of the discussions going around, about false manifestations. This writer claims the following.

> The real 'test' of whether or not something is legitimately from the Lord is based on whether or not we are somehow changed as a result. Those who hung around with Jesus generally didn't leave him in the same condition they came to him in. Either they left with some level of inner growth or healing, or with a hardened heart wanting to get even further away from him than before.

Now here is a great example of using man’s wisdom to support your statements. I note that there is no scripture given here to prove their point. In fact what they are saying here is entirely false. But it sounds good!

In my view there are only three things you can use to support an argument in spiritual matters. The Bible, the dictionary and the rules of logic. And all these can be abused. You must still have the witness of the Spirit.

But when you have hearsay, opinions, or citing non-biblical authority, watch out. Phrases like everybody knows, or the bible clearly teaches, lead me to say O Really? Or when some want to quote from ‘the rabbis’ or Jewish tradition, it’s not authoritative, and rarely even documented.
The same goes for Matthew Henry, Watchman Nee or whoever. Here in this case someone makes a statement and just expects you to agree because it sounds reasonable.

Back to the question at hand. Who says that this is the ‘real test’? Where is the proof?

This same writer goes on to say this:

> So many of our modern manifestations have little or no lasting effect on the people involved. If you are 'slain in the spirit' on the carpet, get covered in 'gold dust', or bark like a dog or cluck like a chicken, yet afterwards you get up and are just the same person as you were before, then I have to question the authenticity of your so-called 'manifestation'. Just because it's 'real' doesn't mean it's true. God may not give me a stone when I ask for bread, but the devil will certainly try to hand me one and pass it off as bread from the Lord, If I am foolish and inattentive enough to believe that I can't be deceived like others have been.

Now if you note the final sentence here, this person is assuming that people are being deceived. So what conclusion will they naturally reach? Secondly from the tone of the entire paragraph, they are operating in a scornful attitude.

> Proverbs 14:6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

When this happens, if some that have manifestations are changed and some are not, what does that mean? Those who are not changed are deceived? Give me a break! Those who are not changed got their manifestations from Satan? Are Jesus and Satan taking turns passing out manifestations?

Then there is the question “How do you know who is or is not changed?” It’s possible for some to be changed by a spiritual impartation and not even realize it!

> 1 Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

He is the only one who can judge whether someone has come away changed. So how can we evaluate the manifestations on the basis of man's opinions about who has changed?.

And what about those who are changed? Some, make that many, were saved, healed, restored or delivered in the movements that came from Toronto and Brownsville – Pensacola Florida. Yet this was not the ultimate revival, and not everything that happened was perfect. But the problems were not in the source of the manifestations, but the church structures that received them.

It’s the same with what’s happening today. Spiritual gifts are real but flesh gets in the way. It’s not so much the phenomena but what people do with it.

> Hebrews 4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
> Proverbs 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Fear No Man

Chip Brogden

Many Christians are in bondage to the fear of man. In discussing this very real and widespread problem, let us acknowledge from the beginning that we cannot be God's spokesperson and be afraid of people. We will find it difficult, if not impossible to faithfully give all the counsel of God when there is a spirit within us that withdraws from people out of fear, timidity, or anxiety.

If there has ever been a time in your life when you bowed down and said, "Lord use me, speak through me, have Your Will through me," then you can expect that the Lord will immediately begin to deal with you regarding the fear of man. It is a fundamental lesson we must learn in order to be fruitful and faithful with all God commits to us.

Let us get right to the point: we are afraid of others because we love ourselves too much. When you have dealt with self-love, the fear of man will be dealt with at the same time. The fear of man is but a symptom of self-love, and is manifest in three basic areas of our relationships with others. If a servant of God is able to overcome in these three areas, he or she will be free of the fear of man. They are: desire for appreciation, desire for compensation, and desire for promotion. We will look at each one individually.

DESIRE FOR APPRECIATION

Multitudes of saints fall at this point. We want others to understand us. We want them to comprehend the meaning behind our actions. We want them to grasp what we are saying. We cannot bear the thought of being misunderstood. We wish for others to appreciate the truth we speak, the word we bring, the insight we have.

The flesh is clothed in such a desire, and it will be a snare to the one who speaks the Word of God. We cannot be afraid of other people, what they will think, how they react, if we do and say what we are led of the Spirit to do and say. Fear of man will cause us to utter many words in addition to those given to us by God. This must be avoided at all costs.

When Jesus spoke to the multitude, He did not glory in how large the crowd was. He did not congratulate Himself on having such an influential ministry. Instead, He sought to thin the numbers out by sifting them with a difficult word, saying, "You must eat my flesh and drink my blood if you wish to be my disciples." At this saying, the multitude and many of His disciples turned aside and no longer followed Him. Instead of running after them in an effort to make Himself understood and accepted, He watched them go. Then, turning to the Twelve, He said, "Will you also go away?" Here is a Man who is not afraid to be misunderstood because He is not afraid of people, what they will think, or what they will say about Him unjustly.

WE can discern His meaning, but THEY could not. Why did He not explain what He meant? Because He had no love for Himself, no desire to be understood. He only called for those who had ears to hear. He spoke the Word and allowed the hearers to exercise their own judgment and spiritual discernment. He had no desire to be appreciated or accepted. He would not have them accept HIM while rejecting the WORD He brought. If they rejected His Word, they rejected Him.

To overcome the fear of man, we must not only be willing to be misunderstood and unappreciated, we should expect it. Then we will be free to speak what God has given us and will not be troubled should others fail to grasp the significance of it.

DESIRE FOR COMPENSATION

When we are bringing the Word of God to the people who are supporting us materially it represents an inherent conflict of interest. The temptation is to tone down the Word for fear that we will offend those who are taking care of us.

The compensation received may not be limited to financial things. When our friends hold a special place in our heart we are likewise tempted to speak softly to them to keep the friendship intact, whereas an identical word to someone we do not know will not be as soft. If God bids us to speak softly, then let us do so. But we cannot speak softly to those we have a relationship when the word we bring them should be anything but soft.

Again, self-love is the problem. For example, a pastor who is dependent upon his congregation for his salary is going to have a difficult time bringing them the whole counsel of God. Not that he cannot preach, but there is an invisible line he dare not cross for fear that too many will be upset. Invariably if this line is crossed you will find him sweating and fretting over it. Perhaps he will make some calls and offer apologies to the offended ones. He is overcome with the fear of man, because he looks to man for his support. Every utterance and action must be filtered through the question of, "What will our supporters think?"

To overcome the fear of man, we must not look to man for our support, be it financial or emotional. Abram rejected the gifts of the King of Sodom, and afterwards the Lord said to him, "Fear not, for I AM your exceeding great reward." Since the Lord is our Provider as well as our Provision, we must look to Him alone. We do not look to gain supporters, partners, pledges, tithes, and offerings. If we do not have something it is because we do not need it. For when we need it, God will provide it. Certainly He will USE other people to bless us, but we do not LOOK to people to be blessed. In fact, we should expect that people will not want to support us. Then we can minister to them without fear of man.

DESIRE FOR PROMOTION

We who work for the Lord often wish to be seen and to be heard. We wish the largest audience possible. Naturally we want people to speak well of us and promote us that many more will hear the Word we have from God. Hidden within such a desire for promotion is the fear of man.

I once discovered another ministry had taken a portion of my writing and edited it before forwarding it to their subscribers. In eliminating the more offensive portions of the text they watered-down the message I was communicating. I contacted the ministry and asked them to either publish the entire message or retract it completely. Since they could not bear the whole counsel of God they informed me that they would retract it. Their closing comment was, "Most writers are happy to have even a portion of their works published, as some promotion is better than none at all."

Our desire for promotion will inevitably lead us to compromise, tone down, whitewash, filter, edit, distort, or make more palatable the message we bring. If we are promoting ourselves, then let us do all we can to push our names to the top and be pleased with any recognition we may receive. But if it is God's Word we speak, let God see to the promotion of His Word as well as His servant. Better to have a small circle of influence with freedom to speak as we are led to speak than to have a large circle of influence obtained through a message deemed "safe for public consumption".

In order to rid us of the fear of man, the Lord will prepare a path for us strewn with misunderstanding. Finances will dry up. We will be placed on a shelf for many days, until we no longer look to people as our source. To overcome the fear of man we must be wholly GOD'S and no one else's. A man or a woman who does not need to be appreciated or understood; who does not desire compensation, material or otherwise; who does not desire a large ministry but a faithful one; this individual is free to be the SERVANT of all without being ENSLAVED to all.

May God quicken this to our hearts that we may fear no man.

First Nations Presents Proclamation Of Forgiveness

Flo Ellers

Sep 27, 2005
FIRST NATIONS

On October 4, 2005, (Rosh HaShanah) at 10 A. M., a team of seven (7) Native American Indian leaders will meet at the White House with Mr. Rubin Barrales, Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of Intergovernmental Affairs. Mr. Barrales will receive our "PROCLAMATION OF FORGIVENESS" (see attachment #2) in behalf of President George Walker Bush. We are going as representatives of the Native community to address the America's people's "Chief". It is a "heads of nations" meeting if you will, and we will go according to Native protocol. We want to declare forgiveness on behalf of our people and declare forgiveness in Jesus Name and to ask our Heavenly Father to roll back the reproach and defilement on the land so that we might see revival in our nation.

The names of the ministers who will be going to the White House: BISHOP GLEN W. ANNISKETTE is a Thlingit Indian from Alaska. Glen currently lives in Tennessee. He has been ordained a bishop in the Church of God; Cleveland, TN and is an International Missionary Evangelist-at-Large. He has traveled to many nations financing evangelistic crusades touching countless thousands with the power of the Gospel.

REV. IVAN DOXTATOR is Oneida of the Iroquois Confederacy. The Oneida were the first allies ever of the young United States. It was the Oneida warriors and their women that broke through British lines at Valley Forge and took supplies to George Washington and his troops.

The Oneida sent over 200 warriors to the battle of Oriskany which was a real turning point in the Revolutionary War. That battle broke the back of the British advance and set in place their defeat at Saratoga. The Great law of the Iroquois Confederacy was the model for the Declaration of Independence and the young American Government. The Iroquois were present in 1776 at the development and signing of this historic document. Therefore, as a representative of his tribe, he carries much authority in the heavenlies to release this forgiveness.

REV. LINDA S. DOXTATOR (Cherokee) is a Licensed Professional Counselor that specializes in working with survivors of trauma. She was the Disaster Coordinator for WA Univ. and Univ. of MO during the Oklahoma Bombing and Floods of 1993. Linda works with the women and children in ministry with her husband Ivan as they seek healing for Native people.

REV. M. GEORGE KALLAPPA, SR. (Makah Tribe; Neah Bay, WA). After Rev. Kallappa received his Bachelor of Theology degree from Seattle Bible Training School he immediately went into full time ministry traveling to 60 tribal groups. He currently serves as Superintendent of the American Indian Fellowship of the Northwest Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God.

REV. DEWEY KIRSTEIN, III (Cherokee) is ordained with Goshen Ministries, Inc. and co-pastors Miracle Ministry in Virginia. Pastor Dewey has worked with YWAM since 1989 and has traveled to many nations and tribal peoples of the world.

CHIEF G. ANNE RICHARDSON is a Spirit-filled Christian working among her own people and the Navahos. She is a duly-elected tribal chief of a federally recognized tribe.

DR. FLO E. ELLERS (Tlingit from Alaska) is ordained with International Fellowship of Ministries—a John G. Lake ministerial organization. Rev. Ellers received her doctorate from Shalom Bible School; West Des Moines, IA in 1999. She has been traveling to the nations and working in full time ministry since 1982. Her ministry is Global Glory Ministries, Inc. Her current passion is to raise up and equip God's end time revivalists.

Dr. Ellers was asked to be the Native American representative during the "2nd Washington for Jesus" rally in 1996, where 500,000 Christians gathered at the Washington Mall in WA. D. C., to pray for this nation. She was given, along with the other speakers, 10 minutes to address the nation. As she prayed, the Holy Spirit inspired her with what later became known as the "Proclamation of Forgiveness" (see #2 attachment). Recently, Flo sensed the prompting of the Lord to present this document to President Bush so she worked with State Senator Greenleaf of Pennsylvania and he helped facilitate a presidential appointment with Mr. Rubin Barrales to present the "gift of forgiveness" to the Nation's Chief. She, along with her team believe once the President of the United States accepts the forgiveness, heaven will record this prophetic act and as a result revival will break forth in America.

If you or your ministry or church would like to help us financially to go to Washington, D. C., please make your checks out to Global Glory Ministries, Inc. Seven is the number of completion. There are seven of us going to the White House. As you know, the airfares, hotels and meals will be a huge expense for this venture. If you can only give $7 (one dollar for each First Nations representative) that would buy one McDonald's meal and we would be grateful for any gift small or large.

If you cannot give financially, will you at least pray for us? As you know, the enemy does not like what we are doing and we will encounter some warfare but it can be minimized if you will pray. "Goonalcheese!" That is "Thank You" in my Tlingit language.

Appreciatively,

Dr. Flo E. Ellers floellers@comcast.net

"Proclamation Of Forgiveness"

Presented to

The Honorable George Walker Bush, President of the United States

"The earth is the Lord's and everything in it, the world and all who live in it. How blessed are the people whose God is the Lord." (Psalm 24:1)

The earth is the Lord's by right of creation. His absolute sovereignty precludes our right to determine our own destiny. Our purpose for being is with the God who has created us all

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

In Christopher Columbus' traveling diary, he said as he approached this land, "I was blown by the wind of God." Columbus came with a holy ambition to establish a nation where Christian liberty would prevail, but others who came did not all have a purity of heart. With force they used their long knives to take the wealth of the land; the temptation before them too powerful to resist. A brown-eyed people unable to defend their land and their families were consumed in the greed of the settlers from Europe. What would have been the ultimate outcome of this nation had the early settlers wholly followed the Puritans one desire for religious freedom?

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

What would this nation be like today if our forefathers had resisted the proud attempt to take destiny into their own hands and seize the reigns of history?

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

What would this nation be like today had the early pioneers been willing to present the Gospel to the Native American Indian and to lift them up out of their spiritual darkness to serve the Living God?

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

Instead their lust for the gold in the land promoted acts of aggression on territories which were not their own. The encroachments were a willful violation of the Word of God that says,

"Do not remove the ancient landmark." (Proverbs 23:10) The bows and arrows, the hunting knives and the tomahawk were no match for the Remington rifles. A once proud people had to bow into submission as acre after acre was forcefully taken from them. What would this nation be like if all the races could have dwelt together in harmony sharing the land and its vast resources?

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

Deceptive governmental leaders said, "Let's make covenant with these people. They are too naïve and could not possibly understand the ramifications of these treaties." So one by one a treaty was drawn up and one by one each of the 372 treaties were violated and broken. The intense hatred of the governmental leaders released orders for the genocidal eradication of the Red Man. The pony soldier's pet saying was, "The only good Indian is a dead Indian." The historic massacres amounted to over 50 million! The buffalo by the thousands lay slaughtered across the land and the once defiant Native American Indian blood soaked up the ground and the land became defiled and cursed.

O America, America, in the midst of all of this, God shed His Grace on thee. He brought you here for His eternal purpose—to bring religious freedom to this nation and the nations of the world. Your mandate from Him was for you to propagate the nations with the Gospel from your stately posture and you were to begin with First Nations people but you have never fulfilled your mandate from God. Instead, you force-marched them onto reservations and all their dignity was stripped from them—all hope for a future was gone. Their blood is crying out for restitution. We have sown to the wind and we have reaped the whirlwind. If our nation is to be changed our national sin must be recognized, acknowledged and repented of and then we can be

ONE NATION UNDER GOD…

There was another Man whose Blood was also shed. He was the Man from heaven; the very Son of God who came in the flesh approximately 2,000 years ago. He lived among men and healed all their hurts and diseases; and when His Blood splattered that ole' rugged cross, He never cried out for revenge but said, "Father forgive them…" Our shed blood cries out one message; His Blood cries out another message; therefore we as Native American Indian Christian representatives of the host people of this great nation make this proclamation to President George W. Bush, The Congress and other national leaders that we forgive our nation and its leaders for what they have done to us in the past. We believe if you will accept this Proclamation of Forgiveness we will see and experience a mighty outpouring of God's Presence that will affect all of the United States of America and then we will truly be

ONE NATION UNDER GOD.

In 168 BC Antiochus IV Epiphanes conquered Jerusalem. He killed thousand and thousands of Jews. He offered swine in the temple upon the altar for the purpose of defiling the temple. He set up idols in the temple to be worshipped.

The church today represents this Antiochus . . . tares and false prophets sown into the modern day church for the purpose of killing the full counsel of the Written Word; presenting a defiled gospel. The church is full of idols such as lust for money, materialism, gluttony, witchcraft, sorcery, etc.

Three years later Mattathias started a revolt and after he died, his son Judas Maccabees (hammer; extinguisher) finished it.

Years ago Father started a revolt by calling a remnant out of the manmade structure of today's church. According to BARNA Research Group around one million have been called out of the structured church throughout the world. Satan tried to stop this revolt by harsh siftings and tribulations, which God allowed for the purpose of purifying Himself a bride. Those that remained within the sifting/purifying process have become the manifested sons of God, His firstfruits bride.

We have now come to the completion of this revolt. The celebration of Hanukkah is about to manifest (beginning eve of Dec. 25th), the firstfruits, the manifested sons, His firstfruits bride, are about to come forth to cleanse the manmade temple.

After the cleansing (represented by the firstfruits, separated remnant being purified) of the temple (now the living temple) there was found only one small cruise of PURE olive oil (Holy Spirit) with which to light their holy lamps. This small cruise of oil is representative of the ONE SMALL, purified remnant, filled with the Holy Spirit (oil), that was called out in previous years and have remain-ed faithful during the cleansing process. Now comes the miracle!

Hanukkah begins with the lighting of one candle on the menorah. Each evening after that, one additional candle is lit until the last evening when all EIGHT are now lit. This is also known as Feast of Dedication! The SMALL cruise of oil was miraculously multiplied to be enough to light all EIGHT candles; their own candle being the first one and then the following seven* This SMALL cruise will be used to bring the remaining body of Christ into completion . . . the completed living temple! (Eight is the number for completion.) HalleluJah!

The first lit candle is representative of the SMALL remnant that have been purified/ cleansed/ separated for the past years. Now remains SEVEN, representative of the remaining seven-year tribulation period of which we are about to enter (See study on A Purpose and End Result of the Seven Year Tribulation Pertaining to the Church; Daniel 12:10.) The SMALL remnant (small cruise of oil) will see you through until you become the bride . . . they have enough oil to bring forth a completed bride!* They have enough for the remaining seven days, until fresh jars of CLEAN oil could be brought into the temple . . . becoming the living temple . . . the bride!

Father is about to DEDICATE His living temple (the manifested sons) in this coming Feast of Dedication. A SMALL, faithful remnant is coming forth! You may ask why I think it will be this year during the Feast of Hanukkah (Dedication) of 2005. Because I know some of us have had spiritual visitations from the kingdom of our Father to prepare us for this coming Feast of Hanukkah. John 10:22,23 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple . . . read "living temple"!

Behold, I will send My messenger (an angel), and he shall prepare the way before Me: and the Lord, Whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, (read "living temple", of which we are (I Cor. 6:19)) even the Messenger of the covenant, Whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the Lord of hosts

*It is the responsibility for each individual to keep their own lamps filled after they have entered the holy of holies (Matt. 25:4-10)

The Process You Must Go Through to Dwell in the Holy of Holies

– discipleministries@msn.com

December 3, 2005

After you have accepted Jesus as your Savior, then you must go on to work out your salvation with fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12). There are different seasons to accomplish this. One is in the wilderness experience of Israel, which deals with sin and is your opportunity to forsake sin and go into another season (Deut. 8:2,3).

Another season is the fiery furnace experience of Job, to reveal false doctrines and burn them out of you and replace them with truth – these are the foundational truths - then you continue to have revelations of truth as you continue to grow (Job 34:32,35; 36:9-11). He brings you out from under Agar and puts you under Sarah. (In this current day, some are going back under Agar, known as Jewish Roots movement.) When these foundational truths are established, you go into another season. This fiery furnace experience can go hand in hand with the wilderness experience. Other types/shadows of the Old Testament are Daniel in the lions' den (Dan. 6:16) and the three Hebrew boys in the fiery furnace (Dan. 3:23-26).

Yet another season is in the cave of David, waiting for your deliverance to come forth. This is also portrayed in David with his 5 stones (representative of the purified saints) in the bag, waiting for their time to come forth. They have already been purified in trials and tribulations and are now smooth stones, ready for the master's use (II Tim 2:20-22). They are gathered together, waiting (some are literally gathered together and others are spiritually in the same place of waiting) . . . some are discouraged, some are in debt (I Sam. 22:1,2).

The final season of preparation to become the bride is the prison portrayed by the isolation chambers of Joseph in the dungeon. Here you are alone with the Lord, being tested to see if you will remain faithful when there is only you and the Lord and your hopes have been deferred multiple times. Betrayals have brought you to this place (Gen. 40:23), lies have been told about you and believed (Gen. 39), there is no defense, these lies have caused you to be put into the deep isolation chambers of the dungeon BUT you come to realize it was God's will for you to be placed here; forgiveness comes for all those that hurt you.

When these seasons are finished, you've become crucified to self. You've participated in the sufferings of Christ and the work is now complete. Your exit from this season is done hastily – all of a sudden, totally unexpected (Gen. 41:14)! Joseph's gift/calling brought him out of these seasons of preparation (Gen. 41:9-13; Prov. 18:16).

When you have accomplished these seasons, you become the bride of Christ, also known as the manifested (disclosure, revealed) sons of God (Rom. 8:19); those that have come into the full sonship of the Lord. Then you enter and dwell in the holy of holies Your inheritance of the kingdom (governmental rule) then manifests. The ones that don't complete this process, are either spewed out (Rev. 3:16) or dwell in the outer or inner courts and are the guests to the wedding IF they endure to the end; even the guests must have on the robe of righteousness (Matt. 22:11,12).

The outer court saints are the ones that the antichrist wears down and overcomes (subdue, conquer, get the victory over) because they did not go on to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit (II Tim. 3:5), the power source of God's kingdom.

Inner court saints have the baptism of the Holy Spirit but stayed at that place and didn't go on into the refining fires to become the bride of Christ. They love the gifts of the Spirit but go no further. This is where the foolish virgins must go back into to buy the oil for their lamps. There is a price to pay (surrendering one's life) to receive the Holy Spirit (oil) and a higher price to enter into the holy of holies (Luke 14:28-33).

When you become the bride, this is when you have become "they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and the Word of their testimony" (Rev. 12:11). This is where you inherit the governmental rule of the Lord (Dan. 7:18). The preceding is the process in which you must go through to come to this inheritance.

Please don't be as the foolish virgins (Matthew 25:1-12). Don't give up and let go of your rewards of what took years to be prepared to receive! This is the place where you receive your full inheritance of the "blessings of the Lord". It seems to me the foolish virgins got caught up in the "blessings" and miracles and allowed the call upon their lives to dissipate; they lost their inheritance because there was not time to go (back to the inner court) and buy the oil needed for their lamps and get back into the holy of holies; the door was closed and would NOT open again.

Keep your eyes focused on the fact that the groom IS COMING to the remnant to make them the bride and give them entrance into the holy of holies. You've been adorned (you've had a visitation from the angels of the Lord and they prepared you for His coming (Mal. 3:1), this was in the spiritual realm) but there's still been a time of waiting, BUT I can assure you, the wait won't be as previously experienced. Don't get impatient and don't allow others to deter you from your hope and vision . . . HANG on . . . the groom IS on His way! Any day now, His appearing to His bride shall be! This is not the wedding according to Rev. 19:9. This is the High Priest coming to allow us entrance into the holy of holies, as the Old Testament type/shadow.

Perhaps this COMING will be this year during the Feast of Hanukkah, also known as the Feast of Dedication (beginning eve of Dec. 25th) . . . He'll dedicate the bride as the bride. HalleluJah!

In a revelatory Realm of Heaven by the Holy Spirit the eyes of my spirit are open. I see a flood of revelation flowing like a river toward me. I feel the manifest presence of the Lord. I see angels all around in heaven. I feel the glory of God coming upon the Church to the Earth.

I see this holy being before me saying, "welcome to the Third Heaven". I could see his huge and long wings that were more then easy to cover himself or others around him. He could cover himself with these wings and still there will be more of the wing to cover others.

Then he said, "Again welcome to the third heaven, for the Third heaven is also in those born of the Spirit for they are the Temple of the Holy Spirit. You have within your self the Most Holy Place. The Glory of the Lord will come to the church and fill all his people and then pour out into the world.

As he spoke knowledge was giving to me that this is a revelation angel who functions are to protect, and hide mysteries for a set time to be release. He then said, the Lord of Sabaoth says that the time has come to release and uncover these mysteries for this time.

However, the Redeem must pray for the Spirit of Wisdom and the Spirit of Revelation to be poured out upon them. They must pray for seeing eyes and hearing ears. The Lord now gives to His Church the Spirit of Wisdom and the Spirit of Revelation. There will be great prophetic rivers and great revelation rivers pour out upon His body.

Then the revelation angel looks into my eyes, and could see holy fire in His eyes. Then this holy fire in his eyes came out into my eyes. My eyes begun to burn and I could see living fire in my eyes.

Now in Heaven I had a vision in this vision, I could see flying eyes and flying ears release upon the body of Christ. Then the revelation angel said I have two golden earrings giving to me from the Lord of Sabaoth for you. Then the angel put these two golden earrings through my ears, my ears begun to hear new sounds in heaven that I never heard before and my ears begun to burn with holy fire too.

Then the revelation angel took from under his right wind a tall glass of revelation. He said this is the revelation that shall be pouring out in this time in your generation. Now the Lord of Sabaoth has asked of you to drink this cup and drink all of it.

Now the revelation angel said those who see your heart should be giving the holy fire in your eyes, those who become your bondservant shall be giving your golden earrings. Those who are seated in fellowship and in love with you shall be giving the same cup of revelation that was giving to you today.

Those don't see your heart their sight will be remove, those who don't become your bondservant shall lose their hearing ear, and those who don't seat and fellowship and love with you shall not drink of this wine. I am not saying this just to you, but I am saying this to all those that shall bear the cup of this revelation in this time.

Your Lord will pour out such revelation in this time and in this generation that there will be higher accountable that He will hold His people of this time and of this generation accountable.

Then I could hear the Holy Spirit say I give you grace for your sight and I give you grace for you hearing. I love to speak, and fellowship with you my people. I love to lead you unto your destiny in Christ. I love to lead you unto hope and a good future.

Now I see another angel come beside the other angel. This was an angel name the mysteries angel, he says I am like revelation angel in certain areas and we work together. The revelation angel remains in the third heaven well I come to earth to speak among God's people. I only speak to those who can see me, and only those whom the Lord anointed their eyes and ears to see and ear from me can only see or hear me. In the last 20 years I have been busy planting seeds of revelation around the world in those who can see. Now we come to the time that those seeds will grow, multiply, fill the earth and be harvested.

Revelation is harvested through the fruits that come forth from revelation, and the worship that giving to the Father through the revelation giving to him. I will visit those who I planted seeds of revelation with throughout their life. Even if they don't know that I am there, but still they can see me. I will be with them in the seedtime, the drying time, the lifetime, growing time, multiply time and the harvest time. Those that I have plant seeds with are ministers of revelation and have be giving a ministry of revelation from the Lord.

Now the revelation angel said the time has come, the generation has come for me to open wide my wings and release the hidden revelation for this time, upon the body of Christ. The Lord will fill His Church with revelation.

Now the mysteries angel said now I will go to the home churches, cell churches, local bodies, cities, groups, networks, nations, the world, and the Body of Christ and speak to them on those levels. I will speak on a group level instead on a person-to-person level, and I will be with them in seedtimes, growing times, multiply times and the harvest times. The mysteries angel says that the drying times are not giving on a group level only on a personal level. The mysteries angel says that the Lord give the church a ministry of revelation to the world in this time, and the church together shall be ministers of revelation in this time.

In a revelatory Realm of Heaven by the Holy Spirit the eyes of my spirit are open. I see two angels, revelation angel and mysteries angel standing before me. Then I hear a trumpet sound with the ears of my heart.

Revelation angel says this is the holy sound calling the Lord's people to His Throne. Let us go and see what the Lord would say to you in this time for his people.

Then I could see another angel a strong and powerful angel standing before me. He then said there are other angels like me, but not that many. We lead the Lord's armies under the Lord of Host who is the Lord of Sabaoth. We are preparing now for a great battle that we will fight very soon. Yes there are other battles that we are fighting right now. We are most busy when the saints pray on the earth.

A great battle is about to begin; this battle will be fought within the church. This will be one of the great battles, but this battle must come in order for the church to fulfill her destiny and that the prophetic words over her can come to pass, this battle is about destiny.

Now I see another angel that looks like a diplomat. He says that he is sent forth to give the word of the Lord to those who will change history. He brings the Lord's commission to those who will change history. There is only one of me; I am at the Lord's Command I carry only His word in certain times and seasons. The Lord has power to change times and seasons.

The times and seasons are going to change for the church. This will be times of the Lord's favor and times of the beginning of His glory arising in the church. These will be times when He will pour out revelation upon the church, and the church shall be giving the mind of Christ, which is a life of revelation from the Lord.

Now the two angels, revelation angel and mysteries angel standing with me said it now time to move on to the Throne Room. We then began to fly very fast in heaven. It seems that heaven is a big place. Then the mysteries angel says heaven is lager then earth and hell. Heaven grows everyday with glory and power. Heaven is full of the fruits of the Spirit. When you come to the Throne Room you come to Heaven by faith in the Spirit. You are to be filled up with heaven so you can take it back to earth and impart it to the body of Christ and to the world. This is what every believer is to do.

Now we come to the area outside of the Throne Room. It was so glorious, powerful, great light and great revelation. The Revelation angel says what you see, hear, and feel will become the life of church and the world will witness this everyday from the church.

Now I had a vision in the vision of heaven that I am having right now. I could see before the outside of Throne Room a battlefield this battlefield was huge before my eyes and it look like you had to go through a lot to get to the throne room.

Then the revelation angel and mysteries angel and me jump into this vision. I could hear the loud sound from the Throne Room calling His Body to the Throne Room. But getting there seemed to be great battle that had to be fought.

The mysteries angel says if they only know the truth that they can come to Throne all the time, by the Blood of Christ. The church lack vision and does not know her destiny. Many members have hard time praying and seeking God. They have a hard time coming to the Throne Room, for the reason they lack knowledge.

They need a revelation of the Throne Room to overcome the lies and deceptions of the enemy. Prayerlessness was everywhere. Many members lack the discipline to pray for the reason they lack vision. But the Lord is going to Baptist his church with holy love, burning love, passionate love for the Lord. In addition, the church lack discipline in prayer for reason they have a lack of love toward their Lord.

Now I could see saints that made it into the Throne Room standing at the door of the Throne Room, praying and crying out for those on the battlefield. Then I could see many, upon many, upon many and upon many fighting in this on going battle to get to the Throne Room.

I could see some who had been to the Throne Room many times and went back to dug up wells of past revivals, I could see many wells being dug up again, even wells that other didn't think of. These ones went back by the leading of the Lord to dug wells of past revivals had in them burning hearts of fire.

I could see as the wells were dug up. Then I could see those who dug them pray, and pray, and pray for the Lord to bless them again. Then angels came from nowhere with cups of water, this water was supernatural water. They then pour this water into the wells that we had dug up again. Once when this supernatural water touch the bottom of these wells that water in them open up and begun to fill and become full and begun to over flow.

Now I could see floodgates holding the new revivals back and I could see man made dams trying to hold back other revivals. I could see prophets speaking to them to open up. Then one by one the floodgates open, and one by one the dams break forth.

Now I could see as the well of revivals and these new revivals begun to fill the earth. Then I could see the life of God begun to fill the battlefield.

But before all of these good news happens. I had a vision that those many that found it hard to come to Throne Room that some of them begun to attack with swords and tongues those who were used to dug up the wells again and those who were trying to open the floodgates and break through the dams.

I also could see fire fall from Heaven from the Throne Room. This was revelation coming down. It looked like rocks of fire coming down from the Throne Room. Revelation was coming to every place. Revelation will come, the glory of the Lord will come, and the goodness of the Lord will come.

Now those who were not being touch by the rocks of revelations, those who didn't receive the rock of revelation were the ones that begun to pick up swords against their brothers and sisters who had revelation.

First of all these that don't have revelation didn't want it, now they are angry with those who had revelation. And this angry was from demons of hate and of religion.

Now I could see angels come from everywhere with swords to fight against those who fight against their brothers and sisters who had revelation. This was the beginning of the great battle that must be fought, won, and overcome.

In a revelatory Realm of Heaven by the Holy Spirit the eyes of my spirit are open. I could see a powerful light throughout heaven. I then heard a voice saying this powerful light is the great light that the church shall walk in these days and this great light will be the light that lights the way for the future and the end time church.

Now again I see these two angels, revelation angel and mysteries angel standing next to me, then they said now it is time for you to see more what is about to happen in your time.

I then see a vision in a vision of a globe; this globe was around us, it was a vision in us and a vision around you, and vision of my heart.

Then I could see armies of angels place above each nation around the world. I then looked upon the European nations and could see many, many, many, many, many angels that I could not number. They were placed over each nation waiting for their release from the Lord of the Hosts.

Then one of the angels standing waiting over one of the European nations said to me, very soon the spiritual nature of these nations will begin shaking and moving under the power of the Holy Spirit. There is coming a heavy anointing of the Holy Spirit upon these nations.

Now I see armies of angels placed over African nations, and again I see many, many, many that I could not number. Then one of these angels over one of these African nations said to me, the Lord is arising a powerful and mighty church in Africa that will shake the nations of the earth. The Church of Africa will be a spiritual leader to the body of Christ around the world.

Now I see armies of angels over the nations of Asia, then one of these angels with a company of angels over one of these nations began to talk to me, The Holy Spirit will humble, and move mighty in hearts of His people, you will see great signs in the earth in these parts of the world. These great signs will be many, and these great signs will began the fear of the Lord to the world. There will be great fear of the Lord abound in the hearts of many in these parts of the world. Upon many souls, many souls will be humbled and will fearfully worship the Lord in Spirit and in truth.

Now I see armies of angels over each nation in the Middle East, and one those angels among a company of angels said to me, from these nations the church of each of these nations will arise with greatness, for so long you have seen these churches under the feet of others however, no longer shall this be. The Lord will open wide the gates and doors of these nations to the Church and the Kingdom of God.

Now I see armies of angels over each of nations of Central America and South America, now one of the angels of one of the companies of angels placed over these nations said to me, the Lord will open the gates of deliverance and repentance wide over these nations. Now I could see pure and holy rivers began to flow in many places in these nations and these rivers grow and became strong rivers and these strong rivers grow and became mighty rivers in the lands of these nations. Now these rivers begun to connect with each other and begun to created floods between themselves and flooding these lands in these nations.

Now I could see an army of angels over America and an army of angels over Canada, and one of these angels came to me saying, great burning fires will burn throughout these two nations. These great burning fires will never be put out, instead these great burning fires will increase and fill these two nations and the hearts and minds of these people. These great burning fires will go to all the nations of the earth. Then I look over each of the American States and I could see armies of angels over each of these states too, and likewise over the Canada provincials too.

Now in Heaven after this powerful vision I could see other men and women of God standing with us and they have been with us since the beginning of these prophetic words to the church and the world. We all worship and give praise and thanksgiving to the Lord.

However, then there was no noise or sound in heaven, after awhile the Holy Spirit said, it is time to get you houses in order, get your hearts in order, seek the Lord with all your hearts and actions. Be busy in seeking and praying to God in this time. Prepare yourselves for what is about to befall the church and the nations of the world.

Now the Lord of Sabaoth, who is the Lord of the Hosts, who is Jesus Christ our Lord, was standing before us all. He begun to speak and He begun to say, "I did not come to bring peace, I am coming with a sword in my mouth, I am coming to establish my will, my house, my kingdom, and those who will repent in their ways and mindsets can enter into my leading in this time and hour for the church and then for the world."

"What is about to begin is the great Battle of your time, this battle must come. For this battle is a reformation, is a revival, and I will pour out great light, great revelation, and great power and you shall know of the goodness of the Lord."

"What will come forth from this; is massive movements of the Holy Spirit throughout the body of Christ and throughout the world."

"What shall come forth from this Great Battle; is revival life for my church, I will restore the revival life, and revival will be a way of life."

"What shall come forth from this great battle; are revivals and my resting glory upon cities. Revivals will be here and there, and near your heart. Revivals will come and go and revivals will come and remain, and revivals will come and birth more revivals. Revival will come and go from revival to revival."

"What shall come forth from this great battle; will be massive revivals throughout the world and the church, massive revivals resting and remaining in cities around the world; a life of massive revivals and glory coming, coming, and going from revival to revival."

"This great battle is the battle that will break out among the church when the outpouring of revelation begin, this revelation will lead to the opening of the seals that will lose these times and life of power, glory, and revival in the church and throughout the world."

Furthermore, the Holy Spirit says, the great battle is about to begin, and the leading up to this great battle is already in action and movement. The outpouring of revelation is going to begin!

I see a flood of glory flowing into my life; the eyes and ears of my hearts are open. In a vision I am taking to Heaven, I am now in a revelatory Realm of Heaven by the Holy Spirit. I hear the voice of the Holy Spirit say, bless are those who can see and bless those who can ear that they may enter into the visionaries times.

Do you know when God is moving, can you see God in others, can you see the touch of God upon the church, where is God building and where is He moving today? Bless are those who know and see these things.

Do you hear the voice of the Holy Spirit speaking to the churches, to the city church, to national churches and to the body of Christ? Can you hear Him speak through His prophets and apostles? Do you understand what He is saying today? Bless are those who see, hear and understand these things.

Then revelation angel and mysteries angel says, it time to continue on with these prophetic words. Now I see moving visions and prophetic words flying down from Heaven entering into the months of His Holy Prophets. The living moving visions and prophetic words are living and moving lights and moving waters hovering and flying to the months and the hearts of the Holy Prophets.

Now I looked and see others around us that they too are seeing these prophetic words that the two angels are releasing to their trust and care. The Holy Spirit says, these are the hidden ones that have been planted by the Lord throughout the world. Soon there time will come and they will be establish in the church and in the earth for they are establish in heaven. They are the ministers of revelation.

Now I hear again the calling sound of the Throne Room. The two angels say it is now time to go before the Throne Room. The Two angels say you only need faith in your heart to go before the Throne Room. Now we came to this great door that is the door to the Throne Room. There were two angels guarding it, one on the right and the other on the lift. The door to the Throne Room was always open to His people to enter into by the Blood of Christ.

Now I enter into the Throne Room, and I could see the Lord Jesus at the Right Hand of the Father. I could hear Him praying and making intercession for the church, for Israel, and for the world.

Now I look upon the Throne of the Father I could only see light, He was covered with light. This light begun to fill my soul and heart, this light filled heaven, and then this light filled the church, and then this light filled the world.

This is the coming great light that will fill every born again believer, the church will be a church full of the light of the Father and the light of Christ.

As this light filled my heart, mind and body this light begun to shine from inside toward the outside. I was filled with this light, and I was covered with this light and I give out this light to those around me.

Now I could see this light filled the believers in Christ and likewise this light filled them and covered them and shines out from them and touches those around them.

The Church become full of light, I could see as the church begun to fill with this light and I begun to see this light arise across the body of Christ all over the world.

Then I could see this light began to come down upon cites and nations all over the world. I could see communities being filled with this light.

I began to look more upon the light of the Father, for He was covered with pure holy light. As I kept my eyes upon Him, I begun to change, my eyes and my ears were opening more. The more as I stand before the light of the Father the more I changed and the more I see and hear from the Throne Room. My heart begun to become full of light, it is like my heart is now a lamp stand for the Light of the Father and the Light of Christ.

Now as I look at the light that covered the face of the Father I begun to see visions coming forth in the light of the Father. I could see a vision of North America and I could see living holy fires all over Canada and America and as look into sky over these two nations the skies was as of holy burning fire and this holy burning fire rain upon these two nations, the rivers and seas of these nations were as of holy burning flowing fire.

Then the Father's hand reached into this vision of holy fire and took some of this fire from out of this fire and imparted into me heart. The fire was so great, the fire burn, burn, and burn.

Now I could see another vision come forth from the light of the Father in this vision I see Africa and the glory of God covering these lands. The Father said there only need is for the glory of God to cover Africa. I could see this was the glory in the book of Acts as In Acts 2 when the Holy Spirit came upon those waiting upon the Lord. I begun to see the signs of the Apostles and I begun to see the believers move in signs and these was the life of God in them. Then again the hand of the Father reached into this vision of Africa and took apart of this glory and imparted into my heart.

The Father says, I will to impart the fire and the glory into every child in my house; for the fire and glory will come upon the hearts of all my children. I then see a vision come forth in the light of the Father and I see many hearts with the fire of the Lord resting upon them and I see the glory of the Lord cover each of these hearts.

Now I see another vision come forth in the light of the Father, I see a vision of the Middle East, I see angels flying fast and moving fast over all these nations, I then see mass numbers turned to the Lord. Government's fall, rise, and change at the working of these angels.

Now I see another vision come forth from the light of the Father this vision was a vision of Europe, I could see many clouds over these lands. I see clouds over cities and clouds over nations. I can hear the prayers of the saints and I could see the fire of the Holy Spirit among them. I hear these words, things are going to changes, and things will not always to remain the same. These begun to rain one by one, some rain at first to begin and as they rain others begun to rain. I then heard these words; all the past revivals and moves of God will all come again in one generation to the nations of Europe, now only they will come, they will come with a double portion of the early moves of God.

Now I see a vision of Russia and nine other nations in that part of the world. I see strong movements of the Spirit, stronger then the mighty waves of the Oceans. I see these movements come like mighty waves, and like mighty storms. I could see just as storm weather acts upon the earth touches so many likewise these strong storms of the Spirit would do to these lands however, instead of destroying things in there way, the blessings, the glory and the kingdom will come, and yes the works of the devil will be destroy.

Now I see another vision in the light of the Father. This is a vision of the rest of Asia, and I see mighty signs, might, happens, and mighty manifestations of the Holy Spirit. These lands will know the Scriptures and will know the power of God. I see many, upon many movements of the power of God.

Now I see a vision in the light of the Father, this is a vision of the nation of Japan, and see mighty movements of the Holy Spirit shaking this nation all over, I see there cities strike with the power, might and the shaking of the Holy Spirit, massive number were saved all over Japan. Now I see a new sun arise over this nation under God, This sun is the Sun of Righteousness with healing in His wings and power beams striking, touching, and impacting everyone.

Now I see in a vision Center and South America and I see running honey come down from the Third Heaven, and I see running wine coming down from the Third Heaven both the honey and the wine cover these lands and nations.

Now I see a vision of Australia, New Zealand, and Pacific Islands and I see rushing mighty winds of the Holy Spirit all over these nations. I see these mighty winds blowing over and blowing throughout these lands. I see these winds resting and living upon these lands.

Now I see a vision of the earth, and see angels with revivals going from the Throne Room to the nations of the Earth. I could see fire there and here, there were revivals everywhere.

Now I see another vision of the earth and I see in earth the church as the bride of Christ in waiting and being prepared. Then the Father with his hands took this great and huge bottle and then the light of Father poured as liquid into this bottle unlit this bottle was full of the light of the Father. Then He took this liquid light of the father and poured it upon the bride of Christ; and then this liquid light flow as liquid light from the church to the cities, nations and the world.

As I stood before the Father and The Son, the light of Father came more and more upon me, and as I stood I enter into the light of the Father, I moved into the light of the Father. I heard the Father say enter into the light of the Father. The Light of the Father is the coming great light upon the church and the earth.

The Holy Spirit comes upon me and then I see a vision of a revelatory Realm of Heaven. Now the revelation angel and mysteries angel says these are the days of great light, great revelation, great revivals, and massive reformation that will come upon the church and then overflow into the cities, nations and the world.

I then see a tree standing before me in a vision. The fruits are full and ready to eat. This is the tree of glory and its fruits are revivals that come upon the church and then overflow into the world. The leaves are the grace to enter into these revivals. Now I see another tree this is called redemptive judgment, and fruits on this tree are called reformation, and leaves are called mercy. The fruits on this tree are full and ready to eat. There will come reformation to the church and there will be reformation in the world. We have entered into the times of glory and judgment.

Now we continue onward to a place in heaven where there is a huge window and this window is a supernatural mirror that brings changes to the earth. Changes the earth into the image of heaven, which is Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now we looked down unto earth, and we see a great mountain that increases and grows throughout the world and at the top of this great mountain is the city of God.

Now I see this great wind that covered the earth and hovered over the earth. Then this person stood before us. He is the Lord of the Harvest.

Now He began to talk in great authority, His voice shakes the church and the world, all things that was shaken, except for the Kingdom of God and the Bride of Christ. There was all over, covering and around Him a consuming fire. Then I see strong and mighty angels standing guard next to Him.

There are two mighty angels standing guard and standing watch, they are waiting to raise their swords against those things that withstood the changes and movements of the Holy Spirit In addition, they will Holy Spirit. There are angels place wherever that the Holy Spirit will move in such movements to raise their swords against those things that do not become humble, or become meek in the presence of the Lord.

Now the Lord of the Harvest has begun to speak His council to those who have a hearing ear. He says He is building houses of Harvest all over the world. These houses will grow, increase, and become huge for the glory of Christ. These houses will be centers of equipping, sending out, and resting places. These houses will connect together in vision and in anointing.

Now within the cities the houses of harvest will connect too in vision and in anointing. As the numbers of gain are reap and gathered into these houses of harvest they will become too limited to hold such gain and such glory and they will begin to work together and come together more and more, unlit there is a sound oneness comes forth. They will walk in union and in harmony as one church in the city.

Now I see a vision of a house that the Lord is building, this is the house of the Lord, from the foundation of the apostles and prophets the Lord will build His house and fill His house with glory.

Now the Lord of the Harvest begun to speak about the coming harvests, I could see the winds of the Holy Spirit blow upon the cities and nations of the world. I could see great numbers and beyond numbers of angelic activity all over the world. I could see massive numbers come to know the Lord as the winds of the Holy Spirit blow upon them.

There were harvests in cities across the world. The winds of the Holy Spirit went from city to city, I could see nations after nations change under the power of God. I could see the societies change under the power of the Lord; many societies became very fruitful in all things unto godliness and unto the Lord. I could see the image of cities change under the power of the Lord to the image of Christ.

Now I see the labors that equipped the labors that will equip the labors that will enter into the coming harvests. I could see a sea of labors entering into the fields of harvests, these labors were not ordained ministers, and instead they were saints.

Now I see nations under the glory of the Lord, now I see societies under the glory of the Lord, now I see cities under the glory of the Lord, and now I see communities under the glory of the Lord. I see schools, colleges and the marketplaces under the power and glory of the Lord.

Therefore the Lord of the Harvest, who is the Holy Spirit said; I speak unto the church in prophecy, visions and dreams. Hear what I say unto the churches, he or her who have a hearing ear or a seeing eye hear and see what I say unto the churches and unto the church. These things I say will become real, pray for these things to come to pass, seek my council and prepare for them to become real, and pray for wisdom in how to move forth in the steps of prophetic fulfillment, for I will teach you, show you the way, and lead you.

Therefore the mysteries angel says, the time has come that the eyes and ears of the church to be open. The church will no longer sleep, for the time has come for the church to awake. The Lord gives this generation the seeing eyes and the hearing ear, that they will see and hear and enter in, for revelation are doors and gates to the glory of the Lord, and the goodness of the Lord.

Therefore the revelation angel says, the door to the Throne Room is wide open and calling sound is going forth in the church, and hear the call to come up here by faith, for those who come before the Throne Room will be giving the keys to open all doors and gates of the supernatural and the glory of God in the earth.

Image on my spiritual eye
I am walking along the beach with Yeshua, He indicates me on a lighthouse.

This lighthouse radiates clearly.

On the ground near the lighthouse there is movement and noise

The image comes closer….
People are on their way going from one event to another event….

It seems a bit like a marketplace "come to see, come to see"

These are meetings with a lot of miracles, but the people obviously are not getting enough of this and they are going from one meeting to another…

Wonders and signs and beautiful music, it seems like a sort of funfair, and they are building a lot of buildings, and the buildings must become very beautiful, more beautiful then the ones before.

Suddenly the image change to the other side the image on the other site is different.

People are stumbling, are sick…there are great disasters, But you can see people are helping, sometimes they are coming together to worship their Master, but after that they swarm out again to help the other people.(Isaiah 61:1)

Then I saw both images together…. and something strange happend: The light and the bright radiance of the lighthouse seems to get weaker and weaker….

But on the other side, where it seems to be darker, there the light started to shine brighter and brighter ….
There is a big radiance of light

Explanation:

Image of the area around the lighthouse:
Christians who are running after miracles instead of surching for the Fathers heart...…. busy with building new buildings … to the point that the buildings become an idol
These Christians are more busy with these kind of things then with their God Who wants to circumcise their hearts and change them.

Image of the other side:
The world with her circumstances, and the Christians who only come together to search and worship the Lord and after that they go back into the world serving the people…(Isaiah 61: 1)

The light of the lighthouse stands for Jesus, He wants to do something new in the world, what no eye has seen and no ear has heard… religion, old structures and old forming will He leave behind… He wants to be there where people search Him and where people want to follow Him, because His Heart is burning for the lost souls.

The word of the Lord:

"Follow me, and come with me, to catch fish….
I see the lost world; I see it with pain in My heart….
But I also see the future behind these events….
I see de back of the embroidery
I love you My children, I have allowed you for a long time to go your own way.
But if you read my Word then you see that I didn't pay a lot of attention to the miracles that I performed…
I often said: Don't say a word… I already knew that many of them were looking for Me only for getting their own desires
Only few are reading My Fathers heart.. A heart that is burning for the lost souls… a heart that wants to proclaim freedom to the captives, heal the broken hearted, to let out into light those bound in the dark…. But He also wants to change the lives of the people.
To change a heart of stone into a heart of flesh.
A miracle is then only a small part of what I Am doing in peoples live… The result which I have in mind is much bigger.
And that result is: A new child in My kingdom…A temple available where I can come in with My presence
Don't let your desirers go after miracles and signs, do not rejoice about that, rejoice for your name is written in the Book of Life!
And follow Me, I need your legs to walk… your hands to bless… your mouth to proclaim My love… FOLLOW ME… and I will affirm you.
And you will do greater things then I when I walked on the earth.
Follow Me!
And I will be the Light that shines in and over a lost and dark world…."
Your loving Father

FOOTPRINTS

We often hear mention of types and shadows in the Bible. These are part of the figurative language the Lord uses all throughout scripture. In order to understand this figurative language, I believe it will help to consider exactly what are types and shadows. The use of the terms ‘type’ and ‘shadow’ are themselves figures of speech. And a figure of speech is a device or means of presenting information, written or spoken, through verbal images, figures or pictures.

What are verbal images? Analogies, metaphors, similes, symbols etc.
What skills are needed to use or understand them?
What peculiarities of types and shadows in the natural (in real life) are carried over into their use in the Bible?
What can this teach us about understanding God's word?

Shadows. Compare for example a photo and a silhouette. A photo shows a realistic likeness of its subject while a silhouette shows only the outline of the subject. The details of the outline are accurate but everything inside is obscured. Sometimes it takes a fair amount of skill or guesswork to identify the subject from looking at the silhouette. Now compare a silhouette with a shadow. Both are outlines of the subject; and both may be quite accurate in the details of the outline. A shadow however can be drastically out of proportion, it can be distorted by stretching or by foreshortening. It can be skewed at an odd angle. It may fall across an uneven or irregular surface whose details make the shadow hard to discern. Discerning a shadow is more difficult when you have very little light to go by. It often helps to have light from more than one source. Sometimes a shadow will be mixed in with shadows of other subjects. In these cases it helps to have a good knowledge of the subject when you try to pick out the shadow.

So when it comes to understanding the language in the bible, we find that the figures of speech are very often obscure. They are dark sayings or dark speech. ‘Shadows’ is actually a very accurate description. Picking out various shadows from a confused background can require a lot of skill. A particular person or thing can be used as one kind of shadow in one chapter and be used as another kind in the next chapter.

Types. One of the root meanings of type as used in Greek is ‘footprint’. Let’s consider the nature of footprints and the problems we sometimes have in reading them. A footprint is the print or impression that is left in the ground by a man or animal. It indicates the outline or shape of the foot that made it. The quality and readability of a footprint can vary greatly with the condition of the ground and the attitude of the subject. Prints on hard ground are very faint, on uneven ground, they can be distorted. On grassy soil they may be totally unnoticed. Also if the subject was running or turning at the time, the print can be greatly distorted. Commonly footprints can be mixed in, over or under other ones adding to the difficulty. A tracker has to develop great skill in reading footprints to be successful. Again, the more you are familiar with the subject that made the print, the better you can identify it. The more light you have during your investigation, the easier time you will have.

So it follows that the more you know of the things of God, the easier you can see what the types and shadows He uses in His word refer to. And the more light, illumination of the Holy Spirit, you have, the easier it is to see what His word means. It is the experience of receiving the quickened word that develops your understanding. Add to this the fact that every revelation of His inner truth can be the foundation of a further revelation. This is the maturity, or skill in the word referred to in Hebrews 5.13 For every one that useth milk [is] unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age*, ….*"

Another very important element in this skillfulness is the understanding that there can be and often are several themes active in a given passage of scripture. And there are multiple lessons that can be found in the same verses. This is because types and shadows can overlap. Just as footprints can overlap or be mixed up with others, and shadows can overlap and cross, so can the 'types and shadows' in the bible. So part of the skill in discerning these is to be able to filter out details that do not pertain to a particular theme or lesson. This sometimes means taking things out of context, and sometimes means adding missing details. So how do you do this with out adding to or subtracting from the word of God? Only as led by the Spirit. And as you receive revelation knowledge in this way, submit it to others for judgment, just as you would with any prophecy.

This means that not only are there multiple lessons in a passage of scripture, but there can be multiple interpretations of the passage, all correct.

For example, in the Story of Balaam and the Ass there are multiple lessons found. And it's all in how you explain the elements of the story to bring out the lesson you wish to give.

A. Balaam can be seen as a type of man in general. When the ass wanders off into the field, it speaks of man distracted by the things of this world. When the ass crashes into the wall of the vineyard, it speaks of the Lord chastising those in the Church [the vineyard]. When the ass comes to the narrow place, it speaks of truly following the path of holiness.
B. Balaam can be seen as a type of the Church coming into revival.
C. Balaam and the Ass together can be seen as a type of the Church coming into revival, here Balaam in the main body of the Church and the ass represents the prophetic ministry, which can see what the main body of the Church cannot.
D. Balaam can be seen as a type of false ministry contrasted with the ass, a type of true ministry. Then the story becomes one of role reversal. The prophet acting like an ass and the ass acting like a prophet.
E. This can also speak of the way true prophetic ministry is often rejected.
F. There is also a lesson in judging by the outward appearance. Someone you may think is an ass may suddenly begin to move in the prophetic. And some who commonly move in the prophetic, may act like asses when they are in the flesh.
G. The conflict portrayed when Balaam strikes the ass can be seen as a type of the prophesied 'Civil War in the Church'. In this case when the Lord opened Balaam's eyes, the conflict stopped.
H. The vision of the Angel of the Lord with drawn sword causing the ass to lay down speaks of intercession being made upon seeing the Lords Judgments in the Earth [the sword].

And so on. Each of these is a good sound interpretation, but does not exclude the others. The lessons and messages derived here just have to be presented at the right time and with the anointing of the Spirit to have the effect He intends.

Many examples can be made of these principles in other parts of the bible. They will come to us as we are open to the Spirit's teaching us and developing our skill in the word. The diet of meat, that belongs to them of full age, brings skill in the Word of Righteousness.

For California

"The Intentions of the Lord for California vs. false prophets"

[Posted from Upstream Ministries]
From a California prophetess who is a strong intercessor...

Dear Pris,

The Holy Spirit has released me to speak regarding California, with the posting today (9/22) of Robin Paisley's call to prayer, that out of the mouths of two witnesses, it may be confirmed.

Robin is hearing accurately as did Rosalie Snyder, who posted the submission entitled "The Big One", on www.etpv.org, posted by you on 9/20/05. The "big earthquake" will originate in the New Madrid Fault Zone, in Mississippi, not California. The risk to California will be from the seas, not the earth's shaking.

Some months ago I sought the Lord in intercession, seeking to know His Will for California so I could pray appropriately. This was during a season where He had called me to a time of extended and intense personal worship, so the connection between us was very strong. I determined in my mind, and purposed in my heart, that I would not let go of Him until He told me what His Will was.

He made it clear in no uncertain terms that His will for California did NOT include a devastating earthquake which split the state in half and caused part of it to drop off into the ocean. I will not go into the rest of that vision at this time, except to say, that He showed me His desire to lay down a grid work-like pattern of His substance, throughout this state. And after He showed me the grid, it crisscrossed the state, He pumped His life through it much like blood in a man's veins except it was white light instead of red blood, and I saw Him bringing California back to spiritual life. THAT IS HIS WILL for California, not death, not destruction.

I did what all of us should do when God reveals HIS WILL, I got in agreement with Him. We know the power of agreement, He tells us in His Word. And that day, the fate of this state was changed.

I have held fast to His vision, despite the many fear mongers who blurt out prophecies of doom without stopping to ask God whether what they are seeing is something "inevitable", or whether what they are being asked is to take spiritual steps to avert something that does not correspond with His Will.

Hear the Word of the Lord, prophets of Baal! This day your destruction has been foretold. Consider your words carefully, whether you sow seeds of fear, or seed for the Kingdom, for as you have sown, so shall ye reap.

Within 24 hours of the vision that God sent, confirmation came from two different prophetic sources, neither of whom I know personally or have ever had any contact with (Teddy LeShan Desta and the Fizers). Their postings at that time confirmed what God had shown me and what He had said, and confirmed that I had heard and seen accurately.

Earlier this week, God took another step in implementing His plan as southern California all the way through the Central Valley experienced a lightning storm.

This was NOT a "natural" storm; it lasted almost the entire night, with very little rain, as large and frequent bolts of lightning came down from Heaven to earth, with multiple lightning strikes and no loss of life or accidents reported. It was so intense, that believers and non-believers alike were asking, "This is God, what is He trying to say to us?" It was a supernatural storm sent from Heaven (the third Heaven, not the second heaven!)

What God was doing, quite simply, was sending the pulsing of His Power through this state, just as He had foretold in the vision. He's implementing His plan. That requires, His presence, His substance, in a way we have not previously seen.

So I speak to you, Robin Paisely and Rosalie Snyder, for you have stood fast and heard true the Word of the Lord, and He will reward the constancy and faithfulness of your hearts. Shakings there will be for California, but not unto death and destruction, if the people of God will step into their place and do what must be done. There will be some shakings because the pressure must be relieved, for it is now known in scientific circles that the failure to have appropriate stress relief through the correct movement of the tectonic plates is what caused the big Chilean earthquake.

For Dreams To Come True

Francis Frangipane

Perhaps we need to be shaken from our slumber to possess the promises of God! Amazingly, in spite of all the signs, wonders and warnings announcing that we are truly in the last days, Jesus also said there is a mysterious drowsiness that we have to overcome. Indeed, immediately after highlighting the various evidences of the end (see Matt. 24), He compares the church to virgins who "all got drowsy and began to sleep" (Matt. 25:5).

Virgins sleeping at the end of the age: This seems incomprehensible with all the signs in the heavens and wonders upon the earth, not to mention the increasing presence of Christ. Yet this phenomenon is something we each battle: the tendency to become spiritually drowsy and lose our focus as we wait for the Lord's return.

There is a subtle activity of the enemy that dulls our perception and seduces our zeal. Our vision takes a backseat to other less important aspects of life. From the beginning, the voice of Satan has had this lulling effect on mankind. Eve's excuse for disobedience was, "The serpent hath caused me to forget" (Gen. 3:13 Young's Literal Trans.).

This sense of spiritual forgetfulness, of drowsiness, is the cloud of blindness that we each must discern and overcome. It was in regard to this that the Holy Spirit spoke to my heart through the following dream.

There was a temple standing in an open field. My view of the temple was from its side, about 200 yards away. I could not see its front, yet it must have been completely open because great light flashed out from the inside; it pulsed like lightning, yet was solid like sunlight. The block of light issued straight out and I knew this light was the glory of God.

The temple was so close, I knew that with a little effort I could enter the glory of God. His Holy presence was clearly within my reach. There were also others directly in front of me that I recognized as people from church. Everyone seemed very busy. And while the temple and its light were visible and readily accessible to all, every head was bent downward and turned away from the light; each was occupied with other things.

I heard one voice say, "I have to do laundry." Another said, "I have to go to work." I could see people reading newspapers, watching televisions and eating. I was sure everyone could see the light if they wanted to - even more sure that we all knew His glory was near.

There were even a few people reading the Bible and praying, but everyone maintained the downward distance of their gaze; each had a barrier of some kind between themselves and the place of God's presence. No one, in fact, seemed capable of standing up, turning, and walking into the very near glory of God.

As I watched, suddenly my wife lifted her head and beheld the temple in the field. She stood and walked without pausing toward the open front. As she drew closer to the light, a garment of glory formed and thickened around her; the closer she went, the more dense the light surrounding her became until she stepped in front of the temple and turned completely toward the face of God.

Oh! How jealous I felt. My wife had entered the glory of God before me! At the same time I realized that there was nothing stopping me from approaching God's presence - nothing except the pile of things to do and responsibilities that, in truth, ruled my life more than the voice of God.

Pushing the weight of these pressures from me, I determined to rise and enter the temple myself. But, to my great regret, in my dream as I rose up, I suddenly woke up!

The longing and disappointment within me seemed unbearable. I had been so close to entering God's presence. How I wanted to enter the temple and be swallowed up in His glory! I cried, "Lord, why did You let me wake up?"

Instantly, the word of the Lord responded to my cry. He said, "I will not have My servant's life fulfilled by a dream. If you want your dream to come true, you have to wake up."

Breaking Passivity; Setting Priorities

Beloved, today, God is awakening us to the reality of His presence. The promises God gives us in the Scriptures must become more to us than a dream-like reality only reserved for the hereafter. Moses frequented the glory of God! Israel's 70 elders ate and drank in God's resplendent glory (Ex 24). Jesus unveiled God's glory on the Mount of Transfiguration! Paul says that we all can behold the glory of God and be transformed by it (2 Cor 3).

For this reason, the Scripture says, "Awake, sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you" (Eph. 5:14). If we truly want Christ to "shine" upon us, we must arise from the distractions that entomb us in lethargy and spiritual darkness.

Right at this moment, the presence of the Living God is near enough to hear the whisper of your heart. But if we want our dream of standing in the presence of God to come true, we must wake up.

Field Of Scattered Sheep

Jeannette Rodgers

Vision given July 2005
Word given August 27,2005
www.NewWineToday.org

Through vision, the spirit of the Lord has taken me to an open field. A large field full of beautiful sheep. As I am approaching this field walking slowly. It "appears" that the sheep are sleeping. At this thought I could not understand if the sheep are sleeping why am I sensing a tearing at my heart, and then the weeping begins to flow like a river. I begin to move quickly towards them but I am unable to get to all of them at once because they are "SCATTERED" throughout the field. I am led to the sheep "one by one" where I begin to notice that in fact, the precious sheep are not sleeping at all. They are wounded and unable to move, paralyzed, confused, and dismayed.

I begin to approach the sheep, slowly, carefully and tearfully.

The first one, his legs is broken. He cannot stand. His legs are broken by hurtful words, ridicule, control, abuse, rejection and feeling unloved.

The next one, he is bleeding, and there is a cut, very deep.
He is cut from the deception and lies and manipulation.

The next, he is so frail, I can see his ribs sticking out.
He has been left with no food, no water and unable to even get himself up to eat what is there and was once considered food is no longer edible.
He is severely malnourished.

The next one, he is paralyzed, unable to move.
He is numb from all that he has seen, and he is feeling alone and abandoned, knowing he normally moves by the Shepherds direction and with the flock.

The next is trying to get up and keeps falling down and when he gathers just enough strength to hold himself up he begins limping around in circles of confusion, not understanding or knowing how he could be left in the field with no shepherd to show him the way.

The next, someone has come along and taken the wool off of his back and left him and the rest of the sheep, only caring about the financial gain they will make from the wool and not the condition of their health.

The field was large and there were sheep everywhere, it looked like a field of cotton covering the ground. There were too many to tend to all at once. Before I can tend to the others I am being led to begin to bring these first few one by one into a barn where there is food, water and supplies for them. Each one being cared for individually so that once they recover they can travel in the flock together.

There are three people who are standing in the barn and "waiting" for the sheep to be brought in for care. We begin to mend the wounds one by one. It seems as though once the sheep were brought in and cared for, they QUICKLY recovered and begin to walk again on their own.

When did this happen and why I asked the Lord?
The response I receive was HIS WORD.

My precious sheep who have been scattered throughout the fields. I know where you are. I know My sheep. I will not leave you and I will come for you. Yeah, I say unto you this day Help is on the Way. Hold fast, Hang on, For I know the plans I have for you. I will not leave you without Food or Water. I will not leave you hungry or hurting. I will not leave you in distress and confusion. I will not leave you broken and discouraged. I will not leave you dwelling in abandonment, rejection, and hopelessness. I will never leave you NOR forsake you. FOR I AM your Shepherd and I will gather you from here and there to bring you to a place of Life and Recovery, where you will be restored, healed, delivered, and made whole in ME. I will lead you to Mount Moriah where provision will be waiting. I AM your direction, your protection, your deliverer, your healer, your comforter, and you are safe in ME.

Beloved, I will gather you from the fields in which you have been scattered. My sheep know My voice and I know My sheep. Do not doubt, Do not fear BUT trust, hold your peace, wait, for surely I say to you THIS DAY, I am gathering you ONE BY ONE to a place of refuge.

Ezekiel 34 (New King James Version)
Irresponsible Shepherds
1 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: “Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? 3 You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. 4 The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them. 5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill; yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them.”
7 ‘Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8 “As I live,” says the Lord GOD, “surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock”— 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! 10 Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more; for I will deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them.”
God, the True Shepherd
11 ‘For thus says the Lord GOD: “Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on a cloudy and dark day. 13 And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15 I will feed My flock, and I will make them lie down," says the Lord GOD. 16 "I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and feed them in judgment."

17 'And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats. 18 Is it too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture—and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet? 19 And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet."

20 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: "Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat and the lean sheep. 21 Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad, 22 therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 I will establish one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them—My servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd. 24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David a prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

25 "I will make a covenant of peace with them, and cause wild beasts to cease from the land; and they will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. 26 I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing; and I will cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be showers of blessing. 27 Then the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. 28 And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid. 29 I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they shall no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, nor bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore. 30 Thus they shall know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are My people," says the Lord GOD.'"

31 "You are My flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God," says the Lord GOD.

Focus on the Inner Man

Paul Ekemezie
Nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

Why did Jesus need to fast and stay in the wilderness for forty days and nights in order to commence His ministry, even though He had never committed any sin? It had to do with His inner (or spirit) man or soul. Truly, His inner person was a part of God Himself (the Rock cut out of the Mountain—Dan 2:45), but that part of God needed sufficient connection with the rest of the God Head (the Father or the Mountain) in order to manifest all the fullness of God. Before His baptism in the River Jordan, Jesus lived basically like a normal human being, but without sin. He did not appear much more spiritual than the other youths of His days—no too much praying or any thing like that. That was why He had much rougher time than His peers. Being in a poor background, and being that the evil one who ruled the whole world knew who He was, He faced unusual amount of difficulty as a youth.

Heb 5:7-8—[7]During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. [8]Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered.

You see, Jesus had it rough as a youth, but each time He cried to the Father concerning His problems, He was always heard because of His perfect submission to the will of the Father. Apparently, the Father did not want to instruct Him about the need to maintain unbroken communication as the only way to live above problems, in the face of world dominance by the evil one. This enabled Him to see the difference, so as to learn obedience, albeit the hard way. Jesus was also creating a lesson for His future followers.

1 Pet 2:21—To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

You must have read several prophetic words about the end-time company of the Josephs—the 144,000. For many years these people have been passing through the hardest of times. They cannot understand why they must always be on the wrong side of luck. Many of them have been suffering from seemingly incurable diseases. At a number of times many of them have wished to die. One thing that surprises them though is that whenever they think that they have reached the terminal point of their lives somehow a short-lived breakthrough appears. These are people that will bear Christ inside of them in this end time. God has allowed them to suffer like their Master in order to learn obedience. The time for their ministry has finally arrived.

When it was time for Jesus to begin His ministry, the Father instructed Him to meet John the Baptist in the River Jordan for baptism. This was followed immediately by the baptism of the Holy Spirit. The Father then moved Him by the Spirit into the wilderness where He was shown what continuous connection to the Father through prayer could do to His inner man, and the infinite possibilities that result through that. This became the source of His power all the days of His ministry.

The Goal of the Gospel

I believe that the goal of the gospel is the restoration of mankind to the exact image of God. This requires that Christians be transformed into the divine nature. The nature of a man/woman resides in the inner being or soul. Also, the experiences of a man/woman in this world depend on the inner being. A person cannot be sick if the inner being is not (spiritually) sick, irrespective of the number and kinds of bacteria, viruses, fungi, snake, scorpion, murderers, wild animals or whatever around him/her. That explains why Jesus could be in the wilderness for forty days and nights. That is also why Jesus healed many people simply by forgiving their sins (that is, freeing their inner being from sins).

Gal 4:19—My dear children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you.

Eph 4:11-15— [11]It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, [12]to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up [13]until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.
[14]Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. [15]Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ.

The goal of Paul's ministry was that Christ be formed inside his disciples. The Lord has also appointed the various ministers of the Church for the same purpose of attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. Regrettably, the Church lost focus and got involved in all kinds of things—politics, business, etc. For example, some churches specialize in teaching people how they could get rich by paying their tithe, without realizing that a person who attains to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ does not need all these paraphernalia called money or wealth and yet could get whatever he/she wants instantaneously. Jesus never had even a dime in His pocket, yet He could solve any problem instantaneously. When He wanted to ride into Jerusalem on the best transport possible in His time, He never asked for tithe in order to get the transport. He simply gave the command and rode into Jerusalem on the transport He wanted.

In order to grow up into Christ, from whichever level in the spirit one currently is, every effort must be directed at the inner man. The difference in Jesus' life before and during His ministry was determined by His inner being. Before His ministry, He focused little attention on the strength of His inner being. In order to even commence His ministry, Jesus was led by the Spirit into wilderness where He worked on His inner being. All the days of His ministry, Jesus knew that He could never minister on any day without having worked on His inner being before the breaking of the day.

Old versus New (Inner) Man

Col 3:5-11—[5]Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. [6]Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, [7]in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.
[8]But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. [9]Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, [10]and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him, [11]where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

Every human being that wants to grow up into Christ begins from the old (inner) man. When the person is born again, a new (inner) man is born, albeit in its infancy. The two natures now begin to struggle for control of the human being, as can be seen in Rom 7:14-24. The human being has a role to play in determining which of the two natures gains dominance.

The old man is made up of many members or demons—fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, covetousness, anger, malice, blasphemy, filthy language, lies, etc. These are demons the new man that is created by god when a person is born again must contend with.

Eph 4:17-24:

The New Man
[17]This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, [18]having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; [19]who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

[20]But you have not so learned Christ, [21]if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: [22]that you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, [23]and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, [24]and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Col 3:12-17:

[12]Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; [13]bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. [14]But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. [15]And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. [16]Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. [17]And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

It is obvious from the preceding passage that the new man is also made up of many members. The more the members of the new man that are available in a person, the stronger the new man, and hence the person. However, the old man, being much more established in the person than the new man, will not easily allow the members of the new man to come in. In fact, the house cannot contain all of them. One must give way in order for the other to expand. The fall of man happened when Adam and Eve favored what we now call the old man to come in and crowd out what has now become the new man.

John 3:30—He must increase, but I must decrease.

The principle that governs the growth of the new man is that the old man must decrease. The person involved must work to decrease the old man. How?

Rom 8:13—For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Learn From Jesus

Matt 11:28-30—[28]"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. [29]Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30]For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Any person who desires to grow up into Christ must learn how He lived His life from the day He was baptized in the River Jordan. Jesus prayed a lot, and through prayer He received from the Father the power and virtue that was necessary for His life and ministry. He taught His followers His pattern of prayer, popularly called “the Lord’s prayer”. It is through the pattern shown in the Lord’s Prayer that a person works to kill the members of the old man and then introduce and strengthen new members of the new man.

Matt 6:9-13—[9]"This, then, is how you should pray:

> "'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, [10]your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. [11]Give us today our daily bread. [12]Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. [13]And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Jesus’ pattern of prayer begins with hallowing the name of God, that is, praise. This may or may not be by singing.

Psa 100:3-5—[3] Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.
[4] Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name.
[5] For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Picture yourself as entering the throne of the King of the universe. Do you go in anyhow? Would you not begin to praise His holy name, no matter your current circumstances? Even if you are having problems, when you remember that the reason why you have problems is the presence of the old man in you, you will do well not to project your problems above praising Him.

The next item in the Lord's Prayer is to pray for the kingdom of God to come. The kingdom of God is available wherever God's authority is absolutely recognized. This means where the word of God is totally obeyed. This prayer calls for total obedience to the word of God, starting with the person praying, to possibly all mankind. It is at this point that the person praying should confess his/her allegiance to the authority of God, which means being in love with the commandments of God. Psalm 119 contains King David's prayers concerning God's laws.

Confessing to God about one's love for His word, which means desire to totally obey God, is very important. This kind of prayer greatly impacts the inner man. If a person prays effectively before the beginning of a new day, as the person goes through the day, the love expressed to God concerning His laws will definitely control the inner man, out of which proceeds the issues life (Prov 4:23). The laws or word of God is actually a part of the Holy Spirit that is visible (John 6:63). Similarly, disobedience to God's word, or sin, is a part of the evil spirit that is visible. For many years evil spirit had dominance in the life of a man. As the man prays expressing love for the word of God, the Holy Spirit (members of the new man) will begin to replace the evil spirits (members of the old man) in the heart.

The next item in the Lord's Prayer is for the will of God to be done on earth as it is done in heaven, starting with the person(s) praying. This is a prayer of surrender to the will of God. A person should be able to tell God, "I want to do your will O God" (Heb 10:7). King David said similar prayer in Psalm 119. This prayer point confesses to God that the person does not want spirit of disobedience (the old man) in his/her heart, but of course the spirit of obedience (the new man). By this prayer point the person invites God to intervene and destroy specific members of the old man from the heart.

"Give us today our daily bread." That is the next prayer point in the Lord's Prayer.

John 6:26-28—[26]Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, you are looking for me, not because you saw miraculous signs but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. [27]Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal of approval."

This is the word that the Lord Jesus has for those who go to God just to ask for bread and butter, or for any other thing of this world. That is living after the flesh. The people involved are not interested in the miracle of making impossibility possible in their lives. The Lord admonishes us to focus on food that endures to eternal life, spiritual food that is. So, when we ask God to give us today our daily bread, we should be referring to spiritual food for the strengthening of the inner man. Everybody needs a handout of spiritual food everyday. There is no one so rich that s/he does not need to receive spiritual food each day. Even Jesus so much relied on daily receipt of spiritual food from the Father.

John 6:31-35—[31]Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"
[32]Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. [33]For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."
[34]"Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread."

[35]Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.

Here Christ says that He Himself is the bread you should ask for; not the physical body or tent that housed Christ, but the Spirit that dwelt within the body. You can eat the Spirit and you can also drink it. He is the fruit of the tree of life (Gen 2:9; 3:24). He gives divine life to a human body, bequeathing it with the divine nature. A person that possesses the divine nature is a son of God indeed. That is the person that can live without sin. For such a person, no problem is impossible to solve through divine power.

Eph 3:14-19—[14]For this reason I kneel before the Father, [15]from whom his whole family[a] in heaven and on earth derives its name. [16]I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, [17]so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, [18]may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, [19]and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Paul prayed that God may continue to strengthen the Ephesians in their inner man, obviously by giving them their daily spiritual food everyday, through the Holy Spirit. Since the spiritual food was the spirit of Christ, it would lead to the formation of Christ in the person's inner man. As this feeding on spiritual food continues everyday, more and more divine attributes would form within the person, until the person is filled with all the fullness of God. The person now becomes an exact image of God, like Christ. Miracles galore!

2 Pet 1:3-4—[3]His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. [4]Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

By now you must have noticed that God's main concern about us is that we may attain to divine life and godliness, not all these worldly things we give priority to. That is why Jesus said that we should seek first the kingdom and righteousness of God, and every other thing will fall into line (Matt 6:33). The prayer point about giving us today our daily bread is very crucial in growing up into Christ. Knowledge of the word of God and His promises concerning the divine life and godliness are very essential in this prayer point. It is by properly presenting to God His own promises that we may receive the spiritual food we need for each day. As we continue to daily feed on spiritual food that God gives we begin to participate in the divine nature; naturally, we begin to increase in holiness, moving towards perfection.

The next prayer point in the Lord's Prayer is to ask God to forgive us our debts, having forgiven in our hearts those that offended us. Forgiveness of sins is by means of the blood or divine life of Jesus; that is why this prayer point comes after we have received our spiritual food for the day, which is the life of Christ. Since the life or blood of Christ is now available, we can begin to confess the sins that are hidden in our hearts as members of the old man. The Holy Spirit or blood of Christ will blot out the evil spirit that has been hidden in our hearts.

Psa 66:18-20—[18] If I had cherished sin in my heart, Lord would not have listened; [19] but God has surely listened and heard my voice in prayer.
[20] Praise be to God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld his love from me!

The time has now come for the human being to present his/her many problems. Having established the kingdom of God in the inner man, it is now time for all other things. The reason why the prayer points above must come before the other things is contained in Psa 66:18 quoted above. If the sin hidden in the heart is not removed, the Lord would not listen to what we say about our many problems.

Dan 10:12-14—[12] Then he continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. [13] But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia. [14] Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come."

Daniel needed to achieve spiritual solution to a problem. He humbled himself in prayer and fasting, but the solution could not appear. The prayer and fasting dragged on. It was after three weeks that the solution came. The angelic messenger that brought the solution now explained the reason for the delay. The solution he looked for was for the people of Israel and what delayed the prayer was evil spirits that existed in the location of the people of Israel. Even though God desired to answer his prayer the very moment he began the prayer, because of his personal standing before God, evil spirits that were connected with the people of Israel blocked the prayer. Those evil spirits or sins had to be taken care of first before the solution Daniel desired for his people could be delivered. It took Daniel three weeks to take care of the sin of his people through prayer. There is a lesson for us in that.

The last prayer point in the Lord's Prayer is, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one". This is all about the various problems and temptations of life. They are the last things the Lord wants to hear. If you did a good work in the other prayer points, you will receive solution to all your problems. However, most often it may take many days, weeks or months, just like in the case of Daniel.

1 John 3:21-22—[21]Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God [22]and receive from him anything we ask, because we obey his commands and do what pleases him.

Focus On The Person

Yvonne Walsh

My children, sometimes I will minister to you through the study of My Word, and other times in other ways. There are times when I want you to sit in My Presence and know Me. Just as there are different ways to relate to those you love, so in My Presence. Sometimes I want you to praise Me, sometimes just sit quietly and listen to My heartbeat, sometimes listen while I love you. Sometimes just take the time out to enjoy My company.

Relationships require a focus on the PERSON—not their assets, their words, their deeds, but the PERSON. My Word is an essential “resource” and you do well to read it and know it, but ALSO learn to focus on MY PERSON, so that you may receive My love and know My care and attention.

I love your response to Me, but I need you to look Me in the eye and not be shy or awkward in My Presence. You need to know My love, My voice, My attention to you in every detail of your life. Stop and smell the roses. Don’t be so focused on DOING that you miss the BEING. What lover would do that, and miss out on the joy, yea, the ecstasy of the love relationship. Deep love needs TIME spent in one another’s company, sharing, talking, being face to face, heart to heart. THIS is the better part—and Mary knew it. Other things are not unimportant, but this is MORE important, for I desire to love you, and for you to know that love and ENJOY ME.

Heart to heart as well as mind to mind. Let Me soothe you, nurture you, care for you. Relax and allow Me to lead you in the dance of life—two dancers cannot both lead! I adore you. I adore My people and I want them to know that.

Love has become so cheap, and so casual an emotion that it is losing its meaning and impact. Real love is strong, faithful and very powerful. It is passionate and highly tuned to the other. Don’t confuse love with socializing Sit in My Presence. Focus on MY Person. This is neither mystical or immoral! That is the enemy’s lie. I am not a perverted Being as he is, so My motives are totally pure. Allow My love to shine on you, as the sun shines on the earth. Sunshine =- Sonshine—beaming daily—24/7—on the world and into ready hearts. Regardless of man’s sin, or the evil perpetrated by those under the enemy’s control, My love is a constant, “given” and I love man—in the realest, truest sense of the word.

FOUNDATIONS
As you find your place and look over the spot,
Remember My Words as you survey the lot.
Make sure your foundation is level and set.
It's not time to gamble or time to bet.
I want you sure, I want you stable.
I will equip you well so that you are able.
So remember to build on what I have given.
In a sure strong place, those nails were driven.
Build on scripture, and build on relations, intimacy with Me reaching out to nations.
Build on My character and integrity to boot.
This will assure that you will bring in the loot,
Of what was lost from days long past.
I renew all things so they will last.
Your foundation needs repaired
From what was snared.
Take your time and bring to balance.
Set a straight line and point your lance.
The victory is yours to build and raise up.
So gather the resources and swallow the cup.

1 Kings 6:37-38 NLT

Loving Without Grasping

LOVING WITHOUT GRASPING
Learn to love by letting go. There is a yearning of the soul that desires to possess that which does not belong to you. My love does not covet, it sets free. Give those that you love into My care. Yes, you have heard that you give roots and wings to your loved ones. Grant them the stability of knowing you are there for them and then release them one step at a time to learn to crawl, walk, run and then fly into their destinies in Me.

Remember that birds are flighty. If you chase a bird it will fly away. As you yearn with My Spirit over those you care for, keep the palm of your hand open and like a bird in flight, let them freely come and go in your life as they will. Remain in loving watch care over their lives and provide an open palm of a warm safe shelter for their hearts. Stay faithful and you will always have friends no matter what age.

Phil 2:3-8 NLT
Don't be selfish; don't live to make a good impression on others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourself. Don't think only about your own affairs, but be interested in others, too, and what they are doing. Your attitude should be the same that Christ Jesus had. Though he was God, he did not demand and cling to his rights as God. He made himself nothing; he took the humble position of a slave and appeared in human form.

MELTED FOR BREAKTHROUGH
My beloved, I gave you promises that you have not yet fully occupied. You have been pressing in and believing Me through a great deal of frozen territory. Through the passing of time, the warmth of My embrace has warmed your circumstances and has yielded an unseen thaw from the inside out. Just like defrosting a freezer, there is a moment of breakthrough when the ice has turned to slush and suddenly the freeze gives away. That which holds you back from possessing the promise is breaking up. This is the joy of My breakthrough upon your enemies. Look now, for the joy of birthing comes.

Even as you have seen your heart melt with the breakthrough of tears. And even as the waters burst before the baby comes forth, know that birthing is nigh. This is a sudden birth, get ready to hold the birth of your promise. Be assured a baby is unseen until the moment it appears. You will hold that baby in your arms and feel the deep contentment of fulfillment.

2 Sam 5:20 AMP
And David came to Baal-perazim, and he smote them there, and said, The Lord has broken through my enemies before me, like the bursting out of great waters. So he called the name of that place Baal-perazim [Lord of breaking through].

From Rags To Riches

Danny Korakas

From Rags To Riches - A Cinderella Story / A Prophetic Word For Those Who Are Widows.

But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God." (Ruth 1:16)

Many times our hearts are warmed by stories that end in a "Cinderella" type way. What is so wonderful about this story is that it is true. It is an exciting story of hope and provision. It is a story told by God Himself to give us assurance and confidence that He will meet our needs. The story of Ruth takes place in the time of the Judges in biblical history. As I stated in another article, this was not a time in history in which we see much spiritual growth. Actually, it was quite the opposite. We see the nation of Israel backsliding as it partook of the worldy influences of its neighbors.

The first step in this wonderful story is that Ruth chose to follow Naomi and the God she served. There was something in Naomi's life that must have been attractive and inspiring to Ruth, even in the midst of all the tragedy that they would have to endure. Before we go any further, I feel it is important to understand the prophetic "types" that Boaz, Naomi, and Ruth (the main characters of this story) represent. Boaz - the "kinsman redeemer", represents Christ our - Redeemer. Naomi, represents the Holy Spirit in that she led Ruth (a gentile, to her redeemer), and Ruth who represents you and I.

"Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of BETHLEHEM, Judah, went to dwell in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. The NAME of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. And they went to the country of Moab and REMAINED there. (Ruth 1:1-2)

One thing interesting about the book of Ruth is the precision and purposeful care in listing everyone by name. There seems to be a concerted effort to mention every person in this story by personal name except one, whom we will read about later. Another, is that the name "Elimelech" means: "he who trusts in God." Bethlehem means: "House of Bread." So here we have a man who's name means to literally "Trust in God", moving from the "House of Bread" to the pagan land of Moab! Even in the midst of famine conditions (both naturally and spiritually) we can have assurance that God will meet our every need. He has PROMISED in His Word to not only teach and comfort us by His Holy Spirit, but to feed, clothe, and to provide shelter to all who TRUST in Him. (spiritual and natural provision) Elimelech did not live up to his name, failed to see the house of bread before him, and moved his family to a land that was founded on sin and rebellion.

Moab as you may remember was the product of incest and deceit. After Lot and his daughters escaped Sodom, his daughters spoke amongst themselves and the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man the earth to come into us as is the custom of all the earth. Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him and preserve the lineage of our father." (see Gen. 19) The fruit of this incestuous act of deceit would give birth to Moab, the son of the eldest daughter, and Ammon to the younger daughter. The ancestors of these two brothers would plague the Israelites and the people of God to this very day.

The bible goes on to say that the sons of Elimelech and Naomi took for themselves Moabite women as wives. It wasn't long before Naomi's husband and two sons died within the ten years that they were living in Moab. Naomi arose with her two daughters in-law to tell them that she was going to return to Bethlehem because the Lord had visited His people by giving them bread. Naomi spoke to her daughters in-law to, "return each to your mothers house. The Lord deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. The Lord grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." So she kissed them and they lifted up their voices and wept. And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people." But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? Turn back my daughters, go - for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, If I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the lord has gone against me!" Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. And she (Naomi) said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law... (Ruth 1:3-17)

Ruth made a choice to follow Naomi. a "type" of the Holy Spirit to her God and home. Ruth was confident that the Lord, in whom she had come to trust through Naomi's witness , would take care of her future and fulfill her hope. Orpah, on the other hand, returned to the "world" around her including their "gods." Ironically, we never read or hear of Orpah again. Naomi tested the commitment of both of these young women as the Holy Spirit will with us. It is of tremendous importance to understand that God WILL test us. This validates our commitment and confirms VICTORY and testimony in our lives. It was only after Ruth was DETERMINED to FOLLOW after Naomi, that she was permitted to enter into the House of Bread. The decision of Ruth to follow after God would change her life forever as well as ours as we will see later!

"The Lord repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge." (Ruth 2:12)

As soon as Ruth arrived in Bethlehem (House of Bread), she went out into the field of Boaz to glean for herself and Naomi among the reapers. Boaz, upon meeting Ruth in "his" field instructed Ruth not to glean from another field and to, "stay close by MY young women." Boaz assured Ruth that as long as she was in HIS field and among HIS people, that nobody would harm her. This is a wonderful picture of Father's PROVISION and PROTECTION. Ruth would respond to Boaz, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant..."

Ruth returned to Naomi with an abundance of provision and purpose! Ruth told Naomi of all the wonderful news of her day, and Naomi would respond, "Blessed be he of the Lord, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said, " This man is RELATION of ours, one of our CLOSE RELATIVES." Chapter 3 continues with Naomi telling Ruth, "Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact He is WINNOWING barley tonight at the THRESHING FLOOR. Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor..." (Ruth 3:2-3).

Ruth obeyed and said, "All that you say to me I will do." The Holy Spirit in our lives is continually giving us direction to go to the threshing floor to meet our kinsman-redeemer. The "Cinderella story" begins here, with Ruth's OBEDIENCE to follow the direction of Naomi. The bible says that Ruth obeyed without a second thought! This really is what PURPOSE and destiny is all about. We read and hear so much today about a "purpose-full life." We have books, resources, and conferences attempting to tell us what our purpose is. This generation more than any other in history is searching for its identity and purpose. Most are going through the only LIFE they will ever have, just to hanging on and nothing eternal to live or die for. The answer for purpose WILL NOT be found in a book or a conference. The formula has always been the same - They are the words of Jesus to "Follow Me." Those who choose to follow Jesus in obedience to the leading of the Holy Spirit will find destiny and hands full of purpose!

"Now it happened at midnight that the man (Boaz) was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet. And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your WING, for you are a close relative." Then he said, "Blessed are you of the Lord, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich. And now my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request...Now it is true that I am a close relative; however there is a relative CLOSER than I. (Ruth 3:8-12)

This "closer relative" is the one I was talking about earlier. Out of all the names mentioned in this book along with the importance of this individual as one who might perform the duty of the "CLOSE RELATIVE"(vs.13), you would think a name would be mentioned or attached to this person. Prophetically, the name does not belong to a person! This "close relative" is RELIGION! (I believe this is why a personal name is not applied) In Chapter 4 the book closes with Boaz going to the city gate, "and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by."(4:1) This "close relative" was willing to redeem Ruth as long as there was something in it for him (religious system). But as soon as the RELATIONSHIP was offered with Ruth, a rejection quickly came. This is exactly what religion desires! It wants and desires what you can GIVE it financially, in attendance and in dead works without RELATIONSHIP. This close relative said, "I cannot redeem it for myself. (religion can never redeem) Buy it for yourself. (see Ruth 4:5-8) And this is what Jesus, our Redeemer did.

He PAID the ultimate price with His life. It was Boaz that desired Ruth stay the night at His feet. It was here at the THRESHING FLOOR that Ruth would sit at the feet of one who would redeem her without condition. Boaz covered her with his shawl and generously provided and blessed her. The question of why a wealthy man like Boaz would sleep on the threshing floor is easy to answer: It was a priority for Boaz to watch and protect His HARVESTED crop! Boaz was protecting his harvest and the labor of those who "worked in the field." Boaz stayed CLOSE to what was His, so that no THEIF of robber would steal any part of what was His.

"So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife..." Ruth, a gentile (you and me) in a far and away pagan land followed Naomi (a type of the Holy Spirit) to Boaz, her kinsman-redeemer (a type of Christ) where she found purpose and destiny at his feet. As her bridegroom he imparted into her a future that would effect every preceeding generation up to this day. For you see, Ruth would give birth to Obed, who was the father of Jesse, who would be the father of King David. Out of whose lineage the Christ, Messiah would be born. This should give us tremendous hope, for we now realize that this poor and widowed woman from Moab would be brought into the Messianic lineage. This is the picture of God's grace -- to take us as sinners from rags to riches!

Any of you who may be reading this, who are widowed or have been abandoned by a spouse: I have given you Ruth as an example and model of My desire for your life. I know your pain and have walked with you as I reached for your hand. All I ask is that you close your hand in mine, and allow Me to lead you into the life that I have laid out for you. It is not over my precious one. We have many things yet to do together My child. There are many like Ruth who need to came back to the House of Bread. Lie at My feet and I will cover you and give you rest. I will comfort you and call you My own. I will give you hands full of purpose and provision - this is My promise. This is My Word.

This is a tremendous story of "rags to riches" through a woman's desire to sit at her redeemers feet. It was here that the "alabaster box" of a broken life was broken at the feet of Jesus by a broken woman. Religion has been a close relative for many, for to many years now. This close relative will demand much from you and give you little in return. This IS a close relative if you find yourself striving for spiritual approval. Religion will have you in program after program, singing in the choir and every function there is to sing in, committee after committee, teaching class after teaching class and so BUSY that you have no personal and intimate RELATIONSHIP with your kinsmen redeemer. Everything is DEAD WORKS without a love relationship with Jesus. The bible says that many will come to Him in the last of days and proclaim all of their great "WORKS," only to hear, "Depart from Me. I never KNEW you." Our Redeemer is desiring an intimate relationship with you today. He desires to give us purpose and provision, just as he did Ruth. The word for you who are seeking their purpose in life is simple. "Follow Me!" No man, book, or formula can give you purpose in life - it comes from Him who designed it and He desires to lead you into it!

From Revelation To Revolution

Chip Brogden

"Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar...(Joel 2:17a)."
I must admit that I would much prefer reading what someone else has to say about this particular time in history as opposed to writing about it myself. Yet I am compelled to write, due in part to my frustration that no one else seems to be saying the things that need to be said. I do not want to be an echo, but a voice; as such, I am constrained to put forth, as clearly as I can, what the Lord is saying to me. This is done with fear and trepidation, but woe upon me if I do not speak the things which, I believe, the Lord has entrusted to me as a stewardship to the Body of Christ. May God give us grace.

DISCERNING THE PRESENT TIME

For over a year now the Lord has been dealing with us concerning issues related to prayer for God's Kingdom and God's Will, and we have likewise presented these themes to the Body of Christ. We have sensed a call to a higher dimension of prayer than is commonly alluded to, and we have responded to that call - haltingly at first, and more vigorously as time passed. Meanwhile, we have repeatedly called the Church to view prayer, not as a means towards our own ends, but as THE means through which God's End is achieved: and that End is "in the dispensation of the fullness of times to gather together into one ALL THINGS IN CHRIST, whether they be things in heaven, or things in earth, even IN HIM (Ephesians 1:10)."

Last year I began writing a book. As of now it remains unpublished and incomplete. Perhaps people are not ready for it. Perhaps I am not ready for it. Maybe it will never be published. But portions of it have been posted to the website, and here is an excerpt:

"When we begin to pray for God's Will and God's Kingdom we are standing on behalf of the entire Church as overcomers. We are doing two things. On the positive side, we are joining together with God and agreeing with Him, praying in line with His eternal purpose in Christ. "As in heaven, so on earth." On the negative side, we are asking for the elimination of this present evil age, this rebellious generation, and all that fails to give Christ the preeminence - both within the Church and outside of the Church."

I did not release what I had written next, but as I go back and look at it again it seems very appropriate to the season we have entered, so now I will share it with you:

"This [praying for the Will and the Kingdom] is not a frivolous thing. It is calling for a revolution in the way things are. It is commanding all that IS to make room for all that IS TO COME. It is calling for the end of all things pertaining to man, this present world, and the defeated devil. "Thy Kingdom come." In this Kingdom Christ alone has authority and power. Think of the implications. For this to be realized it will mean either the elimination or the subjection of every earthly government to Jesus Christ. It will mean the eradication of every religious institution, denomination, movement, group, cult, false religion, doctrine - anything which fails to give the Son the preeminence, and certainly those things which misrepresent, malign, distort, or bear false witness to the Lord Jesus. It will also mean the abolition of everything pertaining to the kingdom of darkness, every principality, power, and eventually, satan himself. The souls of men that refuse to submit to Christ must also be judged and dealt with once and for all. The Creation which groans and travails in pain must be purified by fire, liberated, and recreated again. We are talking about a major upheaval.

"I wonder if we really grasp the import of this kind of praying. I doubt if we really perceive how critical this sort of prayer is to God's purpose."

Friends, that word was too strong for last year, or last month, but it is dead-on for this present moment. It is the kind of word that will be easily misunderstood and misconstrued, the sort of thing that can get me into trouble with some people, but it accurately reflects what I perceive is happening and is about to happen now.

On September 2, 2001, nine days before the September 11th attack, I wrote the following to our mailing list:

"To get to wherever we are going will require a deeper pressing in to the Lord than what we have experienced up until now. It is too easy to become familiar with the Truth and reduce it down to a system or a teaching instead of Life and experience. It has to be pressed into, taken violently, and held tenaciously so that it will become part of who we are, not a commodity that we purchase at wholesale and distribute to others at retail."

I said all of that to say this: it certainly seems that we are now thrust into a situation in which we will have to put into practice everything the Lord has been saying to us, whether we like it or not. IF WE WILL NOT PRESS INTO THE LORD, HE WILL PRESS HIMSELF UPON US. The Lord has very definitely been preparing us as Esther, bringing us into the Kingdom "for such a time as this", when there is so much at stake. We are shocked and saddened at the terrible events which have exploded onto the world scene, but we are also aware that the Lord has been preparing us spiritually well in advance of this season. He has given us something to say, and a means through which it can be communicated to a large number of believers scattered across the face of the earth. Thus, our own calling and mission has been crystallized by these events, and more than ever we reaffirm our commitment to seek the Lord and bring revealed Truth to the Body of Christ as He quickens us to do so.

If there was ever any doubt before, there is no doubt now: we are at war, and not just in a literal sense, but in a much deeper, spiritual sense. Of course there has always been a war between God and satan, light and darkness, good and evil. We do not want to minimize that. But even more now than ever we are at war between things the way they have been up until now, and things the way they will be. In other words, overcomers will be raised up during these days, and others will stumble. Some will grow in the knowledge of God and get aligned with His Kingdom, and some will become offended and fall away altogether. These are "perilous times" (II Timothy 3:1).

We are in such a time as spoken of by the angel of Revelation 22:10-12:

"Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this Book: for the time is at hand. He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work shall be."

We see here a further polarization between the righteous and the unrighteous, a very pressing conflict between those who will stand for God's Will and God's Kingdom, the preeminence of Christ, and those forces at work that would render powerless the Testimony of Jesus by keeping the saints focused on the natural, the flesh-and-blood, the carnal, and the temporal; particularly those elements and factions within the Church itself that do not accurately represent the heart and mind of God, but claim to. Organized Religion claims to represent Christ in the earth, but if that representation is faulty then it is almost as bad as having no representation at all, and in many respects it is preferable to the enemy, for now he is able to distort God as God and reduce Him down to the level of our own vain imagination. The Testimony of Jesus does not consist of what we think or say about Jesus; it is the revelation of Christ as He IN FACT IS. To manifest HIM as He is, in life as well as words, is to properly bear the Testimony. The problem is that the Church claims to have the Testimony of Jesus when they are in fact representing something which is NOT Jesus, but is actually far removed from the revelation of Christ.

We must be ever jealous over the Revelation of Christ and the Testimony of Jesus. Those who know their God will be strong, and do exploits (Daniel 11:32b), while evil men and seducers, in the Church and outside of the Church, will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived (II Timothy 3:13). Thus, because the days are evil, we as the Church must be diligent to watch and pray:

"See then that you walk perfectly and straightly, not as fools, but as wise, and make up for lost time, because the days are evil. No longer be ignorant, but understand what the Will of the Lord is (Ephesians 5:15-17, paraphrased)."

I see three applications for us here:

1. "Walk perfectly and straightly, not as fools, but as wise." A cursory study of the Book of Proverbs tells us quite a bit about a fool, and there are basically two things that characterize a fool - he believes everything he hears, and he speaks everything he thinks. According to this definition, the Internet, the news media, and the Church are full of foolish people. By way of contrast, a wise man does not listen to everything, and does not take anything to heart without deliberating over it first. The way you see the world today: is it based upon what everyone else is saying, or have you heard from God yourself? "Circumspectly" could be defined as "leaving no margin for error; exact." It is not just a happy-go-lucky, "whatever will be will be" walk.

2. "Redeem the time," which I have paraphrased as, "Make up for lost time" could be alternatively paraphrased as "quit wasting time" or "make the most of the time that remains." We have needed an adjustment in our priorities for a long time. We have majored on minor things. The various demands made upon us in an evil day need to be triaged and classified into urgent, important, and not important. We do not have the luxury of doing as we please with our lives. If we mean business with God it will require some upheaval in our schedule and daily "to do" list.

3. "No longer be ignorant, but understand what the Will of the Lord is." We have steadily proclaimed to the Church God's Ultimate Intention of "all things in Christ", which involves a decreasing of all things so that He may increase, thus having the preeminence of all things. I am absolutely distressed at how few saints comprehend this. In an evil day we cannot afford to be ignorant or in the dark as to God's Purpose and Desire. There is enough material on Watchman.Net to keep you occupied in this study for the rest of your life. It is THERE, waiting for you to take full advantage of it. More importantly, the Holy Spirit WITHIN and the Anointing, Who is Christ, is ready to teach us all things, if only we will listen (I John 2:27)! There is no excuse for being willfully stupid or ignorant. Furthermore, if we have not grasped God's universal, strategic Will, we will find it next to impossible to cooperate with His specific, tactical Will for us individually.

Brothers and sisters, it is time to seek the Lord. I believe the urgency of the situation is real. We truly are living in a different world today than we lived in just less than two weeks ago. This is a different world, and a different Church, when the hearts and motives of many will be revealed by the Lord Himself for who and what they are (Luke 2:35). Now a time has come in which we are being weighed in the balance, when things that need to be shaken will be shaken, when silver will be purified from the dross and wheat will be separated from chaff. It is true of the world in general, but I am mostly talking to the Church right now. We just see it more evidently and clearly in the world, but there is much more to be judged within the Church than there is to be judged within the world. These are, indeed, "perilous times" for all concerned.

OUR RESPONSE TO WHAT HAPPENS IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN KNOWING WHY IT HAPPENS

Many within the Church are saying, "This happened because. . ." and then they go on to postulate their theories. Some say God did it, some say the devil did it, some say man did it. May I suggest that understanding why it happened is not the issue we should be concerned with. Instead, the Church should be saying, "This happened! Now how are we, as the people of God, going to conduct ourselves? How are we, as the Body of Christ, going to respond to this?" You see, our response to what happens is much more significant than the events that trigger our response.

To illustrate, consider the situation David faced when he and his men returned to Ziklag and discovered their village was burned and all their wives, children, and possessions had been carried away by the Amalekites (I Samuel 30). The Bible says, "David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters." In our grief, we want to know why, and we want to hold someone - God, the devil, our leaders, or our enemies - responsible.

But this is a defining moment in David's life. It is what makes him a king even though he does not yet have a throne or a crown. David could have begun to analyze the situation by torturing himself with paralyzing questions like we have been asking: "Why did God allow this to happen? Is God punishing us for something we have done wrong? Is this His judgment? Is this just a random case of man's inhumanity to man? Or is the devil trying to come against us?"

No! In the midst of his own grief, distress, pain, and uncertainty, the Scripture says, "But David encouraged himself in the Lord His God." This is one of my favorite passages of Scripture, because it lets me know that my encouragement is in GOD, and I am not dependent on someone giving me all the correct answers; I do not have to have someone come along and help me process the situation and restore my faith. I am thankful for encouragement when I receive it, but my strength is not based on the praise or the criticism of man! I do not need a prophet or oracle or minister or pastor or anyone else to analyze and interpret WHY a tragedy occurred. THE LORD IS THE STRENGTH OF MY HEART. And the Lord is your Strength as well, a Rock, and a High Tower.

David consulted with the Lord, and basically told God, "You have my attention! Now what do I do? What's next? How do You want me to respond to this situation?" And the Lord gave David His marching orders, and eventually everything was restored. We are not saying that understanding why things happen is unimportant, only that knowing why they happen is of secondary importance; of primary importance is how we respond to what happens. We can still see the Lord at work in all things, even if we do not have all our questions answered (Job 42:1-6).

GOD REMAINS SOVEREIGN OVER ALL NATIONS, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

God is indeed at work among the nations of the world today. Nothing escapes His attention. Every promise God makes to a nation, whether it is for blessing or cursing, good or evil, is conditional on how that nation responds to Him (Jeremiah 18:7-10). God is sovereign, and even though all authority in heaven and earth belongs to Him, He allows the sons of men to have the run of the earth (Psalms 115:16). Yet, this is still within the realm of His authority. He can permit, or He can not permit. He can allow, or He can not allow. When He opens a door, it will not be closed. When He closes a door, it will not be opened. When He determines to bless a nation, you cannot curse it (Numbers 23:11,12). And when He determines to curse a nation, you cannot bless it, or even spare it, without bringing down a curse upon yourself (I Samuel 15:17-19).

So man is free to do as he wills to a certain extent, but God still retains His authority. If necessary, God will intervene in the affairs of men to bring about a major course correction if they get too out of hand. The Flood of Noah was just such an event. So was the confounding of the languages at Babel. So was the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

God personally led the Hebrew exodus out of Egypt, established them in Canaan, ordered their exile into Babylon, their restoration, and the ultimate destruction of their nation in 70 A.D. But Israel is not the only nation God dealt with (Jeremiah 25:15-33). He had quite a lot to say and quite a bit to do with nations like Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and Rome as the world's first superpowers, not to mention the countless nations and people groups, such as the Philistines, the Moabites, the Ammonites, the Midianites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Ishmaelites, the Jebusites, the Canaanites, the Ethiopians, the Arabians, and scores of others, too many to name. It should be noted that most of these nations are now extinct, because God will not deal with them forever. Is it not reasonable to think that God is as involved in the nations of this world today as He always has been?

Jesus Himself says that there will come a time in the future when, apart from God's direct intervention, man would totally annihilate one another and destroy all life on earth (Matthew 24:22). So while it is true that God has "given the earth to the children of men" it is also clear that, "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein (Psalms 24:1)." Given the extent of man's inhumanity to man, this should be of great comfort to all of us. Ultimately, GOD IS IN CONTROL.

A RESPONSE IS REQUIRED FROM THE INNER COURT

So where do we go from here? How does this apply to us as Christians scattered among different nations around the world, being the salt of the earth and the light of the world (Matthew 5:13-16)? If we believe the Lord is sovereign among the nations then we must discover what He would have us to say and do as His ambassadors to the particular nation we find ourselves in. Our purpose for writing is not to speak to the political situation, but the spiritual situation. We have done everything possible to communicate to the Church why and how it must leave the outer court and come into the inner court to meet God (The Priests of the Lord, Part 2, Watchman.Net). Now do you understand why? Wars and rumors of wars, death, destruction - it is all very frightening, but it all pertains TO THE OUTER COURT; and there is little we, the Church, can do if we meet with the conflict THERE on some carnal, fleshly, and may I say, emotional, zealous, or political level.

Here is our opportunity to see God's Will and God's Kingdom brought forth. The question is: who dwells in the Secret Place of the Most High? Who will go into the inner court, minister to the Lord, and become a friend of God? Who will linger before the Lord with prayer and fasting until these issues are settled? Who will cooperate with God in prayer so that His Will is accomplished in the earth and His Son is revealed?

I am continually drawn to the power of the ONE. God can save by many, or by a few (I Samuel 14:6). Sometimes He will do it with ONE - an Enoch, a Noah, an Abraham, a Moses, an Elijah, a Daniel. "The effectual fervent prayer of A RIGHTEOUS MAN avails much (James 5:16b)." It is good to have prayer chains and to bring the Body together for corporate prayer, we need more of it and it ought to be encouraged. At the same time, God would have us pray as if no one else is going to, in full assurance of faith that if we are in alignment with His Will, His Ultimate Purpose, we cannot help but see our supplications come to pass (I John 5:14,15). We can have a million Christians praying together but if they are praying according to what the "outer court" is telling them instead of the "inner court", it is not effectual. In days to come, if we pray according to the reports we see on television or read in the newspapers we will be misled. True prayer has its source in God, and we cannot pray according to the MIND of the Spirit unless we are praying BY the Spirit and not according to OUR mind (Romans 8:26,27).

"I sought for A MAN among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before Me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none (Ezekiel 22:30)." Listen! The land was destroyed, not for lack of a remnant, or a group, but for lack of A MAN. One righteous man (or woman), making up the hedge, standing in the gap before God on behalf of a nation, would have made a difference.

Moreover, to pray in one accord with the Body of Christ is to pray as ONE MAN (Acts 4:24). It is time to seek the Lord, to search the Scriptures, restore relationships with one another, and begin to pray REAL prayers: effectual, fervent prayers that avail much, not "God bless me" prayers. We must be about our Father's business.

What is needed from the Church in this time? A response is required: not an "outer court" reaction to what we see and hear, but an "inner court" response to God Himself, and it must be a response that goes further and deeper than mere human compassion towards the victims, anger towards the killers, and fears about the future. As human beings there is a natural reaction that we cannot help but have when we see catastrophe and death. It is pointless to deny our feelings, or lightly dismiss them. It is even unhealthy to do so. We feel compassion for the victims; anger towards those who perpetrated these acts; desire for retribution against those responsible; anxiety and tension over the general state of things. THAT we would expect from anyone. THAT is flesh and blood, and that is understandable, but that is NOT Spirit and Truth.

Jesus says, "The flesh profits nothing" and "the flesh is weak (John 6:63; Matthew 26:41)." Paul says, "They that are in the flesh cannot please God (Romans 8:8)." There is a certain bravado about the flesh that gives the illusion of strength, but it profits nothing, and it is weak, and it cannot be pleasing to God in spiritual matters. It is the flesh that says, "We're going to get them!" and "We're going to rebuild bigger and better than before!" Now we give allowances to the Natural Man that he will react as his flesh dictates, but we dare not allow the Spiritual Man to react in this manner, and by this of course I mean the Natural Man as the person without the Spirit of God, and the Spiritual Man as the person within whom the Spirit of God resides.

There is an element which calls itself "prophetic" which operates from the flesh as well, and we must exercise due diligence in making sure the words we proclaim or the words we listen to are truly from the inner court, and not just the shallow, hollow rantings of someone's opinion - even if it is a good opinion. We cannot take the time to listen to someone talk out of their own imagination and then tack a "thus saith the Lord" to the end of it to add credibility to their speech. It sounds right to the outer court worshippers, Scriptures can even be produced that seem to validate what is said, but those who stand before God in the inner court will immediately detect the defilement of the flesh (especially if they dare to challenge the one who so speaks).

Invariably, "prophetic" words from the outer court will be imbalanced, e.g., words of doom will lack grace and mercy, and words of blessing will lack warnings of judgment and calls to repentance. A word of "certain" blessing that does not give any incentive to deny Self and take up the Cross falls short of the mark. A word of "certain" judgment that does not offer a promise to the obedient or give hope to the repentant is either totally false or prophetically immature. A vision of destruction or calamity which is proclaimed as a certain, unavoidable fact fails to take into account that the purpose of the revelation was to inspire us to make intercession against that very thing, to stand in the gap and avert that very destruction we are proclaiming. The failure to understand this constituted the whole problem with Jonah's attitude over Nineveh (Jonah 4). The grace of God intervened in spite of Jonah's objections that it would make "him" look bad when "his" word did not come to pass.

What better way to get the Church to cease praying than to deceive her into thinking that all hope is lost, and the Day of Grace has ended! In the end, Abraham could not save Sodom, but he still prayed: and the fact that he prayed for mercy in the midst of pending judgment is what truly made him a prophet (Genesis 18:17-33).

THE SORT OF PRAYER GOD REQUIRES

We are not the first saints in history to be called upon to pray in this manner. When Japan invaded and raped China in World War II, a Chinese brother named Watchman Nee gave us some perspective that very much speaks to our present situation and call to prayer. He attended a believer's convention, and by accident was seated next to a Japanese brother. The tension was palpable among the onlookers. But brother Nee was unruffled, and when asked to offer prayer, he prayed as follows:

"The Lord reigns. We affirm it boldly. Our Lord Jesus Christ is reigning, and He is Lord of all; nothing can touch His authority. It is spiritual forces that are out to destroy His interests in China and Japan. Therefore, we do not pray for China; we do not pray for Japan; but we pray for the interests of Thy Son in China and Japan. We do not blame men, for they are only tools in the hands of Thine enemy. We stand for Thy Will. Shatter, O Lord, the kingdom of darkness, for the persecutions of the Church are wounding Thee. Amen."

I will admit that when I first read this a few years ago I was absolutely dumbfounded. Only after being educated by the Holy Spirit was I able to understand this kind of praying. It is a fine example of what it means to bring God's Kingdom and God's Will to bear upon the earthly situation. It raises the bar from the natural, flesh and blood, what-I-can-see-and-hear level, and brings us directly into the throne of God to view things from Heaven's perspective. Notice that brother Nee specifically said we do not pray for China, or Japan; we pray for God's Will, for God's Kingdom, for His Purpose, for His Desire in these two nations. The foremost issue for brother Nee is not what happens in China or Japan; of course that IS important, and he was personally impacted by these events, as were the house churches he served so diligently in China. But he was not praying on behalf of his own will or his own work, but on behalf God's Will and God's Kingdom. He had his interests and his concerns, but of greater concern to him was "the interests of Thy Son in China and Japan", e.g., the preeminence of Christ, the enlargement of His Kingdom. Does this not apply to the present crisis?

We repeat: in order to really come before God and get His Heart for our situation we have to be willing to lay down what we want and begin to pray for what He wants. If we do not want what He wants then we are going to have to either change what we want or stop praying. We cannot force God to do what He does not want to do, but we can very definitely prevent God, at least for a season, from doing what He DOES want to do, through prayerlessness, disobedience, or unbelief.

"TO HIM THAT OVERCOMES..."

As we look at the promises made to those who overcome we should see that God is not establishing some new order or special group which enjoys rights and privileges not accessible to the rest of the saints. This is not the establishing of new promises, but a bringing us back to the same exceeding great and precious promises which are potentially true of everyone who is in Christ (Ephesians 1:3). It is not establishing a new foundation, it is calling us back to the foundation which is already laid. That being said, we point out that the difference between those who overcome and those who do not overcome is a difference in their own PERCEIVED position. We all ought to perceive that in Christ we are seated in the heavenly places. We cannot overcome without this perception, this seeing, this revelation. If our perception is earthly, we will remain earthly. If our perception is heavenly, we will overcome.

The moment one's perception shifts from the outer court, the natural, flesh and blood, worldly, and earthly realm to the inner court, that which pertains to the heavenly places in Christ, at that moment one enters into the promises which were there all along, waiting to be realized and taken advantage of. Overcomers represent the means through which God may restore the entire Church to its proper position. Their prayers for the saints and their service to the saints is meant to bring the entire Church to the EPIGNOSIS (full-knowledge) of Christ that the entire Church may rise up and fulfill its destiny as overcomers (Ephesians 4:13). In this present time, if we will come into the inner court and stand before God on behalf of His Kingdom and His Will, then no matter what happens, the Lord will be glorified, His Son will be exalted, and His Kingdom will soon be manifest among the nations.

Our Father: may Your Name be hallowed, may Your Kingdom come, may Your Will be done - as in heaven, so in earth. Accomplish Your Purpose, and establish the Kingdom of Your dear Son in us: individually as disciples, corporately as the Church, and collectively in all creation; that Christ may be All in All. As we seek first Your Kingdom, may all that we need be added to us, whether it is daily bread or forgiveness of sins. Conform us to the image of Your Son that we may live as One Body. Deliver us from evil by raising up overcomers who will have the Revelation of Christ and will bear the Testimony of Jesus, demonstrating the preeminence of Your Son over sin, self, and satan; who overcome by the blood of the Lamb, the word of their Testimony, and the laying down of their lives. The Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory are yours. Of the increase of your Kingdom there will be no end; You have given all power in heaven and in earth to Your Son; and through His Name every knee will bow and every tongue will confess to Your Glory. Reveal the glory of Your Son, that we may know Him, and as He must increase, so we must decrease. We do not pray for the United States, or Canada, or England, or France, or Afghanistan, or Pakistan, or Iraq, or Israel - but we pray for the interests of Your Son in these nations, and in every other nation upon the face of the earth, until Your Kingdom is established. Maranatha! Even so, come quickly Lord Jesus.

"The Woman and the Bastille"

As I was reflecting upon the past year and wondering what may lay ahead for this New Year, the Lord gave me a word. It was designed as such for two purposes. The one being the question for Europe. Who is thy neighbour and the other of France as to her place and time in the history, within the scheme of things

How this came about was the result of the Lord taking me back to my early Christian days and reminded me of a woman that emerged from an alleyway in Newcastle during the day time. This woman was oddly dressed, in that her clothes looked almost Victorian. She had a coat on top of a long billowing dark dress that had underneath it layers of other clothing, which flared out from a tight waist. She had an eccentric type hat and her hands were laden with bags and carrier bags and she did not want to interact with the busy crowd on the main street. As a result she darted off on her own path going to her own place, keeping her own company.

As I sat and waited upon the Lord, it occurred to me that this type of woman was similar to the type that one encountered as a member of the lowest public classes that existed at the time of the French Revolution where the aristocrats were now being overthrown by such a member of the social grouping to which this woman belonged

I felt that what I was seeing about this woman was what I was being shown about France. I do not purport to know much if anything of note about French history, but I felt the Spirit was showing me the place of France now. This is what transpired.

The woman was French and her clothing represented revolutionary dress, which had many layers and ruffs, layers like an onion would have. Just as this woman had many layers to protect herself from the exposures to the street living, so has France covered herself with many layers to protect herself from the cold, a self imposed exile or an exile of circumstances.

The woman appeared eccentric and out of place, a wanderer. A carrier of baggage. She was embarrassed by her predicament. In pondering this, these words came "Its time to separate the many layers, to reveal its place, its true place in history, not living like as in the past, but to live to and prepare its time for the future" "Its time for her to understand her many dimensions and tides of understanding, time to remove the dirt of embarrassment protected of its history"

Following this came the words from God….vive la revolution…He is about a revolution and is gladdened by it.

I then was given a picture of the storming of the Bastille and on one of its right hand round towers was a single window about two thirds of the way up from the ground and about another third from the top of this rounded turret type tower. From amongst the crowds at the foot of the walls a single ladder extended upward to this single window. Only one man was attempting to reach this window and free those inside. The ladder did not extend past the window, in fact it gave the impression it was not tall enough to go further than that window. Though it seemed important that there might be an attempt to reach the top of the tower.

With this picture came the words…may she be freed from her history, to take her place in history. It was almost as if the person in the window was a female and the window was a portal of and too Frances history. The reason this window was attempted to be reached was the prisoner, female France was unable to free herself, from and out of the placements of her isolation. It came to me that this was a time for setting her free from her prisoners.

God is longing to help her. He reminded me of the time of the woman with an issue of blood, when she came to Jesus. She had failed to help herself even though she had tried, like the woman with the bags she has no hands free to reach out to Him. She is dirty and alone, ashamed and alienated in the crowd.

She needs to know…God wants to touch her, for her to know that even in her fear and shame, she can make contact with Him….He wants to be touched by her. He wants her to reach Him.

Just as the woman with an issue had her gender, need and failure separating from peace and fellowship, so to did the woman of the streets have her many layers of clothing and her burdens separating her from man.

For France His woman, God has been prepared and is prepared and has provided His way to go past her barriers. Her problem seems to be that as she does so she fears isolation, ridicule and scorn of her neighbours. She, France does not want to show them how she really is. This reflects as does history, the sense of her being possibly in the weakest place and time in history.

It was here that I had 3 points shown to me. 1. Who is my neighbour….Germany…external place 2. The Revolution…the internal place and heart need 3. Wine and trade….the social and cultural place

Here then came a picture of a great strong waterfall wide and deep, with these words…"He wants the waters of His fall to drench her and not drown her, His waters and their fall, to feed her Him"

The revolution was a fall of society and can be seen as destructive, he wants the type of fall from her current tide place and waters, to bring about for her the power of His own and free her from the worlds, and world's powers destructive forces.

He has no desire for her to be overtaken by the tsunami of her geographical collapse, for that is coming, where she will be overwhelmed and not able to stand on the plates, the foundations of her history and forming. But with Him to go through a collapse that he will engineer in order for her to find her place in history. She is included in the cup of His world's dreams.

God wants her to be invited to the party, to include her and not exclude her. God delights in weakness to share his strength.

I reflected on the ladder leading up a tower of the Bastille. It seemed to represent a climbing of the ladders of His heart to know what is in His mind…. These words " past My windows to know my higher calling, my higher mind."

The window represented his eye
This in turn reflected what was in His soul. The soul was His heart which led to His eyes, It was here one would begin to see and understand the mind behind the eyes.

He said this…"human ladders only take you so far and that is not far enough" that is why the ladder was only so high reaching to the window only and not beyond. God, like for the woman with an issue of blood is wanting her to acquire the ladder of faith so that He, God is finding a way through. This to reflects her being in the position of Israel…pursued by the Egyptians (world system) and hemmed in by the desert and sea….God is finding a way through for her to see that she can go across on dry ground and to see her enemies washed up on the shores.. Creating new boundaries for God and not the stone shifting boundaries of man. Here he reminded me that the English Channel is Britain's Jordan…could it also be Frances Jordan

Looking back at the picture of the storming of the window, one could not help feel that France was the damsel in the tower and Gods purpose is not just to set her free but also to occupy the turrets, beyond the level of the ladder, like Elijah after Carmel…to go up higher… to reach the top

Here I was given a picture with my face and body clinging to the wall of the Bastilles tower looking up to the bottom edge of the window, but also to beyond, the top of the tower, its turret….there I saw above it and upon its top a fire, a fire storm which cloaked its top and was coming from heaven from the beyond.

Here I was shown that this fire would act as a signal, but I also had these words…a fire, a burning of the guillotines of pride,

At this stage I recalled the thought….taking us back to the beginning…France is feeling exceedingly more lost in the crowd….but God wants her to reach up and find the ladder of heaven to reach His top, His height.

(Psa 65:4) Blessed is the one You choose and cause to come near You; he shall dwell in Your courts; we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, Your holy temple.

Yes indeed my friend. I am your God. I am your hope. I am your all in all my friends. I am all that you desire. I am all you see, hear and touch. I am your all encompassing God. I Am He who enables you to seek My face. I Am He who prepares your heart to hear My voice and to do My will. No one can take credit for anything in My kingdom. My kingdom belongs to Me and I will build and establish it that way that I please.

I enable all things to happen. I direct all of My people's steps that abide in me and I in them. All My people have a testimony of how they came to know Me. All of My people have a unique flavor unto Me. I Am He who has written your testimony in My book of life. Every mountain overcome, every hurdle jumped has been by the power of My spirit. I have done everything for you to enable you to come unto Me. I directed your steps even when you didn't know Me as your God. He who's name is written in My book of life has, each day, each hour, each minute and every second written out in My book of life.

Some may wonder, "well Father, have I not had My own free will? Yes you have my children. I have given you free will on this earth as My word says (Det 30:19). Nevertheless, I am a big enough God to use all of your choices and decision for your good. That is the goodness of your God. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. I know what has happened yesteryear, today and will occur in the future. I am a God who sees all things and remembers all things. I have not forgotten one iota of your life from before creation up until you are reading this word. I have taken the liberty of closing off much of your memories for your assignments here on earth. I have not given you the full capacity of your hearts and minds in order to train you to be My overcoming children.

This is a time of war for my own and for those who are not My own. My children will war in a place of rest. My rest is a position of power. As you rest from yourself (works), the I Am goes to battle for your freedom. As you lay down your life to Me voluntarily: laying down all striving, anxiousness, fear doubt, unbelief and many other characteristics of the enemy; I fill your up with good things from My house. All good things come from heaven above. I am the God of goodness. All of My good work can be found in My Son, Jesus Christ. He is the One I fill you up with. Jesus Christ is the One who goes to battle for My children. My Son shall be your cloud of covering by day and your pillar of fire for sight by night. Yes indeed My people.

The battle in heaven is increasing in intensity and has already spilled over into the natural. Many of My own have been a bit dazed and confused of sorts in their seeking My face. I say to you. Stay the course. Stay on track and breakthrough the enemy of your soul, who is trying to hinder you in anyway, shape or form. He is desperate because He knows that He is losing the war for My children's hearts. Stay the course My people because I am sending you My Freedom Fighter in Power. Over Things aren't always what they appear to be. Don't judge your circumstances and say that this is the way your life is at present, because that is the way the enemy is trying to rob you of My truth. He is trying to get you to look and judge the way your marriage is or your relationships are with other people. He wants you to look and judge and then be discouraged with the way things appear to be.

I want you to rise up and tear down the strongholds built up by the enemy by our misguided mind sets. Be determined to not judge our circumstances and say that is the truth. For I tell you this day to look to My word and say that is the truth for your life. Walk not by sight but by the faith I give you through My word.

This is the day that I AM beginning to change your circumstances based on the truth of My word, but you must cooperate with Me for this to happen. Yes, I AM giving you a fresh start once again that you may dive into My word and see what I have promised you there. I want you to say "no more!" to the enemy and that you won't allow him to destroy relationships with others any longer. For he is out to steal, kill and destroy that which I began in you. For I started a good work and I AM faithful to complete it, but you must work with Me and not against Me.

If you want Me to bless you, you must stand on My word. If you see it in My word, then it is My will for your life and don't accept anything less. Yes, I promised that you would prosper and be in health as your soul prospers in Me. And for your relationships with others, if it doesn't line up with what My word says love is, then cast down the lie and stronghold. And build back up based on My truth. You know I AM out to bless marriages and not tear down. And I AM out to draw My people together so they can worship Me as one. Be sensitive to the devices of the enemy.

Yes, I give you a fresh start full of My grace and truth. Don't look back at your failures and striving based on what you can see, but trust in My word and only look to Me, and see how I will bless you and transform by the truth of My word the appearance of your everyday life. Yes, no longer will you focus on what the enemy has done but what I AM doing, but you must look to Me and trust Me, and stand behind your shield and use your sword to tear down. Keep covered each day with your armor of light. Let My love blind the enemy and bring discouragement to his camp. Yes, turn the tide and let Me wipe out the enemy from your life. Walk in truth and not by the lie the enemy tries to build up around you. Cast down the stronghold of darkness and walk in my truth and light.

Yes, this is the day to rejoice because the truth has set you free! My love I give to you is powerful. Don't allow the enemy to rob you. When the enemy uses others to come against you, rise up and forgive. Don't let him weigh you down. Walk in the principles based on My word, and then the enemy cannot ensnare you. Be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. A kind word can turn away wrath. Don't feed the flame of the enemy's devices. Yes, quench it out using the truth of My word, My grace, and My love.

Dear one, I AM bringing you out of the long hard winter season of your life. Look for the budding forth of My promises. Move forward into your fresh start. I will grant you new perspectives, new vision, new gifts, new plans, new friends, new provision, new approaches to get where I want you to go. Look now for the buds to appear in your life. I AM rebuilding your life into a rich and fruitful basket of provision.

Song 7:10-13 NLT
"I am my lover's, the one he desires. Come, my love, let us go out into the fields and spend the night among the wildflowers. Let us get up early and go out to the vineyards. Let us see whether the vines have budded, whether the blossoms have opened, and whether the pomegranates are in flower. And there I will give you my love. There the mandrakes give forth their fragrance, and the rarest fruits are at our doors, the new as well as old, for I have stored them up for you, my lover."

Wounded Or Corrected?
Sandy Warner

There are times when you bare your soul before men that you receive backlash. Accusation, misunderstanding and judgment leaves you feeling naked and shot. Worse yet, in your wounded state, it leaves you feeling like a bad person. This erodes and seeps down into your soul to further your decay of failure into self rejection. Precious One, listen to ME. This is not My good gift.

Yes, I feed tenderhearted correction into your life as you need it. Yes, I use circumstances to form you into My image. And, yes, I bring everything into your life and turn it for good. But do not think that I AM judging you, stripping you naked and shooting you over your failures. I AM not rejecting you, dear one, and neither do I ever point a finger to condemn you. I weep with you as you mourn over your mistakes, I weep even before you know you make them.

My beloved child, would I severely discipline a child who earnestly wants to please Me and seek My way? I AM only stern to the rebellious who defiantly turn from My loving and gracious heart. I AM full of compassion over you who fall and tremble at My Word. And how it moves My heart to wild rejoicing as I see you willing to stand up and try again! How proud of you I AM, dear one, to see you keep on keeping on. Now, let My love wash and cover you. You are not naked, you are clothed in My forgiving and pure white garment of righteousness.

NIV Romans 10:4

Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Like A Rock

LIKE A ROCK
You have climbed a great mountain of pain in your life and I shall turn this mountain into your greatest blessings. You have overcome many spiritual enemies and I made you rock hard in the process. I am settling you solidly and firmly, most sure and assuredly. I am planting you rock sure, My rock Bride. I have set you upon My rock to stay.

Hiding within the ark of My Presence, our secret place brought you to rest upon this mountain and there you shall stay. Like the flood waters in Noah's day, you rose above it all to be lifted into another destiny. You shall discover this new solid place in Me as you witness the flood waters descend all around you. Though the ice and the sun, the wind and the rain come and go upon your mountain, you shall dwell forever planted upon this holy mountain of rest and blessing.

Gen 8:4 KJV

From the Church in Israel

Francis Frangipane

Israel is the epicenter of many of the world's events. Indeed, what happens in the Holy Land can cause powerful shock waves around the world. Daily, we are deluged by reports from newsrooms about Israel. As we in the church have learned to care more for the Jewish people, we have become more sensitive to how the nation of Israel views us. We are even concerned about the viewpoints of the Orthodox Jews as well as the positions and threats of Israel's Islamic enemies. Added to this sea of voices and opinions, we also listen to the teachings of evangelical preachers, calling us to pray for the peace and protection of the Jewish people. All of this is good and acceptable. However, most of us have yet to hear from the actual leaders of the evangelical church in Israel.

Thus, on a recent trip to the Holy Land, I made it a point to visit with a number of Israeli pastors. I was so impressed with their love, faith and humility that I asked them if they would issue a statement that might, in some way, express their hearts to the wider body of Christ, especially to the church in America, but also throughout the world. The pastors with whom I spoke were, in fact, representatives of a larger group of around 70 leaders. As I listened to their hearts, it was easy to see that these were believers in pursuit of Christ's character. Although they came from a variety of church backgrounds, their hearts were steadfastly united in Christ, and they are individuals given to prayer and evangelism.

I believe Christianity needs to hear the voice of the church in Israel. Thus, in the months ahead, my hope is to feature the perspectives and insights from leaders serving Christ in the Holy Land. Indeed, I was blessed to learn that, when major hurricanes struck the Gulf Coast of the USA, these leaders did not automatically judge and condemn the United States. Instead, they focused their congregations on redemptive prayer for America. As I listened to them, I was deeply impressed that the church in Israel was truly growing into the spiritual temple of God (Eph 2:21-22; 1 Cor 3:16). In a very moving way, I felt the significance of a genuine holy reality - as big a miracle of grace as the restoration of Israel itself. The church in Israel was praying for believers in America and around the world. They were truly becoming "a house of prayer for all nations."

With the memory of Hurricane Katrina in mind, they sent this greeting:

To the Church in America,

Shalom. We are a body of leaders in Israel who would like to express our hearts concerning the tragic events which took place in America due to recent hurricanes. Please help us connect with as many of our brothers and sisters as possible by forwarding this letter to the Body of Messiah throughout the different churches in the USA.

First of all, please accept our apologies for not responding earlier. Sometimes the sheer enormity of these events leaves one at a loss for meaningful words. We are struck by the weight of the catastrophes which hit the Gulf States of the southern U.S. and by the resulting distress and suffering of so many people. We feel earnest sorrow for the great loss of life and livelihood; and we would like to assure our brothers and sisters in America of our love and prayers, as we earnestly beseech our God to intervene in this situation. We consider it important to let you know that we are standing with you in this critical hour, wanting to express our sympathy and brotherly friendship and taking the opportunity to utter our thanks for the American believers' faithfulness concerning their relationship to Israel. How often in years past have we received your intensive support in prayer and in generous giving!

Our main reason for wanting to extend comfort to you is the simple fact that you are our brothers and sisters in the Lord. In addition, God has used America again and again to provide assistance to Israel as a nation. We are bound together on many levels. "And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it…" (1Corinthians 12:26).

At the same time it is our prayer that God will use this season of shaking as a new awakening of the American church, as well as the nation. May He impart His heart and thoughts to His people in more meaningful ways than in any previous generation. May His kingdom break through in new and bigger dimensions - within the United States and, through selfless American Christians, across the entire world! For it is written, "in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Israel - as God's chosen people and the firstborn among the nations - has experienced a history of much shaking, even to the degree of judgment (a history that has not yet come to an end). But we know that the reason for this is God's holy love and divine calling. He disciplines the ones he loves (Hebrews 12:6). The United States has been considered by all a favored nation, used mightily by God and blessed for her missionary work and for standing by Israel through the years. She has been given abundant material and spiritual blessings. She sees herself as the leader of the world. It is only to be expected that such a nation will be held accountable to a higher standard of righteousness. We want to encourage you to shine brightly amidst a darkening world. In this sense of blessing, calling and responsibility there are strong parallels between our nations, highlighting God's principle that "from everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked" (Luke 12:48).

We pray that your ear would be next to God's heart in the midst of the calamities which have stricken your great nation. May you tangibly experience His presence in every trying hour. Through the tears, may you and your nation experience the richness of God's mercy. May He be glorified in your courageous and compassionate response.

We love and appreciate you. We are with you.

The Value of Brokenness
Francis Frangipane

Up until the moment Christ enters our lives, surrounding our souls there exists a hard outer shell, a "survival nature," which protects us against life's harshest offenses. The shell is necessary while we are in the world, but becomes an enemy to our new life in Christ, where the nature of Christ becomes our shelter. Thus, as the shell of a seed, a nut or an egg must be broke before its inner life comes forth, so it is with us: the "shell" of our outer nature must also break in order to free the Spirit of Christ to arise in our hearts.

This need to be broken is recorded in Luke 20. Jesus Christ described Himself as the very cornerstone and source of life itself. Yet, as such, He also said that He was, "The stone which the builders rejected" (vs 17). We say we believe in Him, yet how we often reject the wisdom of His words when we build our lives! This self-sufficiency and self will is what must break before we can ever fulfill the will of God, which is Christlikeness. It is only because we are still unbroken that we trust the ways of men rather than God.

Yet, Jesus warned, "Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust" (Luke 20:18). He is saying that, ultimately, only two types of people will remain: the broken and those scattered like dust. Only the broken can survive the coming glory of God. We either fall and break on Christ or He will fall upon us and scatter us like dust.

God brings low those He plans to use. Consider our spiritual heroes: Joseph, Moses, David. Each suffered an extended time of wounding and breaking until they became low enough for God to raise them up. Or consider the early disciples: they enjoyed limited success working with Jesus, but in His most crucial hour they all failed Him. Even the inner circle of Peter, James and John failed the Lord. They slept at a time when Jesus desperately needed their prayer and companionship. In cowardice, they denied they ever knew Him. Yet, their failure did not disqualify them. Amazingly, because God used their failure to produce humility, they received qualifying grace. On Pentecost, God raised them up in power to represent the risen Christ!

Failure functionalizes our capacity to live more perfectly dependent on Christ. It causes us to more genuinely rely upon the Lord for wisdom, virtue and strength. It cripples our strength, turning the heart away from itself. We learn to fall upon Christ and, though broken to pieces, the Son of God can now flow out through us to others.

Sin is not our worst enemy; worse than sin is "self." Thus, as a hammer is to the shell of a walnut, so are our mistakes in the hands of our Heavenly Father; God uses them to unlock our spiritual inner nature. On the other hand, if we do not bring our failures to God in humility and repentance, they actually cause the opposite effect: they can create a thicker outer hardness. We may become cynical and angry, blaming others for our difficulties. If we do not see the Lord orchestrating our circumstances, we become entombed in our humanity, never able to see the true life of Christ emerge through us.

Let me also clarify that Jesus said that He would not break "a bruised reed." For those who come to Him devastated by tragedy, Jesus immediately seeks to bring healing. God's goal in all things is to create within us dependency upon Him. We either come with brokenness or He will supply it.

Wheat and Tares

Another means of breaking comes in how we deal with offenses. We live in an imperfect world for a reason: God seeks to perfect character here. In Matthew 13, Jesus explained that two types of people grow side by side in the kingdom: one He called "wheat" and the other "tares." He sowed wheat, but an enemy came later and sowed tares. Until the harvest, the appearance of tares is quite similar to wheat. Thus, when asked if the tares should be uprooted, the farmer (Jesus) said, "No; lest while you are gathering up the tares, you may root up the wheat with them. Allow both to grow together until the harvest" (vs 29-30).

Why will Jesus let wheat and tares grow side by side? Tares perfect the character of the wheat. Why wait until the harvest? Because it is only then that the difference between wheat and tares becomes evident. At harvest, the wheat head, full of mature grain, bows, while the tares remain stiff and unbending. The contrast is plain: the bowed versus the unbowed; the humble versus the straight and stiff-necked.

This parable also tells us that we have no right to judge, uproot or even try to "discern" the tares before the harvest time; even Jesus will not remove them until then. The question we need to ask is not, "Who is a tare?" but "Am I truly a wheat?" Remember, prior to the harvest, the differences, outwardly, are indistinguishable. In fact, both survive the storms, droughts and blights that strike each equally. Yet, one produces grain, while the other is barren; one becomes valuable, while the other is gathered to be burned.

God allows the tares to grow side by side with the wheat to perfect Christlikeness in the wheat. When offended, the wheat humbly forgives; when faced with conflict or failure, the wheat does not blame others. In fact, the wheat does not even judge the tares, it prays for them. That's how you know you are a wheat. On the other hand, the tares cannot deal with the imperfections of the wheat; they judge the wheat, and other tares as well. They become angry, bitter at life and easily offended. They are the unbroken. You know you are becoming a tare if, instead of interceding for the imperfections of people around you, you simply criticize them. If you carry offenses from years ago and still blame people for your failure, you are avoiding the wheat, you are becoming a tare. At its essence, the difference between the wheat and tares is the measure of love functioning in each; the wheat is able to truly bow to its Creator.

The Unshrunk Cloth

Just as our failures can break us, so God allows other situations to reduce us. I know, we think of ministry in terms of wholeness and expansion, but much of what is seen outwardly is attached to the work of God inwardly. In fact, one way we expand is to be willing to shrink. What do I mean? Listen to what Jesus taught:

"No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; otherwise the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear results"(Mk 2:21).

The Lord says that you cannot mend an old garment with a new patch because once the garment is washed the patch will begin to shrink. As a result, it will pull away from the garment and a worse tear occurs. I have seen it happen in many churches: someone is brought in to fix a situation but they understand "ministry" as being an opportunity to display what they can do; they have yet to be cut to size. As a result, when they see the little hole God wants them to fill, as they reluctantly shrink, they pull away from the old garment, causing a worse tear than at first.

So, a wise seamstress will soak a new patch in hot water before sewing it onto the older garment.

This gives time for the patch to shrink to the size that is needed. After it is shrunk, she then sews it permanently into the old garment.

The Lord must also shrink us before He can use us. When we come to a church or join a ministry team, we cannot help but be aware of the dozens of things we feel qualified to accomplish. In fact, we look at others and think, "I could do better than that." If you are looking at the assignment someone else has and feel you could do better, it is because you are still, to some degree, unshrunk. God hasn't brought you into the body to do someone else's task; He wants you to focus upon your own, even if it is seemingly insignificant.

We argue, "But how will I advance unless someone sees my talents?" The Lord said, "He who is faithful in a little thing, will be faithful in much." We must simply do the thing God tells us and not envy others and their tasks. We seek to do some great thing for God; but God wants us to do little things as though they were great. The entire ministry does not need repair, just the hole we are called to fill. Each ministry has an exact size requirement.

How does the Lord reduce you so you can be useful? Like the seamstress, He puts you in hot water. God must shrink us from our exaggerated opinion of ourselves before He can use us in greater projects. We must simply fill the size of the need before us without envying the tasks of others. If you find yourself, for a time, in hot water, it might be because you took on tasks that were beyond the Lord's assignment for you. He is shrinking you to the size of your calling.

The end of it all is this: the Lord takes serious His plan for our lives. He has one goal with us: create us in the image of Christ. In His wonderful, all-powerful hands, He can use our failures, "tare-able" people, and our time in hot water to work for both our good and His glory in our lives.

Faith That Doesn't Falter - Love That Never Fails

Ron McGatlin

Rom 5:1-5: Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; and perseverance, character; and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

In the face of terror attacks and potential desperate volatile world conditions of war, natural disasters, global warming, moral degradation, and dwindling world oil reserves it is possible to begin to lose hope. If our hope rests only in natural strength and resources, there could be little reason for hope of a future much less a good future. It might be difficult to find reason to have faith in natural strength of men and governments to overcome the challenges and handle the situations of the world.

And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love. 1 Cor 13:13

Hope depends on faith. If we have little or no faith we will have little or no hope. True faith works by love and God is love. Therefore our hope is in God. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word. What word? The word of God, the word of love, the word of faith. Hearing that God actually loves us is the source of faith. The same God who by his power spoke all things into being, the God who created all that exist, the God of all wisdom and understanding truly loving us is the root of our faith and the reason for our hope. Intimately relating to God and living in His passionate endless love gives us faith that will not falter no matter what the circumstances. As we simply rest in His awesome love, doubts and fears are gone and we experience perfect faith and everlasting hope. The peace of God that passes understanding floods our hearts even in the most desperate circumstances. (Gal 5:6) (1 John 4:8,16) (Rom 10:17) (Rom 10:8)

If God's love were to fail, if he ever just ran out of love, then we would have no hope. we would have nothing in which to believe - no faith. The good news is that God's love never fails, it never runs out. (1 Cor 13:8)

All of our well being begins with our relationship to God. We must become one with the Father and the Son through the Holy Spirit. Only then are we fully ready to relate to those around us. This is the basis of the relational church. Intimate relationship with God first and then intimate relationship with His people is the coming church model. This is the basis of the current reformation from organizational to relational church. This is the cure for the powerless church of the past and the key to living in the kingdom of God lifestyle.

If the hundreds of millions of people worldwide who call themselves Christians were to live this way the world would be saved and changed. (2 Chr 7:14) (Psa 33:12) There are some people living this way today and miracles are again happening as they did in the first century. Mature love produces mature faith and all things are possible to those who believe. (Mark 9:23) Our hope is firmly planted in the love relationship with our all powerful loving God. The reflection of that love back to Father from His children spawns awesome praise, sincere worship, pure adoration, eternal life abundantly now, endless hope and joy everlasting. Thank You Father!

Facing The Future With Faith

Bobby Conner

The soul of man has been awakened by the events that have been unfolding. The spirit of fear will attempt to exploit these unprecedented, traumatic times, seeking to paralyze people with fear. In fact, the world news reports are chilling. The overwhelming question echoing from mankind is: what does the future hold? People of all walks of life are crying out in utter desperation, seeking answers to the situations coming upon them. With increasing despair and great anguish, man is seeking straight answers in these uncertain times. "What does the future hold?" The world's attention has been arrested with reports of earthquakes that virtually wipe-out entire cities in a moment. It would seem that the entire earth is facing extreme, catastrophic problems.

We watch--shocked, stunned and horrified--as the earth is ravaged by earthquakes, hurricanes, floods, fires, famines and wars which bring about unspeakable acts of terror. We hear the warnings concerning looming plagues that could kill untold millions in mere days.

Looking into the eyes and faces of people, you can see the deep desperation; one can sense the cry for help as the soul of mankind cries out for understanding, seeking help to grasp the days we are living in. With each bewildered look, you hear the cry, "What is going on? What does the future hold?"

Considering all these things looming on the horizon, just what does the future hold? Or will there even be a future? The answer is yes. God has promised a future, filled with bright hope. Our goal must be to position our lives into the place where God's promises become living reality.

It is essential that the Body of Christ rise up and take our place in this crucial hour; this is our destiny. We must stand confidently before a shaken world. Lifting high, the Lord holding forth the Light of God's steadfast promises, knowing it is the Truth that will set people free. Now is the time to arise and shine. We must move in true faith--not fear.

It is during these dark days that the glory of God will be seen again upon His people (Isaiah 60:1-5). We are to become a shining, brilliant city, set on a hill giving hope to all who are set in darkness. We are identified as salt and light; the world must see us function. If salt looses its effectiveness, it is good for nothing but to be cast out and trodden down. As you well know, salt in the great oceans of the world acts as a great preservative, helping to cleanse and remove harmful contaminates from the earth. This must be true of our life as well.

The question is: what does the future hold? The best answer to this question is to point mankind to the fact of who holds the future. For the followers of Christ Jesus, God has promised a future filled with bright hope. This is not a time to despair; this will be the Church's finest hour. God reveals His future plans for His people, stating, "I know my thoughts and plans I have for you. . . My plan for you is that you have a future filled with hope," Jeremiah 29:11. He wants us to have a future filled with hope!

It is crucial that we take our stand, firmly relying upon the unshakable Word of God. Our faith must move from the head to the heart. It is time to truly believe. Faith that is not tested is not true faith. God is calling for faith that will produce substance and evidence (Hebrews 11:1). No longer can we just talk about God and His awesome power, we must move in Divine power (1 Corinthians 4:20). We must display the awesome deeds of God (See 1 Corinthians 2:1-5). The promise of Christ Jesus is stated in John 14:12, "These works that I do and greater works than these shall you do."

The Light of God's Word will dispel the doom of darkness. It is in His light that we see light. It is not time to stumble in the dark, but rather, leap in the light. As we yield to the Holy Spirit, lifting our eyes to behold His glorious face, we too are changed into His likeness (See 2 Corinthians 3:18).

Wise Words To A Weary World

An awakened ear releases the tongue of the Learned (Isaiah 50:4) to speak a word in due season to them that are weary.

The body of Christ will mobilize to lift up the feeble hands that bring strength and hope. We must point man passed the problems to the promise. Our message must be: "God is good, and He does good" (See Nahum 1:7). This will combat the endless lies of the devil as he seeks to cast a shadow upon the goodness of God and the validity of God's word (See Genesis 3:1-10). Does anyone have answers for these days? The answer is a resounding "YES!" The Lord is releasing the much needed light for these dark days.

It is not time to stumble in the dark, but rather to leap forward in the Light. We are called to walk with a goal, aim, and divine purpose. Do not lose sight of the promises. We are called to be salt and light to affect swift and sure change. God will have for Himself a people of purity and power.

Walking with a goal, aim, and purpose during these times of confusion will result in a calming effect. See Ephesians 5:14-15. This is how to respond in these days of despair! "Let your light shine. Darkness cannot put out the light; however, the light does dispel the deepest darkness. You are the light of the world a city that cannot be hid." See Matthew 5:14.

We must know the Word of God, and greater, we must know the God of the Word. Man will not live during these days by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God (See Matthew 4:4).

The Word of God must be in our mouth to wage war against the lies of the enemy. Remember, the devil still repeats his first lines to mankind, "Has God said?" Now is the time to stand firm upon the solid rock of the Word of God. A house on sand cannot stand during these days of winds and rains of judgment. See Matthew 7:27. Only the firm foundation of faith in Christ will sustain us in these times of trouble. The words of this song say it well, "On Christ the solid Rock I stand. All other ground is sinking sand." This must be our message--the solid rock of faith in Christ.

I will say the Lord is my Light. We must learn to declare the promises of God in order to enjoy the protection of God. We must declare what God has spoken over us. Joel 3:10 declares that the weak are to declare themselves strong and fit for any purpose. In Micah 3:8, we discover that we are, without question, filled with the Spirit of God, producing ample power.

Decree the word of faith to destroy the plans of the devil; we must know what is written. Christ Jesus released an awesome example of resisting with the written Word in Matthew 4. Each time the devil spoke and attacked, Christ resisted with the statement: "It is written." Truly, God's people are destroyed because of a lack of knowledge of the Word. It is time to seek the Lord until He comes and reigns righteous upon us (Hosea 10:12).

The name of the Lord is a strong tower. We must find our safety in the shelter of the Lord, drawing ever closer and closer to the King of Glory.

It is the devil's plan to kill and destroy as many people as he can (John 10:10). However, God has a greater plan. He plans for you to have an overflowing life. It is up to us, as children of God, to withstand the foe of our soul in this conflict. If we truly resist the devil, he must flee (See James 4:7).

Our goal is to establish the kingdom of God with power and true authority. You are called to overcome--to be the head and not the tail, to be above and not below. Greater is His power and presence within you than all the raging powers of hell within the world. It is time to shake yourself awake and arise and shine (See Isaiah 60:1).

This is no time to retreat, but it's time to advance ever higher and deeper into the realm of the Spirit. These are the days of God's dread champions. Be bold and very courageous, knowing that God has promised to go before us, placing His fear upon the faces of our foes. The conflicts of the kingdoms are upon us.

Share the Bread of Heaven With a Starving World

Learn to speak victory and declare what God has spoken. Things are not like you see. They are like God has said. In Job 22:28, we are instructed to decree a thing, and it would be established. We must walk by faith and not by sight. What we see can easily mislead us. However, what God said is faithful and sure. The grass will fade and the flower vanish; however, the word of God will stand.

It is time to read the manual and get to know the plans of God. Thy word have I hid in my heart; it is in His light that we see light. Tell the good news to a seeking world. We have the words of life. With great grace, we will share the bread of Heaven with a starving world. Lift Him up high for all to see. Lift Him up in your daily lives when people are watching to see how you will respond during the days of hard testing.

As we walk in faith and love, confidence will replace chaos, and faith will silence fear. The steadfast presence of Christ, living within His people will be a calming force in a world shaken to the core. Scripture warns that men's hearts will fail them for the things coming upon the earth. This could well be the beginning of these times.

Remember God has not given us the spirit of fear but of love and joy and a sound mind. Now is the time to set our mind and heart upon the Lord, looking fully into His wonderful face, and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace. Our mind will be kept in perfect peace as we firmly focus upon the Lord.

Just as Paul stood before a hopeless people on the deck of a ship in the mist of a terrible storm, his words were, "Be of good cheer. . . There stood by me this night an angel. . . "

Someone must take a stand and declare the good report. God will bring His people out. He will see us through. He did not bring us this far to let us down. Our future is strong, and our hope is anchored in God. He is steadfast and true. The Prophet Nahum declared, "God is good.. . . a very present help in the time of trouble." And He knows the people who are trusting in Him.

In Isaiah, we learn that if we are to maintain lasting peace, it will be because we have fixed our mind upon the Lord (Isaiah 26:3). Remember, He said, "I am the Lord. I change not."

Things change, and circumstances shift. However, God remains steadfast and sure. For the people walking in true faith and fully following Christ, God will release great grace and mercy. However, for the people who choose to reject the wooing of God, these will be times of deep sorry and pain. The cry from God's heart is: look unto ME and live.

For Those Whom God Foreknew

Undrai And Bridget Fizer

www.fizer.org

There isn't a sin, pressure, or any global unrest, that can hinder "what God foreknows!" God moves according to the Power and Significance of what He foreknows, and not "what mere men think they know."

"...for those God foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of His Son, that Her might be the firstborn of many brothers. And those He predestined, He called, called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also glorified.." Romans 8:29-30.

There is an "atmosphere of the foreknown" that has wrapped itself around you. Regardless of the hell you may be experiencing now, even those soulish ties that may be apprehending you from experiencing the fullness of Maximum Life, "what God foreknew about you WILL COME TO PASS!"

Experiencing the Likeness of Christ comes as the result of what God foreknew about you. Before you were ever born, the Father embraced you as His son, blameless and holy in His sight, Ephesians 1:3-5. He already established us as offspring of the Divine, even before you knew that you needed to experience the Significance of Salvation by repentance.

.."for He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. In love He predestined us to be adopted as His sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with His pleasure and Will..." Ephesians 1:4-5.

Holiness was never intended to be the name of a denomination or even a spiritual ritual of religion. Holiness is the very Nature of the Father and His Kingdom. It is the very reality of the Father Himself. And since we were formed in Him before the world began, we too, are Holy. Holiness "is" God. Being formed "in" God makes us Holy as well.

The seasons and years of the earth "have no power to hinder what God already recognized before the world began." Regardless of the situations in your life, when the Spirit "recognizes what God already foreknew, believe me, YOU WILL BECOME APPREHENDED BY THE FATHER. God is never worried or pressured by the foolishness of the world. He is never fearful, dismayed, or stressed out about anything. For those He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of His Son.

You see, the Father desires for us to be "as Christ in the earth, and not byproducts of the religion of men." Many are patiently waiting for their family members to be byproducts of religion "while thinking that what they're waiting for is the image of Christ." However, religion is not the Image of Christ. It is the image of the fallen.

God is raising up Kingdom voices that will "stir the Atmospheres of God, and awaken within those who hear, the very Seed of the Image of Christ." God predestined us to be as His sons, not religious beings. Many are patiently awaiting the wrong thing!

He "set the Atmosphere in order" to bring forth sons of God. It will not release or bring forth anything else. God established the Kingdom "to receive you as a son of God." Creation itself, groans for you. There is no groan from religion. But there is a groan "from the earth, for us to be manifested as sons of God!"

"..The Creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed..." Romans 8:19.

Salvation is the initiator of Divine sonship. It is not the door to becoming a byproduct of a fallen thing. Many have become byproducts of a form of godliness, while at the same time, fearing the Invitations from the Spirit to become the Father's offspring.

The Holy Spirit gives us the "endurance and the capacity to find peace in the midst of significant patience, as we await the things that God has foreknown before creation, to be revealed in our seasons and times." I Peter 1:20 states that Christ was chosen as an Unblemished Sacrifice for our sins "before the foundations of creation, but was revealed in these last times for our sake!"

Coming into the fullness of your Destiny "is to simply awaken to the Wisdom and Intentions that God already knew about you." It's becoming one "with the knowledge concerning you that only the Father knew before the world began." He predestined you to become conformed to the Image of Christ. His destiny for us "is to also become conformed to the Beliefs that Christ believed."

It is impossible to discover one's true destiny "if we also fear the right to believe what Christ believes." We will never discover "what we are afraid to become One with in all things."

Father's Word to You

Judy Bauman

I have already given you everything
You need to fight the enemy of your soul.
You are My child,
You are My soldier,
You are My friend.

Pray to Me as Jesus prayed.
I Am His Father and I Am your Father.

You are more than a conqueror
You have already been given the victory.
You are My righteous instrument ~ My instrument of choice.

I have given you keys.
I have given you My power and authority.
I have chosen you and I will send you in My time.

You are My diamond and you are in the process of being polished.
You need to trust Me and not your old man.
Don't trust the ways of old.

Give yourself wholly to Me and I will give you the desires of your heart.
Trust Me, obey Me, follow Me, love Me; for I will never disappoint you.

Fresh Water for a Dry Desert

Steve Young

"When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. I will open rivers in the high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water." ISA. 41:17-18

... Your problems aren't your problems! Your perception of these problems are draining you of your time and talents. Look for the presence of Jesus, He is there with the visitation you are thirsting for!

The heavens around you have been filled with warfare but God is prevailing on your behalf ..the atmosphere will become clearer as you climb higher in your thirsting of God. As you seek the face of God others will feel the hand of God. Know Gods ways and see God's works.(Psa. 103:7) Your difficulties have not quenched your desire for the Lord and in greater measure they will not withhold the Lord from visiting you with his restoring presence.

"Heavenly Father, I come in Jesus wonderful name. I ask that you would refresh your laborers. Encourage them not to give up or quit. Open our eyes to see you and your wonderful blessing. Let the powers of the enemies be broken Now!!! In the dry places let your river flow. Thank you Jesus, In your mighty name. Amen!"

Fullness, Wholeness, Completeness

Obtained through Righteousness

The promises of God to us are obtained through the righteousness of Christ. We are made righteousness or put into right standing with God through Christ.

Ephesians 4:12-13
His intension was the perfecting and the full equipping of the saints (His consecrated people), that they should do the work of ministering toward building up Christ's Body (the Church),

That it might develop until we all attain oneness in the faith and in the comprehension of the full and accurate knowledge of the Son of God, that we might arrive at the really mature manhood (the completeness of personality which is nothing less than the standard height of Christ's own perfection), the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Christ and the completeness found in Him.

This is the time for the body of Christ to operate in the fullness of Christ.

Roman's 5:17-19

For if, because of one man's (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God's) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them into right standing with Himself) reign as kings in life through the one Man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Well then, as one man's trespass (one man's false step and falling away led) to condemnation for all men, so one Man's act of righteousness (leads) to acquittal and right standing with God and life for all men.

For just as by one Man's disobedience (failing to hear), heedlessness, and carelessness) the many were constituted sinners, so by one Man's obedience the many will be constituted righteousness (made acceptable to God, brought into right standing with Him).

We are brought into the family of God through the finished work of Christ. And it does not come to us by our own performance or wisdom or works.

When Jesus gave His life for our sins, He also did this that we might receive His life or His kind of life.

Our salvation is a gift from God.

It is void of our own efforts.

Luke 9:52-55
And He sent messengers before Him; and they reached and entered a Samaritan village to make (things) ready for Him; but the people would not welcome or receive or accept Him, because His face was set as if He was going to Jerusalem. And when His disciples James and John observed this, they said, Lord, do you wish us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did?

But He turned and rebuked and severely censured them, He said, you do not know of what sort of spirit you are,

For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them from the penalty of eternal death, And they journeyed on to another village.

Luke 10:8-9
Whenever you go into a town and they receive and accept and welcome you eat what is set before you.

And heal the sick in it and say to them, the kingdom of God has come close to you.

Luke 10:22-24
All things have been given over into My power by My Father; and no one knows Who the Son is except the Father, or Who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son may choose to reveal and make Him known,

Then turning to His disciples, He said privately, blessed (happy, to be envied) are those whose eyes see what you see!

Romans 8:14-17

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

For the Spirit which you have now received, is not a Spirit of slavery to put you once more in bondage to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption (WE ARE FAMILY) (the Spirit producing son-ship) in the bliss of which we cry, Abba (Father)! Father!

The Spirit Himself (thus) testifies together with our own spirit (assuring us) that we are children of God.

And if we are His children, then we are (His) heirs also: heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ (sharing His inheritance with Him); only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

I Corinthians 2:4-5, 7-10, 12, 16

And my language and my message were not set forth in persuasive enticing and plausible words of wisdom, but they were in demonstration of the Holy Spirit and power of God (a proof by the Spirit and power of God, operating on me and stirring in the minds of my hearers the most holy emotions and thus persuading them,

So, that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men (human philosophy) but in the power of God.

But rather we are setting forth is a wisdom of God once hidden (from the human understanding) and now revealed to us by God (that wisdom) which God devised and decreed before the ages for our glorification to lift us into the glory of His presence.)

None of the rulers of this age or world perceived and recognized and understood this, for if they had, they would never have crucified the Lord of glory.

If the rulers or demonic spiritual rulers or spiritual principalities of darkness had known the plan of God for mankind to be given the same authority that Jesus had on earth, they would not have put Jesus to death.

But, on the contrary, as the Scripture says, What eye has not seen and ear has not heard and has not entered into the heart of man, (all that) God has prepared (made and keeps ready) for those who love Him and gratefully, recognizing the benefits He has bestowed.

Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the Holy Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything, even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God (the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man’s scrutiny.

Now we have not received the spirit that belongs to the world, but the Holy Spirit Who is from God, given to us that we might realize and comprehend and appreciate the gifts of divine favor and blessings so freely and lavishly bestowed on us by God.

For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart.

We have an unction or anointing or a deposit from the Lord in our spirit after we are born again and that deposit is the Holy Spirit who teaches us all things.

I Corinthians 3:21, 23

All things are yours.

And you are Christ's and Christ is God's.

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ (in Him I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I live now live by faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

II Corinthians 12:9

My grace (unmerited, unearned, undeserved favor, unlimited kindness and blessings in Christ, the fullness of Christ's Spirit and power) is enough for you (sufficient for any danger and enables you to bear the trouble manfully) for My strength and My power is made perfect (fulfilled and completed) and show themselves most effective in your weakness. When we abandon all of our own human level tactics to advance the kingdom of correct the problems, then God overshadows, oversees and overthrows and overrules in our behalf, through our faith in His faithfulness.

We can say that we are using God's faith.

Now we are favored because we are in the family of God. His blood was shed for the remission (debt of sin paid in full, dismissal of debt of sin) of our sins.

Every family member or covenant member is included in the benefits of the family in Christ.

He will bless the works of our hands.

Zechariah 4:6

Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit says the Lord.

All spiritual power and things are obtained through the righteousness of Christ.

The power of God is obtained from God through righteousness imputed to us. The holiness of God, the fire of God, the wisdom of God, the mercy of God, the prosperity of God, the healing of our bodies, the peace of God and our salvation is obtained through the righteousness of Christ.

Daniel 11:32

The people that know their God shall prove themselves strong and shall stand firm and do exploits (for God).

Every generation has been given the responsibility to advance the kingdom of God. The responsibility has been given to us now. We are holding the torch so to speak. It is our turn to give this generation a witness of the grace and salvation of God in Christ.

He has made us the ones to go into every nation and preach the gospel to every creature.

We will pass it on to the next generation if the Lord tarries.

It is our duty to minister to the lost and dying and suffering in this world. We must do it now or the enemy will destroy their lives and we will be accountable.

II Chronicles 16:9

For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro through out the whole earth to show Himself strong in behalf of those whose hearts are blameless toward Him.

Acts 2:39

For the promise of the Holy Spirit is to and for you and your children, and to and for all that are far away, even to and for as many as the Lord or God invites and bids to come to Himself.

Acts 3:16, 25

And in His name (authority given, power of attorney) through and by faith in His name, has made this man whom you see and recognize well and strong. (Yes), the faith, which is, through and by Him (Jesus), has given the man this perfect soundness (wholeness) of body before all of you.

You are the descendants (sons) of the prophets and the heirs of the covenant, which God made and gave to your forefathers, saying to Abraham, And in your Seed (Christ) (Heir) shall all the families of the earth be blessed and benefited.

No one else can take your place. You have a place and a work that no one else can do.

You are empowered and favored.

Hebrews 11:33-35

Through faith Christians of old were able to subdue kingdoms, administer justice, obtain promised blessings and closed the mouths of lions, extinguished the power of raging fire, escaped the devourings of the sword, out of frailty and weakness won in strength and became stalwart, even mighty and resistless in battle, routing alien hosts.

Some received their dead by a resurrection.

Ephesians 6:10

In conclusion, be strong in the Lord (be empowered through your union with Him); draw your strength from Him (that strength which His boundless might provides).

Galatians 3:26-29

For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.

For as many of you as were baptized into Christ (into spiritual union and communion with Christ, the Anointed One, The Messiah) have put on (clothed yourselves with) Christ.

There is (now no distinction) neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is not male and female; for you all are one in Christ Jesus.

And if you belong to Christ (are in Him Who is Abraham’s Seed), then you are Abraham’s offspring and (spiritual) heirs according to promise.

Galatians 4:6-7

And because you really are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying Abba! (Father!) Father!

Therefore, you are no longer a slave (bond servant) but a son; and if a son, then it follows that you are an heir by the aid of God, through Christ.

Colossians 2:9-10, 20

For in Him (Jesus) the whole fullness of Deity (the God-Head) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the God-Head-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

Galatians 2:20

If then you have died with Christ to material ways of looking at things and have escaped from the world's crude and elemental notions and teachings of externalism, why do you live as if you still belong to the world? Why do you submit to rules and regulations?

Galatians 3:23

Whatever may be your task, work at it heartily from the soul, as something done for the Lord and not for men.

I John 4:17

In this union and communion with Him love is brought to completion and attains perfection with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment with assurance and boldness to face Him, because as He is, so are we in this world.

We are born of the incorruptible seed (the Word of God). In a seed is the same substance of the type or kind of thing or animal of person that the seed came from.

Jesus is the Word of God made flesh. We are born of the seed of God. We are going now like Jesus in God's eyes. We are favored by God like God favored Jesus. We are made righteous and made Holy in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:20

But we are citizens of the state (commonwealth, homeland) which is in heaven, from it also we earnestly and patiently await the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) as Savior…

Isaiah 43:21

The people I formed for Myself, that they may set forth My praise and they shall do it.

John 14:11-14Believe Me that I Am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? What I Am telling you I do not say on My own authority and of My own accord; but the father Who lives continually in Me does the (His) works (His Own miracles, deeds of power).

Believe Me that I Am in the Father and the Father in Me; or else believe Me for the sake of the very works themselves. (If you cannot trust Me, at least let these works that I do in My Father's name convince you).

I assure you most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will do (I Myself will grant) whatever you ask in My Name (as presenting all that I Am), so that the Father may be glorified and extolled in (through) the Son.

Yes I will grant (I Myself will do for you) whatever you shall ask in My Name (as presenting all that I AM).

Isaiah 41:10-13

Fear not (there is nothing to fear) for I Am with you; do not look around you in terror and be dismayed, for I Am your God, I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties, yes, I will help you; yes, I will hold you up and retain you with My (victorious) right hand of rightness and justice.

Behold, all they who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded; they who strive against you shall be as nothing, nothing at all.

For I the Lord your God hold your right hand; I Am the Lord, Who says to you, Fear not! I will help you!

II Corinthians 5:7

For we walk by faith (we regulate our lives and conduct ourselves by our conviction or belief respecting man's relationship to God and divine things, with trust and holy fervor; thus we walk) not by sight or appearance.

We walk by the faithfulness of God to us.

God is 100 per cent trust worthy, 100 per cent honest, 100 percent faithful to His Word and promises. God is 100 per cent pure in His motives.

God is not a man that He should lie or the son of man that He has to change His mind.

When God speaks, his Word goes into eternity and is forever settled in heaven.

II Corinthians 6:17-21

Therefore if any person is (engrafted) in Christ (The Messiah) he is a new creation (a New creature altogether); the old (previous moral and spiritual condition) has passed away. Behold, the fresh and new has come!

But all things are from God, Who through Jesus Christ reconciled us into favor, brought us into harmony with Himself) and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation (that by word and deed we might aim to bring others into harmony with Him).

It was God (personally present) in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting up and holding against (men) their trespasses (but canceling them), and committing to us the message of reconciliation (of restoration to favor). We are favored. We are justified and forgiven.

So we are Christ's ambassadors, God making His appeal as it were through us. We (as Christ's personal representatives) beg you for His sake to lay hold of the divine favor (now being offered you) and be reconciled to God.

For our sake he made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin (committed no sin), so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness).

II Corinthians 6:3

We put no obstruction in anybody's way (we give no offense in anything), so that no fault may be found and our ministry blamed and discredited.

II Corinthians 6:16,18

What agreement can there be between a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them and will walk in with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Hebrews 10:17-23

He then goes on to say, and their sins and their law-breaking, I will remember no more.

Therefore, brethren, since we have full freedom (He whom the Son sets free is free indeed) (We are free to use His power, His authority and receive every promise in Christ) and confidence to enter into the Holy of Holies (Faith IS Confidence) by the power and virtue in the blood of Jesus, by this fresh (new) and living way which He initiated and dedicated and opened for us through the separating curtain (veil of the Holy of Holies), that is, through His flesh.

And since we have such a great and wonderful and noble High Priest (Who rules) over the house of God,

Let us all come forward and draw near with true (honest and sincere) hearts in unqualified assurance and absolute conviction engendered by faith (by that leaning of the entire human personality on God in absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness), having our hearts sprinkled and purified from a guilty (evil) conscience and our bodies cleansed with pure water.

So let us seize and hold fast and retain without wavering the hope we cherish and confess and our acknowledgement of it, for He Who promised is reliable (sure) and faithful to His word.

Religious doctrines and philosophy has made Jesus really big and us really small, but God has translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son (Jesus) and made us sit together with Him in Heavenly places. We are now joint heirs with Him. We are God’s children.

We are members of the household of God.

God is as faithful to us as He is to Jesus.

We always say to those that are stepping out of the boat, “Be careful”

Jesus said “Be careful for nothing” Go for it. Don’t worry. Don’t be afraid. Be of good cheer. I AM with you always. I will never leave you nor forsake you.

We are the light of the world. God has some of us in places where there is darkness, but our light will change the darkness into light.

We are to bring God into every adverse situation.
Remember give no place to the devil.

God also has a planned ending for our lives.

Jeremiah 29:11

For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome.

We are now living in the unlimited spiritual realm of the Lord Jesus.

We have freedom in Christ Jesus to use unlimited power to heal, to deliver, to do miracles, to advance the kingdom of God on this earth

The new covenant in Christ Jesus will never be broken.

Colossians 1:13-22

The Father has delivered and drawn us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His Love.

In Whom we have our redemption through His blood, (which means) the forgiveness of our sins.

Now He is the exact likeness of the unseen God (the visible representation of the invisible); He is the Firstborn of all creation.

For it was in Him that all things were created, in heaven and on earth, things seen and things unseen, whether thrones, dominions, rulers, or authorities; all things were created and exist through Him (by His service, intervention) and in and for Him.

And He Himself existed before all things, and in Him all things consist (cohere, are held together).

He is also the Head of (His) body, the church; seeing He is the Beginning, the Firstborn from among the dead, so that He alone in everything and in every respect might occupy the chief place (stand first and be preeminent)

For it has pleased (the Father) that all the divine fullness (the sum total of the divine perfection, powers, and attributes) should dwell in Him permanently.

And God purposed that through (by the service, the intervention of Him (the Son) all things should be completely reconciled back to Himself, whether on earth or in heaven, as through Him, (the Father) made peace by means of the blood of His cross.

And although you at one time were estranged and alienated from Him and were of hostile attitude of mind in your wicked activities,

Yet now has Christ, the Messiah reconciled you to God in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His (the Father's) presence.

Romans 8:1

Therefore, (there is) now, no condemnation (no adjudging guilty of wrong) for those who are in Christ Jesus, who live and walk not after the dictates of the flesh, but after the dictates of the flesh, but after the dictates of the Spirit.

He that is joined to the Lord is one Spirit.

There is an analogy about the way we are one with Christ.

If I took an empty glass and dipped it into the ocean, the water in the glass is the same water that is in the ocean. It has same makeup of the water in the ocean. When we are born of God we have God's Spirit living in us. I will write My laws in their heart and in their minds will I write them. I will live in them says the Lord. I will dwell in them.

It is no longer I that live but Christ that lives in me, Paul wrote. The Spirit of God makes us alive unto God. If any man be in Christ, He is a new creature. Old things have passed away and all things have become new. The old spirit in us has been quickened or made alive with the Spirit of God living in our spirit.

The new spiritual man is led by the Spirit of God, and we are to allow the Spirit of God to have freedom to operate in us. We live by faith and by the faith of God.

Jesus gave us the ability to become sons of God by exercising our faith in His finished work on the Cross. By faith we can bring salvation to every nation and every person on earth.

All things are now possible to those that believe.

2005 is going to be a glorious year for God's people. Don't be fearful, because the enemy will fight you and challenge you to try to weaken and stop you. But God has given you the victory over satan.

He can’t stop God or even slow Him down.

No weapon formed against you shall prosper.

Natural disasters are going to shake up a lot places and upset a great number of people.

But stay in prayer and focus on God.

Nothing by any means shall hurt you.

A thousand shall fall at your side and ten thousand a your right hand, but it shall not come near you.

All things work together for good to those that are called according to His purpose and those that love God.

God has you covered.

Your life is hid with Christ in God.

Satan is a liar and a deceiver. He will only try to distract you and lie to you.

Don’t be distracted. Stay on course with the gospel message.

Give No Place To The Devil!

Terry Suggs

When Adam and Eve was in the Garden of Eden, the devil came to Eve and deceived her saying that they were depraved from being like God. God had spoken saying let us make man in our image and in our likeness or someone like us. Adam lost the garden because he was deceived. He was the guardian of the garden of Eden.

We have been given authority in Christ to guard and protect our home, our country, our government, our families, our churches, our health, our bodies, our music, our minds, our children, the media, our environment, the internet and the air waves.

Give no place to the devil in your private life, in the weather, or in the earth. You have been enabled and empowered through Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 5:1

Therefore be imitators of God (copy Him and follow His example), as well-beloved children (imitate their father).

John 14:12-14

I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will do (I Myself will grant) whatever you ask in My name (as presenting all that I Am), so that the father may be glorified and extolled in (through) the Son.

Yes, I will grant (I Myself) will do for you whatever you shall ask in My name (as presenting all that I Am).

Deuteronomy 30:19-20

I set before the choice of life or death. He is your life and length of days.

Luke 10:19

Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy (possesses); and nothing shall in any way harm you.

John 15:1-9

I Am the True Vine, and My Father is the vinedresser.

Any branch in Me that does not bear fruit (that stops bearing) He cuts away (trims off, takes away); and He cleanses and repeatedly prunes every branch that continues to bear fruit, to make it bear more and richer and more excellent fruit.

You are cleansed and pruned already, because of the Word which I have given you (the teachings I have discussed with you)

Dwell in Me, and I will dwell in you. (Live in Me, and I will live in you), Just as no branch can bear fruit of itself without abiding in (being vitally united to) the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you abide in Me.

I AM the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him bears much (abundant) fruit. However, apart from Me (cut off from vital union with Me) you can do nothing.

If a person does not dwell in Me, he is thrown out like a (broken off) branch, and withers; such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, and they are burned.

If you live in Me (abide vitally united to Me) and My words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you.

When you bear (produce) much fruit, My Father is honored and glorified, and you show and prove yourselves to be true followers of Mine,

I have loved you, (just) as the Father has loved Me; abide in My love (continue in His love with Me).

There is nothing greater than love. God is Love.

Let your name be synonymous with healing, with power, with love, with goodness, with glory, with Faith, with creative miracles, and with the anointing.

God’s love is active and dynamic; constantly working and doing and being expressed towards everyone.

John 1:16

For out of His fullness (abundance) we have al received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift upon gift.

Colossians 3:1-3

If then you have been raised with Christ to a new life, thus sharing His resurrection from the dead, aim at and seek the rich, eternal treasures that are above, where Chris is seated at the right hand of God.

And set your minds and keep them set on what is above the higher things, not on the things that are on earth.

For as far as this world is concerned you have died, and your new real life is hidden with Christ in God.

Our minds have be trained to think like new creatures in Christ. We have the new nature and the power and the Redemption of our lives through Christ, but our minds are still just the same as if we were without the new nature and power and the life of Christ.

Romans 8:18-19

(But what of that?) For I consider that the sufferings of this present time (this present life) are not worth being compared with the glory that is about to be revealed to us and in us and for us and conferred upon us!

For even the whole creation (all nature) waits expectantly and longs earnestly for God’s sons to be made known (waits for the revealing, the disclosing of their son-ship.

Colossians 1:13-23

The Father has delivered us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love.

In Whom we have our redemption through His blood, (which means) the forgiveness of our sins.

(Now) He is the exact likeness of the unseen God (the invisible representation of the invisible); He is the Firstborn of all creation.

For it was in Him that all things were created, in Heaven and on earth, things seen and things unseen, whether thrones, dominions, rulers, or authorities; all things were created and exist through Him (by His service, intervention) and in and for Him.

And He Himself existed before all things, and in Him all things consist (cohere, are held together).

He also is the Head of (His) body, the church; seeing He is the beginning, the Firstborn from among the dead, so that He alone in everything and in every respect might occupy the chief place (stand first and be preeminent).

For it has pleased the Father that all the divine fullness (the sum total of the divine perfection, powers, and attributes should dwell in Him permanently.

And God purposed that through by the service, the intervention of Him (the Son) all things should be completely reconciled back to Himself, whether in earth or in heaven, as through Him, (the Father) made peace by means of the blood of His cross.

And although you at one time were estranged and alienated from Him and were of hostile attitude of mind in your wicked activities,

Yet now has (Christ, the Messiah) reconciled (you to God) in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His (the Father’s) presence.

And this He will do provided that you continue to stay with and in the faith (in Christ), well grounded and settled and steadfast not shifting or moving away from the hope (which rests on and is inspired by) the glad tidings (the Gospel), which you heard and which has been preached (as being designed for and offered without restrictions) to every person under heaven, and of which (Gospel) I, Paul, became a minister.

Colossians 1:27

Christ in you the hope of glory.

Colossians 2:8-10
See to it that no one carries you off as spoil or makes you yourselves captive by his so called philosophy and intellectualism and vain deceit (idle fancies and plain nonsense), following human tradition (men's ideas of the material rather than the spiritual wolrd), just crude notions following the rudimentary and elemental teachings of the universe and disregarding (the teachings of) Christ (the Messiah).

For in Him the whole fullness of the deity (the Godhead) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature.

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the Godhead-Father-Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Headof all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

Every devil and demon in the earth and in hell is subject to Jesus and us in Jesus name or authority.

The devil could not kill Jesus and he can't kill us, because we are in Christ.

We have been running from the devil until now. Now let the devil run from you.

God's power in us and in the kingdom of God, is unlimited. His grace is unlimited, His wisdom and love are unlimited.

There is nothing greater than the love of God. His love is active and dynamic. His love is unconditional and everlasting.

Luke 10:19

Occupy until He comes.

I John 4:15

Anyone who confesses (acknowledges, owns) that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides (lives, makes His home) in him and he (abides, lives, makes his home) in God.

Ephesians 1:18-23

By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set apart ones).

And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable an unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,

Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His own right hand in heavenly places,

Far above all rule and authority an power and dominion and every title that can be conferred, not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

And He has put all things under His feet and appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church).

Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

I Corinthians 6:17

He that is joined to the Lord is one Spirit.

Amos 3:8

The Lion has roared; who will not fear?

The Lord God has spoken; who can but prophesy?

What He (Jesus) Inherited, We Inherited

I Corinthians 3:22-23
All things are yours.

And you are Christ's and Christ is God's.

His (Jesus) inheritance is our inheritance. Whatever is true of Jesus is true of us. What did Jesus inherit?

John 14:2-3,12,16
In My Father's House there are many dwelling places (homes). If it were not so, I would have told you; for I Am going away to prepare a place for you, And when (if) I go and make ready a place for you, I will come back again and will take you to Myself, that where I Am you may be also.

I assure you most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Comforter (Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener, and standby), that He may remain with you forever.

Ephesians 2:4-6
But God- so rich is He in His mercy, Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us.

Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, he made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; (He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's Salvation).

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue or our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

Galatians 3:26-27,29

For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.

For as many of you as were baptized into Christ (into a spiritual union and communion with Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah) have put on (clothed yourselves with) Christ.

And if you belong to Christ (are in Him Who is Abraham's Seed), then you are Abraham's offspring and (spiritual) heirs according to promise.

Galatians 4:1,4-7
Now what I mean is that as long as the inheritor (heir) is a child and under age, he does not differ from a slave, although he is the master of all the estate;

But when the proper time had fully come , God sent His Son, born of a woman, subject to (the regulations of) the Law, to purchase freedom of (to redeem, to ransom, to atone for) those who were subject to the Law, that we might be adopted and have sonship conferred upon us and be recognized as God’s sons).

And because you really are His sons, God has sent the (Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, Abba (Father)! Father!

Therefore you are no longer a slave (bond servant) but a son; and if a son, then it follows that you are an heir by the aid of God, through Christ.

Mathew 5:3,5,10,14
Blessed (happy, to be envied, and spiritually prosperous – with life-joy and satisfaction in God’s favor and salvation, regardless of their outward conditions) are the poor in spirit (the humble, who rate themselves insignificant), for theirs is the kingdom of heaven!

Blessed and happy and enviably fortunate and spiritually prosperous (in the state in which the born again child of God enjoys and finds satisfaction in God’s favor and salvation, regardless of his outward conditions) are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake (for being and doing right) for theirs is the kingdom of heaven!

You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.

And He will cause the sheep to stand at His right hand, but the goats at His left.

Then the King will say to those at His right hand, come, you blessed of My Father (you favored of God and appointed to eternal salvation), inherit (receive as your own) the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Ephesians 1:11-14
In Him we also were made (God’s) heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His own will.

So that we who first hoped in Christ (Who first put our confidence in Him have been destined and appointed to) live for the praise of His glory!

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.

That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance (the firstfruits, the pledge an foretaste, the down payment on our heritage), in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring (complete) possession of it-to the praise of His glory.

Epheisans 2:18-19
For it is through Him that we both (whether far off or near) now have an introduction (access) by one Holy Spirit to the Father so that we are able to approach Him.

Therefore you are no longer outsiders (exiles, migrants, and aliens, excluded from the rights of citizens), but you now share citizenship with the saints (God’s own people, cconsecrated and set apart for Himself); and you belong to God’s own household.

In Him and in fellowship with one another you yourselves also are being built up into this structure with the rest, to form a fixed abode (dwelling place) of God in (by, through) the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:3-6
And that the mystery (secret) was made known to me and I was allowed to comprehend it by direct revelation, as I already briefly wrote you.

When you read this you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ.

This mystery (secret) was never disclosed to human beings in past generations as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles (consecrated messengers) and prophets by the (Holy Ghost).

It is this: that the Gentiles are now to be fellow heirs with the Jews, members of the same body and joint partakers (sharing) in the same divine promise in Christ through (their acceptance of) the glad tidings (the gospel).

In Whom, because of our faith in Him, we dare to have the boldness (courage and confidence) of free access (and unreserved approach to God with freedom and without fear).

May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the Holy Spirit Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality that you may really come to know (practically, through experience for yourselves the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge without experience; that you may be filled through all your being unto all the fullness of God and may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself!

John 10:27-30
The sheep that are My own hear and are listening to my voice; and I know them, and they follow Me.

And I give them eternal life, and they shall never lose it or perish throughout the ages. To all eternity they shall never by any means be destroyed. And no one is able to snatch them out of My hand.

My Father, Who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all else; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.

I and the Father are One.

John 14:27
Peace I leave with you; My own peace I now give and bequeath to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. (Stop allowing yourselves to be agitated and disturbed; and do not permit yourselves to be fearful and intimidated and cowardly and unsettled).

No matter what happens around us we have the Lord’s Peace on the inside of us. Receive it.

Colossians 1:11-14
We pray that you may be invigorated and strengthened with all power according to the might of His glory, to exercise every kind of endurance and patience perseverance and forbearance with joy, Giving thanks to the Father, Who has qualified and made us fit to share the portion which is the inheritance of the saints God’s Holy People in the Light.

The Father has delivered and drawn us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, In Whom we have our redemption through His blood, which means, the forgiveness of our sins.

John 14:12-14
I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone steadfastly believes in Me, he will himself be able to do the things that I do; and he will do even greater things than these, because I go to the Father.

And I will do (I Myself will grant) whatever you ask in My Name (as presenting all that I Am), so that the Father may be glorified and extolled in through the Son.

Yes I will grant (I, Myself will do for you whatever you shall ask in My Name (as presenting all that I Am).

Luke 10:19
Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and (physical and mental strength and ability) over all the power that the enemy (possesses); and nothing shall in any way harm you.

Luke 10:16
He who hears and heeds you hears and heeds Me; and he who slights and rejects you slights and rejects Me; and he who slights and rejects Me slights and rejects Him Who sent Me.

Acts 1:8
But you shall receive power (ability, efficiency, and might) when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria and to the ends (the very bounds) of the earth.

I Corinthians 4:20
For the kingdom of God consists of and is based on, not talk but power (moral power and excellence of soul).

Psalm 16:5,11
The Lord is my chosen and assigned portion, my cup; you hold and maintain my lot.

You will show me the path of life; in Your presence is fullness of joy and power, at Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

Ezekial 44:28
This (their ministry to Me) shall be to them as an inheritance, for I Am their inheritance.

I Corinthians 15:27-28
For He (The Father) has put all things in subjection under His (Christ’s) feet. But when it says, All things are put in subjection (under Him), it is evident that He (Himself) is excepted Who does the subjecting of all things to Him. However, when everything is subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also subject to (the Father) Who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all (be everything to everyone, supreme, the indwelling and controlling factor of life).
II Corinthians 6:16
What agreement (can there be between) a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Hebrews 9:15
(Christ, the Messiah) is therefore the Negotiator and Mediator of an entirely new agreement (testament, covenant), so that those who are called and offered it may receive the fulfillment of the promised everlasting inheritance-since a death has taken place which rescues and delivers and redeems them from the transgressions committed under the old first agreement.

Hebrews 10:10-17,23
And in accordance with this will (of God) we have been made holy (consecrated and sanctified) through the offering made once for all of the body of Jesus Christ (the Anointed One).

Furthermore, every (human) priest stands (at his altar of service) ministering daily, offering the same sacrifices over and over again, which never are able to strip (from every side of us) the sins (that envelop us) and take them away-

Whereas this One (Christ), after He had offered a single sacrifice for our sins that shall avail for all time, sat down at the right hand of God.

For by a single offering he has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy.

And also the Holy Spirit adds His testimony to us (in confirmation of this). For having said,

This is the agreement (testament, covenant) that I will set up and conclude with them after those days, says the Lord: I will imprint My laws upon their hearts, and I will inscribe them on their minds (on their inmost thoughts and understanding), He then goes on to say, and their sins and their lawbreaking I will remember no more.

So let us seize and hold fast and retain without wavering the hope we cherish and confess and our acknowledgement of it, for He Who promised is reliable (sure) and faithful to His Word.

Psalm 37:28-29
For the Lord delights in justice and forsakes not His saints; they are preserved forever, but the offspring of the wicked (in time) shall be cut off.

Then the consistently righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever.

Psalm 82:6
I said, you are gods (since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives; indeed all of you are children of the Most High.

Adam did not have a natural father. God was his father.

Romans 8:9-11,14-17,32
But you are not living the life of the flesh, you are living the life of the Spirit, if the Holy Spirit of God (really dwells within you (directs and controls you). But if anyone does not possess the Holy Spirit of Christ, he is none of His (he does not belong to Christ, is not truly a child a child of god.

But if Christ lives in you , then although you natural body is dead by reason of sin and guilt, the spirit is alive because of the righteousness (that He imputes to you).

And if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then He Who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also restore to life you mortal (short-lived, perishable) bodies through His Spirit Who dwells in you.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

For the Spirit which you have now received is not a spirit of slavery to put you once more in bondage to fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption (the Spirit producing sonship) in (the bliss of) which we cry, Abba Father! Father!

The Spirit Himself (thus testifies together with our own spirit assuring us that we are children of God.

And if we are his children, then we are (His) heirs also; heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ (sharing His inheritance with Him); only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

He Who did not withhold or spare (even) His Own Son but gave Him up for us all, will He not freely and graciously give us all other things?

I Corinthians 15:51-53
Take notice! I tell you a mystery (a secret truth, an event decreed by the hidden purpose or counsel of God). We shall not all fall asleep (in death), but we shall all be changed (transformed).

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the sound of the last trumpet call. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead (in Christ) will be raised imperishable (free and immune from decay) must put on immortality (freedom from death).

Hebrews 3:14
For we have become fellow heirs with Christ (the Messiah) and share in all He has for us, if only we hold our first newborn confidence and original assured expectation (in virtue of which we are believers) firm and unshaken to the end.

I Peter 1:4
By means of these He has bestowed on us His precious and exceedingly great promises, so that through them you may escape (by flight) from the moral decay (rottenness and corruption) that is in the world because of covetousness (lust and greed), and become sharers (partakers) of the divine nature.

Philippians 1:11
May you abound in and be filled with the fruits of righteousness (of right standing with God and right doing) which come through Jesus Christ (the Anointed One), to the honor and praise of God (that His glory may be both manifested and recognized).

Proverbs 3:24-26
When you lie down, you shall not be afraid; yes, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet.

Be not afraid of sudden terror and panic, nor of the stormy blast or the storm

And ruin of the wicked when it comes for you will be guiltless,

For the Lord shall be your confidence, firm and strong, and shall keep your foot from being caught (in a trap or some hidden danger.

Proverbs 23:7
As a man thinks in his heart, so is he.

Mark 16:17-19

And these attesting signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new languages;

They will pick up serpents; and even if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.

So then the Lord Jesus, after He had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and He sat down at the right hand of God.

I Corinthians 2:13
And we are setting these truths forth in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Holy Spirit , combining and interpreting spiritual truths with spiritual language to those who possess the Holy Spirit.

I Corinthians 2:9-10
But on the contrary, as the Scripture says, What eye has not seen and ear has not heard and has not entered into the heart of man, all that god has prepared (made and keeps ready) for those who love Him (who hold Him in affectionate reverence, promptly obeying Him an gratefully recognizing the benefits He has bestowed.

Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the Holy Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God (the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man’s scrutiny).

Ephesians 5:5
For be sure of this: that no person practicing sexual vice or impurity in thought or in life, or one who is covetous (who has lustful desire for the property of others and is greedy for gain for he in effect is an idolater has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Luke 12:15
And He said to them, Guard yourselves and keep free from all covetousness (the immoderate desire for wealth, the greedy longing to have more); for a man’s life does not consist in and is not derived from possessing over-flowing abundance or that which is over and above his needs.

Acts 20:32-35
And now brethren, I commit you to God (I deposit you in His charge, entrusting you to His protection and care). And I commend you to the Word of His grace (to the commands and counsels and promises of His unmerited favor). It is able to build you up and to give you (your rightful) inheritance among all God’s set-apart ones (those consecrated, purified, and transformed of soul).

I coveted no man’s silver or gold or costly garments.

You yourselves know personally that these hands ministered to my own needs and those of the persons who were with me.

I Corinthians 6:9-11
Do you not know that the unrighteous and the wrongdoers will not inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived (misled): neither the impure and immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor those who participate in homosexuality, nor cheats (swindlers and thieves), nor greedy graspers, nor drunkards, nor foulmouthed revilers and slanderers, nor extortioners and robbers will inherit or have any share in the kingdom of God.

Acts 26:16-18
But arise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, that I might appoint you to serve as (My) minister and to bear witness both to what you have seen of Me and to that in which I will appear to you.

Choosing you out for Myself and delivering you from among the Gentiles to Whom I am sending you,

To open their eyes that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may thus receive forgiveness and release from their sins and a place and portion among those who are consecrated and purified by faith in Me.

Fears Will Come and Fears Will Go

Susan Cummings

Fears will come and fears will go, but you must stand even in the darkening flow.

For the Hour of release has certainly begun, and both streams will move as I have told you, and take over the lands. But all who are Mine will not fear, but stand. For I AM the covering over you, and all that comes to you is allowed by Me. If I am in control, then keep your eyes upon Me, and walk through it all in full knowledge of Me. Nothing can overtake those who walk with Me.

Take charge of your thinking and the emotions that try to dominate your hearts. Set your hearts upon Me and remain fixed. Be firm in your stance, and allow no doubts to creep in, for I AM Faithful to you. Nothing can stand before Me and My Word. If My Word is true, and you trust in it, then stand in it, and see My salvation. For the natural and spiritual winds will greatly increase as the Release also does, but all that is Mine will remain planted and rooted in Me and will not be tossed and turned in this hour.

Station yourselves in the secret place and seek My Face. Allow no diversions to rob you of your position or of your faith. For the diversions will come to wear you down, but be vigilant over your time and keep Me ever before you. The actions you take now, will keep you fixed in the days to come, for you are laying a standard by which you will walk in. So, keep it simple, focused, and ever mindful of My leading. You will do well to mark this day, for it is a day of turning and beginning for you.

The awakening has indeed begun, and all of Mine are awakening and rising up, and standing alert. For the alarms have sounded, and the searching has begun, but know that it is by My Hand, and you must stand. Take no day for granted, but prayerfully listen as you go, and know that I will indeed show you the path upon which you must go. Follow not men, or the edicts that will soon come, but follow My Voice and then you can safely run. Keep your hand in Mine, and walk on.

Great shakings have only begun, but even more are to come, for the foundations will surely break forth and many lands will move and break, but all who are Mine will stand firm and not fear even in the great quakes. For I have ordained that you minister in this hour, as it only announces the coming of My great Power. So, wait upon Me, listen for your parts, and then do My Will as the earthly lights grow dark. For all who have Me will shine in the darkness and bring much Truth to the crying masses. I will draw those who hunger after Me and bring them to salvation and liberty. It is the beginning and it is the end, as I am moving and birthing, and showing My Hand.

I am releasing great wisdom in this hour and those who listen and partake, will walk in divine revelation and administration as they go and are sent. The old veils are ebbing rent, and hearts are being laid bare, as all things are shown for what they truly are. But even in the unveiling is My mercy shown, for I know all whose are given unto Me, and to each of them will I send My servants, to bring them unto Me. So, fear not, judge not, and doubt not anymore, but stand firm and rejoice even as the seas and winds roar.

Greater things will come from My Storehouses as the nations begin their final separation and the breaking, and those who stand and are faithful to Me, will do great exploits as I pass over them and take them to the nations.

Fears will come and fears will go, but Mine will stand and My Glory they will show.

Great utterances of My Spirit will sound from the heavens as I purge out the final leaven. The heavenly fiery blasts that will totally consume the holy outcasts, and great signs will come forth as they open their mouths, and release the sealed words of Truth.

Great is the Sounding of the Seven-fold Fire and great is the Roaring of the Ancient Thunders.

The Sounds come upon the Shaking Winds that have now been released through the Ancient Gates and into the Hearts, and Ears, and Mouths, and Hands of Mine. For the latter is greater than the Former Wine. It is time for the Full Counsel to come forth from the Sons of Mine, who now stand in their places at the end of time. All that has been written will be seen, and known as the Truth, for the false will fall before the King.

Even so, it begins.....

Realignments and Reassignments
Susan Cummings

These are days of realignments and of reassignments.

For I am realigning you in your thinking and in your understandings.

Unless you change your thinking and come into agreement with My Word and My Spirit, then you cannot walk in the full Unity of My Spirit and of My Purposes. All things are measured, weighed, and illuminated by My Word. Therefore, come aside and learn of Me, and allow Me to establish My Mind and Word within yours. My thoughts are not your thoughts, and you must be renewed in the Spirit of your Mind.

Unless you allow the Truth to bring the revelation of My Word, your thinking will stay in dead works. It is the washing of the Water of My Word that cleanses all unprofitable, unclean, and sinful things from your souls, and it removes all dead spiritual debris from your minds, and then the illumination of My Word can begin to ignite that Word and bring clarity, understanding, and wisdom to you. Walk in the Light of My Word and allow it to establish you in all of your ways.

The assignments that I am bringing you into demand change. Unless you change, then you cannot grasp the things that you must allow to be formed within you. I am bringing understanding to those who seek after it as a treasure and a great precious possession. You must be lovers of the Truth, to walk in My Power. For the Word comes forth in Power only when those who are formed, forged, and fashioned by it, allow it to do it's work within them, and then they become that Truth. When that Truth is formed within, then you can walk in it's Light, and the authority of that Word.

You must embrace Me fully. You must change, and come to Me, and begin to reverence My Word above all else. If you have anything set before you other than Me, then I cannot bring you change, for I must be your sole Source and Lord. Take down all that hinders you, and throw aside those things that keep you from spending time with Me. Give me your undivided attention. Take heed to what you give your attention to, for what gets your attention, will also obtain a place in your hearts and minds if it is not properly discerned and given no root within you.

Heavenly assignments now are coming forth to those who have positioned themselves before Me, and to those who have been forged and made ready. Prepare your minds for action, for great change and challenges. For the times demand focus and also determination to remain on task. For subtle distractions will come to allure those who walk with Me from their courses, and you must remain diligent and fight the good fight of faith. I have told you the change was here, so now you are to receive. This is a time of equipping but also of positioning and functioning. Trust Me, and step forth when I say to.

Do not judge things by the outward appearances, or the season that is being portrayed in the natural, for you are not to walk after the natural anymore, but by the Spirit. You are led by Me, and are not limited by time and men, but by My Hand. Walk forward, and lean not to your own understanding, but grasp what is My Will, and be not moved. You have spoken before, now it is time to stand anew, and see what will now flow out of you. For I have increased within you, and now we both will flow together as I have shown you. Get ready for action, and for divine cooperation, for you must stay aligned with Me.

Greater separation will now come, as those who agree with My Word will now be separated with those who compromise My Word. There will be no mixing anymore, but firm stances will be taken. Men will choose to walk in Light or darkness. There will be no fellowship with darkness. For I search the inward parts of men, and know what's within. Judge not by outward appearances, but judge by My Spirit. I will show you the Truth. For I know every heart.

This is an hour of alignment and of assignment.

It is a time of positioning and of functioning.

You know what to do, now prepare to walk in it.

All Of Heaven Is Astir
Susan Cummings

All of heaven is astir
Great anticipation flows amongst the heavenly host
Gathering and assembling to see the final outpouring
That comes from the Father in this prophetic timing

Much activity is seen around the Throne
As the hosts prepare for the heavenly sounds
Now released upon the fiery winds and glorious breath
Befalls the earthen vessels that await their birth

Sounds of Holiness and sounds of great Joy
Burst forth from within the prepared hearts of men
As the heavenly fiery winds now descend
Igniting the hearts and vessels of His broken ones

Commotion aplenty will break forth in waves
As the Flaming Vessels now begin to greatly blaze

Brought forth out of the furnace of preparation
Now to fully stand at their end time stations

No longer bound, cornered, and hidden
But coming forth to do the Father's bidding
Late does the bells now toll
Announcing their coming forth of old

All of heaven is astir
Cheering the awakening and the final birth
Former runners and torches from the past
Gather to stand and see the final runners pass

The Heavenly Witnesses watch as they come forth
Lightning fanning the old and the new Torches
Two flames perfectly united into one
Healing the breech and birthing the Son

Quickly igniting and fanned with the Glorious Breath
Raising up the scattered fallen Tents
Establishing again the boundaries of Holiness
Amongst the remains of the former foundations

Fallen, and yet, created anew
Standing as the Standard and the Flame of Truth
Bidding to come, the many and the few
To fully consecrate their hearts anew

The Gates are now closing at the end of the age
Begins now the Hour of the Greatest Change
Written within and upon the Holy Pages
For men to read and walk upright in the Stages

Heavenly decrees and written orders now descend
Placed in the spirits and into the hands of holy men
Vessels of Fire that He will now send Filled with the Fire and Eternal Breath within

Clothed upon, within, and now greatly through Advancing in this year's concluding
Ever reflecting the Father's burning and brooding
Demonstrating the Godhead's doings

Years have come and years have gone
No longer delayed, but comes forth with the final song Played upon the Heavenly strings
Uniting the sequential chords of the man child's coming forth

First comes the one's, two's and three's
Then the full wave of the greater Fiery Company
Breaking forth in the Hour of greater Outpouring
Aflame and brightly burning

Ordered and numbered according to the battle
Positioned and layered in their heavenly stations
For the sounds do come forth that signal the flow
That comes as the last Trumpets do blow

All of heaven is astir
For the ending of the old and the birth of a New Year
The joining completing and the nets repaired
Gathering as one for the preparations for the harvest

Winds of darkness and Winds of Light
Blowing forth in the earth, side by side
Signaling the final end time fight
As the Flaming Ones begin their flight

Eagles of Fire carried upon the winds
Ascending and descending to gather the Sons
Visions, dreams, and fearsome trances
Usher in the hidden revelatory embraces

Wisdom reserved down through the ages
Opening to those who devour the Holy Pages
Shakings and Flashes of Lightning and Thunder
Unrolled to sound the hidden utterances

Men will run frantically to and fro
Seeking to gather and to grow
But only those hidden in Christ from the sin
Will run with the Fiery Flames of the Wind

Change and transformation will come overnight
To those with the Royal Birthright
Branded and fashioned with the Father's Hand
Upon their hearts and Minds, His Name

Ushered to the frontlines of Destiny
Conquering the prisons that hold good men bound
Bringing forth the righteous seed amongst darkened men
Treasures formed and divinely fashioned

Now to stand with their brethren at the end
United and holy, hell plucked firebrands
Called and numbered for their final task
Over the earth, they are now strategically cast

Sounds of urgency and of great change
Usher forth from the Trumpets that blaze
Lifting upwards our earthly gazes
As the Holy Fire and Breath now rages

Great cost and sacrifice comes with the price
But glorious rewards and heavenly insights
Unfold to those who are positioned in this call

Breaking forth into the darkened nightfall

Deep darkness covers the earth and men
That reject the Christ sent forth to die for them
But great Glory and Light shine upon His
Who embraced the scourging and allowed the transformation

So, now comes the birthing with the New Year
Flames of Fire and Glorious Breath
Beginning the uniting of the two broken Covenant Sticks
Into one Scepter of Holiness

Union comes between the Two Houses
Bought with a terrible and costly price
But openly shaming the darkened ones
Who thought they ruled and held the reins

Only to find, to their eternal shame
Plays out the end of the manmade game
And so begins the final outward release
As from the beginning, the Word has been forthtelling

Eyes to see and ears to hear
Fully opened and ignited even this ending year
Floodgates and storms of Truth to rend
The heavens and the earth now come to their end places

As the Father births forth the end time Sons
The stages presenting their props and cues
Causing much stirring amongst the evening news
As the racers and the seals fully break forth

All of heaven is astir
One year ends and another finally begins
So comes also the season and calendar changes
As the earth now greatly pushes and braces

Awaiting it's release from the locked stages
Now can it release the blood spent ground
Opening the prisons of the cursed bounds
To finish the last fiery round

Listen, can you hear the heavenly sounds?
Opening and sounding in waves and rounds
Those who hear and join in will stand faithful
As the earth expels the hidden ungrateful

No longer will the Truth be delayed or hidden
But disclosed and open for all to hear and see
Many will gnash and many will fall to their knees
Forced to acknowledge the King of Kings

So, comes the Flood and the Fiery Streams

As the heavenly hosts write the final pages
Left partially unwritten, as men make their choices
Now the hosts gather to participate and to rejoice

2005 established the beginning of the great divide
Separating the holy and the profane tides
2006 ushers in the restoration of the two sticks
Uniting the brethren in true covenant

Face What You Fear!

Robert I Holmes

"That which I greatly feared has come upon me" (Job 3:25)

As a young man, I had many fears: Fear of heights; fear of enclosed spaces; fear of the dark. In that first year of salvation I was blessed with a youth leader who wanted to try new things. One day at a retreat/camp, he announced that to graduate, we all needed to go abseiling. It was a 120 foot decent over a cliff, leaning over the ocean's rocky shoreline. I cried all the way down, but overcame that fear.

Six months later we went on a caving expedition near Goulburn, NSW. The selected cave was called "the chimney" because it went 100 foot down a tube, then emptied into a bell shaped cave. Abseiling in the dark, on slippery dirt was fine. But at the bottom there was only a small hole leading out. "Where's the way out?" I asked Christo, our guide. "Through the squeeze," he said. I choked. The squeeze turned out to be a long tunnel, at times descending into water, and in places you held your breath to get through! I cried all the way through that dark and dangerous place, but guess what - I found Jesus there! Deliverance from fear!

"Fear not for I am with you" (Isa. 41:10)

Yes that was a promise I had to hold on to; God is with you, so do not be afraid. There is nothing that can happen, that He did not foresee already. "When you walk through the waters I will be there, and through the flames". Floods and fires may come, it's not all going to be rosy, but God will be there. Sounds like suffering to me. There was a startling image in TIME magazine in September. It was a woman swimming down a street in New Orleans (after the levy had broken). Behind her, there were houses on fire (set ablaze by looters). New Orleans must look for God in the midst of her trial, and do not fear.

Confront your fears

God is love, and in His love He "casts out fear". "There is no fear in love, perfect love casts out all fear" (1 John 4:18). God wants to fill your heart and life with love. But you must face what you fear, to drive it out.

A physician once told me that a broken bone is stronger than an unbroken one. Once it has been reset, it will be wider and denser than before. So too, a broken man is stronger than an unbroken man. That's why God beckons in Hosea, "Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is He who has torn, and He will heal us; He has struck down, and He will bind us up" (Hos. 6:1). Yes, the startling truth is that God breaks and strikes at times. Not that He is an abusive father, no far from it. This is a spiritual thing.

Peter put it this way, "You should suffer for righteousness sake. but do not be afraid" (1 Pet. 3:14). Suffering for stupidity, there's no payoff in that. And suffering because we deserve punishment does not produce much fruit either. But suffering for righteousness' sake - that produces a wonderful harvest. Rejoice then when you suffer! Suffering drives fear out of the heart, in a way nothing else can. God does not want his children to live in fear.

Of course suffering can also produce the opposite fruit - engendering fear if we let it. Children raised in poverty very often pursue wealth out of a fear of being poor again - just note the personal habits of many raised during the Great Depression. "God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind" (2 Tim. 1:7). So what are you afraid of? What is your, "But Lord!"?

What are you afraid of?

God wants us to be free, free of fear and shame. God will make us confront whatever we fear. But when presented with this issue, we may buck, we may back off, we may say, "But Lord!". Consider three examples.

a.. Peter was afraid of ritual uncleanness. He was afraid of being found with the unclean Gentiles. One fine and sunny day God interrupted Peter's day. It was lunchtime, and he had a vision of a sheet descending from the sky, full of unclean animals. "Take, eat" was the command. "But Lord!" came the reply. (Acts 10:9-16).
b.. Hosea was told to marry a prostitute. He replied, "But Lord!". He knew what the law said about stoning a "loose woman" to death, but God wanted him to live a parable to Israel (Hosea. 1:2). c.. Jonah was told, "Go to Ninevah". His reply was (implied of course in his actions, by going the other way) was. "But Lord!" (Jonah 1:3). Watch out Jonah, God wants you to confront your fear of speaking to the Ninevites, here comes a whale!

My wife and I have six children and we love them very much. Since he was born, we have had several dreams of loosing our son Elijah. Different scenarios: car accident, suffocation, drowning. We developed an unhealthy fear of losing him, and became quite protective. In February 2005 I was away in Canada (in the freezing cold) and my wife was relaxing by a pool in Junee NSW (in the bright warmth). Her back was turned only for a moment to answer a question, and our son, age 2, walked into the pool and sank like a stone to the bottom. Were it not for a brave 10 year old called Ruth, who saw it and dived in, our son would be dead. We have learned the real meaning of the "dedication" service. We really hand our children's lives to God, trusting Him.

"They did not love their lives, even unto death" (Rev. 12:11)

In 2002 I took a team to minister in Arthurnupudi, Tamil Nadu among the BJP/ RSS Hindu people of that district. We held an impromptu street rally in the evening, to which (we estimate) 600-800 people came. The street was full of expectant people who responded to the offer of prayer and the call for salvation. But on the outside fringes, there lurked some angry young men.

They carried weapons, they were stirring people up. Suddenly from behind me came a man with a rusty coconut knife. He put the blade near my throat, he had alcohol on his breath. The seconds paused like minutes in the gathering darkness. Then our interpreter, Danny Edwin said, "He wants you to pray for his sick wife". wilt. "No problem" I said! Sometimes God asks us to go right to the edge. For some blessed individuals, that will actually be their graduation to glory. Loving not their lives, and fearing nothing whatsoever, even death.

Come on, face your fear!

Find What You Have In Common

(One of the most important issues I believe, at this time, is how believers are divided about many things. The enemy desires that we would be split on various things. What can we find that would unify us and help bring us into one accord? Of course there are issues that are at the core that we must believe in---the death and resurrection of the Lord, the reality of sin, and other things. But I believe, that many of the things that separate believers are of little or no consequence. Seek those things that you would have in common with each other, and then the enemy would not have a foothold.)

12 to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up 13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. Eph. 4:12-13

21 For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again. 22 If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened. Matt. 24: 21-22

6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. 7 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. 8 All these are the beginning of birth pains. Matt. 24

“I tell you that the time of the great tribulation is approaching. Men and women will rend their hearts for these days. I tell you that many think that these days are far off. They are not far off. Many believers think that they will taken out before any of this happens. I tell you that there has been a great debate about this for many years. I have come to perfect my bride. I have come that they would grow unto full stature. To go to full stature you must go through a portion of these days. You have seen many of the birth pangs that have been upon the earth. I tell you that the pangs will increase.”

“ One of the greatest devices of the enemy during this time is to divide Christians. You will be divided about spiritual gifts. You will be divided about tithing. You will be divided about the anti-christ. I tell you that the enemy is aware of all of these things, and he chooses to find those things that would divide you. I tell you, what can you find that you would agree upon? What is there that would bring you into unity? Or are these issues so important that you can’t fellowship with one another? “

“I tell you that a great Civil War will come. I tell you that certain groups of believers will be set up in each camp. Instead of preparing for the last days, you will be separated from each other. Oh, the folly of it all! “

Where Is He Who Correctly Handles My Word
Stephen Hanson

Aug. 13, 2005

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2:15

Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways; we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 2 Corinthians 4:2

"I tell you that there is time coming when many within the body of Christ will become split apart because each will form their own group. I tell you that some have already begun this. Some think that they follow a correct understanding of my word, but I tell you that their understanding has become poisoned. They look for ways that they can attack others, and they use my word as a weapon against each other. I tell you that my word has become twisted and distorted; it is a sad occurrence. My word will not become twisted and distorted. I will not allow it. For some are like the Pharisees and Sadducees; they loved to pick apart things. They followed the letter of the law but they did not know the “intent” of my word. Are you one of these? If so, then I say that it is time to lay your weapons down. When I say “Be ye separate,” that does not mean that you are separate yourselves from those who hold the same beliefs. I tell you that you have become darkened in your understanding. You think that you know the truth but the enemy has clouded your vision. When a true prophet has brought froth my word and has spoken it correctly, you say that “surely this was not from the Lord.” You say this because it has penetrated your heart. You say this because it has exposed your sin. You say this because you have examined the scriptures, but you have distorted them. I say, ‘Woe to those who have done these things’ for the very word that you have declared as wrong will come back to you. Where is he who correctly handles my word? Where is he who has a heart of wisdom? “

Four Years Of College Or One Word Of Knowledge

Bill Yount

I sense many of God's people are living under a cloud of regret that they have not gone on to further their education in their younger years. They are feeling that this has limited them in serving in the Lord's Kingdom. The enemy has convinced many that their lack of education disqualifies them from ever expecting to be used effectively by the Lord. I personally am not against education but I heard the Lord say concerning these people. "Four years of College - or one word of knowledge! It makes no difference to Me! Time spent in My presence can give you "knowledge beyond college!" Jeremiah 33: 3 "Call unto Me and I will answer thee and show you great and mighty things that you know not of."

The Bible says that Jesus Christ was made unto us "wisdom." He is our wisdom. James says, "If any one lack wisdom let him ask of God and He will give it generously." Furthering our education is good for all of us but we should never let it limit us from being used of the Lord. When we spend time with the Lord who is all knowledge and all wisdom we will begin to know what He knows.

1Corinthians 1:20 "Where is the wise? ... hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God. It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." 25: "Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men." 30: "But of him are you in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom....31: "That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord!" 2:5 "That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God."

1 Corinthians 3:18 "Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise." 19: "For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God."

Many times God's wisdom is foolishness to the world.

When Walt Disney was in elementary school the teacher asked the students to draw a garden of flowers on paper. When the students handed the papers in, the teacher came back to where Walt Disney was seated and said. "This is not correct. Flowers don't have faces! Walt Disney responded - "Mine do!" (ever hear of Walt Disney?) God is about to release fresh revelation and creative ideas that the world has never heard of. As we rest in the presence of God instead of striving to know things revelation will come forth to us. John (the revelator) was on the Isle of Patmos for the word of God. One of the first words that comes out of John's mouth was, "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day!" The Lord's day is the sabbath. Sabbath means "rest." I believe John was resting in His Father's love for him, feeling His arms around him and out oozes the whole book of Revelation! Rest will bring you revelation. We are still trying to figure that book out and it just oozes out of John while he was resting in God's presence. So much revelation came out of John that one church couldn't hold it all. He had to write to seven churches!

Draw near to God. For there we will find "knowledge beyond college." TD Jakes once said, "We should come to God stupid instead of thinking we know everything!

Good For Us
Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/articles/good.html

"One thing I am sure of: I was blind before, but now I can see" (John 9:25b).

The Lord reveals Himself to us in a variety of ways, and every testimony is different. Peter received the revelation of Christ while fishing. But Thomas received the revelation of Christ only after the Lord appeared to Him and showed him His wounds. Paul received the revelation of Christ on the road to Damascus, as he was on his way to kill Christians. One man says Christ was revealed to him as he stood watching a tree in the dead of winter. Christ was revealed to me as I sat in my backyard, arguing with the Lord over the Bible.

What do these experiences have in common? They are spontaneous unveilings of Jesus Christ. Without warning the Lord simply reveals Himself, and whereas we were blind before, today we see. It is like walking out of one room and into another room, closing the door behind us. We are the man born blind in John 9. It is not that he can improve himself, or gradually come to the place where he can see something. He is BORN blind, and he can see nothing but darkness until the Lord, the Light of the world, makes him see. So many blind people hope to improve their seeing through sermons, meetings, and more teachings. But one moment of seeing is worth ten thousand years of learning. It is better to sit at the feet of an ignorant man who has seen the Lord than it is to be instructed by the most educated Bible teacher who is blind to the things of God.

Him We Preach
Chip Brogden

http://www.watchman.net/articles/preach.html

(The essence of this message was delivered by the author as an introduction to our first School of Christ on March 12, 2005 in Wilson, North Carolina.)

"Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. To this end I labor, striving according to His working which works in me mightily" (Colossians 1:28,29).

Paul is writing to the Colossian Christians. He is writing to brothers and sisters in Christ whom he has never met face-to-face, and he is writing to them from jail. What will he say? How does he introduce himself? What we have in the first chapter of Colossians is very little about Paul himself. Instead, Paul takes the opportunity to introduce Another - or rather, to re-introduce Him. For we have here, in this first chapter of Colossians, that great revelation of Christ and God's Purpose: "That in all things [Christ] may have the preeminence" (Colossians 1:18b). Everything about this first chapter of Colossians is designed to take us deeply into Christ, and these depths are so deep that it takes your breath away. This is Paul's introduction, and what an introduction it is!

So when we come to the end of this first chapter, down to verses 28 and 29, we gain some insight into Paul's purpose. What drives him? What is his intention? What is he called to do? And I think we can take this one verse in particular, verse 28, and apply it to the whole reason for creating "The School of Christ," and for having the ministry of Watchman.Net, because our purpose is exactly the same as Paul's. I am amazed at how much I have in common with brother Paul, and if I believed in reincarnation, I might think that I was Paul in a previous life! I don't really believe that, of course, but I am trying to convey just how close we are; it is as if we are hand in hand working towards this singular purpose.

And what exactly is this purpose? After giving us this magnificent vision of Christ in all His glory, in all His preeminence, in verse 28 Paul finally tells us something about what he is doing: "Him we preach."

HIM we preach. HIM we preach. Who? Christ. This glorious Christ Jesus of Whom he has been speaking.

Now we might pause and consider the significance of those three words. Paul, you see, was not preaching some new religion he invented as an alternative to Judaism. Perhaps you have seen those history programs on television? I watched one the other day on the origins of Christianity. The producers interviewed these professors of religion and history, those "egg-heads" and intellectuals who are supposed to be experts. Do you know what they were saying? They were saying that Paul traveled all over the Roman Empire in order to establish the Christian religion.

Well, that sounds correct. I suppose most people simply accept that and move right along. But folks, Paul did no such thing. I may not have any theological training or seminary degrees but I tell you that Paul did not go around trying to establish the Christian religion, and he did not go about preaching the "institutes of Christian faith and doctrine." What was he doing? Verse 28 tells us precisely what he was doing: "Him we preach." HIM. HIM. HIM! Do you see that? Do you get it? Not a doctrine, or a religion, or a catechism, but a Person, an exceedingly great and precious Person, this Preeminent Christ. That, friends, is far greater than any mere religious doo-dad! Paul was not occupied with Christianity per se, and he would have nothing in common with the Churchianity we are all so familiar with; he was forever and always occupied with CHRIST. "Him we preach."

Do you know that Paul did not plant churches? I know everyone today is interested in church planting, and they believe the primary purpose of an apostle is to plant churches. I disagree with that premise because I do not see it in the Scriptures. Who planted the church in Antioch? Read the last half of Acts 11 and see for yourself. I say that there is only One Church, and Jesus is building it. That wonderful church in Antioch came into being because a handful of nameless believers left Jerusalem and decided that instead of preaching Jesus to the Jews only, they would preach Jesus to the Gentiles. Just see the progression of it, beginning with Acts 11:19. Then look at verse 20. What were they doing? "Preaching the Lord Jesus." They did not go to Antioch to teach them how to have a house church. They preached the Lord Jesus. HIM WE PREACH! In verse 21 we find that a great number of them believed. By the time we get down to verse 26 we find that the believers were now called disciples, and the whole lot of them were referred to as "the church." And it was there in Antioch that they were first called Christians.

Do you see the key here? Do you see the principle? You know, the Church of Antioch was not the result of some great church planting effort sponsored by the Church of Jerusalem. It came about because someone went and preached Jesus. HIM WE PREACH. That is the point. Do you see it? That is the key. If you want a "New Testament pattern" there you have it. It has nothing to do with where you meet, how often you meet, or what you do when you meet; it has to do with Whom you preach.

Now we can trace Paul's progress from the time he met the Lord Jesus on the road to Damascus all the way to the end of his life. We can chart it from beginning, to middle, to end and find a straight line from which he never deviates. He says, "Him we preach." Where did it start? Acts 9:20 says that after Jesus revealed Himself to Paul, "Immediately [Paul] preached Jesus Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God." Immediately! Whom did he preach? Jesus Christ.

Go forward a few years and take his temperature again. How does that wonderful book of Acts conclude? Paul is in custody now, under house arrest. "Then Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to him, preaching the Kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him" (Acts 28:30,31). He is still preaching and teaching Jesus. He has not wavered or changed one iota from the path he started.

Now go all the way to the end of his life. Before Caesar cut off his head, Paul said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith" (II Timothy 4:7). What a powerful testimony! You see how the line is carried all the way through. He preached Jesus from the beginning right through to the end.

We have taken "church planting" as a goal, or a means to a goal, when the goal is not "church planting" at all. What were they really doing? Not planting churches, but planting Christ - sowing the Word, the Living Word, so that He will find some good ground to build His Church upon. Those who believed were called disciples, and together they are referred to as the Church. That is the right order of things. Christ must have the preeminence: the first, the full, and the final place, and when He has that kind of position then we will see disciples made and ekklesias come forth spontaneously.

In addition to the Scriptures we have already referenced, consider the following:

"Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ" (Acts 2:36).

"Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole" (Acts 4:10).

"And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ" (Acts 5:42).

"Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them" (Acts 8:5).

"Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus" (Acts 8:35).

"[Paul] preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection" (Acts 17:18b).

"And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ" (Acts 18:5).

"And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to [Paul] into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening" (Acts 28:23).

"From Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ" (Romans 15:19b).

"We preach Christ crucified" (I Corinthians 1:23a).

"I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified" (I Corinthians 2:2).

"For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord" (II Corinthians 4:5a).

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?" (Galatians 3:1).

"But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world" (Galatians 6:14).

"Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ" (Ephesians 3:8).

"What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice" (Philippians 1:18).

"As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him" (Colossians 2:6).

So Paul tells us the secret of his success and the key to the whole New Testament - for that matter, the key to the whole Bible and the Key to Everything. After presenting us with this glorious unveiling of Christ, Paul does not say, "This is WHAT we preach," but "This is WHOM we preach." Christianity as an institution has long been occupied with things: churches, clergy, teachings, doctrines, religious things. The "house church movement" is similarly engrossed in the dynamics of how to meet, where to meet, and what to do when meeting. The "charismatic movement" is obsessed with alleged manifestations and spiritual gifts. The "prophetic movement" is absorbed with what they think God is saying, doing, or about to do. Paul was preoccupied with a Person, and the difference between what we preach today and Whom he preached then explains how and why he was part of a small remnant of people who were able to turn the world upside down without the aid of the Internet, television programs, or international conferences and meetings.

When people touch Christianity today they are mostly touching a religious way of thinking or living or acting or talking - not Biblical Christianity, but mere Churchianity. They are touching external things such as where, when, and how church services are to be conducted, things such as which nuance of church doctrine is correct, and so on. But seldom do they touch a real Person, and seldom are we able to get at the Person Who stands above and beyond all these other things. Compared to Him it is all so much minutia, all so very petty. Well, all I can say is Paul did not get lost in minutia. Once he caught sight of Christ he never let go of Him.

So Paul preached Christ. "Him we preach." Now, he had a certain way of going about it. Let's keep reading Colossians 1, verse 28: "Him we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom." I see so much in so few words! There are two dynamics here. Warning every man and teaching every man. Warning and teaching. Here we see the ministry of a watchman. I would say, friends, that we need both the warning and the teaching. Warning, I believe, represents the prophetic ministry. That's not all there is to the prophetic ministry, but it is a major aspect of it. And of course, teaching. Prophets and teachers working together. Going back to the church in Antioch, you see prophets and teachers gathered together in Acts 13:1, ministering to the Lord. Now most of the time, prophets and teachers are in conflict. Prophets tend to rely on inspiration and revelation, while teachers tend to rely on searching out and studying the Scriptures. Very rarely do you see the two functions coming together in a single person, but when they do it is extraordinarily powerful. Paul was that kind of person. He had incredible prophetic insight and revelation, and he also had the ability to translate what he was seeing and teach it to others. We desperately need the prophetic gifts and the teaching gifts working together in one accord.

Let us keep reading verse 28: "Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom." In ALL wisdom. You know, a little bit of knowledge is a dangerous thing. Every denomination is based on a little bit of knowledge taken to an extreme, and before long that specialty becomes the thing they stand for. Free Will, Pentecostal, African Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Holiness, Apostolic, Prophetic, Reformed, Charismatic, House Church, all of them stand for a particular "thing" and make that "thing" their distinctive. We even have denominations for different races. I spent over half my life in a denomination, and since leaving that denomination I have traveled about and seen a number of groups, some of which I would call cults (although they would not call themselves cults). There is very little difference between a cult and a denomination, the only real difference being that the first group is demonized and the second group is Christianized. You can find fault with that if you like, but my point is that it is all based on a little bit of knowledge, a little germ of truth, but it does not represent "all wisdom."

There are only two sources of wisdom: the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit, and both these are always pointing us to Christ, "in Whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Colossians 2:3). We need a good working knowledge of the Scriptures and a good working relationship with the Spirit in order to say we are truly speaking with all wisdom. The Scriptures are the objective standard by which all our subjective revelations may be measured. Let me explain what I mean. If you come to me and say, "God told me thus and so," how do I know whether to believe you or not? What if I come to you and say the same thing? You should not just take my word for it. We cannot trust ourselves. We need something outside of ourselves by which we can judge and test all things. This is what we have in the Scriptures. I can take the Scriptures and weigh what you are saying, and you can do the same thing with me. If it lines up with the Scriptures then we can accept it, but if it does not, then we can reject it. That is what it means to exercise good, sound spiritual discernment.

Or look at it the other way. Take the Scriptures without the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Just use your mind and try to figure it all out. What will be the result? Error and deception. Just see what a man like Joseph Smith or a woman like Mary Baker-Eddy can do by taking one or two passages out of context! They did not know how to rightly divide the Scriptures, and they did not submit themselves to the authority of the Holy Spirit, the One Who interprets the Scriptures for us. To take the Scriptures and try to study them the same way you would study math or history or social studies is a grave mistake. Give a Bible to someone who does not have the Spirit of God for a teacher and you end up with either a Pharisee or a false prophet. Jesus pointed out that even though the Pharisees searched the Scriptures they failed to recognize Him, refused to come to Him, and eventually got rid of him - all the while clinging to their carnal understanding of the Law, and quoting Scripture the whole time! Why, even the devil can quote Scripture, just as he did in the temptation of Christ.

What am I getting at? I am saying that the Holy Spirit confirms the truth revealed within the Scriptures, and the Scriptures confirm the truth that is revealed by the Spirit (or, disproves what is purported to be the Spirit when it is not the Spirit). We need both, and this is what I see in that one key phrase: "in all wisdom." And if you notice again, the prophetic ministry relies heavily on the Spirit, while the teaching ministry relies heavily on the Scriptures. When they are working together you have harmony and balance. So Paul preached Christ, he brought warning as well as teaching, and he used "all wisdom", both the Spirit and the Scriptures, to accomplish the mission.

We come to the end of verse 28, a very rich verse indeed, but there is more. Every word is priceless. We are about to discover the reason behind all this. Whenever we see the word "that" in Scripture we should listen carefully because we are about to be told the "why", the reason, the purpose behind what was just stated. Now Paul writes, "Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom." Why do you do it, Paul? What makes you tick? What motivates you? What are you driving at? What is the point? What is the goal? "That we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus."

Now when we see the word "perfect" here, let us understand that the sense of the word does not mean sinless perfection, but rather, spiritual maturity. Perfection, according to Paul, is spiritual adulthood. It is the full-knowledge of Christ. We will have more to say about that later today. But for now, recall that in I Corinthians 13:10-12, Paul talks about it. He says, "When that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away." He then talks about speaking, understanding, and thinking like a child until he became a man, and then he put the childish things away. And he talks about seeing through a glass darkly versus seeing face to face. What does it all mean? Spiritual maturity, coming to the full-knowledge of Christ. As children we only see in part; that is immaturity. Perfection is seeing face to face. That is intimacy. Seeing Who face to face? Seeing Christ - and I do not take that to mean seeing the Lord after I die. That has nothing to do with spiritual maturity, that is the natural direction of life. Paul declares that the light of the knowledge of the glory of God has shone in our hearts already, and can be seen in the face of Jesus Christ (II Corinthians 4:6). We are talking about seeing Christ in the Scriptures, seeing Christ in our hearts, seeing Christ in our circumstances, seeing Christ in our brothers and sisters, seeing Christ at work in the world around us. To see all things of Him, all things through Him, and all things to Him (cf. Romans 11:36) is spiritual perfection.

What an awesome goal! And if you are keeping count, you will see that three times now Paul has said, "Every man." He says we warn every man, we teach every man, and our goal is to present every man perfect in Christ. Every man! Is this hyperbole? Does Paul really think he can do it? Well, remember he is the one who tells us that every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (cf. Philippians 2:10,11). He is the one who tells Timothy to pray "for all men... for God will have all men to be saved and to come to the full-knowledge of the Truth" (I Timothy 2:1-4ff). Either Paul is delusional or he is pursuing a worthy goal that is truly bigger than himself, bigger than just having a little ministry or planting a few churches here and there; something that is flowing right out of the heart of God Himself. He has "every man" in view (not just the Church), and no one is excluded, because God includes all men, and Paul cannot settle for less than what God intends. "He is the Savior of all men," Paul declares, "and especially those who believe" (I Timothy 4:10). This is the Savior Whom Paul preached. What an awesome thing this is, and awesome is too weak of a word to describe it. The very idea makes your head spin. It might even drive some to despair, the enormity of it.

Paul might have buckled under the pressure. He certainly grew weary. He certainly was misunderstood, rejected, and persecuted. He suffered so much. What kept him going? Verse 29 of Colossians 1 says, "To this end I labor, striving according to His working which works in me mightily." He labors, and he strives. That's the way Paul was. Laboring and striving, even when he was laboring and striving for the wrong things, he was absolutely dedicated to the mission. But there is something more extraordinary at work in Paul, something more than sheer willpower or determination. I tell you willpower will only take you so far. Willpower is overrated. We need something else, something supernatural, something that does not rely upon my limited willpower. What was it? "I strive according to HIS WORKING which works in me mightily." It was not the strength of Paul, but the strength of Christ in Paul, and through this Christ, Paul said, "I can do all things" (Philippians 4:13). All things!

So Christ was working mightily in Paul in order to accomplish His Purpose. Did Paul succeed? Yes - but Paul did not see the fulfillment of that glorious mission. Paul was finished, but God's Purpose was not. God's Purpose would continue on beyond Paul, down through the generations, and today the torch is being handed off to this generation, and when our time has passed, if the Lord tarries, we will hand the torch off to the next generation. How could Paul have imagined that we would be here today, nearly two thousand years later, discussing those letters of his, getting captivated by that same Christ Whom he preached?

And so we have taken this small passage of Scripture for our very own, because I believe it speaks to the exact purpose for which we have come together in this School of Christ. If someone asks, "What is your goal? What is your reason for living? Why this website, and why this School of Christ? What are you getting at?" My answer is this: we preach Christ, and we warn every man and teach every man with all wisdom, that we may bring every man into a perfect, complete, mature, and fully-developed relationship with Jesus Christ. To this end we will labor and strive according to His working which works in us mightily. Amen.

Great and Mighty Things
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 19th, 2005 12:11 am

Jer 33:3 AMP Call to Me and I will answer you and show you great and mighty things, fenced in and hidden, which you do not know (do not distinguish and recognize, have knowledge of and understand).

Dan 4:3 AMP How great are His signs! And how mighty His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation. [Dan 7:13,14; Luke 1:31-33.]

Luke 1:49 AMP For He Who is almighty has done great things for me--and holy is His name [to be venerated in His purity, majesty and glory]!

John 14:12-14 NKJV The Answered Prayer
"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you ask anything in My name, I will do it.

“ My KINGDOM endures forever. Greater is HE that is in you, than he who is in the world! GREATER things, I said to you, you would do, because I left this world to go back to My Father. But the greater things come to them who seek My face, not just my hand. Who is it that really wants more of ME? Where is the one who will sit at My feet? This is the one to whom I will pour out My glory, and to the One whose heart LONGS for ME, even when they can’t be with me, their heart is still fixed on MINE!

Get ready to receive glory. Get ready to be drawn in to the place of supreme holiness. For I AM HOLY, and He who desires to live as I lived must walk in holiness. I said to ‘BE HOLY AS I AM HOLY’! I am removing the areas of compromise in your life, that you may receive what I have to pour out into you! He who shares in My suffering will share in My glory I said. The suffering is for a moment, an hour, a day, a month, a year, or a season, but it works eternal glory in you! It works holiness to those who are called. It works perseverance. It works humility so that when you see others suffering, you do not ignore them, but you do what I would do!

To the one who shows no mercy, no mercy will be given. To the one who shows mercy, he will receive mercy when he needs it. To the one who loves, love will be shown. Sowing and reaping is a law of the Kingdom. But, I have come to give you what you don’t deserve! You did not deserve to be freed from sins. You did not deserve life when you murdered with your words those around you; when you hated, when you didn’t forgive. But yet I have forgiven you greatly all that you have done, by My BLOOD shed for you!

No My beloveds, I do not anymore only give what you deserve, otherwise you would all be dead. The law doesn’t change, my word doesn’t change. And My mercy endures forever, yet to the one who has been heartbroken beyond repair, and reacts in pain and rejection, I will show that one great grace, for I know what he has endured. Mercy triumphs over judgment! I AM the ONLY TRUE JUDGE! I know what is in the heart of a man! I alone know!
So look to ME for how to pray, what to say, what opinion you should have of another. SEEK MY FACE and I will show you that you may pray, not that you may gossip, or judge.

James 2:13 NKJV For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

John 2:24 NKJV But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men, 25 and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

“ I am trying to clean up your mouths because with your mouths you speak both blessing and cursing and it should not be so among you! If you want authority, then you must put away the pointing of the finger. When I said to judge it is to determine the origins of what a man is speaking from or doing things from, what spirit is in a man. I did not mean for you to sit as judge and executioner! If you want mercy for the mistakes you make, then give mercy to others. If you want to be treated kindly when you fail, then give kindness to others. It will make them wonder how you could love that much anyone! Remember that MY LOVE leads to REPENTANCE!

If a leader has faults, then PRAY for him. If a leader refuses to receive correction and will not change, and you have prayed and spoken truth to him, then you are not under obligation to side with him any longer. What does light have to do with darkness? I’ve told you in My word that if you side with someone in their sin, then you SHARE in the sin. Yet my people prefer to be as prostitutes, making themselves whores with the unbelieving, the greedy, the murderous, the adulterous and perversion of men that are in leadership, rather than obeying ME WHO IS THE FOUNTAIN OF LIVING WATER. They serve prostitutes and align themselves with them, then wonder when things don’t go right in their lives.

Soon the time of Glory is at hand, and I want all of My children to be able to receive all I have for you. My love will be poured out from on high. My river of honey will explode inside of you and you will be changed. Know that when this happens many who were not right in their heart will weep and sob for the sins they have committed. Remember that YOU are not the judge. Do not kick at the goads. I am the Mighty One of Israel. Nothing is impossible with ME. Pray now for your own souls! Pray for those who have turned from righteousness and followed after self, and greed, envy and self seeking, that they may be spared when I pour out My glory. Remember that the priest who stood before the Holy of Holies would not live if they walked in sin and entered in! Ananias and Sapphira experienced the same for a lie and deceit.

Seek ME NOW, that you might be cleansed in your heart. Desire earnestly the best gifts Paul admonished you, but one thing I said through him, was that there was something greater. LOVE is the greatest. To learn to LOVE ME with your WHOLE HEART and soul, strength and mind is the first commandment. To love one another as you love yourself is the other greatest commandment. Some of you don’t love yourself because you misunderstand MY LOVE. So you can’t love your neighbor as yourself. You find it hard to forgive or endure hardship. You find it difficult to pray for others who are difficult in their behavior because you don’t understand the supremacy of My love for you! The FATHER loves you as He loves ME! The FATHER LOVES YOU AS HE LOVES ME. THE FATHER LOVES YOU AS HE LOVES ME! EVEN WHEN YOU FAIL. EVEN WHEN YOU AREN’T PERFECT. Even as you love your own children when they aren’t perfect – the Father loves you! You are loved because you love ME! Nothing can take His love from you.
When you fail, REJOICE, and worship ME. When you fail, ask for forgiveness and forgive yourself, and praise ME that you failed! Praise ME that I am helping you to overcome all that has come against you. GRACE to GRACE you are moving forward. Glory to glory is being poured out as you enter My presence. STOP CONDEMNING YOURSELVES AND STOP CONDEMNING OTHERS. Those who are on the outside are already condemned. Not everyone moves through healing at the same pace so have patience with one another and PRAY for one another as you would for a sister and brother! I AM WITH YOU AND I SEE ALL YOU DO!

I AM ABOUT TO BREAK CHAINS OF SELF HATRED! I AM ABOUT TO BREAK CHAINS OF REJECTION AND SELF REJECTION, OF REBELLION AND HATRED OFF OF those who have been greatly abused and bruised!

I HAVE NEED OF YOU! AS I REMOVE YOUR CHAINS, REACH OUT TO THOSE LIKE YOU I SEND TO YOU! HAVE CONFIDENCE IN MY LOVE FOR YOU! REJOICE! AND AGAIN I SAY REJOICE, SING AND PRAISE AND DANCE AND DO NOT HOLD BACK FROM SPEAKING MY WORD ALOUD. PROPHESY TO THE HEAVENS. PROPHESY TO THE EARTH. PROPHESY TO DEMONS AND PRINCIPALITIES FROM MY WORD! USE THE WEAPONS OF WARFARE I HAVE GIVEN YOU! I AM RELEASING THE SPIRIT OF MIGHT! I AM ROARING OVER YOU AND OVER MY CHURCH! I AM JEALOUS FOR MY BRIDE AND I LOVE YOU INTENSELY AND WILL NO LONGER ALLOW THOSE WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME TO ABUSE ONE ANOTHER!

I am releasing MIRACLES and healings and I will do mighty signs and wonders in the earth. GREATER THINGS YOU WILL DO! FAITH is a key, as much as holiness, so reach out to ME, and I will imbue you with all you need to be BOLD as a LION! The Lion of Judah is ROARING and He will roar through you as you reach out to others! Be not ASHAMED of My MOST HOLY SPIRIT! Speak tenderly to My people!"

Rom 1:29-32 NKJV being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, 30 backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving, unmerciful; 32 who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them.

Luke 11:48-49 NKJV In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49 Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,'

Ezek 3:17-21 NKJV "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me: 18 When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. 19 Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.
20 "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. 21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

Ezek 2:6-8 NKJV "And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions; do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7 You shall speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious. 8 But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you."

Ps 147:5-8 NKJV Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite. 6 The LORD lifts up the humble; He casts the wicked down to the ground. 7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; Sing praises on the harp to our God, 8 Who covers the heavens with clouds, Who prepares rain for the earth, Who makes grass to grow on the mountains.

Ex 32:11-12 NKJV Then Moses pleaded with the LORD his God, and said: "LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, 'He brought them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this harm to Your people.

Ps 33:16-21 NKJV No king is saved by the multitude of an army; A mighty man is not delivered by great strength. 17 A horse is a vain hope for safety; Neither shall it deliver any by its great strength. 18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, On those who hope in His mercy, 19 To deliver their soul from death, And to keep them alive in famine. 20 Our soul waits for the LORD; He is our help and our shield. 21 For our heart shall rejoice in Him, Because we have trusted in His holy name.

Jer 32:19-20 NKJV You are great in counsel and mighty in work, for your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. 20 You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and You have made Yourself a name, as it is this day.

Zeph 1:14-18 AMP The great day of the Lord is near--near and hastening fast. Hark! the voice of the day of the Lord! The mighty man [unable to fight or to flee] will cry then bitterly. 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, [Jer 30:7; Joel 2:11; Amos 5:18.]
16 A day of the blast of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the high towers and battlements. 17 And I will bring distress upon men, so that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord; their blood shall be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's indignation and wrath. But the whole earth shall be consumed in the fire of His jealous wrath, for a full, yes, a sudden, end will He make of all the inhabitants of the earth.
[Luke 21:35,36; 2 Peter 3:10-13.]

Garden Hose

Vicki Camp

9-16-'05 As I communed with Lord, I saw in vision a simple green garden hose running water out the end, and hanging down hundreds and hundreds of feet,, from the sky ! As I looked up I saw that this hose originated out from thick white clouds, dropping down in a fluid slightly undulating way due to that water flow, with the bottom few feet of this hose and nozzle crooked toward my direction, just some few feet (10-12 ft. or so ?) in front of me. I watched that heaven sent water pouring out, understanding some of the obvious message The Lord was sharing with me,,,, as I looked.

"....... wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, " you have heard from Me (Jesus); for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." .... "And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight." - Acts 1:4b,5 & v. 9

I was somewhat taken-aback at this simple and common seeming garden hose representation. However, for edification I want to share what I hear The Lord speaking to myself, which perhaps will speak to some of you readers also,

"For some of you It's time to get yourselves under the channel of flow for the first time, and some of you need to come for My refill; to get yourselves placed under the heavenly pouring out spout of My Spirit.
Is your spirit feeling dehydrated ? Or are you thirsty, dry, muddy even, and in need of My pure wash and anointing outflow ? Are the bones and joints of your balance creaking in their need of My fluid balm ? Have you been caught up in the cares of this world ?
Be honest with yourself and thus with Me, and give answer.

".......I give waters in the wilderness And rivers in the desert, To give drink to My people, My chosen*.*" - Is. 42:20b

I say, lower those world-care umbrella's that keep you separated and unsighted to the skies above: My heavenly vision. Take off your hats and scarves, those crowns of human understanding, which only hinder your forward moving at this time.
For at this point, beloved, I want you to see that you only need to move a few steps towards Me to partake. I am instructing you; Whatever it takes to get your spiritual feet unstuck and moving, do so. Step towards Me; put yourselves in place to receive, and move under My channel of righteous flow.

"And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of My Spirit*; and they shall prophesy:..."* - Acts 2:18

Look up. For in My love for you I would have you see and experience today The heavenly faucet that is open to you, even Me, My Spirit Who flows down to inundate you; washing, covering you, filling you, inside to outflow.

Come here to Me, look up, open your mouths wide and drink Me in, while My flow, My Spirit is freely pouring. No payment by you is required for I have paid for you whom are Mine. Yes, I have seen your hunger and thirst towards your God, my beloved – This is My Joy, you are My joy.

Believe Me, believe in My Words, and come with quick feet, humble hearts expectant, childlike faith, panting to receive. I do and will answer and give. I do and will satisfy you with all satisfaction; Holy Spirit flowing upon you, fresh-filling you beyond your past or present experience.
Beloved, listen to the gush, see and do, while My refreshing is close in your hearing and view.
I say today, today, why do you hesitate? I love you. Come. Step lively now."

"As the deer pants for the water brooks, So pants my soul for You, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God." - Ps. 42:1,2

"Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near." - Jesus, Lk. 21:28

"But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." - Jesus, Jn. 4:14

"... Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it." -Ps. 81:10b

Dunamis; Pot Set to Boil

Jesus speaks,
"And you shall receive power (dunamis) when the Holy Spirit has come upon you…" -Acts 1:8a
Dunamis - Greek: Strong's # 1411; strength power, ability. a) inherent power, power residing in a thing...' + more, and from which we get our words; dynamic (from dynamis power..) and dynamite (powerful, explosive); A couple of modern English examples.

This past Sunday morning at our gathering I saw of Holy Spirit in vision a great welling up of a piece of ground and a shaking....I saw this mound of earth rise up, but there was no full 'bursting open' even though the grumbling beneath the surface was rolling, pitching and mighty...for I could also hear the earth moving and the accompanying power scrunching noises, as I watched this scene.
Then I saw a huge stone that was set behind this rolling earth, and the giant stone was moved from out of it's place because of the pitching and moving of the earth mound..... I knew it was the stone that had covered Jesus tomb.
I then heard, "....and some said it thundered...." - Jn. 12:29,... Voice of Father, 'I have and will glorify My Name' –v. 28, and The Lord speaks this to me:

'So it is with some of you....Even as the earth shakes, there is a deep rumbling within' that is uncertain to you as of yet. There is a disquiet and a build-up of force within', deep within' your belly and innermost being, even as in the bowels of the earth. You know and feel the pre-shaking already within' yourselves, but this thing you are feeling seems so big and yet you cannot see it or understand it now, because it's not fully burst forth out of you and around you at this time. You are like a pot set to boil. This is of Me.

I tell you this under-earth build-up and disquiet, is the same mighty rumbling power that moved the stone from My tomb....This is the same power that raised My body from the dead and the same power that I've filled you with, even my dunamis, My Spirit - My Resurrection Spirit .... My Spirit that resurrects through the rolling thunderous workings of My Hands and My Voice.

Fear not these pre-rumblings within', for soon I will burst forth Resurrection Power and Empowering; My Might from within' you will then flow out as torrent rivers which never dissipate -- outflowing to touch the many needs of those around you in the coming days....Yes, the coming days of great need. There will be signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, in you and through you who are marked of My Name. My Name will be glorified.

The swelling, rumbling, shaking and displacing are Me.... be assured of this. I will speak loudly, and the people will cry for answers and cry for help. Again I say, fear not.... I will speak and move, and you and I will answer the people; healing of might, with signs, wonders, and power display, even of this Shaking Might of My Spirit of Resurrection Whom creates, re-animates and brings life to that which has been dead.... I am coming mightily by My Spirit for the days of need .....

Believe me now, and get ready to rumble even more my people, ...the disquiet and swelling are Me; Even unto the bursting forth of My Glory from the midst of you. A might shaking I will have, and a might shaking I will do.'

Jesus speaks,
*" He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
(But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive:…." – Jn. 7:38,39

* after note: One thing that struck me in this word at the time I received, was the Lord speaking twice to "days of need" and "days of great need"...which I understood to be a definer of the days ahead. (though how far, or close I do not know.)

Geneva And Switzerland

Pierre-Daniel Martin

14 March, 2004,
Cointrin, Geneva

Geneva is a very important city. It's one of the great cities which, in the end times, risks being destroyed, or at least part of the city; the Lord showed me this some years back. Geneva is a city which will be judged as a result of its iniquity and its position against Israel. Geneva is a city which has all these compromises with its spirit of globalization, the United Nations, and the spirit of humanism. I saw in a vision, the mark of humanism in Geneva.

It's for this reason that the Lord is in the process of placing in Geneva a Muslim movement, and this Muslim movement is here and wants to take the city of Geneva. And Geneva can be at the same time a wonderful blessing, but also a curse for Switzerland. I saw in the spirit, thousands of Muslims in the process of installing themselves, and they were arriving armed. I see mosques being built and the city being held by the spirit of Persia. I believe that Geneva is the only city in Switzerland which is going to shake the country and cause it to react. In the time coming, either Geneva is going to be separated from Switzerland, or the Christians will have a great victory, and Geneva will go through a process of deep purification.

There is a huge amount at stake for the city of Geneva. This is what the Lord showed me: the people of Geneva are called to be a prophetic voice. As I see Lausanne manifesting signs and wonders and becoming a missionary city, I believe that Geneva is in the process of becoming a city of combat, prophetic intercession to be a voice in the spirit of Elijah who will oppose the spirit of Jezabel and Baal.

In some time, maybe next year. or in 2 years. the city will experience a mild earthquake (there was already one in February) I saw that the earth will shake, this is due to the spiritual forces in motion. I see that the Lord is going to send you prophets, this has already been happening for some years now, who will come from all over the world to raise up the prophetic voice in the City, such that the Christians in Geneva get up and blow the 'Shofar', not only so that the glory of God be manifested in the congregations and a purifying of hearts, but also so that the army of God can arise.

We no longer have any time. From next year -2005- we will enter into a new era for the body of Christ - it's an era of combat! Either you enter into spiritual warfare or you are not going to make it. In other words, we no longer have a choice. We must go forward. What is essential for you in Geneva is to be connected to ministries who a very strong anointing in the area of spiritual warfare, like Ana Méndez, Cindy Jacob and others. These types of ministries are necessary for the city of Geneva. That Christians need to truly understand that they must build a tower to watch over the city and watch that the enemy does not come to invade the city and to destroy it. I am saying these harsh words not to frighten you, but to say that Geneva is the most dangerous city in Switzerland. It's through Geneva that the blessing of Calvin came, but now Satan has reclaimed his throne which he has in Geneva to set it up over Switzerland.

I don't know whether the canton of Geneva will separate from Switzerland or remain, but the stakes depend upon the combat of the Christians in Switzerland; as the church in Switzerland is called to become a wall of protection for the whole of the EU, who will in time, try to strangle the movements of revival. Ministries, churches, schools, headquarters of churches in Europe will all have their headquarters in Switzerland, to be seeking refuge against the great anti-Evangelical movement which will take place in the EU. The church will continue, she is a power. Against all odds, the church must watch over the spiritual children which will be raised in Switzerland. God has placed Switzerland to be set apart for this purpose. But Geneva will cause Switzerland to limp. It's for this reason that the Christians in Geneva must enter into this prophetic time, in order to enter into a time of combat before it becomes too late. In fact, in my opinion, in some areas, the city has already been drained. The city has already been eaten away by the enemy. The official churches are burnt out. And Geneva already has its principalities of globalism that are over the city, like New York, Brussels, like Strasbourg and others.

In each country there is a city which is dangerous. In France, it's clearly Strasbourg. In Germany, it's Berlin, the headquarters of the throne of Pergamon. The throne of Satan was at Pergamon, according to the book of Revelations. At the beginning of the 19 century, an archaeologist brought the throne of Pergamon, the throne of Satan, to Berlin. This is spiritual; it's the prince of darkness who wanted to reign over Berlin, and it's at this moment that the movement of the Moravian Brothers declined. And this is how the throne of Satan at Berlin was established, and the Nazism movement was put in place. As we often see things taking place in the physical realm which seem trivial, and which, in fact, have a profound reality in the spiritual realm, we have to understand that the Christians have to discover and to interpret the signs which exist, to be a blessing, and to protect the country and its future.

I am telling you that in the coming years, an iniquitous treaty will take place soon, a treaty which will be a curse. In the coming years, princes and government will meet in Geneva, and the enemy will make of Geneva a city which, with the impetus of the European Union, will declare war against Israel. It's for this reason that the Christians in Geneva cannot combat against the powers which are over the city of Geneva, they are too strong.

But know one thing, that throughout the world, thousands of Christians will be praying for the city of Geneva. The Holy Spirit showed me that a time will come when Geneva will be the most important city for the church of Jesus Christ in order to deliver it from the evil power which is in Geneva, who wants in the name of the UN, UNESCO and others drive the nations to declare a war against Israel. This would be a terrible curse! This power was not able to come at the time of the 2 nd world war. This is why this spirit established itself in France, just a few miles away, by the Lake Leman/Geneva in the town of Evian. I saw in the spirit that now the throne of anti-Semitism which was over Evian (remember the famous meeting in Evain 1939, where at the end of it 32 Nations told Germany, that they don’t care about the Jews), has established itself in Geneva. There is an enormous combat at hand. I don't want to crush you by saying these things. Don't be afraid. If prophets tell you these things, this means that God is in process of rising up prophets who are going to come to Geneva and that your church will become a church of prophetic intercession. And this is the ministry of Elijah that God wants to raise up in the church. This is why God is going to raise up in Geneva a true prophetic and apostolic movement. The neighboring towns will be there to support you. Nothing is lost, my brothers, but the combat is there, and it is very, very serious!

It's been 2 years now, that I have felt pressed to come to Geneva. I know in my spirit that what I tell you is going to run through the churches in Geneva. And I know that the release of this word is going to trigger off something. I know that the heavens are going to open for you, my brothers and sisters, because God wants to bless the city of Geneva, and there is going to be a very powerful revival here! But I have to tell you that I saw in the spirit, the destruction of at least a third of the city, but you must understand something. It is not because I saw it in a vision that the city will be destroyed. God can turn around these events if the city repents. Never forget this, that the affliction that God prepares, in the way that he warned the people through the mouth of Jeremiah, can be avoided if, as in the time of Jeremiah, if the Israelites repented at the right time, things could have been avoided. The affliction that God pronounced through the mouth of Jonas did not take place during the time of Jonas, but 40 years later because the Ninivites repented. We see the judgment of God over Niniveh with the prophet Nahum.

Geneva has a particular vocation in the end times. The church of Geneva will rise up in the glory of God to bring, as is the case for France, the sons of Isaac to be reconciled with the sons of Ishmael. In the end times, Geneva will experience time of glory in the church when numerous Jews and Arab Christians will come together to worship the Lord together when the Muslim-world has been broken and will worship the Lord . Thus there will be a new Geneva, at the time of great revival for the nations, just before the return of our Lord Jesus, a new city will rise up which will be a city of fellowship, worship and manifestation of the glory of God for the end times Halleluja, thank you Jesus, blessed be your Name!

I saw something which I found very strange, a great statue of 3 persons in Geneva; I saw it in a vision. And the Lord, by an earthquake split up these 3 people as a mark of judgment over a church which is a sleep. And at the same time, the Lord wants to knock down these statues to show the city of Geneva that a new era is starting. (If you don't know what this statue is, He will show you, sometimes I myself do not understand). God is breaking the past to build something new. Churches of Geneva, you are called to become a prophetic church. I saw an enormous water fountain; the present water fountain will be shut down. There will be work done on it, and there will be a new fountain which will be magnificent and more splendid. When you see the new water fountain, this signifies that a new source will gush forth from the city of Geneva for the end time revival.

I also saw that the city of Geneva has a palace, I don't know if it is a UN palace or maybe UNESCO. This will move, and a new palace will be built, more beautiful. But this is not a good thing. This means that the power of the enemy will increase. But the Lord will prepare something. I saw that the Lord is in the process of establishing in the city new churches which are young churches which a special focus on worship. Many churches in Geneva will have an apostolic support of church movements or federations, maybe from North or Latin America, I don't know. But I know that every church will have an international link, which is necessary, both for you and for them, meaning the Churches who want to have revival. These churches will need to have a logistical support of powerful apostolic ministries from all over the world. That's why it's important to pray to have interpreters and translators. Glory to God, Thank you Jesus, Your are the King of Glory, the Lord of Lords, you are the Prince of Life and I bless you Jesus for the Victory in your Name, Halleluja, Amen.

There will be a movement of Christians, I see this in the spirit, this must have been started already, of high level diplomats who live in Geneva and who will meet up together with their wives to pray. There will be a move of the Spirit in these high levels of international administration in the city. You must pray for this, it's really ,great. Blessed be the name of Jesus, Glory to God

The city of Geneva will experience an enormous storm. I don't know when or how, but there will be an extremely heavy rainfall as though the water is there to wash the city and to announce the shaking, of the earth. The city will be shaken, as there will be a confrontation above the city between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of God. I saw steeples in Geneva, and these steeples will be attacked by lightening in a powerful way. There will be hail storms, roads will be flooded, trees will be uprooted, and branches will be chopped off.

In Geneva, there is a palace (hotel intercontinental maybe) where people, emirates, governments and Arab princes meet. I see this now, they are fixing the price of petrol, and they are doing something with regards to petrol. The Lord has shown me that the time where they can govern through petrol shall be limited. Amen

I see in the town of Geneva, the Lord is rising up African churches, it's great, and these churches will be torches for intercession and deliverance. They are going to do a lot of spiritual warfare, and some of them will be connected to Government Ministers in Africa and nations in Africa who will be converted by them. These churches will have a logistical position for the mission to Muslims.

The Lord will soon be completely changing the authorities in the city of Geneva. The church must put in motion a chain of intercessory prayer for the new authorities that the Lord will put in place, and this is very important, Amen

The end of 2004 will be a very difficult year for Europe. What I see is like movements of fear, like the spirit of fear will visit the European nations. The church must not accept the spirit of fear. I don't know what is going to happen, but I know it will be very strong!

Finally, there will be a meeting of high level individuals who will take decisions concerning the Palestinians. They will not make good decisions once again. (Remember the Geneva agreement which was established in October 2003, 3 times worse/even more anti-Semitic than the Oslo and the Akaba agreement).

I see the city in a sort of mud, it's like I see people walking in the city as though they are walking in mud, very strange...

When I speak of Israel, never forget the love of Jesus for the children of Ishmael. The francophone world has a particular vocation for the love of the children of Ishmael. God loves Ishmael, and this is really the ministry of the francophone church, to reconcile the children of Isaac and the children of Ishmael in Yeshua HaMashia, Halleluja.

God is going to do great things for the conversion of Muslims. The church has to approach and express love to the Muslims, to help them being restored into the body of Christ. And Switzerland, with the city of Lausanne, and Geneva will be pivotal in sending missionaries to the Arab world. Amen.

Gaza and Zephaniah
Cal Werner

To All:
The consideration of the decree in the Knesset of the pullout from Gaza is a sign from the Lord, written in the scriptures in Zeph. 2:1-4, as a warning of the closeness of the impending Day of the Lord's anger. The Lord led me to share this at a bible study in October 2004. The Christian response to this warning is given in Zeph. 2:3 (this correlates with Luke 21:36). A beautiful and brief summation by Traci (with full permission from the author to be used by all who which to copy it) follows on Zephaniah which was written in early January 2005. Zephaniah has been hi-lited by the Holy Spirit on the listening hearts of some of his saints these past 7 months.

The Message of Zephaniah
Tracie Hall

Jan 10, 2005
(To Those Who Have Ears, Let Him Hear...)

The trumpet of the Lord is sounding even louder. Where spiritual discernment abounds in the spiritual ears of those who inquire of the Lord, the message He gives is resoundingly clear; the day of His wrath is soon approaching. God's day is at hand; and there are many who are not listening to the warning given. This day is soon to come upon us; a day in which God will greatly intervene in human affairs. Sin must clearly be punished or God wouldn't be just. Secure and careless people will be dealt with. They are secure in the sense that they say in their heart, the Lord will not do good, neither will he do evil; that is, they deny both his administration of rewards and punishments. But in the day of the Lord's judgment, it will become clear that those who perish, will fall a sacrifice to Divine justice for breaking God's law, and because they have no interest by faith in the Christ Jesus' atoning sacrifice.

This day of the Lord is very near; it is a day of God's wrath, wrath to the utmost. It will be a day of trouble and distress to sinners and hypocrites who profess to know God and yet in their hearts serve Satan. It is not be wise for them to try the patience of God. What is a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? And what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Let us flee from the wrath to come, and choose the good part that shall never be taken from us; then we shall be prepared for every event; nothing shall separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

There is also a warning to the nations who have rejected God, that have no desire toward Him, is not desirous of his favor and grace, and has no mind to repent and reform. On the day of God's coming wrath He will justly say, Depart from me. However it is not God's will that any should perish, but that all should come to the saving knowledge of God through Christ Jesus. He is saying to the elect church, "Seek the Lord all ye meek of the earth which have wrought his judgment, seek righteousness, seek meekness; it may be that you shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger (Zeph. 2:3)."

To those who would inquire of the Lord and turn to Him with a repentant heart, they are the ones that are ever humble and dependant on Him; not trusting in themselves or their possessions; and He has promised to save them from this day. They will be hidden safely in Him on the day of His wrath. God has said that He will restore their fortunes (Zeph. 2:7), eliminate their enemies (Zeph. 3:8), increase their territory (Zeph. 1:13; 2:7,9) give them peace (Zeph. 3:12) bring them salvation (Zeph. 3:14-20).

God's people will be righteous in our treatment of one another, loving one another as we truly love God, and are drawn to Him by that love in Christ Jesus.

We know what God's decree will bring against impenitent sinners, therefore it highly concerns all to repent in the accepted time. How careful should we all be to seek peace with God, before the Holy Spirit withdraws from us, or ceases to strive with us; before the day of grace is over, or our lives; before our everlasting state is determined! Let the poor, despised, and afflicted, seek the Lord, and seek to understand and keep his commandments better, that they may be more humbled for their sins. The foremost hope of deliverance from national judgments rests on the hinges of prayer.

Remember, God is full of gentleness (Zeph. 2:7, 3:17), joy (Zeph. 3:17), and grace (Zeph. 3:9-20), but He is also a God of justice (Zeph. 1:8,9; Zeph. 1:15, 18).

We must trust God to work out His plan in these coming days, and:

Seek Him through a close and intimate relationship with Him. Truly know Him as the Father He is to the righteous in Christ Jesus. (Zeph. 2:3) Be meek and humble in heart and die to selfish desires. (Zeph. 2:3b) Simply stand, and wait on the Lord to carry out His restoration of righteousness through justice, and be sure that you are among the righteous. (Zeph. 3:8) Pray and intercede for the elect of God continuously.

Gaza and Zephaniah
Cal Werner

To All:

The Zephaniah/Gaza warning is the among the latest and possibly the last warnings. Some who watch and warn have been led by the Lord to desist from warning any longer. A brief history of some of the most recent warnings is helpful here.

Sept. 11/01 stands as the continental divide between awake and true North American watchmen (and ladies) and those who are not. Some knew ahead of time, some more accurately than others. Speaking of the day of the Lord and the signs leading up to it, Isaiah 30:25 "in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall."

Another sign that some were told to watch occurred on the temple mount in Jerusalem (it does not become much more central than that). The bulge in the temple wall that busted out in Sept of 2003 was a sign for the season of the "suddenlies"(a word that many heard was "suddenly"). Isaiah 30:13 "...like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant...".

The Lord led me to notice a pattern which I wrote in an article called, "An Emerging Pattern?" in April of 2004. The Lord had given the Russian Christians about a 20 year warning before Communism obliterated their ranks at the turn of the Last century. A book by David Wilkerson entitled "Set the Trumpet to thy Mouth" written in 1985 gave a clear and distinct warning to Christians. As a sign following the word, the oilfields in the middle east went up in flame and smoke during the first Persian gulf war, around 1992, which David had mentioned in his book. 2004-1985 was 19 years and the warning that time was almost up.

In October of last year, as the Lord led me to write a friend later, "The "bell has tolled" (borrowing a phrase from someone who I believe heard the same thing) on our civilization, secular and spiritual. The final call is being sent forth in the spiritual as the books are about to be closed, the door on the Ark is about to be shut and sealed (Hebrews - few of Israel entered God's rest, they are an example to us), the final marking of the Lords saints who are found worthy (Lk 21:36) is occurring, and the harvest of unrighteousness and righteousness is about to occur in this world.

Keeping these things in mind and how the world will be cleansed by fire should we walk in the power of His Holy Spirit every day."

And now the warning of Gaza and Zephaniah. As Traci aptly summarized, "Seek Him through a close and intimate relationship with Him. Truly know Him as the Father He is to the righteous in Christ Jesus. (Zeph. 2:3) Be meek and humble in heart and die to selfish desires. (Zeph. 2:3b) Simply stand, and wait on the Lord to carry out His restoration of righteousness through justice, and be sure that you are among the righteous. (Zeph. 3:8) Pray and intercede for the elect of God continuously."

God Bless America

James White

God Bless America, But Don't You Dare Tell Us To Repent James White
Jun 15, 2005

Christians are unpopular folks today. I mean by that, anyone who takes seriously biblical truth and biblical principles will find himself on the sharp end of angry stares if we dare speak the truth in the midst of today's national crisis. To what do I refer?

America has all of a sudden gotten very religious. There are vigils and candlelight prayer services on every corner. People who hadn't said "God" except in profanity for years are all of a sudden very pious and reflective. Radio personalities who were focused upon tax cuts or some other political issue on Monday, September 10th are now mulling over the role of "evil" in our world. The past week has turned the landscape upside down in many ways, to be sure.

Lest anyone think this new religiosity is a reason for rejoicing for Christians, it most surely is not. Oh yes, we are hearing old Christian hymns being sung. Ostensibly Christian churches were full this past Lord's day. But there is no such thing as "partial Christianity," nor is there any such thing as a Christianity that stands side by side with Islam, or Judaism, or Buddhism, and says, "We worship one God under many names." And surely, there is no Christianity that does not speak of repentance from sin. The new religiosity of America has two basic foundational pillars: there is one God, unknown, but addressable under any variety of religious epithets, who has revealed absolutely nothing of objective value regarding His will regarding worship or human behavior; and second, this God has no wrath; knows nothing of sin or judgment; and hence, any person who dares to say that God would punish a person, or a nation, is a glowing heretic to the new American religiosity.

The problem is easily seen: Christians believe, fundamentally, of necessity, that there is one true God. This true God is not Allah. This true God is not Krishna. This true God is not the god of Joseph Smith or Buddha or the Sikhs or the Bahais. Our God went to great lengths to differentiate Himself from all the gods of the peoples and religions that surrounded His ancient people, and that for a purpose He Himself proclaimed: He seeks true worship, worship based upon a knowledge of who He is in reality, based upon His revelation to man. He does not grant to man the freedom to make images of Him, to worship Him in a manner that pleases the creature rather than the Creator. God is particular about His worship. His worship is intimately, vitally connected to truth. Without truth, there is no worship of the Christian God.

And the truth revealed by the Christian God in the Scriptures is without question when it comes to the matter of His law, sin, rebellion, punishment, wrath, and judgment. One of the most amazing things to observe is the willingness shown by "evangelicals" to jump right onto the "we shall never utter a word about wrath or sin or punishment" bandwagon. Is the remnant so small that almost no voices will be raised to cry out against this foolishness? To withhold the truth about sin and judgment out of fear of man's opinions and feelings is to make the cross of Jesus Christ a travesty! There is no cross, there is no sacrifice, where there is no sin, no offense that demands forgiveness be wrought through His perfect sacrifice! The person who refrains from speaking of sin and judgment to "win" a person over is doing so through unfaithfulness to the very gospel itself! And to what has such a person been won over? Where is the gospel when there is no sin to be forgiven at Calvary?

But it is right here that the new American religiosity clamps its hands over its ears and refuses to hear. America wants God's blessing. America wants God to protect us from more horrific visions of airliners flying purposefully, relentlessly into our national monuments. We want God to be near us as we board our aircraft. We want Him to protect us from the horror of thinking about what it was like when the towers collapsed. We want Him to guide our military and allow us to flex our muscle and launch our missiles with impunity. We want a blessing God, a caring God, who simply panders to our wants and whims. This is the "God" of the new American religiosity.

But what America does not want is a God who is holy, who is just, and who has revealed His will concerning how we, His creatures, are to live. America is a land soaked in blood. We glory in violence. We are so selfish, so bound in our avarice, fornication, and sexual lust, that we murder our own offspring in the womb (or at birth as in partial-birth infanticide). Our hands are covered in blood, and yet we think lighting a candle and lifting them up while mumbling "God Bless America" is going to bring God's favor? Listen to the words of God to another nation that likewise was "religious" but refused to hear the word of repentance:

"So when you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide My eyes from you; Yes, even though you multiply prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are covered with blood." (Isaiah 1:15).

Is America so arrogant, so utterly self-absorbed, so diseased by religious liberalism and philosophical subjectivism, that she thinks she can ignore all of history itself and demand from God blessings when she refuses to repent of her evils? Do we really need to be reminded that Planned Parenthood has killed more little children in our land in the week since the attacks than died in the attacks themselves? Are we so blind? Surely the scourge of abortion would be enough to warrant the unleashing of the wrath of God, but there is so much more! We are a nation on a crusade--a crusade to wipe from our history books every vestige of our former religious past. The religion of scientism, with its chief idol in the person of Darwin, has become enshrined in our very governmental policies. There is no creator, we are told, to express His law for us in the first place. We want to banish God and His law from our courtrooms, our schools, our every public institution. If God says it is wrong, we celebrate it. Every form of sexual debauchery is found in the land. The airwaves are filled with programs that exalt fornication and adultery. Major film stars are lauded for the most sinful lifestyles. Homosexuality is not only turned into an acceptable "lifestyle," it is made a political right, a political force, a test-case for being properly "tolerant." The list goes on and on and on. The widow and orphan is oppressed, while the nation indulges in every creature comfort, sits back in its luxury, looks about upon the bounty of the land, and says, "Ah, what the labor of my own hands, my own intelligence, my own insight, has accomplished."

Religious liberals may mock our "literalistic" reading of the Bible at this point, preferring to simply label us "fundamentalists" and ignorant, but the fact of the matter is, they know they could never win a scholarly debate on whether the Bible actually teaches that these things are sins which must, inevitably, bring God's judgment upon a people. They know that is exactly what the Bible teaches. They are just embarrassed by it, and hence seek to suppress that truth.

As I said, Christians who believe the Bible are an unpopular lot today. If they speak in accordance with the Word they may well find themselves being called "unpatriotic" and "judgmental." In fact, given that the new orthodoxy demands of us the confession "Everyone is God's child" over against such clear biblical teaching as John 1:12 (remember how Christians refused to say "Caesar is lord" and died as a result?), we must be ready to "count the cost" in engaging in formal, cultural "heresy" by speaking the truth. We need to realize: this new American religiosity can take on the same kind of fanatic zeal that kept the hi-jackers' hands steady all the way to their end. May God grant His people the strength to proclaim loudly God's demands upon a wicked nation, and may He be pleased to bring repentance and revival in a land where darkness reigns.

Go Beyond The Surface
Lanna Perry

7th April, 2005
Sydney Australia

Many of you are crying out to Me for the jewels you have been desiring, the revelations and the intimacy you have been desiring, yet you will not make the sacrifice to go beyond the surface.

Why do you want to remain just scratching the surface of knowing Me and My heart?
Do you think it is My heart for each of you to scratch the surface of Me? Surely not!

There is a depth to Me that is not known by many. There is a depth to My heart and Kingdom that few see. Few see, because few choose to go forward, and go below the surface.

I have called each of you to dig. Dig deep. As you dig deep it means that you must continue to die to yourself, and continue to see the state of your heart, but as you do, you fall more and more into My arms, knowing you cannot do anything alone. The revelation that you need Me, becomes so much more engrained in each of your hearts.
Many of you are starting to dig deep and what are you finding? JEWELS!

The jewels are hidden. The jewels of My heart and Kingdom are hidden. Hidden from the natural eye, but deep in Me. You, My children, My bride, will not see the jewels on the surface.
The jewels are deep. The jewels are found when you get your hands dirty in knowing Me. The jewels are found as you take steps away from all that has entangled you, all that has hurt you, and all that is worrying you, and take steps towards Me.

Jewels are found as you take your eyes off your circumstances and onto Me. Jewels are found as you radically abandon your desires and plans and follow mine. Give all to Me. That is when you find jewels. When you do not rely on emotions but on My Word wholeheartedly.

There is no instability in My kingdom, but if you remain at the surface, you are relying more on yourself, and your emotions, and not sacrificing for Me, and you become unstable. Thrown around by the wind and the waves.
As you dig deeper in Me church, you find jewels, and your roots are strengthened and watered.

Stop feeding your flesh. Stop wasting your time, effort and money in feeding what will not last, what is unstable, and start investing your time, money and effort more into Me, and My Kingdom, then My Bride, you WILL see the jewels you desire.
Many of you know Me, and are still discontent, why? Because you are sitting on the surface, scratching the surface and not digging deeper into Me. Paying the price to go deep.

Wake Up My Bride. Have you not realised what I am saying? What I continue to say over and over?
Do not remain scratching the surface. Die to yourself, and come deeper.

Many of you are making judgments on Me, that I am not good, that I am not providing that which you are continually calling out for. I always provide on time, but you must press in. I will not always come to you with what you desire on a silver platter. You must HUNGER and THIRST for that which you are desperate for.

For if you are not hungry and thirsty for what you desire from Me, then you are not desperate.

If My Bride, you are truly desperate for the jewels of knowing Me, and My heart, and the plans I have for My Kingdom, then press in.

Go below the surface. Stop spending all your lives on the surface, but do what I am telling you to do, to come deep. Then you will find the jewels you've always been desiring, and I promise you My Bride, once you have a taste of what is below the surface, you will NEVER go back.

EVER.

Dancing With The Enemy

Do not copy the behaviour and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will know what God wants you to do, and you will know how good and pleasing and perfect His will , really is Romans 12:2

My children, I love each of you so much, and I long to dance through this life with each of you. I long to dance with you into depths of Me that you have never even dreamed or imagined.

I see that many of you are beginning to dance with the enemy. Many of you are allowing the thoughts, and impressions of this world to sway you into his arms.

The enemy is doing all he can to lure my children into dancing with him. The temporary and fast fulfillment, offering things that are not of Me, and many are beginning to dance with him. This is not my heart for each of you.

I do not speak such words to bring about condemnation, for I am not a God who condemns I am a God who loves, and I will love you to life. I will love you in a way that it hurts your flesh, but I will continue to love you this way, until you die to all that is not of Me.

Each day as you entertain thoughts not of Me, and as you speak out words not of Me, and continue to take steps towards things not of Me, you are dancing with the enemy. You are dancing to his rhythm and not mine.

Oh My precious dancers, how I long for you to stay in My arms. I never move, and I am always holding you, but many of you are being lured by things of this world. Do not allow a wrinkle to come upon your holy and blameless cloak that I placed over you through My death.

Many of you through your wounding are dancing with the enemy. Allowing things to 'feed' you that are not of Me. Pour your time, efforts and finances into My Kingdom and dancing with Me. Many of you are dancing with the enemy through your thoughts, feeding lusts and greed. Be set free, dance with Me.

The enemy is luring many now. My Spirit is moving quickly bringing things together, and preparing for the destruction that will hit this earth, and I am strengthening My people and helping them stand firm, but many of you are placing yourselves in a position to dance with the enemy.

You cannot serve two masters. You cannot dance with Me, and the enemy at the same time.

You cannot be lukewarm, and have a foot in either kingdom, you must choose.

Through your actions, your thoughts, your money, your time and your effort, are you dancing with Me or the enemy?

Rise up My church. Stop entertaining the flesh. Stop entertaining thoughts not of Me, and speaking things not of Me, and allow Me to bring you back to the place of being in rhythm with Me.

Leave the enemy, the flesh, the world and all it's lusts behind, and dance with Me. Step away from the beats you are hearing from the enemy, and dance with Me, to the beat of My heart.

Dancing with the enemy will lead you to death, dancing with Me leads you to eternal life.

Stop Chewing

My precious children, My precious possessions, My precious branches, heed the word I am to speak for My heart is grieved. My heart is grieved My children, because as each of you are connected to me the One and Only true Vine, yet many of you are doing things that I am not pleased with.

My precious branches, you know what I see? I see some of you chewing at other branches, chewing at others to try and disconnect them, being motivated by jealousy or deceit or by gossip and slander. Have I not called My church to work together? Have I not called My precious jewels to work together for My Kingdom?

Why do you compare? Why do you strive to be better than each other? Why have you allowed manipulation and control to come into My church? Why have you allowed these things to come in and pollute that which I am trying to purify.

Look at your hearts My branches. Look at your hearts. Forgive those who have hurt you and bless those who curse you. Stop chewing at other branches. Stop chewing down others, to bring about disunity.

Do you want to continue to chew and chew until others and continue to try and cut them off?

Your words are cutting many down. Your words are cutting many people to the hearts My children. Listen to My words. I am speaking.

LOVE!

Did I not teach you through My word to love? So love one another.

This is NOT how I have called My church to be. This is NOT my heart for the church. This is NOT what I want. This is NOT pleasing to me, it is displeasing, so repent. Unite, and love one another. Heap blessings on each other. Let go of grievances, let go, stop hindering My work, and allow Me to grow each of you and My church.

Show My love to each other. Allow Me to set you free from grievances and hurts. Stop chewing each other.

How greatly do I love you? How greatly have I poured my love over you. I have spoken to each of you to love Me and love each other so LOVE.
Do not grieve My heart anymore. Repent. Repent of trying to chew others off from Me. Repent for your slander, bad words, gossip, hatred, unforgiveness and unclean hearts. Repent.

I love each of you so much and I forgive you, but I the Lord your God will not tolerate some of My children allowing the enemy to use them to chew off other of My branches, My children.
I will not stand for it.

My precious branches, My precious children, there are those of you who have been on the receiving end of this chewing. I want to say to you, continue to cleave to Me. Continue to cleave to Me the vine. Continue to allow Me to comfort you, and I will bring about justice for you.

I will bring about justice in your life, and I will prevail.
I hold each of you close to My hearts. I hold all of My children close.
My church, look at your hearts, let My Spirit clean you and cut off any strongholds of the enemy.

Stop chewing off other branches, stop causing disunity. UNITE.
LOVE. FORGIVE.
Stop chewing and start blessing.

God's Coming Revival In New England

John Paul Jackson

On February 15, 2004, at 2:02 A.M., I had a powerful vision and rare encounter with the Holy Spirit. In the vision I found myself standing at the back of a stage with musicians and vocalists during a worship conference or church service. The Lord kept saying to me, "There are parents here tonight who have a sick child and I want to heal that child."

What happened during the remainder of this vision brought me to my knees; I was hardly able to breathe in the thickness of God's weighty presence. The impact of what I saw awakened me, and for forty-five minutes, while still gasping for breath, I continued to lie in bed weeping from the power and beauty of what I had just witnessed. The Lord continued speaking to me, often audibly. When He did not speak, He opened my mind in some heavenly way that branded or etched an understanding of many things deep within me.

I saw that prayer will increase at exponential rates and will permeate New England. The Lord showed me how He was going to create a new bond of unity among New England pastors who are seeking more of His presence. Churches would grow by the hundreds in a two- or three-week span of time.

God Will be Justified to Bring the Fullness of His Plan for New England Through Prayers of His People

The Lord showed me how He was going to change the understanding of all the gifts He has given to us, and how He will use humility to demolish the walls separating the gifts. Then He showed me the beginning of another season of healings, miracles, signs, and wonders. I understood that God's greatest desire is to flow through us.

I was heartsick as the Lord showed me how the Church is guilty of pride, pretense, position, prejudice, and politics. The Lord showed me how even low levels of pride multiply and spread to contaminate others. However, the Lord told me not to be disheartened. Through the prayers of His people, God will be justified to bring the fullness of His plan for New England into being.

God let me know that we are standing at a very important time in the history of New England, and that we must be on guard for the hidden ploys of the enemy. Speaking against the men and women He has put in place will not be tolerated as the Holy Spirit begins to kindle the fire again.

Simultaneously, God will release a fresh wind of worship to musicians and vocalists. A sharpened spiritual awareness will permeate worship teams, and the Holy Spirit will touch percussionists who will often sense the coming of His presence. This profoundly increased presence of the Spirit will release His glory cloud, healings, miracles, deliverances, salvations, and increased intercessory prayer.

An Invitation to Begin the Process of Preparation

This is an invitation to begin the process of preparation. It is not a guarantee, nor is it to be construed as a prophecy that any certain church or denomination or group of churches will be the recipient. It is merely a statement of what the Lord has shown me about a few attributes and aspects of what will be seen in a great move of God that will come again to New England.

Global Day of Prayer

"Since the days of Pentecost, has the whole church ever put aside every other word and waited upon Him for ten days, that the Spirit's power might be manifested? We give too much attention to method and machinery and resources and too little to the source of power." Hudson Taylor (1832-1905)

Two Hundred Million expected to join Global Day of Prayer
This Sunday, May 15, will be the Day of Pentecost, and the first Global Day of Prayer will call the nations together to ask God for a "greater Pentecost."

The National Day of Prayer on May 5th was the "Day of Ascension," the day that our Messiah Jesus, "was taken up into the sky while they were watching, and He disappeared into a cloud." He had just said, "When the Holy Spirit has come upon you, you will receive power and will tell people about Me everywhere..."

The disciples met together continually for prayer and ten days later, the Holy Spirit came— just as Jesus promised — in power. "Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm in the skies above them, and it filled the house where they were meeting."

2000 years later — Arising from Africa. In 2001, one stadium in Cape Town, South Africa was filled with 45,000 people who came to pray. In 2002, it expanded to eight stadiums and 350,000. In 2003, 2.5 million gathered in 130 stadiums. On May 2, 2004, the movement exploded. More than 22 million rallied in prayer at more than 2,000 sites throughout every single country on the continent of Africa (56 nations).

African leaders and leaders from most major traditions of Christian faith are again calling people to join in a historic act of united prayer. As Christians around the world pray, it will be the first ever Global Day of Prayer on May 15th. In this time of global turmoil, Christians will join together around the Earth in united, focused, fervent prayer asking God for transforming revival!

May 15, 2005, Pentecost Sunday and the Global Day of Prayer
Christians in many lands will assemble in massive gatherings in stadiums and open squares. In other places, believers will gather in homes and other public venues. To help connect and align prayers even more, there will be a six hour live Concert of Prayer broadcast, one hour from each continental area. The signal will be relayed by satellite, radio and Internet so that many millions will be linked simultaneously all over the world. The same broadcast will be repeated so that people in any time zone can take part on Pentecost afternoon or evening. For more information concerning the GDP, go to www.globaldayofprayer.com.

Go Forth And Do The Exploits

Bill Burns

The winds of change are blowing. I am calling the kings of the Third Day to the forefront now to sharpen your weapons, to put on your armor, to dress yourselves for battle, and to go forth. Run to the battle! Turn back the battle at the gate! I am manifesting Myself as the King of kings and Lord of lords. I am the Warrior King, and I now inspire you, My people, to become all that you are called to be. I am looking for and calling forth an army. You are that generation of warriors. Army of the Lord, arise to the battle! Cast off every restraint. Cast off the reproach. Rise up to your calling, and go forth in victory over all the works of the enemy. You shall bind the kings who have been set to work against My kingdom. Arise to the call. Be strong. Go forth and do the exploits of My chosen generation, the Glorious Church.

Establish An Altar Of Praise

Bill Burns

February 27, 2005:
I announce the Jubilee. It has been prophesied, spoken, and believed. Now is the time of the building of the altar of praise in which the whole Church can receive the blessings. As you come together corporately and establish a place of worship, I will lift you up. I am looking for a people of praise and worship, a people who will come to the high place and submit themselves unto Me this day, says the Lord. Turn again to believe that I am the Blessed One, and I will bless My own. Jubilee is not just a fleeting thing; it is the most powerful of that which I have done in this season. I announce that you shall receive the greatest opportunity for advancement in your Christian life -- even more than the years behind you. Step forth, establish an altar of praise in your heart.

Marsha Burns

Victory is awaiting you through the veil. The veil has been torn, and I have already made a way for you to gain the victory. Come into the Holy of Holies, which is a place of victory. I have made a way for liberty. I have made a way for freedom. I have made a way for Jubilee blessings. I have gone before you to make the crooked places straight and to break in pieces the gates of bronze and to cut the bars of iron. I have made a way, and I am calling you forth into the Holy of Holies, into My presence where I will release you into great victory and great blessing. But, you must come through the veil. Do not stop short. Do not stop at places of hindrance. I have made a way and paid the price, says the Lord. Now, come!

Go Forth As Strong Warriors

Bill Inello

A while ago I was reminded of a snowball fight I had in high school back as a young kid. A group of us older kids huddled together in the middle of our snow covered field, and were soon joined by a group of younger kids from lower down the year whose itch for the snowballs got the better of them, and after a few snowball exchanges, it became clear that there was war between us and the younger kids.

Because the younger kids were more in number, it was clear that they had the advantage in numbers, and our group not eagerly welcoming the idea of being overpowered, took the defensive position and began to retreat, giving the younger kids a chance to bombard us with snow balls of all sizes.

In retaliation, we huddled even closer and decided to each pick up our fill of snow balls and just charge at them with a magnificent roar hoping they would back away. While we saw this as our last resort, hoping at most that we would get through these band of kids with at least two us pelted with snowballs, at worst some of us swarmed and completely "white-washed" in snow as some of our friends, we instead to our surprise saw that, on the contrary, when we charged at the little kids letting out a massive roar and making our demands known through waving our snowballs in the air, their strength in numbers no longer seemed to be of any significance as they retreated, some tripping over others desperately trying to get away from us. What was even funnier was the fact that as we let out our heartfelt roars, some of them screeched in terror not wanting to contemplate what would happen to them should one of them be left behind to face our high school "vengeance".

It was with this that the Lord spoke and said:

Like the group of older kids, many of My people have felt surrounded and trapped by the enemy. Many of My own have retreated at the thought of being overwhelmed by the enemies forces. Yet the Lord would say that I have given you the victory on all fronts. Many are being "pelted" at with snowballs of discouragement, despair, a desire to give up and a mentality of defeat yet have I not said that when the enemy comes like a flood, I will raise up a standard against him? YOU are indeed the standard that I am raising up in this hour says you God. You are the ones that shall cause him who is the accuser of the brethren to flee seven ways. I have not called you to retreat but to advance and take ground. I am calling the Joshuas and the Calebs, those who will see the impossible and look it square in the face and declare 'with God, ALL things ARE possible'.

I already claimed the victory 2000 years ago and so as you take back ground that has been stolen, remember that I am for you and not against you. I AM the Lion of Judah who ROARS on your behalf. When the Lion of Judah roars, all hell comes to a standstill because I am he who is risen and seated in high places. I have given you the authority to take the kingdom of darkness by storm. Do not allow the 10 spies mentality to choke your faith. You are victorious over all that has beset you because of who I am in you.

Getting From Fear to Fight
Robert Ricciardelli

Many of God's people today remain in the caverns of their life, paralyzed by fear. Before we can get out of the cave and into productive Christian lives we must face the fear at the mouth of the cave. Whenever there is a major obstacle that we must deal with in our life, there is an enemy lurking to devour our attempt for freedom. Here is a great illustration of the enemy from Revelations as we see an enemy seeking to snatch the birthing of what God desires to do.

Revelation 12:1-4
The Woman and the Dragon
[1]A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. [2]She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth. [3]Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. [4]His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born.

When God is birthing something in you, when He has given you an assignment and the authority to fulfill that calling, you need to expect a dragon waiting at the mouth of the cave ready to pounce and detour you from fulfillment of that call. The enemy always seeks to devour the seed of the Lord. Many of God's people sit inside their cave of fear or habit and ask the Lord to remove the enemy, when all along He is waiting for you to take the authority and slew the dragons coming against your destiny in Him. How many times have you gone to a meeting and the message excited you to action? You vowed to change this and do that as you come out of the cave, only to get beat up enough to back pedal to the perceived safety of the cave.

I know in my own life there have been habits and patterns formed by fear that have kept me from the plans of God. There have been times of derailment and other times it was more of a subtle deflection off "The Way". As I became more free from religion and spent more time in His presence, I began to see the enemies tactical plan to destroy my destiny. It was at that point that I had to make the decision to fight. It is not a one time decision as the enemy is always lurking and that I must eternally choose the path of mastery over sin and death. The only other choice I had was mediocrity and the lie from the pit of hell is that we can somehow compromise and do both. There are two choices in our obedience to our Heavenly Father, decisions that bring life and decisions that bring death.

Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast? [7] If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it."

The Lord says, we must master it and He has given us His Spirit and authority to master every enemy we face. Why would the Lord desire us to fight the enemy? Our Father God knows that in the fiery battle, integrity and virtue is forged. Thank goodness that when we are young in the Lord He keeps us from many of these battles until we mature and are ready for battle. Our heavenly Father is all about training and testing us towards His likeness and His authority. When I was a child I acted and thought like a child, but none of us are to remain as children in our growth as His kingdom ambassadors.

Exodus 13:17
[17]When Pharaoh finally let the people go, God did not lead them on the road that runs through Philistine territory, even though that was the shortest way from Egypt to the Promised Land. God said,

"If the people are faced with a battle, they might change their minds and return to Egypt." [18]So God led them along a route through the wilderness toward the Red Sea, and the Israelites left Egypt like a marching army.

Israel was tested for many years in the desert until the people were ready to engage with the giants in the land of promise. He knew if they had to face warfare prematurely they might desire to return to Egypt, or in other words, back into bondage. But as we mature, he leads us to engage in battle as a way to mature us.

Our God is not a pacifist; He is the Lord God, mighty in battle. And we know that Satan certainly is not a pacifist and we must be ready for battle. The enemy desires to beat us up so much that we do not even want to hear the Truth any longer, much less respond to it. That is how many end up backsliding. They have been defeated repeatedly in an area, or area's, and no longer want to engage. Part of our problem is that we are often not told the truth of what it is to be a son of God. It is a path of war as we advance and take back the territory that the enemy has stolen.

Unfortunately, many churches are set up inside the cave. They do not want to do battle in the marketplace as they retreat to the comforts of vain religion. Part of the growing discontentment of God's people in the mainstream or institutional church is that they are not being taught to live as kingdom dwellers authorized by the blood of the Lamb for victory. Especially in the western churches without threat from hostile governments and economies that can provide leisurely living, it has become many times a convenient, comfortable and entertaining gospel. This is not the truth and we will not advance until His people demand the truth and demand that leaders are responsible to teach it.

We are designed to live and move and have our being outside the cave. We must have the attitude that says, "If I perish, I perish, but I will live each day as a soldier to set captives free. We must rather die in battle then sit back in comfort watching others die around us. The truth is, we are dying while we live in that bondage if we think that is what the Christian life is all about. How can we set others free when we are trapped inside as well? We are not cave dwellers; we are children of light and fighters of freedom.

Matthew 11:12
And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.

We must be warriors in the Spirit of almighty God and advance His kingdom. We must be encouragers to those around us to get them on the path of freedom. We must be patient with those that are wounded and paralyzed with fear to step out of their caves. They are afraid of even hearing the truth any longer because they stepped out before with truth and were not prepared for the giants in the land.

Matthew 13:14-15
[14]This fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah, which says:
You will hear my words,
but you will not understand; you will see what I do,
but you will not perceive its meaning.
[15] For the hearts of these people are hardened,
and their ears cannot hear,
and they have closed their eyes-- so their eyes cannot see,
and their ears cannot hear,
and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them.'

Fear will cause us to find shelter in the cave and never live out the bountiful experience of Kingdom living. If we choose to stay there, will seek out teachers and churches that say it is God's will to be comfortable and safe in the cave. We must pray for those who have retreated and at the same time impart wisdom and revelation of the fear that has caused them to slip back or be idle. Let's rally the troops for the great adventure which is only in Christ Jesus. When we are in Him and have been obedient to His word, paralyzing fear can be eradicated. In the next few weeks, I will talk about some steps we can take to venture out of the cave and into victory in the land of giants in Jesus name!

A Call To War
Jeanette Reed

www.doxachurch.com

I felt this was a timely word from the Lord. Jeanette as become a friend and prayer warrior for Joyce and I and the ministry. I thank God for those like her that stand with us in battle. Thanks to all of you who have supported us with your prayers. Robert Ricciardelli

Hi Robert,

Your article, 'Fear to Fight', felt like a page out of my journal. The enemy has bound the church in fear and complacency disguised as a sophisticated, careful, wise stewardship. I wonder what Paul would have to say to us today were he to see it? A man who moved by the Holy Spirit's prompting....being compelled to change plans at a moment's notice in a time when changing travel plans was not as easy as getting a different flight. A man beaten, imprisoned, stoned and flogged for the sake of the Gospel.

We have found ourselves walking in the steps of the Pharisees with one thousand man-made rules causing our heavy laden steps to become bogged down in the quagmire of fear, rather than running the race with the feet like a deer God has given us. Complacency came quietly camouflaged in a package of "you don't want to offend anyone" "you don't want to sound judgmental." It came cloaked in a twisted definition of being about peace and love. It came with a self focused message of being 'happy.'

The veil is so thick few see that to bring peace and love, to be set free by the blood of Jesus Christ means to fly into the face of the enemy. It means war. Carrying the banner of Christ Jesus our King as His kingdom advances.
The church has become a breeding ground for pacifists, those refusing to participate in a call to war.

2 Samuel 22: 32-40 calls us to remember.
"He trains my hands for war"

How often we repeat Ephesians 6:10-20 without understanding the depth of what God has given us. He has given us the uniform worn only by those soldiers equipped for the frontline of a fierce battle. The Navy Seals of ancient times.

Hebrews 12:11 says God is training us to yield the peaceful fruit of righteousness, by disciplining us, which seems painful rather than pleasant at the moment.

This is the pain the church is feeling in this time. As God makes the way for a great revival, He is waking up His sleepy church and training us up for the frontline battle. A body that is not fed becomes weak and atrophied. A body fed without exercise becomes lazy and out of shape. Breaking that pattern requires a disciplined time of training. We are in a bootcamp of sorts as God calls to those willing to enlist, and that is only by the workings of His Spirit in us.

For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds.

2 Corinthians 10:4

As God reveals the strongholds of satan and begins to tear them down, it is to His glory that He chooses to use us as warriors in His kingdom, proclaiming His sovereignty. God is opening the eyes of our heart to see the spiritual realm where the battle is fought with forever consequence. God is calling us to a maturity to stand and fight.
We must surrender to His leading lest we be distracted by counterfeit battles the enemy sends to pull us away from the work of the Lord. The enemy sends a spirit of confusion to entangle holy and worldly and blind us to the significant.
God calls us to a stillness in Him as He grows us deep and strong and opens us to see from His perspective.
It is a lean time in the physical and abundant in the Lord.

Then I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.
Revelation 19:11

The victory is assured in Christ. We are not fear, but to boldly follow Him.
Amen?

Thanks for being on the frontline bro!
Love,
J

Light To the World
Robert Ricciardelli

All of us are called to be witnesses and expressions of the glory of God to the world. If we are called by His name, we are presenting a witness to those around us as to who He is. The challenging question is, "what type of a witness am I expressing through my life? Am I presenting His life and truth, or am I presenting a life of goodness or religion that many who do not know Him live out each day?

Matt 5:14-15 You are the light of the world. It is impossible for a city situated upon a mountain to be hidden. (15) Nor do men light a lamp and place it under the bushel, but on the lampstand; and it shines to all who are in the house.

In Matthew 5 verse 15 the Lord speaks about placing the lamp under the bushel. A lighted lamp placed under the bushel cannot shine out its light. I often think about all the possibilities that keep Gods people from presenting the kingdom of God through their lives. Sin is the obvious choice as we all have that in our lives, but let's talk about some of them that are more subtle.

Matt. 6:25 "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?

This would be the subtle sin of anxiety or worry. How can we be advancing as kingdom folks with the weight and concern of life's essentials? I know I have fallen into this many times when I could not see where the provision was coming from, or better yet when. One of the problems we face is putting our trust in what we can see or figure out. That does not lend well to a life of faith and it does not lend well for us to shine the light of Christ.

Covered by a bushel, what does that actually mean?

Here is one thought; in ancient times a bushel was the weight as a measure for grain. It was their standard or weight of exchange for food. It was very much a part of making a living during that time. Thus, hiding the lamp under the bushel indicates anxiety and weight we may carry concerning our living. If we Christians are anxious about our living and concerned about how much money we are making, this anxiety will become a bushel covering our light. I have found this to be true in my own life. How can I focus on the kingdom of God and His glory and presence and at the same time be overly concerned with how I can figure out the resources needed to do so. I am all for planning, and stewarding, but it is the anxiety that needs to go.

Kingdom people see and think differently

When we are on our game, we will have a kingdom focus of seeking Christ and His righteousness, while knowing that all things, especially the essentials in life, will be provided for us from our heavenly Father. It might not come the way we had figured out, and it may come at the eleventh hour, but beloved, rest assured, it will come. In the midst of these tough times, when we live and move and have our being in the peace of Christ, this gives evidence of an uncovered light that shines before men. When we can praise Him and enter into His presence in the midst of trials and adversities we are living in appreciation of His comforting presence that will never leave nor forsake us. As kingdom dwellers, we can go on day after day only caring about Christ and His church, and to the obedience in what He has called us to.

When others see the joy of the Lord which is our strength being lived out, it is an attraction they do not see in the people who are not yet born into the kingdom. We have all seen this in our experiences. Brother how can you be so full of joy when you just lost your job? Sister, you cannot buy groceries this week and you are still singing His praises. How can this be? This happens because we do not see things as they are, but as yet unseen. We have a loving Father that knows our every need and if He can take care of the birds in the air, He will surely take care of His sons and daughters. People will know from our conversations of hope and life in Christ Jesus, in a world consumed with thoughts of the economy, wars, and when the next earthquake might strike.

By being such a people, we touch the hearts of others and shine upon them the light of Christ from within. This shining penetrates them.

The marketplace is a great place to shed His light of truth, mercy and grace. They cannot see what we see as fear and anxiety is upon them and many times consumes them. There are some that have developed positive mental attitudes and have taken courses on thinking positive for health and a stress free life. Self help books are among the bestsellers, but separated from God, self can never ultimately succeed. The fact that God's universal principles of laughter and discipline of focus work, some may find a temporary fix to their fears just by applying these principles. The truth is, without the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, the peace will be fleeting and it is only a delusion of the true comfort only God can deliver. When we are living a life of faith and have removed the bushels that desire to cover us, the presence of God within us will influence others, regardless of context or jurisdiction. They will see a people set apart, seemingly on top of a mountain shining brilliantly.

Glorifying God through Our Shining

Matt 5:16 In the same way, let your light shine before men, so that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in the heavens.

John 1:12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the authority to become children of God, to those who believe into His name

Galatians 4:6 Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, "Abba, Father."

We are regenerated through Christ as children of our almighty God and Father. To the audience of the world, they will see His characteristics through those who have become children of His light and His authority. Good works are brought forth through the obedient behavior of His children through which men may see God and be brought to Him. Our shining will glorify the Father because it expresses what God is. To glorify God the Father is to give Him the glory in everything we do. Glory is God expressed. When His kingdom people express God in their behavior and good works, men see God and give the glory to God. God hidden is God Himself, as He remains regardless of whether we are expressing His truth through our lives. But when God is expressed through us, that is the glory of God. If as the kingdom people we have such a shining light, God will be expressed in this shining, and all those around us will see the glory, which is God expressed.

As kingdom dwellers, we are the light of the world. As light we are like a city on a mountaintop and like a lamp shining in a house. From without and within, we shine to express God, to let God have the glory in the eyes of others. We desire to exercise such an influence upon those around us. May we be ambassadors of light to the world, as kingdom dwellers in the presence of the almighty wherever He leads. May His light shine before men to break the bondages and deception, so that the harvest of souls can be brought forth. Oh Father, lets us shine your light, forgive us when we let the bushels of this world cover us. Remind us that the only covering we need is you. Remind us of our purpose to serve you and advance your present and coming kingdom in Jesus name, amen.

God’s Favor on His people

Debra Lindvall

Word of the Lord for 2005

2005 will be a year of God’s favor on his people. The spirit of the Lord is declaring Grace, Grace to His people this year. Over every circumstance and obstacle that is and that is to come. I Hear the Spirit of the Lord saying “it’s time, it’s time, the set time to favor My people has come.” This is a predetermined time by the spirit of God to bring us out of what has been and into His Divine favor. His favor is bringing a double portion of blessing and provision to us for all the has troubled us.

Psalm 102:13 (NKJV)

You will arise and have mercy on Zion; For the time to favor her, Yes, the set time, has come.

Isaiah 61:7 (NKJV)

Instead of your shame you shall have double honor, And instead of confusion they shall rejoice in their portion. Therefore in their land they shall possess double; Everlasting joy shall be theirs.

Resistance from the enemy

This Divine Favor will not come without resistance from the enemy. But I hear the Lord saying “his resistance is futile, who I determine to favor will be Favored.” Stand your ground and speak/shout with a loud voice to the mountain GRACE – GRACE.” This is my standard that I am raising up against My enemy’s. “My favor will shield you and protect you. It will not be by your power or might but by my Spirit of Grace.”

Zechariah 4:7 (AMP)

For who are you, O great mountain [of human obstacles]? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain [a mere molehill]! And he shall bring forth the finishing gable stone [of the new temple] with loud shoutings of the people, crying, Grace, grace to it!

Psalm 5:12 (NKJV)

For You, O Lord, will bless the righteous; With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

Angelic intervention

Increased angelic intervention is coming. The Lord is dispatching His Host at His Word. You will see this intervention in three areas. Divine warnings - His Angels will bring warnings to escape impending danger and disaster. To those who are seeking Him and His Kingdom. Message delivery – Our fasting and prayer in some cases will bring a response that God will send an Angel with to bring the answer. Reconnaissance – God is sending Angels to houses, cities and nations to confirm ‘the cry of injustice.’ If confirmed judgment will come swiftly, but if they find repentance great blessings and favor will come to them.

Gen 19:1 , Act 27:23-24, Jug 3:13, Acts 12:7, Acts 5:19

Critical Mass and Crisis overcome

We are coming into a season where the Church is going to reach ‘critical mass.’ This will happen at an individual level and a corporate level. At an individual level, the power of the Spirit of God in some will reach ‘critical mass’ and a spiritual chain reaction will take place to bring them to a new level and dimension of glory. At a corporate level, the ministries that have labored for the ‘Kingdom to come’ in cities, regions, and even nations the Spirit is saying “it has not been in vain.” Your labor is reaching ‘critical mass’ in the spirit, which will bring about BREAKTHROUGH SUDDENLY in those cities, regions, and nations. At the time of this spiritual change individuals and ministries will find that crisis is overcome with an ease because the ‘Breaker has done it.’

Ephesians 1:19 (AMP)
And [so that you can know and understand] what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,

Eph 3:20 (NKJV)
Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,

Amos 9:13-14 (NKJV)
“Behold, the days are coming,” says the Lord, “When the plowman shall overtake the reaper, And the treader of grapes him who sows seed; The mountains shall drip with sweet wine, And all the hills shall flow with it.
I will bring back the captives of My people Israel; They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them; They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them; They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them.

Extraordinary Abundance

This will be a year of extraordinary abundance in the area of finance and physical health, for those who have sown in faith and believed when they did not see and those who’s treasure has been in heaven. For those who have patiently waiting on Him to act, the Spirit of the Lord says “I am releasing to you abundant prosperity and health.”

Psalm 112:3 (NKJV)
Wealth and riches will be in his house, And his righteousness endures forever.

Ps 132:15 (NKJV) I will abundantly bless her provision; I will satisfy her poor with bread.

Isaiah 58:8 (NKJV)
Then your light shall break forth like the morning, Your healing shall spring forth speedily, And your righteousness shall go before you; The glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.

Jer 30:17 (NKJV)
For I will restore health to you And heal you of your wounds,' says the LORD, …

I sensed strongly that this word comes with conditions for His people. For those who desire to walk in what God is declaring they MUST be connected and submitted. Connect to His Body (I hear “in vital union with”) that is the church and submitted to His Kingdom Government.

God's Favour On Australia

Lance Bergman

The Word below is entitled God's Favour on Australia. Some background history may help. The Lord has been talking to me about the 800 Australian Light Horsemen that liberated The Wells of Beersheba in 1917 and opened up the entrance into Jerusalem. Today The Lord impressed upon me to reread Col Stringers book, 800 Horsemen.

You may not be aware that on October 31, 1917, 800 Australian Light Horseman defeated the Turks that had been in control of The Wells of Beersheba for 400 years. 50,000 British and Allied troops had failed and were running out of water when The Australian Commander requested that they have a go.

In one hour in failing light against artillery guns, machine guns, 4500 entrenched infantry, and bombing from the air 800 men rode across 6km's of open desert on horses that had not drunk any water for between 48 to 70 hours. The Turkish army were defeated and this was the gateway into Jerusalem. Many crusades had been fought against the Turks in the previous four centuries including Alexander The Great but nobody had been able to defeat the Turkish entrenched position at Beersheba.

Australia spilt the blood of its sons on Jewish soil in 1917 and overran the enemy and gave back the land to its rightful owners. This opened the way for General Allenby to lead Allied Troops into Jerusalem. In Tel Aviv there is a monument to our Light Horsemen.

God's Favour on Australia

Australia this is your hour of blessing. You are now entering a time of My favour on your nation. The youngest nation in the world (we were 16 years of age) blessed the oldest nation in the world and now I declare it is time for my blessing to come upon you. I am releasing My Spirit through your land in an unprecedented way. I am doing a new thing. You have been my hidden warriors and now I am bringing you forth to battle again. I am giving you a new authority in the heavenly realm. It is time to rise up and fight once more. I have reserved a special grace for you in this hour. I am going to move in such a way that the eyes of the world will be upon you. Many will come to see for themselves what I am doing. The signs and wonders that I do through My Spirit will amaze the world. I ordained you for this destiny, this birthright. Every aspect of your nation will be permanently changed. The blood of your soldiers in Israel has been heard and in this season I am answering their cry. You will do great exploits again that will shape the destiny of nations. This time those exploits will be in the spiritual realm. I am giving you an ability to take enemy ground very quickly. The enemy is already afraid of what you are doing and panic and confusion is starting to set in as your anointed prayer warriors arise for battle. Prayer warriors from Australia will fight over Jerusalem in the heavens and prevail with astonishing results. Many will come to join you but you have been chosen to lead the way with strategic strikes against the enemy. This is a time to stand and wait for your orders. Prepare yourself for battle. Your advance troops have already been in action for some time but I have kept it hidden. Indeed I am blessing you because you blessed Israel. I will bless who I will bless and nothing can stop this from happening and Australia I choose to bless you in this season.

Golden Fountain of Glory
Karen Francis

On October 17th, 2005 I was returning home from a job interview I had in Pittsburgh, PA and while seeking the Lord, I saw the following vision.

I saw the body of Christ living together, as a community and there were no walls. They were united in the Spirit and love of the Christ, and all were serving for the sake of the kingdom of the Lord alone, with no personal agenda involved. While watching the body of believers, I saw a huge golden fountain of glory radiating from the midst of them. It was shaped just like a large water fountain. It was the glory of the Lord that radiated from the midst of them, yet the believers couldn't see it themselves.

I saw the nations surrounding them, covered in darkness and despair. They seen the fountain of glory very clearly, being drawn to it, knowing it was the Lord. The world around the body of Christ was falling apart in every aspect, desperate for help. Those in the body of Christ were not hurting or lacking in anything.

It was like the times when the nations surrounding Israel feared Israel, because of their God.

Isaiah 60:1-14
Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you.

For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you. The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

"Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be nursed at your side. Then, you shall see and become radiant, and your heart shall swell with joy; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

The multitude of camels shall cover your land, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and incense, and they shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.

All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall ascend with acceptance on My altar, and I will glorify the house of My glory.
"Who are these who fly like a cloud, and like doves to their roosts?

Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me; and the ships of Tarshish will come first, to bring your sons from afar, their silver and their gold with them, to the name of the LORD your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you.

"The sons of foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in My wrath I struck you, but in My favor I have had mercy on you. Therefore your gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day or night, that men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles, and their kings in procession. For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you, shall perish, and those nations shall be utterly ruined.

"The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious. Also, the sons of those who afflicted you shall come bowing to you, and all those who despised you, shall fall prostrate at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you...The City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

I was very encouraged by this vision and after receiving it, Isaiah 60 came alive for me anew.

I have not seen the body of Christ, live like this yet. This is how it truly should be. The nations surrounding us, should be full of fear and dread of us, due to our mighty powerful awesome Holy God overshadowing us continually.

A sister in Christ wrote: "Seems the people/church are so wrapped up in HIM and do not even see what the 'nations' surrounding her see in her and coming forth from her."

She was exactly right. The people were so full of living from the Life of Christ, that they were not aware of this glorious fountain radiating from their midst. It was a beautiful vision (one that I would like to paint some day). The golden fountain sprang forth in such a way, that it completely covered them.

We truly must come together as one body in Christ. Living our lives from Christ life and not our own life. When one part of the body hurts, the entire body hurts. When one part is strengthened, the entire body is strengthened. We cannot be full of Christ, until we are entirely emptied of self. To the poor in spirit, belong the kingdom of heaven. (Matt. 5:1)

This does not mean there won't be persecution, but our life will be so consumed with Christ, that even the persecution will be a part of the testimony of Jesus Christ that will give Him glory.

We are truly coming into times of major calamities. It is in those times, that the body of Christ will be most effective to the nations surrounding us, who will be in great despair and distress. The Lord is preparing a people even now.

We truly must come to a holy fear of the Lord, Who is the King of all in heaven, earth and below the earth. We must come to have a reverential fear of the Lord, knowing that He is all that He says He is. He will perform the very Word He speaks forth. He is the living Word in action. When we come to fear our God, the nations will also. They will see the Lord Almighty doing great exploits on behalf of His children and He is caring for all our needs. We will not need health insurance, because our Physician heals all our diseases. We will not need to worry about provision, because our Provider is providing for all our needs, etc.

Who or what can compare or be likened to Him? What love is comparable to His love? What power is comparable to His power? He is the Lord and He alone performs the words He speaks. He will do all that He says He will do. He is God and there is no other.

Psalm 126:1-3
When the Lord brought back the captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream. Then, our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them." The Lord has done great thing for us, and we are glad.

All For His Glory,

God Has Prepared A Banquet!

Christine Beadsworth

03/01/2005

We are living at a time when it is vital for the Church to have understanding of the times. No longer can we cluster in holy huddles and ignore the rest of the world going to destruction. God's heart is moved by the cries of the lost and the hurting and the Church of the Firstborn upon Mount Zion is about to be galvanized into action for the purpose of extending the Kingdom of God and to bring in the harvest. The earthquake in the Indian Ocean is to be used as a tool in God's hand for His glory and His praise. What seems like a scene of devastation and destruction has laid the table, so to speak, for the presentation of the manifestation of His purposes, prepared before the foundation of the world – before the fault lines were formed or any of the continents created, God was planning ways to reap the harvest and reach the souls for which the Lamb was slain. This backdrop of darkness and hopelessness will serve to cast a spotlight on the unfolding of His endtime purpose – a Bride, clothed in the glory of God, reaching the lost with the irresistible love and compassion of Christ!

We read in Isaiah 25:6 that God will prepare a feast, a banquet of good things:

'And in this mountain the Lord of Hosts shall make a feast of fat things for all the people, a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of refined wine on the lees.'

This sounds delicious and, at first glance, conjures up an image of His people having a party and eating the most delicious foods. However, this is not actually what it says and this interpretation is just another example of the mistaken belief which the Church has fostered for years – that God pours out His blessings for us and us alone to enjoy. This is what, up until now, has made the Church of Jesus Christ largely ineffective and unfruitful in the earth. If we look closely at this verse, we see that the feast is prepared not just for the Church but for all peoples. What God has prepared on Mount Zion is not a 'bless me' party but something that will feed all the people of the earth.

If we look more closely into the kind of banquet that God has prepared, we discover something else amazing – we, the Church, are not partaking of the menu, WE ARE THE MENU! Now before you switch off your computer in disgust, allow me to explain. The Word says firstly that God prepares a feast of 'fat things'. This is the Hebrew word ' shemen' which means:

grease, especially liquid (as from the olive, often perfumed); figuratively richness: - anointing, X fat (things), X fruitful, oil ([-ed]), ointment, olive

In other words, this is a feast of the anointing, an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that causes fruitfulness. Where else is this outpouring going to take place but in the lives of His Church, the Church of the First-Born? Then we can go forth declaring the year of His favor:

(Isaiah 61:1) ' The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is on Me; because Jehovah has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to preach the acceptable year of Jehovah and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the mantle of praise for the spirit of heaviness; so that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of Jehovah, that He might be glorified.'

Does that not sound like a feast for the needy of the earth? God does not want us to wait for the world to bring their needs within our four walls – He wants us to be the portable ark of His presence, bearing within our earthen vessels the anointing that breaks the yoke and sets the captive free; the healing oil that binds up the broken-hearted and exchanges their mourning veils for the oil of joy and gladness! God is making us ‘fat things full of marrow’; He is anointing our heads with fresh oil, an overflowing anointing that does not run dry, fit to meet whatever need we come into contact with. We are the light of the world and the day of the ‘greater works’ is here!

The banner pictured at the beginning of this article depicts the mighty river of blessing and provision the Lord is pouring out on Mount Zion for all the peoples of the earth because He wants them to taste and see that He is good. God is wanting the lost to not only hear the good news of God’s love but to actually experience for themselves His character, which is ‘goodness’. It is His kindness which leads us to repentance and as the hurting and broken experience the outpouring of His love and power through us, their hearts will be turned from serving vain idols to serve the Living God. In essence we, the Church are to be God’s ‘take-outs or take-aways’ from the kitchens of heaven; taking the manifestation of His goodness to the ends of the earth, so that the glory of the Lord may cover the earth as the waters cover the sea!

The Holy Spirit will be moving on the hearts of many of His people in these days as they view the scenes of devastation following the tsunami. He will propel laborers into the harvest field of these countries; men and women moved by the compassion of Christ and laying down their lives for the widow and the orphan, the broken and the homeless; taking the light of Jesus into the darkness of the aftermath of this catastrophe. God will use this event to liberate His people from passivity and religion and thrust them into the fullness of their inheritance. Did He not say, “ask of Me and I will give you the nations for your inheritance”? Church, it is time not to ask for an inheritance of silver or gold or things that perish and pass away but to cry out to the Lord for souls – an inheritance that is beyond the reach of dust and decay. We are all desperate for our portion of the promised land but we need to grasp the fact that the promised land is not a physical place or a mansion or a fat bank balance and fancy cars, it is a Person, Jesus Christ - and our assigned portion is the revelation of Jesus within us. This is the hope of glory. The glory is not something that comes to us but something that is released within us as we are obedient in stepping out and carrying the presence of Christ to a needy world. We are the feast of fat things; Christ in us is the menu of the day and the world is desperate to be fed with the True Bread of Heaven.

The other part of the feast God is preparing on Mount Zion is ‘wines on the lees’, in fact ‘refined wines on the lees’! Wesley explains that wines that have been sitting for a long time gain strength and after this, they are drawn off and refined. Have you been waiting for years for the fulfillment of your destiny in Christ? Well, God has been busy turning the water of the Word within you into wine, strong wine and it is now the Third Day of the feast and He has saved the best wine until last! The word for ‘well refined’ is ‘zaqaq’ and means:

to strain, (figuratively) extract, clarify: - fine, pour down, purge, purify, refine.

Have you been through a purging, purifying process? Well, now you know why! God is about to serve you as an accompaniment to His main course, the meat of His Word! He has prepared a banquet and the invitation is going out to the lame and the broken to come and feast on the goodness of God. This is what you were born for, this is your destiny – to be part of a mature, anointed portable feast for the peoples of the earth. The time has come to be poured out. Will you accept the Lord's invitation and say, “here am I Lord send me”, or will you continue to be settled on the lees and complacent? This is dangerous because wine gets beyond the stage of being drinkable and becomes spoilt, acidic and rancid tasting, good only to be thrown out. God is wanting to set apart those who have accepted His invitation as Zeph 1:7 says. This is your chance to be dusted off, be uncorked and released into your destiny in God. If you want to preserve your life, you will lose it(Matt 10) but if you are willing to be poured out for His glory, you will save your life. God is searching His shelves, looking for mature rich tasting wines to serve to the people of the earth. This is your time, say,” yes Lord, pour me out for your glory”.

The restaurant is Mount Zion and the menu is a manifestation of Jesus Christ in love and power. As the poor and needy come to dine Isaiah 25:7 says that God will destroy the veil that is over the head of all nations:

‘And He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering which covers all people, and the veil that is woven over all nations.’

I believe this not only refers to the veil over their spiritual eyes that is taken away when they come to belief in Christ, but also to the veil of mourning that covers the nations where disaster, be it earthquake or war or famine, has struck. We have seen so clearly in these last few days the profound wretchedness and despair that has come as a veil upon the nations that have been struck by the tsunami. Many many people have lost loved ones and all they own. This is an opportunity for the Church to arise and be the light of the world. Isaiah tells us that dense darkness covers the peoples but the glory of the Lord has arisen upon us. It is time for the Lord to remove the reproach of His people from off all the earth, as Isaiah 25:8 says. What is this reproach? It is mentioned in Isaiah 26:18:

(Isaiah 26:18) We conceived; we have been in pain, we gave birth to wind. We have not brought about any salvation in the earth; nor are the people of the world yet born’

This speaks of a lack of fruitfulness, of no harvest coming in. But now, on this Third Day, the Lord will remove that reproach from His people. No longer will the Church be barren and unfruitful, religious and lifeless. He has been preparing His vessels in the fires of affliction and the vessels of honor are coming forth in this day. The fast He has chosen is for us to be the feast He has prepared for all peoples:

(Isaiah 58:6) ‘ Is not this the fast that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed ones go free, and that you break every yoke? Is it not to break your bread to the hungry, and that you should bring home the wandering poor? When will you see the naked and cover him; and you will not hide yourself from your own flesh? Then shall your light break out as the dawn, and your health shall spring out quickly; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard’

Christ within you is the hope of glory. The dinner bell has rung and Mount Zion and the Church of the First-Born invite the hungry and the poor and the broken to come and feast on a meal that is without cost. Do you hear the sound of the trumpet in the heavens as the invitation goes forth?:

(Isaiah 55:1) ‘ Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat. Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.’

Let the feast begin!

God is About to Breathe on His Promises Over Our Lives

Amanda Butel

His Breath

God is about to breathe on His promises over our lives. He is challenging us to embrace the Word He has placed in our hearts, and to invite His Holy Spirit to breathe on us. He is wanting to restore to us a new hope and a fresh vision. He is wanting to fulfill His purpose in and through us.

The Spirit of the Lord is searching to and fro, seeking out those who love Him. He is yearning for intimate relationship with a people who are hungry, holy and humble before Him. God is wanting to bring form to His Word, and manifest His Presence to this dying world.

There is an intensity -- a sense of urgency like never before. I don't know about you, but I want the power of God in my life. I don't want to just get by, acting out a mediocre and average existence. I don't want to finish this race without having given my Lord everything. I desire, with all my heart, to live wholeheartedly and abundantly -- passionately serving Him -- with His mighty hand backing up all that I do -- for His glory.

In order to be whom God has destined us to be, we cannot afford to become complacent and lose a sense of expectancy that God is about to move on our behalf. Without hope, we will be shredded and disintegrated upon the winds of disappointment and fear. Without courage and trust in God, we will perish to our own devices. So we need to learn the habit of anticipating His supernatural intervention at all times. With all the pressures and strains of this world, it is so easy to become tired, frustrated and discouraged. Often times it doesn't seem as though God is working on our behalf. It can appear as though the heavens are brass and the hand of God is far from us. But He is wanting to remember His promises to us, and demonstrate Himself in and through us beyond what we could ever hope, dream or imagine.

There is a short story of a woman the Bible calls a notable (great, high, mighty, noble, rich) woman -- the Shunammite woman (II Kings 4:8-37). She honors a holy man of God (Elisha), and hospitably feeds him whenever he visits town. Eventually she builds and furnishes a special room in her and her husband's home, and provides lodging for Elisha and his servant Gehazi whenever they need it.

The Promise Is Spoken . . .

To show his appreciation for her generosity, Elisha asks if there is anything he can do for her -- but she graciously declines. It is plain that in helping this man of God she wasn't after a reward -- her heart was to simply assist him. But the Lord recognizes her humility and, when Gehazi informs Elisha that the woman has no son, Elisha calls for her and prophesies, "About this time next year you shall embrace a son." (verse 16)

Her reply reflects many of our own when the Lord speaks over our lives. Sometimes His promises can seem wonderful and grand -- but unachievable. She cries out, "No, my Lord. Man of God, do not lie to your maidservant!"

In other Words, "Don't get my hopes up . . . This sounds too good to be true. I couldn't stand it if God said He would grant the desire of my heart and it doesn't come to pass . . . Surely I can't live if this Word isn't fulfilled!"

Today we are sensing a shift in the heavenlies. God is challenging us to embrace the promises He has placed in our hearts -- despite how things may appear in the natural . . . To believe for the impossible and make way for the improbable . . . To take up the shield of faith and ward off the enemy's accusations of doubt, fear and hopelessness.

Let's read on to see what happened . . .

True to the Word of the Lord through the mouth of His prophet Elisha, the Shunammite woman conceived and bore a son when the appointed time had come . . . and the child grew (verse 17).

The Promise Is Delivered . . .

God breathed life on her womb. Even though her husband was "old," and natural biology's prognosis was that a child was out of the question, she conceived and manifested God's promise. She physically embraced the fulfillment of the Word of the Lord. Notice that this occurred when the appointed time had come.

Know that there is an appointed time and season for the fulfillment of God's promises in your life. And once God says it, His Word cannot return to Him void. It is like defying the basic law of gravity . . . It cannot be done. It's a principle of the Kingdom. God says it, and that settles it!

But this story doesn't end here. . .

The child is out with his father one day in the fields, when he clutches at his head in pain and is taken up to the house where the Shunammite woman -- his mother -- holds him in her arms until noon when he dies.

Hang on a minute! PLEASE REWIND!! The little boy dies!? I thought he was the manifested promise of God! A few years down the track, sure -- but the promised child none-the-less! Dead!?

I imagine the Shunammite woman didn't just stand by and watch her child pass away without a fight. I can see her now as she tenderly cradles his small frame and rocks him back and forth . . . I can hear her heart pounding as she bravely ignores the hard swelling lump in her aching throat, and sings softly over him. All the while she is fervently praying -- trying to ease his pain, not allowing him to see her anguish. I can feel her desperate attempts to impart her own life and strength to him, so that he might recover, and bounce back through the fields to greet his father. She is sponging his clammy face and limp hands, and wiping his grubby feet with her tear-soaked garments -- all the while whispering Words of healing and hope.

Bringing cool water to his gray, chapped lips, she struggles to fight away Fear and Doubt as they coil their cruel talons of despair around her heart. Taking evil advantage of her pain, they attempt to drain away the hopes and visions she has of her boy's future. They relentlessly seep poisonous lies of unbelief and confusion into her mind, clouding her peace and judgment while she is at her weakest. What do you think of your wonderful God now? They torment her. It appears as if He has abandoned you -- right when you need Him the most . . . He is withdrawing His promise . . . Obviously you don't deserve it . . . Can't you see He is judging you . . . Maybe this promise wasn't really from God in the first place . . .

This gut-wrenching scene continues . . . As the intensity of the midday sun reaches it's peak, I sense this desperate mother feels her young boy's life slipping away. She grabs his little face and demands him to focus his glazing eyes on hers. Gathering every smidgen of scattered courage within her, she delivers a final convincing plea: "Live, son, live! You have so much to look forward to. So many experiences to partake of. A long, full life to live. It's not time for you to go. Live, son, live!"

But he dies.

Have you ever held a promise in the palm of your hand, or tasted the outworking of God's Word and power in your life, but then seemingly hit a brick wall, and watched it fall apart right before your eyes? Have you ever felt like the very life of your destiny was sliding away between your fingers?

Please, let me encourage you, DON'T GIVE UP! Watch what this mighty woman of God does . . . Despite her grief and confusion, she gently lays the lifeless body of her darling baby boy on the prophet's bed in the upper room, shuts the door and says, "It is well."

The Promise Is Laid Upon The Altar

The Shunammite woman had a determination in her heart that she heard from God. He had granted her a promise, and she wasn't going to accept anything less! She lays her promise on the altar of her former sacrifice -- in the room she and her husband had prepared for the man of God; and without explaining her intentions to anyone, she has a donkey saddled and heads out to find Elisha -- the vessel of her promise. Elisha's servant comes riding out to meet her -- asking after her, her husband, and her son. The woman's response rings true. "IT IS WELL!"

Can you imagine? The thing she holds most dear to her heart . . . That which she prayed and stood and waited and believed God for all those years and years . . . The sweetest, warmest, and most amazing miracle of God's manifest power in her life, is lying cold and stiff, and she says, "It is well."

I think I would be throwing a major wobbly right about here -- wouldn't you?!

She has watched the mighty Hand of God transform her desert, barren circumstance into a glorious testimony of His loving grace, only to see it distort and vanish in a fleeting moment. And she says, "It is well!" Is she in denial? Is she cold-hearted? Is she losing her mind with grief? NO! She is walking in believing power! She says, "It is well," by faith. She is not looking at her circumstance as it appears, but looking through eyes of faith and TRUST IN HER GOD! She is single-minded. She is pure-hearted. And she believes wholeheartedly that the man of God who prophesied her promise -- her son -- will be used as an instrument of the Lord to resurrect her boy.

Creating the Opportunity for God to Breathe His Life into Our Circumstances

Reaching the man of God, she abandons cultural protocol and throws herself at his feet -- persisting that he accompanies her home. She is desperate. Elisha accepts her determined plea and instructs his servant Gehazi to take his staff in his hand, and to go directly to the child without becoming distracted along the way. He asks Gehazi to lay the staff on the child's face. This is very significant. I believe Elisha's staff signifies the Word of the Lord.

As we embrace God's Word with everything in us, store His promises and His faithfulness deep in our lives, and walk in obedience, God can then breathe His life and ignite the flame of our hearts. His Spirit alights on His resident Word to manifest His glory, His life, and His power in and through us.

Recently I was going through my morning ritual of exfoliating in the shower, and the Lord spoke gently to my heart. "You know, you spend more time loofah-ing your body than cleansing yourself with the water of My Word." We need to ask ourselves: Is God's Word given absolute priority and securely positioned within my heart? So often we become consumed and distracted with the much less significant and less productive "outer" areas of our lives, sabotaging our personal potential and inner peace.

The Promise Is Resurrected

The servant follows Elisha's orders and positions the staff on the boy -- but nothing happens . . . that is, nothing happens until Elisha goes into the room, shuts the door, and prays!

Now look at what this radical prophet does . . . He lays over the top of the child -- mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, and hands to hands; and as he stretches himself out over the child, the young boy's flesh becomes warm! He repeats this process until the child sneezes and opens his eyes. The boy comes back to life! See the power of the breath of God! He can resuscitate what is seemingly gone!

Allow His Holy Spirit to breathe afresh on You and His Word and promises in your heart. Set aside any hopelessness shrouding your circumstances and declare, "It is well." Look neither to the left nor the right as you focus on laying the truth of His Word across your heart, and invite His Holy Spirit to breathe upon your life, your strategies and your programs. Then watch Him move!

You see, when we try to complete and manage ourselves and satisfy our agendas in our own strength, we so often fail. And as we strive to take matters into our own hands and fix them with our personal knowledge and mere abilities, we tangle, distort, and hinder our fleshly works all the more. Allow God Almighty -- Creator of the Universe -- to breathe on your life, your relationships, your family, your work, your finances, and your future. His breath can create and establish from nothing! He can breathe upon dust and bring forth life. His breath can cause that which is rigor mortis to pulsate again. His breath can destroy the works of the enemy.

Because of her maturity and spiritual perception that "ALL WAS WELL," the Shunammite woman once again held the promise of the Lord in her arms. She once again embraced her son's warm, breathing, moving life -- brimming with hope and potential. She once again savored the moment of the manifestation of God's glory in her family. She once again testified to the goodness and greatness of her Lord.

God wants you to see what He has prepared for you. He wants you to have spiritual perception where you can look beyond the natural and see what wonderful things He has laid up for you. God wants to put His eyes on your eyes, His hands on your hands, His heart on your heart -- and breathe upon you. He wants to resurrect His promises which lay dormant in your life. He wants to prove His Word!

The question is, will you shut the door on fruitless striving, opinions, and your own agenda -- to make room to invite His sweet Presence and life-giving breath to usher in the fulfillment of His spoken Word?

MAKE THE CONNECTION

1) Connect with your God.

Your Heavenly Father has made a way for you to access Him. The Bible says that a major key to living a victorious life is to honor and praise Him despite your circumstances. Allow His Holy Spirit to completely saturate you with His fresh, powerful Presence. Welcome the Holy Spirit to carry you to new places in Him, heal you with His sweet oil, and consume all that isn't of Him with His purifying fire.

- Ask God to breathe on you. As we come to Him in worshipful intimacy -- mouth to mouth -- He can breathe His life . . . His way . . . His truth. Oh Lord, breathe Your fire on the altar of my heart -- that I might know Your voice, Your Words . . . That I might express what is on Your heart.
- Ask the Holy Spirit to give You His eyes -- so that you can see what He sees -- and how He sees . . . Spirit of God, breathe on my eyes so the blinding scales of this world would fall, and Your revelation would be unveiled . . . that I would see circumstances and people the way You see them . . . That I would be Kingdom-oriented, not self-absorbed!
- Ask Him to anoint your hands. Know that when you reach out to others, you stretch forth His hand of healing and deliverance. Lord, touch My hands, that I might prosper and be successful in You. That I might bless others on purpose. That Your mighty Hand would back me up in all that I do.
- Ask Him to stretch Himself out over you -- heart to heart -- so you can be washed anew with His love and grace. Lord, breathe on the outworkings of my body, that You would add Your super to my natural. I want to flow with Your purpose, and bring glory to You.

2) Connect with your purpose.

If you feel frustrated or helpless in a particular area of your life, don't give up. PERSEVERE! Keep on keepin' on!

Notice that, at the end of the Shunammite woman's story, Elisha has his servant tell her, "Pick up your son."

In other words, take up your promise and go forth. Claim what is yours and alive in Christ Jesus -- and run with it! Run with the Spirit. Rest in Him, and run with the wind of the Spirit! Take the resurrected promise and proclaim His glory and His power. Testify of God's goodness.

The Shunammite woman does exactly that, she runs with the manifest Word of God in her life -- but not before bowing first. Not without acknowledging the miracle first. Not without an attitude of gratitude and a heart of thanksgiving. Ask the Holy Spirit to breathe on your path; and follow in obedience, gratefully giving Him glory for all He has done for you. Out of your place of desperation, consecrate your hope to Him . . . Don't give room to complacency, the fear of man, and religious ritual. Don't allow carnal methods and the pseudo solutions of this world system to dominate your choices and outcomes. Ask for more of Him. For His divine love! For His magnificent purpose in your life!

3) Connect with other God-fearing believers.

Who are you associating with? Are you in connection with people who are believing like you? Do you fill your conversation with faith and trust in God, and hope in His Word, or is your chit-chat splattered with phrases such as, "It's highly improbable . . . Everyone is doing it this way . . . " and the overrated cynical adage, "Well, we'll just wait and see what happens!"

Take heed and steadfastly guard your eye-gate and ear-gate with tenacious ferocity, to allow only the succinct truth of the Lord's Word to be enthroned in your life. This seat is from whence His power will flow!

Gideons, Arise For 'Lock-In' And 'Lock Down'" Plus: "Confessions Of a Fasting Housewife"
by Catherine Brown

Dear Gatekeepers,

Bless you!
I would like to ask you to read and pray this word through. Together, let us call for Gideon's Army to arise to the glory of God!
Catherine Brown

"GIDEON"

In prayer Friday (August 19, 2005), I heard a sound in Heaven and the word "Gideon" was shouted with incredible force. This first, powerful proclamation caused a rumbling that spoke of a massive impetus and movement. The noise resonated from the heavens to the earth. The effect was ground breaking!

As the word "Gideon" was proclaimed repeatedly, huge angels, one by one, began to emerge from a place of hiddeness in many nations. The angels had been covered over with white feathers. As they stood up, they were robed in white tunics and had a golden sash around them draped from their shoulders to their waists. It was as though the angels had been waiting, undercover, for a signal from Heaven to begin a particular assignment. They were now receiving their "marching orders."
As the angels stood to their feet ready to serve Christ, there was a simultaneous rising up of many young men and women alongside of older men and women. The spiritual awakening amongst the angels and the nations was causing a "Gideon's Army" to assemble and arise around the world!

"LOCK IN"

The second audible proclamation I heard from Heaven was, "Lock in!"
This spoken command caused men and women to stand side by side, joining with the mighty angel in each nation.
This, in turn, caused a knock-on effect of young men and women being joined together with an older man or woman (in like manner to when one person is bound to another for a three-legged race). The two generations became inseparable. This speaks of a locking in to the heartbeat of God, the mind of Christ, and partnering together as Gideon's army as an end-time army of servant-hearted lovers of Jesus. The mission is to overcome the enemy and win the multitudes for Christ!
This is a time for the joining of generations with apostolic, prophetic oversight and wisdom, to release a massive, Holy Spirit-inspired spiritual awakening in the earth.

"LOCK DOWN"

Finally, I heard a third audible proclamation -- "Lock down!" -- and, with this, I saw multitudes of (smaller) angels being placed on assignment on the borders of nations and on college campuses across the world. The angels formed an impenetrable hedge for the Kingdom of God. God was stationing and positioning his troops (both angelic and human) all across the earth in strategic positions.

I began to prophesy with all my heart and strength that the "Gideon shout" will be heard, received, responded to, and proclaimed in the nations and that all who are called for this assignment will hear and respond immediately. The Gideon's army will be unstoppable. This awakening will not only be in campuses in the USA, but will fan out across the globe and will touch many young men and women in work places, in addition to educational establishments.

Even as I write the revelation down, I see a blueprint falling from Heaven, and believe the Lord is going to release a strategic, global blueprint for the outworking of this Kingdom assignment.

"THE LORD IS WITH YOU MIGHTY WARRIOR"

The Lord raised Gideon up at a time of tremendous oppression. Every time the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and other eastern peoples invaded the country, camped on the land, ruined the crops, and killed all the livestock. They invaded the land and ravaged it, causing the Israelites to call out to the Lord for help.

Into such desperate times the prophetic voice of God was heard and the angel of the Lord visited Gideon: "The Lord is with you, mighty warrior" (Judges 6:12).

STEALTH WARRIORS ARE OVERCOMERS!

Ultimately, the angel of the Lord instructed Gideon to go in the strength he had, despite Gideon's protestations that he was from the weakest clan and he was the smallest in his family.

Gideon presented an offering to the Lord, which was acceptable to God; when Gideon saw the angel of the Lord face to face and lived, he built an altar to the Lord and called it "Peace." He tore down his father's Asherah pole; he blew a trumpet to gather warriors, sent out messengers, and spoke with God. He assembled more than 30,000 potential warriors and allowed the Lord to sift that army down to just 300 men. He then received a blueprint from the Lord to divide them into three companies of one hundred men each.

God instructed Gideon on the weapons of his warfare (trumpets, empty jars, and torches). Gideon overcame his fear and led his men into battle, facing a huge enemy and, in human terms, was totally outnumbered! But Scripture reveals that Gideon's stealth mission was God's perfect strategy to rout the enemy. When Gideon and his men blew their trumpets, broke their jars, and held up their torches, proclaiming, "A sword for the Lord and for Gideon," the Lord caused the men throughout the enemy camp to turn on each other!

APOSTOLIC OVERSIGHT AND MILITARY INTELLIGENCIA

The Lord is calling forth a Gideon's army in this hour that is a worshipping, praying, overcoming army. Gideon's army is an army of ordinary people, surrendered to God, serving Him with all their hearts, and obedient to His every command. Yet, Gideon's army is a radical band of believers who will do anything for Jesus, including laying their own lives down for others.

Gideon's army will receive supernatural military intelligence to be strategic overcomers! Gideon's army is an army that will be gathered, mobilized, and sent on assignment by the Holy Spirit and the generals He is raising in these hours with apostolic authority and compassion.

THE MULTITUDES WILL BE WON FOR CHRIST

Today, as in Gideon's day, many nations are spiritually impoverished, under the rod of the oppressor, and ravaged by enemy activity. Today, Israel faces extreme spiritual hardship. Today, Jesus makes a call in the earth for Gideon's army to arise.

Like Gideon, the children of God may believe to see God face to face; we will build an altar of faith in our hearts as we receive the anointing to be those who will confront ungodly activity in our nations (the equivalent of tearing down Asherah poles). If we listen with all His heart, we will be given strategies to plunder the enemy's camp and see the multitudes won for Christ.

Gideon's army received God's peace in the midst of battle. We, too, must enter the battle from a place of rest.

A SPECIFIC WORD FOR ISRAEL

Gideon placed a fleece before the Lord, and the Lord demonstrates His faithfulness and power through the miracle of the appearance of dew (once upon the fleece and once upon the ground). This prophetic proclamation has a two fold focus for spiritual awakening -- for the Gentiles and for Israel.

It is significant that dew is mentioned just before the Lord delivers the Israelites through his servant Gideon. Just a few scriptural examples of dew reveal its symbolic significance:

DEW AND FAVOR:

" . . . His favor is like dew on the grass."* Proverbs 19:12

DEW AND HARVEST:

" . . . cloud of dew in the heat of the harvest."* Isaiah 18:4

DEW AND RESURRECTION / SPIRITUAL AWAKENING (FIRST FOR ISRAEL THEN THE CHURCH):

"But your dead will live; their bodies will rise. You who dwell in the dust, wake up and shout for joy. Your dew is like the dew of the morning; the earth will give birth to her dead."* Isaiah 26:19

DEW: HUMILITY AND STRENGTH - JESUS IS DEW TO ISRAEL:

"I will be like the dew to Israel; he will blossom like a lily . . . like a cedar of Lebanon."* Hosea 14:5

DEW: THE REMNANT OF JACOB:

"The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the Lord, like showers on the grass, which do not wait for man or linger for mankind."* Micah 5:7

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! Jesus calls us to pour our lives out as a love offering in prayer, in praise, and in radical love.

Gideon's Army, arise and raise a mighty shout to Jesus in the nations! May God's generals arise and take their place to lead the companies of Christ to victory! May we listen together, prayerfully, earnestly, yielded, and with humility for Jesus' blueprint for harvest!
The Lord answered, "I will be with you . . . "* Judges 6:16

Gathering In The Jewels

Extreme measures must be taken in order to bring about a restoration of heart. Many have been trying by their own strength to heal that which was wounded years past. I want you to know that the only way to bring about a healing is by listening to the still small voice in your heart and obeying Its direction. In order to listen you must be quiet and still and be able to rest in the assurance of knowing that it is I who has started a good work and that I AM faithful to complete it.

This is the time and the hour that I will set the captives free. Yes, those who many have even given up on, but I have seen their hearts crying out to Me in travail. I have seen the faithfulness in their hearts that no one else has been able to see. And yes, I AM the One who will bring to pass their healing and deliverance. With a mighty travail of My heart's cry, bondages will be broken off and scales will fall from the eyes of those who have been lost by the enemy's lies and confusion.

Yes, I will set the captives free, but I AM looking for those who are willing and able to be the vessel I can move through with a mighty roar. For when I pour out My travail, the enemy's camp will be scattered, and many will rise up, even like Lazarus being raised from the dead. Yes, the grave cloths will unravel, and the minds that have been held captive, even by mental illness, will be set free. And those plagued by the deaf and dumb spirit will rise up in the revelation of the truth that Who the Son sets free is free indeed.

And I have set you free to set the captives free. So be willing and be available to reach out to those who are lost, not specifically to those of the world, but to those of your brethren. Yes, many of your sisters and brothers have been plagued by many infirmities of the heart and need those who are willing to reach out with My love.

Yes, My love is a powerful weapon against the forces of darkness. Never underestimate its power for it is I who broke the forces of darkness at the Cross, and it is I who broke the forces of darkness in the grave. And most of all when I rose up, I broke off all the chains of bondage off of all humanity with My victory shout.

So let out a mighty cry and say that the devil is defeated and is under your feet, and go out and claim your inheritance. Yes, lay hands on the sick and see them recover. Raise up the spiritually dead. Cast off the bondage from the mentally oppressed. Reap a mighty harvest of souls, those that I have placed a mighty calling upon. Yes, see those that have been disabled and see them as a mighty threat to the kingdom of darkness and a great asset to My kingdom.

Be on the winning side and fight for those I've given My life for. Don't cast them aside as waste. See them as a valuable jewel in the crown of the King. Yes, fight for those who are held captive, for this is the time and the hour to avail as you travail, says your King.

Guidance In The Wilderness Of Your Expectations

Mary Lindow

WHERE HAVE THE TEARS OF THE BROKENHEARTED ALL BEEN STORED UP?
In My holy Place, where tears are counted as gold

WHERE HAVE THE SLEEPLESS NIGHTS OF ANGUISH BEEN NOTICED?
In the heart of the King who knows of your anguish on a personal level, for I too wept and struggled to do my Father’s will.

WHO HEARS THE GROANING AND SOBBING OF THOSE CRYING OUT FOR HELP, FOR SOMEONE TO CARE AND HEAL THEIR ACHING WOUND?
I do. The Listener from the heavens. And I have heard every word spoken and unspoken in your heart and have recorded in My book of remembrances.

I DO HEAR YOU CHILDREN. I DO HEAR YOU IN UTTER ANGUISH and longing for your hearts to be comforted and the present pressures to be mended by My voice rising up against the things that are hurting you and are causing you such great weariness.

I SAY TO THOSE WHO FEEL AS IF THEY ARE WEARY OF THE LAMENTS OF THEIR FRIENDS who are in an extended time of refining and anguish, open your hearts to my compassion and watchout what you with hold in their time of need. As you do to them…in your time of need so will it be done to you.

AMONG THOSE NOW IN AGONY, SORROW, AND TRAVAIL ARE THE EMERGING VOICES THAT WILL REFLECT PURE AND CLEAN PERSPECTIVE. They will not merchandise their callings or gifting nor run from difficulty. They will not lay claim to personal greatness, but instead will invest in the greatness of another young generation looking for ethical purity and holy fear of Me.

I KNOW THAT THE HOUR SEEMS LONG IN WAITING AND THAT YOU ARE NEARLY SPENT WITH THE SORROWS AND LOSSES THAT HAVE OCCURRED.

I AM LOOKING IN THE EARTH FOR THE JOSEPHS WHO WILL NOT WITHHOLD FROM OTHERS BUT INSTEAD, HAVE STORED UP FOR THEIR SEASON OF FAMINE.
He obeyed me and gave freely in their season of desperation and spared the next wave of leaders and the heritage that was to follow.

I AM SEARCHING FOR THE MARYS WHO WOULD RISK ALL THEY HAVE and who would pour out on the feet of those who have identified with the seed falling into the ground type of death, the precious and lavishly expensive oil, scented with the perfume of refreshing and life. These will receive even more to bless others in the days ahead because of the quality of sacrifice and the knowledge of its value.

I KNOW THAT YOU MIGHT NOT FEEL ME LIKE YOU DID IN THE PAST.
I KNOW THAT THE LIGHT SEEMS DIM RIGHT NOW.

IT IS TO TRAIN YOU TO KNOW ME IN YOU INNER SPIRIT BEING, TRUSTING THAT MY STILL SMALL VOICE IS ENOUGH TO LEAD YOU IF NEED BE…
...MOMENT BY MOMENT.

I WILL HOLD YOUR MIND TOGETHER, YOUR BODY IN REST, AND YOUR HEART IN MY HAND. I have spoken to those who are to assist you on your way and I am dealing with their hearts to let go of the fear of being used or the fear of letting go. All of this is in my plan.

THE WORLD SHALL KNOW THAT YOU ARE MINE WHEN LOVE, EQUALITY IN SHARING, AND COMPASSION ARE MORE EVIDENT THAN THE PERSONAL SHOUTS OF GREATNESS AND THE OPINIONS OF THE MIGHTY.

I AM WITH YOU.
LAY DOWN IN THE STORM OF YOUR LIFE, NEAR ME…
…RESTING IN THE BOAT...

…UNTIL I RISE AND CALM THE STORM.

WE WILL PASS OVER TO THE OTHER SIDE OF THIS TURBULENT TIME with songs of rejoicing on our lips and with a greater love for each other strongly forged through obedience.

TRUST….ME.

God Is Up To Something
Mary Lindow

So? God Is Up To Something Fresh In This Season!

ALL OF US ARE INDIVIDUALLY SOMEHOW BEING LED BY THE FATHER!

ALONE...INTO QUESTS OF THE HEART.
He is testing us sorely to see if we long for any power from the pull of glory, revelation, or any spiritual insights.

I TRULY SEE HIM TESTING US ALL IN DEEPER REGIONS OF OUR SOULS THAN WE EVER DREAMED EXISTED.

THIS THING HE IS DOING! IT IS A PRECISION OPERATION THAT "LASERS" AWAY EVERYTHING FRAUDULENT, EMPTY, AND EMBELLISHED!

HE IS DRIVING US LOVINGLY TO SIMPLICITY, LOYALTY, AND DIVINE PURPOSES. NONE OF WHICH WE CAN ACHIEVE OR FATHOM WITH OUR TALENTS, EDUCATIONS, SKILLS OR WIT!

The Lord longs to show you his favor. He wants to give you his tender love. The Lord is a God who is always fair. Blessed are all those who wait for him to act. Isaiah 30:18 (NIRV)

WHEN WE ARE DETERMINED TO PURSUE IN OBEDIENCE A TRUE FAITH IN CHRIST, we will encounter those things of the soul that can soooo easily get us off of the track that we are attempting to run on in order to collect the crown of victory! The sins that so easily overwhelm us are those we tend to be affected by. Usually it is something that we have struggle with or have been exposed to, from habits, age, or upbringing.

THIS IS A MOST IMPORTANT WARNING ABOUT DEALING WITH THOSE "PRECIOUS WOUNDS" AND "SPECIAL HURTS"! For a while our own beloved sin, whatever it may be, remains free to give full expression, and it will delay us from running the Christian race!

IT WILL TAKE FROM US EVERY MOTIVE FOR RUNNING, AND GIVES POWER AND ENERGY TO EVERY DISCOURAGEMENT. When we are weary and faint in our minds, let us remember that Jesus suffered, to save us from eternal misery.

BY INTENTIONALLY LOOKING TO JESUS, OUR THOUGHTS WILL BE STRENGTHENED BY HOLY AFFECTIONS, AND KEEP OUR SELF LOVING DESIRES IN A PLACE OF BRUTAL SUBMISSION TO THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD. We need to habitually think about him. What are our little trials to his agonies, or even to our deserts? What are they to the sufferings of many others?

THERE IS A TENDENCY IN US AS BELIEVERS TO GROW WEARY, AND TO COLLAPSE UNDER TRIALS AND AFFLICTIONS; this is because we still need to understand the mercy and full power of that thing called grace.

WE AS FOLLOWERS OF THE LORD OF GRACE MUST COME TO UNDERSTAND THAT TRIALS

AND YES…EVEN ACCUSATIONS FROM ENEMIES AND PERSECUTORS MAY BE INSTRUMENTS to inflict sufferings, yet they are Divine discipline! Our heavenly Father has his hand in all of this and his wisdom will give a final answer to all of this "sifting of out souls!"

THE OPPOSITE OF BRAVERY IS NOT COWARDICE, BUT CONFORMITY. ~Robert Anthony

WE MUST NOT JUST GIVE IN TO A FATALISTIC GLOOM, WHERE WE FEEL THAT NO HELP OR HOPE IS COMING TO FREE US! God may let others remain alone in their sins, but he will correct sin in his own children. This is what a Father would do to a stubborn or forlorn child, who mopes around in a moodiness accompanied by a big black rain cloud!

PERHAPS YOUR EARTHLY PARENTS CORRECTED YOU OR I, TO INDULGE THEIR ANGER, RATHER THAN TO CHANGE OUR MANNERS. But the Father of our souls never eagerly hurts or brings down his children. It is always for our benefit.

OUR WHOLE LIFE HERE IS A POSITION OF CHILDHOOD, AND WE ARE IMPERFECT WHEN IT COMES TO FULLY GRASPING SPIRITUAL THINGS; that is why we must we must submit and in a real sense, "give in" to this place of loving care and discipline.

GOD'S CORRECTION IS NOT CRITICISM! When we are willing to let God walk the secret hallways of our soul and humbly allow Him to shine the light of purity and truth on all of our opinions about how thing should be done I His Kingdom, this brokenness and self exposure greatly increases personal holiness. MAY WE LEARN TO TRUST THAT THE PAIN BROUGHT ON US BY THE CALLOUSNESS AND MEANNESS OF MEN, is actually a correction for our whimpering childlike souls sent by our wise and gracious Father, for our spiritual good and maturing.

Keep your eyes on Jesus, who both began and finished this race we're in. Study how he did it. Because he never lost sight of where he was headed--that exhilarating finish in and with God--he could put up with anything along the way: cross, shame, whatever. And now he's there, in the place of honor, right alongside God. Hebrews 12:2

God's Judgment On The USA
Teresa Seputis

12 October 2005

Some people have noticed that I have been silent about Hurricane Katrina and ensuing events. There is a reason for that, which I will explain in a couple of paragraphs.

This write-up is more of a testimony of my experiences with God and what He said to me during them than an official "thus sayeth the Lord" prophetic word. Parts of what I heard was with my personal hearing instead of my prophetic/ministry hearing. I am pretty good at hearing God's voice in my personal life, but my ministry hearing is (of course) more accurate than my personal hearing. This email is not an official prophetic word, but I believe it is a message from God to us.

I first heard about Katrina and how it could destroy New Orleans on Sunday afternoon, the day before the hurricane hit. I spent that evening and the whole night in prayer and intercession and watching the weather channel. I did not even go to bed that night. About 5:00 AM in the morning (before Katrina had hit) the Lord had me go back and read a testimony I had written ten years earlier about being in New Orleans when a different class 5 hurricane was supposed to hit. That testimony detailed some of the sins of the city and then shared how I had interceded. At that time, God had turned away that hurricane (which suddenly dropped to a class 2 and turned to Florida). I had not thought about or prayed for New Orleans since. Then exactly ten years later (to the month), another class 5 hurricane was to hit New Orleans. God showed me two things before the hurricane hit. The first was that what we (myself and other intercessors who prayed for New Orleans in 1995) had not maintained in prayer what we had gained in prayer and Satan had retaken the ground. The second thing was that this a judgment of God and could not be turned -- the first judgment of God to hit the USA. As a nation, we have moved past being evaluated to being judged. That is not a good thing.

I wanted to drop what I was doing and just fast and pray and intercede for my nation for several days. But God would not let me. I was scheduled to get on a plane in a week and go to Asia, where I was to minister in three nations: Hong Kong, Singapore and India. I had a lot of things I had to do to get ready for that trip. God told me that I had to put aside my own business (my nation and it's situation) and focus on His business (Asia). God has great plans for Asia. I was shocked that He would say that to me, particularly since 2 Chronicles 7:14 was fresh in my mind. So God reminded me of the time when two of Aaron's sons burned unclean incense before the Lord in Leviticus 10. God struck them dead and then told Aaron and his surviving sons that they could not mourn those deaths or go to the funeral; they had to stay in the temple and serve the Lord because His anointing was on them.

I obeyed God and did not press in to Him for a prophetic word for my nation about this judgment and what we could do to prevent receiving another one. God continued to lead and guide me personally, such as telling me to fill up my car with gas Tuesday morning even though I still had 1/3 of a tank. I obeyed him. I drove by the station again two hours after I filled up and the price of gas had already gone up twenty cents a gallon -- in only two hours! Then God told me that the disaster on New Orleans was not a judgment against that city, but against my whole nation. He explained that our economy was very dependent on the price of gas and that gas prices were going to go way up and effect every aspect of the American economy.

I did not have a lot of time to ponder that because I got on a plane and went to Asia. God moved with great power there, especially in Hong Kong and India. I had open visions with the Lord, I saw and interacted with angels and there was also great releases of His power and anointing in my meetings. It was incredible to be in the midst of what God was doing there.

The judgment on the USA almost seemed surreal in the midst of the glory of God that I was experiencing in Asia. Very few people asked me about Katrina or the judgment of God on my nation.

But when I was asked, God gave me little tidbits of insight for my reply. I learned that the judgment was not against my nation as a whole (though that will come if the people of God don't prevent it). At this time, the judgment is on the church and our response needs to be to repent and pray and humble ourselves before God (and possibly before others as well -- something difficult for most Americans to do because we are a proud people.)

As God showed me that, I would humble myself to those who asked me and tell them that the Church in America had fallen under judgment because it had fallen asleep and allowed the evil one to take over many areas of our nation. There were still believers on fire for God -- in fact everyone I hang around with is in that category and it is hard for me to relate to the luke-warm group. But many in the USA have grown luke-warm and carnal and many believers have become so corrupted by the world's values that it was hard to tell believers from unbelievers just by looking at their lives and behavior. God said that we need to humble ourselves and repent and begin living for Him and putting Him first -- or even greater judgment would come.

When I was in India, an apostle I was working with told me about a prophecy that I think he said was from Kim Clement. (I haven't seen the word, I just heard about it second-hand.) The word said that God was going to send three more judgments on the USA before Halloween, and one of them was to my home state of California. Even as I heard that, I began to pray and intercede that God would turn away the California judgment. Something inside of me really cried out to God for my home state. It wasn't concern for my personal well-being because I was pretty sure that God would not destroy my own home in His judgment because I actively serve and obey Him. But I wanted Him to spare my whole state.

Near the end of my trip, I came down with a bad chest cold and I came home sick. Between that and the jetlag, I was totally non-functional my first three days home. All I could do was sleep, I was even too sick to seek God and pray about the judgment on the USA.

I have been home a little over a week now, and I am finally getting back in the swing of things again. One of the things I have been doing these past few days is praying about the judgment on my nation and asking God what we believers can do to turn it. I believe that God wants us to respond to Him in a certain way so that He is not forced to release more disasters on us. I would like to be a prophetic voice to help my nation make the right response. So far God hasn't given me a word for my nation, but He has been showing me a lot of things personally. I would like to share some of that with you.

On Tuesday Oct 4, I received an email from someone I don't know in India that called me a false prophet because I said that Sept 11 was NOT a judgment of God. (That one wasn't, and most of the internationally known/respected prophets heard the same thing from God that I did -- this was not a judgment but a lifting of God's protection as a warning. I also heard that the USA was being evaluated and could fall under judgment at the end of this evaluation.)

I felt offended that this person would call me a false prophet and I took it to the Lord. I was a bit surprised at the intensity of my offense, since I have had misguided people call me a false prophet before -- dispensationalists and others who don't' believe in the prophetic today. But this was different, I was being accused of being a false prophet because of the content of a message that God had given me.

At first I thought I should repent of my offense (e.g., I figured that I was responding in the flesh). But God later showed me that since this email attacked the message itself (which was given to me by God), so it was accusing Him of giving a false word. He did not like that. The offense I felt was not simply my own, I was also sensing His feelings about this email. God does not like to have words put into His mouth, He wants to choose precisely what is said. Likewise, He does not like it when people say that one of His messages is a false prophesy.

The Lord told me that I had indeed heard Him correctly about Sept 11. Back in 2001, we were under evaluation and had not yet reached the place of judgment. Unfortunately, that has changed for my nation and we have now fallen under His judgment.

Then God began to show me some things about the series of hurricanes that hit Florida last year. He said that those were not a judgment but were a natural outgrowth of Satan's control over the area. When the enemy possesses a territory, he fulfills his nature to "kill, steal and destroy" in that territory. One evidence of the devil's control was that case where the lady on life support was killed by her husband having her disconnected against her parent's wishes. That was a big controversy, but in the end he got his way and the woman was killed. That was just one of many evidences of the enemy's strongholds over several areas of Florida. The series of natural disasters was yet another evidence. Since the United States was under evaluation preceding judgment, God's protective hand was lifted and Satan was freer to bring his destruction to his territory. [This is not to say that all of Florida is under the control of Satan. There are godly strongholds as well and some important ministries are based there.] But the sad fact is that Satan has claimed much territory in Florida and that is part of why he was able to bring those disasters there.

The first judgment of God on the USA was Katrina. Note that hurricane Katrina did not catch us by surprise. We had advanced warning that it was coming, but we were totally powerless to stop it. We had enough time to evacuate the city and an evacuation order was given by government officials. But due to the pride and arrogance of the American people, many choose to ignore that order and paid for it with their lives. Even after the disaster, our sinful nature showed it's ugly head in the lawlessness, looting and violence that ensued before the national guard was in place.

Many Americans watched that on television and were horrified by what they saw in New Orleans. Many said to themselves, "That is not me, I would never act like that." But the ruling spirit over the USA is a hedonistic, prideful and rebellious, as well as self-seeking and self-serving spirit. And what we saw in New Orleans is a very ugly and extreme manifestation of the ruling spirit over our nation. Many of us have it control us to some degree or another just by virtue of having been raised in this value system. (I am not trying to justify my nation's sin... we need to repent of it and get right with God. We need to make a fresh commitment to His Lordship and a new commitment to put Him first and obey Him in all things. We need to replace pride/arrogance with humility and disobedience/rebellion with obedience to God.)

As God showed me these things, I began to realize that maybe I could be part of the problem, as well as some other deeply committed believers. I had sort of assumed that the judgment on the church did not really apply to me because I was His committed and commissioned servant. I saw myself sort of like Jeremiah who was set free from prison by the Babylonians and not taken into captivity with the rest of Israel. I assumed that God would protect His faithful servants from the judgment He was bringing on our nation. I do believe He will probably take care of His faithful servants as He releases judgment on the USA, because there are a lot of very committed Christians still left in this country.

Personally, I have been in an obedience covenant with God for a great many years now and I am deeply committed to obeying Him because I love Him. In fact, I have been traveling around the globe leading Christians in many different cultures into that same covenant and commitment to obey God because they love Him. And God usually falls with great power on those who make this commitment, filling them afresh with His spirit and empowering them to walk it out. I believe I walk in the Lord's favor and that my life pleases Him.

But then I looked back on my own life the past week. I had a horrible flight home from Singapore. Some of the most annoying people in the world were seated near me and they harassed me much of the 16 hour flight home. I got grouchy as this continued and then I started struggling with forgiving them. Then I started to feel guilty because of my attitude toward them, knowing God wanted me to walk in love and forgiveness. But I did not want to forgive -- I wanted something bad to happen to them. I began to feel so ashamed of my attitude that I started to avoid God for a couple of days. I was sick and jetlagged, so I spent most of my time sleeping. But when I wasn't sleeping, I vegetated in front of the television instead of seeking God. I am sure God was not happy with my attitude on the plane or with my behavior (seeking TV instead of Him) for my first couple of days that I was home. I began to realize that I was not as righteous as I had thought I was.

Of course, I have repented and gotten right with God. By Sunday Church service (5 days after I got home), there was nothing left of the rebellion or separation or addiction to television or failing to pursue Him. But the point is that I came home from a trip and fell into attitude sin, and I drifted out of that intimacy with Him. I considered myself a faithful and commitment servant, and yet I clearly was not without sin. I realized that when God looked at the church in the USA (evaluating us before judging us), He also looked at me and other people in my church and Christian community who consider themselves deeply committed to Him.

I began to wonder what God saw when He examined us. What did God see when He looked at me? What about when He looked at my pastor or a number of other people who I personally know who are deeply committed to the Lord and serving Him? Obviously He did not see enough in us to turn away His judgment. I remembered how Abraham negotiated with God for Sodom and Gomorrah to be spared if there were only ten righteous people there. I can come up with more than ten names of righteous people in my own church alone.

So I began to ask Him what was going on that allowed the USA to fall into judgment. What did He see when He looked at us? I began to wonder if I was part of the problem and how much I could be a part of the solution. So I began to ask Him point blank what I personally could do, how I could personally relate to Him, so that the judgment on the United States might be averted.

His answer surprised me a bit. He suggested I come before the judgment seat of Christ and let the Lord examine me.

I have had some judgment seat experiences with the Lord -- I picked up that concept from Rick Joyner's prophetic vision "The Final Quest" some years ago. The idea is an extension of 1 Corinthians 11:31, "For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged." The idea is to ask Jesus to help us examine our hearts/lives to find the things that He doesn't like, and then work on changing them. One day we will die and appear before His throne to have our lives/works evaluated (the rewards judgment). If we judge ourselves not, then we will have fewer things to "get us in trouble" because we already dealt with them, and with His help fixed them.

The way that this has worked out for me over the years is coming before Jesus' throne and having Him examine my heart/motives/actions/etc. At first the concept terrified me, I was so afraid of "flunking out." But as I began to have experiences with the Lord's judgments, I began to learn that His judgments are very good and I also began to get free from some bondages.

But the idea of coming before His Judgment throne in the context of having my nation judged sort of scared me a bit. What if God found things in me that He did not like and it reflected badly for my nation? That sort of worried me. I was not sure that was what God was talking about, but the idea occurred to me and it scared me. That was about 7:00 AM Wednesday during my morning prayer. So I agreed to His invitation and found myself before the Lord's judgment seat.

This time it was a bit different. Instead of being in an open vision and clearly seeing the Lord, I was strongly surrounded by the Lord's presence but could not see anything. The Lord began speaking to me. He asked me a lot of questions -- I don't think that all-knowing God was seeking information from me. So I tried to open my heart and see what He was showing me through those questions. Some of what we discussed were areas that I did relatively good in. That kind of surprised me because I really expected Him to focus on my weaknesses and short-comings, not no the areas of my strengths. Then He said something really interesting to me. This is a paraphrase, but He said, "Teresa, I know man because I created man. What I am asking of people in this judgment is not perfection -- I know man is sinful and fallen. What I am looking for is hearts that are committed to Me and demonstrations of My Lordship in most areas of their lives. I am looking for a godly and committed people, ones who obey Me and who honor Me."

I was starting to think, "This might not be so bad. He is not being so hard to please..." Then God began to talk to me about some areas where I did not measure up quite so well. This included the use of some of my leisure time (vegetating in front of the TV when I was upset instead of seeking Him), and it also included few people I had not fully forgiven from the bottom of my heart, etc.

This was starting to take a really long time. In the past, I had never be in front of His judgment seat for more than about half an hour at a time. But I had already been in this prayer time for over an hour.

Then the Lord began to ask me "what would you do in this case?" scenarios. They were things to test the condition of my heart. I am sure God already knew the condition of my heart. I suspect He was more showing it to me in response to the questions I'd asked Him earlier. Of course I was trying to answer Him as honestly as possible (even if I did not particularly like the answer. I mean, who wants to try to lie to God? It won't work!)

At one point I asked Him if it would be cheating to ask the Holy Spirit to help me. He said, "No." So I prayed and asked the Holy Spirit to help me respond in ways that God would like - even if that meant changing my heart or my expectations as needed. Then God reminded me that I was still being judged. I asked Him if He was judging my prayer. He said "Yes." I asked Him how I did on that, and He did not answer my question -- but I had the distinct impression that He was smiling.

Two hours had gone by now. I spent part of that just waiting on Him. But He did not seem to be done. At one point I began to pray very passionately asking Him to turn the judgment from California and was asking Him if there was anything I could do or any way I could respond to Him that would help convince Him to turn it. (When I was in India without internet access, I was told about a prophecy from a credible source saying that judgment will hit California before Halloween of this year. I got a witness in my spirit when I heard it.) Ever since I was told about that prophesy, it has been a big desire/passion of mine for God to turn that particular judgment on my state.

At one point God seemed to speak to me. I am not 100% sure this was really God and not the desires of my own heart -- sometimes it is hard to sort them out when we desire something very passionately. But I believe I heard God tell me that He would lift the judgment on California in response to the prayers of His people. He also told me that there would always be certain types of minor natural disasters in California, earthquakes and the like. People would always be coming along and saying that those were His judgment when they are merely natural geographic activity for this area. But when/if God does send a judgment, there were be no doubt in anyone's mind that this is from Him as opposed to just another natural phenomenon or terrorist attack.

After two hours of prayer, I needed to get on with my day, but God did not seem to be done "judging me." I finally asked Him about it. He told me that He was still watching and evaluating me. I got the impression that would go on for a very long time. I asked Him if it was ok if I went to do this thing for my husband and He said yes. So I left the prayer room and the overwhelming sense of the Lord's presence began to fade. I got busy with various things during the day, but spent a lot of it in prayer.

The next morning (Thursday) when I got up, the Lord told me that He was still watching me. I guess the message He is giving me is that His judging and evaluating His people is not a one time event, but a process as we walk out our daily Christian lives before Him. I know I can be on "good behavior" (any of us can) for a short period of time. But the question is, "Can we sustain it?" God is not looking at what we look like when we try to impress Him. He is looking at who His people really are and how we really live our lives day-in and day-out. Are we really living for Him, is He really Lord of our lives? Are we really about our Father's business, or are we doing our own things? Are we honoring and obeying Him in our day to day functioning when no one is around to watch us and we are not trying to act spiritual?

The next morning, Friday (e.g., today), God woke me at 3:30 AM and the judgment process continued for another several hours. Part of it 3was humbling, but part of it drew me into much closer intimacy with Him. I don't know exactly where we are going in my judgment experience as it is not over yet... But I do know this: as His people, we need to lay aside our own agendas, we need to humble ourselves and pray and ask Him to heal our land.

Quick Summary: -------------

The United States was in a period of evaluation for a few years, during which time God's protective hand was not on us like it had been on us before. That allowed tragedies like Sept 11 and some of the terrible series of hurricanes to hit Florida. But now the period of evaluation is over and we, as a nation, have fallen under God's judgment.

The first of these judgments to hit was Hurricane Katrina -- where we knew it was coming but were powerless to stop it. This judgment is (at this time) more on the church than the unsaved. Depending on how we respond to God, this will effect what happens next in our nation. We can turn this judgment if we respond to Him properly.

God's desire, of course, is for His people to repent, humble themselves, recommit to His Lordship in their lives and for them to pray for their nation. Even those of us who walk pretty close to the Lord and who feel the judgment doesn't apply to them personally need to examine their heart before the Lord and also pray for their nation.

If the church does not respond as per 2 Chronicles 7:14, I believe that the Lord's judgment will move from the church to the ungodliness and unrighteousness of the unsaved, and things will get much worse for us. People of God, especially those who love Him with all of your heart, let us apply 2 Chronicles 7:14 to our nation before God is forced to discipline us again...

If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

Glory! Glory! Glory

Catherine Brown

"For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea . . . "
Isaiah 11:9b
Yesterday (05/05/05) whilst swimming I had an extraordinary experience with the Lord. I saw the light of His glory dancing on the water. Almost in unbelief, I swam back and forth to see if it was just the light of the pool that was catching my eyes. But to my great delight I discovered it was not a manmade light, but the light of the glory of Christ Jesus! When I reached the point where the water seemed to be alive with light and motion, there were no spotlights and neither was the outside light penetrating that particular part of the pool!

SILENT PROPHETIC PRAYERS FOR THE UNSAVED

Interestingly, just before the Lord allowed me to witness this visual miracle, I had been silently asking the Lord about my fellow swimmers (all of whom were unknown to me). Lovingly, the Lord spoke to me about a mother and her son who were swimming in the pool, showing me areas to pray for in their lives. As this dialogue with the Lord continued in my heart, I became more and more aware of a marked increase of the Lord's manifest presence and glory. My silent prayers were, "Lord, heal and save these precious souls."

SHOW US YOUR GLORY, LORD!

Five years ago I had a phenomenal revelatory experience during which I saw the Lord literally appear before my eyes as a pillar of cloud/smoke on a placid Scottish loch. The pillar hovered over the waters, full of the presence of the Lord. I was traveling from Fort William to Skye with a group of children and young people on a Holy Spirit praise and prayer mission. At that time, I had been praying, "Lord, I will not go if your glory does not go with us." The Lord graciously granted a sign to confirm my petition and to answer that He was with us by revealing Himself in a theophany.*

(*Theophany: a temporary, visible manifestation of the presence and glory of the Lord, which may be in natural phenomena such as cloud or fire, in human form, or in prophetic visionary experience.)

At other times when I have seen the glory of the Lord, it has appeared as the consistency of a dense cloud, sometimes filled with iridescent glowing particles. In a recent conference in France, whilst my colleague and Messianic believer Avner Bosky was teaching, the glory of the Lord was so thick that I could barely see Avner's face.

Yesterday, I watched in awe as the spiritual DNA of God's glory danced before my eyes on the water. God's glory sparked and bounced off the water and then burst into a shimmer of light. It was like watching a miniature firework display as the water cascaded with the glory of God. Other bathers may have wondered why I just stood (almost with my mouth wide open) and marveled at the water. I wondered if anyone else could see it!
Isn't it wonderful when God does something new and opens our eyes to see something in a way we have never seen before? It is a work of grace, and glory and grace go hand in hand.

SWIMMING IN THE GLORY

Having stood at the edge of the pool rejoicing in God's glory for what seemed like an age, I decided to swim into the glory I could see on the water. As I swam in the waters, my physical body experienced the touch of God's glory, and as the water touched my skin, it was like I was bombarded with the rush of a million tiny bubbles. A glory spa! Wow! I experienced immediate joy in my spirit and also a release of God's healing power. I had to drag myself out of the water. I could have sat all day and watched the miracle before my eyes.

"SEE MY GLORY," SAYS THE LORD

"Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me before the creation of the world." John 17:24
Why am I telling you all of this? God wants us to experience his glory in every area of our lives. The Lord's desire is that we will see Him in his glory. God dwells in the glory. The glory is a shade and a shelter. Miracles happen in the glory.

The waters are often a symbolic image of mankind. This prophetic revelatory experience speaks to me of the outpouring of God's glory that is about to be released in the nations -- to call men, women, and children to salvation, healings, deliverances, baptisms, and resurrections.
"And the Gospel of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come." Matthew 25:14

A PRAYER

"Father, in the name of Jesus, I ask that you open our eyes to see your glory, because when we see You as You really are, then we will worship You and surrender our lives. Give us yielded hearts to pray and reach out with tenderness and compassion to those who do not yet know You and also to bless Your Bride. We ask for faith for creative miracles, because the whole earth is full of Your creative, miracle-working power. We declare the earth is full of your glory! Give us hearts that are hungry to reach out in Your love with the spiritual DNA of Your glory.

"We bless You, Father, for Your holy presence in our lives. Conform us to Your image by Your Holy Spirit, to the glory of Your name. Amen."

Gift Of Discernment Right Here In My Pocket

Bill Somers
Mount Gilead Ohio USA

September 2008

Discernment is the big buzzword these days. This is a look at discernment vs. the gift of discernment.

Let’s ask the dictionary first.

> Discernment, a noun > keenly selective judgment: good taste and judgment
> synonyms: judgment, acumen, discrimination, perspicacity, taste, shrewdness, sensitivity, selectivity
> Discern a verb
> 1. transitive verb see or notice something unclear: to see something that is not very clear or obvious
> 2. transitive verb understand: to understand something that is not immediately obvious
> 3. intransitive and transitive verb distinguish: to be able to tell the difference between two or more things
> Synonyms
> make out, notice, see, perceive, discover, observe, catch sight of, glimpse, detect, spot understand, perceive, distinguish, fathom, detect, be aware of distinguish, tell the difference, separate, discriminate, differentiate, determine, detect, recognize, know by sight.
> Encarta® Thesaurus © 2000 Microsoft Corporation. All rights reserved. Developed for Microsoft by Bloomsbury Publishing Plc.

Let’s take that and make a working definition: discernment is the ability to see or understand something that is not immediately obvious, or to tell the difference between two or more things that is not immediately obvious. In our discussion it will apply to good vs. evil; true vs. false; or right vs. wrong. It implies that there is some effort made to know what is not immediately obvious.

The Gift Of Discerning

The Bible mentions the Gift of Discerning of Spirits in first Corinthians, when it lays out the various gifts of the Spirit.

> 1 Corinthians 12:4-11
> 4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
> 5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.
> 6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.
> 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.
> 8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;
> 9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
> 10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits*; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:*
> 11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

Where it mentions discerning of spirits, it is not clear if it’s speaking about spirits of men, or angels or both. I knew a pastor once who a gift of being able to read people’s spirits. He told me he was surprised that others couldn’t do the same thing. When discussing a certain individual in their church, he said to a group of people: Can’t you see this guy is a wolf! No one else discerned the man in question. But he knew it automatically. He had that gift, and did not realize that it was the Holy Ghost operating in him to provide supernatural knowledge. He does now of course.

So What's The Difference?
The gift of discerning of spirits then is an immediate automatic knowing the nature of a person's spirit and or an angelic spirit. It implies that the knowing is immediately obvious. So there is a big difference between the two. Discernment is something you have to work at. The Gift of Discernment is just that a gift, an automatic knowing whereby things become immediately obvious through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

Let's put that a little differently. You have a situation where something is not immediately obvious. Using some study or making some effort of some kind can lead you to an answer. That's discernment. With the Gift of Discernment, the Spirit of the Lord gives you the answer right away. So that someone with this give, as the spirit activates it, will know things that are not immediately obvious to others.

Now what prompted me to get on this topic is a recent article on Discernment that I'm going to quote from and make some comments. The quotes below are all indented and taken from The Lost Gift of Discernment by Lee Grady http://fireinmybones.com/index.php?col=090308~The%20Lost%20Gift%20of%20Discernment. Emphasis is mine.

> 'We also learned that discernment is one of these nine supernatural gifts (see 1 Cor. 12:8-10). We were taught that since the devil has the ability to counterfeit, and since Satan's activity includes "all power and signs and false wonders" (2 Thess. 2:9, NASB), God's people must be equipped with the supernatural power to tell the difference between the true and the false.'

So far so good, the gift of discerning of spirits is a supernatural power and God's people need it.

> 'God gave us spiritual gifts in a package, and discernment is part of the set. It is not optional. Yet today it seems we've set discernment aside—perhaps because we're suspicious of any gift that requires us to exercise clear judgment.'

Here's where we run into trouble.
First God didn't give every one of his people this gift.
Second the gifts do not come as a set all in a package
Third, the gifts are all optional.

A careful reading of 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 quoted above shows that some are given one gift and some are given another. And that the gifts are given and operate as he wills. That means when He, the Holy Spirit wills.

There are those who claim that if you have the gift of prophecy, you can prophesy any time and any place you want. Those who prophecy for money depend on this to justify the practice.

Yet this is a common misconception in charismatic circles. People assume that they have all the gifts and can use them when ever.

Then the writer says: we've set discernment aside—perhaps because we're suspicious of any gift that requires us to exercise clear judgment.

Well have we set discernment aside? Can we say, I thought I had it right here in my pocket, what happened? Or could it be that we never had it to begin with, except for a few select individuals? If discernment is a gift, why are we required to exercise anything? That would be doing things in our own strength. In other words by works and not faith.

Next the writer gives three examples of what the bible teaches about discernment.

> '1. We are commanded to discern. The apostle John instructed us to "test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1). The word "test" means to "examine as metal"—the process a jeweler would use to prove authenticity. Metals may look the same; only when you apply heat will you find which ones are fake or of low quality. All that glitters, in such cases, is not gold.'

This is not the gift of discerning of spirits, it is applying a formula to get an answer where something is not immediately obvious. But this example does show that we need to learn to test the spirits. This can lead to more discernment.

> ‘2. Discernment is a sign of spiritual maturity. The author of Hebrews told his readers that they were immature babies who couldn’t handle eating spiritual meat. “Solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil” (Heb. 5:14). The implication here is that those who don’t learn to discern are spiritually stunted.’

This is not the gift of discerning of spirits because it comes from practice. If the church lacks discernment or ability to tell good from evil, then the church lacks spiritual maturity. Can we achieve this by our own works or is it a gift we as a whole do not have? We can increase our level on maturity and thereby discernment if we concentrate on teaching the meat of the word.

> ‘3. Discernment is damaged when leaders compromise. The prophet Ezekiel denounced the priests and governors of Israel because they didn’t teach the people to discern. “They have made no distinction between the holy and the profane, and they have not taught the difference between the unclean and the clean” (Ezek. 22:26). Discernment, according to this passage, is shaped by the choices leaders make.’

This also is not the gift of discerning of spirits because it speaks of being taught by men. This last example is the most useful though. The church can increase in discernment through sound teachings, both in the foundational truths and the more profound ones. Lately it seems the only thing we can discern is the speck in our brothers eye.

Still all three of these examples concern discernment but not the gift of discernment.

There is a good example of real life operation of the Gift of Discerning Spirits in Kathie Walters article, Making Righteous Judgments [www.etpv.org/2008/mkrju.html].

Here is a good example from scripture of the Gift of Discerning Spirits in operation.

> Acts 16:16-18
> 16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:
> 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.
> 18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

Here Paul knew automatically by the Holy Spirit, what spirit he was dealing with, and when the right time came, he commanded it to leave.

But today’s church is not walking in the Spirit as Paul did. It does not have the Gift of Discerning Spirits operating, nor does it exhibit spiritual maturity to any noticeable degree. And why not? Here may be a clue from Judges.

> Judges 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Summary
Discernment basically means to know. The extended meaning is to know some thing that is not immediately obvious. Like “is it real, or is it Memorex?” The idea is that some effort is involved to know what’s what.

The Gift of Discernment is a spiritual gift of the Holy Spirit. This means that the Lord reveals things that are not immediately obvious. When this operates in a person they are allowed to know things that others do not.

The church lacks discernment mainly because it lacks sound teaching.

The church lacks the gift of discernment, perhaps because we have not asked for it. We may think we already have all we need, like the church of Laodicea.

Scripture references.

1 John 4:1-3
1 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:
3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

James 4:1-11
1 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?
2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.
4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?
6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.
7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.
9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.
10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.
11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. Gen. 6:3-5
But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Heb. 11: 5-7

“Indeed, my people will find shelter in Me. Those who search for Me will find Me. In the days of long ago there were giants upon the earth. But I tell you, that in these days, there will be “giants of faith.” Your faith will grow and grow, and you will be able to cast mountains into the sea.”

(The Lord showed me a giant of a man who was huge in stature. He was hurling gigantic boulders across the land. At first my thought was of the Nephilum, who were giants in the land long ago, but I believe that He wants us to be “giants of faith.”)

“In the days ahead your faith will be a much needed thing, for you will need it to be sustained and strong. For I tell you that nations will topple, the money will run short in the treasury, and the love of many will run dim. When the events of these days come, will you be prepared for them, or will you go on living as you always have? “

Great Opposition - Great Miracles
Bill Yount

Great Opposition From The Enemy Is Creating The Atmosphere For Great Miracles!
by Bill Yount (theshofarhasblown@juno.com)
www.billyount.com

Two weeks ago I called Dick's Sporting Goods and they put me on hold.. While I was on hold I heard this CD playing of the Greatest Moments in Sports History. I was so captivated by these awesome plays and victories that I called back later and said.. "Could you put me on hold.. I don't want to talk to anyone. I just wanted to listen to these greatest moments in sports.

As I was hearing these greatest moments the Holy Spirit fell down on this CD and it was as though I began to hear in the Spirit the greatest moments that were about to take place upon the earth beginning this coming year!!

One play I heard on the CD I remembered hearing it and watching it myself on television. Years ago the Pittsburgh Steelers were losing in the Super Bowl with just seconds to go. Terry Bradshaw threw a long pass down field to Franc O Harris and the ball was seemingly lost in the scurry of the opposing team members all around him who were trying to intercept the pass. But then the announcer suddenly starts shouting .... "Out of nowhere Franc O Harris has just caught the football with 5 seconds left in the game and he is on his way into the end zone for the winning touchdown!! The announcer shouts as the crowd goes wild.. "Do you believe in Miracles?"

LISTEN CAREFULLY-- "YOU NEED TO SURROUND YOURSELF THIS COMING YEAR WITH 4 OR 5 PEOPLE THAT BELIEVE THAT "ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE WITH GOD!!"

The Holy Spirit spoke through that CD and said.. "This is the kind of events coming this year in our lives in the Spirit! We are about to witness and experience our greatest moments of victories of our whole lives!

Then it dawned on me.. why and what caused these greatest moments of Sports to take place. It was because these moments were surrounded by great opposition from the opposing teams!

"GREAT OPPOSITION ALWAYS CREATES THE ATMOSPHERE FOR GREAT MIRACLES!"

This coming year it may look at times like the cards are all stacked against you and you are outnumbered like Jehosaphats army.. Like there is no way you could ever win. But the battle is not your battle.. it's God's Battle! Know that this battle is already fixed in Heaven before it even starts on earth.

"IT'S A FIXED FIGHT FOR YOU!' "YOU WILL BE GIVEN A HEAVENLY EDGE THIS COMING YEAR TO OVERCOME AND SEE VICTORY AND MIRACLES IN YOUR LIFE!"

"Many will be inducted into Heaven's Hall of Faith and Fame this coming year! Hebrews 11 is still being written!" This is so very important this coming year... "CONTEND FOR THE FAITH THAT WAS ONCE DELIVERED TO THE SAINTS!"

The Saints of old just didn't walk the walk, they also talked the walk! Scripture says.. "I believed therefore I have spoken!"

"THE WORD OF GOD SPOKEN TO YOU MUST BE SPOKEN THROUGH YOU!"

Saints of old called those things that were not as though they were! This coming year you need to call those things that are not as though they already were! This really pleases the Lord as we not only walk by faith but we talk by faith!

BRING YOUR MOUTH INTO AGREEMENT WITH GOD'S WORD THIS YEAR... BECAUSE WHAT YOU DON'T SAY CAN HURT YOU.

 Examples.

The widow woman whose son died.. She laid his dead body on the prophet's bed and started for the prophet's house. She didn't even tell her husband what was going on. and when he asked why she was heading for the prophet's house, she said... "IT SHALL BE WELL!"

2 Kings 4:25. "So she went and came into the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold yonder is that Shunammite woman. 26. Run now, I pray thee, to meet her and say to her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with thy child?" And she answered.. "It is well!" Her child was raised from the dead. She was calling those things that were not as though they already were!

RIGHT NOW I WANT YOU TO SAY THESE WORDS AND KEEP THEM IN YOUR MOUTH AND HEART FOR THIS COMING YEAR.... IT IS WELL WITH MY HUSBAND! IT IS WELL WITH MY WIFE!... IT IS WELL WITH MY CHILD!"

"The Lord says..."Put Me in remembrance of what I have said to you. Say it. Talk it. Remember the little shepherd boy who spoke some words to a champion warrior, Goliath and I stepped in and made Him the champion."

We overcome by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony.. If you want to please God start calling those things that be not as though they were! That's what causes God to get excited to move for us! Without faith it is impossible to please Him!

Abraham believed God and everytime he introduced himself as Abraham he was saying... "I am the Father of many nations before he even had a son!

MARK 7:25.. Jesus tells the Syrophenician woman that she cannot eat of the children's bread. She says something that changes His mind. She says, "Yes Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs!" Jesus stops and says to her...verse 29. "For this thy saying,, go thy way, the devil just left your daughter!!" For this thy saying!!!!

I believe our words attract what we say! We prophesy all the time just by the words that we speak!!

Let's begin to prophesy this New Year in by calling those things that are not as though they already were!!

Doctors Will Be Astounded

Doctors Will Be Astounded And Ministered To Through Miracle Healings . . . 'I Am Shaking The Medical Field!'" by Bill Yount
www.billyount.com
theshofarhasblown@juno.com

"Your heart sounds fabulous!" said the doctor as he listened intently through his stethoscope. "Instead of six months, I don't want to see you for a whole year!"
Upon leaving the doctor's office, I sensed the Lord speaking, "That was My heart the doctor just listened to. He will never be the same again! He will hear My heart beat for him for the rest of his life!"

I remembered saying to the Lord as I left my home earlier that afternoon for my doctor's appointment, "Lord, I give You my heart! It is Yours!" I think He took me up on it!

"The 'Report Of The Lord' Will Begin To Change Many Doctors' Reports!"

This past April, the doctors found something life threatening in my mother's body. The doctor said to my mother, "Mrs. Yount, you will have to quit your job and stop driving your car."
My mother, who is eighty years old, was working a part time midnight shift from 12 a.m. - 6 a.m., working in a rest home, taking care of older people! She quit her job and the state took her driver's license away from her. There were well meaning friends who would call mom just to remind her of all of the problems she was facing, but she would say to them, "I don't have any problems . . . I am going forward!"

My mother went forward the following Sunday to the altar in church to get prayed for. She called me and said, "Bill, I got anointed and prayed for. I believe God healed me again! I want my driver's license back!"
She troubled the doctors every week, wearing them down, saying, "When can I get my license back?"

Finally, a month ago, they gave my mother another test to check things out. The doctor said to my mother, "Mrs. Yount, I think you can go back to work now."
She responded, "How can I go back to work when I can't drive my car to get there?"
The doctor said, "Let me see what I can do about that." The doctor wrote a letter to the State and mom got her license back two weeks ago!
My mother changes doctors' reports! She seems to believe the report of the Lord so easily. She not only believes God's word, but speaks her mind about it even to doctors! I thank God that healing runs in our family. It started on my mother's side and on my heavenly Father's side; it runs through my veins, arteries, blood stream, and into my bone marrow!

"Generational Healings Are Beginning To Run Right Down Through Family Trees!"

When I was seven years old, I had a brain tumor. The tumor disappeared on the last set of x-rays right before the operation. The Lord later showed me what caused the tumor to disappear. Two years earlier, my mother used to embarrass me in front of a lot of people by telling everyone, "This is my little preacher!" The Lord showed me, recently, that it was my mother's spoken words over me two years earlier that ate the tumor like a spiritual Pac man when it came on me. Her words, "This is my little preacher!" has cancelled hell's assignment against me at least twice in my life! Words are so powerful!

If no one over you in your family has experienced God's healing power, just be the first one to receive it and let it flow right down through your family and generations to come!

"Don't Give God Your Sickness, Give God Your Body!"
Don't give God your sickness; He already took it by His stripes at Calvary! Give God your body and then His healing power will fill it! Then you will not only get your healing, you will get the Healer!

Be an organ donor. Submit (give) that member of your body to God where sickness seems to be. And then resist the devil and he will flee from you!

"Never let sickness or disease feel at home in your body. Remember, your sickness did not come to stay . . . it came to pass!"

I DON'T HAVE ANY PROBLEMS . . . I AM GOING FORWARD!

Gospel or god-Spell
Greg Austin

www.gregaustin.org

For the past months, I have felt a grieving; a painful, deep sorrow coupled with a "sickened" spirit as I have observed prominent Christian leaders preaching out of what seems to be less than pure motives (money as a "key" to receiving miracles, healing, deliverance, for example). In one instance, a certain well-known personality declared that God has given him the "secret" to deliverance from perverse and pervasive spirits of addiction. This man declared that he would divulge the secret to each person who would call the television station and pledge a certain amount of money for the next twelve months.

As I listened, I thought, "Since when is God's deliverance for sale?" I thought of people who have no money, who cannot possibly "pay" the required amount for their deliverance from addiction. I thought about God's Word, "Come, buy and eat. Yes, come, buy wine and milk Without money and without price" (Is. 55:1). I thought about Simon the sorcerer, whom Peter warned, "May your silver be destroyed with you, because you thought the gift of God could be obtained with money!" Acts 8:20.

I am not opposed to financial blessing: However, the profusion of what appears to be an imitation of Hollywood-success-appearance among God's ministers troubles my spirit.

Purpose-Driven or Spirit-led?

At the risk of offense and misunderstanding, I need to say that I believe we have it "upside down" in much of the teaching that fills the airwaves and hearts. We've become so fixated on being "Purpose-Driven" that we have neglected the biblical mandate to be Spirit-led. [For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God (Ro. 8:14)].

I am hearing as never before the "self-esteem" message being promoted, the "feel-good" message, the "I can do all things through a positive attitude" message all the while I have heard and felt the Spirit say "What about the cross? What about the pain? What about the cost? What about the price?" Whole portions of the Western Church appear to be sliding head-long into a "Cross-less Christianity" that offends no one, least of all the devil.

I hear the Spirit saying, "It's about the cross. It's about the price He paid, it's about the horror He experienced - the costly, costly, costly act of love and compassion He exhibited on that cross.

WHERE IS THE MESSAGE OF THE CROSS?
Where is the truth of the passion of My Son? Where is the "crucifying of self?" Where is the death of ego and pride and passion and earthly, earthy desire? Where is the laying down of your life? Where is the picking up of the cross? Where is the bearing about in your body the marks of a price paid?"

"In this hour, many will be deceived. Many will look here and there and will be confused and frustrated because to slake their spiritual thirst they look to wells that have been dug by men and not by God. To satisfy their hunger they look to fields planted by men and not by God. So they will drink the putrid, death-infested waters of the flesh and they will eat that which does not satisfy. Oh, if only the cross would be lifted up again in this hour. Oh, if only My people would return to Me, I would heal them and forgive them and release them with My fire and with My power and with My anointing."

The Bible speaks of a coming "falling away." If we would open our eyes, we would see that falling away even in the sanctuaries, in the church halls, in the pulpits, in the very places that cry "religion" and cry "freedom" and in the places where mouths are opened to praise and to worship, but self-promotion and fleshy pride are the motives instead of broken and contrite spirits.

I am not judging anyone. I am no judge. I am merely a man. I am filled with blackness and evil without His grace and His mercy. The only thing within me that is of any value or of any good is of Him. Without His mercy and grace I would be utterly cast away. How could I ever judge another human? Yet I hear the Spirit clearly. I tremble as I tell you HE IS CALLING US (ALL) TO HIMSELF. He will not have us chasing false gods - ADULTERY! FORNICATION! Making our beds with the comfortable and the easy, giving ourselves to the acceptable and that which pleases the flesh. Neglecting the poor and the aged and the widow and the orphan while living at ease and squandering His blessings. AWAY! Cast off these false idols as we would cast off a coat that has been soiled with stinking, putrefying dead flesh and He will forgive, heal, fill, empower, enable us to become beyond what we ever imagined, dreamed or hoped.

I have heard over and over in the past days, "We have learned our lessons from Katrina. We are ready for Rita." Would that we should learn our lessons from the pain He has allowed that we might avoid the pain that must come as He shakes everything that can be shaken!

We did not learn our lessons after 911. We have not learned our lessons after Hurricane Katrina. We have heaved a collective sigh of relief that Rita did comparatively little damage. We think we've escaped, but there is no escape without repentance.

This is what the LORD says: "Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. (Jeremiah 6:16).

Gold And Frankincense

Timothy Snodgrass

THE GOLD, THE FRANKINCENSE AND THE MYRRH

The first coming of our Lord and King was greeted with gold, frankincense and myrrh (Matthew 2:11). Recently while ministering at Peggy Cole's prophetic conference in San Francisco, California, we were visited by some unusual manifestations of the glory of the Lord, including the appearance of gold and the strong aroma of frankincense. This was my first time to experience the manifestation of gold, and I remember one meeting in particular in which I was sitting next to one of the guest speakers, Joshua Mills, a precious and anointed minister from Canada, and we were both covered with gold, from the top of our heads to the bottom of our feet. Prior to this time, I had heard many people talk about the manifestation of gold, but I had never personally experienced it. I believe that something powerful was released in California this year, and just as in the natural California is known as the Gold State, God is now beginning to release spiritual gold and riches from this state which is going to be imported to the four corners of America and the ends of the world.

As we prepare to enter into the New Year, I hear the Holy Spirit saying that it is time to seek the presence of God with haste. It was not by accident that the three wise men brought Jesus gold, frankincense and myrrh during his first coming, because it would be one of the final signs to wise men of the last generation that his second coming is quickly approaching. Judgments will increase, but it is not a time to focus on the world which is quickly passing away, but to focus on entering into the presence of God, and hiding ourselves in our prayer chamber for a season to seek wisdom and strategies for the coming year, for our time is short, and the coming of our King draweth nigh!

Blessings,

Good or good
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, Sept. 9, 2005

This has been a very interesting week for us. My back situation has now gone from bad to worse. It seems that no matter what I do, in an attempt to alleviate the situation, it becomes progressively worse. Rimona also has been having more and more dizzy spells without a clear indication as to the cause. Some, who have been praying for us, feel that this is an attack from spirits of the occult. We wish to convey our gratitude to all of you who are praying. Thank you!

In the past few weeks the subject of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil has come up a number of times. We thus have been confronted, if you will, with this issue. It was suggested that I write on this subject, which is why I titled this "Good or good".

It seems that one of the greatest challenges that faces us, as Believers, is to remain consistent in the faith and revelation reality of the life of Messiah, which resides in us via the presence of the Spirit of Holiness. Yet, we can't deny that the power of sin has deposited its nature into the members of our soul (mind, emotions and will), thus we must be cleansed of all defilement of the spirit of the world and of the flesh (ref. 2 Corinthians 7:1). One of the obstacles that continue to trip us up, along our walk, is the teaching that we have to become more Christ-like or like God, which is reminiscent of the serpent's words to Eve (ref Genesis 3:5). That is not to say that our soul is not to reflect the image or nature of Messiah, but how it goes about doing it makes all the difference.

Even before Eve saw the tree, the serpent had already twisted YHVH's words, and lied to her. After the deception, when she looked at the tree she "saw"- the Hebrew root r.a.h, which can mean "to receive deep spiritual insight or revelation" - that it was "good for food, pleasant to the eyes, and desirable to make one wise" (Genesis 3:6). The tree's fruit somehow appealed to a desire to become like Him. Now what is wrong with something that is "good", since there was nothing evil about that fruit? In order for us to be able to discern the tree that has attributes, or fruit, that look good and can make us like YHVH, we would also have to look at another "Good".

Yeshua said something interesting about "good": "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, Elohim" (Luke 18:19). So if there is no one good other than YHVH, how could there be "knowledge of good" outside of knowing the Creator? Thus the "Good" actually becomes a person and not a virtue. Let us look at a scripture, that points to the fruit of the Tree of Life, that is the nature of Elohim: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23). So how does the serpent manage to deceive us into believing that his tree can make us like God, or like Messiah? Obviously, only by deception! He counterfeits YHVH's characteristics and turns them into "virtues" of good, and then reasons that anything that is opposite of this knowledge of "good" is evil.

Upon partaking of this lie and deception, man began to live by a philosophy of trying to turn the evil that was now in him into good. Hence many of man's religious institutions teach that we must improve our character and nature by applying these virtues to our lives. As we begin to will to be good (patient, kind, gentle etc), we discover, just like Paul did, that "the very good that I will to do I don't do, but the evil that I don't want to do that I do". These resultant dilemma and frustration led to nothing but death, in spite of the promise to become "like God, knowing good and evil". So really the so-called good on that tree is just as bad as the evil.

Adam and Eve were created in the image and likeness of the Creator, so why did they have to become something that they already were? Unbelief in what YHVH has said brings us immediately into the place of being deceived. What is it that YHVH has said? "For the love of Messiah compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again. Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh" (2 Corinthians 5:14-16).

When Yeshua died all men died, and those who are now alive in Him are those whom Scripture calls new creation beings. "Therefore, if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17). "For in Messiah Yeshua neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation" (Galatians 6:15).

The life and nature of this new creation man is exactly the same as the Heavenly Father's. The Believer has a new identity and in order for him to know who he is he has to look at - r.a.h.- and receive wisdom and revelation knowledge as to who Yeshua is (ref. Ephesians 1:17-18), who is the exact image and likeness of the Father (ref. Colossians 1:15 . The Word tells us that, "I have been crucified with Messiah; it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of Elohim, who loved me and gave Himself for me" (Galatians 2:20). "For you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in Elohim. When Messiah who is our life appears [unveiled], then you also will appear with Him in glory" (Colossians 3:3-4). Moving from faith to faith and glory-to-glory means that we are maturing in who we are in Him. Thus by knowing Him, and our soul being obedient to expressing His nature in our everyday experiences, we will not have to practice virtues in order to become something that we already are.

The god of this age/world blinds the minds of the unbeliever from seeing the Glory of the gospel of Yeshua the Messiah, who is the image of Elohim so that the light does not shine on them (ref 2 Corinthians 4:4). We therefore must be careful to believe what is true of the gospel, and not let the philosophies of men and their religious institutions blind our minds. They may just try and persuade you that you really are not who YHVH says that you are in Messiah Yeshua, by using subtle theological terms in the process. You do not have to become "good" when you already are born of the nature of the One who is "Good", your Heavenly Father. The more you know Messiah Yeshua, the more you will recognize your true nature and discern what is not of Him and thus not of you. You see, YHVH did not withhold the knowledge of good and evil from Adam and Eve, but just had a different way for them to come to that knowledge.

Revelation 16:14-15

Thoughts of love that linger
In the heart of the one loved
Can bring inspiration
To help others find that which was lost
Amongst the storms of great confusion
That led them far from the cross
Which calls them to lay their burdens down
And allow mercy to bear their loss.

Who has knowledge of the beloved
Who has partaken of His amazing love
Let them proclaim God's holy promise
To repair that which was lost.
Mercy need not be just a memory anymore.

If tonight you were given
A choice where you could decide
To partake of the tree
Of the knowledge of good and evil
Or the tree of eternal life
Would you decide, like Adam and Eve
To believe the serpent's lie
Which declared you could be as God
Creating life according to your own design
Deceived into believing that what you conceived
Within the depths of your own mind
Would give birth to such revelation
That you would no longer be inclined
To allow memories to keep you in fear of the night.

Today the battle rages
Who will heed the Father's call
To be adorned in God's righteousness
Robes of His eternal love
And who will turn away
From the Father's hand of grace
Where into destruction they will surely fall.

> "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame." Revelation 16:14-15
> "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they > are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." 1 Corinthians 2:12-14

"Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth." Apostle Paul proclaimed in his letter to the Corinthians that, because he had received the Holy Spirit, the words he shared with them expressed the heart and nature of God. He also proclaimed that those who had partaken of the Holy Spirit would be able to receive his words, because as deep calls out to deep, the Spirit that filled his life called out to the Spirit that filled their lives with the knowledge of the goodness and love of Christ. He stressed that those who were partakers of God's Holy Spirit would be able to bear testimony to the words he spoke.

Apostle Paul also spoke that those who were not filled of God's Holy Spirit would not be able to understand the words he spoke. His words would be foolishness to their way of understanding life. Not that he stopped speaking. He would continue to share what the Lord pressed upon his heart to share. But he was aware that those who were as the "natural man" would be like the first man Adam, not influenced of God's Holy Spirit, and that to their way of thinking, his words would be utter foolishness. They would not be able to relate to the words he spoke.

When Apostle Paul said that to the natural man his words would be foolishness, he was describing the natural man as a person who is born of the flesh, but whose faith is not yet found in Christ, so that he has not yet received the infilling of the Holy Spirit. His heart does not beat with desire toward the things of the Lord, and his mind does not bear testimony to the words that describe the power of the Holy Spirit, received through faith in Jesus Christ. The natural man has not placed his faith in God's Word that proclaims Jesus Christ bore mankind's sins, and that if they were to call upon His name in sincerity, God would adorn them in His righteousness, which is found in the Holy Spirit.

The Word proclaims that each person is born into the world as a natural man, who looks to the things of the earth for purpose, security and worth. The Word also proclaims that each person is born with a spirit, which is God's breath, that is able to respond to God. It is the spirit, God's breath, that will influence the heart and mind to seek after the holy God who cares for them. If and when the spirit within a person does respond to the Word, so that their heart and mind are inspired to seek out Christ in sincerity, then God's Holy Spirit will fill this person's life, so that they will be born again of the Spirit. They will be able to perceive the things of the Spirit and live in appreciation of the life God has given them.

When born anew, a person's spirit, soul and body are placed under the influence of the Holy Spirit. The old way of thinking, will pass away, which denied that God's Word held truth to lead, instruct, inspire and edify, as the Spirit reveals God's love toward them. It is the Spirit that will lead a person unto truth not previously understood when living life as a natural man. It is the Holy Spirit that will reveal the depths of God's love toward a person, so that their heart is inspired to live holy and obediently unto God.

> "For if ye live after the flesh ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." Romans 8:13-17

The Word proclaims that God first breathed his spirit into Adam, so that Adam became the first man who was able to respond to the voice of the Lord. The spirit within Adam was not the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit would not be given until Jesus Christ ascended on high and purged the heavens, causing God to open wide His temple doors, so that whosoever should call on the Lord in sincerity would be able to receive His Spirit of holiness. Instead, Adam initially walked in appreciation of God and the world He had created. Sin, which causes mankind to exalt their ideas and opinions above the name of God, had not yet entered the world. Adam's spirit had not yet been polluted by thoughts that desired to exalt themselves above God; he was able to freely enjoy walking in the cool of the day with the Lord.

Once sin entered into the world, so that man had knowledge of good and evil, then the spirit within man became polluted. He became double minded; he had knowledge of God, who is good, yet now his heart and mind sought out things that seemed to promise safety, security and comfort to the flesh. And throughout history, it has remained natural for mankind, who is born with a spirit, which is able to respond to God, to exalt self above God. It has remained natural for mankind to place their trust in understandings and opinions that appear to offer hope and direction, yet which never seem to calm the quest and desires of the soul, so that much mental suffering has entered the world. What a person thinks upon will be reflected in the way they behave and respond, so that the world will bear the consequences of their thoughts and desires.

When a person's spirit, which is able to respond to God, does not respond to the voice of God, then a person will remain under the influence of the world. In that world, truth heralded by others who do not have faith in a holy God is naturally exalted. When a person continues to be influenced by the thoughts and opinions of those who deny and discount the power of God, they may find themselves becoming more insensitive to the voice of God. And as they continue on in their lives, the idea of a loving and merciful God will become an idea that is considered ridiculous and easily discounted.

Without the influence of the Holy Spirit, the spirit of a person will look to the realm of unbelief for an identity in life. In that realm, without the love of God to inspire them, they will find that their hearts become hardened. Their natural mindset will come to be critical, angry, fearful and resentful toward life. Not having known the mercy and love of God, they will not know to "fight a good fight," where they look to God in casting down thoughts aligned with unbelief. In the realm of unbelief, self is exalted so that behavior that is contrary to God's Word becomes common place. To walk in unbelief is to ridicule that which God declares as sinful. As a result, mental suffering abounds, which will give birth to physical suffering.

The spirit of the world, which is the voice of unbelief that speaks its opinions loudly, will continue to hold power over a person until they repent of their unbelief. It is the spirit of the world aligned with unbelief that seeks to kill and destroy that which stands in opposition to its advancement. But when a person calls upon the name of Jesus in sincerity, then will God's Spirit be poured out upon their heart and mind, so that thoughts of mercy and love encourage them onward in seeking a life that trusts in God. It is the Spirit of God's holiness, which bears long in mercy and love, that desires to save people from the suffering that has become their natural, familiar habitat.

The heart and soul of a person, whose spirit does not respond to God, may become hardened to the purposes of God to such an extent that they feel very comfortable and familiar living in the same realm of thought as the devil himself, which is the realm of unbelief. The ruler of darkness uses unbelief as a ruling force to influence people. When unbelief reigns over a person's life, then all types of opinions will be accepted, which may cause the heart and mind of a person to become so corrupted and downcast that their behavior is greatly influenced by unrighteous suffering, which reflects their mental state of being.

A person ruled by unbelief may easily speak words of accusation against God. Yet, God, who is perfect, continues to extend His mercy toward those who remain standing outside His kingdom of righteousness, having not received His Spirit of holiness. And just as Jesus was able to cast out "devils", which are evil spirits aligned with unbelief that have gained influence over a person's life, so is He able today to cast out evil spirits that influence a person's life. The battle for possession over a person's soul remains as fierce today as when Jesus Christ walked the earth. And today, Jesus is still gaining victory over the lives of many people. Jesus still heals, transforms and inspires the hearts of those who call out to Him today.

> “For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.” 2 Corinthians 5:2-3
> “To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” 2 Corinthians 5:19-21

Each person is born into the world naked before God; their hearts and minds are laid bare before God, and they are not ashamed of who they are. As a person lives out their life, moving toward adulthood, they will become conscious of the fact that they are separate from others, that they stand alone as an individual person in the world. In seeking to find shelter from the eyes of mankind, they will seek out the opinions and ideas of others, which they will take on as their own, so that they do not feel that they stand alone in the world. They will adorn themselves in the ideas of others, who they connect with mentally, so that the true condition of their heart is not laid bare. In adorning themselves in the ideas and opinions of others, they hope to find protection from the rejection or ridicule of others.

But God, knowing the desires of the heart of mankind, had purposed from the foundation of time that through Jesus Christ, a person could be adorned in garments of great beauty, so that they did not feel that they stood alone, nor ashamed of who they are. God purposed, through Jesus Christ, that mankind be adorned in His righteousness, so they would have knowledge that He who was with them, was for them. God purposed that mankind be clothed with the Holy Spirit, so that the righteousness of God influenced their thoughts, and holiness inspired their hearts. God purposed through Jesus Christ that the spirit, soul and body be under the authority of the Holy Spirit, so that God reigned supreme in their lives.

Within God’s eternal kingdom that fills the heavens, stands His heavenly sanctuary, “the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.” Within God’s heavenly sanctuary, Jesus Christ sits at the right hand of the “throne of the Majesty in the heavens.” Because the blood of Christ purged the things within the heavenly temple, “our house which is from heaven,” God opened wide the temple doors, so that whosoever calls upon the name of Christ in sincerity will be adorned in His righteousness, which is found in the Holy Spirit. When through faith in Jesus Christ a person is filled of the Holy Spirit, then will the person understand the value of being redeemed unto God, so that they no longer stand naked before God, but are covered in the righteousness that Christ has obtained for them.

Adam and Eve did not eat from the tree of life so that they could “live forever.” Yet because of what God has purposed and accomplished through Jesus Christ, mankind who bear the image of the first man Adam, having a spirit that is able to respond to God, are able to partake of eternal life, when through faith in Christ, they receive the Holy Spirit. Mankind no longer needs to stand unadorned, “naked” before God, wrapped in filthy rags, having had their garments spotted by the flesh, because a way has been made available where through faith, they may be adorned in the righteousness of Christ.

The spirit of a person, when joined unto the Holy Spirit, will flourish as they are nurtured by the love that God has toward them, able to appreciate the value of not walking alone. They will no longer need to look to the opinions and ideas of others as a covering for their soul, burdened by shame because of actions outside of God, because God will remind them that Jesus bore their sin for them. God is to be their comforter, so that if others should reject or discount them, His comforting voice will remind them they are of great worth and value in His kingdom of righteousness.

> "Put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Ephesians 6:11-13

When a person's spirit turns away from the voice of God, they will join the ranks of others who speak great swelling words of accusation against the Lord on high. They will join the ranks of others who are spiritually "wicked," whose spirits have refused to respond to the voice of God. Those who have had their garments defiled by the flesh, are those whose spirits and souls have continued to be influenced by unbelief, and not the voice of God. Because they stand united in their disbelief of God, they find strength to boldly speak ridicule against the Lord; their ridicule will be used to influence those who have just begun their journey into understanding what is involved in a holy relationship with God.

Yet today is the day of the Lord, where the Lord is able to show Himself strong on behalf of the one who seeks Him. Today, the Lord judges the hearts of mankind and determines who is to be counted among the righteous. Today, the Son will rise in the hearts of many so they have understanding that the Lord is good. Today, God will look upon the heart of a person who has found shelter in the Word, and will fill their lives with His mercy, love and holiness found in the Spirit. Today, the enemies of a person's soul, which include doubt, accusation, fear and pride, will be cast down to the ground, put under the feet of Christ, as God visits them, by releasing His Spirit of righteousness and truth into their lives.

Today, when a person hears the Word of God, a moment of accountability before the Lord is presented. Where do they stand, for or against the Lord? Will their spirit respond to the voice of God, so that they seek out God's Word? Will they discover that their thoughts of foundational truth, heralded dependency on self, which pushes God away, or will they instead find that they are drawn toward desiring to know of the longsuffering love that God has toward them? Will they continue to look upon the Word as a message that is pure foolishness, or will today be the day that the Word becomes alive to their understanding, as the Lord appears in their lives, through the Spirit? Will today be the day that the things of the earth lose power over their lives, as the Spirit of God leads their thoughts on high, so they are able to perceive and appreciate that the true foundation God desires them to stand upon is faith in Christ?

Will the Holy Spirit move in power in their lives, so that their hope in the things of the earth is reduced in power, and so that they will be able to shake off unbelief like dust from off their clothes? Will today be the day that the kingdom of God's righteousness becomes an ever present reality, so that the world they once clung to for security, will dissolve before them, becoming a mere distant backdrop that continues to recede into the horizon? Will today a person's spirit be united unto the Holy Spirit so that they live their lives in appreciation of the kingdom of God's righteousness that He has prepared for those who love His holy name?

> "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." Romans 1:18-20

All of creation declares the glory of God, so that no one is with excuse. God has given each person a spirit that is able to respond to His power and presence that fills all of creation. Yet, those who walk in unbelief are able to sway the thoughts of others through their words. Those whose spirits are aligned with unbelief, so that they speak the same words as Satan himself, may have joined the ranks of those whose spirits are as devils. Like Satan they speak accusation against God. And like Satan they deny the love, power and mercy of God. From out of their mouths proceed evil and wicked words that reflect the influence of unbelief upon their heart and mind.

Today words of great accusation are spoken by those who have power over others (like the kings of the earth); they are those who remain under the influence of “evil” spirits who deny the goodness of God. And the words they speak have continued to influence the thoughts of mankind. Yet, when a person hears the Word of God spoken, they can turn away from the accusations spoken against God and seek out an understanding of God for themselves. Men may be able to imprison a person’s physical body, but they cannot imprison their spirit. Each person upon hearing the Word, can seek God. The battle rages against mankind today, just as it raged against those of yesterday, yet God stands ever ready to be their help in time of need. Jesus Christ has made a way available for anyone who calls upon His name in sincerity, to be adorned in His righteousness, found in the Holy Spirit, so that they no longer stand naked before God and mankind.

Blessed are they who understand the fear of the Lord, for they shall find joy in the house of the Lord.

> “Now therefore fear the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the Lord. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” Joshua 24:14-15*

*Flood – Hebrew 5104 – river, stream, canal; the River, which can refer to the Euphrates, Tigris, or Nile.

Groanings Of Spiritual Leader's

GROANINGS OF SPIRITUAL LEADER'S
I have placed you under the care of spiritual leaders. Loved ones, those who walk with Me as spiritual leaders carry you. Like parents, they adopt you and are given direct assignment by Me of being watchmen over your souls. They watch in the night seasons and stay awake for you. I put them in places of intercession where depending upon your choices, they enter into great straits, with sighing, groaning and inaudible intercession. These are narrow places where they even experience grief over the condition of your choices.

Release them from the bonds of your spiritual kicking and grant their leadership in your lives. Listen to them. Give heed. Be persuaded, trust and believe in their calling. Yield to their wisdom and walk with them as friends. As you surrender to My Words through them, you become Our friend.

Heb 13:17 AMP
Obey your spiritual leaders and submit to them [continually recognizing their authority over you], for they are constantly keeping watch over your souls and guarding your spiritual welfare, as men who will have to render an account [of their trust]. [Do your part to] let them do this with gladness and not with sighing and groaning, for that would not be profitable to you [either].

Deeper Waters

DEEPER WATERS
My desperate child, I so yearn over you.
I AM always with you whatever you do.
Never, never, never alone. I AM here.
Always, always, always with you, do not fear.

I long to bring you into My secret place
I long to hold you in My tender embrace.
I AM calling you to relax and swim with Me
In waters so deep, holy and free.

Thank you for giving Me your most precious time.
Thank you for setting aside the making of the dime.
I will take care of your business as you take care of Mine.
It's My promise, My way is provided so let us dine.

Listen to the little nuggets of My Word.
Soak them in and let the seeds break forth assured.
I AM faithful to watch over what I have planted in you.
These seeds, they carry your destiny and all that is true.

So all that matters for now is that you relax
As you present to Me that which is taxed.
And let us move into deeper waters, My waters of life.
As you have laid down the struggles and places of strife.

Let My water hold you up and relax in the waves.
Knowing that I AM sustaining you as you are brave
To allow Me first place in all that you do.
I will settle the accounts and make them prosperous too.

Ps 42:7-8 NKJV
Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls; All Your waves and billows have gone over me. The LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me — A prayer to the God of my life.

Delegating Brings Promotion

DELEGATING BRINGS PROMOTION
You are not able to handle any more load until you let go and delegate some of what you carry. You are destined for promotion, but you need separation from it in order to go there. It may take 3 people to do what you were doing as one, but this is a blessing. I have many workers prepared and waiting on the sidelines, sitting on shelves waiting for their place, their niche to serve. They are not able to move in, until you move on and let go. You are needed to help facilitate them, guide them and grant them the wisdom of your experience, but they will not receive their promotion until you delegate to them their destiny. It is the same for you. You will not come into yours until you delegate what you can no longer carry. This is My way, it is a good gift to all.

1 Chron 28:20-21 NKJV
And David said to his son Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God — my God — will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. 21 Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

Groaning Over The One

GROANING OVER THE ONE
Dear one, I understand the depths of having many children which are a great joy, and yet there is the lingering pain of agony in groaning over the one who is not. How I groan and labor along with you as you carry the one who runs from My truth. Hold on, dearest, hold on. Do not let go. I need you. I send angels forth to do your bidding. I also hear the deepest biddings that have no words, the ones that wrestle over the agony of separation from the one who runs away. Hold on, My love, I understand. I will stop at nothing until the hills are searched and every last stone is overturned.

Matt 18:12-14 NLT
"If a shepherd has one hundred sheep, and one wanders away and is lost, what will he do? Won't he leave the ninety-nine others and go out into the hills to search for the lost one? And if he finds it, he will surely rejoice over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn't wander away! In the same way, it is not my heavenly Father's will that even one of these little ones should perish.

Those That Love The Truth
Sandy Warner

Jun 27, 2005
THOSE THAT LOVE THE TRUTH
When I ask you to be transparent before Me and before My people, I have shined My light through your life and My truth is made manifest. My light shines through, it can not hide. That which is true does not conceal, it reveals. Only darkness hides and it must flee as My light makes the truth known and clearly manifest. I came into the world to bring truth. All who love the truth recognize what I say is true. When I speak My truth through you, all who love truth shall know what you say is true. You will not be presenting your own ideas, you will be presenting what you have heard from My Spirit of Truth.

In contrast, I hide the truth from those who are wise in their own eyes. Only to those with childlike faith will I reveal the truth. And those who know the truth shall be set free. John 18:3 NLT Pilate replied, "You are a king then?" "You say that I am a king, and you are right," Jesus said. "I was born for that purpose. And I came to bring truth to the world. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true."

John 18:3 NLT
Pilate replied, "You are a king then?" "You say that I am a king, and you are right," Jesus said. "I was born for that purpose. And I came to bring truth to the world. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true."

1 Cor 2:13-16 AMP
And we are setting these truths forth in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the [Holy] Spirit, combining and interpreting spiritual truths with spiritual language [to those who possess the Holy Spirit].

But the natural, nonspiritual man does not accept or welcome or admit into his heart the gifts and teachings and revelations of the Spirit of God, for they are folly (meaningless nonsense) to him; and he is incapable of knowing them [of progressively recognizing, understanding, and becoming better acquainted with them] because they are spiritually discerned and estimated and appreciated.

But the spiritual man tries all things [he examines, investigates, inquires into, questions, and discerns all things], yet is himself to be put on trial and judged by no one [he can read the meaning of everything, but no one can properly discern or appraise or get an insight into him].

For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart. [Isa 40:13.]

Gospel Of The Kingdom

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

> Isaiah 52:7-10
> 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
> 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.
> 9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.
> 10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

In a recent article by Ephraim Frank, he has this to say.

> Almost a decade had gone by, when in an early morning time of reading scriptures, (in the year 1994 to be precise), I became intrigued, like never before, by Acts 28. Paul was under house arrest in Rome for the "hope of Israel". He had called together the Jewish leaders and explained to them why he was there. These leaders had heard about this sect of Judaism that was "spoken against everywhere".
> After listening to Paul, they set a day to have him clarify what this sect was all about. When the day arrived, Paul "solemnly testified of the kingdom of God [Elohim], persuading them concerning Jesus [Yeshua] from both the Law [Torah] of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening" (Acts 28:23). Upon reading this something leaped inside of me with a big, "WHAT? Paul was teaching the Kingdom of Elohim from the Torah and the Prophets?"
> I had never once, in all my years, heard the Gospel of the Kingdom being presented from the Torah and the Prophets! "Where in the Torah is God/Elohim's Kingdom?" I prayed. I turned to my Heavenly Father and asked Him to show me. I left for work that morning in a state of absolute bewilderment. How was it possible that after 20 years of being a believer and singing that song, "Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God," I could still be so totally ignorant of something so important? I had read many times the parables of Jesus/Yeshua about the Kingdom of God/Elohim, but did not really understand what Yeshua and His apostles were actually teaching about the Kingdom from the Torah and the Prophets! Truly I fit the shoes of those who have ears but do not hear and eyes, but do not see!

Notice in the third paragraph quoted from Ephraim Frank where he says: Truly I fit the shoes of those who have ears but do not hear and eyes, but do not see!
This seems to be a case of spiritual blindness. There is a case of spiritual blindness that is parallel to this found in Luke, the famous Emmaus Road passage.

> Luke 24:13-32

> 13 And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.
> 14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
> 15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
> 25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:
> 26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
> 27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
> 32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

Suppose you had to preach "Christ and Him Crucified" from the Old Testament. It says And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. Exactly what scriptures could Jesus have discussed and opened to those disciples? For us today, it's fairly easy to know what Jesus might have showed them. The messianic psalms and prophecies are identified for us already, by scholars who have the advantages of faith in the Lord and hindsight into the old testament. Even so Jews today are still blinded to all the messianic passages we so easily identify.

> 1 Corinthians 1:23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock*, and unto the Greeks foolishness;*

When it comes to preaching the 'Gospel of the Kingdom' from the Old Testament, we don't have it all laid out for us in like manner. There is not a set list of Kingdom scriptures already put together for us. We will have to research and discover what verses to use for ourselves.

Part of the problem is once again, spiritual blindness. The church is split into so many factions that we have no consensus of exactly what the Gospel is, and no clear idea of what the Kingdom of God is. Too many pastors and teachers have differing ideas about what exactly is the Gospel of The Kingdom of God. It reminds me of a kingdom related scripture from The Book of Judges.

> Judges 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Surely this is an issue that requires some end time prophetic vision, for in Matthew 24 we see a prophecy as follows.

> Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

As this must happen before the Lord returns, there must come a change or transformation of some sort to the church to enable this kind of preaching. Else how can we preach the Gospel of the Kingdom, if we are not clear as to what it is? Seeing how the Old Testament treats the subject will prove a tremendous aid to our understanding.

One approach is to focus on the word Kingdom, and it's synonyms; the other approach is to focus on the word Gospel, and it's synonyms. To preach the one is to preach the other, but using differing terminology. Typically the Bible repeats the same ideas over and over but it uses varying approaches and ways of explaining things. This is also a means of concealing things. Until by earnestly seeking the Lord, the Spirit reveals how seemingly unrelated ideas are connected together with a common meaning. The very phrase Gospel of the Kingdom is an example. In many places scripture speaks of the Kingdom of God, while in other places there is talk of preaching the Gospel or the Good News. Then as you read Matthew 24:14, as quoted above, you may see that these ideas are linked together. So that to preach the one is to preach the other, but using differing terminology. For this short essay, let’s look at first things first.

First Things First

In the quote above Ephraim says:

> How was it possible that after 20 years of being a believer and singing that song, “Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God,” I could still be so totally ignorant of something so important?

In this we can find an important clue. In Matthew 6 we read:

> Matthew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

And then in Matthew 22 we find Jesus saying:

> Matthew 22:36-40
> 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
> 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
> 38 This is the first and great commandment.
> 39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
> 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The question now is whether Jesus is teaching that two different things are most important or is he saying the same thing in two different ways? We know that God is not the author of confusion, [1 Corinthians 14:33] So here he, Jesus, is telling us the same thing in two different ways. Instead of confusion, we can draw a conclusion here. That is: to seek first the kingdom of God is the same as to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

Now take that and add in the First Commandment. That is "I am the Lord thy God, Thou shalt have no other gods before me. This being the First Commandment is yet another way of saying the same thing. It lets us draw another conclusion. That is: to seek first the kingdom of God is the same as to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and the same as to have no other gods before him. It’s the same idea said three different ways.

This is all based on Old Testament verses from Exodus, Leviticus and Deuteronomy, all found in the "Law of Moses" or the Torah.

> Deuteronomy 6:5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

[Side note: Judaism tends to focus on Deuteronomy 6:4 instead of 6:5 and thereby misses getting first things first.]

> Deuteronomy 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

Here are the other verses in question,.

> Leviticus 19:18 Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

> Exodus 20:2-3
> 2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
> 3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

So if you are preaching from these scriptures, you are preaching the 'Gospel of the Kingdom' from the Old Testament!

The Good News is that there is a Kingdom Coming!

And beside that, the very idea that the Lord Jesus Christ is our God is Good News in itself!

Got Life?
Michele Perry

In the context of spearheading a campus church planting movement, I have been thinking a lot about what life is. What makes something living? Specifically what makes a church living? If something is not living, does that make it dead? Don't you have to be alive first in order to be considered dead? Questions like these.

Biblically, God has got a lot to say about life. For example:

John 1:4 In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.

John 5:40 And ye will not come to Me, that ye might have life

John 6:33 For the bread of God is He which cometh down from heaven, and gives life unto the world.

John 6:63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

John 10:10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

John 20:31 but these have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing you may have life in His name.

1 John 5:12 He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

Obviously from these passages LIFE is found in Jesus Christ and having relationship with Him. But how do you tell if a believer is alive or a church is alive? I believe biology, the study of life and living things, may give us four key principles determine whether something is actually alive spiritually. Scientists have identified four characteristics that describe all living things. And these characteristics hold true biblically for the spiritually alive follower of Jesus and the Church.

For something to be biologically alive it must meet the following four criteria:
1. It must have a functioning metabolism that utilizes nutrients and processes waste.
2. It must grow.
3. It must reproduce.

4. It must be able to adapt and respond to stimuli.

Let's look at how these apply to the believer and the Church:

METABOLISM

Metabolism is the process whereby an organism breaks down, utilizes and assimilates nutrients needed for health and life and processes and gets rid of waste products. We individually and corporately need to be able to metabolize the Word of God and biblical truth so that it becomes a part of who we are. We also need to filter out the junk we are exposed to and get it out of our lives.

In many places, the metabolism of the Body of Christ is off. We have a hypoactive or slow metabolism that leaves us sluggish and overweight-- stuffed on the things of good information and the latest tantalizing trend but never breaking down truths into applications where God's Word become part and parcel of who we are becoming. There can be a huge chasm between what we intellectually know and what we functionally are. Hearing God's Word biblically ALWAYS was to be accompanied with obedience and application. Or we have a hyperactive drive that never lets us just be still and know HE is God.
A healthy metabolism also gets rid of waste products. We are exposed every day to a lot of toxins and junk. Some of the toxins are internally self-produced from areas of our lives and hearts that are not yet healed and whole or temptations we fall under. Others are ingested from external sources: TV, movies, media, office scuttlebutt, the atmosphere. Most often these toxins gain entrance through our eyes and ears. A healthy metabolism can process a limited amount of such and deal with it so it is gotten rid of. As we walk with Jesus and are being fed with the nutrition of His life-giving Word, our spiritual metabolisms should be able to get rid of the poisons we come in contact with before they actually do lasting damage.

GROWTH

If you had a newborn baby and that baby never grew, you'd be worried right? Yet in how many places is it considered status quo to see a life get born into the Kingdom and remain an infant for 20 years warming a church pew. It is not normal. It is not biblical. And with no growth, there can be no life.

Living things GROW. They develop. They get larger and more complex to a point. Healthy people in the natural grow physically, mentally, emotionally and socially. Churches as the Body of Christ should be no different. Church growth is traditionally spoken of in the growing-larger dimension of numbers. Churches should also be growing in community, in intimacy with the Lord, in understanding of His Word and ways, in strategic outreach, in interaction with the world around them with the goal of bringing the Kingdom. A healthy church develops in complexity as the relational matrix expands. Yet how many church bodies stop growing at pre-K levels or teenage levels or young adult levels of growth and never make into maturity in the Lord corporately.

The church's maturity is not characterized by buildings and programs but by the maturity of the leaders and the people that make UP the church. A church can only mature as far as its people do. A church can only go as far as its members are willing to go. Discipleship is a critical element of church growth. I am not against numerical growth. But along with growth in numbers a continuing maturation and development of the members present must be cultivated. Numbers alone do not equal biblical church growth.

REPRODUCTION

Living things REPRODUCE. The first commission given to man in the garden was to "be fruitful and multiply". The literal translations of those two words from the Hebrew could be "grow and reproduce becoming numerous". And beloved you can only reproduce what you are. Banana trees do not grow apples and multiply into apple orchards.

Healthy churches reproduce and multiply themselves. They plant churches. Believers are discipled to disciple others who will in turn disciple others. Everything is geared toward growth in God and reproducible discipleship that can be continuously multiplied. One of the things most lacking in the Body today is a biblical understanding of mentorship. Mentors that truly know how to reproduce what God has given to them in others and then release them are in short supply. Mentoring has two biblical functions: maturation and multiplication. A fruit when mature has seeds that will multiply into other fruit trees of the same kind. Again I cannot stress this enough.
You reproduce what you are. Leaders, this is a sobering thought for us.

Here is the key. A dysfunctional church that does manage to reproduce itself for the most part will either reproduce dysfunctional offspring or disabled offspring. Now God can intervene and heal and transform. But you reproduce what you are. Why not let Him do the work in you individually and corporately so that what and who you are is a living, healthy representation of what and who He is. Then that which you multiply into others will be functional and whole.

RESPONSE/ADAPTATION

Biologically speaking, living things respond to environmental stimuli and change. They adapt and adjust. Now I am not speaking about compromise. We are NEVER in any way to compromise the truth of the Word, ways or character of God to adapt to our environment. But we may need to adapt our strategies, methods and applications.

Many churches are just plain unresponsive. Needs change, opportunities change, issues change, culture changes and instead of asking the Lord for His response to the changing world all around them, they largely ignore it. God has called us to respond to the issues and needs our day, culture and generation with HIS Word and ways from the place of His grace with the message of His truth.

Controversies can be opportunities. Needs can become open doors to the Gospel of the Kingdom. Issues can become discussion points. Our message is not to change, but our platform of presentation just might. How can God's timeless truth minister and respond to the deepest heart cries of our hour?

ORGANIZATION

May I make a crucial distinction here?

THE CHURCH IS NOT AN ORGANIZATION. THE CHURCH IS THE BODY OF CHRIST.

The Church is an organism…period. That being said, all living organisms HAVE organization. The simplest one cell living creature has incredibly intricate organization. If the organization of the organism is out of place it can have deadly effects. But just because something is organized and even effective in doing tasks does not make it alive. A robotic piece of machinery is amazingly organized and more effective for some tasks than a human being but it doesn't make it living.

So are you building an effective machine and calling it Church or are you actually growing a living organism that is the Body of Christ? I am not against programs or being effective, but just because you have a thriving organization doesn't mean you have an organization that is living.
You often hear believers talking about dead churches. I would have to differ with this terminology in how it is predominantly applied. For something to be dead, it had to die! And for a thing to die, it had to first be alive. Many of what some consider dead churches were never alive to begin with. Never at any one time did they exhibit metabolism, growth, reproduction and response. They are not dead because they were never living.

So can God take non-living items and cause them to come to life? If the valley of dry bones in Ezek.

34 is any example, absolutely so... Ezekiel, at the word of the Lord in a vision, called the bones to come together. They then had organization. And the flesh and sinew came on them. They looked pretty good even at this point. But only after he prophesied to the four winds and called for breath to enter them did they come alive. Biblically, breath, wind and spirit are usually the same exact word.

Without God's Spirit, there is no life spiritually. The good news is that if God could visit the valley of dry bones with His Spirit and breathe life into inanimate non-living, at times good-looking organization, there is hope yet for some corners of the Church.

However, why not just go for God's life from the beginning? Why not dare to take God at His Word and believe Him to do what He says? Why not just do what the Bible says and no more and no less? Have you ever looked to see what components of how we do church are actually IN the Bible? And how many things in the Bible are not actively functioning in our churches?
It is a daring study and you might just find yourself at the crossroads of some changing paradigms. These are questions that have burned in my heart for almost 20 years since I was about 8 or 9. I have cried over them, been frustrated by them, debated their importance and finally the asking of them has led to the understanding of church planting I now have.

I am not saying you necessarily need to abandon all you have ever known or throw out all your existing structure. But it may be a prudent thing to evaluate it in the light of what the Bible says about what church looks like. Are church buildings a biblical mandate? Do you have to have a choir? Where is the hallowing of the three point sermon? How about those service orders-- spoken and unspoken? I am not saying any of these things are wrong. But are they the only way of doing things biblically or are they a product of the models we have been taught from our culture? And if so then, are they the best way of doing church for an unchurched generation that does not know any better than to take God at His Word unless we disciple them otherwise?

I am just asking some questions. I'm not here to give you the answers. But I do desire to provoke you to evaluate everything according to God's Word and be a Berean and go seek out Biblical answers not filtered through the lens of experience but that come from honestly asking Him how He desires His Church to be structured and run. Are you a well tooled machine or a maturing, multiplying, living Body? Do you have an intimate, ongoing, progressing, deepening relationship with Jesus? And when it all comes down to brass tacks: have you GOT LIFE?

I've been pondering with our Lord, a friend's request concerning the coming year - 2005, and have been sensing since last Friday that The Lord will be planting us the more so into armies, spiritual military divisions of Divine LOVE, groups of relationship = families of purpose .... in the coming days, weeks, months. This morning I heard this brief Word of Holy Spirit,

"Lord of Armies...."

" And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the Lord brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies." - Ex. 12:51 (armies = by their hosts, by their divisions, groups.)

Adonai Tzvaot: the Lord of Hosts. For HIS' purposes, and for our benefit -- soldiers of Christ' Cross and Resurrection: Emissaries in rank bearing 'The Good News",, The Gospel of Jesus Christ; Divine Love, of joy and bondage release, healing, the forgiveness of sin extended to mankind, as one by one lost individuals are gathered and drawn of Holy Spirit to join Christ !
Armies of worshiping warriors in The Love of God, our King and Lord Christ Jesus.
Worshiping warriors who know their God intimately and obey His commands through experientially learned obedience to HIS' Voice.
Warriors of quick yet careful obedience simply because of their / our extreme love-sickness and bursting heart desire to please HIM, our beloved Lord and King; The Lord of Armies, our retuning Bridegroom.

All these, HIS' different armies (groups) will have unique emphasis and flavor of God wealth...... intercession, evangelism, wonders, mercy, miracles, prophecy, healing and the more, expressed inwardly amongst The Body of Christ, and outwardly shown and offered to the world, as well.

Not all in the world will recognize the armies of our Lord being formed the more-so in coming days .... but some in the world will take notice, and some will even look twice and be redeemed - joining in with The Lord's Armies, with us....... Glory! For the very heavenly angels rejoice over each one, each individual person discovering and coming into LIFE = Christ Jesus. New birth.

In this coming year The Lord of Armies, our Lord of families in The Family,, will be expressing the more in earth by forming and placing us HIS' people, by the power and might of Holy Spirit……. As I'm writing this out, I hear this further,

> *"Step up, step forward and report !
> Step out of Egypt and into My explicit Ranks which I form the more tightly now ....
> Remember that you are in the world but not of this world. I say, volunteer today for your right assignments, beloved,,, for the Day of My full Power comes.*

> Some of you say, "I do not know yet where I belong, where I am to be". I tell you to ask of Me, The Lord of Armies, and I will see and recognize your heart desire, very personally revealing to you your places with relationship compatriots, grouping you in My Divine order of family love ranks. Ask, and I will make it plain to you and I will place you.
> You who are already placed and working together, know that I see you and I am delighted in you. I want you to grow even tighter in relationship, and take into your groups and clusters the new ones I send you. For you are to enlarge with more might, My Might, as you conjoin with new fresh members as My troops swell. Faithful ones, patient warriors, you have seen some harvest, now expect MORE. ,,, for I tell you in truth, My MORE is now, and is on the way.
>
> In the coming days, by two and three, by three hundred and by thousands,,,,, My armies and My great Army of Family will move forward with confident steps at the trumpets tone of direction, at the gentle shift of My wind She will turn and go and do and BE,,,, at My desire, at My Voice.
> I speak; This will be.
> Today this day, volunteer, step up and get placed of My Hand .... For I desire to cloth you fully for battle in My Glory garments; Divine clothing implanted in your inside and draped upon your outward; Love garments of authority worn as our battles and Battle, of victories and Victory continue,, and present newly...... ahead. No man, nor any principality nor power is able to stop MY LOVE.
>
> So I say today, In and by ME ,,,,,get assigned, get aligned...... in this present season. I am washing with My word and wrapping up my people into garments of family, even likened to the grape cluster, beloved; Armies of My power and of My muster.
> Report,,,, Report now,, and see that I, your Lord, I AM good -- all goodness resides with us."

after: I have been seeing of Holy Spirit quick visions, off and on all the rest of this day, today: These huge appearing grape clusters with dew of morning on their sun-sparkling skins. Some are more reddish, some green, and some more purplish in color, many different shades... full clusters shown me as connected firmly to their Main Vine. "I Am the vine…" – Jesus, Jn. 15:1 & 5
Even so, Lord Jesus in Your Name.

05/05/05 Jehoash's Choice, Your Choice!

Grace, Grace, Grace. Three weeks ago, when making an appointment, this date came up and immediately I knew the importance of it in the Spirit. Five you may know is the number of grace and grace is unmerited favor. This coming Thursday is a time of FAVOR, A TIME TO ASK, and A TIME TO CRY OUT IN INTERCESSION to the Lord for His mercy in all our circumstances. It is a pivotal intersection in the Spirit. Which way will you choose to go? Will you go to the right, to the left, turn around and run in fear ….or MOVE FORWARD into the destiny and plan of the Lord for your life. Don't remain detached and complacent about it all. Purpose to pray together.

In the times of Elisha, prophet of God, (2 Kings 13:14) we find King Jehoash weeping because of what Elisha was going through at the time. This is the last recorded direction and prophetic outpouring of God, through Elisha as Elisha died and was buried shortly after this incident.

Elisha gave King Jehoash a choice, an opportunity for victory, but Jehoash only went so far with God. This is the place where the king is instructed to go and get a bow and some arrows. After Jehoash takes the bow in his hands, Elisha places his own hands on top of the king's hands and tells him to open the east window. Elisha says, "Now shoot the arrow." He does. Elisha declares it is an arrow of victory and it is the Lord's victory. Now, he says "take the arrows, and strike the ground." Jehoash strikes the ground three times….then stops. The word says the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck the ground five or six times; then you would have defeated Aram and completely destroyed it. Now you will only defeat it three times."

Shofar here…What are you leaving undone in the Spirit? What task has the Holy Spirit directed you to finish that you left out in the elements to be whipped away by the enemy. Don't you know that if God has called you to this, he will OPEN every door needed? You may have a NEW, and to you, but not to God, unattainably large assignment that you are being asked to complete. The enemy may have come in…like a flood and attacked you physically, or financially. Your dearest friends may not understand and you search the word of God to find the path through this tactic of the enemy. I AM HERE TO SHOUT FROM THE HIGHEST MOUNTAIN….THAT GOD IS STILL AND ALWAYS ON THE THRONE. WHAT HE HAS PROCLAIMED AND ORDAINED TO BE DONE WILL BE ACCOMPLISHED. NOW SEIZE THE DAY. DO NOT BE COMPLACENT. GET ON YOU KNEES, PICK UP THAT PHONE, BLOW THE SHOFAR!! THIS IS THE TIME, YOU ARE THE PEOPLE, A HOLY CHOSEN PRIESTHOOD CALLED FOR THIS MOMENT IN TIME TO CHANGE THE ATMOSPHERE. ALL HELL CANNOT PREVAIL AGAINST THE PLAN OF OUR GOD. IT IS DONE AND WAS FINISHED ON THE CROSS AT CALVARY! DO NOT BELIEVE THE LIES OF THE ENEMY! RIP THAT DEATH SHROUD OFF YOUR FACE. IT'S SON…KNEE OUTSIDE!!!!

Now I know many of you receiving this prayer letter are outside the United States, but I believe you will be encouraged by the LORD'S confirmation for us and please as you pray for your situation, if the Lord leads you, pray for us here in the United States in this pivotal time. Yesterday, I read in our bulletin that 05/05/05 is our National day of prayer. I don't know If those who picked this date understood the spiritual significance of this or not OR IF IT IS THE FIRST THURSDAY IN May sort of thing….but the thing is GOD knows! You say does God really care about numbers etc.? Well yes He does. Just read His word and directions for building and creating and orchestrating events length of days and you will see His numbers everywhere!

If you are outside the United States, know first and foremost this is God's time, God's day and this is not about my country, although I pray millions will recognize the significance of this day and pray for wisdom and revelation knowledge and that our leaders will have the mind of Christ and will accomplish those things God has given them the authority to accomplish! I believe this word about Jehoash is a corporate word and that corporately, in the spirit of Elijah, we place our hands on top of the kings (our president's hands) and ask for victory. I pray the same will happen in your country for you individually….and for your leaders. May the righteous judges come forth!

On a personal note, I have resigned from the Healing Rooms Ministry under the direction of my beloved friends Cal and Michelle Pierce. Last year I was Graphics Department director and resigned in April but was until this January still on the team of intercessors under the direction of Stacia Thompson. Being a part of this international ministry was a God revolution in my life. It was the Lord's school in the fast lane and accomplished quickly what the Lord desired to be changed in me. I always have a family there. In January I heard from the Holy Spirit that I needed to resign completely so I could sit at the Lord's feet and have time to listen….and to paint the visions that had began in the fall of 1998. I have also agreed for the second year to be Washington State Prayer coordinator for the Day To Pray For the Peace of Jerusalem under the co-direction of Robert Stearns and Jack Hayford see (http://www.daytopray.com) for more information and to sign yourself or church or synagogue up to pray corporately on October 2nd. Is your country involved? Perhaps you are the one to pick up this torch.

We are also now happily growing with Pastors Barry and Kay Hill (at present praying in D.C.) of the church under the bridge –Christian Life Church. OUR teenage boys are on FIRE!!! Since September, I am also ministering monthly at Pine Lodge prison. This has been so radically wonderful! Again for those who may not have heard…..We have had reconciliation with my son Karn after eleven years! I got a little dog…a wonderful, messy baby that needs love…many spiritual lessons here! I am living in thankfulness and have discovered it again and again like a key lost in the bottom of my purse! Lord willing I will be in Indonesia from July 1-15. When we put first the Lord's agenda all our needs fall into place, even healing for loved ones! He knows each hair on your head and has NOT forgot you….you are engraved upon the palm of His hands! Isaiah 49

So to close this with the subject of favor again…on 05/05/05 , grace, grace,Grace---Thursday--- we are having two meetings in our home, day time and night time. Would you hold a meeting? Call the intercessors to pray in your home or church, release a word to RALLY the warriors on the walls? Blow the shofar and remember….. "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on mount Zion. For there the Lord bestows His blessing, even life evermore. Psalm 133 ……I love you mighty prayer warriors of Yeshua!!!!! Go forth; go forth unto the ripened fields for they are ripe unto harvest!!!!!!!!!!!

Grasping Victory

Conrad Lampan

During the Civil War in Rome, Julius Caesar marched on Rome against Pompey who was the ruler at that point of time. In battle Pompey and His forces were close to victory, and Julius Caesar was losing heavily. However Pompey made here his biggest mistake when instead of terminating him he allowed Caesar to retreat with his troops after which the latter reorganized and attacked again. This time Julius Caesar was the victor.

When he retreated, Caesar addressed his troops and said some memorable words: “you have survived today because of a man who did not know how to grasp victory”. What a statement! Caesar knew that his enemy was the victor, and he fully realized that he and his troops were spared that day because of his enemy’s error. He was now ready to regroup.

God is calling His church today to learn the art of grasping victory. The Lord says to the church “For too long you thought that you knew best; it is time to come to me for wisdom and guidance. I have already won the victory but if you keep making the decisions based on your lower point of view you will fail to grasp the victory”. The Lord says it is not enough to win victory you need to grasp it and make it effective in your life. The devil like Julius Caesar has been addressing his troops in like manner telling them “you have survived today because of the church’s failure to grasp their victory”.

Pompey’s case was a case of victory rightly won and then lost on the horse of ill advised strategies. Is it not the case with the church as well? It is not because the Lord has not spoken wisdom to us, rather because we did not hear Him! Instead over the centuries the church has incorporated advice from the world outside! Since when does an army follow advice from their enemy? Where did we read it? In what Bible? What prophet has told us that we need to hear and follow the world’s strategies?

We need to be Moses listening careful and carefully “be sure to follow the pattern that was given to you up on the mountain”, and this means first and foremost that we need to take time to be up on the mountain. It is unfortunate that many people in church today are actually applying strategies that they think are spoken up in the mountain, but the never actually climbed up to hear wisdom straight from God. Is this not plain nonsense? People who just decide by themselves what God must be thinking and then they act on what they figure out.

The Lord never called us to “figure it out”. He has called us to know Him and to hear wisdom from Him. Only then we will be able to stop our enemy from robbing us the victory.

Getting Real

Roy Resh

Our Lord Jesus has a way of calling us to attention such that we can no longer live in self-deception as individuals or as groups. The sad case of hurricane Katrina has not yet really hit the nation’s soul, for New Orleans is destroyed and will never be rebuilt. One has only to see the devastated Lake Pontchartrain 20-mile bridge and Interstate 10 highway to know that even a category 3 hurricane is too great a force in that region to withstand using economical man-made structures. The self-deception about rebuilding in the Southeast may continue until God’s great Middle America shaking occurs and dwarfs its effect. Even so, it may also take God’s fire on the whole nation to get the attention of the rebel spiritual and political leaders of this nation. (Elijah’s wind, earthquake and fire sequence). Most celebrated leaders are presently showing no signs of calling for national repentance. Only real repentance will stem the tide of ever-increasing judgments that our Lord has been bringing upon His house, which the USA has long claimed to be.

It all hinges around man’s desire to decide good and evil for himself, leaving God out of the equation. Eve, who represents Christ’s bride, was deceived by satan into thinking that the fruit of good and evil was right for her. After all, it looked good to her eyes. Adam, who represents Christendom’s rebel leadership, wasn’t deceived, but ate of this tree of death anyway so that he could be with Eve. (Innocent Adam could have been like Christ and sacrificed himself to ransom Eve, but he didn’t.) Ask yourself, why didn’t Adam and Eve eat of the tree of Life when they could? The reason is obvious. The tree of Life is the entrance to God’s heaven, while the tree of death (human knowledge of right and wrong) is the entrance to satan’s hell. They both chose submission to satan’s wiles over walking in God’s holiness in heaven. (God’s will is done in heaven.)

When a region increases in wickedness, God’s judgment often begins there. That does not mean that He loves the people of the region less than others, only that they have chosen to live in a place of great wickedness, and He has warned us all against that. (Remember Lot and his wife!) Today in the USA the spiritual and the secular segments fight each other with great energy, consuming resources that ought to be applied to build up spirits. Clever secular men take advantage of the spiritual infants with flash-flash advertising and videos, stirring emotions and catering to greed. The epitome of this wickedness is seen in gambling casinos that ‘entertain’ the emotions while catering to ‘something for nothing’ evil instincts. Even churches use such methods to build empires while keeping their members in spiritual poverty.

Corporate America leads the world in gleefully producing poisonous artificial foods that assure the pharmaceutical and medical industries great riches to compensate for the physical damage done to the gullible. The USA president assures the world that Allah, the demon god of Islam, is holy. Fed-Ed teaches our children to be Me-First in a world controlled by the secular elite, who truly think that they know best for everyone. Religion drones on with little more than a passing glance to note and lament the suffering of those in the judgment regions, never thinking that they might be next. The blind are certainly leading the blind. Self deception are the watchwords of the hour, and many, many people have been willing to settle for the secondary advantages of this good and evil paradigm, as were Adam and Eve.

The pride and deception of Christendom's spiritual leadership is like the wind to the institutionalized. The wind often blows gently, bringing refreshing rain and strengthening the plant root systems, as when needed truth is preached. Sometimes it blows harder, and the plants are bruised and strike against each other without cause, as when emotions are stirred and self-deception is encouraged. Finally, the hurricane arrives that no man can control, when the Holy Spirit begins to take over and cleanse the hearts of the deceived. Leadership panics and tries to keep the wind from touching 'their' sheep, but it is too strong for them, and the sheep scatter.

The sheep haven't been given the real truth that they need to live outside of the fold (they have been institutionalized all of their lives). Chaos ensues as sheep vainly look for shepherds who have their interests at heart. Stronger, more charismatic and cunning shepherds arise to lure the sheep into new folds with promises of prosperity and the security of peace with God and man without the need for uncompromising righteousness. Some of these gold-greedy shepherds even use the name of Christ, but most simply offer help to those being judged by God to recover from or avoid disaster, and ask others to join with them in this humanitarian work. Widely-celebrated ecumenical evangelists direct the gullible to religious institutions. History reveals that most of the innocent new sheep will remain trapped in a state of spiritual infancy for the remainder of their lives. Reading truth in the scriptures only serves to create unrest in their spirits as the Holy Spirit tries to set them free from the institutions. The wolves in sheep's clothing strive desperately to keep their inmates in their cells. Most are still following them, naively heading rapidly toward their own destruction. The few who know and live the truth are despised and cast out.

It's time to get real! Remnant arise!!!

God's Reward

Francis Frangipane

It seems every couple months there is a major disaster or conflict somewhere in the world. With regularity, the images of human suffering explode into our consciousness and we are confronted, not only with our frailty, but also with deeper questions about the nature of God.

Some, to be sure, file every natural disaster under the label, "wrath of God." The perception that the fist of an angry God is purposefully causing untold agony, destroying the righteous together with the wicked, is an acceptable reality to them. In my opinion, such thinking tends to keep people somewhat aloof from the calamities themselves. Such analyses, however, are not easily assimilated by those whose hands have lifted the decaying bodies of the dead and whose ears still ring with the wail of the stricken.

Consider the repetition of suffering in our world just since the end of December, 2004. First we were deluged with images of the great Asian tsunami. Roaring into unsuspecting villages, in a few horrifying moments it swept almost 250,000 souls into eternity. Over the following months more earthquakes rocked Sumatra, then Iran and elsewhere, killing additional thousands. We've repeatedly seen the face of starvation in Africa and other third world counties. Then recently, we struggled to comprehend the gut-wenching destruction caused by storms, especially Hurricane Katrina. As the tide of terror ebbs into our memory, we ask: Where was God in these disasters? Did He cause them? Is He angry?

Beyond the Visible

Modern technology has enabled us to become aware of our world's reoccurring natural disasters. It is our awareness of human pain that disturbs us and moves us to pray, give or help. But the fact is our world is constantly harvesting heartache and sorrow, but it is unreported. Yet God sees it. Each year over 57 million people die worldwide from various causes. God sees every death, even those who vanish forever into eternal darkness without Christ. Globally, another 50 million babies are brutally aborted each year, and every muffled cry enters our Father's ears and descends into His heart. He sees the horrors of murder, rape and abuse; He is conscious of the starving, the diseased and the victims of accidents and wars. He is not the author of these particular deaths, but He is conscious of the collective suffering rising from our world.

However, the question is, where is God in all this? In ancient mythology, "gods" were portrayed as supernatural beings seated above humanity, luxuriating in a sensual "heaven." Not only were they indifferent to human suffering, causing pain was something like sport to them. They were capricious, given to sudden and unaccountable changes of mood or behavior.

When I hear people connect terrible storms, earthquakes or disasters with divine wrath, I feel that, as Christians, we should at least be cautious lest we unconsciously draw upon pagan imagery and misread the activity and heart of God. Pagan gods caused calamities; they were without compassion in their unrestrained affliction of mankind. Yet, the Spirit of God is united with us during hardship. His promise is that He will never leave us nor forsake us.

Yes, He abides in eternity in a "high and holy place"(Is 57:15c), but He also dwells in the realm of time "with the contrite and lowly of spirit" where He seeks to "revive the spirit of the lowly" (Is 57:15c). The true God "is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and exist" (Acts 17:27-28). Paul spoke these words to unsaved Greeks; God was close even to them. The Spirit of God is consciously involved with every aspect of our lives, even to numbering the hairs on our head. Hebrews tells us that "There is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do" (Heb 4:13). Jesus said that the Father not only "sees in secret" (Matt 6:4,6,18), but even a sparrow will not "fall to the ground apart from [our] Father" (Matt 10:29).

If we are seeking to know the relationship of God to human suffering on planet earth, we need to accept this primary truth: God is not separated from human sorrows. The idea that the Almighty is removed from mankind's sufferings, I believe, is a deception rooted in paganism.

But let us probe deeper into God's nature. The Lord is not only conscious of mankind's suffering, a dimension of His heart is also wounded with our wounds and pained by our sorrows. Consider, even while Israel was suffering the consequences of its sin, God was united with them. Scripture reveals that a time came when the Lord "could bear the misery of Israel no longer" (Judg 10:16). What an insight into the God's heart! He was not sitting in heaven watching from a distance, measuring how much suffering His people could endure - He was with them, actually experiencing their accumulative misery!

Why should this idea of God suffering be strange to us? Throughout the Bible we read that one aspect of the divine nature is that He is "longsuffering" (Ex 34:6, Ps 86:15 KJV). His wisdom may be all knowing and His power fully capable, but His heart feels our pain. God suffers. He does not, like pagan gods, "harden His heart" to human pain.

When Israel had been enslaved by Egypt, the Lord told Moses, "I have surely seen the affliction of My people . . . and have heard their cry." He said, "I know their sorrows" (Ex 3:7 KJV). God saw, He heard, He knew their sorrows, and thus was moved with compassion to help. When I see, hear and know personally of human suffering, I am troubled deeply; I desire to help. This is exactly the heart of God! Our desires to help relieve suffering are not merely human traits, but a replication of the likeness of God Himself (see Gen 1:26).

When wickedness fully corrupts a culture, yes, it forces the Lord to execute judgement. However, it is a task of last resort. He feels "no pleasure in the death of the wicked" (Ezek 33:11). Even then, the idea of God causing pain must be balanced with the reality that He feels the pain He causes.

Those Whom He Loves

This is not a message about divine wrath, but about the vulnerability of God's heart.

I am not saying the Lord does not correct us. I have known the discipline and correction of the Lord, even when it seemed severe. I agree with the Psalmist who wrote, "It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes" (Ps 119:71). Those whom God loves, He reproves and disciplines. Yet, it is not an angry God who corrects me, but a loving heavenly Father who disciplines me for my own good. Indeed, this is the great revelation that the Messiah brought to mankind: the Almighty God is not distant. He is our Father.

Several years ago, I had suffered through a particularly difficult time. I sought the Lord about the pain that I endured. He answered simply, "I have been as gentle with you as possible." Suddenly, I saw that it was the devil who caused most of the pain; people and my own poor reactions caused the rest. Yes, the Lord was involved redeeming a bad situation, turning it toward good, helping, restoring me and teaching me discernment and wisdom through it all.

God is our Father. It causes me pain to discipline my children. I do not enjoy it. As a child, before my dad would spank me, he would always say, "This is going to hurt me more than it does you." Is this not the way of God with us? Is He not our Father?

What God Himself Seeks

Yet, why does the Lord tolerate the grief and suffering that abounds on planet earth? Jesus explained it this way. He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, and upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it" (Matt 13:45-46).

God is looking for something valuable, something costly. Yes, the Father found one pearl of great price in His Son, but there is something else the Father seeks, and that is the replication of His Son in us. Romans 8:29 reveals His glorious purpose: He has "predestined [us] to become conformed to the image of His Son."

The pearl of great price, Christ, is not only the payment for our sins, He is the pattern for our lives. Even as the life of Christ flooded the Father's heart with pleasure, so our conformity to Christ justifies the sorrows and suffering of our times. God is using the pain of these days to conform us to His Son. In spite of the sorrows and sufferings of this present age, something precious is being born. Jesus called these difficult events "birth pangs," divine contractions forcing us into conformity to the Pearl of Great Price.

As I write, Hurricane Rita is bearing down on the American Gulf states. As my editor reviewed this message, she informed that Rita actually means "pearl." Beloved, God is with us in our heartache, let us be with Him in the transformation of our lives. Let us give to God His own reward for creating man.

If We Do Not Lose Heart
Francis Frangipane

"He will speak out against the Most High and wear down the saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and they will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time." Daniel 7:25

The prophet Daniel warns of a time when Satan, through the Antichrist, will seek to wear down the strength of God's saints. How this occurs in the final hours of the age remains to be seen, but on one level this battle already is going on today: Satan seeks to wear us out through delays ("alterations in times") and in compromise of God's Word ("alterations in law").

The final effect of what seems like never-ending delays is that believers are worn out. Do you know anyone who is weary with his or her battle? Are you yourself weary? I know many who seem trapped in situations that should have been remedied months and even years ago but the battle continues against them. Situations and people, often empowered by demonic resistance, stand in opposition to the forward progress of God's people. As a result of satanic spiritual resistance, many Christians incrementally accept this resistance until a quiet, but weighty, oppression rests on their souls.

This battle to wear out the saints may be rooted in conflicts with children or spouses; perhaps it is some unresolved issue or division within their churches. It may be a work conflict or health battle, yet on and on it goes. Like a skilled and masterful thief, the enemy daily steals the joy, strength and passion of Christians, and many do not even realize what they have lost or how much.

The scale is actually larger than our personal struggles. Consider the various conflicts in the world. Some have continued for generations. We can understand why, even in the midst of great worship and praise by the redeemed, there is a place under the altar in heaven where the saints continue to ask, "How long, O Lord?" (Revelation 6:10). Fifty-eight times in the Bible, from beginning to end, the phrase how long is echoed by those who grew weary with waiting.

Sometimes the delays are God-ordained to perfect faith; as we seek Him He helps us grow. On the other hand, there is a vicious attack against us to oppose and delay the fulfillment of God's plans for us until we grow weary and quit. Satan is the dragon whose goal is to "drag-on" the battle with draining, wearying delays. He persists until we wear out, give up and quit praying.

Additionally, as situations stretch beyond reasonably expected conclusions, weariness of soul can also exacerbate the original situation, leading to fleshly reactions or just overreactions, which also need resolution. We lose patience, eventually seeking relief rather than victory. This compromises the standards of God and conscience.

Perseverance

There is a reason the book of Revelation mentions the word perseverance seven times. Over and over again we see those who persevered and overcame. It is one thing to have vision, another to have godly motives, but neither will carry us to our objectives by itself. We must also persevere.

The root of the word persevere is the word severe. We must face the fact that en route to victory our trials may get severe. Likewise, it is with severe faith - severe or extreme steadfastness - that we inherit the promises of God (see Hebrews 10:36). James tells us: "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (James 1:2-4).

Endurance. Perseverance. Steadfastness. These are the qualities that breed character, that transform the doctrine of Christlikeness into a way of life. "Let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect." The key to perfection, to a life "lacking in nothing" is perseverance.

Weariness of the Mind

Have you grown weary? You are not alone. Part of the weariness we feel comes from faulty thinking. If we had known the battle was going to take as long as it has, we would have prepared for it more realistically. Every building plan will probably take twice as long as we assume; every virtue will take a year, not a weekend, to be truly worked in us. It may take a generation for some of our loved ones to be saved. If things happen sooner, we can rejoice. But we must guard ourselves lest we prepare only for the easiest of breakthroughs; some things will not manifest without time and tears.

You may think that it sounds like unbelief to expect difficulties. I don't think so. I think it is wisdom. Wisdom is not the enemy of faith. I have found that if I don't trust God and relax, I become anxious, fretful and distracted. I have also found that the Holy Spirit will not descend and rest in power upon a man who is fearful and controlled by his external circumstances. Jesus' spirit stayed in abiding peace, yet still He accommodated delays as part of life's package. He was often delayed by the huge crowds or urgent needs of the people around Him. People died waiting for Jesus to show up. Did He become anxious? No, He stayed focused on the Father and without losing His trust in God, simply raised the dead.

At some point we must come to the conclusion that God knows when we are growing weary in battle - be it praying for the salvation of a loved one or one more frustrating delay in reaching our vision. We must trust that He knows our battle and that He has a miracle conclusion waiting us. I know a dear pastor who labored long and hard with a new building project, but it was constantly being delayed. It was first scheduled for completion in September, then rescheduled for December, then January and then February. Finally, with weariness in his voice, he called and asked if I could join him for their dedication. It was set for the first week of March.

"When exactly do you need me?" I asked.

He answered, "March fourth."

Suddenly the Holy Spirit illuminated my heart. I told him that God had chosen this date prophetically. The Lord wanted that church, as an army, to "march forth" into their destiny. In a flash, the weariness weighing upon him was gone; joy and a sense of destiny swept his soul. The delay wore him out, but the delay in the hands of God became inspirational.

Dear ones, let us persevere. We just do not know what the victory will look like when we finally break through. Consider Joseph. Betrayed, enslaved, slandered and forgotten, he had to endure to reach his destiny. But the time finally arrived, and never in his wildest dreams could he have imagined that the outcome would be so wonderful.

What we become is more important to God than what we do for Him. Our struggle, though we may have been delayed time and again, deepens our character. Maintaining our standards when pressed, finding grace when stretched, makes us true men and women of God. The Almighty One is in control. He knows how to take what was meant for evil and transform it into something good, even using the devil's own devices to bring him down. God has something marvelous in store for us otherwise the enemy would not be fighting so intensely. Indeed, Scripture tells us that Satan rages worst when he knows his time is short (see Revelation 12:12).

Character Before Breakthrough

We mentioned Daniel earlier as a prophet who warned about Satan's ploy to wear down the saints. God gave him a vision of the end of the age. Here is what he wrote: "I kept looking, and that horn was waging war with the saints and overpowering them" (Daniel 7:21). This is the nature of the battle. There are times we feel war storming against our souls, overpowering us. But the prophet said the sense of overpowering continued only "until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom" (Daniel 7:22).

There is a principle here that, once understood, will lead to victory in our battles. There will be a time, inevitably, when we feel overpowered. Yet if we endure, if we climb higher into God, if we refuse to lose our trust in God, a time will come when the Ancient of Days enters our circumstances. Looking at our newly developed character, which has grown strong through perseverance, He will pass judgment in favor of our cause. God looks at our character, forged in the fire of overpowering delays and battle, and says, "Good, this is what I was waiting for."

Whatever your battle, whether you are praying for your country or standing for your children, whether your cry is for the lost or for the end of some local or personal conflict, remember the words of Paul: "Let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we do not grow weary" (Galatians 6:9).

Master, I ask that You work in me the character that perseveres until the end. Forgive me for being such a wimp. Help me to grow up, to stand up until the harvest I have sown spiritually bears fruit. Thank You for not giving up on me! In Jesus' name, Amen.

[An intercessory prayer sung to the melody of “God Bless America”]

God, save America
Land that You bore
She’s rebellious
Unrepentant
Let her live
Through the prayers
Of Your saints

Unto her, God
Show Your mercy
Because of Your Holy love

God, save America
She’s almost dead
God, heal America
And let her live

On October 29, 2001, I woke up at 3:30 AM and remained wide awake. The melody of “God Bless America” began, and then kept repeating on and on in my mind. Not able to return to sleep, I threw off the bed covers and went directly to the computer, discerning that Holy Spirit was prompting me to write the thoughts I was beginning to receive to the ongoing melody. It took me 20-25 minutes to get all the thoughts/words blended together to harmonize with the melody. When I was through, I was completely overwhelmed. I sent it to Bill Somers, host of this Web site, END TIME PROPHETIC VISION, as also prompted by Holy Spirit. Bill posted it.

For the past few days, I've been strongly prompted again by Holy Spirit to post this file. The spiritual climate continues to worsen in America. The praying Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth in America is on the high alert, discerning God's imminent and woeful judgment upon this nation. The Rapture is so imminent, and the fact becomes quite obvious that while the praying Church is still here She is to continue to pray for America. Those backslidden and disobedient Saints who will be left behind will go into deep shock, followed by deep remorse about their own fearful status of having to deal with the Antichrist that they will not be focused on praying for this nation. Even then, it will probably be too late. I urge Lord Jesus' Church to be in prayer not only for this nation, but also for the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth worldwide.

God's Surprise Army

Kathie Walters

God's Surprise Army -Warning Strong Word

Nov 10, 2005

As I was drifting off to sleep a few night ago the Lord spoke to me - "My Surprise Army."

Well I know about God's surprise army-so I didn't think any more about it. Then again last night as I was drifting to sleep, the Lord spoke to me again "My Surprise Army," so I want to tell you about God's "Surprise Army."

God's surprise army isn't very well known as far as personalities are concerned. It isn't on TV every week or anything like that, but let me tell you- it's powerful, it has the element of surprise. I've never been in the US Army but I would think that the element of surprise would be a great asset in a battle.

This army most people wouldn't even notice, you know why? Because they are small-well smaller than most of the army being trained and equipped..

THE FOOLISH THINGY'S

God has chosen the things that are not, to bring to nothing the things that are... and the foolish things to bring to nothing the things that are wise..." ."Why? - so that "no flesh will glory in His Presence" (I Cor 1:27-29).

That's why He loves to use the "are nots" and "foolish things." Then it's obvious that it's Him and not us.

In Liverpool, England (where the Beatles come from) if they can't remember your name they call you "thingy." People will call across the street to you, "Hey thingy..." If you are willing to be a foolish thingy, you can qualify, and God can use you.

He's not looking for your brains or your great ability - He's looking for some vessels, big or small, fat or thin, black or white, willing to yield to the anointing.

A KID PROPHECY

David had been ministering in a church one week-end. We had some sessions with the parents. Did you know you have to train parents how to equip their kids in the Spirit? Most churches haven't done that.

The children had been praying for the sick, prophesying, giving words of knowledge etc. I heard a little guy of about 6 prophesy to a large, tall man. Laying his hand on the man's tummy, because that's all he could reach, he said, "God's going to give you a lot of money, yes a lot of money. Then you can help people, you can give them some."

A couple of people standing near smiled. You could see their thoughts on their faces, "How sweet, what a cute little boy.."

After the little boy finished and went elsewhere to pray for someone else, the pastor drew me aside. "You know that word the little boy had for that man about money? Well a couple of weeks ago there was a well known prophet here and he called that man out and prophesied over him. The prophet said " God is going to pour out financial blessings into your life, because your heart is for the needy. He is going to greatly prosper you." Then he prayed for a spirit of wisdom for the man.

The little boy had said the same thing, he had given the same word, but it was not in religious words and it came out in a different way. He spoke his word in kid language.

TODDLER RAISED UP

Some years ago we were at a church in Oklahoma City. David had been teaching the kids how to move in the power of God. There had been a lot of miracles.

The day we were leaving, one the elders backed his car out of the garage and run over their little toddler.

The baby went blue and stopped breathing.

The man's wife became frantic and rushed to call the emergency. Their other children, (who had been in the meetings said, "Don't worry, Jesus will heal her" and immediately ran and laid hands on the child and prayed for her.

Immediately the toddler sat up and started breathing and the color came back into her face. She was perfectly fine.

WE WONT TELL ANYONE ABOUT THIS!

One time some of the children in a church we were part of in Florida asked me to drop them at the church for the Wednesday evening service. They individually told me that God wanted them to be there. I had made other arrangements for that evening myself, but I agreed to drop them off and pick them up at 9 pm.

When I did pick them up they all came out of the church limping! I knew there was nothing wrong with them in the natural, so I got them all in my van (7 of them including my own two girls, between ages 7-10) and took them to my friend's house.

We sat them all down and said "Right, we are going to ask God what is going on and what He is saying? And why you are all limping."

We waited on the Lord for a little while then one by one they sat up and spoke. "God said, these people (in the church) asked Me to come, but now they don't want me," the first one said.

"God said, the people asked Me to send my Holy Spirit, but when He started to move they didn't like it, so He is going to leave," second child said.

"This church is going to close." Another said.

" In two weeks," said the next one.

Then another child said, "And the pastor is going to leave his wife."

Finally they said, "Can we go outside and play now?"

My friend looked at me and said, " I don't think we should tell people about this." " No" I agreed. Guess what? In three weeks the church had closed, and it was a good sized church. The Pastor took off and left this wife and family.

Children don't use the same terminology as us big people, but I like what my husband, David Walters, says "Children do not have a Junior Holy Spirit, they have the same sized Holy Spirit as anyone else." God has used children in ways that would blow the religious mind sets right out of the water.

PARENTS, PASTORS, WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

Parents, pastors, teacher, let me ask you what are you doing with God's surprise army? Are you equipping them in the power of God, and teaching them how to live in the anointing? Or are you sending them to a back room with coloring books and cute videos?

Little Bible stories aren't going to cut it. If your kids and youth aren't having real adventures with God and aren't experiencing God's presence and supernatural ways, then sooner or later they will look elsewhere for adventure and excitement.

PRAYING FOR THE SOLDIERS - BY THE SPIRIT

During the Gulf war I lived near Charlottesville, Virginia. One evening our secretary, Cathy came to my home with her two children. Chris and Haley. Cathy and I intended to pray and the children were planning on watching a movie. All the children, mine and Cathys, suddenly said "Before we watch a movie, we need to pray for the soldiers in the desert." "OK" we agreed.

We sat around the coffee table, my kids, Faith (13) and Lisa (10), were sitting on the floor. There were a few general prayers said. "Lord, please help the soldiers." Faith began to draw on some paper which was laying on the coffee table.

As the prayers proceeded, I noticed that Faith was still drawing. "Faith, what are you doing? We are supposed to be praying." I was irritated - after all it was the kids who had asked to pray in the first place.

" She's alright, leave her" Cathy said to me. We continued to pray and lift up the soldiers in the desert. Faith was still drawing - I got more irritated. "Faith, please we are supposed to be praying." Again Cathy spoke up, "Leave her she's OK." Then I was a little annoyed with Cathy. "I've nearly finished." Faith said.

After a minute or two, Faith pushed the drawing in front of us . "Here," she said.

MORE AMMUNITION

At that moment a prayer group from Gainesville, Florida, called on the telephone. " God told us to call, and there is someone there who has something from the Lord that we should agree with you in prayer for."

Faith waved her paper. I put the speaker phone on so that we could all hear the callers and they could hear us. As we all looked at Faith's drawing, she described it to those on the other end of the phone line. She had drawn an underground building with various rooms. "This is all under the ground, hidden," she said.

Now this was before they TV news had mentioned anything about underground bunkers. She described several rooms in this bunker and had drawn what was in each room. In one room she had drawn a missile. "Now see this missile, they can't fire it properly - it doesn't hit the targets." She began to pray that indeed it wouldn't. (they find out that missile always went slight off course and never did hit the target properly)

WHAT FAITH SAW IN THE SPIRIT

After describing the underground bunker, she suddenly said. "Wait, I can see something else, it's like a movie. The Florida group was still on the phone, listening. " I see an American plane - it has been hit and it is coming down in the desert, inside the enemy lines." "I see the pilot, he is coming down in a parachute. There are enemy soldiers near, we must pray for him for a place to hide." The children prayed! After a short while, Faith continued. "Now I see a helicopter looking for him, we must pray for them to find him." The children prayed again. "The helicopter doesn't have much fuel, we should pray they come on and find him." Faith and the other children prayed again, so did Cathy and I, and the group on the phone.

"They found his signal, it's OK now?" Faith looked up. The heavy anointing began to lift. The children went to watch their video, and the Gainesville group hung up! Cathy and I had a cup of tea. We wondered about the whole thing- pretty wild we thought. But still, what did we know!

IT WAS REAL

This pilot's testimony was in Readers Digest, in the June issue 1991. His name is Danny Jones.

A MAN'S LIFE IN THE (SPIRITUAL) HANDS OF A CHILD

Another time when we lived in Orlando, a local Christian builder came to our house to visit. Ron always wore striking Christian T shirts.

Some weeks later I was driving in the car with Faith, then about ten years old. She suddenly put her hand on her heart and said, " I have a pain - it's something to do with the man with the T Shirts." She remembered the radical T shirts that Ron wore.

Faith prayed in the Spirit and then the pain she felt, lifted.

A couple of days later, while eating breakfast in the house, the same thing happened. Faith began to pray for Ron again.

The following Saturday while walking across the parking lot at the mall, Faith suddenly stopped and put her hand on her heart. "It's that man again, the one with the T shirts." She prayed in the spirit. "The pain has gone now" she said.

When we got home I decided to call Ron and find out what was going on. Ron answered the phone and so I asked him how he was doing.

I didn't tell him about Faith praying for him.

"Well I had a rough week" he said. "I had built three big houses and took out bridge loans on them - and I have been making those payments because they hadn't sold." He continued, "Last year I had a heart attack and the Doctor told me not to get under any stress, but these houses put a lot of stress on me - and I kept getting pains in my chest, I was scared, but thank God, it seemed to lift today."

"I know the houses will sell quickly."

He received a gift of faith from the Lord - and within the next 10 days all three houses sold.

God used a little girl to save a man's life. I am not saying that God wouldn't have used someone else if Faith hadn't responded. But, He did give her the opportunity to be used in a powerful way. I mean , would you put your life in the hands of a ten year old? I doubt it - because you just see a little girl - but God saw His anointing in that ten year old.

PLEASE, PLEASE WAKE UP

Time to wake up church - we must see what God sees-or we will be wondering why we are not getting all the victories we should. If some of the army is still waiting in the billets instead of being trained, equipped and used, what do you think will happen? We will not see some of the victories God wants.

What do you think would happen if all the adults came to church on Sunday and the pastor gave them all a sketching pad and a little story? They wouldn't get very strong in the power of the Spirit would they? They would hardly become mighty warriors for God. Well why do we do it to the children then?

I promise you the kids and youth are not going to be anointed and full of faith without the anointing and power of God.

I believe God is going to ask us Pastors, parents, teachers, "Did you equip these young saints to fulfill their destiny? Did you empower then in the anointing and show them how to live in My Presence and experience the supernatural life of God?"

Good Seed, Good Crops

www.vision2advance.com

I am sure by now, even some of you non-sports fans have heard about the steroid use and exposure surrounding professional baseball. I don't know if you have noticed, but it seems like as a whole, all the big power hitters have dropped about 20 pounds of muscle this season. Most of those beefy guys are not putting up the homerun numbers that they used to this year. It is sad that it takes exposure and fear of loss to finally have these guys forced into doing the right thing. The fact remains though, that some of them have cast seeds that are, or will be producing a not so productive crop. Even if they have stopped using the steroids, most will see the fruit of their disobedience in the form of heavy fines and suspensions, negative health trends, embarrassment and loss of commercial revenue and letting their teams, fans and families down. The seed was cast and the crops of that seed must be dealt with.

So it is with us who are called by the name above all names, Jesus Christ. Do we not realize that the Lord is always watching us and our deeds whether good or bad, eternally will not go unnoticed. We are always making decisions that can bring life and godly produce or death and some ugly shrubbery growing around us. The Lord will not remove the ugly crops we have produced simply because He wants us to learn to quit casting those seeds of death into the fields of our lives and the lives of others. By the grace of God, He will get us through those times teaching us the obedience we need to not make those mistakes again. We need to begin to Live in His design and plans for us. Only in Him can we plant the seeds which bring forth His life.

Where Do We Start?

John 5:17 "But He answered them, "My Father is working until now and I Myself am working.

First off, we need to understand that we have a heavenly Father that is always at work. Jesus patterned for us a loving son who desired to partner and work with His Father. We are to be fellow laborers in the harvest field for our God

John 5:30 "I can do nothing on My own initiative. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent me.

And so shall it be for us, that we seek the will of our Father and seek His initiatives and not our own. Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice, and they follow me." What voices are we listening to?

Galatians 6:5-7 "For each one shall bear his own load. And let the one who is taught the Word share all good things with him who teaches. DO NOT BE DECEIVED, GOD IS NOT MOCKED; FOR WHATEVER A MAN SOWS, THIS HE WILL ALSO REAP."

What are you sowing today? What crops have you grown, or are growing around you, through the seeds of life or death you have sown? Seed produces after it's own kind.

Planning and Planting with God

The Lord desires that we steward all that he gives us to do. We need to hear from Him His plans and desires for our life. He will work with us to reveal to us the relationships he desires for us to engage in. He will share with us what projects character qualities and projects He wants to produce in us and through us into the lives of others. Without developing our ability to hear His voice and live in truth, we will live without planning and planting the crops which produce the life Father longs to see grow up in all of us.

Partners with God

We are partners with God and He works with us, not for us. We must realize that our lives are not up to our own devises. Life is about truth and consequences. There are blessings of living in His truth, and also there is a heavy price to pay when we do not live by that truth. The law of action and consequences is one of God's most fundamental laws. Our thoughts and ideas have consequences because they lead to attitudes and actions. Those actions can produce life and they can also produce death.

Blame Game

Many of us have gone through some form of the religious repetitions of blaming and rebuking the devil for every thing that goes wrong in our life. I can see the devil now talking to God and saying, "You know I was nowhere near that guy's decision." We need to take responsibility for our lives. Yes we will be tempted, yes there is an adversary, but he does not have access to the Power living inside of us. Then how come we have so many problems? Well first of all, we are in a fallen world with fallen people and hurt people, hurt people. More than likely we also have made a bundle of bad decisions, including not spending enough time with our Lord or His Word. Life happens, so let's look at ourselves first before we play the blame game.

I am not talking about taking responsibility for our thoughts, actions and reactions to what we engage with. We know persecution and many other offenses will come our way because of our obedience to Him, but I am talking about all the ugly crops that are growing around us because of our past decisions, actions and sinfulness. Many times we are repeat offenders of the same decisions and actions that produce a consistent result of spiritual decline. Neurosis is the sickness we have spiritually when we do the same thing over and over again and expect a different result. GOD IS NOT MOCKED, WHATEVER YOU SOW, SO SHALL YOU ALSO REAP.

Brands Or Levels Of Christianity?

I know a man who once asked me to consult him on a few issues in his life. This man had not walked with God most of his adult years and paid a big price for it with losing his wife and nearly losing his children as well. I was encouraged to see him begin to turn towards the things of God. He told me that he had blown it doing it his way and now it was time to do it God's way and I said a big Amen to that. I have faith that this man will eventually live to what he professes, but in the mean time, he is still selecting his way before God's way which will continue to add pain to his journey. He is convinced that my standards are a few notches above his and that he is fine living at his own brand, (or level) of Christianity.

This is the problem of course, because there is only one brand of Christianity and that is to die to self and live unto Him, the Lover of our soul. To live is Christ and to die is gain and that goes both ways. We all know that when we die physically we will be with Him. An even more important thing for those that want to impact others for Christ and His kingdom, is to die to our self and our selfish ways.

Dying Is A Good Thing
John 12:24-25
24I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. 25The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

How can we deny this truth? What is Jesus saying here? He is saying to not love or be attached to the things of this world, including self and self pleasure, but love and attach ourselves to the things of God's kingdom and obedience to Christ. We are ambassadors, and kings and priests in the kingdom of our God. May we always be conscious of the fact that our life truly is not our own and it was bought with a great price for a great purpose. So let's sow seeds that produce life bearing crops and put away childish things and sins that sow seeds of death and poisonous fruit.

Lord, please remind us to sow every breath, decision and action to you. May we be among those that are called by you as good and faithful servants of your kingdom which is now and is to come. We love you and need you every moment of every day. May we hold every thought captive to your will and your way. We give our lives to you this day and every day and ask you to have your way with us. May we all take on the attitude of Esther and many of your servants before us, "If I perish, I perish. We will serve the Lord God Almighty until our work here in this world ends, in Jesus name, Amen.

Gladly The Cross I Bear

Becky McLendon

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me MATTHEW 16:24

Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. MATTHEW 22:36-40

We all know the shape of the cross. It is a vertical piece of wood for the body with a horizontal piece attached to it for the arms.

I see something here! The first and great commandment of Jesus is: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is our VERTICAL love for God. Our BODY, which contains the inner man, and our MIND which is our head, is to be offered, a LIVING sacrifice to God, holy and acceptable. We love the Lord with all our heart, soul and mind, from earth (where the BASE of the cross is seated) to HEAVEN where the LORD is seated. The FEET are nailed to this VERTICAL part of the cross, because they are KEPT in the LOVE OF GOD, not to run to evil. How BEAUTIFUL are the feet of him that brings good news. So we RUN not ahead of God but are restrained by Him until we are SENT.

The HORIZONTAL love is our love for neighbor (show mercy and do justly in the earth). This is the OUTSTRETCHED ARMS, loving men in the love of the LORD. He said with weeping, "O, Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that stonest the prophets, how I would have gathered you as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. BUT YE WOULD NOT." Those are the outstretched arms with which we love men.

Then see what Jesus said. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets! He HUNG on the cross, the vertical being the absolute love for the LORD and the horizontal being the absolute love for His neighbor as Himself. Jesus IS THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS and he HUNG on the cross. And as we bear our cross in the blessedness of His choosing, the law and the prophets hang with us. We are KEPT by them, because THEY are Christ. So we can say we KEEP the law and the prophets if we bear our cross for we are in the Christ Who IS the law and the prophets.

There is a difference between taking up the cross and actually BEARING the cross. Many are CALLED to take up their cross and follow, but few actually BEAR it. Most go for the glory. That’s all they want, but they can’t have the GLORY without the cross! In fact we say I GLORY IN THY CROSS, O LORD. Jesus said you are for me or against me. You are close to me or far from me. We say I love you too much to quit. I love you and I cannot come down until it is finished. We have been chosen to be on the cross with him. On our cross Jesus shares everything: the glory the spit, the hate. Jesus is saying come on up, I will share with you. He is sharing his place with the Father with us and also his place in this world with us. He shares both the vertical and the horizontal of the cross. This cross puts those commandments, all the law and the prophets, in us and they are kept. There are three nails that insure that they are kept. We love from our cross too much to COME DOWN. We remain there until we hear IT IS FINISHED. We may be dung, and the off scouring of all things. But his word is kept. Persecution and hate, is a part of insanity. Insanity first, then hate, persecution. Let the heathen or insanity rage, but a pure language comes from having the mind of Christ. A pure language comes from the cross. Amen.

Blessings and Shalom

Get The House In Order

There are mountains and then there ARE MOUNTAINS! I am calling you forth at this given time to hurdle over the mountain tops and stay securely rooted and grounded in Me. I know who I am, but My people do not know who they are and the enemy comes again and again to steal from My chosen people. When will they learn? How long will it take? For some it will take so long that it will be to late. For others they are going to wise up quickly and they will arise out of the ash heap and serve Me with all of their hearts. This is the greatest time of decision in the church history. This decision will make or break My church. It is time to arise up out of the ash heap and serve the Living God and serve Him only, for I will have no other Gods before Me. I am true and I am faithful and I fail not My peoples. Look up peoples! Look up, for your redemption doth truly draw nigh.

Just as quickly as New Orleans was destroyed, I will devastate this whole earth. Many will be running to and fro. The peoples will be about their normal everyday lives and suddenly out of nowhere I will appear and it will be all over. I have spoken this before and nobody heeded My voice. I am speaking it again and still they will not heed My voice. Destruction must come upon this nation, for they are making themselves a nation without a Father. They are taking Me out of everything and I am wroth with My peoples. Come and take council from Me, saith the Father. Come and take council from Me and learn the truth of what is happening round about you. You are transgressing My laws daily and I will not permit it any longer. You have cast Me asunder. You have brought Me to shame over and over again. Enough is enough and I am tired of this horseplay that you call church and I have come to put an end to it.

Take not council from the ungodly, for they are already lost. Seek council from Me, for I am your counselor. I and only I have the answers to your questions. Why do you forsake Me over and over again? Why not just come to the throne of grace and accept all that My son did for you? WHY? That is My question to you tonight. WHY?

September 4, 2005, 3:45 AM

The first shall be last and the last shall be first, for I will not be mocked. I am tired little one, just as tired as you are and I am moving across this earth and many will die at this given time. There will be a mass slaughter of those who have set in My house and continued to indulge in their sins. Yes, this is the year of Great Grace, but there are those who still refuse to give to Me those things that so easily beset them. They enjoy the lust of the flesh and they continue to go back to the fleshpots of this world. I am tired. So very tired. And I must take action. I have been crying repent for 2000 years now and still they serve Baal. What can I do, I ask you now, what can I do? I must avenge the blood of My Son, for it is crying out from the ground just as Abel's blood cried out for revenge. I must do what I have purposed in My heart to do, just as they continually do what they have purposed in their hearts to do. Shame upon shame has been brought upon Me. Blasphemy upon blasphemy. What a disgrace. What shame. It must be repaid. Does not My word say whatsoever you sow, that you shall also reap? Well, it is harvest time and I am the harvester. Stand back I say, stand back. For the bloodshed will be great, but the number of My church will grow through all this blood shed. No more time to wait. I must act quickly.

November 12, 2004, 12:14 AM

It is time to get the house in order. It is time that everything unclean is eliminated. For the evil in this world is increasing and the evil will overtake the good in some areas. There is much being said about 911 and how terrible it was, but what is coming upon America is far more outreaching than 911. Many will truly run to and fro and many will take their lives at this given time. Many will not be able to distinguish the good from the evil, for their minds will have been darkened by the hardening of their hearts. There will be much tribulation at this given time. Woe upon woe will increase across this great America. Yes, some have repented and that is good, but so many more have not and that is what has brought this judgment upon My Chosen Land America. I had set America apart as a sign and a wonder of My Great Love for My people. But now it is being set apart to demonstrate My Great Wrath for a people that would not turn to the living Father, but chose to serve their own Baals.

America will no longer be America as you all have known her. She will be distorted on all sides and she will lack in every area. But the bright side is, this move of mine will bring a landslide salvation to America. Sodom and Gomorrah have nothing on America. She has reached down into the bowels of hell and pulled every abomination to the surface and she has played the harlot over and over again. NOW! Now, I will have My say so. The saints that have gone before are crying out for revenge on this perverted land, and I am answering their cries.

When will they repent? You just watch, saith the Father! You just watch!

October 30, 2003, 3:46 am

As you wait upon Me in the wee hours of the morning, I will share My heart of discomfort with you. My heart is heavy with the anticipation of what is coming upon My people in America and I am grieved because all of this could have been avoided, if only My people who are called by My name would have fasted and prayed as I commanded them to do, but to no avail. They were too busy with their own little meetings and to wrapped up in their own little worlds to give Me the time that I so desired to fellowship with them.

Truth is being shed abroad in this country and My truth shall be seen throughout the continent of America. Faith will arise within My people and they shall seek My face as never before. They shall see the rise and fall of a Mighty nation. They shall know what it is to sit in the comforts of their homes only to be uprooted and thrown into a state of frenzy as they try to escape My hand of wrath. The pleasures of this world will grow strangely dim and My people will run to the shelter of the Almighty once again and this time they shall stay under the shadow of the Almighty.

Who shall believe My report? Who shall stand upon the Holy Mountain and proclaim My judgments upon an unholy nation? My prophets will believe and My prophets will be sent forth to proclaim My word in Holiness and in My strength and in My power. Fire shall proceed out of their mouths and great signs and wonders will appear all around them. They shall see nation rise against nation and they shall see the Mighty fall, for this is My judgment upon this unholy nation.

Circumstances are about to change around about My Holy Ones! They shall come into the throne room of grace and receive My Grace in great abundance. They shall perceive My call upon their lives and they shall come running into My Holy Arms. For Holiness is where I am at. I am not in the facade of this world religion. I am in My Throne room of Holiness ministering salvation to My true prophets that have set at My feet and listened for My voice and have gone forth prepared and equipped to deliver salvation unto My people. Circumstances are about to change, as I have spoken many years ago. All those who have been warned and did not heed My warnings, will undergo a drastic change in their lives and they will stand amazed at the wonder of what I have done, and in the knowledge that they have missed the very best that I had for their lives. Listen intently to My voice little ones and do not stir from your place of worship until you hear My words of instruction; for this is a time of an unholy war that will ravage all those that did not have discernment of the times.

October 30, 2003, 4:03 am

This is not the time to be running to and fro looking for advice from others. This is the time to stay focused upon My face and to sit at My feet, knowing that I have all that you have need of and that I will supply all that you need to know and understand at this given time in your walk with Me. I am a faithful and a just God and I am taking care of My peoples that are called by My name.

Many false witnesses are running to and fro and speaking thus saith the Lord, and they have not been sent by Me, but they are on their own timetables and they have their own agendas. All will soon see and know that I am a true and loving Father, that only wants what is best for His children.

Time is running out for My people. They must come into the inner circle of My arms and they must sit at My feet for instruction, or they will be swept away by the false and will never understand the true.

Many false prophets have arisen upon the scene and they will shake the nations with what is not of Me, saith the Lord. Discernment is much needed at this given time and great wisdom is demanded of My peoples.

Job knew My voice, but there were times when he wondered just exactly what was going on around about him. Come under the protection of My Holy Mountain and you shall not be deceived nor will you be led astray with every wind and doctrine.

My people, truth must be sent forth and only My prophets can send the truth forth. My prophets, hear what I am saying at this given hour and understand the complete importance of what I am saying. I am requiring a time of fasting and prayer from each of My prophets at this given time. It is as you fast and pray, that you will hear the true voice of the Father and have discernment for this end time display of My hands at work in this unholy nation.

Rejoice before Me, and come bearing gifts of fasting and prayer and see what I will reveal unto your very hearts and eyes. For great visions will I give unto My peoples and great understanding of My Holy Word.

Spots. Do not allow any spots nor blemishes appear upon your most holy garments, but come before Me rejoicing, knowing that I am about to pour out the very core of My heart to My prophets and they will know all things pertaining to My end time word.

The glow of My Holy Wisdom will be evident upon My peoples and all will know that you have set at My feet as Moses did. Have I not been saying that you would see Me face to face? Have I not said that as I was for Moses, so I will be for you? I am becoming the Great I Am, to all those that will pay the price with fasting and prayer. Your heart will reveal yourself to you. Pay no attention to the voices of discord around about you, but stay focused upon My voice and My direction at this given time.

Holiness shall prevail in My chosen vessels at this given time. Knowing what is ahead will be apparent to all that hear My servant's voices. Seek not the wisdom of this world, but stayed focused on the wisdom from above. For it is from above that all wisdom will fall.

What is it that you are looking for? That is the question that I am sending forth for all to hear at this given hour. Is it a reed shaken by the wind? Or is it the truth that will come forth from My Holy Servants? Matthew 11:7. This is the day and this is the hour of Holy Redemption in the land and I am sending forth the harvesters at this given time. Many will find themselves on the road and many will find themselves with a change of authority and position. Be still and know that I am God and be still and hear the still small voice that will lead, guide and direct at this given time in My Kingdom. For I am giving Kingdom authority to My chosen vessels and they shall see truth restored to the House of the Lord. Truth shall prevail and many souls will be brought into the Kingdom, for this is the day of the harvest of lost and dying souls. The harvest truly is ripe unto salvation, and many have been waiting for this day and this hour. Seek not your own ways, but continue to seek My ways saith the Lord, for I am about to do a great and mighty works upon this land and all will soon see the I am in control of the heavens and the earth.

Going Through The Motions

Danny Korakas

Feb 20, 2005
Isaiah 1:12-18
"When you come to appear before Me, who has required this from your hand, to trample My courts? Bring no more futile sacrifices; incense is an abomination to Me. The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of assemblies — I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting. Your New Moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates; they are a trouble to me, I am weary of bearing them. When you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice, rebuke the oppressor; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow. "Come now, and let us reason together," says the Lord, "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

We have just come out of what many would classify as a "Christian" holiday season. Likewise, we will soon move into the appointed time and season of Passover and Pentecost (Shavout) according to God's calendar. Many would argue the point of whether Dec. 25th is the proper time or even the correct season to celebrate the birth of Christ. Many of us know the pagan roots that many of the traditional "Christian" holidays have adopted. – From the Norse god "Yule" (yule-tide) who demanded human sacrifice ... to the pagan reproduction (bunnies and eggs) goddess "Eastar." It is not my intention in this article to debate these points. However, as we move into the Feasts (the Biblical holidays) that have been ordained by the Lord to be kept as an "everlasting ordinance" according to scripture, we have continually missed the blessings that these special times represent. God's timing means everything in the life of an obedient believer. I wrote in our last newsletter that Pentecost was going to be a pivotal time for a divine encounter with the Lord for those who will earnestly seek Him. I also stated that our conscious decision to wait upon the Lord at this set time would propel us into the intimate place of TABERNACLES. It is this SET TIME in God's calendar that I desire to share with you, along with a call for the church to cease from her "GOING THROUGH THE SPIRITUAL MOTIONS."

Many people, whether they celebrate Easter or Passover, tend to get outwardly religious and simply go through the motions. We know the program (resurrection songs) and format (resurrection sermons). Many have convinced themselves that they can somehow make the lukewarmness and sin of the previous year disappear through their religious "motions." This phenomenon has permeated Judaism as much as Christianity. I believe that the Lord is confronting us today on our spiritual motion and where our hearts and thoughts are truly directed. Worship in any form of expression, whether it be singing, lifting of hands, dancing, and even reading the scriptures is a stench to the Lord without a desire to intimately know Him. True and Spirit-led worship of the Lord is not an action, it is a RESPONSE to His Word and presence. In other words, what is the point and purpose of your worship if you do not have deep desire to know the Lord? It would be fair to say that worship without a desire to know the Lord is idolatry.

Jesus tells us in Matthew 5:20, "that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. The Pharisees could quote the first five books of the Bible by memory. They tithed to the tiniest herb, kept the Sabbath and Feasts and meticulously held to the religious system. They had it all together and looked righteous by their outward appearance. However, Jesus clearly reveals that they will not inherit the kingdom of God because they did not know Him intimately. The scribes and Pharisees stood before Herod and explained before him that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem as it was unfolding before their very eyes. Yet, the same thing is happening today. We are reeling toward the Messiah's return and the church's greatest hour to arise and shine, but so many are spiritually blind to what is unfolding before our very eyes. The reason is obvious – a lack of intimate desire for a love relationship with our Bridegroom and one another as His bride.

As we look back upon history, we see that "going through motions" was one of the greatest areas of SIN that the Lord addressed through His prophets. As we read earlier in Isaiah, the Lord literally HATED the sin of going through the motions or outward forms of religiosity. Many have gathered together (both Jew and Christian) to celebrate God's appointed times with much in the way of outward appearance. We have set up and performed our musicals and cantatas with ornate costumes. We have set up outdoor nativity scenes, which do not accurately represent something as important as the birth of Christ (The wise men or magi did not witness the birth in the manger.) We will argue and dispute over the clear Biblical gifts of tongues and prophecy, but have no problem going through the motions of the false traditions and teachings of our Savior's birth. We will self-righteously split churches over ridiculous doctrinal points, but we have no problem packing the church on Easter Sunday as families dress up their children in their Sunday best while their coat pockets are stuffed with Babylonian fertility objects and symbols (eggs and bunnies). Again, the church is drawn by the enemy into the comfort of going "through the motions" at the expense of truth.

Have you ever wondered why the pagan holidays are geared so strongly toward children? Children are bought hook, line and sinker with the ignorance of their parent's lack of Biblical understanding along with the lure of candy and material gifts. This strategy is designed by the devil to focus a young mind upon the desires that satisfy the flesh rather than the desires of God for their spiritual life and growth that are contained in the Biblical feasts.

We have to be honest and realize that much of the church is just going through RELIGIOUS motions year after year. The Biblical Feasts and our time of corporate fellowship together has tremendous and life changing significance if approached as "RARE" and precious rather than "common" and taken for granted. The Lord is reviving the Words of Isaiah for our generation at this appointed time in history.

"But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Barak to put a stumbling block before the children…" (Revelation 2:14)

The Lord found the holidays and even the feasts of the people to be an abomination and disgusting because the people gathered under the guise of His name for the purpose of ritual, and religious activity void of heart felt relationship. All of the prayers, lifting of hands, and religious jargon were a mask over the true condition of their hearts. The same holds true for today. Most show up to tithe (purchase their fire insurance policy) and go through the religious motions while failing to even acknowledge the Lord throughout the rest of the week. Religious tithing and attendance (the religious institutions gauge of spiritual maturity) without intimate relationship with the Lord is disgusting in His sight and a stench to His nostrils. Numbers beyond measure are preaching the Word of God behind the cloak of flowing robes and outward appearance to cover their sexual lusts and desires. The absolute truth is that many men within the church lift the same hands to the Lord that commit pornographic masturbation and adultery. (Yes, masturbation is fornication and adultery according to scripture and is the barometer of an undisciplined and corrupted covenant life – both marital and relational with God). From the mouth sing praises to our Lord and a matter of hours later, the vomit of gossip, profanity, and jealousy spews forth from the same mouth. How can we continue without a clear conscience to go through the motions with such stains upon our garments and soil upon our hands?

"When you spread out hands, I will hide My eyes from you." (Isaiah 1:15)

Would the Lord have something to say to us today? Surely, the day is at hand when the fire of God will come as Pentecost approaches. Beloved, one of the greatest things we lack as the church today is a CLEAR CONSCIENCE. A time of tremendous anointing is coming to the church to empower and fulfill the Tabernacle massage that is prophetically being declared. However, a season of EXPOSURE through fire is upon us. In the past, when God asked Adam and the church, "Where are you spiritually? " — we found a "fig leaf" to hide behind to give an outward appearance that everything was in order. Beloved, the Lord is taking away the fig leaves and any other means we have used in the past to hide our sinful and lukewarm nature as the church.

Isaiah prophesied in a day of spiritual apostasy very similar to what is transpiring today. At this time in history, Israel had abandoned her covenant that she made to the Lord through her forefathers. Instead, they were embracing the same idolatry and immorality that the world around them offered. The pagan ritual of child sacrifice was not only "socially" acceptable, but was even practiced by some of the "children of Israel." In Kings 16:3, we read that the leader of Israel made his own son "pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had cast out from before the children of Israel." I am convinced that the greatest outpourings of God's blessing and anointing is falling upon His people. At the same time, many are sensing an eminent judgment upon our blood-soaked land.

"Alas, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity; a brood of evildoers, children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the Lord. They have provoked to anger the Holy One of Israel. They have turned backward." (Isaiah 1:4)

The Lord had to judge the nation of Israel because the entire culture and majority of the people had rebelled against God to do evil in His sight. The Lord speaks in Isaiah 1:5, "Why should you be stricken again? You will revolt more and more. The whole head is sick." It is hard to imagine an entire country "going through the motion" of life oblivious to its own wickedness. The United States with its precious gift of freedom has become the leading economic power in pornography, gambling (Yes, the lottery is gambling and a sinful use of God's provision and a lack of faith in His Word to meet your daily needs.), premarital sex, co-habitation lifestyle, homosexuality, lustful entertainment, demonic music, divorce, teen suicide, teen pregnancy, materialism and the list seems endless.

Like Israel, the whole "head of our nation is sick." Governments, on all civic levels, are led by a majority who proclaim to be Christian but live a life and hold to beliefs that are contrary to God's Word. The "child sacrifice" of abortion today is a crime against God's created order. Even the lowest animals of the earth do not stoop so low as to murder their own babies. The immorality in Israel was so bad at this time that Isaiah refers to the nation as "Sodom and Gomorrah." Of course, we know that God had to completely destroy these cities years before Isaiah because of their immoral practices and lifestyle. Are we on the same course today?

"Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God. You people of Gomorrah: "To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?" says the Lord. "I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed cattle. I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs or goats. When you come before Me, who has required this of your hand, to trample My courts? Bring no more futile sacrifices; incense is an abomination to Me. The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of the assemblies – I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting. Your New Moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates." (Isaiah 10-14)

The sin and stain of Sodom and Gomorrah's destruction was not only homosexuality, but the failure of the "worshipers" to desire knowing God. The "believers" in Sodom and Gomorrah were simply going through the motions while the cities around them reeked with gross immorality and sin. I believe an even greater sin is the fact that judgment may have been diverted if the so-called worshipers in these cities had sought after the Lord and interceded in one accord for His presence to manifest in their land. We never read of a prophet arising and being willing to speak the TRUTH in these cities as well.

I find it tremendously alarming that the spiritual and national conditions in Isaiah's day are very similar to the conditions in many of the nations in which these newsletters are received. We have plenty of church (Temple) pilgrimages every Saturday or Sunday. The church and the nations of the earth are eaten up with idolatry: Our coins are stamped with "In God We Trust." Which god is this nation truly trusting and reflecting? We also pledge "one nation under 'god'." What 'god' are we pledging our allegiance to? Do the judicial courts know the God that is in the Bible they are requiring others to take an oath? What hypocrisy! The nations have turned their back on God and the outward religious show that they represent is hypocrisy and simply "going through the motions."

"How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers. Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water. Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the cause of the widow come before them. (Isaiah 1:21-23)

It is easy to take this verse and apply it to most cities and nations of the world today. However, it applies just as aptly to the church in most cities and nations. We have become a harlot with the desires and ways of the world. (The world has influenced and corrupted the church more than the church has influenced and changed the world). We are stained and have become impure by our lust for money and the manipulating of the precious saints for their hard earned money. Our princes (leaders) have followed after the reward and praise of men rather than equipping the saints and desiring a greater anointing and work for others. They are rebellious and companions of thieves in that they have desired to be served rather than serve. Submission is very simple to define and the church has corrupted its true and powerful purpose. To submit to one another in the fear of the Lord is to SUB or to "come under" another's MISSION. Sadly, most leaders today want the entire congregation to embrace their vision rather than submitting to their call and taking an interest in the VISION that the Lord has given to those whom they have been called to SERVE.

"Come now, and let us reason together, says the Lord, "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool." (Isaiah 1:18)

I cannot help but to be encouraged and filled with hope upon reading this promise. The season of FIRE is intensifying and exposing the heart condition of humanity and the church. Embracing rather than resisting the refiners fire will be essential for the church to witness the promises of Isaiah 1:18. It is time that prophetic ministry within the church take the time to self-evaluate our propensity for "going through the motions" and our love of comfort. If you are genuinely called to the function of a prophet or assume the title of a "prophetic" ministry, you will be required in the days ahead to expose "darkness and tare" as much as "building-up and mending." Jesus is the Spirit of prophecy and our model for prophetic ministry. He loved with an everlasting love, but confronted sin and spiritual hypocrisy with TRUTH. Sadly, I fail to see this in much of today's prophetic voice. Jesus was approachable and always made time for those who diligently sought after Him. Today's prophetic voice is becoming more and more unapproachable in their selective camps. I recently read on a large and well known prophetic site that the "rest of this prophetic word" that I began to read could be finished by purchasing the tape for $29.95. Beloved, the Lord will honor and bless ministries through resources such as books, teaching tapes, etc. But, when we sell what we advertise as being "prophetic" or what is attached to the Lord's Word and voice, we have trampled upon the blood and grace that was poured out upon humanity FREELY.

Certainly, the prophetic movement is "going through the motions" and void in the fear of the Lord if we can "sell" what is truly a Word from God. The true prophetic voice is one that speaks what they hear their Father speak and does what they see their Father do. Prophet, are you speaking what the Father is saying? Seer, are you doing what you see the Father doing?

Lord, may your Word come to pass that your servant spoke so many years ago. May we be the church that turns from the sin of simply going through the motions and see ourselves for whom we truly are. May we look into the mirror of your perfect law of liberty and be found as white as snow and as white as wool."

An Open Door Into His Presence
Carole Korakas

Feb 26, 2005
Revelation 4

1. After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."

AFTER THESE THINGS
"After these things" simply tells us that this is the next vision given to John.

LOOKED
John said, "I looked." He made a conscious effort to see. He turned his eyes, his mind, and his attention aside and purposed to gain understanding.

We also must turn our eyes, mind and attention aside ... away from distractions and concerns.

OPEN DOOR

As a result of John turning aside to look, he saw a door standing open in heaven. A door is an opening for the purpose of entering or leaving. An open door indicates that a passage or entrance is opened to another place.

The door into the Lord's presence is opened to us. He's also opened a spiritual door to each of us. We must ask ourselves ...

- What is the door He has placed before you?

- Does your door involve an opportunity or change?

- Is He calling you to transition to from one place to another?

- Is He calling you to step through an open door toward Him ... and consequently away from where you are now?

VOICE ... LIKE A TRUMPET
John heard a voice – like a trumpet – speaking. The sound of a trumpet is unmistakable and distinct. It's not quiet; it pierces the air. I've heard for so long that God speaks in a still, small voice. I now believe this is a deception of the enemy to make us believe that God's voice is not easily heard. However, just the opposite is true. We who belong to Him hear His voice. However, we must turn our ears, mind, heart and attention to listen.

COME UP HERE
An invitation was extended to John to, "Come up here." That invitation is also extended to us. His voice is like a trumpet because He wants us to hear His invitation. He is beaconing us to accept that invitation and go through the door.

I WILL SHOW YOU
As a result of John coming up, the One speaking told him, "I will show you things." We also have the same promise given to us. Amos 3:7 says, "Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless he reveals His secret to His servants the prophets." God does nothing without first revealing it to His servants. We don't have to walk in the office of a prophet for God to show us things. If we have a tender heart, an open mind, and a listening ear, He will show us things.

2. Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne.

IN THE SPIRIT
John was in the spirit. We must realize that we are tri-part beings – body, mind and spirit. I've heard it said that we are spiritual beings having a human experience. Our physical/human body lasts but for a short time, but our spirit is created to live for eternity. Just as we must exercise and nourish our physical body, so must we exercise and nourish our spiritual body (spirit).

THRONE
John saw a throne in heaven. Reference to the throne occurs 13 times in this chapter alone. A throne is an elevated seat occupied by someone in authority. This throne shows us the exalted nature of God. He is exalted above all else ... because He alone is worthy to receive glory and honor and power. It also shows His kingship. He is king over all that He has created. Just as He reigns and rules from on high, He desires to reign and rule in us — as we give Him the throne of our heart.

3. And He who sat there was like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald.

JASPER
The One on the throne was described as a jasper stone. These stones must be magnificent. In Revelation 21:11, a jasper stone is referred to as "clear as crystal." It may very well be a diamond, which refracts light and shows a beautiful rainbow of colors. A diamond is also a symbol of engagement ... and reminds us that we are the Bride of Christ and are to reflect His light to the world.

SARDIUS
The One on the throne was also described as a Sardius stone. Sardius is thought to be a bright red ruby stone named for the city near which it was found. Red reminds us of Jesus’ shed blood ... and ultimately of His great love for us.

RAINBOW
There was a rainbow around the throne. The rainbow symbolizes God's covenant with us. In Genesis 9:13, He says, "I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth." Again in Ezekiel 1:28, we read, "Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him."

A rainbow is formed when light reflects and refracts off of rain. We read in Psalm 72:6, "He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass; as showers that water the earth."

Jesus is the light of the world (see John 8:12 and 9:5). Holy Spirit is referred to as living water (see John 4:10-11 and 7:38). Their activity together give color and depth ... like a rainbow.

This rainbow encircled the throne. A circle has no end ... neither does the covenant He has established with us through Jesus' blood (see Hebrews 13:20). It's an everlasting covenant.

EMERALD
The rainbow was described to be like an emerald. An emerald is a brilliant green color. This color is symbolic of new life ... which we have through the Son. This emerald color also indicates that the rainbow around the throne was brilliant — not muted and pale.

4. Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes; and they had crowns of gold on their heads.

ELDERS
God has chosen to give these twenty-four – positions (elder), places of authority (thrones), and garments (gold crowns and white robes) of honor. These twenty-four elders must have served Him well. Jesus said, "My Father will honor the one who serves me" (see John 12:26).

Just as He has given these elders positions, places and garments of honor, He has/will do for us.

- We read of our position in Romans 8:17: We are joint heirs with Christ.

- We read of our spiritual places of authority in Revelation 1:6: He has made us to be "kings and priests to His God."

- We read of the garments we will receive in Revelation 3:5: "He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments."

5. And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices. Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

LIGHTENING AND THUNDER
Lightening and thunder proceeded from the throne. While a flash of lightening is an unharnessed bolt of power, the rumbling of thunder signals a change in atmospheric conditions. We can see that lightening represents power and thunder represents change. Lightening always precipitates thunder. This is such a beautiful natural illustration of a spiritual principle. Demonstrations of His power (lightening) always precede change (thunder).

The thunder also speaks of the Lord's voice. We read in Psalm 18:13 that, "The Lord thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded." We also read in Psalm 29:3-4, "The voice of the Lord is over the waters; The God of glory thunders; The Lord is over many waters. The voice of the Lord is powerful; The voice of the Lord is full of majesty." In many instances in Scripture, the Lords voice is associated with thunder.

VOICES

It's important to note that there were also audible voices proceeding from the throne. The ways in which God chooses to speak are many. In Scripture, we read of the Lord speaking from a burning bush, from a cloud of smoke, through a donkey, through His servants, through dreams and visions, and in an audible voice. We must be sensitive to hear His voice — through whatever means He chooses to speak to us.

SEVEN LAMPS

We also read that there were seven lamps before the throne. We read in Revelation 1:20 that "the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches." The seven churches to whom this was written were actual churches in Asia Minor. Although these were not the only churches in existence at this time, they represent the types of churches that exist throughout time.

SEVEN SPIRITS OF GOD

The seven spirits of God represent the seven functions of Holy Spirit. We read in Isaiah 11:2, "The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him, The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, The Spirit of counsel and might, The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord." In this verse, we learn the seven functions of Holy Spirit.

1. Spirit of the Lord

2. Spirit of wisdom

3. Spirit of understanding

4. Spirit of counsel

5. Spirit of might

6. Spirit of knowledge

7. Spirit of the fear of the Lord

Apart from Holy Spirit, we will not have this activity in our lives. We must walk in the Spirit if we desire to have these evidenced in our lives.

6. Before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back.

SEA OF GLASS

There was a sea of glass before the throne. God tells Abraham in Genesis 22:17-18, "... I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your descendants shall possess the gate of their enemies. In your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

This promise is again mentioned in Genesis 32:12 as Jacob reminds God of His promise to Abraham, "For You said, 'I will surely treat you well, and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.'"

God promised that Abrahams descendants would be as numerous as the sand of the sea. Anyone who's been to a beach can picture the sand. The grains of sand are innumerable. They are as a sea made of something other than water.

This verse of Scripture specifically mentions a sea of glass. Glass has some interesting characteristics in that it can be formed into a variety of colors, thicknesses, textures, and forms. It can also be used for a variety of functions - housewares, windows, eye-glasses. Perhaps one of the most unique characteristics of glass is the fact that it is made of sand that has been heated to a very high temperature.

The sand represents the spiritual descendants of Abraham. The sea of glass is those spiritual descendants who have been through the fire. Only when we have been through the fire will the dross be burned away ... and the impurities consumed.

Nobody willingly enters into a fire. Common sense tells us that a fire is not ... and will be painful. Yet, we are commended to "count it all joy" when we enter into various trials. We are better able to "count it all joy" when we look toward the author and finisher of our faith rather than the process of the fire.

Each of our fires will be different ... and there will more than likely be more than one at various times. It may be regarding finances, health, relationships, job, ministry or laying down good things that we desire to hold onto (and that are consequently a hindrance to His best).

Only after we've been through His fire will we have a pure heart – and a clear conscience. We can count it all joy that in the end we will be more like Him.

LIKE CRYSTAL
The sea of glass was described to be like crystal. 1 Corinthians 4:5 "Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God."

Part of attaining a clear conscience is allowing God to reveal our true selves to us. It's being willing to have every part of ourselves exposed — as we really are. We must allow Him to shine His light on the dark recesses in our heart. We must resist tucking the ugly stuff away — out of sight of others and ourselves — hoping to keep them hidden. He wants to expose them whether they be issues relating to unhealed hurts, rebellion, anger, jealousy, lust or rejection. He desires to wipe away any stains so that His light can shine brightly. He desires that we have a pure heart and conscience ... clear as crystal.

FOUR LIVING CREATURES
I used the read this description of the four living creatures and be repulsed. Imagine, a creature covered with eyes! Now, however, I see these creatures as a reflection of the awesomeness of God. These eyes reflect the very nature of God. He sees all things!!! He is both omniscient and omnipresent.

7. The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf (ox), the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

LION
A lion is known for strength. Jesus was also known as the Lion of Judah (see Revelation 5:5).

OX
An ox is surefooted beast who diligently serves his master. Jesus came as a servant to all (see Mark 9:35).

MAN
Man is created in the image of God. As such, we are set apart from other creations by our intelligence and ability to reason. Jesus was a perfect, sinless man. He is our High Priest who can empathize with our weaknesses (see Hebrews 4:15).

EAGLE
An eagle is known for being able to soar at great heights and also for their sight. As a result of this, the eagle has come to be symbolic of prophetic ministry. The prophetic can be summed up as hearing and communicating the heart of God. Jesus was our example of prophetic ministry ... and is the spirit of prophecy. He only spoke what He heard from His Father.

8. The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying: "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Who was and is and is to come!"

SIX WINGS
This is similar to the description of the six-winged creatures that we read of in Isaiah 6:2: "with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew."

WORSHIP

These creatures continually say, "Holy, holy, holy." In essence, they are worshiping God by responding to His holiness. They also respond to His omnipotence and supremacy with "Lord God Almighty" and to His eternal nature with "who was, and is, and is to come."

These creatures demonstrate what true worship is — our response to who God is. We must have an intimate relationship with Him and know Him so that we can respond to Him through worship. Worship is about God. It's not about music or dance or art — although it is most often expressed through these means. It's about pouring out to Him. It's about responding to Him.

9. Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ...

The worship of the living creatures has an effect that we read of in the next verse.

10. ...the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying: ...

The elders demonstrated true humility. They fall down, get beneath Him, and consequently place Him above themselves. Worship is demonstrated as they lay their crowns down. In essence, they are giving everything back to Him and not receiving any credit. They recognize His intervention on our behalf in all things. All good things truly come from Him and are to be given back to Him.

11. "You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; For You created all things, And by Your will they exist and were created."

The elders responded to God through their worship. They responded to who He was (Lord), to what He'd done (created), and to what He was doing (by His will they exist). Likewise, we are to respond to Him through worship — to who He is and what He's done. Worship is more than a thought; it is demonstrated through our action.

The elders about the throne knew God as their Creator. As a result, that's what poured forth. They responded to who He was — to who they knew Him to be based on an intimate relationship.

What we do on a Sunday morning corporately needs to be a reflection of what we do all week long in private. Our daily worship means everything to Him. That's what blesses the Lord. When we really love Him because we know who He is, we'll worship Him. Remember, he's looking for those who will worship Him in Spirit and in Truth. He's not looking for pastors, prophets, teachers, evangelists, apostles, elders or leaders. He's looking for worshipers.

- How do you know God?

- Who is He to you?

CONCLUSION

In the throne room of heaven, we see Father, Son, and Holy Spirit present. Father is on the throne, the Son is reflected in the four living creatures, and the Holy Spirit is revealed as the seven spirits. We also see reminders of His inheritance — us — represented in the sea of glass.

The door into their presence is open to us. We read in Revelation 4:1 that the door is open. I believe that this door is not large and grandiose, but very small. We read in Matthew 7:13-14 that we are to "enter by the narrow gate ... which leads to life." When we take the broad way, we have room to take a lot of baggage with us — including our qualifications, unhealed hurts, achievements, ideals, pristine reputations, plans, gifts, talents, etc. When we come to the narrow, small gate with absolutely nothing to give but a pure heart, even our posture is low ... and demonstrates our humility — which He loves. Only then will we be able to enter through the door.

Through this chapter, Jesus is saying to us, "Come in. Come through the door. It has been opened for you. I am the door. Come through me and enter into our presence. We desire you. We desire your company. Come to us. Know us intimately. We want to reveal ourselves to you. Respond to us. Worship us. Join the choirs of heaven as they sing to us. We long for your fellowship. We long for you. Come. The door is open to you."

Glory To The Righteous One

Judith Grobelny

(2005)
Isaiah 24 was the chapter given in the final days of 2004.
Though this scripture speaks of terrible events in nature these will cause us to look for the One who comes in the clouds and whose glory will cover the earth.
The strong sense is of drastic separation between darkness and light and of the Lord Himself beginning to take the reins as never before, for truly the government is upon His shoulders.
Over and over I heard "He comes riding in the clouds!"
Luke 21:27
At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

Isaiah 24:16
From the ends of the earth we hear singing: "Glory to the Righteous One".
There is a call for us to respond to His coming, to pray, proclaim, sing, prophecy this scripture.

Crossing the line
Isaiah 22:6 Cross over to Tarshish, wail you people of the island.
Isaiah 60:9 In the lead are the ships of Tarshish, bringing your sons from afar, with their silver and gold, to the honour of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for He has endowed you with splendour.
A line will be crossed as we enter the New Year and the change will be instant. Look for the line and look for the change. There will be opposition and distractions, but keep looking for the line.

Positioning before the Lord
"But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first" (Matt.19:30)
This is a time to humble ourselves under His mighty hand. There has been much changing of position as many 'walked through the door in 2004' and this will continue. The Lord spoke of what our attitude should be in such a time through Luke 14.
Luke 14:10 (Amp)
But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when your host comes in he may say to you, Friend go up higher! Then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit (at table) with you.
Luke 14:11 (Amp)
For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled (ranked below others who are honoured or rewarded) and he who humbles himself (keeps a modest opinion of himself and behaves accordingly) will be exalted (elevated in rank).
As the Lord takes up the reins, and begins to exercise His authority as never before, we need to know how to position ourselves before Him rather than before men.

He continued on in Luke 14, and there was a highlighting of the need for us to calculate the cost of what we are being called to in this time, to ensure that we are prepared and able to finish what which He is calling us to do.

THIS IS THE TIME WHEN HE IS TAKING CHARGE. HE IS ABLE; HE HAS PROVED HIMSELF

ABLE AND FAITHFUL. HE IS NOW PREPARING TO RULE AND REIGN AND LOOKING FOR THOSE WHO WILL ALLOW HIM TO DO SO.

Mantles released in 2004 will become visible in 2005.

Revelation 10:11 “You must prophecy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings.”

I saw a fresh release in the prophetic call for many in this season. There were fresh mantles released during 2004, and they will become visible in 2005. The emphasis was on the prophetic being the speaking forth for the Lord, rather than something paraded before men, and it would come from seeking the counsel of the Lord.
I felt there would be a much clearer distinction between the operation of the gift of prophecy as exercised in the Body of Christ, and the prophetic gifting and mantle that is the calling of God.
Many voices will be stilled or fall away, but others will increase in strength and some will even THUNDER in this time. They will be HEARD regardless of whether they are listened to or not!
At one point I saw prophetic words caught up and rumble and roll as thunder does. They could not be contained, but were flung into and around a nation.

Look for the coming King and His Kingdom

There is a crumbling around us of what man has established, but it is unwise to focus on this. Strength and encouragement will come as we look towards the One who is coming in the clouds.
Luke 21:27*At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.*
Luke 21:28 When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.

VISION of deep thick darkness; but an increasingly bright orange glow over and above the darkness that was pressing it down.

I saw the deep darkness that is over the earth but ABOVE this, the glorious brightness and light of the One who ‘so loved the world, that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life’.
It will become hard to breathe and survive in the midst of such darkness, but Isaiah 60:1 will be our call: Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.
Isaiah 60:4 Life up your eyes and look about you….
We will need to constantly lift our eyes to heaven.
Isaiah 66:1&2 This is what the Lord says; “ Heaven is my throne and earth is my footstool. Where is the house you will build for me? Where will my resting place be? Has not my hand made all these things, and so they came into being?” Declares the Lord.
As we entered the New Year I saw the Lord seated on his throne and he was clothed in pure light.

VISION of a forest fire

For days prior to the end of the year I could see an orange glow. As it came closer it was a great fire, a raging fire, like a forest fire before which everything flees for safety. The fire has begun to burn, and the glow of the fire is like the glow of His Glory. The scripture that always comes to me at such a sight is in Ezekiel 20:45-48

The word of the Lord came to me: “Son of man set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the southland. Say to the southern forest: ‘Hear the word of the Lord. This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am about to set fire to you, and it will consume all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it. Everyone will see that I the Lord have kindled it; it will not be quenched.'"

This is a word that has been given many times to be prayed over the South and North Islands of New Zealand. The sense is that as the Lord begins to release His fire, there will be no man who can take the glory for what comes; neither will the fire be quenched by man.

Following this I was given Habakkuk 1:5
Look at the nations and watch – and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told.

Disarray In The Nations
I see a bombardment of the nations. I see that there is disarray for the enemy knows his time is fast running out. I see explosions, like a firework display, over the nations as the battle increases in the heavenly realms as well as on the earth.

Picture of Survivors floating in the water like in the movie "Titanic". Just as with that ship, there have been many warnings that have been ignored, and there will be disasters. But, even so, there will be survivors – some because they have prayed, and many others because they have been prayed for!

Thick Darkness and Deep Silence seems to float before me and yet I do not feel afraid or dismayed. It looks like thick grey fog over the sea – not sure what this means, but I think of "famine of the Word".

Healing Anointing
I felt the healing anointing has been freshly released in the earth. Just as Jesus only did what He saw His Father doing, so it will be that this anointing will be released by the power and discretion of HIS Holy Spirit.

The over-riding sense on entering this New Year is of the Sovereignty of our Mighty God, and I have a great joy and excitement in my spirit before Him. Truly it is a joy to sing from here at the ends of the earth "Glory to the Righteous One".

Great Wealth - Great Warning
Pat King

GREAT WEALTH

Open heavens in the area of material provision are going to be experienced by many in the Kingdom who have prepared their hearts in the presence of the Lord. The Lord's eyes are moving to and fro to search out those whose hearts are completely His. He will show Himself strong on their behalf. The resource and provision will be released in copious measures to many who will follow the leading of the Spirit in areas of helping the poor, the outcast, the destitute, the widows and orphans.

A TRUE GOSPEL MODEL

Particular individuals anointed by God will carry fresh apostolic vision and burdens in the area of equipping, outreach and missions will lead the Body with a true gospel model. They will preach to the poor, heal the sick, and work the miraculous in order to reach the needs of the broken and bring the gospel to the nations. The Lord will be honoring their love and faith by releasing increased empowerment, favor and resource.

FINANCES UNEXPECTED

Many Christians will come into unexpected financial blessing and increase within this next season. The Lord will test their hearts and will be watching for those who are trustworthy stewards of Kingdom provision. Those who are found to carry a single Kingdom focus will be rewarded with a second wave of blessing which will far exceed the first. Churches and Christian organizations who are willing to seek the Lord afresh for His heart for the lost in this season, will come into a new level of fulfillment in the area of intimacy with the Lord which will be followed by increased resource. Deep life prunings will take place during these seeking periods, which will prepare the church and individuals for greater fruitfulness and supernatural providence. Many leaders will find themselves laying down their current ministries and church structures in order to wait on the Lord. They will be very aware of the fact that, "unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it."

APOSTOLIC MINISTRY, PERSECUTIONS AND VISITATIONS

The apostolic ministry in the church is going to move along a path of maturation and testings. The maturing of the apostolic anointing in the Body will produce new levels of unity and oneness in the corporate Body. Persecutions as well as visitations of the Lord's presence in power will strengthen this process and produce a true apostolic movement exhibiting Kingdom humility, power, and purity. Great grace, great power and great provision will earmark the maturing of the apostolic foundations in the church. "And with great power the apostles were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all. For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of land or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds of the sales, and lay them at the apostles feet, and they, would be distributed to each, as any had need." Acts 4:33-35)

BUT OTHER SUPPOSED APOSTLES WILL LUST FOR POWER

False apostles will also surface during this time. These will be individuals who lust after power and resources and who carry personal agendas. They will witness the abundance of favor on the true apostolic river and will desire to reap the rewards without paying the price. The true apostolic gift will be earmarked by the evidence of a crucified life which will manifest authentic Kingdom resurrection power.

GREAT WARNING

The love of money is clearly defined in the scriptures as being "the root of all evil". It is also the force that strengthens the "Babylonian system", through which all the world's buying and selling is based. (see Revelation 18)In this coming season of provisional outpouring, impure motives will surface in many. Love for the world and love for money and selfish gain will result in many choosing the path of Babylon rather than the Kingdom. The end result of choosing the Babylonian journey is destruction , great loss and sorrow, whereas "the blessing of the Lord maketh rich and adds no sorrow to it."

IMPURE MOTIVES WILL CAUSE SOME TO PERISH

It is imperative that believers watch over their hearts with all diligence for from the heart spring the issues of life. Deception and unclean motives in the area of finance and provision will cause individuals to perish and their silver with them. (See Acts 8:18-23; also: the examples of Judas in Matthew 26:14 - 16; 27:3-5 and Ananias and Sapphira in Acts 5:1-11). This is a severe warning. "Every man thinks he is right in his own heart but the Lord weighs the heart." The Lord WILL be weighing the motives of His people and many will be found wanting in the balance.

A SPECIFIC WARNING TO PASTORS, LEADERS, AND ITINERANT MINISTERS

The Lord is looking to abundantly bless those whose hearts are completely His, with new levels of anointing, empowerment, gifting, favor and resource. MANY leaders and Kingdom spokesmen will experience these new levels of blessing. This will result in an increased harvest of souls and Kingdom advancement.The enemy is lurking however, and will attempt to move leaders out of faith and trust and into worldly and carnal strategies for Kingdom advancement.

THREE VISIONS . . THE GLITTERING SNAKE

Three visions were given regarding this on June 29, 2001:

1. The Glittering Snake - in a vision, a snake was seen that was fully studded with precious gems. It was glittering and shimmering with the reflection of the gems and could barely be seen for what it truly was due to the arrayment. The glittering effect was influencing and enticing leaders. When the leaders in the vision were captured by delight in the extravagance of the gems, they moved towards the serpent to touch and to handle the gems. As they did, the snake began to wrap itself around the body of the individual. The victim, representing leaders, did not actually physically die in the vision but in fact wore the gem-clad snake as a garment. They were not really aware of the serpent as it was well hidden in the massive extravagance of the jewels and glitter. They enjoyed being arrayed in the glitter but did not realize the source. Interpretation -- this vision sounds a warning to the Body (especially leaders) that demon powers will attempt to appeal to the lust of man's flesh and soulish desires in this next season. This appeal will specifically target the heart in areas of personal love for money and provision. If given in to--the temptation will wrap leaders in demonic, worldly bondage and thus cause leaders to misrepresent Christ and His Kingdom. Worldly and demonic glitter will manifest rather than the nature of Christ. "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is destruction."

THE HOUNDS

2. The Hounds - demonic hound dogs were seen in vision, sniffing out the "ground of blessing". When they came to a place where they could smell a pool of blessing beneath the earth, they began to furiously dig through the soil. When they hit the level where the blessings were (seen in the vision as golden bones), they laid hold of them with a firm grip in their teeth and jaws and ran away with their treasure. Interpretation: the hounds represented demonic spirits who were looking to take for themselves that which they did not prepare or plant. The vision gave a sense of warning concerning leaders to be watchful for temptations to take from another's gifting or resource pool. The area of motives in ministry relationships needs to be carefully watched over.

LEECHES

3. The Leeches -- black leeches were seen sucking on to a healthy body. Interpretation: The black leeches represented individuals with impure motives who wanted to take (not just receive but TAKE) from gifted members of the Body to feed themselves. This could indicate areas of anointing, favor, reputation, and resource.

THE PLACE OF PROTECTION

Not even one individual needs to fall into the pre-mentioned traps and temptations. It is the Father's desire to freely give His children all things and in this coming season to bring about a flow of blessing to and through His people such as history has never known. Every child of God is a candidate to receive the manifestation of this outpouring. The Father wants to confirm His covenant and bless His people in order to make them a blessing (see Genesis 12:1-3 and Deuteronomy 8:18)The following are some ways that you can prepare to stand in the midst of the coming outpouring of His kindness: 1. Spend time in His Presence; seek His face. 2. Submit yourself completely to the Lord and His Word. 3. Remain in love and faith. 4. Clothe yourself in humility. 5. Resist temptation especially in the areas of the love of money, power, and reputation. Some scriptures for meditation: Haggai - Chapters 1 and 2 Matthew 6:19 - 34 James 4:3 - 10 Deuteronomy 8

God Will Level Mountains
Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders

ACPE's Word for 2005: GOD WILL LEVEL MOUNTAINS, (Plus) Word for Colorado, California, and Oregon

We are moving into a season of tremendous revelation. There will be an increase upon the revelatory gifts mixed with the teaching gift in order to release keys to see nations reformed and transformed.

2005 BREAKTHROUGHS

Revelation will also manifest in the area of keys to release finances and wealth. Isaiah 45 will be a key passage to see breakthroughs in these areas:

1. God will level mountains. We will see the manifested presence of God enter into society in ways that will overcome opposition to the Body of Christ moving into society.

2. Supernatural doors of influence will break down gates of bronze (opposition). Favor will be the key to open these doors. With this we will see a new linking of key Christian leaders to the influencers of society on every level.

3. A time of cutting through the bars of iron. God is going to strengthen the church to persevere in the midst of adversity. We need to be violent in the spirit and not give up in the day of adversity. 2005 will be a violent year, but God wants us to fight back with godly violence in prayer and spiritual warfare. The exhortation given us was that this is a time for faith and not fear. We are in the season of running towards Goliath and we are not to fear him. God said that he would meet us in the fire of Nebuchadnezzar and it will not burn us.

4. There is going to be a new level of authority to break down strongholds that have held families, relationships, and finances for generations. Tremendous deliverances will take place for family members who have been held in bondage for years, and the prodigals are going to be restored and put on the path to their God-given destinies. God will give His people the tenacity and sharpness to stay on the cutting edge.

5. A release of treasures held in darkness. The shakings will reveal all sorts of minerals. With the world-shaking events presently taking place, the Body of Christ is going to step into a new level of financial influence. There will be a supernatural "convergence" that will occur that will call Christians to the forefront in times of crisis. This will manifest by the governments of nations, asking for help from the Christians.

6. The spirit of poverty and greed will be broken off of the prophets. True prophets will not be bought or sold.

COVENANTAL RELATIONSHIPS

It is a time to form new relationships and strengthen those you have walked with for many days. Covenantal relationships will work together in new ways to flow as Josephs and re-distribute seed. In the days of crisis the Lord will re-distribute wealth. Great networking will take place between Christian ministries, and many will turn their hearts to the poor. Great funds will be given, such as the release in the past few years of one billion dollars to the Salvation Army.

THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN CHURCH

The African-American church in America will see a rising up of some leaders and a putting down of others based on their stance on justice and righteousness.

A SEASON OF SHAKINGS

We are in a season of shakings. Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. There will be continued physical disasters where the plates of the earth will shift. In the midst of the shakings, God will raise up regional apostles and prophets who will be able to decree and see the natural disasters stop or be lessened in their city or region.

Tremendous sin is going to be uncovered, including homosexuality in the church. Financial improprieties will also come to light. Leaders will call for more accountability.

MARKETPLACE REVIVAL

God is moving in the earth in order to harvest the earth. This will manifest in a great harvest of souls, as we are entering a decade of harvest in which we will see some of the greatest harvests of souls the earth has ever seen. With this will be a tremendous outpouring of signs and wonders. Prophetic evangelism will be on the rise with signs and wonders accompanying -- especially in the marketplace. A tidal wave of God's glory will come upon the church that will result in great harvest.

A tremendous revival will occur in the marketplace with apostles arising and being set in place who will be people of great influence in their cities and nations. Apostolic leaders in the Marketplace who have been faithful are going to be receiving promotions. This will manifest in these leaders having significant business opportunities supernaturally brought to them without their having sought them. This will happen with such a frequency that these Apostles will have to develop teams to perform due diligence in order to determine which of the opportunities they could undertake. The prophets, in their spheres, will be involved in the project selection, once the due diligence has been developed.

GENERATIONS AND BROKEN RELATIONSHIPS WILL BE KNIT CLOSER TOGETHER

Angelic activity will increase. Children will experience visitations of angels and proclaim this across the nations. This will be a sign even to unbelievers.

A special season of restoration will take place. There is an escalation of all things taking place and this will manifest in a restoration of relationships that have looked impossible to mend.

Leaders will have a special emphasis on lineage and legacy. The generations will be knit even closer together as one generation mentors another. There will also be special mantles poured out upon new leaders as He raises up a new generation of giants like unto Oral Roberts for evangelism, and Aimee Semple McPherson for healing.

STAND STRONG IN THE VISION THAT GOD HAS GIVEN YOU

New "Samuel" prophets will come to the forefront who will help nations, and those with vision, transition "Saul-ish" nations to "Davidic" nations who will love God. Prophets will be positioned to help national transformations and anoint new government leaders.

The Lord is calling us into a deeper level of intimacy with Him. God will release a new measure of grace upon His people who seek Him. With this release, His people will thrive and flourish. Those things that have been hard will become easy and stress-free.

The spirit of Jezebel will manifest in a strong way, trying to persecute the prophets and leaders. Stand strong in the vision that God has given you. Don't run from Jezebel. Stand against her and she will run.

WORDS FOR SPECIFIC NATIONS

United States

The United States has been saved from those who would remove God from its borders, but now the nation must be established. There is a four-year window for the intercessors to war for the establishment of morality and righteousness. God is going to raise up a president in 2008 who will reconcile the nations to the United States. Bush has been called to be a man of war, like David, but God is bringing a Solomon to the office in '08 who will make peace with the nations.

England

We felt that Satan knows what an important nation England is for the re-evangelization of Europe, and he is marshalling his forces to try to discourage, destroy, and otherwise stop the Christian leaders of England. There was a call from the prophets to pray for England.

Iraq

Iraq is a nation rich in Biblical significance. It is also a place where Satan has built his strongholds. God wants to use Iraq to "crack open" the Middle East for an in-gathering of souls for the Kingdom. For this reason we are calling upon the Body of Christ to pray for the upcoming elections. A 21-day fast is being called, beginning January 15th through February 5th, 2005. Special prayer is called for the soldiers of all nations and relief workers, as well as Iraqi nationals who are fighting to see democracy established in the region. Pray to break the demonic powers of witchcraft and the occult who would bring confusion and discouragement, and bind the spirit of babel that would bring confusion on the troops fighting for democracy.

Singapore

God is going to use Singapore as an apostolic city-state to model the convergence of the church with those with philanthropic calls, both believers and unbelievers, to release compassion ministries in the nations of the earth. Singapore is going to be a first-fruits nation that God is going to use to bless the nations. It will be a sign of the release of wealth.

Asian Prophetic Insight

One of the prophets from Asia had prophesied in October that a catastrophe was going to come to Asia that would result in an open door for harvest for the gospel. He also saw that a pandemic would hit where 300,000 could die if prayer and help was not sent.

Syria

There is going to be a revealing of hidden and secrets things that will start in 2005 and continue into the following years. God is going to reach into this nation to create an openness to the gospel.

World

The tsunami in southeast Asia will cause the dollar in the economic structures of the earth to shift, beginning in mid-June.
A vision was given of God holding the spirit of mammon upside down and shaking the things it had in its pockets out for the Josephs of the world to catch.

STATES

Colorado

Colorado is going to see the beginnings of the "unlocking" of treasures of darkness from the mines. New veins of ore and minerals will be discovered in the ground that have been hidden until this season.

California

A dream was given to one of the prophets in November, 2004, that everything began to fall apart in California. In the dream, he was helping to put Christmas ornaments back on the tree. He knew then that he should warn the people that mudslides would come, weather patterns would change drastically (with snow), and an earthquake would come at some time after these drastic weather pattern shifts; and there would be a flood in Los Angeles and then a fire.

Several of the prophets had received that this was a judgment due to the vote to use stem cells for research that was passed in the last election. The word was that they needed to re-align their gifts, or else the whole nation would be changed by the Jezebel spirit that will arise out of California and try to pass similar votes in the rest of the nation. As a result, we are calling for massive prayer for Schwarzenegger. We strongly felt that the intercessors need to go for the ancient roots to heal the land of California.

Oregon

Oregon will see the ruling governmental structure, along with its influence and liberalism, fall. This will cause structures that are hidden, that are terrorist groups, beginning in 2005, to be exposed. Watch for physical shakings in the natural so spiritual change can come.

Glory Without Wrath

Stacey Campbell

Why Glory is not Glory Without Wrath --Help in Discerning the Times
By Stacey Campbell

How do we interface what we know about the love and mercy of God, with the great tragedies we are watching unfold in our world -- tragedies such as the tsunami last year, and Hurricane Katrina this year? Are we to interpret these "acts of God" as divine judgments? If so, what kind of God wipes out thousands of people at one time, including innocent children? As someone put it to me last week, "Is the cure worse than the disease?"

The pursuit of God will lead you to ever-unfolding depths of the attributes of His character. It is in the context of intimacy that I would like to speak about what pursuing God or intimacy with God means, in light of the afore-mentioned catastrophes, because I believe, the world will see an increase in divine catastrophic judgments in the days to come.

Intimacy Leads to Understanding God's Wrath & Judgment

If the love of God, according to the Bible (1 John 4:19), is the starting point in a relationship with God, then the wrath of God is a culmination point that believers will encounter as they pursue the depths of the person of God. The maturation of intimacy will inevitably lead to understanding God in wrath and judgment. How do I know this? Because all of the people in the Bible who have ever seen God in His glorified state become acutely aware of the ramifications of sin, whenever they encounter His presence.

For example, the description by the only person to ever even see the 'back' of the glory of God (see Exodus 33:23, NKJV) wrote that the glory of God is His nature. His glory is found in the attributes of His character. Moses, a man who regularly talked with God face-to-face (Numbers 12:6-8) and had lunch with Him on the sapphire sea (Exodus 24:9-11), had boldly asked God if he could see His glory. God answers by revealing His nature by unfolding attributes, beginning with those attributes that we humans love - mercy, grace, longsuffering, goodness, truth, and forgiveness.

"And the Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin . . ."

Yet, the glory of God was not complete without a clear revelation of His justice through judgment:

"By no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and fourth generation." (Exodus 34:6-7).

Glory is not Glory Without Wrath

Likewise, another description of God's passionate, unmerited love for His people in Ezekiel 16 says God's nature, as a loving husband, ends with judgment because of Israel's unfaithfulness. Again, in this description, God begins in love and ends in wrath. A love so deep and jealous, as the love of God is, will produce wrath on those that spurn it (Ezekiel 16:36-43).

This jealous love affects not only the unfaithful, but even the righteous. The most righteous man on earth (see Job 1:8), when he gets into God's presence, suddenly understands his 'righteousness' in a whole new light: "Behold, I am vile. What shall I answer you?" He has nothing left to say (Job 40:4-5). Similar to these are the experiences of Isaiah (Isaiah 6:3-5) and John (Revelation 1:17). To know Him is to fear Him, according to those who have loved Him the most and pursued Him to the point of seeing Him.

A cursory reading of all of the prophets, in both the Old and New Testaments, reveal that wrath and judgment are as much a part of the nature of God as are love and mercy. Could it be that wrath is the corollary to love and that love without wrath is not love at all? To be intimate with God must be to know the fullness of who He is, not just the part.

I have been praying through the book of Revelations for the past few years and have become conscious of the unfolding depths of who God is. Those who actually see God are struck over and over again with what appears to be the dominant attribute of His character: holiness. Around the throne, they are not crying "love, love, love" or "mercy, mercy, mercy", but rather "holy, holy, holy!" In fact, those who see Him never stop saying that -- ever (Revelation 4:8).

Get Ready Church!

The whole Bible tells us that wrath is the outflow of both love and holiness. Holiness demands wrath, and that is the reason for the cross. Love and wrath met there. And love and wrath are still meeting on earth. To put it in the words of Revelation 14, I believe there will be concurrent grape harvests (wrath) and wheat harvests (salvation).
In fact, perhaps the revelation of God's wrath in judgment will actually precipitate millions of people coming to love Christ in salvation (wheat harvest). For those pursuing intimacy, a fuller revelation of who God is -- of His nature and glory -- will be seen in greater measure as these two harvests unfold. If the knowledge of the glory of God is going to cover the earth as the waters cover the sea (and judgment is part of His glory), then those who are maturing in intimacy must expect this and be ready.

The way I see it is this: according to all of the biblical texts about the last days, God's wrath nature will be increasingly revealed from Heaven through catastrophes. At the same time, His mercy nature will be revealed from earth through His Church. The greatest miracles in the Bible all occurred in contexts of crises. Under Moses, the miraculous was released in times of captivity or in the wilderness; the phenomenal rescues of Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego occurred while the people of God were under judgment in Babylon.

In the New Testament, the great miracles occurred because the Church was under persecution or because people were blind, crippled and even dead! The great sin or sorrow provided a context for great grace -- "Where sin abounded, grace abounded much more" (Romans 5:20 NKJ).

The incredible miracles that have occurred in the Church in China in the last decades happened while the Church was in severe persecution under an atheistic government. The miraculous does flow more regular in Africa simply because there is more famine and disease there. I believe that global crises and release of divine judgments over nations will give birth to the greater works (John 14:12) and the greater love (John 15:13) that Jesus spoke of. SO GET READY CHURCH! ! !

Wrath and Mercy Abound

The numerous passages about the end-times in the Bible all point to a coming time where the wrath of God will be revealed from Heaven (i.e., Romans 1:18). There is no getting away from this. In the end times, wrath is coming to earth, and nations will be judged (Daniel 9:26; 12:1; Luke 21:34-36; Acts 3:21; Revelations 6). Of course, the individual believer is spared from personal wrath, through faith in the blood of Jesus.
But national wrath will come on the nations of the earth, and we will all be subject as citizens to it when it hits our various countries. In summary, according to the Bible, wrath is:

- Actively initiated by God (Genesis 6:5-7; Genesis 18:20-21, 19:25; Jeremiah 50:9,18, 51:1-2, 20)
- Passively allowed by God when He lets evil become His instrument of judgment (Habakkuk 1:6; Jeremiah 50:9,18; 51:1-2, 20, 24; Romans 1:21-29)
- Or, worst of all, God entirely withdraws His covering, and the devil takes over, when people go beyond His grace (Luke 19:41-44).

In practical terms, the knowledge of the glory of God covering the earth will look like wrath and mercy, at the same time. Only God knows when the perfect combination of sin, knowledge, kairos time, and prayer (see Revelation 8:3-7) has occurred in a nation for judgment to be released.

When it hits, it will look like what happened when the tsunami struck Bandi Aceh in Indonesia (a center for radical Islamic terrorists). These terrorists had massacred thousands of Christians through jihad the previous years; yet, the first people in to help them, when the tsunami struck, were the Christians -- the same Christians who had seen their friends and families slaughtered by the Muslims. Mercy triumphed over judgment. God's glory was manifest through natural disaster (wrath) and through His Church (mercy) at the same time.
Or when judgment hits, it will look like Hurricane Katrina hitting a city like New Orleans, home of the 34th annual Southern Decadence festival, where 100,000 mostly homosexual men gathered annually for 5 days of unrestrained, public sex! This was welcomed and sanctioned by the New Orleans' mayor, as it brought in $100 million for the city. Yet, in the aftermath of the hurricane, many of the churches left standing in the city opened their doors to shelter the homeless and provide food, water and care for the suffering amongst them. Again, wrath and love met.

Prepare for the Manifest Glory of God!

Maturing in intimacy has profound implications on how we should live. We need to expect that tribulation will come. And we need to be prepared to manifest the glory of God within us, by rushing to areas of trouble and disaster. Supernatural miracles will flow as natural disasters happen. We worship with the host of Heaven when God's nature is revealed in wrath (Revelation 11:17-18; 15:1-4; 16:4-6; 19:1-2).
With the angels we say:
"You are righteous, O Lord."
The One who is and who was and who is to be.
Because You have judged these things.
For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets,
And You have given them blood to drink.
For it is their just due. (Revelation 16:5-6 NKJV)

And then we rush to the affected areas to reveal His mercy on earth, through acts of goodness, grace, forgiveness and compassion. We love Him in Heaven by loving them on earth (John 13:34, 35; John 14: 15, 21-24; John 15:10,12; 1 John 3:14-15, 23; 4:7-8,11, 20-21). It is the way we must live as the future unfolds. It is the way those who know Him have always lived, because it is the way He lived.

"A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for a disciple to become like his teacher, and a servant like his master" (Matthew 10:24-25, NKJV).

How To Avert Judgment

Bill Somers

A teaching and prophecy

> 1 Peter 4:17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?
> Isaiah 26:9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

With all the warnings of Judgment lately, I thought about doing a little teaching on the topic. Then the Lord woke me up early to add a prophecy to the teaching, which I will add on at the end.

If you look at the two opening quotes you will see two of the major ideas connected with God's judgments. One is that judgment begins at the house of God, and the other is about the 'redemptive purpose' of his judgments. The house of God can have various meanings but we will simply refer to it as God's People. The redemptive purpose is to save the souls of men.

So there is an important issue here. We naturally want to avert judgments because after all they consist of largely of death, destruction, famine, plague, pestilence, disease, privation, wars and other sorts of disasters. But if God has a higher purpose in all this, do we really want to avert his judgments? Would that be acting counter to God's purposes? Any judgment that is stopped before God's purpose is met, can only be a judgment delayed. What should be our response?

Now this is like any situation where we just plain don't know how to pray. We have some other options beside guesswork. They are:

a. Praise.
b. Worship.
c. Seek the Lord in our prayer closet.
d. Pray in the Spirit.
e. All of the above.

All of the above will work. Ultimately we should realize that a certain amount of Judgment must come. Then there needs to be a certain response from God's people that can reduce or avert further judgments. That response is repentance and worship. To see this, we will look at some examples from the bible where this happened.

Moses offered incense, David offered sacrifices, Esther petitioned the King. All of these show prayer or speak of prayer. All these instances are times when judgment was in motion or actually being carried out against God's people. And all resulted in the judgment being halted. For this discussion we are going to look at the story of Balaam.

Now this story just involves one man whose judgment was averted. Even though he was not a part of Israel, he still knew and served the Lord. The interesting part comes in when you see that Balaam is a type of God's people and the story is an allegory of the end times.

The Sword of Judgment

First let's set out the meaning of certain symbols and relate them to scripture.
When you speak of the Word of God, you are speaking of God himself. As in John 1.

> John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

This is reinforced by other verses like Revelation 19:13, speaking of Jesus.

> Revelation 19:13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

Next we need to see that the Word is also shown to be a sword.

> Ephesians 6:17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
> Revelation 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

The quote from Ephesians identifies the word as a sword. The one from Revelation illustrates this same idea, showing the sword coming out of his mouth as a word would come out when spoken.

The sword also speaks of judgment, of course. Here is an example from Jeremiah.

> Jeremiah 25:29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

Here are two examples where we see the Angel of the Lord, who is the Lord himself, appearing with the sword of judgment. In each case the response of God’s people is repentance and worship.

> 1 Chronicles 21:15-16
> 15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.
> 16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces*.*
> Joshua 5:13-14
> 13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?
> 14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship*, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?*

The Revelation Of Jesus Christ

What is special about these examples is that they show the sword is drawn. It’s not put away or hidden in the sheath but revealed for all to see. We have seen the sword speaks of the word, and the word is Jesus. So this drawn sword is an illustration of The Revelation Of Jesus Christ. This is important to realize and gives us a clue to an end time application of the story. It shows us that judgments being carried out are an aspect of The Revelation. It’s one way God reveals himself. Psalms 9:16 speaks of this quite clearly.

> Psalms 9:16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: ….

These following quotes speak of the purpose of God in his judgment; of the results he is looking for.

> Psalms 64:9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

> Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

Isaiah 1:27 is especially important in showing the purpose of God. Without the judgment, there will be no redemption. [Zion also speaks of God's people.] The second part of that verse, speaking of converts, shows that after Zion's redemption will come the harvest. Therefore without judgment there will be no harvest either! So it's no wonder that it says in first Peter that judgment comes to Gods people first.

> 1 Peter 4:17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: ….

The Story of Balaam

> Numbers 22:20-35
> 20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.
> 21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.
> 22 And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.
> 23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.
> 24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.
> 25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.
> 26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.
> 27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.
> 28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?
> 29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.
> 30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.
> *31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.
> 32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me:
> 33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.
> 34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again.
> 35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

Here Balaam is a type of God's people. He is coming under judgment for disobedience. Notice the drawn sword in verses 23 and 31. The mention of vineyards in verse 24 is another clue, speaking of God's people. The narrow place in verse 26 speaks of the straight and narrow entrance to eternal life.

In this story, Balaam is a type of God's people; more accurately a type of our established religious institutions. Balaam's ass, however, is a type of the prophets and intercessors among God's people. You can see that the ass is clearly able to see the coming judgments, while Balaam is clueless. This is prophetic vision and insight. The ass also takes various actions to avoid the judgments and tries to warn Balaam. Up to a certain point, Balaam ignores the ass, then he begins to attack the ass. This speaks of the persecution of the prophets of old and the prophetic remnant of today. Eventually the Lord opens Balaam's eyes and reveals himself. And the aspect of himself that he reveals is that of the destroying angel carrying out judgments. This is the drawn sword, and The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Immediately Balaam's response is the correct one, repentance and worship. Then the Lord shows mercy and allows him to pass thru the narrow place. This tells of entering into the kingdom. Balaam receives a commission and strict instructions to obey. This tells us that the established religious institutions will not begin to repent till they actually see the judgments being carried out, and understand that they are from God.

Now this is not to say that all end time judgments can be stopped or the time of tribulation cancelled. That would be like someone who figures when anti-Christ shows up, all we have to do is cast the devil out of him and everything will be ok. I don't think so!

It's not very likely because all these things have to happen, and scriptures must be fulfilled. But it does show us how we should be responding: with repentance, worship and obedience. Once God's purposes are accomplished in one area, he will move on to judge other areas. Once Zion is redeemed with judgment, he will move on to reaping the harvest. And other judgments will be required for that.

The Prophecy

So it shall be with those of my people who humble themselves, repent and worship me. They shall enter in through the narrow gate, into everlasting life; and avert the sword judgments on themselves and their lands.

Whey they see my judgment being carried out, they shall know the Fear of the Lord. This shall be the beginning of wisdom and the entrance of my word in their lives and my sword in their heart. And thus many shall return to me.

My glittering sword shall mean death to many; but for those who repent it shall be death to the flesh and life to the spirit. And they shall be my overcomers; my late in the day vineyard workers.

How To Judge A False Prophet

> John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

As we observe this so called Civil War in the Church, we notice there are a lot of people shooting from the hip and slinging about the accusation of False Prophet. Unfortunately most of this is totally unjustified. Lets look at the scriptures and see if we can make some sense out of all this.

The Pattern In The Sermon On The Mount.
Matthew 6:1-4 tells us to give, but not like the hypocrites do.
Matthew 6:5-15 tells us to pray, but not like the hypocrites do.
Matthew 6:16-18 tells us to fast, but not like the hypocrites do.
The rest of Matthew 6 focuses on trusting God for our provision, serving him alone and seeking the Kingdom and it’s righteousness.

Now on to chapter 7.
Matthew 7:1 tells us to judge not. But whoa there Nellie, John 7:24 tells us to judge.

> John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

So to judge or not to judge, that is the question. Sorry Shakespeare.

Look at the whole context of Matthew 7

> Matthew 7:1-5
> 1 Judge not, that ye be not judged.
> 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.
> 3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
> 4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?
> 5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Once you look at the whole context of Matthew 7 you will see it’s following the same pattern as in chapter 6.
Matthew 7:1-5 tells us to judge, but not like the hypocrites do. It’s easier said than done.

Verses 1 and 2 are a warning against unrighteous judgment with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged. If you would judge according to the Law, then you are asking to be judged by the law.

Judging Like The Hypocrites Do.
If you recognize a false prophet by a failed prediction, do you want to judge him after the Law of Moses as Jesus accusers did to the woman in John 8?

> John 8:5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

If so don’t forget to include these scriptures in your thinking.

> Galatians 3:11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.
> 2 Corinthians 3:6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

It's judging like the hypocrites that puts you in danger of being judged in the same way.

So what is Jesus telling us in Matthew 7? "First cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."
Circling back around to John 8 again we read.

> John 8:7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

So to judge righteous judgment, as we are commanded in John 7:24, we need to be walking in righteousness ourselves. Next we need to recall that God's judgments are redemptive in purpose.

> Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, …

Then the proper way to judge a 'false prophet' is to restore them, and to do this in a humble manner, like we read in Galatians 6.

> Galatians 6:1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Recognizing The False Prophet.
The other issue here is how to recognize a false prophet. Earlier we said, if you recognize a false prophet by a failed prediction then do you want to judge him after the Law of Moses? Deuteronomy 18 says this.

> Deuteronomy 18:20-22
> 20 But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.
> 21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?
> 22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

[If we follow this prescription and lean on our own understanding, we may have to take the book of Jonah out of the bible.]

Or do you want to remember that the letter of the law kills, and that good people make mistakes and fall into sin?

> 2 Corinthians 3:6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

False Prophets in the New Testament
So what is the New Testament way of recognizing a false prophet? Try this on for size.

> Matthew 7:15-16
> 15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves*.*
> 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits*. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?*

> Galatians 5:22-23
> 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,
> 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
> 2 Peter 2:1 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily [secretly] shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

It seems according to these verses, that a false prophet must be one who
a. 'inwardly is a ravening wolf' or
b. deliberately intends to deceive by bringing in heresies or
c. does not show any fruit of the spirit but only the works of the flesh.

Apply This To The Civil War

We read of great healing evangelists of the past. And we hear of those in the present who were sinners or taught false doctrine. Were any of these ravening wolves inwardly, or deliberately intending to deceive? Or were they just men who fell into sin and became deceived themselves? When these men are accused of being false prophets, are they being judged like the hypocrites judge? Go figure or as they say in Hebrew, selah.

One More Question

Now before we sign off here, there is one other question that comes up. Considering that our title is How To Judge A False Prophet, we need a complete answer to that question.

The Real Deal

We have suggested that there is a New Testament standard of recognizing a false prophet. So what do you do if you run into one of these? What if you discern by the gift of discerning of spirits that someone is inwardly a ravening wolf? Or what if you discover that they deliberately intend to deceive? Or what of you observe that an individual is totally walking in the flesh, with no evidence of Fruit Of The Spirit?

In other words, what do you do when you run into the real deal; a genuine, 24 karat, dyed in the wool, rude dude, false prophet? What about the case where the label false prophet is fully justified? Let me give you a clue: there is no formula or rule to follow in these cases.

First of all, be careful when it comes to making accusations. Recall that even the angels avoid this as it shows in Second Peter 2.

> 2 Peter 2:11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

Secondly consider the full context here.

> 2 Peter 2:9-13
> 9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:
> 10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.
> 11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.
> 12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;
> 13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

Note that verse 9 says The Lord knoweth how … to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. This is saying that the Lord will deal with the problem. And especially that the Lord knows how to handle it. We don't unless he tells us.

The Lord may choose to use you in such a case, or he may not.
If you would judge righteous judgment in this kind of situation, you must be walking in righteousness and wait on the Lord for specific instruction. Acts 13 gives us an example of this. Note that when Paul spoke, he was filled with the Holy Ghost. Don't do this if you're in the flesh.

> Acts 13:6-11
> 6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet*, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:*
> 7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.
> 8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.
> 9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,
> 10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
> 11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

Here Paul was led by the Spirit to pronounce judgment [in the sense of punishment]. In contrast the story of Simon the sorcerer as related in Acts 8:9-24, Peter commanded the false prophet to repent.

> Acts 8:22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

Here is another case.

> Acts 16:16-18
> 16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:
> 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.
> 18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

Here Paul knew automatically by the Holy Spirit, what spirit he was dealing with, and when the right time came, he commanded it to leave.

In each case these apostles followed specific instructions from the Holy Ghost. And that's how you make righteous judgment.

When you start tossing around accusations in the flesh, you're playing on the wrong team and following the devil's game plan.

How To Spot The Accuser

> Luke 6:41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Discernment

In this Civil War in the Church that we have been concentrating on we hear a constant cry for discernment. Many are majoring on discerning the mote in their brothers eye. Rather we should seek to discern the voice of the accuser of the brethren. Here are some things to look for.

What happens in this Civil War in the Church is that some people, for whatever reason, have yielded to a divisive spirit. This has directed them into becoming spokesmen for the enemy camp without realizing it. We need to pray for these people who are being used in this way. Remember this is a spiritual battle.

> Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Since the Lakeland Outpouring shifted into high gear around Passover, the accuser of the brethren has been working overtime. But even before that I received quite a few samples of his work as various people tried to sway me against it. Now after seeing even more of this kind of material, I have noticed that there is a pattern that most of these accusations follow.

Before launching into a series of accusations the accuser will try and set you up to accept what he is about to say. The process is like a confidence game. Once they get you to accept the messenger, you are likely to accept the message. Lot’s of the tactics used are just variations on the argument from authority. Once they get you to believe they are speaking from some authority, then they really don’t have to prove any thing they say. The whole idea is to get you thinking they have more spiritual authority than you do.

1. Such a person may offer Ministry history or credentials.
   Or they may give testimonies or examples to set themselves as some authority or mature voice.
   Some will imply that it has taken them much courage to say what they are about to say.
   While others will claim that they have been attacked for criticizing.
   This is a sympathy routine.

2. Expression of sorrow or regret that such warnings must be given.
   You will hear things like this:
   I’m not against such and so, but …
   It really grieves me to have to say these things.

I simply have to speak out and warn people.
I have been weeping over the sad state of things or deeply involved in tearful intercession.
I am only writing this out of love for The Church.

3. They may claim to have some special revelation or inside knowledge that others don't have.
Some will report having a dream or vision, or getting a prophecy to support their view.
Others will claim to have absolute certainty, or cite someone else who is 'never wrong'.
Or you will hear the claim that the Holy Spirit is instructing them to speak out.

4. Most common is the invoking the authority of the scriptures to support what they are about to say.
After all, it's implied, who can argue with the bible. For example:
The Word of God must be our standard.
This is not just my opinion, it's what the bible teaches.
The bible must be our basis of Judgment.
Don't get mad a me, this is God's word.
The bible clearly teaches that such and so.
Next they will give their opinion of what the Bible 'clearly teaches.'

5. Then they may employ lengthy quotes from scripture regarding deception, false teachers, false prophets, false apostles, no private interpretation of scripture, wolves among the flock, hirelings, lying signs and wonders, great delusion, Satan as an angel of light and so on.
The more scripture they quote, the more authoritative they will seem.
This is where the fear tactic comes in.
Please dear saints, don't let yourselves be deceived.

6. Then they proceed to judge someone after the Law, accusing them by name, usually with great scorn and ridicule.
They may insist that their interpretation of a certain scripture is the only correct one.
They will point to things happening that are not in the bible.
or claim that this is not the way God operates.
Or Jesus didn't do it that way.
Many of their accusations will have no proof, only hearsay or opinion.
They could claim there is no scripture to support someone's teachings. [This could be hard to prove, even if attempted. It would be a difficult matter to evaluate every possible interpretation of every scripture in the bible.]

7. But they will not cite any verses about tale bearers, strife among brethren, railing accusations, backbiting or slander.
And especially they will never consider that the letter of the Law brings death, and only the Spirit brings life.

We mentioned that this accuser tries to get you to accept him, or her, as a messenger with some authority, so you will accept their message. The aim of the accusations is to get you to reject the accused person or persons, so you will reject their message.

And after all that, what if there is some real truth in all the accusations? Then it all boils down to one thing: Gossip. We are told to be afraid of deception, when all the while we are corrupting ourselves with slander and gossip.

> Titus 3:2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

And I’m Repenting Too

While going thru some old mail, I found that back on May 2, I had forwarded to some close correspondents, a message Re: Todd Bentley that contained a lot of accusations from some other ministries. I'm now very sorry for this and repent for ever circulating or forwarding any such accusations. And for ever saying any thing that could be considered criticism of any other ministry.

Now here is a verse from Ephesians that can be seen as a prophecy of the Church coming out of Civil War and into unity. It is the work of the Lord, to bring about a Christ like attitude.

> Ephesians 4:13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

And here are the results spoken of.

> Psalms 133:1-3
> 1 <A Song of degrees of David.> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.
> Isaiah 52:8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

Hastening Forward To The End

Stephen Hanson

May 7, 2005

You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Matt. 24: 5-7 NIV

Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. John 16: 19-21 KJV

“I tell you that these are the days that are hastening forward to the end. I tell you that this world is set on stage for its actors to play out the scenes. For in a short time this world will be thrown into cataclysmic events. For those things that have been predicted in my word will be happening. These are the days that many have looked into. These are the days that many have tried to understand. These are the days that are hastening forward to the end. “

“When you hear rumors of a war between China and Russia, then you will know that these events are near. When you hear reports of nuclear build-up, then you know the time is near. These are some of the things that will set the stage for the anti-christ figure to come upon the scene. Don’t think that peaceful relations will help solve these things, for they are to be fulfilled in my prophetic time table.“

“Come to Me, those of you who are weary, and I will give you rest. Come to Me, those of you who are burdened, and I will give you freedom from your burdens. Come to Me, those of you who are saddened, and I will help dry your tears. You may weep now, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. “

Hearts After Him

Lanna Perry

25th July, 2005
Sydney, Australia

My precious church, I adore each of you so much and I long to build each of My children up into the mighty warriors that I have destined you to be. I long to continue to take each of you down the road of everlasting. Shining my light upon the path to which you are to walk. Shining my light on places I wish for you to visit.

My precious church, keep your eyes open and your ears attentive to My Spirit. For there are many walking within My church that have their hearts far from Me, and are allowing deception and control to cover their eyes and hearts.

My church, be aware of things not of Me that are being filtered into My church. I am bringing a separation by My Spirit of those to whom are seeking Me and walking with Me, and those who are within My house, and not following after Me.

I long to bring those who are being deceived and controlled by things not of Me into My arms and hold them close. To shower My love and forgiveness upon them, and break the chains that are holding them down. To set them free, and to turn their faces yet again towards Me, but they must come to Me. They must bring their hearts to Me, and seek Me again.

My Spirit is crying out My church. Be aware. Do not be deceived but continue to listen to My Spirit, and what My Spirit is saying to the churches.

Allow My wisdom to come upon you, and see through the ears of My Spirit and through the eyes of My heart.

Do not regard the words of man higher than the words that come from Me. Look at My Word and listen to what I am saying. Allow My Spirit to bring truth to your lives, and break deception and manipulation.

There are those walking within My church who are dressed in sheep’s clothing, but they are not following after Me. They are coming against those I have brought forward for a specific time as now, and are coming with an agenda that is not from Me.

Be aware My church. Continue to listen to My Spirit. Continue to delve into My Word. Do not be deceived. Do not be mislead. Bring everything to Me and against My Word and continue to pray for My wisdom and discernment.

For many of you are being attacked and torn down by those within My house for what I have called you too. Stand firm. Listen to what I have spoken to you, and remember you are called by Me and not man. Be teachable and continually open to My Spirit, but stand firm on the convictions that I have given you.

A great increase is coming to My house. I am increasing in areas of your lives that you have never seen before, but do not allow deception, torment and defilement affect you from those who are seemingly walking in My house.

Listen to Me, and I will take you where you need to be. I will hold you close to Me and love on you. I will speak My Words of truth to you and build you up into the warriors I have called you to be. I will not allow anything to come against you that you cannot handle and I will give you the strength to endure.

Those who are walking in sheep’s clothing, I will bring judgment to them, and they will answer to Me. My love will always continue to pour over them and I long to have them come to Me, repent and seek My face again, but I will not allow things not of Me to continue to reign for much longer. It may seem this way, but I am in control and I will be glorified.

When I return the world will see the manifestation of evil crushed under My feet, and the evil that is even within My house.

Come to Me, My church. Seek My heart and listen to Me. Continue to be pure before Me and allow My Spirit to continue to lead you and keep you away from things that entangle and deceive.

Worship Me and seek Me in Spirit and in truth and you will always continue to walk in the way everlasting.

Halfway? Or All the Way?

Greg Austin

> "There are plenty of Christians to follow the Lord halfway, but not the other half. They will give up possessions, friends, and honours, but it touches them too closely to disown themselves." (Eckhart, 15th century mystic)

How variously can one understand Eckhart's observation? How many possibilities exist for honest and forthright comprehension? His statement is so simple, even simplistic at first examination. "I can do that", we silently muse at the premise put forth by this ancient man. It does seem that simple, and it is, but oh, how very difficult is the doing in comparison with the thinking.

So many Christians, followers of Jesus, twice-born men, find it impossible even to part with earthly possessions in their pursuit of spiritual life. Most Christians will lift their hands in worship, sing the songs of heaven with unconcealed enthusiasm, rise early on Saturday morning to attend a "prayer breakfast", but ask them to reach into their wallets or purses and part with their money, the hard-earned currency of their labor and they balk like a cat being shown a waiting bathtub.

What does it mean to "disown" oneself? How is it accomplished that a man might "lay down his life" for another? What method is employed in the shedding of our own fleshy skins, and to what effect do we do so?

Let me remind us all of the command of Jesus – not to spiritual superstars – but to all of us: "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me."

I know, we prefer the words of blessing and the promises of prosperity to the harsh mandates of sacrifice and dying.

Yet the whole gospel message, the good news of God to man is centered on the continual act of giving, of sacrificing, of laying down one's rights, position, and even (especially) one's life.

The Apostle, who reminded us that he died daily also taught that Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross."

We love words such as victory, triumph, over comer, conqueror, winner, success, champion, achievement, but none of these come without battle, war, contest, challenge, effort, cost.

Understand that without the disowning, the renunciation of ourselves, we have nothing in Christ. Recall when Jesus said "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." And it was John who declared, "He must increase, but I must decrease".

But of course we know that; we've read it. We've heard it mentioned in sermons on Sunday. But notice the John's next words, the words that follow immediately after "He must increase, but I must decrease"; "He who comes from above is above all; he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth."

And there it is: "from above" is "above"; from the "earth" is "earthly". This is the continual and perpetual tension. This is the root out of which Paul writes the seventh chapter of Romans, the constant war and struggle between our "knowing" and our "doing." It all springs from the question of whether we are "above" people or "earthly" people.

Here is truth: "we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath." And then we were "born again", literally "born from above".

If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God.
Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth.
For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God . . .
Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

Let me explain further: You likely own a car, or some material, tangible thing. If you own a car, you have in your possession the title deed to that particular vehicle as opposed to other cars driving your city's streets. This particular car by law, is yours. It is yours to do with as you please. You can care for the car, change the oil regularly, keep the fluids at prescribed levels, keep good tires on it, or you can abuse, neglect and ruin the car: It's yours. You own it. It's not just in your possession, it's yours to do with as you desire.

So too, we have been given our lives as gifts from God. What heaven desires is that we might return our lives to God in response to His love, grace, mercy and goodness; not because we must, but because we choose to; we want to. The words "My life is not my own" come into focus here.

Ruth Hill was a student, busy with life, making plans for her future when suddenly she realized this truth. Ruth wrote in her journal,

"Last week represented a monumental change in my life. I realized that all my plans and goals for my life were my plans and goals, not God's. I realized my life is not my own and that life is not about me. I knew there are millions of unreached people in the world and that I could change that.
Throughout the rest of the semester, God continued to change me, to build my passion for missions and to ruin me for everything except his perfect will."

And therein is the true secret of life in Christ: To be "ruined for everything except His perfect will."

So long as we maintain ownership of our lives, we are not God's. Only as we surrender the right of ownership, give up the title deed to our lives will we find true fulfillment in Him. Only as we become possessions of heaven rather than possessors of ourselves will be discover true freedom, success and joy.

We have been taught (wrongly) that it is commendable for one to surrender possessions, friends, and honors. Such sacrifice is nothing, for what can we truly own, who can we truly hold closely, what titles, tributes, prizes or reputations are truly worth keeping in the light of eternity?

Only when we move beyond the simple sacrifice of paltry toys and baubles and the "froth of life" and move into the arena of the death of self; the giving away of who, what and why we are, do we truly discover life as God intended it to be lived.

Is this sufficient? Am I wordy enough? Do you understand? Do my words mean anything in the pantheon of history or in the light of His glory? Meaningless words; only action, toward Him, away from self, holds any momentary or eternal value.

If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me.
Denial of Self
Take up my cross
Follow Jesus

A three-point sermon; a fulfilled life. "Disown," "renounce", "reject", "turn my back on", "disclaim", "deny", die.

"There are plenty of Christians to follow the Lord halfway, but not the other half. They will give up possessions, friends, and honours, but it touches them too closely to disown themselves."

Disown, renounce, reject, turn my back on, disclaim, deny. . . die. And live.

In His Grace,

…God made a wind to pass over the earth… Gen 8:1

Note: The message below was posted for Florida exactly one year ago, but it is also relevant for Louisiana and Alabama. Florida didn't take God's message to heart, will Heartland America? God is washing America's feet, but will we notice and begin wash each others' feet rather than flee from judgment. Surely it is time to get real, to be vessels of God's glory in our nation. Nearly all of God's people are infants spiritually, but they believe themselves to be mature. This is a result of following immature, prideful leaders who call attention to themselves rather than to Christ within.

Katrina means 'pure.' What a name for what may be the worst-ever storm to hit both Florida and Louisiana!

Here is an example of them great offense to God in our mega-churches and other institutions. A 'Christian' mega-church leader dared to write in a book published world-wide: "I am not a spiritual man." (See Silent No More, Islam Chapter, by Rod Parsley.) Then he proceeded to compare spiritual men to granola bars of flakes, fruits and nuts. Doesn't he realize that he is calling the Spiritual Man Jesus Christ and all of His loyal followers fruit cakes? Do none of the elders of this huge institution have the spiritual discernment to recognize the great rebellion in a pastor who dares to reveal that he is not spiritual? Since this pastor claims to be a spiritual leader, by what spirit does he lead? There is much witchcraft (rebellion) in the 'Christian' institutions, and God's people love it so! Such foolishness is basic to what is wrong with American Christianity, and why God's judgment must come upon us if there is no repentance and correction

Remnant, pray for Truth and responsibility, and cease to support the witchcraft.

Original Message of August 28, 2004:

Yes, saith the Lord, I am the author of the wind, of both the gentle breeze that blows refreshing rain to your lands, and of the violent storm that breaks your works and shakes your complacency. When you pray against the hurricane, are you not praying against my judgment? My people, should you not ask me, "Lord, where have we disobeyed, where are we in sin?" When I send multiple storms, is it not because you haven't sought My face, and have ignored my calls to turn from your wicked ways?

World-renown ministries have grown in your state, Florida, and you have been given great responsibility to exhibit My Glory. These ministries became prideful and led My Body into apostasy, further dividing it into parties; calling attention to themselves and not to My Son. Now repent of your pride, you elders, and gather together before me with humble hearts to seek My face. Learn of My righteousness first, follow My guidance, and then ask Me to heal your land.

There is no retirement in My Kingdom, yet you encourage men and women to play in their final years, to reject all calls to be used in the work of My Son. My people, look and see, My storms struck at the very heart of your state because it is your hearts that are set against Me. Why do you run and hide rather than face the consequences of your own iniquity? The shaking that has begun will continue until it has worked its work in the hearts of My people. Storms come to shake the complacent and wake up the sleeping. Storms will continue with ever-increasing strength until My people humble themselves.

Do not pray for mercy, pray for judgment in My house that will bring glory to My Son and wholeness to His Body. He shall surely have a perfect bride, and He shall surely not return for her until I send Him. Why do you think that I will send Him for a carnal Bride? My people, let Me prepare during this greatest moment of Truth so that you will be ready when He comes. Take My shakings to heart and be cleansed and prepared. Become able to shine forth to a dying world that sees My glory in My people.

Elders, you are held responsible to call My people to Me. Even if you are ignorant of My Truth, your guilt remains because you have accepted the role of leader in your congregations. Thus saith the Lord.

But as the days of Noah were, so also shall the coming of the Son of man be. Mat 24:37, Lk 17:26

Have A Worship Partner

Meredith Greco

I had the following dream on August 22, 2005. Although I don't understand all of it, I felt it is very timely as to what is happening now.

I'm in a town (almost like cities in Old Testament times that were walled in). There was a sudden urgency/panic and the people began to run to find hiding places. It seemed there were soldiers outside the city, (ready to attack?). I began to climb a rope to get onto a rooftop. I thought that might be a good place to see from, and I would probably be safe there. As I was about 2/3 up the rope, I dropped one of the cards that were in my hand. The cards were "Words" the Lord had given to me. I knew the Word that had just fallen was VERY important. I didn't want to have to climb back down. I reached out my hand and the card flew off the ground and back into my hand. Several people saw this and Knew this had to be of the Lord. I read the card....it said "you have to have a worship partner to make it through the coming time."

This was so important that I knew I had to tell the people. I told one lady to tell the people this, she only told them "to worship". I said, "No! You have to tell them exactly what I told you! They must get a worship partner to make it through the coming time!" Then I saw more of what was written on that card. It talked about many breakthroughs were coming for many people and then there was a very hard time coming. But even through the very difficult time, there would be some who would be blessed. At the end of the card......(it was like a closing in a letter)....and Jesus says something about having to go now...the time is almost here that he will fast again.

(I had many cards in my hand. I knew they were all words from the Lord. But it was like this was the only one that mattered right now.)

History Belongs To The Intercessor!

Lou Engle

Months before the recent shifts in the Supreme Court, the Lord made it clear through numerous prophetic voices that the composition of the Court was about to change and that if the Church would seize the window of opportunity that had been blown open, we could see "judges restored as at the first."

Two weeks prior to the nomination of John Roberts, one of our young interns had a dream that a man named John Roberts was placed on the Supreme Court. This young lady had no idea at the time who John Roberts was, but she told her dream to our group anyway.

After some research, we found out that John Roberts was a possible replacement -- though at the time he was only a long-shot -- for the Supreme Court should any Supreme Court Justice step down. Thus, when Sandra Day O'Connor stepped down and John Roberts was placed as her replacement, we were not surprised, but we still could not help but marvel at God's desire to reveal his secret counsel to his friends on earth.

We believe, and still believe, that Roberts is God's man for this hour. Even if Roberts were to hold opinions contrary to the will of God, if the Church continues to pray for him, God's Kingdom will come, and His will, will be done through Chief Justice John Roberts.

His Will Be Done

Then, when President Bush nominated Harriet Miers to replace Sandra Day O'Connor on October 3, we at the Justice House of Prayer (D.C.) sought the Lord for His confirmation concerning Ms. Miers. For four weeks, we intensely cried out to the Lord for revelation concerning the Supreme Court nominee. Phone call after phone call and email after email poured into our office asking us for what the Lord was speaking to us and what our thoughts were concerning Harriet Miers' nomination.

However, for those four weeks, the Lord had kept us continually seeking him for the word of faith in our hearts over the situation of the Court without any real, clear word. We told all inquirers to pray that God's kingdom would come and His will would be done in the situation. During this time, we talked to many different prophetic voices around the nation, but none seemed to have any real sense as to the word of the Lord over the situation. Frankly, that was one of the most difficult seasons of intercession for us at JHOP.

However, during those four weeks, I was in Iowa with a few of my close friends and family seeking the Lord for wisdom on the situation. I continually brought before the group the need for the Lord to speak to us about Harriet Miers. During this trip, on October 21, my friend Chris B. had two simple dreams that we did not fully understand at the time, but they are now clear to us.
In the first dream, the Lord showed Chris the dimly lit stage of a school called Dominion Christian School, where he used to be a teacher. However, in the dream, the stage was enlarged, and there were thousands of "prodigals" returning to the stage of that school.

We believe that the Lord was speaking to us through the dream that the stage was being set for "Dominion" Christianity to be restored to the Body of Christ. For years, the Church has acquiesced the earth realm to the forces of darkness, but now, the Lord was clearly speaking to us to recover the Dominion mandate and prevail in prayer over wickedness (Please know that we are not necessarily advocating Dominion theology. We simply believe that the Lord is saying that he is restoring the attitude and position of "domination" in prayer over darkness).

Samuel Alito -- "New Jersey"

In the second dream, the Lord spoke to Chris specifically about the Supreme Court. In the dream, he was shown that a "New Jersey" was being placed on the Court. At the time, the dream made no sense to us since Harriet Miers had already been nominated to the Supreme Court. But in Chris' dream, the "New Jersey" was not Harriet Miers. Because the dream was nonsensical to us at the time, we filed it away for more prayer.

Only a week later, when Harriet Miers withdrew her nomination to the Court, we knew that the Lord had spoken to us through Chris' dreams, but we were still not entirely sure what or who the "New Jersey" was. The Scriptures make it clear that exaltation comes not from the east nor the west, "But God is the judge; it is He who puts down one and exalts another" (Psalm 70:6-7).

Thus, this past weekend, when we received the reports that Samuel Alito, FROM NEW JERSEY, would be President Bush's new nominee, we knew that God was orchestrating the entire episode. I feel that the Lord has revealed to us the person who is to replace Sandra Day O'Connor on the Supreme Court of the United States. We believe that Lord is saying through those series of dreams that the Church is to cry out for the Lord's Dominion over the Supreme Court and the Alito nomination.

Because of the words the Lord has continually spoken to me and to the prophetic voices around the nation, I believe that the Lord intends to end abortion and restore righteousness and justice back to our nation. Thus, the question we ask should not be what the consequences will be if Judge Samuel Alito holds opinions contrary to the will of God. Instead, the question we ask should be what will the consequences be if the Church fails to respond to the Lord's promptings for intercession for this man and the Supreme Court. Ultimately, the responsibility of the Supreme Court belongs to the Church.

As I write this, my company of young intercessors has embarked on another extended season of continual (24 hours a day until the confirmation process is complete) worship and intercession for the destiny of our nation . While we are only few in numbers here in Washington, D.C., these young adults understand the urgency of the hour in which we now live and are crying out to the Lord for "speedy justice" and for the kingdom of God to be manifested in this present, throbbing moment.

The Church of America has fought too long and hard to relent and ease back now. So often after fighting long and hard battles, the Church is deceived into complacency and self-satisfaction. Now is not the hour to hold back. I am calling for the body of Christ around the United States and the nations to press in through fasting and intercession for the situation concerning the Supreme Court.

All these years of prayer for the ending of abortion and the erosion of righteousness and justice in this nation hangs in the balance. Now, it is our turn to respond in prayer and fasting -- to lay a hold of God's eternal purposes for the Supreme Court and ultimately, the destiny of this nation. Our response now will determine our future tomorrow. History is shaped by the intercessor!

His Cup Is Running Over
Homan Charle And Ueli Surbeck

Sun, 11 Sep 2005

Dear friends,

During the past days, the Lord let me pray together with Charle during many days, for Jerusalem, Israel and what ever the Lord would reveal. Charle is an intercessor, received the a mantle to walk in the prophetic office since more then 10 years and received an apostolic mantle about 2 years ago through David Shemende, an amazing apostle and man of God from Africa, actually living in Tennessee. So as we prayed the Lord started to speak concerning coming judgments in several nations.

In fact the first visions where given during the days as New Orleans was being flooded, which certainly had motivated us greatly to pray and seek the Lord.

So thanks for keeping this Issues up in your prayers....!

"His Cup Is Running Over"
By Charle' Homan And Ueli Surbeck

as Ueli and Charle' prayed together during about 12 days. from August 27 to September 8 2005

I SAW GOD'S CUP OF WRATH RUNNING OVER. IT IS SIMPLY TO FULL.

"I will destine you to the sword. All of you will bow before the executioner, for WHEN I CALLED YOU DID NOT ANSWER, WHEN I SPOKE, YOU DID NOT LISTEN, YOU DELIBERATELY SINNED ------ BEFORE MY EYES ---- AND CHOSE TO DO WHAT YOU KNOW I DESPISE. Isaiah 65. 1 - 12 NLT

I was with the angels flying over North America, I saw the angels stamping each Nation that would be devastated, as we flew over with a sign as a Roman Numeral II.

North America was first then we went to Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Iran, Syria, Turkey. And then it went over to Europe, but with the exception of Greece, first to Italy, and then whole of Europe the angels were laying a blanket of black over the entire group of Nations and it represented judgment, Spain...then I cam back to North America and I saw Canada and Hawaii and I turned around and I saw Australia, but only half of it as the other half seem to have disappeared....then I saw Indonesia, Malaysia, Russia and China and then going to Africa. and then it went to Israel.

Then there where this two other visions, which where given later, but it seems good to hang them on, as they go in the same line as the word above:

It was the vision about an earthquake through North America, splitting it in the middle about a mile deep. from Houston, Texas straight up across America. it will come before the US has recovered from the actually flooding at the south coast....

And then later the Lord spoke the following sentence, "the slaughter of the innocent has began"....

Then a few days later the Lord gave the following Visions with a special concern for New York:

First Vision

I saw the Sky and suddenly out of the Sky airplanes where falling everywhere. it was like ripples, there where ripples in the sky, like there is in water. These ripples where like sound waves or electronic disturbance directed from the ground against this airplanes which made them fall out of the sky.

Second Vision

I saw many warehouses and then the ocean with a harbor appeared, in the harbor was a cruise ship which was on fire and is sinking. I was in the water outside the ship, I could see many animals in the water around the ship, they started moving and they must be somehow crocodiles or what ever, they were there eating up those who try to jump into the water escaping the fire on the ship. I tried to tell them don't jump, I was screaming and screaming but it was useless, they didn't listen they jumped anyway.

Third Vision

Suddenly I was in the water (somehow in the harbor area in New York) I could see people floating in the water and all kinds of things and I was shocked and moved back as I looked down I saw the head of the statue of Liberty in the water next to me, then Suddenly a big hole was blown out in the midst of the skyscrapers. People where melting like wax. it must have been a nuclear explosion. Then in addition to this explosion, suddenly I saw flat across the map of the United States and saw the following names jumping up, I heard the names of the cities as I saw them raise up off the map somehow I knew that these cities would be attacked at the same time: Cincinnati, San Francisco, Montreal, Atlanta, Dallas and Washington DC.

Fourth Vision

Then I saw Mexico City there were three planes trying to land at the same time came in from three different directions and crashed mid-air...

Then came Hawaii and I saw some tragedies, must be through some type of big wave, like Tsunami wave. Tragic, wiped out I believe the islands were sunk....then at the end I saw written: "CAN NOT BE OVERRIDDEN"

Then about two days later, the vision about New York came back very strong. I was again under the water, the statue of Liberty was in the water with me, I said Lord take me out of the water, take me out, now, praise God I was cold, it was so real, and I saw again the hole which was blown into the skyscrapers. it seemed that it was important for me to be under in/under the water, vantage point, I saw something, so suddenly I saw and a submarine coming to the surface and then after this there were many, it was like a fleet, and they were Russian, which was important for me to see. They all came to the surface in the Harbor, with the hole in the buildings , looked to me like the inside of the hole was coming out around the hole like it had been shot from the North to the South, Russia....I saw black Helicopters everywhere and men coming out on ropes and invasions of a sort...

I saw another fleet of ships going towards the disaster and then I saw a ship compass and the compass was in the direction of South/west.

After this we prayed specifically to receive an indication about timing. So as we prayed the Lord gave me a vision about a boat which wrote in the water 23 (it came from top to down) in the spirit I knew this was January.... (1- 23) and then the boat came again and wrote 2006 from the left to the right.

Last Vision: The Sword of the Lord hanging over America

I have felt that I am underwater since I have arrived, it is awesome because I think that when I went into the water in the vision somehow I stayed spiritually in the water for the vantage point in the water is very important right now. I saw the map of America and it isn't a star as I saw in the beginning, I saw it is a sword, God gave me great detail It is His Judgment! The sword of the Lord hanging in the balance against America...It firm and standing boldly and CAN NOT BE MOVED!

Personal comment (by Ueli):

The first vision gave somehow an overview of the coming judgments, which will be all over the world, but it is very clear it is starting in North America.....!

In the second part there is a clear emphasis given for the United States of America and this is very serious. What we received is part of the big picture, no prophet is given all.....but what is very clear, the destruction which occurred through Hurricane Katrina is only the beginning.

Two specific things are clearly announced by several prophets:

1. A coming earthquake which will divide America in the middle. Well many prophets have seen this vision about America being split so it is another confirmation....

2. And an attack in New York, which has been given already to some other people like Oral Roberts, Michael Boldea etc. and it is what is called the second blow.

For the fact that the Lord showed this vision about New York, was an answer to many prayers, it was on August 11. that the Lord woke me up in the morning with a prayer on my lips to call for the Christians and Jews in New York to leave....., So I prayed this prayer during many days, and with this Vision, I believe the Lord gave some very clear indications to understand, what he wants to say. The timing is to be taken very serious: Jan. 23. 2006 I believe, the Lord has already softened and delayed this judgment announced since last fall very clearly, so I have the impression there will be no delay anymore, but there is a clear call to simply prepare for!

May the Lord give you the grace and mercy to discern and prepare! Shalom from Jerusalem, the City of the Great King Ueli

Here Comes The Judge

Kathleen Pirl

Here comes the Judge!
Here comes the Judge!
Order in the court!
Here comes the Judge!

AM I not judge of the whole earth?
Do I not appoint the seasons and times?
Do I not bring the harvest to fullness?
By my judgments are men reaped!
By my angels are they separated
wheat from tares
The righteous from the wicked

Will I not preside over the courts of heaven and the affairs of men?
Have I not made the time of the blowing of the trumpets a time of judgment?
To bring redemption to the earth?
To bring repentance to the sinner?
To extend my salvation at the Day of Atonement for all who sincerely seek my mercy?
The mercy of the lamb slain from the foundations of the earth!

I display my self in the cosmos.
Who is like Me the Almighty?
Be still and know that I am about to bring a work of purifying the earth and tearing open the veil, for those who long to enter in you must be free from sin.

I AM a Merciful God full of compassion
Come to Me
I will set you free!

Here comes the Judge!
Here comes the Judge!

He's Alive

He's Alive...He's Alive
[mailto:montagud@telus.net]

Are you rejoicing today, My blessed ones, as you contemplate what I did for you on the cross of Calvary?

Who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness, by whose stripes we were healed. (1 Peter: 2:24)

Yes, My beloved, I took the sins of the whole world on My body and died a horrible death on the cross and paid the price for your sins that you might have eternal life in heaven with Me. I took your diseases and infirmities upon Me and by My stripes you were healed.

In the words of the song...

He's alive, He's alive, no, death could not hold Him.
He's alive, He's alive, oh the stone was rolled away.
Satan thought he won the battle, when Jesus died on that tree.
But my Jesus came back from the grave and He won the victory
He's alive!

Yes, My people, I arose from the grave, triumphant in victory. What a day of rejoicing this shall be as you attend Easter services and hear once again the story of My death on the cross when I carried your sins and sicknesses on My body once and for all. How I arose on the third day and ascended into heaven, where I sit at the right hand of My Father, awaiting that day when....

The Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. (1 Thess. 4:16,17)

My beloved, what a glorious promise and much closer to reality than you think. You must prepare yourselves for that day and if you are alive you shall ascend into heaven with Me. Be watchful of the temptations to sin and always repent and seek My forgiveness. Guard your salvation. Stay close to Me, nestled under My wings and obedient to My direction for your walk with Me. Be always ready to go forth on assignment for Me and return to the safety of My everlasting arms.

O, My precious ones, how I treasure those who have chosen Me as their Savior and Lord and are walking on My pathway with Me. Even in the midst of great tribulation in the world you are being My light among unbelievers and winning many for Me. Continue, My children, to testify of My salvation to all whom you meet and you will marvel at how many hearts I have prepared and who are ready to receive Me.

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God. (Ephes. 2:8)

Indeed, My beloved people, it was by grace you were saved, in yourselves you could do nothing. I chose each one of you who would be Mine, before the beginning of the world.

Then He said to them, 'Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And you are witnesses of these things.' (Luke 24:46-48)

I am calling you, My people, to be obedient to My great commission, to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature....your world being your friends, your neighbors and your loved ones. I am preparing the hearts of people everywhere to comprehend the message of the Gospel and to seek Me with all their hearts

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. (This alone is an incredible promise to you and me. The glory of God is the radiance of His presence which He desires to be revealed in us as His people) For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God." (Romans 8:18-21)

Several points and promises stand out as I read these verses. The first is that all of creation (both physiological and biological) that is calling out to God will be liberated from corruption through the promise of the New Heaven and the New Earth as spoken and prophesied in Isaiah 65. When we truly recognize our identity and place as sons and daughters of God; the creation itself will begin to be released from it's bondage through our liberty and rights as God's children. The "down-payment" of the Spirit of God within us is that powerful...It literally draws and pollinates the glory of heaven upon the earth.

"For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing, and her people a joy. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My people; the voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her, nor the voice of crying. No more shall an infant from there live but a few days, nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, but the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for as the days of the tree, so shall be the days of My people, and My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth children for trouble; for they shall be descendants of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them. (Isaiah 65:17-25)

This prophetic word spoken by Isaiah shows us a definite creation of a "new heaven and a new earth." Could this be the "applicable key" that we have been searching for in truly understanding "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on EARTH as it is in HEAVEN?" I realize that many teachings and wonderful revelations have come forth regarding this verse. However, have we moved from hearing it into experiencing and living it? Incredibly, we know that these verses in Isaiah 65 pertain to the present dispensation of time and place because the birthing of children is still taking place along with the building of houses and the curse or labor of mankind's hands.

When we receive Jesus Yeshua as our Lord and Savior, we become a "new" creation in Christ. Within the new creation comes access to a "new" dimension of living and being. Although we still carry the tent or physical body of the "old" man, our inner or spirit-man is renewed every day in communion with the Lord. In the same manner, we live in the "old" or fallen world, but have access to the renewing presence of heaven. This truth should not only excite us; it should encourage us to the limitless possibilities that are set before us as sons and daughters of God. We have read the verse and have heard the phrase, "the Spirit of God that dwells within us." But have we really embraced, believed, and walked in this biblical reality?

This prophecy clearly shows us that the creation of a New Heaven and a New Earth must come before the Millennial Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Again, I can state this because of the presence of mortal people and the evidence that sin and death are still present. (Along with childbirth as earlier stated). Now, at this point, I do not desire to offer this article as doctrine, but as a prophetic revelation for your discernment and hopeful benefit.

I believe that locked within these verses is a "pearl of great price." Could it be that portals or divine highways have been in place for the building of the kingdom of heaven on earth? Is it possible that we have missed our true and genuine call as the church and have been aimlessly stumbling in dead and limited works? I find it easy to conclude that there is purposeful reason that the millennial kingdom of Jesus Christ will be on "earth" and that we as church have been given the Spirit of God, anointing and authority to begin creating a habitation for His glory.

"But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. And the NATIONS of those who ARE saved shall walk in its light, and the KINGS of the EARTH (You have been called to be kings and priests unto our God) bring their glory and honor into it. Its gates shall not be shut at all by day (there shall be no night there). And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it." (Revelation 21:22-26)

This week has been a revelation breakthrough in my life as my eyes have been opened to the truth of God's Word that those who reside and abide in the New Jerusalem will be able to travel "into it" -- the spirit realm from earth to heaven and back to earth. Thus, the old wineskin (the church) and the old and fallen world will be illuminated with the life and love of Christ through the saints of God. Are we not to be a city burning bright with the glory of God upon hill for all to see? The divine traveling from earth to heaven as prophesied in the New Covenant must provide us a type of pathway that is seen by OBEDIENCE to God's Word, constructed by intimate RELATIONSHIP with Christ, and walked (traveled) upon by FAITH.

The statements above are the conditioning of our mind-set that must be in place for the bride to receive her Bridegroom. Its time we begin focusing on our wedding day and preparing for our new "living arrangements." The Bridegroom has and is doing His part in preparing a wonderful place (mansions) for us in heaven. His hands and feet have been bruised and pierced to the bone and He sweated blood in the building of His bride's home. The Bridegroom is approaching His wedding day fully prepared and ready for His bride. But what has the bride done to prepare for their eternal future together? Has she begun the preparation of her garment and the furnishing of her home in heaven? Has she even attempted to VISIT Him lately? Beloved, it begins here on earth and a desire visit heaven. It is in heaven that we receive the "pattern" (as Moses and David did) for an eternal marriage and lifestyle. It is the glory and the fragrance of heaven radiating through our lives that resurrects life and hope to a dying and dark world.

Those who know me realize that I am not keen on abstract or non-applicable prophetic material. But I am convinced that the Lord has chosen this time in my life to reveal His heart for "our" visitation and habitation with Him. Honestly, I am very ashamed and utterly convicted at how many times I have called on Him to come and visit me, but have never "really" sought to visit and habitat with Him. It's kind of like being a parent that must always go to their children's home for a Thanksgiving meal and intimate time together because the offspring are too busy or concerned with their own lives and needs.

Why would the Bible mention "heaven" over 500 times if God did not desire to show us something applicable and intimate about it? The word "heaven" sometimes refers to the atmosphere and universe (the second heaven) It is the third heaven – the residence of the Bridegroom that I hope you will be encouraged to longingly desire in a greater measure throughout the remainder of your "earthly" walk. The third heaven is also the residence of the Father. "Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In my FATHER'S HOUSE are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. And where I go you KNOW, AND THE WAY YOU KNOW." (John 14:1-4)

Even Abraham under an inferior covenant, was seeking by FAITH and "waited (looked - better translation) for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God...that they seek a homeland. And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them." (Hebrews 11:10, 14-16) The Lord clearly states that He accounted Abraham and the great seekers of a heavenly habitation as pleasing in His sight. You know, I honestly cannot say what this will require or even how to go about it. I wish I had some kind formula or spiritual answer to give you. I am simply and humbly stating what I believe to be a prophetic word from the heart of the Father in His desire that we visit with Him in heaven. I have not yet seen heaven...But more than ever, I am convinced that I hear my Father's voice calling me from "playing" outside to come in and spend some real time with Him.

I have learned (sometimes the hard way) that "timing" is essential for the anointing of the Lord to flow through prophetic ministry. Summer time is a time that we can get caught up in many activities and endeavors that lure us away from the kingdom of heaven. The Lord desires that we enjoy and rejoice in the newness of life and color that the summer months bring. However, the Lord desires that we also include Him in our vacations and the activities that the season brings. Likewise, He desires that make the time to swing by His house. After all, He is our Father!

"Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit." (James 5:17)

We have a tendency to visualize Elijah as this fearless prophet dressed in a beastly garb calling down fire from heaven. We can even see this perceived portrait and interpretation in James and John in their frustrated responses to the actions of the people in their day. There is an element of truth to this; however, the Bible says that he was a man just like you and me. The mantle that was upon this prophet allowed him the courage to speak out against the RELIGIOUS IDOLATRY of his day. He called down fire from heaven for the purpose of proving to the people of Israel that what the world around them was worshiping were helpless and breathless idols. Notice that his purpose was directed toward the people of God and not to prove a point to the world. The same is true today. Father is calling many into prophetic ministry to bring fire from heaven in consuming the breathless and helpless religious traditions of man. It is also clear that the consuming fire is to come from HEAVEN. The role of prophetic people is to CALL upon the fire and not BE the fire. It is usually within the frustrated vessel that we tend to go beyond what the Lord has called us to. This has caused many much trouble and disappointment. The PRIMARY CALL upon receiving a prophetic word is to pray and intercede. This is the PRIMARY REASON we have been given a word, but our greatest deficiency is our failure to pray the word through before we speak and act.

The prophetic mantle that the Lord is placing upon those who are called to prophetic function (not "title")is sealed and powered with the revelation and Spirit of Jesus Christ. The mantle upon Elijah pales in comparison to the weight of glory that awaits to rest upon the children of God through CHRIST. We must avoid false humility and readily accept this glorious promise and mandate. Many of us, because we have been so beaten down and corrected into silence, fail to come under the weight of God's glory and receive His mantle and commission. God want's us to know that Elijah was a man just like us. However, Elijah responded to the CALL of God. Is the Lord speaking to you today to respond to His call? Maybe this will encourage you.

Elijah had an awesome time in the fire and power of God upon Mount Carmel, but it wasn't long before Elijah had a "CAVE - IN" or a Mount Horeb Crisis. This was not the high point in Elijah's ministry and call. Yet, the Lord allows us to witness and relate to the prophet's humanity. He was one of the greatest prophets and men to walk the Earth; what would cause such a spiritual low point in his life? Again, Elijah was just like you and me. He struggled with the same issues of faith, doubt, rejection, and the list could go on and on. We all must understand and stand free of the guilt concerning spiritual highs and lows. There are "Carmels" and there are "Caves" in the lives of prophetic people. Even Jesus experienced a low point on the Mount of Olives. It is a common trait among prophetic people to walk in rejection. A lot of this has to do with the way God has "wired" us. We tend to value the opinions of others because we realize and believe what the Lord is giving us is a vital PART of what He desires to do in the lives of people (the church). And you know, for the most part, these feelings are genuine.

The Lord desires that we embrace our weaknesses and recognize our dependence upon Him and each other. Once we come to this point of maturity and transparency, He will place a DOUBLE PORTION of grace and anointing upon us. This is why the Lord is making prophetic connections in such a dynamic way today --- to minister healing and encouragement to one another who are under the prophetic umbrella of ministry. (You will notice that Elijah did not have a like-minded or gifted person to relate to before his "Cave-in.") We need to be honest with ourselves to understand that one of the greatest pains of rejection is to have a vision from God that nobody else shares or supports you in. This is about to change! Lets look at what Father desires to share with us and some lessons we can learn as prophetic people.

Elijah came on the scene at a time when Israel had not only turned their back on the Lord, but also began to follow the pagan religions around them.(Much like today) The kingdom united under David was now gone and divided into Israel in the North and Judah to the South. It is clear that the nation followed the examples of its leaders. Jeroboam, the first of Israel's kings, put the nation on a downward spiral of IDOLATRY by setting up two golden calf idols for the people to worship. It seems in scripture that all ties to the true worship of the Lord at the temple in Jerusalem (the capital of the southern kingdom) were severed. It is interesting that the Bible states many times, "That Jeroboam made Israel sin." It would be in this idolatrous RELIGIOUS KINGDOM that Elijah would be raised up as a prophet. Many of the prophets that the Lord is raising up are leaving their place of calling! Mature prophetic people are being called to the Mount Carmel's of their communities; however, many are leaving for areas of comfort and like-minded communities. It's easy to be prophetic when everyone else is on fire and desiring to hear a word from the Lord. Today, the Spirit of God is defining "Prophetic Jurisdictions." These are watchmen who have come under HIS mantle and will man their GATE regardless of the condition or adversary. In other words, Do not be hasty to leave the areas of adversity in your life. It may be your greatest opportunity to truly see the arm of the Lord's power manifested through your life.

Elijah was called to the Northern Kingdom 40 years after Jeroboam in the reign of the even more apostate King Ahab. Ahab built a counterfeit temple in a counterfeit capital -- Samaria. Ahab married Jezebel who encouraged and financed false prophets to pagan gods. The irony is that the Jezebel religious spirit still exists today. Jesus mentions it being around even in the last of the last days in the book of Revelation. Jezebel systematically killed off many of the true prophets of the Lord. (Kings 18) The same systematic "killing" of the prophetic voice succeeded for much of the last 1700 years until the present reviving of the dry bones that we are experiencing in our generation. Ahab and this religious system "did more to provoke the Lord than all the kings of Israel before him." (Kings 16:33) We still see the same today! We see the systematic killing of the prophetic voice and expression through this same Jezebel spirit. It is a spirit of religious CONTROL built upon SPIRITUAL INSECURITY. Many have made excuses for dismissing prophetic ministry today and I do not wish to discuss this at this time, but I will say that the rejection of prophetic ministry within the church can be easily traced to leadership that lacks INTIMACY with our heavenly Father. (spiritual insecurity). How else can you explain this when over 1/3 of the Scripture is based on dreams, visions and prophetic ministry? The spirit of Jezebel is a religious spirit that essentially "prophesies" that the true prophets of God must be silenced (killed).

Elijah was suddenly stepping into this culture of religious apostasy. Such idolatry (ministry or religious idolatry today) called for confrontation and judgment. However, before the confrontation on Mount Carmel would take place, the culture (and the church today) would need to realize the truth of God's blessings had to be withdrawn from the land. The people had to realize the religious "stuff" they were serving produced no "eternal kingdom" fruit. In other words, the people needed to know that the rain that God WOULD NOT provide, the false gods COULD NOT provide. For 3 ½ years the people of that land were CONDITIONED by God for a showdown on Mount Carmel. The prophets of God in this day that are genuine will be full of love and compassion, but will speak forth TRUTH. A prophetic word of drought is coming to nations and individuals who are serving religion rather than God. The thirst and greed for money will pang the souls of many when their "earthly kingdoms" crumble (bankruptcy) beneath them. A panting for the love they search for will vanish in the wind (divorce) because they have rejected the love of the Father. Loneliness (disobedience) will grip the hearts of many as they have turned their back on God. All of this will happen and has already happened within the walls of the CHURCH.

We ask ourselves, how can people be so deceived by religion and forsake the blessings of intimacy and relationship with God? Perhaps, these droughts are the conditions that God will permit to bring many who serve and worship religion rather than Him to their knees as a type of Mount Carmel judgment. Beloved, we have been saying for so long that judgment begins in the house of the Lord. Well, it has begun. With the understanding of this word must also come the understanding that our Father is loving-kind, slow to anger, and merciful. This is why we must proclaim the word of the Lord and not "prophesy peace in the land when there is no peace." (see Jer. 6:13-14) The battle for souls is raging and it is raging within the walls of the traditional church!

While the nation of Israel (a type of the church) was "reaping what it had sown", Elijah was being prepared for Mount Carmel. Elijah told Ahab that a water shortage and famine was coming to "his kingdom", and then disappeared from sight. This is an excellent example of prophetic maturity. We speak the word of the Lord and then leave it in God's hands. So many times in our zeal, we attempt to "drive" the word in when all along we are just to step back in faith and watch God move upon His word. Our CONFIRMATION and CONFIDENCE must cease coming from the words and actions of man! Lets speak the word of the Lord and entrust it back to Him. You see, ALL prophetic words are conditional. A response to the word must come from those hearing -- who have ears to hear. We speak or express to build and encourage, but also that "the uninformed or unbeliever is convicted to repent." (1 Cor.14:22) It would be in this time of drought (natural and spiritual) that Father would teach His prophet about His miraculous ways of provision and protection. We must remember that it was a time of drought and famine and Jezebel was out to kill every prophet of God. (Kings 18:10) I want to encourage you with knowing that Father has a way of protecting His servants. Only when we come to a place of complete confidence and faith in God are we ready for the Mount Carmels.

Mount Carmel was close to enemy territory --- as it will be for us. Queen Jezebel was from nearby Phoenicia, which was the source of many false prophets. Beloved, you will not find many false prophets in the world system, but in the religious system -- this is the enemy territory. Like Elijah, we must choose these same locations so that the power of God is glorified and that no "Home field advantage" can be claimed by the enemy! In other words, we take the battle into their camp! It was now in the CONFIDENCE of the Lord that Elijah boldly challenged and confronted the prophets of Baal to confirm their gods by fire. Importantly, he also challenged the people from Israel who had gathered in their curiosity. "How long will you HESITATE between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him, but if Baal (religious spirit), follow him." (1 Kings 18:21) The heart of God is what we are to proclaim. His heart is to challenge the "religious" to go all out for Him.

Many of these false prophets may have had a verifiable prophetic gift, but because of their lust for pleasure and the things of this world their gift was warped and perverted ... and eventually led to their death. (see 1 Kings 18:40) Of course the demonic powers behind Baal and these religious spirits were no match for the One true God in His glorious power. These pagan prophets were as serious then as they are today --- selling their souls to the gods of this world and satisfying the lusts of their flesh. They exhausted themselves in their vain beliefs and futile activities. When it became obvious that Baal and the religious spirits had failed, Elijah calmly and confidently REPAIRED the ALTER OF THE LORD and set it up to be consumed with fire even with water soaking it. There was to be no mistaking the power of God through the prophetic word spoken.

The climax of Elijah's Mount Carmel experience was the coming rains. Elijah was so filled with joy at witnessing the power of God and how everything worked out that he outran Ahab's chariot to Jezreel -- a town 30 miles away! This was a tremendous spiritual high for Elijah. But for some reason, it was a short lived mountain top experience. It seems that no sooner than Elijah had reached Jezreel that he was ready to hang it up. I have been here myself many times; it seems they have been in times where I did not understand the word the Lord gave me and its application or the belief that the word fell on deaf ears and was not accepted. We must remember that the Bible says that "Elijah was just like us." Elijah thought that what Ahab had seen and witnessed at Carmel would be enough to send Jezebel and her false prophets packing, but instead Ahab just casually spoke to Jezebel of the days events. Jezebel, in turn, sought to kill the prophet within 24 hours! Elijah, in HASTE, ran for his life --- failing to remember what God had shown him during the 3 ½ years of drought. He told the Lord 300 miles later that he desired to die because of his failure. Then, at Mount Horeb of all places, Elijah continues his self-assessment and pity. What a spiritual downturn! The prophet of God HIDING in a cave! Many of you who are prophetic and even those called to be a prophet(ess) are hiding in your caves because of the same issues that Elijah experienced. The Lord understands many of the hurts and rejections that His servants have had to endure in the church. The Lord is gently calling you out today as you read this. We must understand that, like Elijah, we are most vulnerable after a spiritual high. Many of you may be hiding and silent with the gift God has given you. Like Elijah, the source of your discouragement and disillusionment may be caused by your preoccupation with yourself and your circumstances. Notice Elijah's response and emphasis on himself and his ministry rather than his trust in God. I want to encourage you to step out of the caves of discouragement and PROPHESY to the land and people Father has brought into your life. Whether it be through art, music, dance, writing, or speaking --- Prophesy and EXPRESS the heart of God! The grace of God is clearly seen upon Elijah's life --- from the highest peaks to the darkest caves. Not only did the Lord care for Elijah in the cave, He continued to teach him that He not only spoke through fire and earthquakes, but also with a gentle and kind voice. Do you hear Father gently calling you back today? It's your destiny!

Heavenly Affections

Heavenly Affections June 4, 2005

There is a change coming to the whole body of Christ. We are about to enter a season of one of the greatest installments of heaven ever demonstrated in history. Before any great change there is a process of transition that God brings us through. This process brings us to a place of being divinely "undone" with where we have come in life so that we can recognize that we need to get somewhere else even if we don't know how to get there yet. There is also a war right now for the thoughts and hearts of mankind because of the great season of change we are coming into as a body of Christ world wide. God is giving many of us who are forerunning a gift right now; He is allowing everything outside of Himself that we have put hope in to fail us, so that He alone remains. Everything that would tie our minds or hearts to an earthly position, or to a man of God, or in fulfillment that is not unto eternity, will not succeed. Many people are devastated over the failure in one of these areas. The reality is that God will not let the church stay where it is presently and is exposing anything that would get in the way of His love.

Bob Jones prophesied that God would begin to take away the general grace that is on the world in 2005.

What this meant in my understanding is that everything that sustained us outside of God, even seemingly good things, are being challenged if not totally removed. He also prophesied that those who would walk in intimacy with God would be given a greater grace than the one that was removed. He saw an angel representing "Great Grace" coming to the people of God.

Heavenly Viewpoint

There is always only two ways of looking at our circumstances. We can see in an earthly way which is usually (if not always) discouraging, or we can look from a heavenly viewpoint. If we see with our earthly eyes but do not have the ability to resolve the circumstance, then we will be unsettled and live in anxiety. The culture in this world lives off anxiety and a number of sicknesses that have been loosed upon us that come from this place of stress. Our natural being is looking for ways to take on our problems and if we don't cast our cares upon God they can get stored up in our physical being or in the realm of our soul.

Many people have difficulties ranging from stomach disorders to back pain just because of the way they carry stress in life. Others have bitterness or unforgiveness that becomes energized by the reality of their daily stress. Ultimately, even if they tried to live life at peace, without coming to the Prince of Peace, they are overcome by the way they are carrying this place in their mind and heart. This is also a reason that entertainment can be so destructive because it numbs our pain and allows us to forget the cares of this world if for only a few hours at a time. When the movie is over, though, the stress is still laying somewhere within us like a dead weight. People who use entertainment to escape know that it only lasts a short period, much the same way being intoxicated from alcohol will not resolve our pain but only delay it.

There is a Higher Way

Because we were seated with Christ in heavenly places, we have an option of how we want to look at life even now.

We can look for something to give us a resolution here on earth or we can look to Him to bring a supernatural resolution. Paul knew of the pain and frustration of the church of his day. He addressed this in Colossians by calling them up higher: "Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things." -- Colossians 3:1, 2

There are two steps to this Scripture. It deals with our mind AND our heart being focused on things above. In this transition that the body of Christ is in we have to do everything we can to learn the disciplines of setting our affections on things above. Soaking in the Bible, worshiping, seasons of prayer and meditation, spending time in His beauty, cultivating the arts within us, being occupied with righteous work . . . these are things that tie our affections to heaven. These train our minds and hearts to dwell in the eternal reality of being with Jesus where He is.

Physical and Emotional Healings Can Happen in a Sovereign Moment

I believe many people are delivered of illness when they just focus from an eternal viewpoint because their physical body does not need to carry their cares anymore. In the same way, if we seek His Kingdom first, then our emotional stings from earthly relationships begin to get resolved in one sovereign moment with God. When we worship, our heart releases its cares to rest in Him. When we memorize Scripture, our mind thinks with a Christ-like virtue, and unforgiveness has no place in us and our affections can no longer hold it. This is why it's so important to behold Jesus and not the earthly realm.

The Provision For the Destiny is More Important Than the Destiny

Because He is Our Provision Paul Keith Davis always says, "If there is a destiny on earth, then there is a provision in heaven." If this is true, then we can not set our affections and focus on the earthly destiny no matter how awesome it is. At some point the failure of man or our own failure will cause us to look away, even if only for a moment, from our own promises of destiny on earth or our hopes for this life. We have to begin to set our affections on things above, so that even failure or betrayal cannot take away the faith in our hearts over God Himself. He is nothing like man or the best that this earth has to offer. We then need to focus on this provision of heaven that will enable us to cooperate with heaven while still here on earth. Ultimately, as we set our minds and hearts on this provision, we will see Him, Jesus.

Helicopter Dream

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

March 18, 2009

In this dream I experienced a struggle with a long series of documents that spoke of or advertised worthy causes or events. I had to devote lots of time and energy to processing each one. It was making me very tired; I was loosing my peace.

Then still in the dream, the Lord showed me that these are just a lot of time wasters, and distractions. They are snares of the devil to get you to focus on the good, instead of the best i.e. God’s will for your life.

Next I found my self in the cargo bay of a military helicopter that was very cluttered. Suddenly a voice came over the loudspeaker system.

Take out the trash, and stow away the loose gear. Find your seats and buckle in.

The ‘Boss’ was getting into the pilot’s seat, and warming up the engines for takeoff. Remember a helicopter does not need a runway, it just goes straight up.

Interpretation

A Military Helicopter speaks of warfare.
A Combat Mission is in the works.
Trash speaks of the distractions in our lives, if we don’t need it get rid of it.
Loose gear is the important things that need to be put in order.
Your seat is your place of ministry.
Buckle in is to make your calling and election sure.
The Boss is Jesus, captain of the Host.
Getting into the Pilot’s Seat speaks of taking His place as head of the Body.
Engines starting speaks of the whirlwind.
Takeoff is ascending to heavenly places with Christ.

File under Rapture of the Manchild.

Heel Grippers And Healing

Heel Grippers And Healing

Since the days of Jacob, the ambition of heel gripping has wounded, devoured and plundered the hearts of many. Because of the passion inside, Jacob took the inheritance that was meant for another. In the end he received what he desired, but not without great cost and a change within his nature and his name.

There are many who have been greatly wounded by this spirit among My people. As a pendulum swinging to both sides of the extreme, some churches have fleeced My sheep for their wealth in money and spiritual gifts without the regard for caring for them as My sheep. On the other side are those who have worn sheep's clothing and come through the church gates for the purpose of promoting their product or gift, in order to build their own name and kingdom. Both have lusted for the wealth of another, and taken - rather than received.

My sheep in all shapes and sizes have fallen prey to this devouring where instead of being adopted, they were used and abused. I long to heal these wounded ones and adopt them into safe places. I long to place them into families that will give honor to whom honor is due. I yearn to connect My own where their voice is heard, where their wealth of gifts are used and appreciated, and where they will grow and bloom in a loving environment. Forgive and release the offenses dear ones. Change your own behaviors and then call out to Me to bring you divine connections.

Gal 6:10 NKJV
Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Ps 68:5-6 NKJV
A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy habitation. God sets the solitary in families.

Words to Ponder are summaries of prophetic revelation, punched with the word of wisdom and written under inspiration. [Sandy Warner: swauthor@usa.net / website: www.thequickenedword.com] Permission given to forward or post.

How About Healing Your Heel
Sandy Warner

Dec 7, 2005
Hi Loved Ones,
Several noticed the typo on today's Ponder. It was supposed to be HEEL grippers. I consider the whole thing rather quickened, since I believe it was a prophetic blooper. God is going to heal the walk of those who have been bruised by wolves and betrayers.

Also several noticed that the ponder paralelled Dennis Cramer's post on Elijah List, Whose Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf? I noticed that too! I posted this a few months ago on reserve at inJesus. I rarely know what is coming and it is always a joy to hear of their timing and how they confirm.

QUICKENED SCRIPTURES

Ps 41:9 NKJV
Even my own familiar friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, Has lifted up his heel against me.

Gen 3:14-15 NKJV
So the LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this, You are cursed more than all cattle, And more than every beast of the field; On your belly you shall go, And you shall eat dust All the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, And between your seed and her Seed; He shall bruise your head, And you shall bruise His heel."

Rom 16:19-20 NKJV
Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

WORD TO PONDER: WRESTLING WITH DEMONS 6/16/05
So often you are unaware that the lack of peace you have in your relationships is actually that you are actually wrestling with demons. There are demons that take up resident in lives even in the womb and have lived out their personalities within people. They so masquerade themselves that even the person does not understand that the nature of their true personality and what they are feeling is not really their own. I see these things, dearest. I understand the wars that go on.

Your highest calling is to love, forgive and pray for those you love. As you learn to love those who are captive to demons, it releases them to overcome and become like Me. When you judge, criticize and argue with them, it only wounds their already wounded soul and brings them into worse captivity.

Lay down your contention. Lay down your striving and bring all soul wrestling to a close. Pray and take authority over the demonic, but do not use the weapons of flesh with people. Do not allow the demonic to steal your own peace. When you wrestle in our own soul over someone else's demons, you lose your peace. So repent of your ways, come into alignment with My heart so that you may find your peace and release others to find theirs.

Rom 16:20 NKJV
And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

PRAYER
Abba please heal those who walk with a limp. So many are bruised from betrayal and from wrestling with the demonic. Many heel grippers have acted like wolves and wounded so many. I pray that You grant us grace to forgive those who have sinned against ourselves and You, and that as we do, it will release those who have walked like heel grippers to have their identities changed into Your image, in Jesus Name.

May we overcome our limps and walk in peace. Lovingly, Sandy

The Very Last Drop

THE VERY LAST DROP
As I see you freely give every last drop you have of your time, energy and gifts, it brings Me to tears. My beloved child, how you touch My heart! Thank you for being My conduit in giving everything I have given to you. You have poured and poured and emptied all your energy of body, soul and spirit, - all for the sake of love. You have so little time to contemplate your own needs and yet when you do, I hear your concerns that I might pass you by. Oh dear one!!!!! How could I ever bypass the one who loves so much? You plant, you tend and you nurture, then you give away your harvest. As much as you have done it unto the least of these, you have done it unto Me! Your oil and your wine shall never cease. You shall never suffer lack as long as you have Me.

Acts 3:6 NKJV
Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk."

Your Fruit Shall Remain

YOUR FRUIT SHALL REMAIN
Just like homing pigeons always returning home to their place of birth, I have planted inside of you the ability to return to your resting place. Dear one, I understand the pressures in life draw you many places outside of the comfort zone of your intimacy with Me. There will come a day when you will be so settled in Me and I will be so settled in you, that you will dwell in your resting place no matter where you are or what you are doing. My will is that our times of intimacy will forever birth the fruit of our remaining as One.

John 1:32-34 NLT
Then John said, "I saw the Holy Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and resting upon him. I didn't know he was the one, but when God sent me to baptize with water, he told me, 'When you see the Holy Spirit descending and resting upon someone, he is the one you are looking for. He is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' I saw this happen to Jesus, so I testify that he is the Son of God."

Has God Forsaken His People?

Michael L. Brown

Some things are non-negotiable. God's covenant with Israel is one of them. How could He have made Himself more clear?

He gave His oath to Abram, and reiteratedit six more times to Abraham, to his son Isaac and to his grandson Jacob. On one occasion, "When God made His promise to Abraham, since there was no one greater for Him to swear by, He swore by Himself" (Heb.6:13).

Why did God speak so decisively? It was because He "wanted to make the unchanging nature of His purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, [so] He confirmed it with an oath' (Heb. 6:17). God Who cannot lie bound Himself by an oath!

His covenant with Israel was reiterated through Moses, repeated by the prophets and rehearsed by the psalmists. Jesus Himself affirmed it (Matt. 19:28), Paul articulated it(Rom.9-11) and the gates of the New Jerusalem announce it forever (Rev. 22:11-12). God has chosen Israel as His covenant people.

What if Israel broke the covenant? What would then happen to them? Listen to these unmistakably clear truths: "Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy you. I will discipline you but only with justice; I will not let you go entirely unpunished" (Jer. 30:11). God will completely destroy other nations, but He will not completely destroy Israel! He treats His people differently from other people; they are judged more strictly, but they will never be wiped out.

No matter what Israel does, God will never forsake them as a distinct people. In Jeremiah 31:31-34, the Lord declares that He will make a new covenant with Israeland Judah. But He doesn't stop there. It's as if He's saying, "Now, don't get me wrong! Don't think that this new covenant means that I'm abandoning My people. No!"

This is what the LORD says, He who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar – the LORD Almighty is His name: "Only if these decrees vanish from My sight," declares the LORD, "will the descendants of Israel ever cease to be a nation before Me." This is what the LORD says: "Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done," declares the LORD (Jer. 31:35-37).

As long as there is a sun, moon, stars, earth, and sea, there will be a distinct people of Israel– no matter what they do. It's God's promise! It's true!

"Is not Ephraim my dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against him, I shall remember him. Therefore My heart yearns for him, I have great compassion for him," declares the Lord (Jer. 31:20)

Look at how relevant God's prophetic word is to our day and age. For centuries the Church, in arrogance, because of ignorance, claimed that she alone was the true Israel, that she had replaced the ancient covenant people. The Church taught that it was the Christians alone who were the true Jews. (How strange that these Christians were not claiming to be Jewish during the Holocaust!) The Church taught emphatically that the physical people of Israel(those who were ethnically Jewish and those who joined the nation through conversion to Judaism) were eternally rejected.

This is not some worn-out old doctrine. It is on the increase again in our day. Yet the Lord is not surprised. Twenty-five hundred years ago, He already addressed this issue:
The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: " Have you not noticed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms He chose?' So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation. This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not established My covenant with day and night and the fixed laws of heaven and earth, then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them' " (Jer.33:23-26)

People are still murmuring against Israel and despising the people and the nation.
God's answer is still the same: "I will never reject them!"

What exactly did God promise Abraham and his descendants? How long are His promises good? Psalm 105 has the answer for us.

He remembers His covenant forever, the word He commanded for a thousand generations, the covenant He made with Abraham, the oath He swore to Isaac. He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant: "To you will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit"(Ps. 105:8-11).

Did God make himself clear? The Scriptures speak of God's covenant, the word He commanded, His oath which He confirmed as a decree forever, for a thousand generations, as an everlasting covenant. The Lord is trying to make a point!

Not only did He promise to bless Abraham and make him into a great nation; not only did He promise to multiply his seed; not only did He promise to make him the father of many nations; not only did He promise to bless those who blessed him and curse those who cursed him; He also promised Abraham the land of Canaan, with clearly defined borders, as an everlasting inheritance to his natural descendants –until this earth is no more.

Amazingly, some teachers have tried to get out of this perpetual land promise to Israel. They claim that in the New Testament, neither Jesus nor the apostles ever reiterate this particular aspect of the covenant. But why should they reiterate it? When almost all of the New Testament was being written, about one million Jews were living in the Land, Jerusalem was the spiritual and national capitol and the Temple was still standing. And Jesus made it clear that, despite Jerusalem's soon-coming destruction – a destruction that would last "until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled" – He would come back to a Jewish Jerusalem (Luke 21:24; Matt. 23:37-39).Obviously Jews would be in the Land!

But there is another reason why Jesus and the apostles did not explicitly stress the land promise to their people. The specifics of God's covenant with the patriarchs were so clearly stated in the Scriptures that it would have been a waste of words to repeat them all! David Brown, the respected nineteenth century Bible commentator, was correct when he said: "What is permanent in the kingdom of God under the Old Testament is PRESUMED in the New."

And let all believers who question Israel's rights to the Land, based on the New Testament, take note of this: The New Testament doesn't state that Israel would be exiled from the Land either! Both of these Old Testament truths, Israel's scattering and Israel's regathering, are presumed in the New.

The covenant God made with Israel is just like the covenant He made with David. The Lord declared to David that He would establish a lasting dynasty for him. He gave this promise to David's son who would succeed him on the throne:

When he does wrong, I will punish him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men. But My love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom Ire moved from before you. Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before Me; your throne will be established forever (2 Sam.7:14-16)

What a wonderful word! In spite of David's terrible sin and Solomon's tragic backsliding, in spite of the godlessness of Davidic kings like Ahaz and Manasseh, the kingdom would never be taken from his physical descendants.

When the kingdom was divided and God gave Jeroboam the ten northern tribes, He did so to humble David’s descendants, "but not forever" (1 Kin. 11:39). He still left one tribe with the sons of David, "so that David My servant may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put My Name" (1 Kin. 11:36). The King of kings and Lord of lords is a direct descendant of David! God was faithful to keep His word to David, and He is just as faithful to keep His word to Israel.

His covenant with Abraham is just as unconditional and everlasting as His covenant with David. Read Genesis 15carefully. In ancient days, that is how covenants were made. Sacrificial animals were cut in two and their severed bodies placed in two lines. Both parties entering into the covenant would then walk between the carcasses. By doing so they were symbolically saying, "If I break this binding agreement, if I fail to uphold my side of the pact, then let me suffer the same fate that these animals have suffered." But something was different in Genesis 15. Only God passed through the pieces! This was a one-way deal (see Gen.15:17-21)

The Land belonged to other nations. But at the proper time it would be given to Abraham's seed. If they violated the terms of the covenant – especially as expressed through Moses – then they would be punished and even driven temporarily from the Land. But just as God's word to David stands firm, His word to Abraham endures, no matter what Israel does. This is what He said through Moses. When the Israelites are …in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or abhor them so as to destroy them completely, breaking My covenant with them. I am the LORD their God. But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God. I am the LORD (Lev. 26:44-45; see also Deut. 4:27,30-31)

Even today, when "As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies on [our] account; [yet] as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, for God's gifts and His call are irrevocable" (Rom. 11:28-29). Could anything be more plain?

Right now the great majority of the Jewish people are our "enemies" as far as the gospel is concerned. They reject our message (the Orthodox Jews reject it most strongly), and some even actively oppose it. As individuals, they forfeit their covenant blessings when they turn from Jesus the Messiah. But as a people, they are still elect and loved "on account of the patriarchs.” Otherwise, God's promises have no meaning and election has no significance. “Abraham, I'm swearing by Myself, I'm putting My reputation on the line. I will bless your offspring always – no matter what. (But I may replace them with someone else one day!)" That is not the Lord that we serve.

God's covenant with Abraham is just as unconditional and everlasting as His covenant with the Church. The Lord "saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of His mercy" (Titus 3:5). Praise God, we were chosen by grace! But we are not the only recipients of the Lord's unmerited favor. To Israel, Moses said:

The LORD did not set His affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath He swore to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the land of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt (Deut. 7:7-8).

Sounds familiar, doesn't it? God's covenants with Israel and with the Church are based on His promise, not our performance.

Old Testament Israel and the new Testament Church both stood, and still stand, by grace. Both received God's eternal promises. Together we make up the family of God: The faithful ones of Israel and the chosen ones from every nation become one new man out of the two, one body, one people. "For through Him[Jesus!] we both have access to the Father by one Spirit" (Eph. 2:18). Great is the wisdom of God.

This is not what the Muslims believe. It is a fundamental tenet of the Koran that both Israel and the Church failed. Moses was a prophet. Jesus was a prophet. But Muhammad was the seal of the prophets, the messenger of the final revelation. The Jews are not the people of God – they failed! The Christians are not the people of God – they failed! It is Muslims who are the people of God.

Of course, this is preposterous. But, in the event that you are still uncertain about the calling of Israel, consider this simple truth: If God could forsake Israel, in spite of His unconditional, everlasting promises, then He could forsake the Church! If God could replace Israel, in spite of His unconditional, everlasting promises, then He could replace the Church! So, if you hold to a theology that says, "God has forsaken physical Israel," or "The Church has replaced Israel," you had better be extremely careful.

Maybe the Koran is right!

Harvest - God's Heart beat

Bayo Omoyiola

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

The harvest truly is plenteous but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. - Matt.9:37-38
(Ref.13:24-30, Matt.13:8, Matt.9:37-38)
Harvest!, Harvest!!, Harvest!!! says the voice of the trumpet. Its time for harvest and there would be harvest. God is saying Harvest time is come. The time of your reaping is here. The fruits are ripe so get ready for there shall be a mighty harvest.

This harvest is all about the winning of souls. God desires it so much. From the references you would see that this message involves separation of the wheat from the tares, multiplication of the good fruits (30 fold, 60 fold and 100 fold) and then prayer for more harvester to come to the field.

Its time for pruning. Its time for separating the original from the mixture. God hates mixture. He wants to save the good and original Christians and multiply them. These represent the seeds that fall on good ground. God wants an increase of that.

The hour has come for judgment to come on the false church. They've taken a lot from us for they grew with us. Some of the even prophesied and did great signs and wonders but the time has come for them to be exposed. God is saying unto his people - Come out of her. She is Babylon, the city of fools.
God is calling his people unto him. He is calling for an holy separation. People who will seek him would know him. They would know that there is a paradigm shift.

Alignment to new strategies

There is a paradigm shift. Stop doing things the way you used to do them. Its a new day. God is giving new strategies. New strategies for new assignments. As God is giving new assignments to his people. He would give new strategies. We are to align ourselves with this so we can have the maximum and full harvest.

More harvest of souls

Its time for more harvest of souls. We need more people into the kingdom so prayers and actions should be taken towards this. There would be more harvest this season. The good people of the Lord would be replicated.

Maturity of the church

The harvest also concerns the maturity of the body. The church of Jesus Christ would be ripe, matured, complete and perfect unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. Gradually the church is maturing and she would mature into her fullness - the full image of Christ.

Re-positioning/ Re-ordering

God is calling for a re-positioning. He is calling for a reformation. He wants a re-arrangement. He wants the church to be the way it was before. He is calling us back to order.
If you desire to be used by God re-position yourself.

Prophecy

Thus saith the Lord - I am bringing order to my house. My tabernacle of David I would build. In the midst of this, affliction would arise but my people shall prevail. I am going to do a new thing

- saith the Lord of Host and the ears of them that hear it would tingle. I `d bring precious stones and I'd rebuild the house of David. The ruins are fallen. Jerusalem is in a mess but I'll rebuild her. I am calling my servants with pure hearts to draw near. Do not involve yourselves in the mess that is going on. I am calling the prophets to alert my people of their false ways. I am re-ordering the path of my people.

I Have Heard Your Cry
Bayo Omoyiola

7/19
I have heard your cry. Your groanings have come unto me. I will grant unto you your hearts desire and your desperation will be no more. For you shall behold your hope. Your desire shall come true and you shall have what you ask for in times of prayer.

I'll prepare you - a servant before me and you shall put my house in order. You shall weep no more for I have heard your cry. Build my people with your words of prophecy. Sing songs. Use your enablement to awaken the nations that sleepeth. Do the work of ministry. All these would I require from you on the last day.

Therefore be diligent to put down in writing all that I've committed into your hands. Use them well. They are for the edification of my body. Build the house. Pray but prophesy also. Use my enablement to stir up the hearts of the people you minister to.

Put your yoke upon me and know that I care for you. I would help you. I will bear the burden in prayer. I will release you to your rest and you shall be assured that your wanted request have been granted.

The Chastening Process
Bayo Omoyiola

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth... Heb.12: 6 - 11. (Ref.- Heb.13:12, James 1: 2-3,12)

I sense in my Spirit that a lot of Christians today have to go through the chastening process. They ought to go through this process so that they can be matured. The Lord doesn't chasten babies. Lots of us are still babies. We don't want rebukes. But as long as you don't love it and don't want it. You will forever remain a baby Christian but if you'll decide to take the chastening of the Lord today. You'll begin to grow in the Spirit. The Lord is chastening his sons. He is saying that they should come out of the bad habits and come into light. Your works will be tried but count it all joy when you face divers temptations and trials. Many of us are going through the chastening presently and God is busy maturing us through this process of transformation.

Prophecy:

Thus saith the Lord:
I only want to refine and reform you (when you pass through trials). Its only because I want you to be better. I want to reform you so that you can be better. I only chastise them that are matured. I don't chasten babes. If you'll grow unto a stage of maturity then you got to take my chastisement. Take it for your refining. IF YOU `LL PASS THROUGH IT, I `LL BRING YOU OUT BETTER THAN YOU'VE EVER

BEEN.

Take the rebuke. Take the chastening for its only for this present time. I'LL MAKE YOU BETTER so you can forget about the sorrows of this time. Endure the chastening. Endure the hardship as a soldier for a brighter glory lies ahead of you.
Just look at Jesus. How he was tried at the cross. He received beating from merciless soldiers. They scourged him (ripped off his skin) and in pain he laboured to bring forth your salvation.

I have planned this your salvation well but you have to endure for a crown of glory awaits you in heaven. I plan to perfect all things but the journey to perfection starts from the cross. The cross signifies death. There are many Christians today who are not selfish. They are selfless. Its because they have gone through my death. The suffering process has killed the self in them. They are purified. They are tried and they are made better.

The pure man would always see me in all things. See me in your trials. Even in your darkest hour I would be with you. In tribulation. In trials. In lack and want. I would always support you. Go through the trials of the flesh. Do not oppose them. They would work out patience in you. Let patience have her perfect course. (James 1: 3-4).

To a minister God says :
I have planned to wait for you till you come forth so that I can USE YOU in meetings of the end-time. I want you to be a soldier of the Lord - full of vigour(strength) and power. Full of the Spirit of God.
And to his maturing sons he says :
Come to maturity my sons. I am raising you up. I am raising the standard. You must not compromise. They that are feeble shall become strengthened. They shall be as David and the house of the Lord shall be as God.

Be diligent to plan for out of planning, you will achieve much. Be prepared for every course you take. with diligence you shall excel.

To those struggling with the flesh God says:
Work out your salvation with trembling. Be afflicted and mourn. Weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy into heaviness. For with sorrow your heart will be made better and for godly sorrow worketh repentance.

These are the days of judgment. I am judging mount Zion. The mount shall be cleansed. I am raising a standard. I AM BUILDING MY HOUSE IN PURITY. I AM SETTING THE STANDARDS. I am reforming my people. My people shall be cleansed of their idolatry. In their hearts there are many idols. They are vivacious unto the things of the earth but I am changing all that. I want them to be conscious of the Spirit. I want their flesh deadened. I want them to be cleansed and purified. I am putting my house in order. I'd do what I would do and my house would be a better place.

Holy Ghost Joy

Todd Bentley

Today, I want to invite you to actually jump right into the river! I believe that some of you are drinking from the shoreline somewhat fearful of really getting in there! Don't be afraid! We'll ask the Lord to fill us up from head to toe with His Spirit—then we'll really be able to stay afloat and receive the joy that's found in God's presence. We'll even have some fun! So let's pray together:

Father, we want to thank you for your kindness to us! We didn't completely realize how much you want us to receive and experience Your joy. We want to honor You today as we dig into Your Word, and we invite You to expand our revelation about what it really means to walk with You, filled up with joy.

We want to soak up everything that You want to release to us today! Please fill us up from head to toe with Your Spirit so that we can stay afloat in the river of Your pleasures and receive everything You want to give us.

In Jesus name. Amen.

IMBIBING

God is into moving on (touching) our feelings and He wants each of us to release back to Him the same kind of emotions that we share with our husband, wife or friend. Relationship really is a two-way adventure. King Solomon expressed this so well:

"I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, friends; drink and imbibe deeply, O lovers" (So. 5:1).

God wants our whole heart and He is inviting us to come to a sacred place of intimacy with Him so that He can touch us in a way that no one else can. He wants us to imbibe deeply. Imbibe means: to take into the mind and keep, as ideas; to drink (Webster's New World Dictionary). When we draw close to God with our whole being (body, soul and spirit), He can't resist our devotion and, as a result, His presence comes upon us. That's how we imbibe deeply. We're drinking and soaking in His presence. We're drinking from the river of His pleasures.

As I said last week, it can actually become easy for us to receive all that God has for us from the river of His pleasures—the joy, the fullness of the Spirit. But you know, if you're like I was, you'll need to learn how to drink from the river. With this in mind I want to share with you several specific ways that will help you to imbibe deeply.

HOW TO DRINK

DRAW NEAR TO GOD AND RECEIVE

One of the first ways that I learned to drink was by taking the initiative to worship the Lord and press in. As I communed with Him, it wouldn't take long before I would begin to feel the presence of God, and so I would actually lie down on my carpet and soak up His presence. If I felt His presence begin to lift or wane, then once again I would worship Him, pray and press in. As I spent time with the Holy Spirit this way, there would be such an exchange of love between us, just like King Solomon wrote about in the scripture just mentioned.

And so I would keep a low posture and continue to drink and, if His presence lifted, I'd get up again and ask God again for the glory and I'd ask again for His manifest presence to stay. I'd say, "God, I am drawing near unto you, draw near to me." When I felt that glory again, I'd get down on the carpet and soak it up. This would happen again and again—I would be deliberate about receiving from the Lord and giving to the Lord. There is a difference between being in the presence of God and actually receiving the Holy Spirit. So I began to practice receiving "God consciousness" to the point that now I can close my eyes and in seconds feel the glory of God.

BE SET FREE FROM "PROGRAMMING"

As well, what brought me to the place where I can drink deeply was when I was set free from the "programming" (in religion and in church) that teaches that it's wrong to have emotions, experiences and manifestations. After the Lord told me to go ahead and drink from the river of pleasure, I realized that if God has a river of pleasure, then He is into emotions, feelings and pleasure! This revelation set me free!

Having said that, I do realize that if the manifestations and the feelings aren't there, then we must hold on to the truth and the Word of God. (And the truth of God is the truth of God.) But when the feelings are there, then praise God . . . have the feelings! I'm not in that camp that says, "We don't need to feel or experience any manifestations." I'm like, "I need those manifestations!" Listen! A man with an experience far outweighs a man with an argument. I want to experience everything that I say I know because then I really know. Hallelujah!

He wants relationship with us. Listen. You wouldn't want to be in a relationship with your husband or with your wife and you wouldn't want to have intimacy and friendship with someone that was just downright cold. You don't say to your beloved, "Let's be together and just work. It's going to be serious, no emotions, no laughter and jokes. No intimacy. Nothing. I don't want you to feel any affection for me and I don't want to feel any affection coming from you." Many of us believe that's how we must relate to God.

But when we're set free from those mindsets, it's a whole lot easier to be able to drink and receive from the Holy Ghost. As I said last week, we're set free when we make up our minds to deliberately receive from God what He has on His heart for us. When we cooperate with God, we'll be set free!

BE OPEN TO RECEIVE

One other way is learning how to be quiet and still in His presence (Ps. 46:10)—being open to receive from God. In fact, in that quiet place I learned to come into His presence and lie on the floor with my mouth open! "I am the Lord your God, Who brought you out of the land of Egypt; open your mouth wide, and I will fill it" (Ps. 81:10). With my mouth wide open, thirsty, He would fill me up from His river of pleasures.

God wants to fill you up, too! Did you know that God issued an invitation through the prophet Isaiah: "Ho! Everyone who thirsts: come to the waters . . . come, buy wine and milk without money and without price . . . and let your soul delight itself in abundance" (55:1,2b). God always does things in abundance. He wants us to go ahead and delight our soul in abundance. He is essentially saying something like this: "Come to the waters. Come without money. I want you to come for the wine." He is talking about the new wine.

So I started having a revelation about letting my soul delight itself in abundance and about coming to the waters, taking freely. Although I knew that I could drink as much as I wanted, I didn't actually see "the waters." I realized that I must come to the waters by faith because without faith it is impossible to please God (Heb. 11:6). And that's how we were all saved—by faith—believing that Jesus died on the cross atoning for our sins and then praying and asking Him to come into our heart as our Lord and Savior. We can drink the same way that we were saved. We're invited to come to the waters and we can drink as much as we want to, just like when we believe from our heart and receive anything else from God.

By faith we can jump into the river, dip our faces into the water and lap it up! I said, "Lord, right now I am thirsty. So I come to the river and I'm going to let my soul delight itself in You. I want abundance, God. And You said I could freely drink so I am dipping myself in your river, Jesus, and I'm drinking right now. I'm drinking, Lord. I'm drinking. Yep. I'm opening my mouth wide! I'm freely taking. Just like, Lord, when I asked You to come into my life, I'm receiving." This may seem absolutely foolish to you. But some things really do confound our minds!

Listen. Jesus made some statements and decrees that most of the people never understood, that confounded their minds. The apostle John wrote about the time when Jesus "cried out, saying, 'If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink'" (Jn. 7:37). Right in the middle of the feast, on the last day, that great day of the feast (the Feast of Booths), Jesus got up and cried out, "Hey! Is anyone thirsty? Let Him come unto me and drink!" We might be thinking: come on! Why does God have to shout that out right then and there? That might shake somebody up or offend somebody.

Well, He said, " . . . let him come to Me and drink," so I took God at His word. I said, "Lord, I can drink freely, so I come and I'm putting my face in the river!" I started to drink by faith. And then I started to teach other people how to drink by faith. I'd tell them, "Okay, guys, let's make a barrel; get out your barrel." Then I'd declare, "We take our barrel and we dip our barrel down into the river and we say, 'Lord we drink.'" And I'd tell everyone to put their head back and open their mouth and say, "Lord, I tip my barrel back and I drink!" The reason why I'd have people say, "Lord, I tip my barrel back and I drink" is because when we have our mouth open, we can't talk! (And it's by faith that we receive.)

When we tip our heads back and open our mouths, we have to receive! We're directing our hearts and our love to God—we're giving ourselves to Him! And He's giving Himself to us! You know, there is a principle that we reap what we sow (Gal. 6:7) and when we give generously, we receive blessings in return (Luke 6:38, Prov. 11:25). When we give ourselves to the Lord, He gives Himself to us.

THE "LAW OF DRINKING"

The word principle means: a fundamental truth, law, etc. upon which others are based (Webster's New World Dictionary). With this in mind, I want to discuss the "law of drinking" found in the book of Esther because there is a principle in this law that the Lord wants us to understand.

Let's turn to the first chapter of Esther where we read that King Ahasuerus hosted two magnificent banquets so that every invited guest would have a revelation of the riches, glory and splendor of his great majesty (v. 3-5). At each feast, royal wine was served in abundance (v. 7). And they served this royal wine "in accordance with the law" which means that each person could drink as much as he wanted or not at all—there was no compulsion (v. 8). The wine was served according to the generosity of the King, but nobody was being forced to drink.

Now, I want us to come to understand the spiritual principle symbolized in the law of drinking; namely, that we're permitted to drink as much as we want according to the great generosity of the King of Kings! You know, Jesus is making a feast for us! In eternity His followers, believers, will gather together at the marriage supper of the Lamb (Rev. 19:7-9) where the best wine ever created will be poured into our wine goblets (Matt. 26:29). But for now, here in planet earth, He has lovingly poured out precious seasons of renewal and revival for us, His church—an outpouring of the Holy Ghost and renewed intimacy—like good wine. We can drink as much as we want from His river of pleasures!

In this blessed place we can receive fresh revelation of the majesty, strength and power of Jesus Christ and His kingdom. Today, His generosity continues and He is telling us to go ahead and drink the royal wine in abundance. He is pouring out His Spirit with new wine! God is actually working into the heart of His bride a love for Him and a fresh revelation of His glory and His kingdom.

THE FRUIT OF RENEWAL

So we must not offend the Lord with a mindset that believes it's wrong to go after manifestations and that it's wrong for God to move in our emotions! Rather, let's let God offend our minds and any religious self-righteousness dwelling in our hearts. God has a way of offending us, doesn't He?! The fact is, when He uses the foolish, weak, base things of the world—even people like me—that can offend us! It can offend the "status quo!" But we can take comfort in the fact that Jesus always upset and offended the status quo!

Actually, when we went to Africa, for awhile we offended the status quo there because of the way we ministered. Our contacts said, "Todd, many souls are being saved but you don't wear a tie like the rest of us. You don't handle the church meetings like we do and when you minister, the Africans get drunk and laid out under the power of God." Even though, at first they had difficulty with this, later they said, "But you know what, we really love it!"

Also in Canada I hear some believers say they don't understand the manifestations and some of the drunkenness. The way we function seems so foolish to them and even offends them. However, they do admit that there is good fruit that has come out of drinking from the river—like thousands of souls saved and miracles happening!

Today, perhaps you're getting somewhat wet in the river but you're wanting more—more good fruit manifesting in your life—the joy of the Lord, ministering to the lost, healing the sick and even raising the dead. Maybe you're not getting as blasted and pickled as you want because there's a part of you that receives, but you can only go so far and then you shut down.

So we're going to pray and break the bondages that are hindering you from getting as wet as God wants you to get. We're going to believe the Lord will set you free from the guilt of wanting more than the walking by faith and not by sight mentality. He wants to set you free from this even as He continues to pour out the royal wine of His spirit in abundance. Your mind does not have to be dry. He wants you to be filled with Holy Ghost joy and to taste and share the fruit of renewal!

I want to invite you to pray with me that by the Spirit of God, freedom and liberty is going to come. Let's make some declarations, too.

PRAYER

Father, we want to thank you for Your great kindness to us. Thank you for setting such a magnificent banqueting table before us in the presence of our enemies. We want to taste the royal wine and we want to drink from Your river of pleasures according to Your generosity! O God, we don't take this for granted! We want to drink the wine, the refreshing and the renewal of the Holy Ghost!

Yes, Lord, let the vats overflow with the new wine and new oil. Today, Spirit of God, please set us free from religious spirits, religious thinking and that mindset that causes us to get stuck in religious duty. Please set us free from believing that we're only supposed to walk by faith and not by sight. We want to be rid of that guilt that tries to come on us when we want to enjoy the emotions and the manifestations of Your presence upon us.

God, we just want to thank You SO MUCH for giving us permission to enjoy your river of pleasures! We're smiling, God! Wow! We ARE being set free! Talk about Holy Ghost joy!

We want to take this freedom and joy to the streets! Lord, please anoint us to share the gospel—the good news that the kingdom of God is at hand—so those who are thirsty and weary can come freely to the waters and be refreshed and saved.

We don't want to keep this good news to ourselves, God. We're going with Holy Ghost joy in Your name, Lord Jesus! We're going to share about Your goodness and Your glory!

In Jesus Name. Amen.

Hidden Ministry

We live in a time in which the "spirit of the age" has spiritually, made inroads upon us. The influence of this world colors our spirituality, and leaves its mark, even upon our soul.

We are slow to learn even the simplest lessons in the school of the Spirit. We should never become involved in doctrinal issues, arguing or splitting hairs over minor points of no real spiritual significance. Rather, we are to respond and move in spiritual quickenings and revelation, heeding the words of Christ.

"But when you do alms, let not your left hand know what your right hand does. That your alms may be in secret; and your Father which sees in secret Himself shall reward you openly." Matthew 6:3-4

This concept of secrecy should not to be limited to the act of giving, as the principle holds true in all areas of Christian witness and ministry.

It is a fundamental fact that man seeks _expression. He should do so to develop a normal personality and character. This places a responsibility upon us, as the flesh nature has become so dominant in man's methods, that we may unconsciously allow its ways to sweep in and rule even in our spiritual life experiences.

We must remember this clear-cut and poignant truth: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit" (John 3:6). This is a truth upon which all real Christian life and spirituality is built. It is basic and fundamental.

We should not restrict the meaning of this phrase, "that which is born of the flesh is flesh," as referring merely to a function of our physical body. This is a true concept, but far too limited. Whatever has its inception and is birthed from a fleshly origin, forever remains in the realm of the earthly, and flesh. These cannot under any circumstances become spiritual, or bear spiritual fruitage.

On the other hand, whatever is "born of the Spirit" (whatever has its inception from and is birthed through the Spirit) is always spiritual in issue and fruition. All the service and work of man (though they may be considered as being "spiritual" by some) are merely a natural and religious expression. They have their origin from within the good, religious nature of man's being, and he gives it free expression in the form of service and works. Not being born of the Spirit, however, they can never be spiritual, nor can they ever merit a spiritual reward.

The ways and "methods" of man by nature, are diametrically opposed to the ways and "laws" of the Spirit. The question in the last analysis is not, "Is this a true ministry?" It is, rather, a question of motives and the birthplace of its manifestation - is it of the "spirit," or of the "flesh?"

This is the day of exhibition and exploitation. Many struggle to be seen, heard, and known. This is what man does, but not the Spirit.

"He shall not speak of (or from) Himself (that is, on His Own initiative) ... He shall glorify Me, for He shall receive of Mine, and shall show it to you" John 16:13-14 (comments added)

The Spirit does not detract from, but rather, focuses the attention where it belongs - upon the Lord Jesus. If the ministry is truly in the Spirit, the instrument will be hidden. Self-effacement will be the atmosphere. How awkward and reluctant the "Adamic nature" is in getting out of hearing, and out of sight.

In these days of man's exhibition, we often have become suspicious of his motives. In some cases one hardly dares to be kind of courteous, for he will be misunderstood. Someone might think we are attempting to "put something over" if we are polite. But the Word tells us, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares" (Hebrews 13:2).

The disciples, on their way to Emmaus, were courteous enough to invite the Stranger to walk with them, and to enter with them into their destination. As the result of a simple act of kindness, a revelation came to hungry hearts. So much of value and real worth often hinges upon a seeming trifle. "Little is much, if God is in it." Do not fear to obey His commands; they are not grievous.

He is seeking refreshment today. Can you not spread before Him a humble meal in the quiet, hidden place of your heart? But remember, He may not wear the form you are expecting. He often "hungers" in the form of broken humanity. The forms He wears are many. So, serve the deep hunger of the needy one, and satisfy their need. In so doing, you may open the door to a deeper revelation of who He really is.

Heart Idols
David Webber

I have had a tremendous burden placed upon my heart recently to wait upon the Lord for some insight into the great doctrinal division that we see and experience in the body of Christ today. I have spent much time in prayer and fasting before the Lord over the past few days (literally mourning and grieving over the doctrinal division that I see) and I would like to share with you now what the Lord has shared with me about this.

I have written and shared recently a short article that had to do with the hearing of God's voice. Certainly, Christian's difficulty in hearing God's voice, or an inability to hear it altogether, or even hearing something that one believes to be the Lord but is not, is a major problem and a major reason that we experience such gross doctrinal division and controversy among brothers and sisters in Christ today (those who are supposed to be of "one spirit"). But the question that I presented to the Lord was this; "WHY are Christians having so much difficulty in clearly discerning your voice Lord?" In short, His answer to me was this;

"Because most Christians are not really embracing death to their self-life, heart idols (doctrinal and otherwise) are not being dealt with which then prevent them from hearing the voice of the Father clearly, or even worse, lead them into deception."

This issue of "heart idolatry" is something that came up in a conversation between myself and a local pastor several years ago. I will share with you some of the things that the Lord revealed about this at that time:

Heart Idols and the Doctrinal Pepperoni Pizza

"...I the Lord will answer him according to the multitude of his idols..." (Ezek. 14:4)

"...I the Lord have deceived that prophet" (Ezek. 14:9)

"...therefore the Lord will give you meat and you shall eat...until it comes out of your nostrils..." (Num. 11:19, 20)

"...the Lord has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets..." (1Kings 22:23)

"...and an evil spirit from the Lord terrorized him." (1Sam. 16:14).

I was engaged in a conversation with a local pastor recently in which the subject of "heart idols" came up. This brother said that he believed that people certainly do "make up their own minds about certain matters" and even embrace certain doctrines because of preconceived ideas; "hear what they want to hear" he said. And although there is some truth to that, I don't believe that accurately describes what is really going on spiritually.

If we take a look at some of the verses that I listed above, we should be able to see something that is not just a matter of people "making up their own minds" because of preconceived ideas or mindsets, but something much more shocking than that; that is; people can inquire of the Lord with a heart that is not pure (preconceived wishes or ideas – heart idols) and the Lord might just give them an answer that is according to the idol in their heart! Isn't that shocking? I believe that this is a reason why so many people can read and study the scriptures and continually find support for their doctrinal beliefs that are completely wrong! It all has to do with hearts that are not completely yielded to the Spirit.

Let me share with you a testimony in which the Lord carved this truth about heart idolatry upon my heart, and also on the heart of a dear sister and friend of mine:

Several years ago, a sister in the Lord was telling me about a particular issue that the Lord had been dealing with her about. It seemed as though the Lord had been asking her to do a particular thing that she was not quite comfortable in doing. She had gone on a retreat to seek the Lord for an answer about this particular matter and she had felt that she received one (an answer from the Lord). This answer, which she had received "from the Lord," had brought peace to her about the particular issue and she felt that it was resolved.

Well, it was resolved as far as she was concerned, until one day while in prayer, the Lord started bringing her attention to this issue once gain. He revealed to her at the time that He had not changed in His desire for her in the particular matter, but because she had prayed with an agenda (trying to get God to agree with what she wanted to do) He gave her an answer according to the idol in her heart. He revealed to her that she now needed to repent of this, and pray again, but this time with no desire or will of her own other than to do and obey the will of her heavenly Father.

Several days after this, the Lord then brought her through another experience to teach her (and me by extension) more about the danger of praying with heart idols.

One morning, the Lord woke me early and made it abundantly clear to me that I was to start a fast. He also made it very clear that my friend was also to fast, but that I was not to say anything to her about it, but that she needed to discern this for herself. When I talked to her late that morning, she expressed to me that she was not able to eat anything before work because she had been running late and didn't have time and therefore she was really hungry. I could discern that the Lord was testing her heart to see if she was listening for His still small voice in regard to the fast. She told me that the Lord might be prompting her to fast but her prayer that morning was this;

"Oh Lord, please have someone bring me something to eat at work today for I am really hungry" (It's hard to put all the details in this letter but the Lord had been dealing with her for quite some time regarding a "food idol").

Well, don't you know, shortly after praying and after having arrived at work, one of her customers shows up with a pepperoni pizza! She happened to be on a low carbohydrate, pseudo-vegetarian diet at the time, but apparently "God" sent her a pepperoni pizza to eat! How about that! Answered prayer? Maybe not...

She ate the pizza, yes she did, and the following day it was as if the heavens opened and the Lord began to speak … VERY LOUD AND CLEAR. God was speaking to her so clearly at that time that she was literally trembling in His presence. He showed her that her ability to discern His voice and her willingness to obey it had been tested. He also showed her that because she had prayed to Him with an idol in her heart, He had responded to her prayer through that un-yielded heart that lusted after food. He had responded to and through the idol in her heart that loved food more than Him at that moment. THE LORD had sent the pepperoni pizza (just as He sent a lying spirit to speak through the mouth of Ahab's prophets). While in prayer, she had apparently closed off the side of her heart that would have discerned the Lord's perfect will for her that morning, and because of this, her will was done (even with some supernatural assistance). Her proper response to the Holy Spirit's prompting to fast that morning should have been this;

"Father, you know that I am hungry and my flesh cries out for food, yet not my will Father, but Yours be done. My desire Lord, my only desire, is to discern your perfect will for me in this and every situation ... and then do what you tell me.”

This particular "pepperoni pizza" lesson was one of many real life lessons that were taught to us about the essentiality of having a perfectly yielded heart in prayer, as this is the only way to discern the perfect will of the Father. This applies to every aspect of our lives, including receiving revelation and insight into the scriptures. This might be shocking to some of you, but God will even give us over to the idols in our hearts that relate to pet doctrines and beliefs, even as He gave the pepperoni pizza to my friend! To our carnal minds, these doctrinal “pepperoni pizzas” can make all the sense in the world, they can appear to be in perfect line with the scriptures, and we can even believe that we’ve heard from God Himself about them, yet in reality we have been blinded to the truth by our idols... and this by THE LORD!

Is this not somewhat frightening friends, to see that our own self-will and agenda's and even our traditional thinking and religious mindsets can actually bring a response from the Lord that is deceptive? Do you find that hard to believe? Read those scripture verses that I quoted above one more time. God will and does give us over to the idols of our hearts if our hearts are not pure and open and fully yielded to Him when we pray.

Beloved, God is dealing with many of us in this day as spiritual adults now and no longer as little children. Remember when Jesus said to Peter;” When you were young (spiritually) you girded yourself and went where you wanted, yet when you are old (spiritually mature) another will gird you (the Holy Spirit) and will lead you where you do not want to go." Well, it seems to me that through that verse the Lord is telling us that the “spiritually mature” can no longer do what they want, or go where they want, or eat what they want, or teach what they want, or believe what they want ... but they must come to a place of yielding perfectly to the Father’s will in absolutely ALL MATTERS. In order for this to happen, all heart idols must be dealt with, and this can only happen by embracing God’s judgment upon self.

There is tremendous doctrinal division and controversy over the meaning of passages of scripture in the body of Christ today, and the only way that this is ever going to change is for Christians to ask the Lord to bring total destruction and annihilation to everything that is carnal and earthy in their thinking. This can be a very painful process. Is that something that you are willing to pray for Christian? If it is ... then do it ... and embrace whatever God brings into your life to see this purpose accomplished in you.

And what if you don’t want to embrace the sufferings of Christ so that you might put on His mind and be able to discern the Father’s will in all matters? Well, I guess you can just sit back and relax in your spiritual darkness then Christian... Ask the Lord for a pepperoni pizza! ... He will probably give it to you. Want anchovies? He will probably give that to you too. Extra cheese? Sure! Rapture doctrine? Sure! Eternal torment for the masses? Sure! Whatever you want! You just name it!

Highway Of Holiness
Tim Cook

http://www.ourchurch.com/member/i/inspiredlight/

"And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness. The unclean will not journey on it; it will be for those who walk in that Way; wicked fools will not go about on it. No lion will be there. Nor will any ferocious beast get up; they will not be found there. But only the redeemed will walk there, and the ransomed of the Lord will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away." Isaiah 35:8-10

"The glory and honour of the nations will be brought into it. (the Holy City)" Revelation 21:26

"Marriage should be honoured by all, and the marriage bed kept pure." Hebrews 13:4

"Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless." Daniel 11:35

I lay exhausted on the Highway of Holiness. Jesus sat on the edge of it – and seemed on another level to be a young boy – legs swinging over the side – totally relaxed and without a care in the world. Although I struggled to relate this to Jesus, say, suffering in Gethsemane, I knew that this was an aspect of His nature that I needed to see.

The Highway was pure gold, quite narrow, and slightly curved. Just lying here (there was no way I could stand or run yet – I felt that I would be blown away) I could feel the crooked things in me being straightened up – I could see the denizens of the earth as they really were – and they did not like it – pretty soon arrows were flying – but they mostly went wide of the mark – their eyesight was not very good. From their point of view we were on an elegant golden sky – bridge, elevated way out of the reach of the world. They simply couldn't reach it – there's a level of the atmosphere above which the demonic cannot fly – hence the arrows.

"Oh Jesus – you crack me up – I've wanted to be here my whole life!!! I've wanted this all my life!. But I'm so unclean! That's why I'm here – and you are in Me, and I am in you. And in Me you are pure, and the longer you remain here and the longer you remain in the Vine – the purer you will get in yourself. The demonic in your soul will be burned off as you wait here – because nothing unclean will remain here. In your highest moments you've already started to run here, and soon you will run here – like a winged messenger. Oh Lord – I beg of you – whatever happens please make it happen – though I know it won't be easy." I kept seeing a golden figure like the Greek god Mercury. He was young, and joyful, and had winged sandals and a golden trumpet. "Yes – the best mythology and stories of every culture is my prophetic word onto Earth – only the best mind – of course it gets twisted and polluted but God is constantly speaking into the creativity of Man – which is why you're seeing Me and Kingdom plans more and more from the concepts of Hollywood – and the joke is – they don't know what's going on! Ultimately I rule Media – If I have allowed Satan and Jezebel partial and temporary control then so be it. And you are seeing the new prophetic anointing here."

Something in me wanted to describe the width – to measure it – but I was rebuked. "This is too Holy – it will never be measured by mans fallen measurement – it is from Heaven and Heaven knows the dimensions." I was being torn apart inside – I was being winnowed – if the Oil of Jesus was not flowing over me I would have been consumed. The Highway was a perfect straight line – nothing on earth could be built so straight – so perfect – or so pure. And this would be the Mind Who would be reconstructing the architecture of earth when His Kingdom came. I was surprised when Jesus looked upwards and laughed, "Satan you are soooo busted!" There was some private agreement here that I knew nothing about. Divine chess was being played.

The Highway pulsed intermittently with the energy of God's breath, and His Word. Every few seconds it whispered "Worship the Lord." This was affirming the created order of things – and was the pulse – the heartbeat – of the Universe – which kept it energised and functioning.

Below us – there was much evil activity – this was as God saw it – no deception was possible from this location. For example Jezebel was a writhing mass of grey tentacles – a huge monster – and with people … (me?) trapped and tossed about in one of them. There was no colour down there – only shades of grey. "Ouch – that hurts – I want to die. You will overcome … will you overcome? … Please? For Me. Oh Lord – I'm so weak. Without You I've no chance, but I so do not want to fall from here." The monster was attacking the Marriage Bed - and the worship there was a pillar of light up to Heaven - so holy and powerful that all the demons could see was blinding white light - they were jealous, and curious, angry, and terrified all at once. People would wander to the edge of the glory and get picked off - but inside the glory they were untouchable.

Jezebel was polluting all this in my mind. "The Catholics know this – that sex within marriage is a holy sacrament – and one of the highest forms of worship. Why do you think that I hate divorce so much – and yes you do too. Why do you think that Jezebel has targeted this to twist and destroy it. Your quest, Tim, and your glory, is to fight and overcome her, OK?"

Then I saw a possible future, where marriage and the family unit had been disbanded, and men, women and children were all kept in separate dormitories or compounds. I think that sexual perversion was encouraged, and blasphemous and nonsense songs and chants were organised. But angels and heavenly messengers appeared to be circulating incognito – teaching people, comforting, and leading to salvation. There was a hidden joy and knowledge and network that only the Kingdom people were privy to. Jesus said – "Write this; IF Jezebel does overcome marriage then In the poisonous swamp of free love there will stand a walled garden of True Romance." Amen.

Suddenly Jesus jumped up – as if to play. "Worship Me Tim!" It seemed as if a huge – but dim – angel had a huge sword right at my throat. "On your feet soldier." I was desperate – caught on a knife edge between condemnation, and fear, but also desire – so much desire it choked me! All I could do was lie there looking at the sword, and then all I could manage was to kneel and grovel at His feet like a filthy and subservient Gollum creature. I was too weak and messed up. But I could also just about manage a battle weary knight kneeling at the feet of the King, helmet off ready for orders.

"Oh Lord – you know me. I want to worship but I do not know how." But I was missing the point – and it may have been that the angel was also. And Jesus just wanted to dance with the boy – very gently. And there was another Dance – one of true romance – with many elegant couples and true lovers in a ballroom. "Worship Me, Tim – catch the ball …. Do you understand my love? Yes Lord, I'm sorry that I don't know how to dance, help me – teach me to dance again – teach us all."

"You think that the constant worship in Heaven is purely angels and saints constantly singing and praising at the Throne – and it is, it is – but there's so much more! Do you see beloved? Creativity is worship – so when I say Worship Me I also mean dance, or paint a picture, or write a song, or sing, or dance, or watch some birds, or email a friend, or wash your car, or plant some seeds, or weed your garden, or cook a meal, or go for a walk, or read the Bible, or tithe, or go to church. Do you understand – that this kind of creativity of worship continues into My Kingdom and into Heaven."

And I saw a farm on some remote part of the earth in the future – in the future Kingdom of Christ I think. A signal went out – and the labourers were called in off the field. "It's time to worship the King." This was now built into every day, and the workers gathered, and in their small group they poured out their hearts in gentleness, humility and thankfulness towards Jerusalem. Then they sat down happily and ate their lunch. A couple of the workers, however, still had to be taught – they had much to learn – and were resentful of this new order.

Elsewhere the sons and daughters of the King were dancing in a disco - and it was nothing less than a sanctified Holy Spirit "rave" - and the Blood soaked them, His oil of joy poured out on them as they danced and the Father embraced their hearts with His Love and healed them as they danced - and lightening shot between them and fires also danced and the wind blew through them as the angels marvelled and said "surely these are the sons and daughters of the King!". And to them this was a new kind of music, although it was rock music, it was redeemed and sanctified, because although Satan had controlled many of the musicians - it was God who was the creativity and there was divine violence within them. And I knew that the very best of earth - every culture throughout history - had presented its offerings to the King - and that the very best of earth would be preserved and enjoyed for ever.

"Tim - you think that the angels are going to teach you to worship. I tell you the truth - that my heart is so tender towards you and my children in your suffering and your dark places and your faithfulness is so precious to Me - that it is you who will teach the angels a new level of worship."

“This place is going to kill me, Lord; I’m being torn apart…. (On your feet soldier) … (Worship the Lord) …. (Catch the ball) …. Is it possible that you’re focusing on yourself too much and hence your struggles …. So gentle but so relentless – He was going to change me whatever it took. “Yes I see – my natural selfishness locks me inside myself and so I cannot throw myself into the dance and pour myself out to You – but I want to so much – lead me out. Rebuild me and refine me so that I can run and dance here always.”

Jesus was gentle with me, “Why did you fall off your horse back then? I was too desperate over the scripture on what happens to those who receive the mark of the beast …” He was nodding to encourage me to continue, “I suppose there are things we must know about the future, but that fear can overcome us as a result and crush rather than steer. … yes, so …? So we must always run straight to the King and love and be loved by You, and ask You for your help and your perspective and for you to flood our hearts with the heavenly picture and with hope – even in the midst of the future fear, and our current stumblings and weakness and sins. We need the knowledge, revelation, and wisdom, but without the crippling fear that can come from a religious spirit. Let us fly with the holy fear only, Jesus, that which is mixed also with joy and righteous zeal.”

And I was so weary and sad because of my sins and the sins of my people that I had to just lie there on the beautiful Highway and worship Him who knows all of our futures and plans divine escape routes, and forgives all of our sins. Praise the Lord. He began to comfort and heal me deeply yet again, for such is His wonderful nature, and His patience is without limit!

Here Is The Harvest Church!

Blessings,

I just wanted to send out a note, sharing a few things I believe the Lord spoke to me about New Orleans and hurricane Katrina. These are insights that have been confirmed over and over again as I speak to fellow Christians about this situation.

First of all, I believe New Orleans was a city marked for death. I believe it was the mercy of God that hurricane Katrina was weakened and turned at the last minute. That if it had been a direct hit on New Orleans, that there would have only been a handful of survivors. I don't know if you saw the story, but it was a puff of dry air out of the Mid-West, that weakened and turned Katrina at the last moment. I believe this was the hand of God responding to the prayers of the saints.

Secondly, as I saw the suffering of these people my heart broke for them and their plight. I have spoke to many others who felt the same way. Father God is putting it into the heart of the church, to come to the aid of these people. I heard the Lord say more than once "this is the harvest church". "This is the harvest you have been waiting for". "How you respond to these people will determine the future of America".

Thirdly, we are in a battle. Even after the hurricane was over the enemy sought to destroy the survivors of New Orleans. They were locked into a dark place without food and water. There was a tremendous spiritual battle fought before freedom came for them. For many, the Superdome and the Convention center were a physical reality of the spiritual place they were in before the storm. If the church does not step in and reach out to these people the enemy will gladly take them.

The Lord has given the church and these storm survivors a tremendous opportunity. For many, this storm will provide the second chance they have prayed for. And for the church, if we put ourselves at risk and reach out to these people, in this time, we will learn the heart of God. And we will see a powerful move of God sweep across all of America.

Love you all,

Mark

Hidden Treasures

Mark Kaphaem

Over the last few months I feel the Lord has been speaking to me about hidden treasures that He would be bringing forth.

I feel there are many who for years have felt a strong calling on their life but have seen no outward sign of it.

Many of you feel like you have missed your calling of been forgotten.

Consider this, that perhaps your calling has not been for your generation.

Perhaps your entire life up to this point has been a time of preparation.

Perhaps your brokenness, your discouragement and your failure have been forming you for a very special purpose.

Perhaps your time of being overlooked and in hiding have been for a very special reason.

Many are called, but how many will persevere in their calling for years upon years with only token recognition and few outward signs.

Those are the ones who are chosen.

Chosen for what?

Chosen to serve.

Chosen to serve as hand holders. Chosen to serve as listeners. Chosen to serve as encourages and confidants. Chosen to bless and walk along side. Chosen to cheer on and lay down their lives.

Chosen to be the spiritual fathers and mothers to a new, young generation that is going break forth on this Earth and usher in the Kingdom of God.

Be encouraged. Your life has not been for nothing. You have not missed your calling. You have been in preparation. And the time has now come for you to fulfill your purpose on this Earth. Walk forth and embrace the sons and daughters of God. Lay down your lives for them. This is your calling. This is the reason you born in such a time as this.

- The psychological attitude of the citizens are of mass depression, confusion and suicide.

- gas and oil prices estimated to go up extremely, Katrina shut down 90% percent of oil production for the entire USA
- it could be up to 6 months to drain water from all those places hit

Prophecy and History

- While Katrina was hitting the Gulf coast, the World was celebrating the 60th anniversary of War World II. War World II catered in the introduction of Nuclear warfare, conspiracies, and hate propaganda from Hitler and the Nazis against the Jewish Nations. Pope John Paul II began to stand up for the rights of the church against both the Nazis and later on, the Communist Russians.
- Katrina is the worst and biggest hurricane to hit the Gulf since 500 years ago. The Mayor of New Orleans said that “the City is in a state of devastation”, words that have been said by many who have seen visions and dreams of judgments to come upon the USA.
- According to several prophets and visions and dreams, it will get worst for the south, Katrina was just the beginning.
- God is and has been releasing His judgments upon both the southern part of the USA and beginning with Sept. 11th, the entire USA. Not only that but all over the world, natural disasters, tsunamis, earthquakes and volcanoes will continue to get worst.

My friend, LaShranda Simpson, came to me just this last Saturday, August 27, 2005, when we were preparing food for a party I was having that day and she told me that the night before, August 26th, 2005- my birthday, she had a dream. LaShranda is an U.S. Army veteran from the Kuwait/Iraq War on Terror. She had a dream that night that she visited the Army base in Shreveport, Louisiana to visit, when all of a sudden, water rose up everywhere in great “booms” or “blasts” and the Army men and women there had to get geared up to go help because something terrible had happened in Louisiana involving massive water and flooding. I found out about Hurricane Katrina later on Sunday. When dealing with God and the last days, nothing is a coincidence. God does indeed warn his people through the prophets.

According to Nita Johnson in a vision that the Lord allowed her to see, she had this to say about the destruction of the USA,

“Next, the voice called out, ‘Most of Louisiana and all of Texas will suffer natural disasters, floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, and enemy attack.’ The line shot up through New Orleans east of Baton Rouge, up through Shreveport in a kind of wiggly way then cut off all of Texas. Texas disappeared. Louisiana experienced devastation but didn’t disappear. I was ready for this to end, yet the Lord continued: ‘New York, down through Pennsylvania, the Virginias, the eastern part of Tennessee, Georgia, and Florida will suffer natural disasters of every kind, hurricanes, flooding, earthquakes, etc. and enemy attack.’ Then everything that was east of the line disappeared. (Nita Johnson, Prepare for the Winds of Change II, pg. 199)

Another vision that was emailed to me, that did not have an author’s name on it had this to say about what would happen in the USA, “…Many committed suicide out of fear. Among them were three well known people within the media. The heart became weak, and many died of heart attacks from just the knowledge of what was taking place… I saw five angels of wrath, relieve the five angels of mercy who had been hovering over Washington, D.C.; New Orleans, Louisiana; New York City; San Francisco, California; and Las Vegas, Nevada…”

The following article was from Mrs. R. B. Braswell (Hattie Irene French) taken from www.pebblesofhope.org and http://www.aarons-advocates.org:

“Essentially the entire Mississippi River Valley is to be flooded by the Great Lakes draining through it. Mother saw two mushroom clouds at the very top of the space and Duduman was told that a place of Russian penetration would be in the state of Minnesota. The whole area is a well know geologic fault zone with the Madrid Fault underling the whole region… All of these visions and warnings to mother focus around Isaiah 18 with some references to Revelation 18. Duduman was given all of Revelation 18 and told ‘This is the United States!’ The messages are about how repent unto salvation and how to live a clean life and not about fear.”

Even in the dream that I had about the destruction upon the South, USA, I saw some of the same things, along with a few other dreams that I had as well. In this dream, the Destruction upon the South, USA:

"My husband and I were together at my Aunt's House and I was telling them that something was happening outside. It was dark all of a sudden and loud thunders where everywhere suddenly. Then we went through one of the doors in the house and I was outside by myself and there were remnants of water everywhere. There was lightening. Huge lightening and I could tell where they would hit. Very loud!!!! Everything was flooded and desolate. I was looking around and I could see people scattered and homeless people. A few trees still stood tall. I went under one tree because I didn't want to be hit by lightening but a woman came and told me not to stand under the tree because there was a huge puddle of water there and the lightening was coming straight for it. In slow motion she grabbed me and the lightening struck and I felt it a little but it hit her instead. There were people in trenches and they were all scattered everywhere. I woke up and went to the bathroom. There I was just starting to think about the interpretation when God gave me an open vision. It was a map of the United States and zoomed in to the south and there appeared what seemed to be a fault line that spread across the tip of California to the East coast of Florida & Georgia. Under the line everything was flooded, destroyed or devastated. Then He said that the South will be destroyed because she used to be the Bible Belt and now she is a whore! Immoral in sex-sins and letting everyone run over her. I walked away and tried to go back to sleep but I couldn't and I felt sad for the South so I prayed to God that he would forgive the Sins of the South and prolong her judgment."

(Isaiah 1:18-21) Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. (19) If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: (20) But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. (21) How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

God spoke to Daniel Rodes in 1960 about the end times and had this to say:

"…Famines: I saw famines of such destruction that multitudes of people were starving all across the world. These famines were unlike anything else ever known to man. The ground was opening up with huge cracks and suddenly the whole earth in those parts of the world became nothing but dust. I saw wind blowing in excess of 200 miles per hour on a sunny day, which was so destructive it destroyed everything in its way and whirled up dust and large clouds that blackened the sun. I saw the whole area covered with debris left by these raging storms… I saw storms like hurricanes, tornadoes, thunder storms and extreme winds raging across the land, shredding everything in their way, destroying buildings and dropping huge chunks of ice some of which looked to weigh ten pounds or more. Some of the hailstones appeared to be as big as a basketball I saw floods, the water of which literally covered cities; massive floods unlike anything we have ever seen in America Huge tidal waves were leaping across the land bringing with them great destruction.

… Earthquakes: I saw, in a vision, earthquakes of such magnitude that the ground opened up and swallowed huge buildings, leaving large, open cracks in the ground. These quakes did extreme damage on American soil. There was so much damage done in these earthquakes that there was no way to recover and there were no funds available to rebuild. There was a violent shaking of the earth and the people were so fearful that some were literally scared to death.

… Economic Failure: "I saw the stock market fluctuate up and down and finally come to a complete crash, never to rise again. There will be an extreme shortage of food, drinking water, and many people will die of starvation. The Word of the Lord came to me and said, 'Because prosperity and pleasure has become the god of America, she shall suffer the consequences of her rejection against Me.'" The Lord said to me that nothing will ever be the same in America after the year 2000 because He hand is being removed from the USA. I saw the American people, who seemed to have been so centered in on their own way, that they were arrogant and proud of having such an exceptional relationship with God. They boasted that they had sent missionaries across the world and that America had done more to spread the gospel than any other nation. Then I saw a radio and television pastors assuring the people that America would never be destroyed and if trouble did come, they boasted that they would be raptured out with all those who believe in the rapture. When I saw this, I became very disturbed because in my spirit I knew something was wrong. Then the Lord opened my understanding and I began to see that we have peddled every kind of religious philosophy and tradition across the world, but few were preaching repentance and a change of lifestyle. Then the word of the Lord came to me and said, 'My people shall surely go through persecution. Because of her iniquity and because of her careless living, she will have to be refined in the fire of affliction that they may come forth as gold tried in the fire.'" (Prophetic Word & Visions, The Word Of The Lord For America, by Daniel Rodes)

February 24, 1993, Prophecy, New York

"The Lord gave us through prophecy, the following message [which will be given in part here]: 'There will be seeing disasters and terrible things happening all around them and they are wondering, 'Is it any answer to our problems? Is this all life has for us? If it is, we may as well kill ourselves and have it done with, but before we do that, we will destroy the city. We will destroy her people. We will destroy our government. We will destroy her flags and we will torture those who have tormented us and we will bring to judgment those who have wronged us.' The Lord said in the same prophecy that there would be much disaster and terrible havoc coming to this nation, but our prayers can help to stall much of the problems and also can help change our national leaders. He also spoke of "burnings." (Prophetic Word & Visions, The Word Of The Lord For America, by Daniel Rodes)

A Question that I have…

Could it be that with disasters occurring everywhere in the USA, that FEMA will be able to gain more power over us, marshal law begin to occur and while we have so many troops over seas, we could get attacked on our homeland from more terrorists, Russia, China and Mexico? Well, others have saw this happening as well as I have, that other powers will attack us. However, we do not know when, but, as the natural disasters get worst, there could be a possibility that when all USA is so devastated, that these things could come to pass sooner than later. Just a question or thought to think about.

HURRICANE KATRINA – AMERICA I AM CHARGING YOU REPENT
A HARD MESSAGE - A MESSAGE OF FLINT

These past weeks - there have been many strong, clear prophetic voices concerning Katrina from America declaring the will of the Lord and I rested in the assurance that that there was no necessity for a surplus voice at this time.

But in an extremely busy period of ministry, suddenly last week I felt the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit over me concerning this matter and I was deeply troubled. I sensed the fear of the Lord upon me and I knew that these could in no way be merely my thoughts or my opinions - it is a fearful and dreadful thing to attribute things to the hand of the Lord of Hosts that are merely our own imaginations.

That too held me off for days - Father - I said - there are enough voices out there speaking to this issue - God said - I want you to speak - And it was a great burden to me because I knew that so many people were suffering so terribly and that this was a hard message and a message of flint - I said - Father - If you really want me to I shall - but I said it with great trepidation over this matter - I also knew that this instance was so important to Almighty God - that I had to be so accurate in the true discerning of his purposes and his intentions

ECONOMIC DECLINE

But the urgency continued - And as we were driving back home from our studios in Washington DC to our home in Virginia - I kept seeing in the sky huge words - ECONOMIC DECLINE and again ECONOMIC DECLINE

Then I saw an enormous hand that almost covered the sky - and I knew that it was the hand of God Himself and I watched in absolute horror as the hand started to lift itself - and I felt that the Lord said - I AM ABOUT TO LIFT MY HAND FROM THIS NATION

It was such a terrible sight and a feeling of terrible dread that overtook me that I panicked - and I said - Oh Father - NO! You cant lift your hand from America - America loves you - America serves you - I beg you - Don't lift your hand from America. And God said - REPENT...

AMERICA - I AM CHARGING YOU - REPENT

And I said - Father - we are repenting for the decadence of New Orleans - the body of Christ in America is responding dramatically to this wake up call - both in mobilizing aid and assistance and also in repentance across the nation for the complex and many issues that we as the body of Christ understand led to this disaster -

TWO GREAT AND FESTERING BOIL

Then I saw an awful thing - It is an unpopular and controversial message - I know -

THE FIRST BOIL - NEW ORLEANS

I saw a great and festering boil in New Orleans and the surrounding area that had burst and the puss was still oozing and the Lord SAID -

Yes - it is true - my body is repenting for many of the symptoms and the reason that this boil was able to fester in such a violent manner in this area - and the words came - DECADENCE - HOMOSEXUALITY - LASCIVIOUSNESS - LAWLESSNESS - RACISM - PRIDE - SODOM AND GOMMORAH - all of which I could see were boiling and festering in the heart of the boil - but then I saw a small tip of a very sharp needle move towards it - and the very INSTANT that the tip of the red hot needle barely even touched the centre of the boil - the boil erupted with violence because of all the toxic material and poison already boiling inside.

And it was such an insignificant move - with a seemingly insignificant tool - but it was the hand of the Lord that caused the boil to erupt -

THE SECOND BOIL - THE MIDDLE EAST AND GAZA DISENGAGEMENT

And then the Lord said - in the same manner - Americas role in the disengagement of Gaza - has been as a red hot needle to the boil in the Middle East -I HOLD MY CHURCH IN AMERICA ACCOUNTABLE

To the majority of my body in America - it has been a disregarded and insignificant move - they have viewed it as a needle - of little effect - but it has pierced the boil of the Middle East and I saw the words -UNLEASHING - BLOODLUST - VENGEANCE - POWER - LUST - GREED - COVENANT/PACT OF DEATH - HOLOCAUST

AN IGNITION KEY CONDONED BY THE CHURCH THAT LOOSED THE HORDES OF HELL

And somehow I sensed that the fruit of this act by the American Government - was somehow an IGNITION KEY that had opened the door to release the hordes of hell and satanic princes to execute a timeline in the Middle East that would speed up the times of the hunters and pave the way for the next holocaust - and yet the CHURCH in America - had stood almost VOICELESS - bound by PASSIVITY and A SPIRIT OF STUPOR -

And then I saw a terrible thing - I saw millions of Christians all across the United States of America - with their hands raised - worshipping the Lord - their faces rapt in worship all across the nation - their bibles in hand - dressed in Sunday best - their families seated at their side - and then I heard horrific chilling screams and then I saw right next to them concentration camps and the scenes of the holocaust and although the screams were literally bone chilling and the people were screaming for help, not one of those in the churches even turned their head to look - it was as though a spirit of passivity and stupor had overtaken them

And the Lord said - "This is what my Church did during the holocaust as the Jews in Europe burned - They raised their hands and they worshipped me - AND THIS IS WHAT MY CHURCH HAVE DONE TODAY ONCE MORE BY THEIR OMMISSION OF NOT SPEAKING OUT AS MY VOICE TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR MY PEOPLE ISRAEL -

EXPEDIENCY - THE OIL

EXPEDIENCY - and the Lord showed me - Oil - and He said "Americas oil became a target because America sold the nation of Israel out for oil "

And He said - I AM CHARGING AMERICA - REPENT FOR YOUR SINS AGAINST MY PEOPLE

ISRAEL

I said " O Father -many people will have a hard time believing that the hurricane in New Orleans is connected with the roadmap and Israel

And God said again - I AM CHARGING AMERICA - REPENT FOR YOUR SINS AGAINST MY PEOPLE ISRAEL

"For I am stirred up with wrath - says the Lord - that my people have been forsaken and that my people Israel have been abandoned - For the voices that whisper peace, peace" - says the Lord God of Hosts - "are not my voices - and the voices that sue for peace in the Middle East at this time - sue for expediency says the Lord -

For I have heard the conversations - in the hidden places of the earth - I have heard the whispers and the strategies and the political expediencies - and my anger has been stirred on behalf of my people Israel - and yes even voices in my church arise and say - peace peace - but I tell you - that peace is far from thee and that disaster is near -

For my hand has been stayed - but my hand can be stayed no more - For I tell you America - that I called you to protect and to preserve and to be as salt to the nation of Israel - yet you have instigated a covenant of death -

And yet you say that all is well - and yet you say that all is good - and you say we are a good friend of the nation of Israel - and yet it is under your watch and it is in this timing and in this season - that my people have been betrayed

And where is the man and where is the woman and where is the church that would stand up for my purpose -

For my purpose is not your purpose O Church - And my plans and purpose are not your plans and purpose for the nation of Israel -

And yet you nod and yet you smile and yet you say among the churches of America - It is well and good - And I tell you this day America - I hold you in the scales for what is about to come upon my nation Israel - And you have been found wanting

And yet you say - It is not popular to address these things - let us walk in wisdom and let it be - and yet by your very omissions - you have granted the enemy the power to rule - And I hold you accountable for the omissions of my church America

For all is not well says the Lord and all is not good - For I have seen the commissions and the dealings - for the oil and for the wealth of nations that have changed hands behind secret doors - and I have seen the cloaking and the hidden agreements that laid the foundations for the pact of death - yes - even in the Whitehouse - I have seen and I have heard - and my hand is against it and yet you say America supports Israel - but I tell you church - that this next season lies at America's door - and I call you America REPENT - I call you America REPENT - Repent for the forsaking of my people for expediency - REPENT"

And somehow I knew that even as President Bush espoused the deals between Israel and America - that I sensed the huge outcry against him and against his office in the wake of Hurricane Katrina - was a warning from Almighty God to repent at the highest levels of government before his office was rejected by God himself.

(Please understand how hard this is for me to write as I have always been a strong advocator of this Presidency but it seemed as though I saw him seated at his desk - and when it came to issues of Israel I saw a black blindfold that completely covered his eyes and was tied tightly at the back of his head - and also that his ears were stopped by a cacophony of sounds - I saw a HUGE VICE literally pressurizing him down and then I saw that ONLY the CHURCH had the capacity to lift this terrible weight of the vice away from crushing his shoulders and chest - the VICE was the pressure bought to bear upon him re the issue of Israel - PUBLIC OPINION - STATUS QUO - EXPEDIENCY - OIL - and I realized that the Lord was not holding President Bush accountable alone - but was holding the CHURCH accountable because they were the called ones WITH THE ABILITY to lift the pressure of the vice OFF the Presidents neck by their own strong VOICE being lifted up in America - but there was hardly a whisper of the churches voice -only a few lone voices reached the presidents ear - but the words more often than not seemed to be stolen away by buzzing gnat like looking creatures before they could actually take root - and the President continued to be crushed by the weight and pressure of the vice.)

And then my attention was drawn to another strange and almost insignificant fact - and yet suddenly it seemed to be not at all insignificant - it was the fact that Condeleeza Rice - the voice and the Whitehouse vocal propagator of the disengagement of Gaza and the roadmap was born in the South in Alabama - and was at a church service grieving for her people - And I knew that the pain she had felt for her people was a shadow to what the God of Israel felt for the Nation of Israel . And somehow with a terrible certainty I felt it was connected - a direct result of judgment.

And I felt the burden and the grief -this time of the Lord Jesus Christ - for all the dispossessed and the homeless and the grieving in New Orleans

And how He loved them and grieved for them - And then he showed me - The entire body of Christ in America who were mobilizing aid and assistance and prayer and support in the most incredible manner - And I knew this was in His eyes truly noble and honorable and that the Church has yet to shine and will still be a tremendous witness in this hour - BUT THEN He said weeping -

"My Church have been blinded and sidelined as to the REAL ISSUE at stake here - and therefore are excluding it from their view

And I frowned at the Lord - looking back to the horrific scenes on the Gulf Coast - the total focus of my attention being there ALSO -

And I saw Jesus literally walk in front of the people trying to move their attention from the horrific scenes of the New Orleans disaster onto the scenes of the future - of the dying screaming people of the second holocaust - and He was weeping - and as the congregations noticed Him - they would smile at Him - some even clutched onto Him - but ALL seemingly without exception had their total focus on the present disaster in America - not even recognizing that the major connection with judgment was the ACTION of the American Government to ISRAEL and the horror of the turning of the IGNITION KEY that would lead to the UNIMAGINABLE - A HOLOCAUST WORSE THAN THE FIRST HOLOCAUST in years to come

And then the Lord talked of conversations from some in His church that were saying - "It must be the Lord in Israel - He has allowed THE GAZA disengagement" And I realized that I TOO was guilty of this talk - and of this omission over the disengagement of Gaza - not REALISING the ENORMITY of the CONSEQUENCES - the tiny red hot needle that seemed so insignificant yet was the initiator of a covenant of death. Finally Jesus stood quietly watching this huge congregation who were so wrapped up in the necessary and the noble but also wrapped up in their own spiritual experience. Then quietly he walked away - and He walked over to the Jews in the second Holocaust and stood with the dying and the screaming and the burning, tears streaming down His face

If we - as the Body of Christ forget the cause of Israel - We have truly forgotten the cause of Jesus Christ Himself.

I charge you Beloved America - let us not lose the HAND and the protection of Gods covering - Let us not continue to walk in the sins of omission

Let us repent before it is irreversible.

Fruits of Repentance :

1. America will be reprieved from a devastating economic decline
2. America will remain under the protection and hand of Almighty God - especially the Church in America
3. If the Churches voice on the matter of Israel rises - The power of this united voice can stop the 'covenant of death' in its tracks and the situation can be reversed before it is irreversible - It is NOT too late in the spirit realm - we as the Church of Jesus Christ CAN still change DESTINY in the earth

Hot Melted Gold
Judy Curmi

4-14-2005
Let me touch your heartstrings. Let me have your deepest inner core. For indeed I wish to play your heart like a harp. Two hearts playing together – yours and mine – can create a music that the earth knows not of.

Yes, there is music that is sorrowful and there is music that is sublime. I wish to take you even beyond the sublime to a place where no words can express what you can see and what you can feel.

This place where our hearts can be melted together requires total trust and total obedience. It is as if I would take your heart and turn it to hot melted gold. Then I would pour this gold together with the hot melted gold of my very own heart. Who could say which part of this gold was yours and which part was mine, for the two have become melted into One.

Once this melting has occurred it will have happened for all of eternity. Who can unseparate two streams of hot pure gold once they have melted and been stirred together? Who can unmix two cubes of hot melted butter? Who can unmix the wind of my Spirit once it has entered a room?

Sublime – Divine –The things of MY kingdom are so far beyond man's ability to conceive. You (man) concentrate on the concrete and that which is mortal and falling into oblivion. Most do not even think to inquire after the things of my kingdom, or if they do, it is in a flippant or perfunctory way.

I will have a people who bow down to me and have fully given their hearts to me. They have not counted their lives of more importance than knowing me. [Phil. 3:7-14] They have not considered the things of this world of more importance than pursuing that which will last for all eternity.

These people will know me with an intimacy that will make others weep and gnash their teeth, for one day man will see that knowing ME and becoming One with ME was the only thing worth pursuing and the only thing of true and lasting value.

Gold, pearls, precious gems – all of these just hint at my value and worth. Even the galaxies can only hint at my magnificence and my great power.
Man's world is upside down, valuing the valueless and abhorring the valuable, yet all can respond to the sounds of a harp or a flute.

I wish to play your heartstrings, Oh man. Who will come dance with me? Who will sing in harmony with me and be willing to lay down their lives and give them to me? Who will be willing to put their lives at my disposal, no longer demanding to have things their way, but instead being desirous of learning and doing things MY way?

I AM calling for hearts that are willing to be mine totally. I AM calling for hearts that are willing to become hot melted gold and melt together with my heart. This is a place of passion, intimacy and unlimited power. It is a place of joy and wonder beyond describing.
I am calling for hearts!
I am calling for hearts!
Who will respond to my call?
Who will tell me "YES" and truly mean it?
Your Loving Jesus

A Fork To The Mouth

Ardor is not a bad thing.* Have I ever said that passion displeased me? NO – I said that which was lukewarm displeased me. [Rev. 3:14-16]

I AM a hot and fiery God. I am not neutral, cool, lukewarm, lassie faire or any of a host of terms expressing tepidness or a lack of zeal. I AM a zealous God. I AM a jealous God. My Word says so many times. It is in many different ways that I express my passion and my zeal.

I am not the tepid, lukewarm. mealy-mouthed God that present day man has made me out to be. In fact, man's present day representation bears hardly any resemblance whatsoever to who I am and how I think.

By painting me differently than how I really am, this has given man the lee way and license to act in ways that are an abomination to me without being concerned about the consequences. The problem with this picture is that it is a myth, not reality, and mankind is going to have to deal with the real God, not man's caricatures or myths.

I am zealous for my people and I am zealous for my holy Name. My Name has been kicked around, ridiculed and boldly dragged through the mud. This is about to cease. The wicked will be very wicked, but their days are short and will be over soon.

In the meantime, as they continue to harass my people and profane my holy Name, they are continuously throwing fuel onto a fire. This fire is made of their fruit and they will be required to eat it as everyone will eat the fruit of their labors.

Is your fruit good or evil? Is it holy and pleasing or dirty and profane? I keep saying that time is of the essence and time is running out. Yet my servants who warn are either ignored or mocked and ridiculed.

Woe to you, Oh earth. You are even now about to start eating the fruit that you have produced. The food is on your fork. Your mouth is open and the very first bite is about to enter your mouth.

You have been willing to cast me aside and have zeal and ardor for all of the wrong things. Advancing MY will or MY kingdom has not been on your "To Do List". Instead this list is full of the vile, debauched and the self-serving.

As it was in the days of Noah, so it is today. As it was in the days of Sodom, so it is today. You saw how I dealt with these cultures and yet you still will not repent! If you will not repent, then I will not heal you!

Because you have chosen DEATH instead of LIFE, the Spirit of Heaviness is about to descend upon you. You have esteemed my grace lightly. You have chosen another cup and another portion altogether. So it begins.

Put the fork into your mouth and begin to eat. It will not matter whether you chew slowly or swallow quickly. The results will be the same, Oh earth.

I will have a people who are passionately in love with ME. For the rest, their ardor for their own flesh and the things of this world will be their undoing. It will be the poison that kills them. It will be the fire that consumes them. It will be so very, very heavy…
The Most High

Ardor: 1a. Great warmth or intensity as of emotion. Passion or desire b. Enthusiasm or devotion; zeal 2. Intense heat, as of fire – Syn. Passion. From Old French ardçre – To burn

Harlotry Of Babylon

Ron McGatlin

The Enemy's Scheme

There are two great ruling cities from which mankind can receive patterns for life. We have talked about the great ruling city of God, New Jerusalem, the Bride-of-Christ City. The other great ruling city is Babylon, the Harlot of the devil. The great ruling city of Babylon has planted its harlot patterns throughout the current world system. Babylon's patterns have produced much riches for some. She is extremely enticing and beautifully clothed in wealth. Yet inside, she is full of filth and abominations, a habitation of demons.

Babylon must fall. The great religious, and political system with all its patterns of life is judged of God and is coming down. Before the patterns of New Jerusalem can rule, the patterns of Babylon must be destroyed. The person seeking to enter the city-of-God lifestyle must have the Babylonian patterns and ways broken and removed from their life. The Babylonian system has been very deadly to the saints of God. Many have fallen and many are in captivity in Babylonian ways. God's people are warned to come out of Babylon, lest they share in her sin and receive of her plagues.

Revelation 17:1-6: Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication." So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. And on her forehead a name was written: "MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

Revelation 17:15,18: And he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues." And the woman whom you saw is the great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

Revelation 18:2-4: And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a habitation of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird. For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury." And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues."

What a great contrast between the harlot city of Babylon described in the book of Revelation (chapters seventeen to nineteen), and the beautiful Bride-City of God, New Jerusalem described in Revelation (chapters twenty one and twenty two). The beautiful Bride-of-Christ lifestyle is filled with the glory of God—God abiding with man and man living in His very presence— partaking of a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and the Lamb. Tears are wiped away and curses broken. Men and women are thankfully serving God and joyfully praising Him.

Just as there is a natural Jerusalem and now a spiritual New Jerusalem coming forth, there was a natural Babylon that was destroyed and now a Mystery Babylon that is being destroyed. Many patterns that began thousands of years ago in old Babylon are traceable throughout ancient history and up to the present time. Ancient Babylon was the first great-walled city after the flood. It was built by Noah's great grandson, Nimrod. Noah beget Ham; Ham beget Cush; and Cush begot Nimrod.

Babylon became the birth place of idolatry that was spread throughout the ancient world and passed to empires and civilizations throughout history. Nimrod and his wife, Semiramis, were the first people to be worshipped as gods. Although many different names were used in different cultures, they were worshipped similarly in much of the world, and can still be easily recognized in many religions today. These patterns were subversively planted into the Christian religion, and churches today are still affected by them. This nation, the good old U.S.A., and much of the world is primarily ruled by the patterns of ancient Babylon. The patterns seen in Nimrod and Semiramis of ancient Babylon are very similar to the dynamics of worldly families, businesses, churches, and political governments of today.

Genesis 10:8-12a: Cush begot Nimrod; he began to be a mighty one on the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord." And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, and Resen.

The word "before" in the statement, "He was a mighty hunter before the Lord", could be translated "against". Nimrod was a mighty man "against" the Lord. He and Semiramis some way tapped into the darkness of mystical and occult powers. A departure from the patriarchal faith had occurred. It is represented by some profane history that Cush had become a ringleader of apostasy. Nimrod added mystical, demonic powers and knowledge to his natural strength and became a powerful force on the earth, conquering all those around him.

Nimrod was the first to wage war upon his neighbors, the first to train troops with exercise and hardship, the first to build towers and walled cities for battle. Nimrod exercised strong control over men. They were enticed with unbridled self-gratification. Everywhere Nimrod went, there were extravagant parties with orgies, dancing girls, music, games, and anything that would bring self-gratification. Nimrod also controlled by locking up the mysteries of science and sorcery that he had discovered and releasing them to men only when they were under his control. He used confession of sins and faults to control. When he had enough information on someone, and when they were awestruck by his great display of magic, he could easily control them.

Nimrod was suddenly cut off in the midst of his career of glory. Mystery surrounds his disappearance. But it is believed that he met with a violent death while on one of his expeditions. Semiramis, whose feminine beauty covered her immoral, manipulative, deceitful self, had usurped the attributes of her husband before his death. At his death, she took over her husband's place.

Semiramis, in her licentious ways, gave birth to a son after Nimrod was gone. She told people that Nimrod had reappeared in the person of a posthumous son. She held the son up as God and the people worshipped him. They worshipped her as the mother of God. Eventually she became the predominant goddess overshadowing the son. Thus through deception and manipulation she took over the assets and attributes of Nimrod and continued her lavish lifestyle.

Semiramis was seen as both the mother and wife of her husband. Nimrod was seen as the husband and the son of his wife. She was revered as the mother of god. The image of the mother of god with the child in her arms spread to all the idolatrous world. Semiramis is said to have finished the wall of Babylon and thus became the goddess of fortress and towers. The Diana of the Ephesians mentioned in the New Testament with her crown of towers is identified with Semiramis.

Babylon became known as a great center of extravagant wealth and revelry—a monument of glamour to the accomplishments of man—a place of harlotry and sorcery—a place of great wizardry, human knowledge and discovery—a place of competition and contention. But the primary characteristic was spiritual harlotry.

Spiritual harlotry is the seeking of our own needs and desires apart from God. God is our provider. He desires to meet our needs in every area of life. If we look to anything or anyone else to meet our needs, we are looking to another god and are involved in spiritual harlotry. Harlotry and idolatry are very closely related. Harlotry is looking to an idol (another god) for what our Heavenly Father should provide for us. Spiritual harlotry is selling our purity to meet our needs. It is self-seeking and self-serving.

It's easy to see how the bad heart-tree is a harlot tree. Spiritual harlotry is seeking to meet the needs of our life-structure on our own, instead of trusting God to take care of us. The good heart-tree is a bride tree, in which we are able to trust God to meet all of our needs and satisfy our wants.

Babylon is a harlot system, a means of meeting human needs and selfish wants apart from God. Babylon is ruled by a spirit of harlotry and is characterized by competition, immorality, and sorcery.

HARLOTRY IS SELF-SEEKING AND SELF-SERVING:

It is seeking to meet my own needs and desires apart from God.

COMPETITION IS SEEKING POSITION OR CONTROL:

Contention, Strife, Thieving (taking), Lying, Deceit, Manipulation, Seduction, Control, Dominance, War (fighting), Overlord, Tyrant, Back-Biting, Murder, Greed, Covetousness.

IMMORALITY IS SEEKING PLEASURE OR ENTERTAINMENT:

Lust, Fantasy Lust, Fornication, Sexual Perversion, Unclean, Overeating, Overplaying, Overworking, Overresting, Reveling (partying).

SORCERY IS SEEKING POWER OR DIRECTION:

Occult, Witchcraft, Hypnosis, Mind Control, Mind Power, P.M.A., Humanism, Intellectualism, Astrology, Psychics, New Age Junk.

Much of the world has taken giant steps into Babylonian harlotry in recent decades. Games and "playing" have become a major part of the U.S.A. Gambling lotteries and casinos are spreading widely across the land. Sexual perversion and recreational immorality are accepted as normal behavior. Psychics now openly advertise their "Psychic Hotline" numbers on daytime TV and are being looked to by many as a valid source of direction for their lives. Competition has intensified as people struggle for control in families, businesses, governments, tribes and nations. Computer and video games, gambling, spectator sports, recreational drugs and alcohol, entertainment, and other recreational industries probably already represent the largest segment of production in the U.S.A.

Are we seeking from another god what our true God desires to supply?

The Devastation of Reformation
Ron McGatlin

Reformation will not come without real revival. Revival / renewal have come in measure and many are prepared for the major changes of reformation. Revolution is a part of reformation that follows revival. The nations of the world MUST very soon experience the greatest outpouring of revival and renewal ever seen on the planet. The cup is full and spilling over. The potential destruction, if revival fire does not quickly sweep the earth, is unthinkable. Choices are greatly limited and time is short. The "Day of the LORD is upon us!"

Becoming one with God is the first major objective of revival and renewal. Moving from unbelief and religion to the reality of intimate oneness in the manifest presence of God executes the change that devastates previous patterns of belief structures and practices. The renewal of the heart of the person in the love of God is the first stage of personal revival. The life of God begins to flow in the purified heart of the love-cleansed believer. Life begins to flow as rivers of living water of the Spirit fill the person and then flows forth the life of God to others.

This produces personal devastation to the previous sin-colored self-life. Relationships change. Previously strong ties are broken. Financial strengths based on a different lifestyle begin to crumble. The enemy recognizes the potential harm to his strongholds and reacts in fear with insane evil fiery attacks of vicious lies, accusations, and every destructive tool he can employ.

What the enemy means for destruction works in and for the renewed revived believer. The devastation serves to further destroy all selfish living and breaks the back of self-will and self-concerns. This leaves us free to become totally available to God for His life to live in and through the dead empty shell of human reality remaining.

The joyous reality of Jesus rescuing us from the potential personal devastation replaces all pain of the past with absolute overcoming beautiful personal love with our Lord. Jesus takes us by our right hand, looks deep into our eyes, filling our body, soul, and spirit with pure heavenly love. We then turn and walk hand in hand with Him ascending the upward path of the heavenly hill with clean hands and a pure heart. (Psalm 24)

Now, we are ready to take reformation to the world around us. Now we are reformers as God lives and flows through us and anything that is not from Him and for Him is distasteful to us. We have no tolerance for the foolishness of religious man-focused, man-made traditions. Anything that smells of sin or mixture makes us want to throw up. We no longer have ears to hear the seducing voices of manipulating accolades of controlling men and their systems.

Reformation is the natural flow of God toward the kingdom of God ruling in every aspect of life from family, to church, to education, entertainment, and governments - to cities, nations and the world, after real revival and the resulting devastation of past life sweeps clean the heart and life of believers.

As this process must occur in the believer, so also it must occur in the nation that turns to God and is revived, renewed, and comes toward reformation. True love and humility, first in the individuals, and eventually in the nations is bringing reformation toward the kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven. Think it not strange when the fiery trials of devastation come upon you and eventually your nation. For the Spirit of GLORY rest upon you.

1 Pet 4:12-17: Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified.

But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people's matters. Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter. For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

1 Pet 2:20-23: For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps: "Who committed no sin, Nor was deceit found in His mouth"; who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously;

Whatever God has put in your heart, do it heartily and quickly. For the night comes when no man can work.(Col 3:23) (John 9:4)

We Are The Church
Ron McGatlin

We owe much to the past models of church and the faithful leaders and saints who have birthed multitudes into salvation and created a foundation of believers that are now bringing forth further reformation toward the original New Testament church model.

The word church has a very uncertain definition in many minds today. When one person says church they mean one thing and when someone else says church it means a different thing. God is lifting up a new/old standard and many are seeking to see through their own personal religious fog to discover the new/old reality of New Testament style relationship with God and with one another.

One of the most difficult concepts for our minds to digest is that we don't go to the church, we are the church. The practical reality of this is indeed a large hurdle yet many are absorbing it. If we don't get this, then changing the size of the meeting or the location of the meeting or switching around some titles and so on may only lead to the same imperfect concepts that have led to where we have already been.

When we look without religious glasses or fog to the New Testament model of the church that Jesus really started in its embryo form and the disciples brought into being by Jesus working with them by the Holy Spirit, we find it looks much different from most church systems of today.

A great transition began at that time as the old covenant "church" or temple/synagogue was no longer to be the center or primary presentation of the kingdom of God on earth. A new covenant "called out people" (church) were to be the gathering that would become a living organism flowing the very continuation of resurrected life of Jesus Christ on earth by the Holy Spirit, forming Christ in gatherings of people joined by the Holy Spirit in spiritual relational networks (body).

Jesus went to the temple/synagogue in fulfillment of old covenant living before His baptism - before the Holy Spirit descended and remained upon Him. As His ministry matured He went to these institutions and revealed Himself as Messiah. At that point serious opposition to the transition began. The decision was made to throw him off a cliff instead of receiving the new covenant reality of Jesus the Messiah. The transition to new covenant church was not made in the old covenant institutions.

Jesus gathered disciples and began to model and bring forth the church "called out gatherings".

Jesus gave his life on the cross, was resurrected, taken up into heaven, and returned to earth in the Holy Spirit to indwell His people thus establishing the NEW COVENANT reality of church.

Some of the early apostles continued to go to the old covenant institutions again and again to attempt to lead them to Jesus and the new covenant. Some people did make the transition with them. But the institution continued in the old covenant with Priest standing before the people offering sacrifices for the people and maintaining the old covenant way of form and shadow rather than transition into the reality of Jesus and the new covenant.

A great falling away occurred in the new covenant church. After a few centuries men began to change the ways of the church from what Jesus and the disciples had begun. Portions of the old covenant form began to be reestablished in the new covenant church.

A hierarchy of men ruling over the people was again brought forth and the division of clergy and laity was erroneously formed in the new covenant church. The new covenant was to include a nation of priests and kings. The headship of Christ living within the people by the Holy Spirit was replaced by a structure of men and their rules and rituals. This was a partial return to the old covenant system of Priest standing between the people and God. The resulting "church" was a perverted mixture of old and new. This created an opening for traditions of men and doctrines of demons to infiltrate the church.

Over a thousand years later the "great reformation" began a process of eliminating some of the old covenant ways as well as some traditions of men and doctrines of demons, from the new covenant church. We now can clearly see that it was not a complete reformation. In recent centuries and very recent decades, we have begun to see giant steps of more complete reformation toward becoming as the church that Jesus began.

One of the old covenant practices carried forward into the reformed church was the clergy laity division. The function and office of Priest was renamed the office of Pastor in most expressions of "Protestant Church". High Priest became Senior Pastor or Bishop and a hierarchy of men with various titles continued to stand before the people and rule over them. This old covenant practice mixed into the new covenant church hindered the power. love, and gifts of the Holy Spirit from flowing directly through the mature saints (elders) to the less mature saints.

The mature expression of the true new covenant church may not necessarily include the temples of brick and will surely not include a hierarchy of men standing as Priest between God and the people. We must not continue the old covenant ways in the new covenant church. Yes we will continue to reach out to the so called "institutional church" and continue to present the true Messiah, Christ Jesus our High Priest, Savior and King who lives now in His temple on earth. Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? (1 Cor 3:16)

Many unnecessary burdens are spawned by the perversions of the erroneous continuation of the old covenant headship concept of clergy over laity. In the new covenant church there are indeed spiritually mature people (elders) and spiritually immature people and there are servant gifts to mature and equip the people. It is always the work of Christ flowing by the Holy Spirit to do the work of these ministries. The clergy laity deception causes a few to stand as "Priest" to attempt to do the work of many that are only sitting in the pew and can therefore never mature. We are to all become priest and kings as Christ by the Holy Spirit is formed in us. We are to all mature and become "equippers" for the less mature around us by the work of the Holy Spirit.

The central foundation of the new covenant church is the believer in intimate relationship with God and with those around him or her. This means that the prayer closet and the living and dining rooms can become the main facilities of church. From there the church can flow to the office or shop and the mall or wherever. When the homes become the primary assembly then additional meetings can be held in rented halls, stadiums, brick buildings or any where as the many expressions of the city church can come together in glorious meetings of praise, prayer, and worship.

If we can get this, it is really good news, especially for many godly men seeking to serve God with all their heart as a Pastor (Priest) ruling over a congregation of pew sitters who have been trained to pay the Pastor to do the spiritual stuff for them. Why keep pumping a dry hole? It may be time to move to a new/old well with living water and return to the way Jesus and the disciples began.

God loves His church too much to allow the old covenant ways to exist forever robbing the church of the reality of the fulfillment of "Christ in you the hope of Glory."

I've recently discovered a good book written by David Newby from Australia. David has done research on the reality of the old covenant ways carried into the new covenant church and has good insight into this matter and some help in dealing with it. I am not trying to sell books but I believe this book to be a genuine help in bringing forth understanding of the history and the potential of the New Testament church. The book is called, "The Bubble Will Burst" by David Newby. You can get a copy here: http://www.openheaven.com/bookstore/

Honeycomb Anointing

Brenda Dowdin

Several weeks ago I had a "supernatural" encounter with the Lord... I have been praying about it and asking the Lord for greater understanding of this experience...and if and when to share it? I sensed this morning the Lord saying now is the time...

It was a normal morning - I spent time in worship, prayer and reading of the living Word of God. Once I was finished I went in to get ready for work. I was showering and suddenly had this experience. It felt as though someone had a Kirby Vacuum cleaner hose over my head and my spirit was pulled out of my body. When this happened I could still feel the water on my body, yet I knew my spirit was somewhere way above in a heavenly place, in a vacuum. I saw a huge honeycomb over the state of California and I was emerged in to one of the "cells" of this honeycomb. Honey was dripping all over me. I was drenched in it. As this experience was transpiring I was "terrified!" The Holiness of God is and was terrifying! I asked the Lord, "What's going on here Lord? I am terrified!" This is what I sensed Him saying to my spirit, "The honeycomb is the purest place of my anointing, my "revelation. You don't need to be afraid, I am letting you feel my holiness!" At this moment when the Lord spoke these things, I had this incredible realization of how much I needed God's word under my feet as my foundation. And that in order to stand in this next new level of anointing we must know the word. Not just read it, but truly wear it, walk it, know it, be it. It's like putting Christ on through the word.... Needless to say I was "out of it" the rest of the day! I shared this with several one's I am accountable to. One of the comments I got back was that the Lord puts His word, even above His own name!

There are several things I believe the Lord may be saying here:

I. Deceptions, strong deceptions are coming upon the church. We have got to have the plumb line of God's word under our feet.

2. The Honeycomb, the word of God is the place of the purest anointing and revelation. There are nuggets, treasures in His word that He is getting ready to reveal as we press in to Him.

3. There is coming a greater release of His anointing of "revelation", to the body of Christ.

4. Honey is a pure food, it doesn't get stale. It keeps, just like God's word! The Lord has always spoke about "honey" being a type and shadow of His anointing...

5. Ps 133 His anointing being poured out! A key here is: we must be in unity, and then God will show up! Let's clear up any differences we have with one another and not miss out on what the Lord is doing!

Kathie Walters has a word that's been released called, "Grace, Grace, Grace!" She also speaks of the Honey in the Rock! Truly the Lord is speaking of something that is coming...let's be ready to embrace the new that the Lord is bringing. It's time to consecrate our selves, let the Lord deal with all hidden places, and come clean. We are a people of unclean lips, and live amongst a people of unclean lips! Let the Lord cleanse our hearts, and lips for His Holiness is terrifying in a wonderful way! I know that, that last statement doesn't make sense in our understanding, but I know it to be a "truth" from my own personal experience in Him! He is truly "terrifying in a wonderful Holy way!"

Ps 19:7-10, Ps 81:16, 2 Sam 22:2, John 1:1, 1 Sam 14:29. Yashua, my rock, my salvation, my living word, my revelator, my redeemer! The place of the purest honey and anointing!

Much love to you all! Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Don't go out thinking you can clobber the world, just let me guide you! We will overcome one thing at a time and together!

Worship and stay in submission to me. I will shield you from all evil as you stay in the shadow of my wing. It's like flying in space, we are passing by meteorites and I am shielding you as you move through this storm of rocks. We will not take on one hit as you stay hidden in me. Fine Tuning

Just as your hear static on a radio until the dial is fine tuned, so it is that I am fine tuning you! I am taking up the areas where there is "slack" in your life. I am dealing with areas that have needed more self restraint and help! I am a loving God, I will gently guide you and deal with these areas. There is no need of "stressing out" over this. Just let my guiding hand take control. As you relinquish control and surrender your new days will spring forth in to delight and joy....trust me Beloved! I will never lead you astray! But always towards my guiding light!!! My Joy is a gift to you! Open up my "gift of joy", and wear it today!

Ps 16:11 "You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore."

James 1:17 "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning."

Tenderness
Brenda Dowdin

My humility is like pure perfume. When you put it on my fragrance lingers upon you all day long. Haven't you noticed how when you are around someone with true humility that you are attracted to them. You want to be around them. It's my fragrance, the very nature of Christ upon them.

There will be opportunity coming to take the road of humility. The tenderness of your heart will determine the outcome. Allow me to break you and tenderize your heart. It will be like the box of alabaster that was broken for me, Ah such sweet perfume will arise in places where there's been breeches in relationships.... and I will be there with you.

When I talk to my people about "brokenness", many of them run from me. Brokenness is tenderness, a softening of one's ideas and will, it's a sweet surrender of "your will" to me. When you let me in I am tender with you. Don't fight me, trust me. You will be pleased with the out come! Trust me!!!

"This is the one I esteem; he who is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word." Isa 66:2B
"The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, A broken and a contrite heart, These, O God You will not despise!" Ps 51:17

Hear O Israel

Asher Intrater

The greatest commandment of all time starts with the word "Hear"- in Hebrew, "Shema". Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. You shall love the Lord with all your heart, all your soul and all your might - Deuteronomy 6:4-5. This verse has been the rallying cry of the Jewish people for three thousand years. Eye witness reports of the Holocaust told of Jewish families holding their little children in their arms, whispering to them, then pointing to the sky, chanting out loud, "Shema Yisrael," as the Nazis machine gunned them into mass graves.

In this article I want to concentrate on that first word - "Hear." Unfortunately, the meaning has been clouded by religious controversy (as if the verse was primarily a Jewish theological defense against the Christian "pagan" belief in three gods) and by religious ritual (some Jews recite the verse with the three middle fingers pointing upward on the forehead with the thumb and little finger in the corners of the right and left eye, spelling out the letters of "Shaddai"; while other Jews wrap their tallit - prayer shawl - around their head like Moses covering his face before the glory fire of God).

Listen and Obey

The word Shema, much like the word Hear in other languages, has two meanings: listen and obey. So God is telling us to listen - to pay attention to hear and understand what He is saying; and then when we get it, we are to obey - to put into action what the word has said. This is similar to how Pastor Cho of Korea summarized his secret to ministry success as simply, "I pray and I obey."

So God is telling us first of all to develop a listening heart and to try to understand His will. You can't hear a radio station unless you turn into the right wavelength. Before we can "hear" God's voice, we have to "listen" for it. Romans 10:17 tells us "faith comes by hearing." That also has a dual meaning. Our faith is developed as we hear the voice of God in our inner ear, but it is also developed as we "obey all things that I (Yeshua) have commanded you" - Matthew 28:20.

Hearing by faith is just as much moral as it is mystical. Faith without obedience is a false faith, like sinking sand, a cloud without water, a body without a spirit. A famous verse in Jewish tradition, which puts the commitment to obey even before the ability to hear is Exodus 24:7 - "We will obey and we will hear."

Prophetic Anointing

There was a time in Israel when almost no one was receiving a prophetic word from God. People were neither listening nor obeying. Then God found one little boy whose heart was sensitive to Him. This little boy was Samuel. But he didn't know how to receive a prophecy. He had to learn. Eli the old priest told him that the next time he sensed the Lord might be talking to him to respond, "Speak LORD for your servant hears" - I Samuel 3:9.

There is a position, a posture of the heart, a willingness of spirit that makes us ready and able to hear a word from God. We have to listen on the inside, and be committed to obeying. We cannot make God speak to us, but we can train ourselves to be sensitive and focused on listening. And God certainly wants to speak to us. There is nothing wrong with His transmitter; it is our receiver that needs tuning.

Our staff and students take two hours together in the morning for prophetic praise and prayer. It is a time for listening to the voice of God and developing the prophetic gifts of the Holy Spirit. We believe God wants to raise up a new generation of local Hebrew speaking prophets here in Israel, just as He wants in every other tribe, nation and tongue. We see this as a kind of "school of the prophets" (I Samuel 10:5).

Kingly Authority
Another example is found in the famous dream of King Solomon, in which he was asked what he would like to receive from God. Above all the material blessings of this world, he requested, "a hearing heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil" - I Kings 3:9. The word here for a hearing or listening or obedient heart is lev shomea, from the same root as shema in both the passages above.

Note again the moral dimensions of hearing, so that we can discern between right and wrong. It was the listening heart that made Solomon worthy to be king. That same listening heart gives us the wisdom to exercise spiritual authority. Yet that authority also requires integrity. A king's throne is established in righteousness (Proverbs 16:12, 25:5).

Don't think you are going to have all kinds of spiritual authority without the corresponding responsibility of integrity and righteousness. We learn to reign by the qualities of righteousness (Romans 5:17), and it is the Spirit of Holiness that gives us the wisdom to rule as kings (Proverbs 8:15).

So whether it is to 1.) love the Lord with all our might, 2.) receive prophetic gifts and anointing, or 3.) develop leadership and kingly authority, everything starts with a listening and obedient heart. Like a leaf that flutters at the slight touch of the wind (John 3:8), so are we to be sensitive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit on the inside

Holy Of Holies
Kathleen Pirl

The Cohen ha Gadol our High Priest who ever lives to make intercession is at the Mercy Seat, the ark of covenant, ushering in the way to the Holy of Holies. The Holy of Holies is the continual presence of YVHY, YVHV or Yeshua.

He is praying the Holy of Holies prayer for us for the time of great judgment is soon to be upon us. This is the prayer Jesus is praying for us:

Sanctify them [purify, consecrate, separate them for Yourself, make them holy by the Truth; Your Word is Truth. Just as You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. And so for their sake and on their behalf I sanctify (dedicate, consecrate) Myself, that they also may be sanctified (dedicated, consecrate, make holy) in the Truth. Neither for these alone do I pray [it is not for their sake only that I make this request], but also for all those who will ever come to believe in (trust in, cling to, rely on) Me through their word and teaching. That they all may be one, [just] as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, so that they world may believe and be convinced that You have sent Me. I have given to them the glory and honor which YOU have given Me, that they may be one [even] as We are one: I in them and You in Me, in order that they may become one and perfectly united, that they world may know and [definitely] recognize that You sent Me and that You have loved them [even] as You have loved Me. Father, I desire that they also whom You have entrusted to Me [as Your gift to Me]; for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. O just and righteous Father, although the world has not known You and has failed to recognize You and has never acknowledged You, I have known You [continually]; and these men understand and know that You have sent Me. I have made Your Name known to them and revealed Your character and Your very Self, and I will continue to make [You] known, that the love which You have bestowed upon Me may be in them [felt in their hearts] and that I [Myself] may be in them. John 17:17-26

To be in the holy of holies is to be one with the Lord thereby the continual abiding presence of God is on and in us even while still in the world.

Come! We are entering into the days of awe.

REPENT FOR THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS AT HAND.
Repentance is the gift of God; it is his kindness that leads us to repentance.

Come to the Mercy seat where there still is a place of repentance because of the way made behind the veil of the Holy of Holies the way made through His flesh.

Those whom I [dearly and tenderly] love, I tell their faults and convict and convince and reprove and chasten [I discipline and instruct them]. So be enthusiastic and in earnest and burning with zeal and repent [changing your mind and attitude].

For whom the Lord loves He corrects, even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights.

The foundations of the church are being shaken. I saw in a dream the Victorian house is being shaken by a great earthquake off its foundations. We were sitting on the floor praying and ministering to one another. The children were in the room upstairs. We could not move until the earthquake was over.

God stands in the assembly [of the representatives] of God; in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives judgment [as] among the gods. How long will you [magistrates or judges] judge unjustly and show partiality to he wicked? Selah

Do justice to the weak [poor] and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and needy. Deliver the poor and needy; rescue them out of the hand of the wicked.

[The magistrates and judges] know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in the darkness [of complacent satisfaction] all the foundations of the earth [the fundamental principles upon which rests the administration of justice] are shaking.

I said, You are gods [since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives]; indeed, all of you are children of the Most High. But you shall die as men and fall as one of the princes. Arise, O God, judge the earth! For to YOU belong all the nations. Ps 82

Until the shaking has stopped we can do nothing.

But I tell you the mystery of godliness and wickedness is coming to full maturity.

The harvest is ripe the angels soon to be released.

But weep and wail between the porch and the altar,

For the day of the Lord will soon be upon us.

Blow the trumpet!

The Day of the Ushering in of His return

For as lightning comes forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west, So shall be the coming of the Son of Man. Math 24:27

So the glory of the Lord will return to His temple from the east.

Afterward the man [an angel] brought me to the gate, the gate that faces east. (The east gate was how one entered the temple.) And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the east and His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory. And the glory of the Lord entered the temple by the gate facing east. Then the Spirit caught me up and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the temple. And I heard One speaking to me out of the temple, and a Man stood by me. And He [the Lord] said, to me, Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever; and My holy name the house of Israel shall no more profane, neither they nor their kings, by their [idolatrous] harlotry, nor by the dead bodies and monuments of their kings.

This is the law of the house [of the Lord]: the whole area round about on the top of the mountain [Mount Moriah] shall be most holy, separated, and set apart, Behold, this is the law of the house [of the Lord]. Ez 43:1,2,4,5-7,12

So prepare the way,

Come up from the low Jordan River to the east over the Mt. of Crushing Anointing known as Olives.

Only the dead can see God, you cannot live and see God!

So die that you might live in resurrection power!!

Establish the eternal foundations of His temple.

Be holy as He is holy!

That He may return taking up residence in His House!

You are the temple of the Lord! BE HOLY! HOLY! HOLY!

You my Bride are to sing the Holy of Holies song the Shir ha Shirim the Song of Songs of all the ages my Love of Loves He is the Desire of All Nations!

His Holy Bride will enter into the Holy Of Holies with her Cohen ha Gadol to make atonement for sin participating in His sufferings.

Even if she has not seen him she loves him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with inexpressible and glorious joy.

She comes with HIM to the mercy seat, the inner chambers are ready!

REPENT before the doors are closed and no place for repentance is left.

She will soon see HIM her Desire!

She the holy Bride is standing in for the sins of the people making intercession with her High Priest Yeshua.

For the Lord corrects and disciplines everyone whom He loves, and He punishes, even scourges, every son whom He accepts and welcomes to His heart and cherishes,

Let us all come forward and draw near with true (honest and sincere) hearts in unqualified assurance and absolute conviction engendered by faith (by the leaning of the entire human personality on God in absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness), having our hearts sprinkled and purified from a guilty (evil) conscience and our bodies cleansed with pure water. …

And let us consider and give attentive, continuous care to watching over one another, studying how we may stir up (stimulate and incite) to love and helpful deeds and noble activities, Heb 10:22,24

Therefore;

THE WHOLE EARTH SHALL BE FILLED WITH HIS GLORY
HOLY ! HOLY! HOLY!
IS THE ONE WHO WAS AND IS AND IS TO COME!

Beholding the Bridegroom,

Kathleen Pirl

Holy Matrimony!?!

Roy Resh

I Heard in my spirit:

“DISORDER IN MY BODY!
 DISORDER IN MY CHURCH!
 DISORDER IN MY EARTHLY KINGDOM!

“Husbands are confused, used, noosed…
 Wives are abused, amused, rused…

“Many couples receive ministry of spirit death instead of the Spirit Life that My Son died to purchase! Humble yourselves now and learn of Me and My loving, gracious ways.” Thus saith the Lord.

> There are three things which are too wonderful for me, yes, four which I do not understand: The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a virgin. [Prov 30:18,19] (Scriptures are NKJV, emphasis is ours)

Implications: How a bridegroom woos his beloved bride is the deepest of human mysteries [even to Solomon, the wisest man]. That’s because the spiritual bonding that a courtship couple develops is unique to them, special in all of creation!

> “He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor from the Lord” [Prov 18:22; See also 19:14].

A wife is a good gift from our Lord Jesus. A bridegroom ought to have the same rapt affection and humble respect for his intended that Jesus has for His bride {that’s us}. Yes, a husband is called to cherish his one-flesh partner as much as he loves himself. [Eph 5:28,33]

Why Marry? The spirit and soul bonding of holy matrimony is at the very heart of humanity. [Gen 2:24] God’s basic governmental unit is the family. Cities, nations and orders rise or fall on how they value and support marriage and family life. All human order (religious, political, neighborhood…) should be family rooted.

> “…Be fruitful, and multiply, fill the earth and subdue it: have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” [Gen 1:28]

Law Paradigm: Once, when I was a respected rocket scientist/manager and a (Nicolaitan!) church layman, I told a friend: “My wife is the spiritual leader in our home.” She was the most spiritual person whom I had ever met, so it seemed natural that she lead in religious matters. Who finds fault with that? My friend certainly didn’t challenge me. This way ‘seemed right to man, but the end of it is death’ [Prov 16:25] in many ways.

When I was told that God calls a husband to be ‘head of the wife’ [Eph 5:23], I sought to correct my ways. Around that time the ‘subjugation of wives’ was a hot topic at our men’s prayer breakfast. I well remember a pentecostal friend’s complaint: “I can’t get my wife to submit.” Everyone seemed to agree that wives who didn’t submit were rebelling against God, who would surely judge them.

When managing cutting-edge scientists, my authority was often subtle control, lest rebellion be fomented. Similar subtle control also appeared to be a dominant theme in our various churches, whose leaders used it to maintain their denominations. Legalistic submission, where dominant control is exercised over the submitted, seemed right to us. We just didn’t get it!

I didn’t know that attempts to control other adults are an abomination to God.

The Real Question: Courting couples do enjoyable things together, acting in accordance with their individual free wills. They seldom seriously disagree usually they get along famously. Some helpmeet couples even live together for years as in a ‘one accord’ equality until church marriage spoils their Paradise! Why do control issues so often plague church-sanctioned works, such as marriage?

Marriage Roots: In His wisdom, God created two sexes with widely different characteristics and capacities. Adam and Eve, God’s perfect creations, shared deep, heart-felt love. As helpmeets, they perfectly complemented one another, agreeing upon anything and everything as they shared God's anointing to manage His earth for Him. After all, didn't Adam say: "…Eve is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh…" [Gen 2:23]? Their Eden truly was Heaven touching earth!

What Happened? What ruined this 'one accord' helpmeet Eden? Satan deceived Eve her downfall resulted from a desire to choose between good and evil herself (knowledge of good and evil is God's business, alone). Although Adam wasn't deceived, rather than sacrifice himself to ransom Eve, he committed the greater sin. Adam deliberately chose to defy God and followed Eve into satan's hell.

What had been sown was now reaped. God cursed woman to suffer childbirth pain but to desire a husband! Man was cursed to rule over a wife and to corrupt our good earth with thorns and briars [spiritually: death, sickness, loss…] while toiling [sweating] for sustenance. But how might a wife's desire for her husband be a curse? Here desire implies controlling love. Eve had enticed Adam to give up his earthly authority to satan. Now, as a 'law' wife, God cursed her to try to lead. Conflict was guaranteed since Adam was cursed to rule her, [no longer 'one-accord' helpmeets, they lived on in this "Law" Paradigm, without Eden's grace]. [Gen 3]

Law Today: The "…woman is the glory of the man." [I Cor 11:7], but power struggles caused by the 'control battle' curse continue. Didn't Jesus' cross lift all curses? Are b*elievers* subject to God's 'Law' today? Maybe so, maybe not! In 'church' marriage ceremonies brides often vow [before God] to love, honor [sometimes obey] husbands! Such vows may break Christ's rule against oaths and reinvoke the law's curse, despoiling holy matrimony. Also, uforgiven sin or disobedience curse both husband and wife to obey the whole law [of Moses]. Such curses may pass on to new generations.

The Remedy: Widespread demonic and religious deception needs to be recognized and evil forces bound, defeated and cast out! Then, heart-felt repentance and the desire to obey Christ (within) brings salvation and immediate entrance into Heaven. This makes deliverance from all curses possible. Sin becomes easier to avoid because Christ within guides and empowers.

The capacity of one spouse to 'fill in' areas where the other is weak, to complement the other, makes for mighty marriage power! Both a man-woman joining as 'one flesh' helpmeets in Jesus Christ's grace and our betrothal to Him create powerful eternal spiritual bonds.

Jesus Christ rules perfectly, but how obedient is His earthly bride today? Doesn't she often adopt religious practices to try to control Him? Emotional worship, intellectual sermons, self-interest prayers… aren't such works merely the desire of a chosen but rebel, fleshly bride to rule? What about the forbidden 'party spirit' [denominations] supported by the establishment of clergy/laity classes [hated Nicolaitan works]? To sing 'Trust and Obey' is fruitless unless Christ is obeyed, not a religious system, or even the written Word of God (the Holy Bible). Church-sanctioned marriage is plagued with control issues because God says that:

"Married couples who don't fully obey Jesus constantly strive for control!!"

Grace Paradigm A New Thing: A spirit of love and unity prevails when a 'one flesh' relationship is seen as an opportunity to multiply Christ's Kingdom on earth. After satan's deception is recognized and his forces bound, defeated and cast out, couples ought to humbly embrace God's Grace Paradigm of life, and:

Pray!! Listen!! Obey!!

Prayer in the Holy Spirit for each other provides the glue for holy matrimony. Marriages are happy and healed when both husband and wife seek to always obey Christ within. Marriage isn't just a relationship to satisfy ourselves, it is a daily opportunity to glorify our Lord Jesus. Merciful Jesus waits eagerly and to guide and empower marriages to create powerful signs and wonders to glorify Himself in and through His joyful, loyal couples!!! Holy Matrimony!?!

Recent History: 'Helpmeet' marriage may have been easier to initiate when the majority of the population was rural. The farm family could readily divide up life's responsibilities among male and female children. A husband and wife could easily establish loving companionship and strong neighborly working relationships.

Cooperative fellowship needed for solid, self-sufficient families defined early Midwest America 'church' was neighborly working relationships. A 'helpmeet' marriage atmosphere developed that led the world into Kingdom righteousness and revealed God's glory.

Myriad small Midwest supporting towns were deeply influenced by this godly farm community ethic. In my personal rural experience, I saw God openly at work in fertile soil growing grain, fruits and vegetables and in reproducing animals that provided milk, eggs, meat… It's been more challenging to see His hand in my present complicated urban world of science and industry. On the farm the family dog roamed free, in the city he must be confined or leashed. Modern urban churches often seek to leash congregations to leaders, legalism, levels… and shame on those who don't perform to their standards! Pioneer Midwestern material unity and spiritual vigor has waned.

'Christian' USA is now so double minded that half of its citizens desire a leader who is personally pro-life but wants abortion to be up to an individual (pro-choice). The 'abortion on demand' generation is losing its sense of the awesome eternal value of every human, born or unborn. Death for an unborn sibling at the hands of unrepentant parents, whether before or during marriage, brutalizes many children. (Psychological counsel for guilt feelings is useless only Christ's forgiveness removes guilt.) A nation that won't protect its weakest, most innocent citizens begs God's judgment. The 'A' twins, adultery and subsequent abortion, wreak havoc and lead to both 'Christian' and unbeliever divorces.

Freedom: Christ came to set the captives (to satan and to religious men) free. Marriage is blessed when both partners open the doors to their hearts to Him. God-joined married couples are able to overcome much more difficult challenges than either could handle singly. Two in agreement [with God] bring overcoming divine power to bear during life's trials. [Mat 18:18-20]

Courtship Order The 'helpmeets' marriage function ought not to take a back seat to mutual satisfaction of sensual, selfish, smothery… fleshly desires. Procreation began after the fall into satan's hell, but that didn't make lovemaking evil or polluted. God created marital sex for a couple to delight in. Patience is needed, however, for marriage timing is our Lord's responsibility. Prospective bridegroom and bride need to have prior knowledge of the joint earthly work that our Lord has for them. They also need to have hearts for this work. Before marriage is even considered, why not prove that you function well as 'helpmeets' in the works that our Lord assigns to you jointly?

Present Reality: What is happening in the spirit world, not what is observed in the natural, is reality. Repent and learn moment-by-moment obedience to the Holy Spirit. Tomorrow may be too late to excuse oneself of devilish custom and human marriage tradition. Enter into the glories and rigors of heavenly holy matrimony. Couples need a burning desire to complement each other and to quickly resolve every matter of concern with undying love to humbly agree in Jesus.

Recently, I examined spiritual relationships in marriages with which I am familiar. Some husbands seemed to rule dominantly over their wives while some wives had obviously usurped their husband's headship. Many who appeared to have near equality don't agree on life's important matters. No true helpmeet relationships stood out. Like Jeremiah vainly looking for one righteous man in Jerusalem, no marriage 'got it' by God's definition, where equality in spirit is maintained.

For by grace you are saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest anyone should boast. [Eph 2:8,9]

The Answer: Those who preach salvation through works, infant baptism, church affiliation… are liars. By grace alone Jesus sets us free from satan's hell [where we're all born under the 'law' because Adam's nature is inherited]. Jesus' blood and sacrificial death are needed to pay our [spiritual] death penalty and to lift all curses. Christ's free salvation from satan's hell is a personal matter for each individual to choose or reject when the age of accountability is reached. No husband, clergy, pope… has the right to stand between another person and God! A husband is 'head' of the wife only as he walks in total agreement with Jesus, and even then, he can't save her! Yes, this is a hard word for many who were 'married' by clergy, but not by God.

Lifting the Curse of the Law: Let's admit that sin and error creep into earthly walks. To have joyful helpmeet marriages, couples ought to regularly seek personal and mutual forgiveness, and to offer forgiveness to others. Jesus' blood heals and generates a forgiving spirit. As He does for us, forgiven offenses of a spouse are to be cast into the sea of forgetfulness [never revisited].

The extreme importance of a mutually-obedient marriage in the Lord is under emphasized in 'law Churchianity.' Many spiritual leaders seem unconcerned about helpmeet order in marriage a legalistic view of the Body of Christ is common. Clergyman, why use your authority to bless couples who take legalistic vows or have little concept of marriage order under our Lord? America, wake up! Ministries, look up! Your time for telling God how great you are is about to end! Law is bondage   Grace is freedom! Embrace the Grace Paradigm! The heart of love that a bride and groom share for each other can't survive many long years of subtle church legalistic control. Love grows stronger and stronger, however, as the freedom of abundant grace blesses holy matrimony! The holy remnant who gets the 'equal helpmeets' part right fills the earth with His glory!!

Walking in Heaven: Godly fruit develops when each spouse earnestly endeavors to hear and obey Jesus (as He speaks from within)   children thrive in such an atmosphere. In Spirit-led marriages, helpmeet wives have no desire to control   husbands don't try to rule in the power of their flesh. This is greater than a mere return to Eden, it is daily living in spiritual Heaven, itself. [Eph2:6,7]

Holy Matrimony Test

1. Do you and your spouse know and fully agree upon the works to which God has called you as a couple, and also upon everything else?
2. Are you now fully engaged in His assigned works, with miraculous signs following and much glory for God?
3. Do you daily pray together for your calling and your family and community responsibilities, worshiping Jesus and sharing love for each other?

> Lord, Jesus, I pray that blind eyes will be opened and, that all religious and political captives will be set free. May the sins of commission and omission of couples be forgiven, and may it be as if no one has ever spoken any words over them except words of (spirit) life. Thank you for your mercy and loving kindness. You are truly better than life.

Synopsis: Families and nations are greatly blessed when proper marriage order is maintained. Prospective bridegroom, establish a helpmeet relationship before you go to the altar (alter?), not later at the expense of your wonderful bride. The love, joy, peace… and spiritual gifts that flow gently from loving, helpmeet marriages in holy matrimony attract others to Jesus! When couples get the equal helpmeets part right, the earth will be "…filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord!" [Hab 2:14]

Hospitality

Teresa Sheridan

May 3, 2005
DREAM: I had a dream this morning... Someone (like a nurse) handed me a little baby too young to walk... the child had been through some type of surgery which had left 2 holes with bandaids over them near the child's stomach, near the belly button... the baby could not get comfortable... I kept holding it in different positions, and finally found the 'happy position'... the child stopped crying... I was happy because the child had found it's 'resting place'. I was Happy, it caught me by surprise to 'feel happy' (JOY)... then I woke up.

MESSAGE: So maybe that's part of our Job down here in our Battlefield Stations... just to help those around us to get comfortable enough to REST (IN HIM)... wherever they may have left off with HIM last is way beyond our knowledge, but the TECHNIQUE for getting people to REST is always the same (manners are manners)... then they can LEAN ON HIM... all we have to do is just make them comfortable enough to REST IN HIS PRESENCE, regardless of their circumstances, regardless of what they may be going through... God is Big Enough to meet them where they are (we are not), all HE asks us to do to just be HOSPITABLE toward them while HE gets HIS arms around them again.

Healing Of The Nations
Becky McLendon

Healing of the LAND will not come until we become clear in our stand concerning GAZA STRIP. It all seems to tie in with decisions that are being made about moving the Jews OUT of that land and giving it back to Palestine! This is the root of all the natural disasters coming on the land. I think God is RIGHT in his WORD about these things. So we pray that all ungodly decisions concerning GAZA will be thwarted no matter how things LOOK over there and no matter how many THREATS the Arab nations make against us and Israel. We are either for the Lord's plan or we are not.

I cannot shake that dream I had a few months ago where the Lord said: "ENTER THE LAND OF QUICK HEALING! GAZA STRIP" He was telling us the exact strategy for prayer and where to stand in faith. It has spiritual and physical implications, if we but rest ourselves in Him and listen to His holy words to us.

Many people all try to rush the end things so they can "get out of here" or "get rid of them"...but God's plan IS and always has been to restore all things unto Him, make them NEW. He does the moving out and weeding out right on time. GAZA plays an important role here! Hear the voice of the Lord.

Amen
Blessings and the true SHALOM of Messiah be with you and yours,
Becky

Ashes To Ashes: Nothing Else
Becky McLendon

Everything comes from Jesus; we are empty. We are only his leaven. W\e are his leaven and not the leaven of the Pharisees. It's not "like Him"; it is He. That is what leaven is. There is no artificial or substitute leaven. It's the real thing

It has to be ashes: ash-to-ash so they say ...the other is dust to dust. Only ashes can marry ashes, so if you are not both ashes you are unequally yoked. There are no ashes to ashes marriages yet, because God's people have not been cleansed of all unrighteousness. We are unequally yoked to the whole world system if we are truly in Christ and he is in us. For what hath Christ to do with Belial? Dust to dust marriages are not even equally yoked, because 666 is made up of all the mixture of man which is not ashes.

Did you ever notice at funerals they say ashes to ashes, dust to dust, but they sprinkle dust on the coffin? That body cannot be ashes...even those cremated are not ashes. Ashes is a life where there is nothing left of the wood, hay and stubble. True ashes is the word of God. The mouth of God is ashes. We are going there one day at a time. We could say an equal yoking is the true word of God to true word of God. We are born out of that true word and we go into it each day.

We are being given a revelation of our predestined state!! We came out of God, and we go in to God: ashes to ashes. This is our true identity in Christ! The chosen become his mouth to the nations.

The church needs to repent of its ignorance. Much of the church is still saying we are fine just like we are, in need of nothing. “Look at how successful and prosperous we are. God is really blessing. Look at the huge crowds we have. Look at our beautiful sanctuary.” But as we acknowledge the Lord we have to see how dumb we are in comparison to him. Truth to the carnal is called false teaching, or they say, “That’s for out yonder in the future.” They float around religiously singing, “When the roll is called up yonder,” and don’t realize the roll is called on earth. The first roll call was "Adam, Adam, where are you?" Think of the foolishness the Lord has brought us out of. Confessing Jesus is confessing “I can't do it; you do it.”

All that the heifer could do was burn. The ashes can do nothing. Only ashes can love with all its heart, mind, soul and strength. So only ashes can keep his commands!!! There is a whole new light shed on everything Jesus said about keeping his commandments! Keeping his sayings! It is impossible to do so if you are not ashes. it is impossible to please god, because the ashes is the faith it takes to please him. Only ashes can love its neighbor as itself. Gas lanterns had a cloth that was burned, so the ashes that remained give great light. I was always fascinated that mantle that was pure ashes could burn like that for a long time. The heifer was like that part of gas lantern. She had to burn so the ashes could give light. The heifer mantle could not endure, but her ashes could and did. So God’s election is a people who endured to the end, they are his ashes. It’s amazing how he can use a gas lantern to teach us things. Ashes is what is alive and remains “when the music fades, and all is stripped away.” Ashes is the “Heart of Worship.”

God's Hot Sauce

Bill Somers

Down here in South Louisiana a standard table item is the bottle of hot sauce. Several years back while applying this to some of my wife's home cooking, the Lord showed me a parallel between it and the church. This seemed good to share at this time, as I believe we are about to see it come to pass.

Hot sauce has three ingredients. Water, cayenne pepper and vinegar. And in these we can see a picture of the Church

Water represents the people of the Church. The pepper is the fire of God, or the anointing, and vinegar speaks of purging or cleansing. The vinegar is needed to keep the pepper mixed in the water.

The problem with this product is that if you let a bottle of hot sauce sit for a long time without using it the pepper separates out and floats to the top. There it forms a crust. Since the neck of the bottle is very narrow, it doesn't take much time before it is completely clogged. No hot sauce will flow if the neck is clogged.

This is like a church that has sat inside its four walls and did little or nothing to reach the outside world. It has become useless.

God is desiring to use his Church to bring in a great harvest of souls in these end times, but the church has become like that bottle of hot sauce; clogged up and useless.

Now imagine that the harvest is like a big plate of jambalaya. That’s a rice dish with chicken, shrimp, ham, pork or sausage; seasonings and spices all mixed in. And before you eat this jambalaya you want to spice it up a bit with some hot sauce!

Well before God can bring in His harvest, he has to pour out his fire on the world and get some people saved.

But the instrument intended for this, his Church, has become of little or no use! What will he do?

The same as I would do with a bottle of hot sauce which was clogged up. Shake it!

One shaking is never enough either; it takes repeated shaking to clear up the stoppage. And after each time you shake it you bring it very close to your face so you can see if you have cleared up the blockage. If it's not ready, you shake it again.

God is about to shake his Church. And with each shaking, we will draw it closer to Himself, examine it and judge it. And then shake it again till its composition is restored to usability. And all the little fragments have been put back into the mixture where they belong.

Then when he is ready, watch out world. His people will pour out of the old dead churches and astonish the world by showing them what Jesus is really like. They will be on fire for God and used mightily for His kingdom. Just like the burning bush, afire with the presence of God and not consumed.

Houston Vision
Rick Schmidt

I see the Lord visiting Houston in the following ways.

1. Tent meetings outside the camp and likely to the west of the city.

God will visit His people in tents across America for several reasons. I saw a tent erected in Katy Texas that will seat 6000 people. I also saw a parking lot where pallets formed the sidewalks to the tent. There are reasons why God will come in a tent. First I believe he wants many to break the model of God coming only to the biggest and best-equipped churches. There will be no manufacture of the anointing to come. It will be a time for God's people to remember their first Love. God will restore many of the great themes of Early American Christianity. This will be a process to displace the religious command and control system in place today. Secondly, God will create a lean and mean model for the church to develop the true identity needed to bless the nations. If we are willing to suffer a little to find God, He will honor our commitment and stave the hands of judgment that come against us even now. This will largely be through gifts given to the nations. God calls the city the "Port" of Houston. This will be a move that does not camp out at the sign of the Lord and will not build another earthly tabernacle but rather strive to build the vessels of God for the last day's ministry. Thirdly, God wants an independent prophetic voice to come from the people of God who are outside the paradigm of the day. These are not lone ranger voices. God reveals there is a powerful territorial spirit in the city that will cause even some of his favored churches to stumble in the early stages of this new move. Therefore He wants mature "silent partner churches" who will come along side this effort without recognition or outward promise of residual benefit to the local church. For these 4-5 that I see being a part, there will be great benefit as God makes them prototypes of His model for the city. They will inherit the blessings of unity among the brethren. These will also be the recipients and carriers of the first fruits for the city that will come out of the tent meetings. I further believe the leaders will be the core team for taking the model elsewhere.

2. Bridge ministry of intercession

Intercessors are the diplomats who will go between the move of God and the leaders who need to come out of the old wine skins and into the new model. First they will spiritually level the field for many to see the power of God to transform the whole of the city and bring unity among the brethren. There is coming a unity that is more than absence of conflict and outward appearance of togetherness as each agrees to disagree in their separate endeavors.

There is a three-fold anointing upon the intercessors in this hour. First is the Esther anointing to perceive the threat to the body, identify with the people of God despite many privileged positions, fast for the favor required, and boldly come before the Lord not on the basis of merit, protocol, history, or position---rather simply calling upon the Grace and Favor of the Lord when we deserve the worst. Second is the anointing of Abigail who lived in the house of Nabal the fool. She saw the arrogance of Nabal in his complacency and trust in the old order. She interceded on His behalf by bringing worthy provision and gifts to the new leadership God was bringing forth. She appeased the King by offering representative apology for the fool. Lastly, She warned Nabal about what he was missing and the results were a failed heart.

The third anointing upon the intercessors is the importunity of Mary at the wedding feast of Cana. She was the one mindful of the affairs of the wedding to that point. She new the stewards allowed the wine to run out. She cared about the outcome of the feast and called upon the Lord to do something to continue the wedding celebration. By faith she told them to do whatever He said even after He indicated it was not His time. Jesus responded and met the needs of the feast in a very prophetic way. He had them fill the empty vessels with water. It is the most basic element of life and a type of the basic elements of servants he will call forth in these last days. Then in the dark, without others knowing how, he turned it into wine and required the stewards to be the ones who served it up. Jesus is being beseeched at the importunity of the Marys who are watching the state of the church as it progresses toward the consummation of marriage to the Son. They are crying out with the fact that the wine of the Spirit is misused, squandered and nearly run out in many places. Marys have faith He will do whatever required and that means changing the base elements of the church and turning them into the finest of wines poured out in His service here in the last days.

3. Prototype model for the nation

God will model unity amongst the workers here in Houston. When the results are evident and secure, God will export the model to other cities around America. It will be a model of not “how” God brings revival but “why” God brings it. The alternate church movement will come out and enter into the grace and favor of the Lord. When they go back, they will possess buildings they have not built, and cultivated lands they have not planted. Cities will not have enough space under roof to contain the blessings of God about to be poured out.

The response of businessmen to this next move will also be a model developed in Houston. Many will be healed from the weakness and insecurity that is often the secret drive in them to be great businessmen. They will not look down upon the lesser people around them but rather see them as the Lord does. They will look down upon the higher value they placed on money and position when they see what its true value intended by the Lord really is. God is going to break the back of the Spirit of Mammon and release many great stewards of wealth to let the flow of substance and supply reach the leaders in the church and supply the needs of the people. There will be a supernatural partnership between business leaders and master builders in the Kingdom. Business with linkage will be the strategy of the day. All will be tied directly to fulfilling the great commission and as a result, both the work of the ministry as well as the quality of life of all believers will rise evidently for all to see. This will be so profound that that even the Jews will take note of the wealth and savvy with which the Christians operate.

Strategy

1. Get a tent and establish a prototype of the ministry and message the Lord wants to release. This tent needs to be whatever size the Lord provides to begin. It may be set up for five months to get the kinks out. By the time it is too hot for Houston, it will be in good time for another city which the Lord will show.

2. Continue to work with groups of intercessors there in the city. First we’ll craft the prayers that express the will of the Lord for the city. These we will pray and believe for the provision of the Lord. This work can come in the form of house meetings, larger meetings and area gatherings. Where individual churches may be targeted for partnership participation, meetings in these churches may be appropriate. Where the intercessors know the church will need outward signs to even consider participation, faith venture intercessions will best be conducted at other neutral locations. Identifying 3-5 streams of intercessors will effectively aid in distributing information about meetings and purposes.

3. Strengthen relationships with those churches that Jesus brings into the foundation of the vision. This requires times of fellowship, prayer and planning so as to establish the basis for deeper trust and cohesion when higher profile activities create opportunity for mistrust and broken relationship. The first five are critical. These of the core intercessory leadership need to pray and agree about which of these churches the Lord is truly connecting to the vision. Telling pastors or perceived city leaders about the program is not the best means of establishing relationship. We believe Jesus is well able to bear witness to the key people without the promotion of men.

Tactics

1. Establish a name that describes the move as we see it. This gives people a point of reference for what the Lord will do.
2. Have Phone for contact and messages.
3. Set up w a website for several levels of communication.
4. Develop a vision brochure that shares the high points of the effort.
5. Identify skilled people who are willing to help in logistics and support.
Procure the following types of materials or supply-- PA system, Chairs, Halogen lights, portable generator 5000W, warehouse space for storage that includes a mailing address for deliveries of materials, large field in Katy(6 acres minimum),
6. We need a tent
7. Cash donations---- About My Father’s Business, Inc. (AMFB)is a 501(c)(3) capable if issuing a tax deductible receipt for ministry donations. The function of AMFB allows for DBA ministries to form under it. It might be best to establish an advisory ministry council for purposes of accountability in this effort. The outcome is a neutral ministry able to relate to all groups in the city.

Holy Wind

Chelle Pilotte- Miller

"Listen for my wind, it is coming, hear what I am saying to you. My wind will blow across this land and it is a wind of holiness, reverence, and a wind to expose and blow away the masks from my people. Some have created masks and costumes that they hide behind, not revealing who they are and what they are. They are masks of pride and religion, masks of joy, when behind them there is sorrow, masks of leadership , and masks of love and concern, when behind is distrust and fear, insecurity and intimidation. This wind must blow, for you must know what you are made of, you must see the "Real" person you are, only then can you confidently walk in faith, in these coming days. You have cried out to me" Cleanse me Lord, touch me with your fire. I have heard and I am answering. How will you know my wind? My wind is Holy, and you will surely know my presence for it will be such that you will be completely still and reverence me, I Am a Holy God and you are my people, be Holy also. Get ready, I AM sending a Holy Wind. Those who allow this Holy wind will find a joy in humility, for all pretense will be gone, Your anointing will increase for I know I can trust you with great power for my kingdom. So yield to my Spirit, listen for my wind, it is on the way. YOU WILL BE CHANGED"

The How and the Therefore

Another look at Romans 12

by Bill Somers

One well worn cliché of bible study goes something like this. When the bible uses the word 'therefore', find out what it's there for! This principle, however often referred to, is not as often adhered to. You can find any number of preachers who use the text of Romans 12:1 and following, yet I have yet to find one who will expound on the use of 'therefore' in that passage

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another." (Rom 12:1-5 KJV)

The word beseech used in verse 1 is 'parakleo' in Greek. Related to the word paraclete, which refers to the Holy Spirit, parakleo refers to the ministry of the Holy Spirit. It can mean 'summon', 'teach', or 'call' as well as beseech. What is it that we are asked, taught, summoned and called to do? Simply to obey God. If we do, we will see ourselves function as many members in one body, the Body of Christ. The word 'so' used in the beginning of verse 5 is like the word therefore, a word denoting a conclusion. The conclusion here is the consequence of obeying verses 1 and 2.

The verses following verse 5 present details and particulars of that obedience. But coming together and functioning as a body is the result of the obedience to those first two verses.

What about the use of 'therefore' in the first verse? It can be seen as the culmination of the entire line of argument in the Epistle to the of Romans. In this case, it is certainly not a simple matter. Or it can be seen as referring to the matters discussed immediately prior to it in chapter 11. In which case it raises other question we may stumble at. Unless, of course, we really are ready to present our bodies a living sacrifice.

The first view, encompassing the whole book, is that the message of the book is to simply obey God. Just as we stated above as the gist of Rom. 12:1-2. To present our bodies is to put ourselves at God's disposal.

This obedience is indeed the theme of the book. Beginning at chapter 1 verse 5 we find these words. "By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:" (Rom 1:5-6 KJV)

And in chapter 16, the last three verses of the book we read the following.
"Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. :To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen." (Rom 16:25-27)

Note the wording in the first chapter "for obedience to the faith among all nations", is almost identical to that in the last chapter: to all nations for the obedience of faith

The issue of the church is martyrdom, i.e. being a witness; and the issue of the gospel, or faith, is obedience.

The call for obedience is also stated in the gospels in different words. Jesus said "If you love me, keep my commandments",(John 14:15) and "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." (Mat 22:37)

So the injunction to 'present our bodies' is also stating the theme of obedience in different words.

This view, that Rom. 12.1 is a major conclusion of the entire book, is of course, correct. However, it may lead you to view the use of '`therefore`' in this case as referring back to chapter 8 and/ or referring to the entire line of argument. This can result in seeing the material in chapters 9-11 as a digression. This is all the more easy to do because chapter 11 closes with several verses of praise. This praise could be seen as the end of the digression into discussing Israel. Then after this digression the writer returns to the train of thought in chapter 8, which has to do with enduring, laying down our lives and persecution.

The two views we are looking at here are concerning the use of 'therefore' in Romans 12.1.One is that it concludes arguments made throughout the entire course of the epistle, the second is that it concludes arguments made in chapter 11. These views are not mutually exclusive. In other words both can be correct.

This second view says that 'therefore' we are to present our bodies so that Israel might receive mercy. "Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy." (Rom 11:31). And this is so that they might be saved. "And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:" (Rom 11:26)

Let's run that down again. Since the Lord intends to save Israel; and He has prophesied it in His word. You could say it like this:

So all Israel shall be saved, and because they may obtain mercy through your mercy, therefore present your bodies a living sacrifice etc.

The difficulty with this is not in the therefore but in the how. How does it come about that Israel can be saved through our mercy?

In the first view of 'therefore', we become many members of one body of Christ, by obeying God. That is when we are obedient, we will be functioning in the body as the Lord intends. We can understand how this can come about. We simply are not willing to obey - in full - as yet.

What is more difficult to see is how this effects the salvation of Israel.

Let's look at Rom. 12.1 again "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." (Rom 12:1) One key idea here is '`the mercies of God`'. This is also found in chapter 11 where we read "For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy." (Rom 11:30-31)

It is we in the church that obtained mercy through their unbelief. So how has this come to pass? Because of their unbelief, Jesus died on the cross. And because Jesus died, for all men, we are able to be heirs of salvation in Him, so long as we repent and obey the gospel. Therefore the mercies of God are evident because `Jesus presented His body` a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which was His reasonable service to the Father.

The word service here, often translated worship is defined as the service and worship of God according to the requirements of the Levitical law; it carries a connotation of a 'sacrifice' by virtue of the Levitical law.

Could it now be that through the Holy Spirit, the paraclete, Jesus wants to offer his body the church a living sacrifice?

If you will grant that the love of God can be synonymous with the mercies of God, consider this next verse. "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." (1 John 3:16) Isn't this saying almost the same thing as Rom. 12.1? To present our bodies a living sacrifice, by the mercies of God is to lay down our lives for the brethren. So as Jesus showed mercy by laying down his life, we show mercy by laying down our lives.

And who are the brethren if not Israel? "As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes." (Rom 11:28). So this confirms the idea that Rom. 12.1 relates to the salvation of Israel discussed in chapter 11.

But it still gives us no idea of how this comes about.

Let's look at the idea of laying down our lives. In Revelation we read the following.

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death." (Rev 12:11) Another translation uses states 'they loved not their lives, but laid them down for him'. It's clear in this case that laying down our lives, dying a martyrs death, is a means of overcoming the enemy. The question is how?

The word 'overcome' is defined as: "to conquer, to carry off the victory, come off victorious; as used of Christ, victorious over all His foes and of Christians, that hold fast their faith even unto death against the power of their foes, ..." (Oh Death where is thy victory?)

Now how does this victory over death accomplish anything? Let's look at what it says about overcoming in Romans Chapter 12. "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." (Rom 12:19-21). What this tells us is that you overcome evil with good, that is by laying down your life. And this is because it gives place for the wrath of God. It provides a place or a cause for God to take vengeance. The words 'I will repay' are one of the great promises of scripture.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink, if he wants to kill you, lay down your life. "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it." (Mark 8:35) And you will heap coals of fire on his head when the Lord takes his vengeance.

What will this vengeance accomplish in regards to Israel? Apparently the removal of the blindness. The blindness that keeps Israel from realizing that Jesus is their messiah. "For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: :" (Rom 11:25-26)

So we are saying that by presenting our bodies a living sacrifice we are ultimately preparing the way for the outpouring of God's wrath. The day of His wrath which is to be the day of Israel's salvation. (See Isaiah 66.5-10)

Earlier we talked about the first view of Romans 12.1 as a reiteration of the call to obedience. We noted that this call to obedience is referred to at the very beginning and at the very end of the book of Romans.

Secondly we looked at Romans 12.1 as it relates back to Romans 11.

Now let's relate these two views together. We said earlier that we become many members of one body of Christ, by obeying God. That is when we are obedient, we will be functioning in the body as the Lord intends. We can understand how this can come about. We simply are not willing to obey - in full - as yet.

Keep this in mind and let's look at the idea of being willing to obey. In Psalms we find this reference to willingness:. "Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth." (Psa 110:3) (Verse 1 of psalm 110 is one of the verses most often quoted in the bible, this verse portrays a condition for fulfilling verse 1. It is a `promise` by the Father to the Son.)

The word willing used here in Hebrew is a "freewill offering'. It is largely used in the context of the Levitical law regarding sacrifices. So it carries the same connotations as the word 'service' does in Romans 12.1.

So this verse could be rephrased: 'thy people shall present their bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is their reasonable free will offering (obedience), in the day of thy power ....'

So when we are willing to obey God to the point that we function in our place in the body, we will also be willing to lay down our lives, literally, when and wherever the Lord shall require. And this is because to present our bodies is to put them at God's disposal!

We also find this word for freewill offering in a passage from Judges 5.2 where it says 'when the people willing offered themselves'. Here is the context of that passage.

Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying, Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves. Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel. LORD, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water. The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel. (Judges 5:1-5)

The context here mentions avenging Israel and alludes to the day of God's wrath by its references to: judgments on Seir and Edom; the earth trembling; the heavens dropping; and the mountains melting. It is the people making themselves a free will offering that is directly linked with The Lords vengeance and the deliverance of Israel. This the same line of thought we followed in relating Romans 12.1 to chapter 11.

So the idea of 'thy people being willing' relates to 'presenting our bodies a living sacrifice'. Then 'the day of thy power' is what we are asking for when we pray 'thy kingdom come, thy will be done'.

Therefore the call to obedience in Romans, specifically in Romans 12.1 has a relation to the Second Coming of the Lord. And this is because it is instrumental in the salvation of Israel.

And looking further, the Second Coming of the Lord is implicit in other passages of Romans. The Lord who is ever interceding for us, is speaking these words through the writer of Romans in chapter 1.9-11. "...without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. For I long to see you, ... "

When we long to see Him as much as He longs to see us, we will be willing to present our bodies on that day.

Preach and Teach the Gospel

The Gospel is Jesus

Terry Suggs

The gospel that can change lives and reveal Jesus to this lost world is the only thing that can reverse the way the world is going. Everyone that is going away from God is going the wrong way.

When we really understand the gospel the way that God meant us to, we will become unstoppable.

When we try to become righteous by our own performance and be accepted by God by doing something, then we are rejecting the gospel and rejecting Jesus finished works. We are just running on the performance treadmill for nothing.

God made Jesus to be sin for us for one purpose. That purpose is for us to be made righteous, saved, made whole or healed (healing is not a problem, it is a promise), filled with the Holy Spirit, to have eternal life, and to be made kings and priests unto God. We have a Home in heaven.

Heaven is not where God lives. Heaven lives in God. The beginning and the end live in God

We have an image of ourselves as that of Adam after he was deceived by satan or as fallen man.

In reality we are made in God’s Image and Likeness. We are recreated in Christ Jesus. Jesus has multiplied Himself by recreating our spirits with the infilling of His Spirit.

If we are motivated by love, then we are motivated by God. God is Love.

The gospel is indeed good news. It is not a message of condemnation but a message of salvation, of adoption, and sharing of the inheritance of Jesus.

We have been adopted by God as His Own children. Ephesians 1:5

For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Christ Jesus, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent. Ephesians 1:11-14

In Him we also were made God’s heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will, So that we who first hoped in Christ (who first put our confidence in Him have been destined and appointed to) live for the praise of His glory!

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in and adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long-promised Holy Spirit>

That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance (the first fruits, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage), in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring (complete) possession of it--to the praise of His glory. Galatians 4:4-6

But when the proper time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born subject to the regulations of the law.

To purchase the freedom of (to ransom, to redeem, to atone for those who were subject to the Law, that we might be adopted and have sonship conferred upon us (and be recognized as God's Sons).

And because you really are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our heart, crying Abba (Father)! Father! Galatians 3:26-29

For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.

For as many of you as were baptized into Christ into a spiritual union and communion with Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah have put on (clothed yourselves with) Christ,

There is now no distinction neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if you belong to Christ (are in Him Who is Abraham's Seed), then you are Abraham's offspring and (spiritual) heirs according to promise. Roman's 4:13-15

For the promise to Abraham or his posterity, that he should inherit the world, did not come through (observing the commands of) the Law but through the righteousness of faith.

If it is the adherents of the Law who are to be heirs, then faith is made futile and empty of all meaning and the promise (of God is made void and annulled and has no power).

For the Law results in divine wrath, but where there is no Law there is no transgression (of it either).

Therefore (inheriting) the promise is the outcome of faith and depends entirely on faith, in order that it might be given as an act of grace (unmerited favor, to make it stable and valid and guaranteed to all his descendants--not only to the devotees and adherents of the Law, but also to those who share the faith of Abraham, who is (thus) the father of us all.

Adoption

To take legally into one's own family and raise as ones's own child. To choose and accept.

Legally we are now God's children. We are a chosen (selected).
Ephesians 1:4

I Peter 2:9

Even as (in His love) He chose us (actually pick us out for Himself as His Own) in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy (consecrated and set apart for Him) blameless in His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love.

Through Jesus we entered into a new relationship with God as our Father. Our Lord and Savior Jesus gave us this right to become the legal children of God John 1:12

He has given those that believe in Him, authority to become sons of God.

God gave us the Holy Spirit to change our old nature and our old mindset about who we are and what we can do.

We are living in the unlimited realm of God our Father.

We are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ Jesus.

God our Father does not live in a small localized place in Heaven, heaven lives in God. He does not have a place in the corner someplace in the universe, The universe lives in God.

For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, God's Own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. Hebrews 13:8

Jesus Christ (the Messiah) is (always) the same, yesterday, today, (yes) and forever (to the ages).
Hebrews 12:23

And to the Church of the Firstborn who are registered as citizens in Heaven, an to one the God Who is judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous who have been made perfect. Proverbs 23:7

As a man thinks in his heart, so is he. I Peter 3:9

The Lord does not delay an is not tardy or slow about what he promises, according to some people's conception of slowness, but He is longsuffering (extraordinarily patient) toward you, not desiring that any should perish, but that all should turn to repentance. II Corinthians 5:17,19

Therefore if any person is (ingrafted) in Christ (the Messiah) he is a new creation (a new creature altogether); the old (previous moral and spiritual condition) has passed away. Behold, the fresh and new has come!

It was God (personally present) in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting up and holding against men their trespasses (but cancelling them) and committing to us the message of reconciliation (of the restoration to favor). I Peter 1:23

You have been regenerated (born again) not from a mortal origin (seed, sperm), but from one that is immortal by the ever living and lasting Word of God.

For all flesh (mankind) is like grass, and all its glory (honor) like (the) flower of grass. The grass withers and the flower drops off.

But the Word of the Lord (divine instruction), the Gospel endures forever. And this Word is the good news which was preached to you.

For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost. John 3:17-18

For God did not send the Son into the world in order to judge (to reject, to condemn, to pass sentence on) the world, but that the world might find salvation and be made safe and sound through Him.

He who believes in Him, who clings to, trusts in, relies on Him, is not judged (he who trusts in Him never comes up for judgment; for him there is no rejection, no condemnation-he incurs no damnation); but he who does not believe (cleave to rely on, trust in Him) is judged already (he has already been convicted and has already received his sentence) because he has not believed in and trusted in the name of the only begotten Son of God. (He is condemned for refusing to let his trust rest in Christ’s name).

How Principalities Fall

Here's an excerpt that led to the present article.

Victorious Church In The End Times by Mike Bickle

Prophetic Dream On February 13, 2009

> C. Immediately as I finished the second session at 5 PM, I saw a token of a few of the events that John prophesied in Revelation 12:7-9 when war breaks out in heaven between Satan and Michael the archangel, resulting in Satan being cast to the earth at the beginning of the Tribulation.
> > 7 And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought,
> > 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer.
> > 9 So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan…he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him… (Rev. 12:7-9)
> D. I did not see Satan—I saw demonic principalities being cast to the earth. They looked like large snakes (over 100 yards long and 50 feet thick), each having a huge head that looked like a dragon, and many of them were coming from the sky down to the earth.

His angels [Satan's] mentioned there in verse 9 are what we think of as demonic principalities.

Now Some Background

We want to add some insights to what's going on there so we'll start with some background.

Principalities

OK so what is a demonic principality? The best knows reference to these beings is in Ephesians 6.

> Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities*, against powers, against the* rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places*.*

They are also mentioned a few other places, especially Daniel 10 which mentions the prince of Persia and of Greece. This verse from Ephesians 6 gives several descriptions of them, they may all be somewhat synonymous. Going a few chapters in Ephesians there is another important mention of them.

> Ephesians 3:10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

Leading into this verse is a long discussion of various ideas. One of these verses mentions being raised up into heavenly places.

> Ephesians 2:6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

The idea here is that God’s people, those mentioned in Ephesians 2:6, are at some point raised to heavenly places to show God’s wisdom to the principalities and powers that hang out there. This may not be the only reason behind Ephesians 2:6, and it awaits fulfillment of the scriptures of the Book of Ephesians. As seen here in this next quote, it awaits the fullness of time.

> Ephesians 1:10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

There is a similar thought in Isaiah 51:

> Isaiah 51:16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens*, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.*

Old Testament Picture Of Wickedness

Now keep that in mind while we look at an allegory involving a character from the Old Testament who presents a picture of wickedness in high places.

This passage from Second Kings 9 shows the fall of Jezebel our image of a wicked principality. Here she is seen looking down from a window, which speaks of a high or heavenly place.

> 2 Kings 9:30-33
> 30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window*.*
> 31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?
> 32 And he lifted up his face to the window*, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three* eunuchs*.*
> 33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

In this story, Jehu is a figure of Jesus and he is coming to take vengeance for the blood of Naboth [the name means fruit]. Remember here that Jezebel is a wicked ruler in a high place. Notice several things about those who throw Jezebel down. 1. They are on Jehu’s side, this speaks of being on the Lord’s side. 2. They obey instantly but do not act on their own, only at their Lords command. 3. They are on the same level as Jezebel, the same high window.

So to continue our comparison or allegory, what does it take to cast down a principality? It takes the same thing as it took to throw down Jezebel. Obedient servants of the Lord who can operate on the same level as the target principality.

The Eunuchs

Now keep that idea in mind too while we look at the meaning of eunuchs.

> A eunuch is a castrated man, in particular one castrated early enough to have major hormonal consequences; the term usually refers to those castrated in order to perform a specific social function, as was common in many societies of the past. Over the millennia since, they have performed a wide variety of functions in many different cultures such as courtiers or equivalent domestics, treble singers, religious specialists, government officials, military commanders, and guardians of women or harem servants.
> From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia.

Eunuchs play a role in the Book of Esther where they have the task of preparing a bride for the King. They are incapable of desiring the bride for themselves, but only serve the Kings wishes.

In Matthew 19 Jesus makes a cryptic reference to eunuchs, speaking of those who make themselves eunuchs.

> Matthew 19:12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake*. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.*

Here he also says He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. This is quite similar to he that has ears to hear, let him hear. So lets hear the meaning of this through our spiritual ears and consider what a spiritual eunuch might be. We find our answer in Revelation 14.

The 144,000

> Revelation 14:1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand*, having his Father's name written in their* foreheads*.*
> Revelation 14:4-5
> 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins*. These are* they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.
> 5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

Here we find an answer to the nature of a spiritual eunuch. These are redeemed from among men, male or female. Which means they are virgins, that is, purified and without fault. They have made themselves that way by submitting unto God and resisting the Devil. They have allowed Jesus to enter their heart with his perfect love which drives out fear. So they have overcome fear, and the Devil has no power over them.

> James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

You can find them mentioned in Revelation 7, the 144,000. How do we know they are the same bunch as mentioned in Chapter 14? Because they are called servants of our God and they are sealed in their foreheads. Here is the reference.

> Revelation 7:3-4
> 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.
> 4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

The parallels with Chapter 14 are that they are standing atop Mt. Zion, a high place, with the Lamb, Jesus and have his fathers name written in their foreheads, and that they follow Jesus wherever he goes. This speaks of death to self and instant obedience to the Lord. So here we have spiritual eunuchs, the 144,000 seated together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus, as mentioned in Ephesians 2:6.

These are said to come from all the tribes of Israel. Since most of these are what is considered the lost tribes, we are not just talking about Jews from Israel. Those in the lost tribes became gentiles. And lot's of them are likely to be Muslims: Arabs, Iranians, Turks, Kurds, Indians, and Pakistanis! Secondly the tribes of Israel are figures for the denominations of the church, so these 144,000 could be believers from anywhere on the Globe.

The Manchild
In Mike Bickle's article he quotes from Revelation 12 verses 7-9. Let's back up a couple verses and pick up on what else is going on there.

> Revelation 12:5-7
> 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.
> 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.
> 7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

Here you can see that just before there is war in heaven, a manchild is birthed and caught up to the throne of God. This event is sometimes called the Rapture of the Manchild. One thing we know about this manchild is that he shares with Jesus the authority to rule nations with a rod of iron.

The manchild is in verse 5 and the war in heaven is in verse 7, so it looks like one thing leads to another. The manchild going up somehow 'triggers' the war in heaven.

And where else to we see this mentioned but in Revelation 2.

> Revelation 2:26-27
> 26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
> 27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

Here Jesus gives a promise to a certain group of overcomers that they will receive authority to rule nations with a rod of iron. So these overcomers are later known as the manchild. See the quote from John 16:20-23 at the beginning of this essay. And besides that there is the promise in Rev 3:21.

> Revelation 3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I > also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

Next, how do we link this manchild to the 144,000. [The number is symbolic, and may also have a literal meaning.] Well how's this. When the manchild is caught up to the throne of God, where else does he land but smack dab right on top of Mt. Zion with Jesus, the lamb like you see in Revelation 14? That makes the manchild people to be spiritual virgins or spiritual eunuchs.
Now what makes this Zion the throne of God? God's choice as he says in Psalm 132.

> Psalms 132:13-14
> 13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.
> 14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

And we're not talking about some hill over in Jerusalem. We are talking about the Mt. Zion in Hebrews 12, in the New Jerusalem. That's the Mt. Zion seen in Revelation 14.

> Hebrews 12:22-24
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Summary
God has a group of overcomers, mentioned in Revelation 2. These show up in Revelation 12:5, known as a manchild. They are raised up into heavenly places as mentioned in Ephesians, and they have a message to bring to the principalities there.
Then they show up in Revelation 14, caught up to Mt. Zion, where they fit our description of spiritual eunuchs. We also see them in Revelation 7 as the servants of God, who are sealed in their foreheads.

And then as we have seen with our illustration of Jezebel, it takes eunuchs in high place to kick out the bad apple principalities and take their place. So this is exactly what's going down in Revelation 12:7-9 and in Mike Bickle's vision, where Satan's angels get their eviction papers. And guess what comes next? The Kingdom Of God.

> Revelation 12:10-12
> 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
> 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
> 12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

There is also a second group of overcomers. You see them in verse 11 above. They are the end time martyrs.

The establishment of the Kingdom is also seen from a different perspective, in Revelation 11. Once the principalities fall, their domains, The kingdoms of this world come under new management. And coming under new management usually brings a Grand Opening doesn't it.

> Revelation 11:15-17
> 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.
> 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,
> 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

And that brings us back to Isaiah 51.

> Isaiah 51:11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

And Isaiah 52.

> Isaiah 52:7-8
> 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
> 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

Holy Rich and Pure Love

Mary Clark

December 27, 2004

The Father wants to draw us closer – closer than we have ever thought of being. He is now wooing us gently, but soon He will be wooing us hurriedly. Time is wasting. Time is of the essence. Rejoice! Be glad! Sing praises to His name, for He is taking us to a new place in Him.

Hold steadfast to this truth: The Beloved is singing songs of deliverance over us. He is singing them for a reason. He wants to deliver us out of the enemy's hand, and into His most pronounced grace. Get ready! Adjust your seatbelt, for once He speaks the words, we will be out of here and into a place of His love divine. Get ready! He is about to bestow His goodness on us, lavishing us with His rich glory. Think of butter – rich and smooth – as it seeks a lower level. That is what you must think of in order to get a picture of the Beloved's plan of rich endowment that He is sending forth.

Oh! Look and see the wonders of the living God as they manifest in your life. Look, beloved! Behold the Lamb in all of His finery as He comes, exhibiting to one and all the goodness that He has in His heart. He is a good God, through and through. He is a wonderful God. Acknowledge Him. Acknowledge the living God! Acknowledge Him now! He is doing a fine work of producing within every willing heart a wonderful sense of well-being. Rediscover your youth. Rediscover how it feels to abide in your mother's womb, safe and secure.

Our Beloved speaks:

"I am taking you to a place sweet with My presence. I am locking you in a place close to My heart, and, beloved, once you realize the fullness of these most profound words you will never go back to the world's ways. Oh, no! You will never go back to the ways of the world. You will be locked soundly in my embrace, producing within and without a steadfast love for every season – every season will bear My imprint – My imprint of love, as it manifests in your life – holy, rich and pure!!!"

Fair Warning

Mary Clark

December 26, 2004

In a vision, I saw a man hunkered down beside two large, gray boulders. He was wearing a green kerchief tied close to his skull, and he had a spear poised in his hand. Why did You show this to me, Lord? Who is this man?

This man was one who delights in exploiting My children. He is always looking to see when the time is "right" to throw his spear. Let Me tell you something more about him:

He is moving into your territory. He is eager to cause an upheaval. He is eager to see some of My children falter. But those who are looking to Me, and relying on My goodness to them, will dodge his spears. They will not walk in the path to which he is luring them – a path that would put you in harm's way.

I want you to know something, beloved: He has disguised himself with the knowledge of My word. He quotes My word as if it is a part of him. But listen closely. He speaks only words that will build himself up. He never points to the Almighty God. He speaks only words that build him up in the eyes of "his public."

Now, I tell you – I tell you truly, you will recognize him by the slant of his words. You will recognize him by the words that he speaks that declare “his greatness.” He will shine light on himself, trying to get My children to veer off My selected path for them. He will take delight in his luring. He will take delight in stabbing you with his spear, so don’t succumb to his enticing words. Stay focused on your God. Stay focused on My truth, for it will shine through as the light of day, and you will declare that you have never heard anything finer than the words of the living God.

The enemy is out to dupe you. He is out to stab you with his spears – his lies. Don’t listen. He is distorting My truth. He is giving it his own slant. He is also taking the knowledge of My truth and spreading it with a good dose of fear. He always delights in putting fear in the hearts of those who serve Me. Pay him no mind. Give him no attention. Turn from him and draw close to Me. In time, you will notice something important. You will notice that your Almighty God has seen fit to upset the enemy’s plans and has turned the tables on him. You will notice that the Almighty God is esteeming those who have chosen to walk after Him, declaring His truth with a vengeance.

I am the One True God. I hold secure the destiny of those who delight in Me. The enemy would like to pick you off, one by one. He would like to see you falter and fall away from My design for you. Pay him no attention. Don’t listen to his slant on things. It is sadly distorted. Stay in My word. Rely on My words of truth and follow after My heart. That, beloved, is where the benefits of service to Me pay off in full. That is where I want you – safe and secure.

So take delight in knowing that the Almighty God has spoken His words in your ears in order to warn you of the devil’s devices. Rely on Me for total deliverance as you keep your eyes fixed on Me. Rely on the rich quality of My words to scoop you up and place you in the wonder that I have for you.

I am moving those who will follow after My heart out of harm’s way. The enemy is trying to use scare tactics on you. Pay him no attention. Keep focused on your Beloved, and you will know true freedom and success in your walk.

If you look to him, giving him as much as a glance, he will try to nab you. He will try to pin you with his spear. Be on the alert. Stay focused. I am giving you fair warning: STAY FOCUSED! STAY FOCUSED ON THE BELOVED!!!

The Lord’s Specialty
Mary Clark

My children are coming into a new era, and that is for sure! I want you to know that I am not only fortifying you within, I am fortifying you without. Just what does this mean? I will tell you: I am conditioning you with My loving presence in a way that you have never before known. I am giving you My protection in a way that you will not see, but you will feel deep within. I am saturating you with all that I am. I am giving you a liberal dose of My loving presence coupled with My strengthening protection. What more could you want? What more could you ask for? I will tell you: You could ask for a signal as to when this is going to be done. You could ask Me to make Myself known to you in a way that will trigger that something within, enabling you to rise up to any occasion with the knowledge of who you are in Me. Well, beloved, you may ask for that, too. How about it? Would that be something that you would care to obtain from your loving Father? It is? Well then, you shall have it also.

And let Me tell you this too, child of the living God. The day is coming when you will see new things, hear secrets of old, and rise to a level of new understanding of who you are and where the living God is taking you. “Oh, my,” you say. “Father, that is far than we could even think to ask!” Beloved, beloved, so much is on the way for you, My beloved church, that you would tremble if I told you everything.

So much! So get your heart ready to receive, and know, dear beloved child, that your God is about to perform His specialty, and it is on the house. Any who would like to receive may receive. Any who would like to be in on this happy occasion are welcome to attend. Any who want to thank Me now should know that I am receiving praise at this moment. So get ready NOW to shout praises to the great King for all that He is bringing forth, and know deep within your heart that He is fortifying you with more of Him. And beloved, that is certainly a tall order – a very TALL order that I plan to fill!!!

The Bread of Life
Mary Clark

I want My children to know something of vast importance. I am the Bread of life. I am calling all who will come to partake of My goodness. I want no one left out. I want all filled to capacity with My goodness.

The day is coming when those who walk in the knowledge of Who I am will stand in a new arena. They will be excited about this arena. They will be so delighted with this arena that they will feel as though their hearts will burst. I want to fill you with Myself, beloved – revitalize you. I want you to know Me personally. I want us to commune one-on-one. I want you in right relationship with Me to a greater degree than you have never realized.

I am eager for all to come and partake of the Bread of life. I want to fill you with more of Myself. I want you knowing My goodness from a personal perspective. I want nothing about Me to seem foreign to you. I want us united with one purpose. I want you to set your goal to follow after Me and see the exuberant quality of life that it will afford you.

Come! Feed on the Bread of life, and know His goodness. Know the wonder that lies in that goodness. Know that certain revitalization of heart for which you yearn. For just as surely as I have called you into a new place of rich discovery, I have provided for your well-being. Nothing will stop the flow of My goodness in your direction. Nothing will EVER stop the wonder in arriving to this new place – this new in-filling – that I have for all who will partake.

I am the Bread of life. True life is found in knowing and being one with Me. Communing with Me one-on-one will be a delight to every heart. So come, beloved. Partake. Enjoy all that I am offering, and know deep within that you have been selected to walk in a certain knowledge of the wonder – the great, great wonder– that is to be had – in following after the Beloved, being a partaker of His goodness, and walking in the certain knowledge that this special unity in Me can bring to your willing and exuberant heart!!!

How Serious Are We About Revival

Conrad Lampan

A few moments ago I read an email that quoted from Evan Roberts, the revivalist God used to spark the 1904 Welsh Revival:

"Evan Roberts prayed after seeking God 13 years for revival in Wales, "Lord, the altar is built, the sacrifice is laid upon. We await the fire from heaven to ignite the flames of revival." WE ARE AT THIS STAGE OF REVIVAL IN AMERICA AND THE WORLD. GET READY! GET READY! GET READY!"

Reading the above quote one question explodes in my mind: can we seriously declare that "we are ready"? Can we, looking at ourselves with all honesty declare that we are "oh, so ready?" We need to take another look in the direction of the Throne. When Isaiah saw the Lord on His lofty throne he did not shout out "oh how ready I am" rather he cried out: "Wow is me!" and only after that he was sent by Lord. This is the readiness we need, an encounter with the most High that will leave us "without strength" like Daniel; or "as a dead man at His feet" as John in Revelation; or an encounter that will set us off the horse like Saul. Every man God used first had an encounter with God that left them undone.

How Undone Are We?

Our "undoneness" is the most accurate measure of our readiness.

What was the sacrifice that was "laid upon the altar"? Evan Roberts himself. He also said "I have reached out and touched the flame; I am burning and waiting for a sign" We can read all the books, and visit all the places, and be prayed for by every anointed preacher, yet until we are ready to surrender it avails for nothing, yet until we ourselves are burning no fire of revival will ever burn. Wesley said when asked about what he did to have revival: "I set myself on fire and people come to see me burning".

Custom Made Revival

Revival is not a side dish to the main meal of our plans. There is no way that we can have a "custom-made" revival. I have heard many people praying for a Welsh revival, or yet others pray for an American revival. Do not pray for a Welsh revival, rather pray for revival in Wales; not an American revival, pry for revival in America. Revival is not a controlled fire in the chimney to keep us comfortably warm while in the safety of our sheltered submission.

Many people are complaining and in many cases leaving their churches because -as they put it- the church has failed. Without entering into an argument now, I would say only that no church will ever go any further than its individuals. We have to admit that the church will never go deeper or higher than its individuals.

I brought up the above example because it is true also about revival. Revival will no go any deeper or spread any farther than individual commitment, and it will not touch people any more that it has touched us. No revival will revive my church more than I myself am revived.

Desire Without Relationship

The level of desire should match the level of surrendering. Evan Roberts experienced that submission that comes from knowing God so intimately that there is no room for self; that point where no strength is left and we can only go on if we depend totally on the Holy Spirit.

Revival is like a child: we cannot possibly conceive a baby just out of desire alone! A baby is conceived out of relationship. No matter how much you desire to have a baby if you do have an intimate relationship with your spouse all what you will get is an unfulfilled desire. It does not matter if you declare that you are going to have a baby, it is not going to happen by just declaring it. You can visit as many maternities as you wish, and see other's babies, but you will not have one until you do what you have to do.

If It Is Not Submission It Is Manipulation

Any intent on tapping on God's power without first knowing Him to the point of total submission, any intent to "move" God into bringing forth a revival without experiencing our wills submitted to His will hundred percent might actually verge on manipulation.

Revival will really come when enough people have surrendered; when enough people are crying "wow is me"; when enough people are on their faces literally melting their own will, and plans, and desires in God's furnace.

Our nation will be revived when "My people" humble themselves. When "My people" are revived then the nation will be revived. "My people" is not some ethereal, undefined nebulae to which we belong. "My people" is you and me and all who form the church. Ergo, we can expect revival in the nation when the church in that nation has been revived, and the church will be revived when we individuals have died and been revived by the Power of His Holy Spirit.

Hear The Lion Roar!

Judy Bauman

RivermistLighthouse1@comcast.net

This vision took written form in a song:

As I sat in the peace and the calm of the morning
Whispering praises to God for all He has done
I saw in the heavenlies - dog-like creatures
Then the side of the face of a Lion that roared

Chorus:
When we praise the Lord Jesus in quiet adoration
The Lion of Judah will roar!
When we praise, when we praise, when we praise the Lamb of God!
Hear the Lion roar!

His roar was interpreted deep within my heart
He said, "Leave My children alone!"
The dog-like creatures - they shrieked in terror
Then they fled the scene like a cowardly crook

Chorus:
As we praise the Lord Jesus in quiet adoration
The Lion of Judah will roar!
As we praise, as we praise, as we praise the Lamb of God!
Hear the Lion roar!

Come all ye nations
Every tribe and tongue
Come all ye nations
Come to the Son
Come let us worship
Hear the Lion Roar
Come all ye nations
SING! … Hear the Lion roar!
Hear the Lion roar!
Hear the Lion roar!
Hear the Li-on roar!

Vision Of The Cross Words Of Warning

Judy Bauman

RivermistLighthouse1@comcast.net

Dear Ones in Christ,

Though this vision and word was given on July 12, 2000, only now do I believe I am released to share this with you. I do so with the permission and blessing of our elders.

THE SETTING

Morning Prayer took place at 5:30 a.m. at the home of our elders, Sam and Linda Jackson. It lasted about 5 months and this specific morning was the culmination of that time. Once in awhile others had made the 14 mile trek from town, but generally it was just Sam, Linda, my husband, Jeff, and I who regularly attended. This particular morning it was appropriately only the four of us, as we had that day completed a 50 day time of consecration. It was a very difficult time of testing to prepare us for hard days to come. When we arrived that morning Linda was preparing the Lord's Supper. It was so joyful because the Lord had also spoken to me en route to end this 50 day period by sharing the cup and the bread, and here Linda was already setting the table when we arrived! It was a wonderful confirmation for us both. She had been impressed to use her wedding glasses. The groom's glass was there, but we all drank from the bride's glass. The air was charged with expectation. It was a very solemn and reflective time.

THE VISION OF THE CROSS

After we had taken the bread and the cup we each quietly wept as we worshipped. There was such a sweet and powerful presence of the Lord. Suddenly, I heard a deep rumbling like an earthquake, but it seemed to be centered in the table. I opened my eyes and looked around to see if anyone else had heard it, but they were quietly praying. Thinking I had imagined it, I shut my eyes. Again the rumbling started. This time I kept my eyes shut and 'saw' as in a vision, coming up from the middle of the table, the Cross of Christ. It was very craggy, dirty and rugged. I was afraid to look at it; afraid but compelled to look anyway. As I saw the cross coming up, I saw the top of Jesus' head and the Crown of Thorns smashed onto His bleeding head. Knowing what was to come next, I turned away as I didn't want to see anymore. The rumbling continued and I knew the cross was continuing to rise up. I could hear the Lord Jesus gently asking me to look at Him. I glanced over in time to see His chest and extended arms on the crossbeam. When I saw His hands nailed into the Cross I was so grief-stricken and terrified, I turned away again. I wanted to see Him - but I didn't want to see Him like that! By this time the rumbling had stopped as the cross was completely lifted up straight above me in the center of the table. The Lord again tenderly yet firmly spoke to my heart, “Look at Me.” As I slowly opened my eyes to look up, I first saw His feet and then I saw His legs. They were muddy and cut up with a mixture of dried and fresh blood running down them. Then I saw the face of Christ beaten to a bloody pulp. His eyes were swollen shut and bruised. I didn't want to look; I couldn't bear it. Then His sweet voice resolutely commanded, “Look at Me.” I looked straight at His beaten and disfigured face and wept. He slightly opened His left swollen eye and looked long at me. It broke my heart to see Him in such terrible pain and so close to death. Even at such a dark time, there was a light in His eye that compelled me to gaze at Him. Then He did something that shocked me. He mustered a grin and winked at me with that swollen eye. He said, “Watch what happens next, Toots!” Then there was a brilliant flash of light that appeared to go from one end of a horizon to the other. The vision ended. I knew what I saw was the light of His resurrection. At first I wasn't sure if I had imagined this whole scene or what had just happened, especially when He called me ‘Toots’ – something that my uncle used to affectionately call me when I was a child. That totally caught me off guard! Then we all spontaneously started to pray and worship together out loud.

(I will add here, to the glory of God, that this vision happened four years prior to Mel Gibson's movie, The Passion of the Christ. When I saw that movie I was so stunned, not only because of its content, but because the actor portrayed had the exact face the Lord showed me that morning on the Cross!)

THE PROPHECIES

As we began to pray, this somber word came forward. Sam and Linda both have a prophetic mantle.

Linda spoke:

“As you would sweep, clean and knock down the cobwebs before applying paint, so I apply a new paint. But, I brush upon you a new, fresh anointing on your hearts. I paint a new anointing on your heart. Just as with each war and revolution, there are new tools and new weapons developed. As I do in a new move, I cannot use old tools. There will be new paint, and new anointing to walk in a new day."

Sam spoke:

"This is the hour I spoke of that I will shake heaven and earth. All that has been built on the sand of men - like sink holes - will be swallowed up. I will build My house. No more will they say, 'Run here - run there.' I will send a famine of My Word. Yes, My Word. They shall seek My Word and only those to find it will be those who seek. [Those who diligently seek; will be the bearers of My Word.] Everything that can be shaken WILL be shaken. You will know the truth from false. You will not be deceived if you abide in My place. My house is a house of safety. Abide in Me."

"Come to My light. Even the dimmest of light will draw man to My house. I have allowed this gross darkness. I allowed Satan, as I allowed Pharaoh to bring darkness. My glory WILL be seen. You are My houses, My living stones. Think it not strange concerning the ripping and tearing. Let not your heart be troubled. This must come to pass in My house. It is for My purpose."

"There will be earthquakes and rumors of earthquakes. There will be wars and rumors of wars, but the earthquakes I send are going to shake My places of worship. Places of worship have been a stench in My nostrils. I WILL shake and tear them down. There will be wars in your own family in My house. They will turn against you. People will come against you in My own house."

They tell you, "Dance! There will be no church as usual."

"All will worship Me [in spirit and in truth]. No more biting and devouring. I WILL restore My glory. They will say, "Is this the Lord?" They bite and devour [My little sheep]. But My truth will be seen."

The Spider

At this point the lights went off and then back on very quickly. When the lights came back on, a large spider was walking right in front of us. I quickly killed the spider and put him in the trash. This is important because it is addressed later in the prophecy.

Sam moved into a prayer at this point speaking to the Lord:

"Everything that You have not planted will be rooted out. You start with Your house, Your elders, everything that is not of You will be struck down. We submit to You. We will not put our hand to the Ark - we will allow You to shake it. We will not carry it in an unworthy manner." (An earlier prophecy told us that God was shaking the 'ark' and that anyone putting their hand to it to stabilize it would be struck dead.)

"Aaron's dead rod bore fruit. You will stop the mouths of the people. You will show who is Your Aaron and the people will know. You will show with signs following. It is Your hour and we thank You. We anticipate You. We're tired of our own programs, our own works. You will complete and finish. Your work hour has come. It is here. You have kept the best wine for last [as you did at the wedding]. You have kept it in the cupboard. But you bring it out now. The strongest [wine], for the battle is strong. Thank You for bringing the best wine for this battle. You are The Breath of Life. There is no hope besides You, Father... no life. We eat Your body and drink Your blood. Thank You for Your work. Help us to see, understand, and adhere. Thank You for giving understanding to Your Word this morning. Everyone will see Your hand upon the wall. You will be precise and all shall see, all shall hear. Some will run under a rock. But ALL will know it is You."

"The harvest will be overflowing. The fields are ripe. We enter into those who precede us. But You have given us a new sharpened threshing instrument for this harvest. The wagons will be full of wheat and silos will be overflowing with wheat. You will appoint us to the fields and show us the ripe harvest."

The Admonishment:

“The spider that comes to distract will quickly be killed and My Word goes forward. Do not be moved. Hold fast to what I Am saying. Distractions come in, but ABIDE! Do not look to the right or to the left. Abide.”

“We think we will go to church to hear the Lord. If we don't hear Him in our houses, we're in trouble! Uzzah was placed to care for the ark. He was too familiar with it and took it casually. God waits patiently. But it comes to a place where people are partying and they say, "We are going to bring the ark to the city!" God shook the cart and Uzzah died. The party stopped. We're going to be in fear and trembling. Death. Fear is the beginning of wisdom. What we think is worship is a stench. Proceed in the fear of the Lord. Strike the shepherd and the sheep will scatter. NO chasing names - chase God. He will remove it all together. NO WORSHIP OF MAN! He is a jealous God.

The Scripture:

My husband, Jeff, then added that the Lord had just directed him to:
Proverbs 1:20 Wisdom calls aloud outside; She raises her voice in the open squares. 21 She cries out in the chief concourses, At the openings of the gates in the city She speaks her words: 22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? For scorners delight in their scorning, And fools hate knowledge. 23 Turn at My rebuke; Surely I will pour out My spirit on you; I will make My words known to you. 24 Because I have called and you refused, I have stretched out My hand and no one regarded, 25 Because you disdained all my counsel, And would have none of my rebuke, 26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your terror comes, 27 When your terror comes like a storm, And your destruction comes like a whirlwind, When distress and anguish come upon you. 28 “Then they will call on Me, but I will not answer; They will seek Me diligently, but they will not find Me. 29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the Lord, 30 They would have none of My counsel And despised My every rebuke. 31 Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their own way, and be filled to the full with their own fancies. 32 For the turning away of the simple will slay them, and the complacency of fools will destroy them; 33 But whoever listens to Me will dwell safely, And will be secure, without fear of evil.”

May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding guard your heart and mind in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Harvest The South

Chad Taylor

I AM SHOUTING OVER THE SOUTH, "IT'S TIME TO GET OUT OF THE BOAT AND WALK ON WATER!"

As I was praying and meditating about our presence in the southern region of the United States I heard the Lord say so clearly,

I AM SHOUTING OVER THE SOUTH, "IT'S TIME TO GET OUT OF THE BOAT AND WALK ON WATER!"

It's time to quit talking about revival and it's time to start living and breathing it! It's time to step outside the protective and insulated boundaries of church and begin to make a legitimate impact on our cities and streets. As cliché as it may seem, "IT'S HARVEST TIME!

Think about that for a minute. HARVEST TIME. Can you imagine during the time of cultivation and harvest in the cotton or tobacco fields of the south if all the workers lounged in the warehouses and buildings watching the tractors sit and the fields grow? How preposterous would that be and how much of the precious fruit would be harvested? None. Yet that is exactly what most churches are doing right now. Conferences and neatly packaged prophetic meetings abound but still the harvest fields stand there unattended to. Entire neighborhoods have no awareness of our presence or message and are completely untouched by our parade of prophetic conferences and seminars. How many meetings on intercession can you attend until you start to really intercede? How many prophetic gatherings can you justify until you finally step out of the boat and begin to really touch someone's life and reveal to them their destiny?!

Really, we have come to the place as they did in Jesus' day when He entered the temple and cast out the money changers and tax collectors. If you read Matthew chp. 21 closely you will realize it was not only a money issue that Jesus was confronting but a people issue as well. As soon as the obstacles of revival were removed watch what happens in the very next scripture, "The blind and the lame came to Him in the temple and He healed them..." (v. 14). The masses that the temple was created to reach and heal were the very ones forced outside by religious agenda and good intentions. It has to stop or the Lord may have to pierce through our zealous facade and rebuke us like He did in days of old...

The southern states of the U.S. have been in a "freeze frame" for decades if not a century. Yet the role she plays in national revival is paramount. The south literally is a divine hinge for the door of genuine transformation and revival to occur and without her participation the rest of the nation stands in jeopardy. God desires the South to lead the way in harvest and evangelism and break the stereotype of the typical Sunday to Sunday church and forge a new way. When will we realize that Sunday morning does not reach the world - it reaches us and we my friend have been out-reached for far too long. The icon of Sunday and Wednesday needs to fall making way for an entirely new theology that meets the world daily in a dynamic divine confrontation thus becoming a relevant presence again thier lives.

I also heard the Lord say that we must not allow the Esau spirit or attitude to pervade our lives any longer. Esau sold out, he could be bought. So many have sold out to personality, notoriety and popularity and cashed in on other peoples labor and effort stealing the glory of God for themselves. They have sold their birthright to have their name printed in a conference flyer or magazine article and to have the accolades of men rained down on them. They have forgotten the grave warning of Paul the Apostle, "Do I seek to please men? For if I yet please men I should not be the servant of Christ..." (Gal. 1:10). We must resist this temptation to please the demand and desire of man and pursue the heart of God and his passion for Harvest. How quickly we have forgotten that Jesus is the LORD OF THE HARVEST not the Lord of our personal agenda or calendars...

We as a ministry remain diligent in our commitment to the southern region of the United States and her destiny. We have resided in southwest Georgia for over a year now and continue to witness history unfolding. We want to issue a new and fresh mandate to visit your region and grab hold of the plow with you. In the last two years we have traveled to Hawaii, California, Vermont, Minnesota, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Georgia, Florida, Maryland, Tennessee, New York, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, and Old Mexico witnessing first hand the "critical mass" we are at as a church. We sense an urgency like no other time to focus on the southern states as well. If you have a church, ministry or are a part of a particular region and city we encourage you to contact us. We are committed to come to these places in the south this year and help you dig the wells of revival again. Simply email us at the email below and explain your strategy, heart and vision for your city. Size or numbers have no influence on our decisions so please do not hesitate to contact us.

We experienced dramatic impact in various places in the south already. In Newnan, GA. from our groundbreaking meetings last year a revival center emerged that is touching the world weekly with God's heart (www.harvestcenters.com). Our year based in Nashville in 2003 we walked the halls of The Ryman Theatre better known as the Grand Ole Opry and prayed for God to possess those historic halls once again and then later we met in the Planet Hollywood building and now both are facilitating revival meetings! "Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given to you..." That is a literal word we can all live out from Joshua 1:3. If you would like for my wife and I to visit your city, church or ministry please contact us right away and let's seize this divine moment together.

I AM SHOUTING OVER THE SOUTH, "IT'S TIME TO GET OUT OF THE BOAT AND WALK ON WATER!"

Heads Up to the Saints

Carla Rickard

I felt the Lord speak to me tonight that the living church was going to be experiencing a backlash very soon. Soon in God's time is indefinable by someone like me!

He said that these movements that are now happening within certain sectors of the Body are tainted with flesh and will bring judgment onto the house of God, not by HIM, but by man who is poisoned with wormwood.

The gifts of the Spirit will be under attack. Those who are really chosen and appointed will be treated with disdain because of the reputation of the false that proceeded them. Many will be persecuted and those who are "churched" will feel the greatest sting from this because those who will desire to keep their numbers up in congregations, will bend to this pressure of condemning the specially sent ones. It will be the churched ones who will feel the greatest sting of persecution. And still there will be great anger even within the churched against the movements such named as the Apostolic, Prophetic, etc, because they have chased after idols of the heart and not God and will have brought down judgment on the heads of all.

But at the same time the Lord says, this is for a purpose. The heat will be applied to iron out the wrinkles. Old ways will be removed as they are spotted with flesh. Fear not. These things must be. This will weed out the false, and reveal the Truth. Be prepared in your heart for enormous rejection of the things of God. You faith will sustain you through it.

---let the saints judge this word.

Husband Of Blood

Husband of Blood.
March 23, 2005

For every dream that dies
there is a truth that brings its freedom come to pass for every heartache bore
there is a hymn of glory rising from our souls...

We hope in His glory
we wait in His silent love
we trust in His goodness
we ride in His faithfulness
He has become our all in all...

For every pain released its longing brings us closer to the One we seek.
For every loss received a deeper sense of love still binds our hearts to His.

We hope in His glory,
we trust in His goodness
we bind all we have to His,
all we are to Him,
to die and live through all bound our hearts to His with cords of love.

For every hand that stretched its fingers opened up in hope that life refrains.
For every trust betrayed,
there is a crop of glory hidden in His name.
We wait through the darkness

our eyes filled with hope and gladness, there is life waiting in Him,
life for you and me in His blood.

For every painful loss
a sense of closeness opens up within our souls.
For every door that closed a sweet embrace surrounds us in the One we love.
To know only Him and hope,
let us rise and go to Him,
dancing through the winds from the north.

Everybody brings a song,
written in tears and underlined in blood.
For every sin that was,
tearing us up, crippling our lives,
to trust and love,
there is a trembling in His heart,
that bleed its tears to brings us back,
there is a sigh of pain that bore, the wrong inflicted to restore each soul to hope.

We dance in the darkness
we find there His joy and gladness, death and pain has no more hold in us binding our hearts to Him, found our all in His,
we live in trust.

Humility Is A Weapon
Carla Rickard

March 16 2005
Live Word as Recorded.

There has been and is going on now a shift.
thank you Lord.
there is coming a shift ...
we are in it.
More power is being made available More Authority.

You can't see it, but you can feel it There is oh the lack of words ... Help me Jesus

The fight is heavy for some now, light for others but nevertheless... there is an increase.
The war that is increasing is not against flesh but one that will require the flesh to lay down and die quickly. It won't be hard long and drawn out to die this way. It will be as you giving up the ghost. No one shall take your life, but you shall give it up willingly just as Jesus did on the cross.

When the flesh arises, you will put it down. Here is the power.
For when you lay it down, quickly, without thought of self you will find your Life for it will be hidden in the Resurrection, In the Christ Hidden in Christ is Life
There is an anointing available to those who will not allow pride to stand in their way fighting to keep alive " rights" and "egos" . But die quickly! Kill it quickly !
Kill this sacred calf quickly For this is the sacrifice most pleasing to the Lord is an obedient and willing heart to love the brethren laying down one's life for another However even greater than this is based on the first command and that is to lay our lives down for the Messiah. Love Him First! That he may use us quickly when he needs hands to touch, eyes to see

What I am seeing here is this:

A church that has false humility a humility that is forced, unnatural.
What the Lord desires from us is that this way of life be more than just second nature, but to be our nature

I am seeing the Lord show me that he wants us to be able to quickly let go of the hot potato of offense that so easily gets tossed into our hands from another
Does it matter?
I see the Lord laughing and saying " who cares?
Who cares if you are right
Who cares if you are wrong?
I do not care of these things"

I care of only dead flesh, and resurrected Life
Do you care if your brother really thinks so much of you?
Then you have fallen into the trap of fear of man
Do not allow others to twist the scripture of being no offense to anyone
That is impossible for if you walk in My Ways, in My Word
You will offend
Not because of some inherit thing in yourselves
but by the fact My Word is the discerned of the thoughts and hearts of a man
Offense comes from the Word that is spoken
When a heart is hiding from me
But all is naked before me

Lay down and die!
or your life will be taken from you violently
It is easy to give over to Messiah than to kick against the pricks

There is something the Lord is speaking now, ...Offense brings death.
Freedom, Liberty... brings life Allow yourselves to be free to be right, to be wrong, to be happy, to be sad. Give yourselves permission to be free
The Truth does not SET you free, it MAKES you free
It is a process. I haven't asked things of man that is impossible to accomplish
I have given my Word so that you may learn the process and get there
Is it easier to forgive someone who has hurt you?
Or is it easier to forgive yourself for hurting another/?
I am the Great Psychologist
Counsel is MINE says the Lord
I have Hidden my Counsel in the hearts of men and women.
draw on it. Do not be afraid to use your minds. For I have given you a mind to think with. I have given you the Mind of Christ, an ANOINTED MIND.
You can think but now, with a renewed mind. You do not think old ways
You think with the ANOINTED MIND sanctified to My Ways.
Do not be afraid to think. Its ok to think. For I think.
I consider
I weigh
I judge
I have given you My Word
My Spirit
And you have what you need.

Now get what you lack EXPERIENCE!
Which is the knowing of the knowledge because now you have practical experience! You have tested the Word and it will prove TRUE
Its ok to think
Its ok to question
Questioning doesn't mean rebellion, unless you desire to rebel
Questioning ... get wisdom

The Lord is telling me go back to humility

False humility is the kind that is not instantaneous. It is not a look, it is not a feeling. Humility is knowing how much power you wield yet let no man know it that it becomes a threat and burden to him Its knowing all things, yet not throwing it around to impress man Its knowing the truth, yet being accused of a lie and speaking nothing; being content in knowing, even if no one else knows.
That humility is God given,
God ordained and God maintained

This is the humble of heart that the Lord draws close to

Humanism And The Tsunami

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

Well, another week has gone by and the news continues to be focused on the Tsunami catastrophe. But if you remember, over the past five years or more the movie industry was already preparing the world for such a global problem. In these productions, nations, including the Jews in the State of Israel, were seen cooperating with their Arab enemies to save the rest of humanity from nature's evil disturbances. Yet amazingly enough, even though our scientists have known and warned about these possibilities, it has not caused one national leader to stand up and call for repentance.

One might ask why, and I'm sure that you know the answer. There is only one book, or set of documents, that makes a stand and points to the reasons for these catastrophic natural disasters and untold human suffering. YHVH the Almighty Creator, the Elohim of Abraham Isaac and Jacob, has given humanity a set of instructions that were to go out to every tribe and tongue of people. These instructions are replete with statutes, ordinances and laws, resulting in consequences; positive or negative, depending on whether they are obeyed or not. YHVH, even in the beginning, when speaking to Adam and Eve, set before them life and death.

In today's world of the worship of man and the works of his hands, the spiritual darkness of ignorance of YHVH's Torah is causing this religion of humanism (the "false prophet") to proclaim that there is no need for the Torah. In last week's letter (250) we quoted many scriptures that could help explain YHVH's position on the cause and effects of the Tsunami. We received many letters of appreciation, but there was one letter in which there was a rebuke that we thought might typify the stance of many Christians who find themselves participating with an anti-Torah spirit.

Humanism has penetrated Christianity, to the point that the very foundations (the Torah and the Prophets) upon which it is built are being undermined. Speaking of undermining, I can't help think of the tunnels that the terrorist have mined right underneath the army camps of Israel, stuffing them with explosives and blowing to pieces everything and everyone above. The letter referred to above demonstrates the degree of deception that religious humanistic spirits cause as they influence even the Believers to analyze the human condition through the prism of the knowledge of good and evil.

The letter:

"Is this article (250) not in extremely poor taste?! Implying if not actually stating that the victims "had it coming to them" due to their unrighteousness, when not one of us knows the heart of any individual one of them?!

DO YOU NOT KNOW? HAVE YOU NOT HEARD? MORE THAN 150,000 PEOPLE ARE DEAD !!!!!

Let us not run to the Bible (which is a !!!HOLY!!! thing!) in subconscious self-centered panic for the purpose of reassuring us of our own self-justification and thus come out citing hand-selected verses to match our own narrow mindedness but let us run to the Great Maker of all, in humility and in sackcloth & ashes of mourning, to consult the WHOLE COUNSEL of the one who calls Himself "I Am".

Sure, Jeremiah and Isaiah were great Prophets. But Yeshua outranks them all by LIGHT years!!!" end quote.

I have a feeling that the person did not really read the letter. The following are the scriptures from the New Testament that were "hand selected" in the above letter.

John 9:1-3: "Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither...."

Matt 5:45: "…or he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

Luke 13:1-5 "There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

2 Peter 3:9: "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

The above letter and the usage it makes of scriptures is an example of the way repentance is perceived among some within Christianity, to whom it is nothing more than a trip to an "altar", or a partaking of a piece of bread and a sip of wine. Humility, however, is admitting under the conviction of the Spirit of Holiness that one has missed the mark of YHVH's instructions (Torah), and "sackcloth and ashes" would be confessing before the Almighty in deep sorrow for having been disobedient, and then renouncing that rebellious attitude and 'placing' it upon the altar of the fires of His Spirit, where it (the said attitude) will be turned to ashes. In the above scriptures we do see abundant mercy, but Yeshua spoke the "whole counsel of His Father" including the Torah, "or you shall all likewise perish". This is why without the instruction of the Torah and Prophets we will not really know what Yeshua and the Apostles meant by "repentance".

Shabbat Shalom

He Was There And Is Still With Us

Becky McLendon

The other day in our after school home group, we discussed the topic of "hardship" and "suffering." Each of us were to respond to a question that required us to think back on past hardships and times of great suffering, and when we began thinking about it, none of us could really say we had "hardship" OR "suffering" in this life. We were trying to compare it to those in other countries, those in past centuries, etc. It perplexed us some that we could not attest to having any memorable tribulations. I went home after the get together and kept pondering this.

The Lord said to me in a very still voice that we all HAVE had past "hard times" and "sufferings" for in this world we have tribulation. But when we tried to look to them we turned to our PAST and saw JESUS instead of the bad times. I began recalling the times I considered very, very bad in my life, even up to this past year when I know I was severely accused and persecuted with great stress and crushing...I COULD NOT "SEE" the hardship or the pain of it any more. I ONLY SAW JESUS. He redeems our past sufferings. He is redeeming our PRESENT sufferings. HE WAS THERE and IS STILL WITH US. He wipes away our tears.

He then added, I will not put on you more than you can stand. My GRACE is sufficient for you. And LO I am with you always, even unto the ENDS OF THE EARTH.

Selah. Shalom and Amen.

BABY LON

We don’t want manna we want quails! We want QUAILS!! Waaa, waaaaa, waaaaaa.

We want a popular king to rule over us.

We want to be loved by man and noticed!

They won’t be offended if we just continue to have nice little Bible studies ABOUT Jesus but not actually LIVE as He lived!

BAA-BAA LON

What’s this I hear, the bleating of sheep? Oh, we didn’t want to totally get rid of the enemy and all his belongings, we kept back a few things for “god”. All we like sheep have gone astray? What does

THAT mean? I'm a good person! Baaaaaaaaaaaaaa baaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa.

BABEL ON

Come on, guys, hop on the wagon here and help out! Let's built a tower of power together. We can reach God and others will really think we are hot stuff and join us too. Let's make it the biggest and the best, and be sure to drop your money in the plate before you leave today. We CAN check up on your earnings to see if you are meeting your obligations to the organization! Hammer, hammer, hammer, hammer.

BABBLE ON

In my humble opinion, (a statement, which, by the way, does not make an opinion humble any more) I believe that the blah, blah, blah is the absolute of the pontification spoken with perfect eloquence and substantiated with exact chapter and verse from the perfectly correct and only acceptable translation of the scripture as approved by my denomination and my seminary. And I will become rude, crude and very unholy in my name calling and word curses against anyone who might disagree with my private interpretation, or my denominational slant. And furthermore………..

BABBLE ON AND ON AND ON AND ON AND………..

BABYLON!!!

Come out of her My people. Touch not her unclean things! Be not partakers in her plagues. Because SOON and very SOON her fall is upon her.

The Spirit and the Bride say come! Come! Come! Repent of Babylon and all that is in her. Come to Mt. Zion, the perfection of Beauty out of which GOD has shined. Zion, where the waters flow crystal clear and the leaves of the trees bring healing to the land. Look unto Jesus, the Beginning and the End of all things. Seek First the Kingdom of God and HIS righteousness. Follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.

Amen and Amen.

Have You Spent Time With Me?

Stephen Hanson

July 23, 2005

> "You do not know me or my Father," Jesus replied. "If you knew me, you would know my Father also." He spoke these words while teaching in the temple area near the place where the offerings were put. Yet no one seized him, because his time had not yet come.
> John 8:19-21

“I tell you that I pour out my spirit to a people who will not receive Me. I pour out my spirit of blessing to all--but few receive it. I pour out my spirit to a world that does not know Me. All day long I hear the requests of those who ask favors of Me. They ask for this and they ask for that. They do these things and yet they do not know Me. You go to a doctor and you ask him to help you get well. You go to a lawyer and you ask him to help you with your legal matters. You sit and talk with them about these matters; and yet you do not sit and talk with Me about these matters. I will answer the prayers of those who come before Me, but I simply ask that you spend time with Me. You go to psychics and fortunetellers to find out the directions in your lives. Much of the world does this and yet few would come to Me. These are the reasons that many in the world do not know Me. But I tell you that I am coming back. I am coming back for those who do know Me. But this time I am coming back with a sword. I am coming back to separate the sheep from the goats. I am coming back for a body. I ask you church, ‘Have you listened to my apostles and prophets’? Have you heeded the warnings that have gone out? Are you prepared for what lies ahead? For the days ahead are written down in my prophetic timetable. During those days your psychics and fortunetellers will not help you. But all who call upon my name will be saved. “

I Am About To Move

Shirley Lise

Lead out in courage. Every step you take forward is gaining ground. Do not be discouraged, I am about to move in an unprecedented manner on your behalf. I am about to put you into a position you did not expect. The pen is mightier than the sword. Wield it to accomplish the purposes of God. Write down the things being given to you, the revelations from heaven’s realm. In them are instructions for carrying out the task. I will lead you and guide you all the way. You are not alone. I am with you, and for you, and you will surface as the instrument chosen to direct affairs. You are fully-equipped and although you may look like a foolish choice in the eyes of those without understanding, My ways are not the ways of men and those chosen of Me are the ones whom I have hand-picked and selected for the job. I am moving you into an office designed by the Master. It is not an office designed by men, but of God, therefore I am able to work through this office to accomplish My purposes.

I Am Coming Soon

Heather Butler

August 24, 2005 6:09 PM
I am coming soon, and many are in preparation for my return. I am sending you a new revelation of my breath, as I breathed into Adams nostrils and imparted life in all its fullness, so I come to breathe into you a release of my power and my glory for these last days.

This breath is not for your own benefit directly, you already have all you need, but this is for the impartation of my Spirit to those who are barren, to those who are struggling, to those who have been sat on the shelf, for those deemed to be too old, too young, my breath carries within it love that is fierce and possessive that pierces the hardest hearts of stone, rendering them malleable and so useful.

My love is fiercer than you have ever known, it crosses over the boundaries of sin and covers you with my blood, a blood that sanctifies, that makes you whole, makes you pure and cleansed in my sight. Stop looking at your failure, those days are behind you.

I need an army that is prepared and ready to stand with me, an army that will use the greatest weapon that the world has even known. The life blood of my Son, the commitment, the total devotion of Him for whom even death was not to much for you.

When you speak of His love, it’s a love far deeper than you have ever known, it’s a love who's depths cannot be fathomed a love that is totally captivated and focused upon this earth and every one of you.

The cry of His heart reaches out into the depths of the soul and by His blood denies the enemy his spoil as He irradiates the sinfulness of the human nature by it.. His death will not be denied, it is raised up against all that is unholy He scoffs at the audacity of the enemy who tries to rob from you even now all that is your inheritance in Him.

You have been given The Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven to bind up on earth all that is not of God, and you have been given all authority use it!

Time is short, and many are the questions of men upon the earth, they are writhing, knowing that something they cannot control is on the horizon and they look to every form of divination and deceit to find the answers. I give to you the revelation of this age to bring a word that is real, and true, that will cut through the fear. Challenge those who are seeking. tell them to look again at my word. Let your life be a living testimony, that they would see signs and wonders as you pray for their breakthrough.

Do not fear the plagues that are to come, you are covered by the one who sends you, I cover you with my protection, thousands may fall at your right hand, and tens of thousands at your feet, but it will not come near you. As I saved Moses and the Hebrew slaves, so I am marking ready those that belong to me. You were bought with a price, I have sealed you with my mark, nothing will take that from you, it stands for all eternity.

I am releasing an anointing for purity into your life, a holiness that transcends anything you have ever known before. You cannot do this for yourself, I pour out this anointing upon you, as I touch your lips with the coals from the alter and forgive your shortcoming and weaknesses you will be cleansed and speak with a reverence and holiness that bares witness to the one I sent. Your words will flow like crystal rivers, no compromise, nothing tainted, pure and unadulterated, clean.

I am sending you out, I am sending you to be a light to the nations, a light that will draw those who are lost, I am releasing a light that is piercing, that the enemy is afraid of, that is yours to wield against the enemy in these last days as you uncover all that is aimed against everything that is true and Godly.

Many are the sins of man, but not more that I can cover with my blood. Take time to seek me, I will be found, don't just speak with me, listen to me, hear my voice. I impart to you a momentum that will continually enable you to motivate, to encourage to build up those who are beginning to lag behind. Remind my sons and daughters that now more than ever there needs to be a strength of commitment like never before.

I send signs and wonders upon the earth, creational miracles, healings, the deliverance of many who have been in the enemies charge, but who's darkness is overcome by the light of Christ within you. Do not fear what the world fears, I bare my arm to you, an arm that will sweep throughout the nations swiping those that destroy and maim and who draw away many who are searching for the truth.

Time is running out, its up to each one of you to stand in the gap to become those who will release and pour forth prayers of petition and intercession.

Many of you are feeling the stirring of my Spirit within you to release something that you have never done before, many of you are afraid of the dreams and the visions that you have, many of you struggle with the word of Revelation in my word which points to much that will happen in this age. I am opening eyes to see, I am releasing wisdom, I am releasing illumination, I am releasing into each one of you a power to deal with everything that is ungodly that raises itself up against you.

Quickly, step into that place of leading now, of guiding others now, of reaching the poor the unlovely, the criminal, the prostitute, those called the dregs of society, those who consult the stars, who give out false proclamation. Quickly go now, these people are perishing, speak to them, show them by your actions that Jesus in you carries the real authority, it will overcome every situation that comes against you.

Never has there been such an urgency, "I don't want to loose anyone" I can hear the cry of the Fathers heart as he searches for men women and children who will throw off the dust of apathy and complacency, who will hear the alarm that has been released and run quickly before time has run out.

That still small voice.

Birth Pangs
Heather Butler

This world is being seized by a pain that has shaken and consumed it. Like a woman in labour who's only thought is to birth the baby so that the pain will stop, The body is in the transitional stage in labour seized by every pain ready for the birth of the body of Christ into her final calling, and prepared and ready for the one who is to come who's head was bruised.

As there are birth pangs in the world, so there will be birth pangs and groans in your own life, whereby the 'body of Christ' flexes its muscles ready for that final release of the power and majesty of God poured through an open heaven upon the world.

The violent praise that you have heard me speak about through the prophets is a must at this time, because the pain is so bad that its all that you can think about, but I come and I enable those who belong to me to focus on me, to breath in the deep, deep things of the spirit, where deep calls to deep, the stronger the pain the deeper the breath of my Spirit you need to take in. as Much grace is released for this final push. Everything within you is screaming "no I cant do this, its to much, its to painful, take this pain away" but I encourage you and call you into that place of complete trust in me, I call you to not give up, to focus, not on the pain but on the end results that will put everything into order ready for the coming King. Put everything that you are into that last thrust to birth within your own life all that I have ready for this end time .

I will not leave or forsake you, you have had my word, my promise, I am with you until the end of time.

Do not fear the one who is to come who is against you and who wants to wreak his revenge on the nations as he has since the very beginning, his end is nigh and he is thrashing about the earth trying to stir up a heart so black with death against my people, but it is his undoing, this has to happen to fulfil end time prophesy,

I have equipped you, I have given you all that you need for these last days. In the act of violent praise, and the violent prayers of faith by the saints the strongholds will be shaken, torn down and blasted out as I release from my own nostrils the response to your prayers and praise and worship. Don't see with your eyes, see with the eyes of faith, see victory and not defeat, see me in my majesty as we stand together and see these final callings and stands through to the end.

There are two sides to this coin, the birthing of the one foretold to come who is against all I hold dear, and the birthing of the beloved the one I love, the one who lives in complete submission to my will, who is spotless and without blemish, who's garments are washed in my blood the one that the enemy cannot overcome. Radiant, alive, faithful, wise, full of truth obedient, willing to give everything for me, committed totally to the bridegroom, ready to walk with him into these last battles for the lost, and the Armageddon that is to come.

Watch the Islands, see the hand of the lord in the Islands, see how the lord overthrows the enemy in the Islands.

The light dawns ever brighter, piercing the darkness of this last age, all authority is given to you, the keys you hold unlock and open the doorways to heaven and release upon the earth all that is stored in signs and wonders, grace and mercy, salvation, and a power greater and more resolute in my body than has ever been seen before. I call you forth, from the North, will you come, the East will you come, the South will you Come, the West will you come, I call you forth for this next season, will you come.

Watch the Islands
Heather Butler

August 13th 2005.

Watch the islands, see what I am doing in the Islands. (from prophetic words given to me July 21st 2005) Birth pangs.

I have this week had words of testimony sent to me about the islands of Vanuatu and Figi, and Hawaii. People have been so encouraging as they have read the prophetic word about Birth pangs, within it is an excerpt that says 'Watch the islands, see what I will do in the islands'

The lord is doing some amazing things in these isles. This is what I have seen this week concerning the string of tiny isles off the east coast of Australia . I believe this is the word of the lord concerning them.

Watch the Islands, see what I am doing in the Islands, my string of pearls, pearls of great price, aren't they beautiful. See them as I see them,

You don't see them as I do, you see them as small and insignificant, but I tell you that a chain reaction is coming to these Isles that will affect the south pacific. These tiny isles are the fuse that is being lit!

That still small voice.

Please pray for these Isles, they need our prayer, pray that Christian radio and media will have breakthrough in these isles. We praise God for UCB pacific Graham carter and the team who are working for the lord to get the gospel out to those in the south Pacific.
With every blessing Heather.

Time To Run With The Horses!
Heather Butler

It says in the word of God that if we cannot keep up with men, how can we run with horses. As I was praying this is what I saw, and I speak it as a prophetic declaration over Kentucky in the name of Jesus.

I see an open heaven, a rolling back of the heavens as the lord gets ready to release his fire from heaven. This fire will consume those who have cried out who are hungry and thirsty, although it is a costly fire it is greater than gold, as the dross is burned away I see what could have been devastation turn into the most fruitful place. I entered in and saw men on white horses protecting the harvest, standing watch to protect this yield. I watched as a whirlwind came and whipped up the fire and planted it in neighbouring towns, a funnel of fire swept from Kentucky across the nation, keeping the enemy at bay, and releasing the anointing of the glory of God. The enemy wants to kill you, and the father needs you to die so that he can live in you. The men on the white horses are without fear, they have been tested by the fire, consumed by its flames, they know what is expected of them to run with the Spirit of the lord wherever he will lead. There are those who have not yet learned to run with the horses, those who fear change and challenge, but the lord says to them do not be afraid, as I was with your forefathers so I will be with you, stop looking at what has gone before, I am doing a new thing, I have opened the doorways of heaven to pour out my heart upon this place, to lavish my bride with every good thing, but first comes the fire, will you run with the fire of God in your bones, will you allow me to consume your every thought, take your thoughts and ambitions, strip you of everything that you are and replace your thoughts and ambitions with my perfect will for you. Will you run with me, stand with me even unto death. Come, I call you come. prepare the way I am soon to come. That still small voice.

I Am Coming Soon

Bayo Omoyiola, jr.

scroll_of_david@yahoo.com

My children, I am coming soon. Prepare your hearts and minds for my return. Soon the trumpet shall sound and you will all be raptured. I would be here praying and watching for you for there are temptations on the earth that could distract you from winning my crown. I have preserved you blameless and I will preserve you blameless till I return.

On your road to perfection. You will find many obstacles. Take heed that you do not submit to them. Take hold of faith. It would guard you from distractions. Fight the fight of faith. You've got love - to love your neighbour as yourself. Hold on to it for it would guard from limiting yourself to just what you know. It would give you open doors to heaven so you could hear from me without ceasing. This two weapons would help you as you go on your journey to perfection and you would get there with my leading.

I Am Is Calling His Army

Catharina Schouten

Word out of the book of Esther
He also gave her plenty of food and seven special maids from the king's palace, and they had the best rooms.

12 Each of the young women was given beauty treatments for a whole year before going to King Artaxerxes. The first six months her skin was rubbed with olive oil and myrrh, and the last six months it was treated with beauty cream mixed with spices.

Word from the Lord:

I Am is calling His army!

Prepare , prepare for soon I will call you to walk over this earth!

Like Esther and the women, you need this time to soak in My oil, and eat the food that I give to you!

Prepare and do not hold back what I already see in your heart!

Give it to Me , give it to Me, and I will give you a pure clean heart, and will anoint you with My Spirit!

I Am is calling HIS army make ready, soon you must walk over the earth to tell the Nations the good tiding….

I Am coming back very soon, but before I can come back the remnant of My people will help Me to make a Bride where there is not one Bride at this moment….

You will help Me to save lost souls…….

MAKE READY ! MAKE READY the Sjofar sounds!!!

I the KING of KINGS is calling My soon to be kings and queens …….prepare yourselves!

Is It A Time

Julia Mason

21 September 2005

> "...Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?" (II Kings 5:26)

I have just returned from a ten-day journey in the Hawaiian Islands.

I have been laboring in the Islands for a few years now. I started out as an "exile" in 1990. Following my decision to dropout of college, my parents "arranged" for me to move to Oahu from Illinois to marry a man in the US Marines that I had known for five years prior. The marriage lasted ten months and I was left to "wander" the island for a time until I returned back to Illinois.

Before I moved back to the Mainland, I had made several friends of different ethnic groups. Hawaiian, Japanese, Filipino, Portuguese, and Samoan. I had found a good job at a local escrow company in Honolulu. I remember one of the Hawaiian ladies in the title department took me under her wing a bit. She seemed to sense that I was "displaced" in the Islands. She began to extend what locals there call the "aloha spirit". After weeks of knowing her, I began to embrace Hawaii as my home, more than Illinois where I was from. In 1993, my two-year old daughter and myself moved back to Illinois. The cost of living on Oahu was too great for a single mom with one income. I remember the night that we left. The Holy Spirit spoke gently to me and comforted my heart. He said that I would return to the Islands in His time and He would give me much favor there.

In 2000, I returned to Oahu as I was hosting a prophetic conference. I had personally contacted several local pastors and let them know that I believed it was a time to gather with prophetic ministers and hear what the Lord is saying to the Islands. I have been returning to Hawaii every year since. Sometimes my stays have been for a week and sometimes for several months. All in all, I believe that I can safely and accurately say that I no longer speak as a friend to Hawaii but as a daughter to Hawaii. I was welcomed fifteen years ago by a people that I did not choose, into a land that I had no inheritance in and became one less orphan in the Kingdom of God through their love for me and my daughter. I long for the day that Hawaii, as a land in transition, embraces the Lord Jesus Christ as King and breaks down the "altars" where their ancestors worshipped "the unknown God". (Acts 17:23)

It is with this heart that I extend the following prophetic word to the Body of Christ:

"...Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?" (II Kings 5:26)

Elisha, an Old Testament prophet, stated the above to his servant Gehazi, when Gehazi was disobedient and received an offering from Naaman, who had just been healed of leprosy.

The Lord gave me a vision during my journey last week and likened Hawaii to Naaman; a mighty man in valor, an honorable warrior, yet afflicted with leprosy.

I believe that, just like Naaman had an ordained time for his healing, so also is this the time for Hawaii's healing. I believe that God is sending and also raising up "prophetic" voices to the Islands to speak to the affliction that has been in their land for many generations. I believe that God is "repairing" many breaches between Hawaii and the mainland, as well as with other surrounding nations. The greatest healing, though, will be within their own land. I recently learned from a local friend that on the island of Molokai, there is still yet an actual leper colony, where the afflicted were originally ordered to live in 1866 (http://www.nps.gov/kala/). I believe the Lord has spoken to me that there shall come a strong witness from this place where the lepers were once "exiled" from society in Hawaii. "Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19) God shall bring forth rivers of compassion and healing from the Island of Molokai and the generations of those whose families were separated by this disease shall see the redemptive Hand of the Lord move mightily on their behalf.

Having spoken these things, I must caution any and all ministers who plan to visit the Hawaiian Islands during this time of healing. Just as Gehazi's disobedience was punished with the same affliction that Naaman was healed of, so also hear the Lord's instruction to "receive" from Hawaii with great discernment in this hour. The land of this afflicted people has been pillaged by Christian ministries in the name of Jesus for long enough. A great cry has reached the ear of the Lord and He has set into motion a season of healing for Hawaii. Let every man and woman, therefore, take heed to their steps to and from the Islands in this hour, lest we find ourselves as Gehazi crying out to God for healing of an affliction that came through disobedience.

Sincerely,
Julia Mason

I Am Knocking The Church Off It's Axis

Jeremy Lopez

"Even as the earth has been knocked off its axis by the tsunami, I am knocking the church off it's axis", says the Lord.

I am repositioning My church from a passive to an aggressive mentality. I am changing the direction from where man has altered and spoken his will and his desire into My house and temples. For I have not been working 2000 years on My people for them to get fat off of the hype of doctrine and sit back and wait until I come back to get them. No, I have been working for 2000 years to come and consume the praises of all that worship Me and have built me a habitation to come rule and reign in. I am returning to inhabit, appear and to be glorified in My saints.

I shall raise up sons and daughters of the kingdom of God that shall penetrate the very center of the heart of My church to cause a spring of life to arise in this hour. I will cause the tree of life to be made known this hour for My people to come and eat of it's sweet fruit of life. I will raise up sons and daughters to curse the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, even as My Son cursed the fig tree for not producing. Remember this, that works of good and evil can not and never will cause a life given spirit to produce. My people will begin to have the revelation that I have come to give them life and give it to them more abundantly. Even more than they are able to ask or think. For the day is coming when good and evil shall be no more and all that will remain shall be the life of the Son of the Living God. I will cause life to spring forth from out of the nations of the earth. Have I not said, that I will give to you the nations of the earth as your inheritance? Have I not said that the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of your Lord and Christ so He may reign? How will He reign you may ask? Out of the Christ in the earth, which is you My people. It is Christ in you the hope of glory.

Grab a hold of the truth and revelation that I am pouring out this hour concerning the heavenly realm. Know this, that the day is at hand when My will shall be done on earth as it is in the heavenly realms of My glory. This has and always will be My will for you and the earth that I have given to you. Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Have I not said, "Beautiful are the "feet" of those that carry the good news of My word." You, Oh sons and daughters of the most high God are My hands and feet in the earth. You are the very salt which feeds the nations the light of My kingdom. The breath that I breathed into Adam that made him a living soul still remains in all that chooses to partake of its life. So arise this day and choose life so that I may spread it in and through you to reach every nation, culture and man that has given up hope in this life. Do the will of your Father My people, which is to disciple the nations of the earth," says the Lord.

It’s A Long Way To Tipperary

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Aug 18th, 2005
WORD for IRELAND –
In the late hours of the early morning I heard this tune in my head.
I felt the Lord wanted to say something. I looked up the history which is very interesting and it involves many European nations, England, France, Holland and Ireland…and the comment is made at the bottom of the history brief… History was again made here when the Irish State formally honored, for the first time, the quarter of a million Irish people who had served in the British Forces during the first World War. More than fifty thousand of them died.

On November 11, 1998, a monument to those Irishmen who fought and gave their lives in World War I was unveiled by President of Ireland, Mary McAleese, in the presence of Queen Elizabeth II and the King and Queen of Belgium. The monument is a 110 foot Irish Round Tower made from tons of stones taken from a former workhouse in Mullingar, Co. Westmeath. As part of the unveiling ceremonies, the band played It's a Long Way to Tipperary.

Before Jack died in 1938, he composed a sequel called "It's A Long Way No Longer." We have yet to find the lyrics - and we're left to wonder what he wrote. Our wish is that in those last words, he embraced the hope that all Irish soldiers could come home - whether here or in the hereafter - and find peace, at last.

After reading that I felt the Lord may have a word for IRELAND He wanted to speak…I asked Him what He wanted to say and was reminded of a character in Braveheart who was Irish and called Ireland “MY Island” and the Scots all laughed at him. He actually saved the main character from death shortly after his arrival in camp.

I feel the Lord is saying:

“Ireland YOU ARE MY ISLAND! I cleansed you and brought revival to you many years ago, but since then things have gone from bad to worse in many ways and many have left the true faith of their fathers and have mixed witchcraft again with Christianity. Syncretism abounds and many have left the truth long ago. Many go to church but do not really practice what they hear.
I am going to shake you Ireland and break you free from the hundreds of years of oppression of the enemy. The true enemy is Satan and I am your FAITHFUL FATHER. I love you and will do great and mighty things within your borders to establish MY PEACE. It will not be the false peace of one world religion, but the PEACE that passes all understanding. The warring spirits will be brought down. I will sow love instead of murder and vengeance!
I will sow glory and you will have humility once again, and peace, and joy and all manner of wisdom from the FATHER of LIGHTS Who will destroy all that has opposed HIS WAYS.

I have heard the cries of the mothers and children. I have heard the cries of fathers. I will break the chains of bondage and idolatry that have held you captive for centuries, and RESTORATION will bring a different kind of war within your gates. War of My goodness against all the evil of the enemy!
I will bring down and I will lift up. I will destroy and I will RESTORE. I will bring all men through the valley of decision that they might bow down and know that I ALONE AM LORD, and there is NO OTHER. I will have no gods before ME.

I AM the Creator of heaven and earth and all that is under the earth. I will break down the walls of division, though there will yet be a wall of division of those who truly love Me with their whole hearts vs those who only pretend to love Me! I am raising up an army of youth that will be catapulted to the nations for MY SAKE and for bringing glory to MY NAME! Though you are small among some nations, You are mighty in Spirit. I will RECLAIM your sons and daughters and you will again dance in the streets and sing to ME a new song!

Your sons will return to ME, the Bastion of Hope, the Desire of all nations!
It is a long way to Tipperary, but no longer will you have to wait!
They will have purpose for their lives again, and hope will be RESTORED.

TRUTH AND JUSTICE will prevail over the fears and lies of the past!
LOVE will once again mean what it was meant to be! TURN TO ME, sons and daughters of IRELAND for I will once again REVIVE you and bring you forth to many nations to impact them for the Kingdom of GOD!!!

It's a long way to Tipperary
by Bridget Haggerty

The Daily Mail correspondent, George Curnock, first heard the tune in Boulogne in August, 1914 - "a company of the 2nd* Battalion Connaught Rangers passed us singing, with a note of strange pathos in their rich Irish voices, a song I had never heard before…"

It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go,
It's a long way to Tipperary,
To the sweetest girl I know!
Goodbye Piccadilly! Farewell Leicester Square!
It's a long, long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there!

One of the most popular songs among the British, German and Russian armies during World War, it sold a million copies in 1914 and was later recorded by John McCormack. But what of its origins?

According to our research, across the water, in Oldbury near Birmingham, England, a music-hall entertainer, Jack Judge, is credited with composing the song along with Harry Williams who was a musician. While Jack had never been to Ireland, it was where his grandparents were from.

On January 30, 1912, Jack was performing at The Grand theatre, Stalybridge, Cheshire, England with his younger brother Ted Withey. After the performance, he went to a club near the theatre. It was there that someone challenged him with a bet that he could not write a new song and then perform it on stage during the next performance. The bet was for five shillings, which in those days was the price of a bottle of whiskey plus 6 dozen cigarettes. After leaving the club, Jack heard a fragment of a conversation between two men, one of whom said to the other "It's a long way to.........." in the course of giving someone directions.

He seized upon that phrase as a song-title, and then added the word "Tipperary" to it. (In some records, it supposedly started out as Connemara but we can't find any decisive corroboration). His friend, Horace Vernon, wrote down the musical notation by listening to Jack singing the song.

Jack won the bet. He sang "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" for the first time, on the stage of The Grand Theatre during the evening's performance on January 31, 1912. It quickly became a favourite, and its catchy tune soon caught the imagination of the public. Another friend of Jacks was Harry Williams. Harry and his brother kept a small country pub in Oldbury, called "The Malt Shovel". While Jack was an entertainer in the evenings, he had a daytime stall in the local fish market. Harry often lent him money when trade was poor and Jack promised in return that if he ever wrote a best-selling song, he would put Harry's name on it. Jack kept his promise and both men made a small fortune from the song's royalties.

Today, it's still sung at parties, around campfires, at St. Patrick's Day Parades and in Irish pubs from Tipperary to Timbuctu; but in recent memory, perhaps the most emotional rendition came at a very special ceremony that took place in Messines, Holland.

During the First World War, Messines was completely destroyed. For more than three months, bloody battles were fought here, in almost continuous rain, at a cost of 170,000 killed, wounded or missing.

Locally called Mesen, it was a city long before the French Revolution, but lost its title during the Dutch occupation. In 1985, the title was reinstated, thus making Messines - with less than 1,000 inhabitants and a total surface of 900 acres - the smallest city of Belgium.

History was made here; it's a region often remembered in the poem Flanders Field's. Not far away is Boesinghe, where the young Irish poet Francis Ledgewidge was killed while helping to build a road in preparation for the attack on Ypres. He's buried in the Artillery Wood Cemetary nearby.

History was again made here when the Irish State formally honored, for the first time, the quarter of a million Irish people who had served in the British Forces during the first World War. More than fifty thousand of them died.

On November 11, 1998, a monument to those Irishmen who fought and gave their lives in World War I was unveiled by President of Ireland, Mary McAleese, in the presence of Queen Elizabeth II and the King and Queen of Belgium. The monument is a 110 foot Irish Round Tower made from tons of stones taken from a former workhouse in Mullingar, Co. Westmeath. As part of the unveiling ceremonies, the band played It's a Long Way to Tipperary.

Before Jack died in 1938, he composed a sequel called "It's A Long Way No Longer." We have yet to find the lyrics - and we're left to wonder what he wrote. Our wish is that in those last words, he embraced the hope that all Irish soldiers could come home - whether here or in the hereafter - and find peace, at last.

IT'S A LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY
Up to mighty London came
An Irish lad one day,
All the streets were paved with gold,
So everyone was gay!
Singing songs of Piccadilly,
Strand, and Leicester Square,
'Til Paddy got excited and
He shouted to them there:
It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go.
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know!
Goodbye Piccadilly,
Farewell Leicester Square!
It's a long long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.
Paddy wrote a letter
To his Irish Molly O',
Saying, "Should you not receive it,
Write and let me know!
If I make mistakes in "spelling",
Molly dear", said he,
"Remember it's the pen, that's bad,
Don't lay the blame on me".
It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go.
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know!
Goodbye Piccadilly,
Farewell Leicester Square,
It's a long long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.
Molly wrote a neat reply
To Irish Paddy O',
Saying, "Mike Maloney wants
To marry me, and so
Leave the Strand and Piccadilly,

Or you'll be to blame,
For love has fairly drove me silly,
Hoping you're the same!"
It's a long way to Tipperary,
It's a long way to go.
It's a long way to Tipperary
To the sweetest girl I know!
Goodbye Piccadilly,
Farewell Leicester Square,
It's a long long way to Tipperary,
But my heart's right there.
Extra wartime verse
That's the wrong way to tickle Mary,
That's the wrong way to kiss!
Don't you know that over here, lad,
They like it best like this!
Hooray pour le Francais!
Farewell, Angleterre!
We didn't know the way to tickle Mary,
But we learned how, over there!

Bruxation
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Aug 16, 2005 1:24 am

I heard the Lord say “bruxation” which I realized was a medical term for grinding of teeth. And He had me look up grinding of teeth scrips. And then said, “Not everyone who says to me LORD, LORD will enter the Kingdom of heaven.

Not everyone who casts out demons and heals the sick will enter the Kingdom of heaven. Not everyone who starts out IN ME, stays IN ME. The gifts of God are without repentance. ‘Not many wise’ are called I’ve said. The wisdom of God is greater than the wisdom of man. Man seeks after his reward in this world without thinking sometimes of the reward that is eternal and forever. What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world but lose his soul, I said.
Who takes to heart these messages? Who sees the signs of the times and knows that the end is near? If I told My people Israel, “you discern the face of the sky, yet you cannot discern the signs of the times”. And you My church marvel at the fact they could not discern who I was, yet you also Do not always discern ME when I come in your midst. You sing and you worship a few songs, and when the cloud descends, you stop, as though nothing has happened.

What am I to do with you, for you are an adulterous generation who gives praise and laud to men more than to ME!?? I love you so much, I have given you the produce of the earth and the dew of heaven, yet you cannot take time for me in your day some of you. You lust and you covet oh My church and ask for MORE, oh My western bride, when I have given you the wealth of the earth in abundance. Yet some of you have devoured widows income and the income of single mothers alone with children without considering them precious in your site. You love your own life, when I have said,
John 12:25-26 NKJV He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

My church is filled with pretense and idolatry to man, division and discord, selfish gain, and the spirit of that harlot jezebel who only served herself.
Yet I will not make an end to you. I will be merciful and pour out My Spirit upon all flesh, and you will repent or you will pay a great price. For I am longing for a bride that is whole and who loves only ME, her Bridegroom. There are so many sick among you. There are so many untended sheep in My pastures. But I will give you a new Shepherd, The GREAT SHEPHERD of the sheep Who will not allow you to roam on the high hills of the earth, and Who will tend you fondly as a father loves his only son. Those who humble themselves will be exalted in due time. Those who continue to walk in their pride and arrogance, disdaining others, will fall to the wayside. Some only seem to want to learn the hard way, and so they will be filled with their own ways for a time, until they repent and are renewed in ME. Do not say it is the devil who does this. Do not give credit to the enemy when the mighty have fallen. For the law of sowing and reaping is made clear to you in My Word. If you sow to righteousness, will you not reap righteousness? If you sow in love, will you not reap love? If you sow in kindness, will you not reap kindness? If you sow in selfishness, will you not reap also what you have sown? If you sow in judgment will you not reap judgment? If you sow in criticism will you not reap criticism? If you sow in disgust towards the poor, will you not reap poverty and disgust from your fellow man?

The one I love, I chasten. If you would humble yourselves now, then you will not have to reap later what you have sown. I know the heart of man. I know everything that is in your heart. I know you love ME, for those who love ME.
I also know those who love themselves more than ME. All of you are growing in love and maturing in love, but I AM LOVE. I AM THE SOURCE FOR ALL YOU NEED. SO WHY DO YOU NOT COME TO ME, AND LEARN OF ME, FOR I AM GENTLE AND MEEK. I have told you that the MEEK inherit the earth, not the prideful and arrogant. So humble yourselves while there is time, that I may not grind my teeth at you! Come and lay at MY feet and love on ME, and I will return that love, more than you can imagine! But you must come.
I am the LORD, and I will have NO OTHER GODS before ME.

Come to ME, all you who labor and are heavy burdened and I WILL GIVE YOU REST for your souls! Do not allow what you want to be “god” over what I WANT. For I tell you the truth, I always do what is best for you. I am the Lover of your soul. I know you inside and out. Will come to KNOW ME? – to know My goodness, My love, My gentleness, My meekness, My wisdom? My understanding? For if you learn of MY WAYS, you will know and understand that I love you more than anything you can imagine. And My LOVE is enough.
My love transcends anything you know on this earth. My LOVE is powerful and majestic, and will never leave you. My LOVE NEVER FAILS. I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU. Even when you fail, I am here for you. I never leave you, though I may leave you to your own backslidings if that is what you prefer. But humble yourself and come to ME, and I WILL GIVE YOU REST.
I will fill your soul with LOVE and LAUGHTER, with MY WISDOM and UNDERSTANDING. I will enable you to love others, as I have loved you.”

Matt 16:3-4 NKJV and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times. 4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." And He left them and departed.

Matt 7:21-23 NKJV I Never Knew You (Luke 6:46; 13:26,27)
"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

Matt 8:11-12 AMP I tell you, many will come from east and west, and will sit at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, 12 While the sons and heirs of the kingdom will be driven out into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. [Ps 107:2,3; Isa 49:12; 59:19; Mal 1:11.]

Matt 13:41-42 AMP The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all causes of offense [persons by whom others are drawn into error or sin] and all who do iniquity and act wickedly, And will cast them into the furnace of fire; there will be weeping and wailing and grinding of teeth.

Matt 13:49-50 AMP So it will be at the close and consummation of the age. The angels will go forth and separate the wicked from the righteous (those who are upright and in right standing with God) And cast them [the wicked] into the furnace of fire; there will be weeping and wailing and grinding of teeth.

Matt 22:11-15 AMP But when the king came in to view the guests, he looked intently at a man there who had on no wedding garment. 12 And he said, Friend, how did you come in here without putting on the [appropriate] wedding garment? And he was speechless (muzzled, gagged). 13 Then the king said to the attendants, Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the darkness outside; there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. 14 For many are called (invited and summoned), but few are chosen. 15 Then the Pharisees went and consulted and plotted together how they might entangle Jesus in His talk.

Matt 24:48-51 AMP But if that servant is wicked and says to himself, My master is delayed and is going to be gone a long time, 49 And begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with the drunken, 50 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour of which he is not aware, 51 And will punish him [cut him up by scourging] and put him with the pretenders (hypocrites); there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Matt 25:29-30 AMP For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will be furnished richly so that he will have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have will be taken away. 30 And throw the good-for-nothing servant into the outer darkness; there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Luke 13:23-31 AMP And someone asked Him, Lord, will only a few be saved (rescued, delivered from the penalties of the last judgment, and made partakers of the salvation by Christ)? And He said to them, 24 Strive to enter by the narrow door [force yourselves through it], for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able.
25 When once the Master of the house gets up and closes the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door [again and again], saying, Lord, open to us! He will answer you, I do not know where [what household--certainly not Mine] you come from.
26 Then you will begin to say, We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets. 27 But He will say, I tell you, I do not know where [what household--certainly not Mine] you come from; depart from Me, all you wrongdoers! 28 There will be weeping and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves being cast forth (banished, driven away).
29 And [people] will come from east and west, and from north and south, and sit down (feast at table) in the kingdom of God.
30 And behold, there are some [now] last who will be first [then], and there are some [now] first who will be last [then].

Ecclesiastes 12 : 1-7 AMP
1 REMEMBER [earnestly] also your Creator [that you are not your own, but His property now] in the days of your youth, before the evil days come or the years draw near when you will say [of physical pleasures], I have no enjoyment in them-- [2 Sam 19:35.]
2 Before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened [sight is impaired], and the clouds [of depression] return after the rain [of tears];
3 In the day when the keepers of the house [the hands and the arms] tremble, and the strong men [the feet and the knees] bow themselves, and the grinders [the molar teeth] cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows [the eyes] are darkened;
4 When the doors [the lips] are shut in the streets and the sound of the grinding [of the teeth] is low, and one rises up at the voice of a bird and the crowing of a cock, and all the daughters of music [the voice and the ear] are brought low;
5 Also when [the old] are afraid of danger from that which is high, and fears are in the way, and the almond tree [their white hair] blooms, and the grasshopper [a little thing] is a burden, and desire and appetite fail, because man goes to his everlasting home and the mourners go about the streets or marketplaces. [Job 17:13.]
6 [Remember your Creator earnestly now] before the silver cord [of life] is snapped apart, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern [and the whole circulatory SYSTEM of the blood ceases to function];
7 Then shall the dust [out of which God made man's body] return to the earth as it was, and the spirit shall return to God Who gave it.

1 Cor 1:25-31 AMP [This is] because the foolish thing [that has its source in] God is wiser than men, and the weak thing [that springs] from God is stronger than men.
26 For [simply] consider your own call, brethren; not many [of you were considered to be] wise according to human estimates and standards, not many influential and powerful, not many of high and noble birth.

27 [No] for God selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is foolish to put the wise to shame, and what the world calls weak to put the strong to shame. 28 And God also selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is lowborn and insignificant and branded and treated with contempt, even the things that are nothing, that He might depose and bring to nothing the things that are, 29 So that no mortal man should [have pretense for glorying and] boast in the presence of God.

30 But it is from Him that you have your life in Christ Jesus, Whom God made our Wisdom from God, [revealed to us a knowledge of the divine plan of salvation previously hidden, manifesting itself as] our Righteousness [thus making us upright and putting us in right standing with God], and our Consecration [making us pure and holy], and our Redemption [providing our ransom from eternal penalty for sin]. 31 So then, as it is written, Let him who boasts and proudly rejoices and glories, boast and proudly rejoice and glory in the Lord. [Jer 9:24.]

Occlusal attrition. Attrition is the term form the "wear & tear" that occurs when teeth meet each other (occlusion) while chewing. Those who have a normal "bite" (i.e., no mal-occlusion) are least likely to show significant amounts of attrition. Those who have mal-occlusions, the elderly, and those who "grind" their teeth while sleeping (bruxation) are more susceptible to noticeable occlusal attrition. Entire cultures and societies can have significant attrition that is secondary to eating a large amount of unprocessed grains – grains that still have significant amounts of dirt or sand in them. The soil acts as a mild abrasive, thus increasing the rate of occlusal attrition within the entire population.

Commentary

During my Scripture research for my End Time dreams' postings a while ago, I was awestruck by the various times that God declared His Sovereignty in the Book of Isaiah. I became so awestruck that I made a composite of those scriptures and included them in one of my dream postings a few years ago. Interestingly, a while ago I felt a prompting to post it by itself, but chose to continue working on the dreams and their interpretations. Now that I have finished them, I find myself receiving that familiar prompting again. Therefore, I have formatted those scriptures here, for unto God belong all greatness, power, glory, victory and majesty. He alone IS God, and there is none other.

I would like to once again glorify Holy Spirit. He has been such a tremendous comfort, inspiration and help in so many, many ways that it would be totally impossible for me to serve and glorify Father God and Lord Jesus without Him. I would like share a book with the reader on Holy Spirit. Its title is "THE SPIRIT HIMSELF"* by Ralph M. Riggs. My copy was published in 1949 by Gospel Publishing House, Springfield, MO, 65802. Hopefully it is still in circulation as it is a wealth of teaching and information on the Person of Holy Spirit. I do not know if it is still being published, but I am enthusiastic in encouraging every Born Again Christian to seek after Holy Spirit in his/her daily walk. Once you begin to walk in the Spirit you'll never be the same again in your spiritual walk and service to God.

I Am Moving You On Shirley Lise

Prophecyfortoday@sgci.com
January 11, 2005

Restore relationships, I will restore what has been lost and broken. I will repair the breech and restore unto you everything that has been under siege by the enemy.

Evangelize. Bring in a great catch. I am throwing the nets out to sea, sending out those whom I would use in the least likely places.

You ask about the marketplace, about the community, the highways and byways. You ask about the plan that I would use. Can you see that I have earmarked you, strategically placed you to be a light and a conduit of My blessing? You will see more. You will see how I transfer skills from one to another, how I rearrange things so that you function in full tilt according to My purpose and good pleasure.

You will see what I have in store for you, how I am building you, progressing, moving things forward in your favor and on your behalf. You will watch Me take you to new heights, remove those things that are an offense, and create an atmosphere of love and camaraderie. No, I have not left you on the wayside, away from all the action. I am adjusting things to suit your needs, to glean those things of importance.

I am moving you on, onto higher ground in My Spirit, into greater authority. I am transferring wealth into your hands. I will remove the obstacles, and lay a firm foundation. You will see Me build upon it. You will not be tossed to and fro, but will firmly be placed on track.

Treasure untold is being released to you, joy unspeakable, great grace, health, and strength. I will pour out My blessing in your midst. Your children shall be healed, set free. I will bring you into the full realm of My blessing.

Change direction. Move out into areas of expertise opening up to you. Do not feel obligated to stay in a setting that is not conducive to your maturation, for I am leading you out and training you in areas of expertise you are unfamiliar with. I ask you to spread your wings, expand your area of expertise. I will teach you, train you, instruct you in those things you need to glean in order to move on and into all that I have for you.

Yes, I have provided a place for you in the marketplace. You will come out of hiding and begin to move in circles of influence. I have opened the doors and ushered you in and I will carry you on to take more territory. Watch to see Me shift things in your favor. I will lift you up and put you into a position of authority. I will march you on to take ground and I will make My mark in the industry.

This is the day, My Beloved, when I shall come in like a flood to raise up a standard in the work place. I am training and equipping My soldiers, warriors of the cross, to demonstrate My will. I am teaching you "the ropes," the way things are done, so you will be fully-equipped with proper instruction in these areas of expertise.

So arise, and meet the challenge head on, for I have destined you to oversee many and to walk with kingdom authority in the marketplace.

Rise Up!

Recognize opportunity when it comes your way. Be expectant. No longer will the pathway be mundane. I will liven it up with perks along the way. I will open doors that lead to liberty in My Spirit, so go forth undaunted.

Today is the day of liberty, of movement out of the familiar and into the new, so be prepared to move forward with great ease. Greater things are in store for you, greater adventure. Be faithful in little and I will move you on into an abundance.

This is the day when I shall move in like a flood to bring things into alignment. Run with the mandate to usher My presence into the marketplace. Run with the call to evangelize the lost. Walk with integrity and you will see results, fruit of your labor. I will esteem you, give you endurance through the storm. Details of ministry will unfold. As you are faithful in little, you will see the increase, for I will move you on and into the full counsel of the Lord and you shall demonstrate My love to those in need of a touch from God. Believe and you will see the fruit of what I have planted in you.

Dance with Me. Be free to run and dance, to rejoice in your king. Holy, holy, holy. Favor is coming to you. Favor will rest upon you. My favor will pave the way for you to move onward into areas of ministry opening up to you. Go with the flow. Go in the direction opening up. Go forward with the torch held high. Be an instrument in My hands. Demonstrate My goodness. Be a light in a dark place. Be a light shining forth My glory. Trust Me to move you on and into the full revelation of Jesus Christ, the full gospel, the message of hope to those who are struggling. Bring glory to My name. Be My vessel of peace. Bridge the gap between young and old and fulfill the purpose and calling upon your life.

Sing for joy all the Earth! Make known the mysteries of your God. Rejoice, for all creation will rise up. Rise up, My love, rise up and sing! Rejoice in your king. I will turn your mourning into dancing. I will turn the course of events in your favor, so rejoice and do not be downhearted. Great grace is upon you to accomplish all I have entrusted to you.

I Choose To Use The Foolish Things To Shame The Wise
Prophecyfortoday@sgci.com
January 9, 2005

Grasp onto the truth revealed to you today. Take hold of the word of the Lord and let it become a part of your being, for I choose to use the foolish things of the world to shame the wise.

I choose to use the base things to accomplish great feats for My kingdom, so do not shy away. Do not say these things are beyond you and are for someone else. Do not overlook the obvious, that it is nothing of yourself, not by your might or power, but by My Spirit that I will accomplish these things through you.

So go with the flow. Flow into every area of activity opening up to you. I will open doors that had been closed. I will unlock and unlatch those doors that have been shut tight. I will demonstrate My love to you and through you in multiple areas of expertise.

Watch Me take a vessel of no renown and display My handiwork through it. Do not fret and do not worry, and do not say that it is impossible, for I choose to cause it to come to pass, and it shall come to pass according to My plan and purpose.

Why would I choose a vessel of great reputation to perform My wonders? How would it be clear that it is nothing of the flesh man except that I use the least expected one to fulfill My purpose. Clearly I will demonstrate to you that it is not a flesh work that I would perform, but a work of My Spirit through a willing vessel.

I Am The Change

Susan Cummings

I AM the Change.

I AM the Opposition.

I AM the Answer.

I AM the Change, and it comes forth from My Plan for you. I told you that I was coming forth and shaking all things. Everything is going to change, including you. Nothing is going to be left that is not affected by My dealings and administration of this change.

Everything will be removed from it's place. Nothing will stay in it's foundation or base, as all things are under My scrutiny and My hand. Every work will be made manifest, and seen for that which it was laid and for it's fruit. For I AM bringing into the Light of My Truth everything that is made or wrought that it might clearly be seen, and dealt with. Nothing will remain that is not submitted to Me, given over to Me, or birthed forth from Me, in My House or amongst My People.

There will be no more mixture, or compromise amongst those who name My Name. For all that is Mine will be Mine, and not be allowed to reflect anything but Me. I AM the Reflection and Glory of My People. I will be seen as the Lord of My House.

I AM the Opposition that will accomplish this. I will oppose all that resist Me, those who refuse Me, and those that reject My Truth. For My Word will be the Standard amongst My Own again. There will be nothing that is lifted up again, except My Glory over them.

Whatever is not given to Me will bring opposition to those who refuse Me. For that which is kept will be the idolatrous thing that defiles and destroys. I will have nothing between Me and My People. That which comes between Me and them, is an idol and will be torn down. No more will I allow hidden things to be buried anymore.

I have repeatedly told you that what you do not deal with, let go of, or repent of and allow to be changed, will over take you, consume you and destroy you in the end. The old strongholds must be dealt with and destroyed to walk in freedom and to enter in to what I AM now doing. Do not fear this time, but see what I AM doing, and yield to it.

I AM confronting all things, exposing all things, and breaking forth in every place. Everything will be disclosed and all men will be brought to a decision. This is the Hour of decision and of opportunity, and then action.

I AM the answer. There is nothing that can be seen that I AM not seen in, or through. There is nothing that is made that is not made by My Hand, nor thought of that did not originate from Me. For I AM the Source of all Truth and Wisdom. I created all things, and will finish it all, as My Purposes continue to unfold.

Man and the devil has for too long undermined My Truth, for their selfish gain and greed, and have counterfeited My Creation, and Glory, and have tried to make it their own, but nothing escapes Me.

I use all things for My Purposes, and even their dead works will bring Me Glory in the days to come. For there is no life apart from Me. Though they will attempt to make life come forth from the defiled thing, it will be known that I alone am God.

I have told you that I am bringing change. That is so. The old is passing away. Even the created heavens will change. For I AM working a work in the earth and in the heavens that men will not believe, but for the elect's sake, I will be seen, and it will all be disclosed, and I am now bringing it forth. What was veiled will now be revealed.

I have told you that I AM the Opposition, and that is also so. Everything that comes, does so through My Hand and permission, and by My Knowledge. So it shall be, and it will be a strong force against all who resist Me, but it will also propel those who embrace Me. For to one, I will crush under My Weight of Glory that passes by, and to the other, I will lift up and carry them upon My Glory.

My Presence will be the answer to both. It is their decision and choices that make their course for them to follow. One to destruction, one to slaughter, one to famine, one to the sword, another to Life.

I AM the Answer.

All things are held by My Word, and will be judged by it.

For it has already begun, but will break forth in a greater way now, as the destroyer is moving and passing through the earth. I have warned and called but most did not truly believe I would really allow it, or think the warning was meant for them. Most do not look at their own lives and check their selves, but only judge others.

But every heart will yield it's fruit.

For the Change, gives place to the Opposition, which brings forth the Answer.

Death or Life.

I Am Taking My Rightful Place Among The Nations

Shirley Lise

February 7, 2005
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy. They shall gain ground, for I am coming in vengeance against those who have held them back, against those who have caused them to stumble. I am erecting a monument to signify the end of an era and the beginning of a new day when life and liberty shall be extended to the captives.

This is a day of war, for I have declared war upon the nations and I will wield My sword unrestrainedly to cut down and to cut off entanglements with the world and I will uproot and I will tear down according to My good pleasure. I am come to make war against those who oppose Me.

I have heightened awareness of My presence. What you sense is Me. I have come to subdue the Earth, to bring everything under My feet. Tremble and be afraid, for the glory of the Lord is upon you and you shall walk with integrity, no longer giving in to the desires of the flesh, but being led by My Spirit, for I have released My Spirit into the Earth in an unprecedented way.

Trust in the Lord God with all your heart and do not be concerned about the affairs of men. I am well-able to cause a rapid increase in those things promised. I am able to deliver, and deliver I will, for I shall oppose those things that have kept back the inheritance. I shall break through in ways totally unexpected to bring forth the promises made to this generation, that I am raising up a people after My own heart, Davids who love Me and follow My lead.

This is the day of fulfillment for every promise, from the smallest to the greatest, and I shall execute My will unopposed, so widen your boundaries and extend your tent pegs. I am giving you more territory, more influence, more credibility. I am thrusting you out of the comfort zone and moving you into circles and positions of authority. You shall call down the high places and raise up the low. You shall raise up a banner of peace and love, of joy and salvation.

Hearken to My voice. Hear the voice of the Lord. Listen to the small still voice and do not disregard it, for I am raising up a mighty army of warriors in this day who will do battle in the land, taking back all that belongs to them. Their children shall come out of oppression and depression and be brought to streams of living water to be refreshed.

Ask and it will be given. Seek and you shall find. Knock and the door shall be opened, for I am opening doors of opportunity at an unprecedented rate. I am pulling down strongholds across the land and sending in My battalions to completely annihilate the enemy. Just as David slew Goliath, so shall My army slay the giants in the land. So do not marvel when you begin to see kingdoms fall, for I am taking My rightful place among the nations.

I Am Well Pleased

December 18, 2005

The cool breeze blew against my face as I looked down from the ladder I was standing on, high above the people on the earth below me and the voice said, "Step up", but I answered, "There IS no other step, how can I do this?" and he said;

"I am with you, take hold of the section you see and stand on it and I will sustain you" and so I did, and amazingly I did not fall but stood there defying all odds of practicality and everyone was amazed!

A few below me carefully were trying to get where I was. One dear lady I even knew made it all the way to the last step and then, as she attempted to step up to where I was, lost her grip and fell, and as she fell helplessly I could see her face closeup and her last words were:" Oh My God!"...
I felt so sad about it, and also perplexed as to why, just 'why?'

As I awoke I saw and felt the importance of staying exactly in his perfect will.
To only do what he says, and no more, no less or I could end up like that dear lady, falling, helplessly realising too late, I should not have done even one thing of my own decision, but should have asked his council of, and I felt blessed that he showed me, and taught me, and rededicated my own life, all over again..
and then he whispered;

"I am well pleased" and I felt warm and closed back my eyes, and knew I was safe.

I love you,

I stood there, the air was electric, people all around, amazed by something that was bigger than life itself, as if some Egyptian beat was heard.
Everyone was in this space, starring at me, and then, I stepped out, raised my hand, and spoke, as his words came out-

"Feel Me as I come into your presence. Look not at those around you, but look within yourselves, and rejoice at me in you, for I live in you, and you in I. Touch My hem- let Me fill with My virtue. Smell my fragrance as it permeates your entire being.. Come up with Me to the higher ground.

Give Me your mind, Give Me your will, Give Me your life, and I shall make electric the energy where ever you go. They shall feel My Great light within you and around you, and you shall be called Royal, Holy, but yet touchable...

A Royal Diadem I place upon your head, as I seal thee; MINE.....
A Signet Ring I place upon your finger, to use as I give you the power NOW...
A Golden Anklet I place upon your Ankle so there is no question you shall dominate everywhere you WALK...
And My Glory and Dignity I place within and around you as My blessings- My PRESENCE GO WITH YOU NOW...FOR I AM YOU, AND YOU ARE I."

I love you,

Breath With Me
Susan E. Waldrop

November 19, 2005

My Dear Darling,

Behold....
Relax, let all the tension go from every part of your being, and behold ME.

Enter into My rest. Enter into MY place of TOTAL SERENITY.
Come with Me, Move with Me, BE WITH ME.
Many seek what you have found. Many look their whole lives for what you experience daily with Me, for they have not reached that place of 'oneness' that you breath in.
They do not understand your kind. They say you are 'strange'..
'unnatural' you 'dream' too much.... you are 'uncomprehendable' to their human mind.
This is their first problem, they are moving by their earthly mind and not opening themselves up to "ME"..

Though death is all around the world now, they still run as sheep without a shepherd, wolves without a heart, or an ocean without foam.
They do not know the glory of My presence, but instead run after 'things'. Things that will never satisfy the real hunger that is inside.
Things that bind them and stop them, from the simplicity that is ME.

Blessed art thou, my dear one, for thou has laid thy life down, a living sacrifice, for MY use, MY glory, MY discernment as to the path I have for thee. A path of love, joy, peace, fulfillment of everything you have ever hungered for, and desired of.

COME, and BE WITH ME NOW, let Me speak MY PERFECT WILL to thee, let go of EVERYTHING AND EVERYONE.. this day, for great is the hour, and great is My plans for thy life, I will not let you fall........COME, and... ' BREATH WITH ME' .

I love you,

I Am Your Security Blanket

Judy Bauman

rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

Recently, I was returning from a wonderful conference in CT. On the flight home a child sitting two or three seats in front of me was really upset and crying. I felt I was to press in and pray for him. He cried out in a loud voice, “I want my blankey!” When he said this I heard:

“As a child cries because he is afraid of being in the unfamiliar surroundings of a plane, and agitation sets the stage for an uncomfortable ride, he reaches for what he knows. He reaches for something that makes him secure when the lights are out and he’s all alone.”

“He cries for his mother to give him a blanket. Not just any blanket – HIS BLANKEY!”

“I Am your Security Blanket,” says the Lord your God. “Reach for me in times of distress and I will wrap My warmth around you. I will wrap My love securely around you and you need not fear.”

“Hard times come and hard times go, but I remain the same yesterday, today and forever. Remember My servant’s word in Psalm 91 and abide in Me and you will be secure.”

I Choose This Day!

Angel Dahilig

When the enemy uses his weapons of doubt, discouragement, and fear, condemning me as a failure and unworthy, then I will pick up "The Sword",
God's Word and promises,
and counter Satan's lies with God's truth.
For no weapon (of condemnation, doubt, or fear) formed against me shall prosper!

Although, the enemy attacks me one way,
I will scatter him seven ways, using God's Sword.
I will stand and defend my ground through "The Word".

Though he advance against me,
I will push him back,
as I stand covered by the shield of faith,
and my head is covered by my God,
who is my Salvation.

I will, little by little,
take "the promised land",
because I believe God's Word and His promises to me, and I will guard my heart and mind,
and stand covered by the armour of God.

I confess with my words, and in my thoughts and heart
the truths of God,
knowing that He is faithful to perform that which He has spoken.

I stand firm, and waver not,
though the enemy sends doubts and discouragement, obstacles, and lies.

I choose, this day,
to fight the good fight of faith,
to be at peace and confident knowing that my God will provide for all of my needs, and that He will never leave me nor forsake me.

He is my Defense and my Deliverer;
He is my Rock and my Fortress;
He is my Strength and my Shield.

I lay hold of God's promises;
I walk by faith.
I have picked up my Sword, and with the help of my God,
I WILL TAKE THE LAND.

O', children of Israel,
I call upon you to
"Choose this day who you will serve!"

Will you choose blessings or cursing, life or death?

Choose today to believe God's Word!

Deuteronomy 30:19-20 (NLT)
Today I have given you the choice between life and death between blessings and curses.
I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make.
Oh, that you would choose life, that you and your descendants might live!
Choose to love the LORD your God and to obey him and commit yourself to him, for he is your life.
Then you will live long in the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors
Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

I Do Not Operate Like You Operate

Cindy Jacobs

My children, I do not work in the seen realm. I do not work in the realm that you see. I do not operate like you operate, for I work in the unseen realm. I am doing things for you in the unseen realm that you do not understand. For the enemy would say to you that I am not working for your good and that I do not have a plan for your life. In fact, the Lord began to show me a vision of this maze and He showed me that some of you feel like you are in a maze; that you can´t get where you need to go. I saw you going along and you thought, This is it. This is the breakthrough, and you just ran into a wall.

So, you said, No, no, no! It has to be to the right, so you went to the right and you went up there and you were going and going and you really felt like you were getting somewhere, but you ran into another wall. And not only that, but I saw the demonic realm all around the outside of the maze and there were loud screams and gnashing of teeth and this was all designed to cause you anxiety. And the Lord began to show in the unseen realm that whether you knew it or not, there were angelic beings that have been sent to you to begin to show you how to go. And the Lord would say in this year, I am going to show you the path to take for there is a great battle in the heavenlies over your personal destiny and there is a great battle in the heavenlies over the church´s destiny. For the enemy is very angry at this church and the members of this church, for you have stood for the soul of the nation.

So, the Lord would say…

My Children, I know that you feel ragged. I know that you feel beat up and I know that you have gone through difficult days. For the enemy is coming against your soul, but I would say, Children, I don´t want you to think that what you see at this moment is reality because there is a greater reality and the I AM that I AM says I AM the greater reality than what you can see and what you know. For I am going to reveal to you a strategy, says the Lord. I am going to show you what you should do because you do not know what you should do and you do not know how to proceed from here. And the Lord showed me it was as if the people of this church and even the Christians of this nation have pushed and pushed and it is even like postpartum depression. After you have had a baby, then there comes this time where you women can feel really depressed. And the Lord would say to you, Surely the baby has been born! Surely you have done well. Well done, good and faithful servants! And do you not think that I am a debtor to you? Do not think that I will not return for the times of fastings and prayer that you have given to a nation!

Even now, says the Lord, There are answers coming your way. They are beginning to come down upon your head and upon your family for your children, for your finances and for those dreams that you set aside to dream My dreams, says the Lord. So the Lord says, Look up when you are in that maze, and you will begin to see that I AM going to put My hand down and I AM going to lift you out of that maze and you are going to know what to do and you are going to know where to go and you are going to have the answers. I would say, Trust in Me with all your heart, and don´t lean to your own understanding, for I will give you the strategy. I will give you the plan and I will give you the way and you are going to be more than conquerors through Christ Jesus. And, you are going to get where you need to go and your family is going to do what it needs to do and this church will have the victory! Says the Lord.

Identifying Sonship
Clay Sikes

Apr 5, 2005

The Sons of God continue to arise in the earth today as 'the true' continues to separate from 'the false.' Those who yearn for truth find it increasingly difficult to be in the presence of anything false, as the level of tolerance for such decreases daily. Equally so, those steeped in religion and its deception, or the spirit of anti-Christ, find themselves at odds with those who proclaim to live by the leading of the Spirit (every word that proceeds from the mouth of God). Think it not a strange thing that this is happening, but recognize the times in which we are now living. Recognize where you fit (who you are spiritually joined to, and where you are physically called) during this critical hour. 2005 is a year of positioning for what will happen beyond this calendar year. This is not a time for hesitation if indeed you have heard God. To be out of position at the end of this year will be costly.

God is in the process of establishing "a Church without spot or wrinkle." Many will be shocked to find that this temple is not the physical, social, or denominational edifice now claiming to be the Church. The true Church is made up of living stones, whose leading is the Spirit of God, whose sole purpose is His Glory. The true Church will usher in the next great move of God; and this move will be accurately called "The Kingdom of God." "The whole creation is groaning for the manifestation of the Sons of God, as God's Kingdom is forcefully advancing, and violent men (yielded vessels) are taking it by force."

The Kingdom of God is emerging in the earth, not as a descending Kingdom but as an ascending one, as the Sons of God birth the Kingdom on earth by simply 'hearing and obeying.' Even now, the Kingdom confronts the World's System with devastating effects. Every thing that can be shaken is being shakened, as the fire of God separates the works of men from the works of God.

God is calling Sons, those who have learned that of themselves they can do nothing; those who have learned to only move by a proceeding word from the Father; those who have experienced the Kingdom through much tribulation; those who have abandoned the arena of logic and reason, consequently finding purpose and destiny in hearing and obeying God.

True Sons have come to realize that no man can have faith for what he has not heard the Father say (to him specifically). True Sons know that faith can only come from having heard God personally, who know that the logos confirms what God's Spirit speaks. True Sons are moving in discernment, trusting the God (in them) and not themselves. True Sons are leaders who are not deterred by men or circumstances, having advanced to a point in which their very lives have become less important than Glorifying the God they serve. True Sons have made the great exchange - their life for His.

True Sons do not fall for the tricks of the anti-Christ spirit so prevalent in the earth today; a spirit so deceptive that the very elect would be deceived were it possible. True Sons can see a false prophet (and his bondage), while others buy into his lies, manipulation, and self-serving purposes. True Sons recognize that those who have overcome have done so by the blood of the lamb and the words of their testimony. True Sons recognize that one's testimony (his life) and his words MUST ALIGN to effectively minister truth; that no man can take you where he has never been. True Sons recognize that truth is not revelation until it is walked out in their own lives. True Sons do not seek a name or recognition in titles and accolades, but find their peace in the God in them and whatever lot in life He ascribes for them.

True Sons never strive, but know the meaning of entering into His rest. True Sons are not lazy but live a disciplined life spiritually, physically, and mentally. True Sons recognize that Holiness is internal, not external. True Sons exhibit the character of God and arrive at a maturity level of Sonship based upon years of yieldedness. True Sons will not compromise.

As Sons increase in the earth, the Kingdom will become evident as those in obscurity are brought forth. Birthing Sons is the mantra of present day Kindgom walkers. The Army of God is making strategy for victory as those 'called' Sons begin to connect with those with whom the Father of all creation has joined them to. Think it not a strange thing! Yield to the urges God has placed within you without fear of rejection, history, personality, socio-economic issues, etc., 2005 is a year of positioning!

I Flow From My Mercy

Jane Hansen

"If you really believed that everything I do, and everything I am flows from My mercy, then you could always worship!"

It has been a time of such great devastation for our nation. Our hearts break for those whose lives have been touched by Hurricane Katrina. When things are so dark and difficult, and questions arise in our hearts, there seems to come an immediate response from within: "Who can I blame? Who is responsible for this?" We especially wonder, "Why would God allow such a thing?"

Worshipping Amidst Devastation

After praying for a long time for a particular situation within my family, the bottom fell out in a way that has impacted several lives, including my own in such a personal and real way. .As I sat listening to... worship music one evening, I found myself wondering how it is possible to deeply and genuinely worship with a sense of joy, in the midst of such devastation and unanswered questions to prayers that have been diligently prayed for years.

I heard these words: "If you really believed that everything I do, and everything I am, flows from My mercy, then you could always worship--no matter what you see, no matter what you feel. You would know that I am always working for the ultimate good and that nothing escapes My heart of mercy. The Mercy Seat was the very symbol of My throne. Everything is based in My mercy. It is who I am. I cannot be otherwise. I am pure mercy."

"He who trusts in the Lord, MERCY shall surround him." --Psalm 32:10

In the midst of the devastation, whether it be personal or national, we can worship Him from the depths of our hearts, knowing that even when things appear to be judgment, mercy is behind it all.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me ALL the days of my life" --Psalm 23:6

This is the heart of God for all mankind: that they would come to know Him in this way.

If My People

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

www.etpv.org
January 2009

> 2 Chronicles 7:14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

We have heard this verse quoted time and time again. It is appears on banners. It forms the lyrics of songs. Ministries us it as their motto. We know of places scattered about the planet where it has actually been fulfilled on a small scale. But this promise, great and wonderful as it is, remains generally unfulfilled. And why not should be plain enough, we have not met the conditions God has set forth for this to happen.

Using The Whole Counsel Of God.

There is a way some speakers or writers play around with misquoting the bible to get people's attention or to make a strong point. It works like this. You take a familiar verse from scripture and change is a little to mean something different. Then you ask: Is That what the Bible says? NO! Then you take and quote it correctly.

Here are a couple examples:

> James 4:7 Submit yourselves under your pastor's covering. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Is That what the Bible says? NO! Here is what it says:

> James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Or try this one.

> Ephesians 4:11-12
> 11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
> 12 to do the work of the ministry

Is That what the Bible says? NO! Here is what it says:

> Ephesians 4:11-12
> 11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
> 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

Here's another:

> Matthew 16:17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for thou hast employed the time tested literal method of interpretation.

Is That what the Bible says? NO! Here is what it says:

> Matthew 16:17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for > flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

One more example:

> Galatians 5:18 But if ye be a faithful church member, ye are not under the law.

Is That what the Bible says? NO! Here is what it says:

> Galatians 5:18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

Now try this one:

> 2 Chronicles 7:14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray for Obama, then I will change his heart, and things will go back to normal.

Is That what the Bible says? NO! Here is what it says:

> 2 Chronicles 7:14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

Now we are going down a side trail, that will lead us back to the theme, If My People.

Here is a short excerpt from a excellent article from Hannah Weiss.

> G-d's Ultimate War Objective
> Hannah Weiss
> G-d's War on the Israel-America "friendship"
>
> What I saw [in a vision] was a big piece of cloth, which was a kind of map. The western half was the United States, the eastern half was Israel. There was a rip beginning at the top, and the two halves were coming apart. There were no hands visible - it was G-d who was ripping them apart. But on both sides of the map were tiny people running back and forth, trying to stop the ripping. It was a slow process, but they could no more stop it than ants could stop one of us from tearing a napkin.
> The Lord then said, "I am tearing Israel away from America. The US is moving away from Me into darkness, and I will NOT let her take Israel, My inheritance, along with her. Israel is staying here with Me." He said it in a tone of jealousy and possessiveness. He then said that the horrible string of terror attacks was a necessary part of the tearing process: America would not lift a finger to stop them; eventually Israel would see the falseness of such an "ally" and would stop fighting His plan to separate them.

Fullness of Iniquity

The Fullness of Iniquity is a concept relating to God's judgments being held back, for he is slow to anger. But there comes a point where the sins of a people reach a fullness or tipping point; a point of no return. When this is reached, judgment falls. Here are a couple clues to this idea.

> Genesis 15:16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.
> Matthew 23:32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

There are three major issues in which America, and others have been walking a thin line, just short of the full measure of iniquity that it would take to bring down God's severe judgments. They are abortion, homosexuality, and support of Israel. In Hannah's word the Lord is saying the US is moving away from Me into darkness. I believe this is to say that the US and others, are about to step over the line and fill the cup of her sins. And this will be on all three major issues in very short order.

[This is the darkness spoken of in Isaiah 60. But when this darkness takes hold, his glory shall rest on his people.

> Isaiah 60:2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.]

A Look At The Long View

I believe there are two long range goals God has in mind for gentile nations before his final dealings with Israel.
First, for America and anyone else with the desire and ability to help Israel. Their power must be reduced to the point where they are simply unable to give Israel any support at all. This is a fixed minimum amount.
Second, for America and any other nation with a covenant relationship to the Lord. They must be judged and shaken to the point of repentance; the point where the promise of 2 Chronicles 7:14 comes to pass. Then the Lord will heal that land and fight against their enemies. This is a variable amount. It depends on the prayers of the saints.

After This Manner Therefore Pray

Here is a short word from Glenn Jackson. I see it as another way of expressing a great truth from the word. Whatever is not of faith is sin.

> Romans 14:23 … whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

> "Everything" in My Kingdom [relationships - beginning with one's relationship with Me, positioning and, indeed, ALL things said and done] must be built on the foundation [rock] of revelation knowledge [Matthew 7:21-27]. For to approach ANY situation or circumstance in one's own understanding [the mind of the flesh] instead of in the mind of Christ [1 Corinthians 2:16] surely means that one is unrighteously motivated and, thus, ALL that they say and do [regardless of how "good" it may appear or sound] is apart from Christ [John 15:5].

The Cry For Mercy Must Come First

Recently I have written a couple things about praying for Obama. There I came against legalistic prayers, and hypocritical prayers. These kinds of prayers are ‘not of faith’ others are. I still maintain that the cry for mercy needs to be louder than the cry for change.

Since then we have posted at least three major articles detailing how to pray, including praying for Obama. Like a shopping list, you add things to it as you go along.

Now if someone has a specific word or direction from the Lord to pray that way, then that is their assignment. If you take up someone else’s assignment and imitate their prayers, it’s not of faith. If you have a divine leading to pray in some other vein, then that is your assignment.

If you have no leading whatever on now to pray, pray in the spirit or enter into worship. Besides that the bible does give us a guideline on how to pray and what should take priority. [Priority and prioritize are words relating to what should come first, or what should come before something else.]

Now let’s take a look at how Jesus taught his followers to pray.

> Matthew 6:9-13
> 9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
> 10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
> 11 Give us this day our daily bread.
> 12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
> 13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Here it’s pretty plain that “forgive us our debts” i.e. cry for mercy, should come before praying for Obama “deliver us from evil”. What we need today are apostolic leaders who will pray this way after the examples in Ezra 9, Daniel 9, and Nehemiah 1.

> Nehemiah 1:6-9
> 6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee*: both I and my father's house have sinned.*
> 7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.
> 8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:
> 9 But if ye turn unto me*, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.*

Also see 1 John.

> 1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins*, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.*
> Joel 2:12-13
> 12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:
> 13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

If You Divide My Land

David Paul Heimbold

A Word of the Lord to President Bush & His Administration:

"If you divide My land (Jerusalem), I will divide your Nation (The United States).

"Not only will your land be divided, but you will be invaded from the North, South, East and West. There will be rebellion everywhere. Smoke will go up from your cities. Anguish and crying will fill your Land and you, President Bush, will be ashamed. You say you believe in Me, but you do not listen to my prophet, Zechariah, ' for he that touches you (Zion) sticks his finger in the My eye!' And, have you not read the prophet, Ezekiel, " Behold I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen...and will gather them...and bring them into their own land (Israel)...And I will make them ONE nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel...and Neither shall they be DIVIDED into TWO nations any more, at all..." By what you measure, you will be measured; by what you meet out, you will get in return; by what you sow, you shall surely reap.

"Your vision for two Nations living in harmony, side by side, is not My plan. For I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob who took Israel out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. I AM the God of Freedom and you dare to pollute my land with a people who have kept my people, Israel, in bondage for thousands of years! Do not break your teeth in fighting Me. Repent and get off your 'road' to destruction and I will repent of my just judgment and spare your Nation. Selah!"

What spirit has deceived Ariel Sharon, President Bush, Condoleezza Rice and turned the Western World over to that old serpent, the devil?

Is it the same spirit that had the British, during the 1940's, turn back European Jewish immigrants to Israel, who had escaped Hitler's death camps?

What happen to the British Empire after it DIVIDED the Jewish Homeland, giving 75% of the land designated by the League of Nations and its own British Mandate via the Balfour Agreement of 1917, to Abdullah, brother of former King Feisal, of Iraq?

The British empire was DIVIDED. You see, there is a divine principle here, stare desisis; 'You divide My land, I'll divide your land'.

History has shown that "land for peace' hasn't worked in Israel.

There is already a Palestinian State; it is called Jordan. It has been around since 1946!

So, why the call for 'another' Palestinian State?

This is a shell game, a con job and President Bush and Condoleezza Rice are being played like a fiddle. They are babes in the woods. The wolves are the Muslim propagandists and their accompanists, our leftist Press who paints little Israel as the aggressor against the gigantic, monolithic Arab world that surrounds her and wants to destroy her.

Ariel Sharon, the Prime Minister of Israel, has completely reversed his Zionist stand and is forcibly removing Jewish 'settlers' from their own homes in 'occupied lands' to appease President George Bush and his 'Road Map' to peace.

George W. Bush announced to the world in May 2005 that negotiations with the ' Palestinians' (which ones?) would begin with the 1949 borders of Israel; this was back when Jerusalem was DIVIDED. Today, after the 1967 war, when six Arab nations attacked Israel and lost, Jerusalem is UN-DIVIDED.

So, our President wants to DIVIDE Jerusalem, again! (Doesn't anyone ever learn not to cross the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob?)

So, the Lord is reminding us AGAIN not to DIVIDE Jerusalem or the United States of America will be DIVIDED.

One doesn't have to be a prophet to understand this warning!

And what is the spirit that is deceiving the nations? It is the anti-Christ spirit.

Jesus is Jewish! He had a Jewish mother!

Speaking of Jewish mothers, it is the women of Israel who are the only ones standing up to Sharon and his 'disengagement' plan. Jewish mothers and their children have made an Alamo stand at the Palm Beach Motel (in Gush Katif, Israel) but were bodily removed and manhandled by the storm troop, Israel police, on July 6, 2005!! Hard to believe but true. The Jewish police fighting against the mothers of Israel.

Nadia Matar, 75 year old Nazi death camp survivor, writes a chilling report, a prophetic call for help from Israel (you will not see what she reports in the liberal American Mass Media). Nadia Matar is a real prophetic voice, in the face of an evil dictatorship ruling present day Israel. See her article at womeningreen.org Spread the word. Our President Bush is on a collision course with the God of Israel!

The hatred of the Jews, by the Arabs and others, is the hatred of God because the Son of God, Jesus Christ is a Jew! "Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish..."Psalm 2:12.

Now, because the President of the United States and his Secretary of State, are heeding the advise of the anti-Semitic State Department and the pressure of the Oil producing Arab Nations, instead of the Word of God, one can understand that we are about to be judged, DIVIDED and punished severely.

Warn the President. Sound the alarm! Blow the horn in Zion before it is too late!

I've Got To Get Some Things Off My Chest

Greg Austin!

Don't Read This

I warned you - I asked you NOT to read this, but here you are anyway . . . . Consider yourself warned!

I've gotta say something. It's going to make some good, Emerging Church folks mad and it's going to offend "Ex-Church" friends alike. Some "Institutional Church" people won't like what I'm going to say any better. What I need to say is going to be extremely controversial, and knowing I'm going to stir folks up, I'm going to speak out anyway.

Get mad at me if you must; argue with me if you need to; correct me if I'm wrong, but I've got to speak my mind regardless of the danger of anger, disagreement, misunderstanding or correction.

So here goes . . . .

I'm as "Post-Institutional-Church" as anybody I've met or read about. The organizational system of Christian Religion makes my spirit grieve. I'm all about a "Third Reformation" in the church. I live, eat, sleep and breathe "Emerging Church." Those who know me know that's an understatement.

I'm also a "veteran" (maybe more accurately, a "survivor") of the Institutional Church. I was born into a strict religious home. My mother was Choir Director and my dad was Church Treasurer in the old Evangelical United Brethren Church. Later, our church would become part of the United Methodist Church. When the churches merged, my folks left. They felt that the church had become too liberal, too soft, and too generic. The strongest memories of my childhood center on Sunday School and Sunday Worship and Catechism Classes.

My parents were close friends with our Pastor, known to us all as "Pastor Pfaltzgraff." He was a good man – a really good man. His son, Phil and I were best friends, and on many Sundays Phil would beg his mom to ask our family over for Sunday Dinner. Many also were the Sundays Phil's mom would remind her boy of how little food the Pfalztgraff family had available, and Phil would always counter with, "I'll share my dinner with Greg" and he did.

After high school, I joined the U.S. Air Force. On Sundays during Basic Training I attended a different "flavor" of chapel services each week. I wasn't all that religious and I certainly wasn't spiritually-minded. I had two good reasons to attend chapel services: 1) I was a smoker in those days and the troops were allowed to smoke as we waited in line to enter the service. It was a good chance to get a smoke. 2) I was curious about the differences between the Catholics and the Baptists, the Methodists and the Lutherans and all the other "flavors" and nuances of Christianity available on our base.

Three years later, I met Jesus in a powerful and dramatic way. I was "born-again," filled with the Holy Spirit and delivered from a three and a half package a day tobacco habit all in the same day. From that first day as a believer, I began to share my faith and to pray with hurting people.

Within weeks after being saved, the Holy Spirit called me into full-time ministry. My energy for ministry was boundless. I spent early morning hours praying, and the rest of the day was lived in the miraculous exhibition of God's grace in others' lives.

Following my active military duty, I enrolled in Bible College. I was introduced to the basics – the fundamentals of Theology: The Study of God and of His relation to the world. We learned "Systematic Theology," starting before the beginning of time and moving through the progressive revelation of God to mankind. We were introduced to Exegetical theology, Historical theology, Dogmatic theology and biblical theology.

We studied Hamartiology (the doctrine of sin), Ecclesiology (the doctrine of the church), Eschatology (the doctrine of "last things), Pneumatology (the doctrine of the Holy Spirit), Christology (the doctrines of Christ), Angelology (the doctrine of Angels), Soteriology (the doctrine of Salvation), Anthropology (the doctrine of man).

We learned about Church History and Worship and the doctrine of Stewardship. We studied the origins of the church, the development of the Roman Catholic Church and of the birth of the Protestant Church. (In the process, I decided I am neither "Roman Catholic" nor "Protestant" – I'm just a Christian, a believer, a learner-follower of Jesus. The Church I belong to predates either the Catholic or the Protestant Church!).

We discovered the art and science of biblical hermeneutics which is the basis for the interpretation of all scripture. Understanding this discipline would prevent us from using God's Word out of context, or from committing the common error of beginning with a position and finding a verse or verses to support our presumption (something I have heard many, many preachers and Christians do over the years). One of the cardinal rules we learned was that "Scripture must interpret Scripture." Over the years I've heard my share of bizarre teachings that originated when someone used a "text without a context" which became a "pretext" (a red herring, in the vernacular).

We studied Hebrew and Greek language and culture. We learned about the Aramaic text and delved into the history and the essence of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

We learned about Allegories and Parables. We discovered the interrelation between Old and New Testaments; we studied biblical archaeology, Christological Exegesis, Prophecy and the Prophets, Symbols and Types and what is known as "The Fuller" or "Deeper Meaning" of Scripture. We learned about Typology. We were introduced to the Prophetic Law of Double Fulfillment. On and on the list goes, and it's not my purpose here to bore you with every subject covered in the four-year curriculum that culminates in the Bachelor of Theology degree. My reason for listing these disciplines is to make you aware of some of the process of following what in those days we knew as "The Call of God."

I know that there are those who will vigorously dispute the entire concept of an individual, personal "Call of God." To them I would simply suggest, read your Bible. God has called out men and women for His purposes over and over throughout history. These men and women were separated from the mainstream of humanity. They were separated to dedicate their full lives, purposes and energies to God, aside from the general "call" to every believer to "seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness" and to "forsake" the world and to take up our crosses and follow Him.

I received such a personal "call" in 1971. That "calling" has been confirmed, affirmed and established through many voices and with many "signs following" for thirty-four years. I know, there is a nit-picker reading this who will quickly cry, "But 'signs following' are for every believer!" I know that. I'm not talking about the general principle of "signs following" the believer here. I'm talking about "signs" in connection with a personal, individual calling and confirmation by the Spirit of God. (See Acts 2:43; 5:12; Ro 15:19; 2 Cor 12:12).

For twenty-five years after entering "the ministry" I gave 60, 80 and more hours per week to the endeavor of "ministry."

There are those who would argue against the kind of biblical education I mentioned above. To those I would simply ask, "Who then will let us know when we have believed in error? Who will show us the proper means of interpreting God's word if not those who understand the original languages, the contexts, the harmonies of God's word?"

Please don't point me to 1 John 2: I've already read it. I also know how to interpret it because I learned biblical hermeneutics and because the Holy Spirit within me helps me to understand His truth. I also know that historically, "anointed" and un-educated people have strayed from proper interpretations. Every generation of believers has been subject to mistakes, misunderstandings and erroneous teachings, including my own. Yes, the anointing in us teaches us, but that is not to say that we don't need to listen to people who have spent their lives studying God's word and have communicated wonderful truth to us. Men such as Adam Clarke, Matthew Henry, Darby and Gill, Nave and Spurgeon, the list goes on and on, have given their lives to enhance our understanding of God's word and we ought not suggest that since "we have the anointing, we don't need those men."

Would you say that the men who studied and gave themselves to learning the Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek languages were unimportant to the Body of Christ, since we all "have an anointing?" Who would have translated the words of John to us so that we could know we have an anointing if not for Bible scholars who gave us a Bible in our own language?

So don't suggest to me that erroneous beliefs don't occur – even in our contemporary, highly-educated world. I don't know how many spurious teachings and false doctrines I've come across – even among respected ministries! The Bible exhorts us to "study to show yourself approved by God." That study sometimes takes the form of formal, structured, systematic teaching. And it always has. There were "schools of the prophets" in the Old Testament. There were rabbinical schools in New Testament times. The Apostles gave "doctrine" to the church, and the church in turn "continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine . . ."

The original Apostles taught and discipled those who came into their ministries. A prime example is that of Timothy, student of Paul. Truths were communicated from one generation of believer to another. And then at some point, two diabolical events happened: First, a "clergy" developed which took the authority, power and rule of the church literally out of the hands of Christ, the true Head of the church. Simultaneously a "laity" was created that had no history or root within either sacred text or in Christian community and experience.

The role of "pastor," a gift given by God to the church to assist the church in the process of maturation and edification and protection was used by these "clergy" to accommodate their newly fashioned positions. Since then, the role of "pastor" has risen and fallen with the times. One generation of "pastor" was looked upon as a pawn, a pauper, a "thing" to be used by unscrupulous men to advance their agendas. The next generation of "pastor" was dictatorial, controlling and tyrannical. This see-saw of cause and effect continues today, and in the wake of this struggle lay the remains of broken, abused, injured, confused and bleeding Christian people who only wanted to find a church where Jesus and not a man or a committee truly is Lord.

We're currently living in an hour when the term "pastor" and the "office of pastor" or if you will, "the gift" of "pastor" (see Ephesians 4:11-16) is being attacked, derided, scoffed at, belittled and disbelieved. So much abuse is being heaped upon the title, and those associated with it, one almost wonders about the source, the motivation of those aiming their flaming missiles at pastors. The characteristics of God – of His glory – are mercy, grace, patience, goodness and truth – in that order. (That's another truth for another day, but trust me - or better, check me out - Read Exodus 34). As I have listened to various "emerging churchers" speak or write about the gift of "pastor" in the negative, there is so much venom spewing forth that I want to point out, call attention to and plead with those involved: "Please, for God's sake, Stop It!"

I know a great number of men and women who call themselves or who are called "pastor." Some of them are maladjusted, almost neurotic, dysfunctional and out-of-control people. Some are in "the business" because they like to be in control of other lives. Some are "on the take," seeking to make financial gain through their position. And guess what? God knows all about it! And God will deal with such unscrupulous and misguided individuals. But the greatest number of "pastors" are good, fine, sincere and wonderful people who have heard the voice of God directing them to serve His church. These are literally, "servants of God and of His people." Their hearts break over the broken; they shed tears over the wounded. They long to see healing come to broken families and to see their communities cleansed and purified and touched with the mercy and the grace of God.

Why else would some of the people I know work full time, secular jobs so that they might give themselves to the work of the ministry? Why would otherwise brilliant men and women serve the church at half or a quarter of the pay scale they could receive if they used their talents and abilities in secular employment? (Trust me, some of my friends would have made fine attorneys, physicians, engineers, architects, builders and more. Some of my friends were attorneys, physicians, engineers, architects, builders and more and gave away those positions for the honor of serving Jesus in His church with all their energies).

To paint "pastors" with the broad brush of judgment is doubly dangerous: First, God and not man is the judge of all. Second, may I shout this gently? "You don't know the hearts of these people!" I have learned to leave alone what I know nothing about.

I want to encourage you to examine the source, the origin of the gift, title, position, or role of "pastor." This gift did not originate with man; it began with God.

Has the title "pastor" been misunderstood, abused, twisted? Absolutely! Are there pastors who are little more than "hirelings" in "the church?" Without doubt! Are there abusive, dictatorial control-freaks wearing the label of "pastor?" Definitely! But just because there are crooked lawyers and medical quacks among us does not mean that all attorneys and all physicians are phonies!

Let it be understood, I am not a pastor. I filled that role from 1973 to 1998, that's 25 years of my life; a quarter century; more than a career in the military. (And by the way, unlike the military, there was no "pension" or "retirement" program and no monetary compensation for those years I spent "pastoring" churches. I live today by faith, trusting that if I "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" "all these things shall be added unto" "us."

During some of the years of "pastoral" ministry, my family "prayed in" our next meals. We have memories of rejoicing when a farmer stopped by and gave us a bushel basket of sweet corn. (We ate sweet corn and water for a couple of days before realizing this was a medical mistake!) We purchased our heating fuel from a church that overcharged us for that fuel while we shivered in a drafty parsonage that lacked insulation. When we left the church, I had to settle a debt with the church for fuel we had used trying to keep our babies warm in the frigid Midwest winters.

I've learned to chisel plow in the spring and to chase sheep and inoculate cattle and all sorts of wonderful pastoral skills in my journey of the past thirty-four years. (I've done these things and more, then had somebody on Sunday morning say to me, "pastor, if you had to really work for a living, you'd understand what we're going through . . . "

I've worked through long nights, cleaning offices and department stores while my wife worked a day job so we could pay for a car that our congregation felt was "appropriate" for their pastor to be seen in and so we could put food on the table and pay for hospital charges for delivering our babies since we couldn't afford medical insurance. And I could go on, but the stories are boring and the things we learned through those years serve us well today. We are the better for those times, and we're far from angry because of them.

We do know something of what it is to "sacrifice" for the honor of serving God's people. And before you yell at me with the accusation, "See! You were out of God's will or you wouldn't have had to suffer!" let me point you to Hebrews 11. Some other folks suffered IN the will of God before us and in greater dimensions than we know anything about.

I've also had the privilege of being known as "The Senior Pastor" of a modern-day "Mega-Church." My income was commensurate to the position, and long gone were the days of struggling to pay the phone bill and the light bill and to keep the water flowing.

Amazingly, we've learned both how to be abased and to abound. "Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need."

But I'm not a pastor today. I no longer wonder or worry about a paycheck from the church: I have no paycheck at all! Yet my "heavenly Father" feeds my family and in the moment I have need, God provides.

And I'm not comfortable with the current expression of "pastor" in the church any longer. (Actually, I don't ever recall being "comfortable" with that expression).

During my doctoral work I focused my attention on the role of the pastor in the local church. I conducted a cross-cultural examination of the modern, evangelical pastoral role, using research in various world regions, including Europe, Southeast and Southwest Asia, the Middle East, Latin and South America, the Pacific and North America. In examining these eight world regions, I discovered that much of what we consider to be "pastoral" roles and duties is actually the product of our particular culture and not the result of a biblical mandate. In about 1993 I began to vigorously pursue a more biblical understanding of the position or gifting of "pastor."

Today I minister mainly to people who have for one reason or another (and there are many) left the "organized" "institutional" church. I know hundreds, perhaps thousands of "out of church" Christians; I am in touch with folks from South Africa to New Zealand and Australia; from Indonesia and Malaysia to Thailand and Germany and England and Ireland and the South Pacific; from South America to North America and beyond - people who love Jesus with all their hearts, but who do not attend organized church services.

Some of these people aren't injured at all. They just sensed the Spirit's leading to walk away from organized church one day and haven't heard Him instruct them to return.

Others have been offended, injured, hurt, abused, controlled, devalued by a heartless "system" of church. Many of these have been given beautiful talents – gifts – that have been unrecognized and unused by the "ruling elite" in the church.

Some of these people brought the injuries on themselves – but they are all people for whom Jesus died, and I, for one will not abandon even one of these, regardless of who is to blame for their pain and suffering. I'm sorry, if you don't like the fact that I will run to the aid of someone who is to blame for their own hurt, you'll have to take the matter up with God. In fact, while you're at it, why don't you ask Him what He thinks of broken-hearted people who caused their own pain? (I'll help you – we ALL cause some of our own pain, and He keeps loving us, reaching to us, embracing us, welcoming us even running to us to bring us back into His arms of love).

I also spend a good deal of time with often-frustrated pastors who are seeking with all their hearts to hear God and to obey Him implicitly.

I guess I'm a bit like a bridge – made to be driven over. I seldom notice the Narrows Bridge that connects the Kitsap Peninsula of Washington State with the main body of the continent. I cross that bridge every week that I'm home. Yet when I am approaching the bridge, my only thoughts concern the amount of traffic trying to get across. I don't ever recall pausing to look at the bridge or to even be consciously thankful the bridge is there. It's just a means of getting me over the gulf of Puget Sound and onto dry ground on the other side.

And I think I'm a bit like that bridge – which suits me just fine.

Years ago, a guy named Jeff Lucas was visiting us from England. He had carried an almost silly-looking, wooden staff with him across the Atlantic. He told me of his embarrassment when flight attendants asked him what the staff was for, was he Moses or some biblical character come alive again? Yet Jeff felt the Lord had instructed him to bring the staff with him on his flight.

One night during a time of prayer at the altar of our church, Jeff suddenly grabbed his staff, reached out over several people and laid the thing on my shoulders, one after the other. At the same time he began to prophesy, "You are a bridge! Don't ever forget this moment. God has called you, prepared you, ordained you to become a bridge!"

I didn't understand his words that night any more than Jeff did. We talked about it, wondering what the words meant.

Years passed and one day I found myself sitting in the home of a pastor as he told me with much pain about several people who had been faithful members of his church who had suddenly disappeared. He had tried to make contact with them, but to no avail.

Later, I went to the home of one family we had discussed. I spent several hours with them, listening to their hurts, their questions, their hearts broken open before me bringing tears to my eyes.

As I left the family's home, the memory of Jeff Lucas and his staff pierced my mind, and I began to understand the "bridge" the Holy Spirit was talking about through Jeff.

With Judy Collins I can say "I've looked at life from both sides now . . . " I can see from the perspective of the often-frustrated pastor and from the view of the often frustrated believer.

And I agree with both sides! I understand the "old" and the "new." I relate with the hearts of the "in" and the "out," of "leadership" and of "followership."

Among the difficulties I encounter with "pastors" of the "institution" is a fear of those who have left church. There's also a sense of fear among leaders to examine alternatives to the current structural church - the biggest fear is probably of the potential loss of a paycheck, which must be countered by the admonition of scripture to live by faith, to trust in God and to remember that His word declares that "a man's gift will make a way for him."

Typically, pastors (who may or may not be experiencing a "leak" in the hold of church attendance and membership) will question why we would want to do anything different than what we've always done. But the old adage "We've always done it this way" doesn't cut it in a world that's been rearranged by modern realities – fractured homes, a transient society, changing morays, fatherless children, time constraints and the need for rock-solid, real and valuable relationships.

People are tired of going to church, Sunday after Sunday only to "stare at the back of somebody's head" for two hours, then go home feeling "I've done my religious duty." Increasingly, people don't have time to give to a church that produces a shoddy representation of Jesus and a thin veil of spirituality.

Believers are weary of potlucks, church socials and most of all, exhausting programs that do little to win hearts to Jesus or to bring healing to communities.

Pastors are tired of preaching sermons, Sunday after Sunday, feeling somehow that a bunch of spiritually-starved people have wandered into the feeding trough of the church with knife and fork in hand demanding, "Feed me! Feed me!" when they should have been "feeding" themselves all week long without the luxury of a ready-made, professionally designed spiritual diet.

Pastors are weary of spending hours upon hours placating grumpy church members by sitting with them in their homes, listening to their complaints about other church members or other pastors and drinking weak coffee and eating fattening pastries while their cities around them are dying for a witness of the life of Jesus.

I know, I'm being extreme – it's my nature – you don't have to like it, but if you want to read this, you'll just have to endure my extremity.

In the words of my Northern Irish family, "Aye, laddy, we've got ourselves in a wee sit-ee-ation here!"

The Cure: Part Two of "I've Got to Get Some Things Off My Chest."

Let me be clear: In an atmosphere of great and massive change in the church of Jesus Christ, and while we await the emergence of an entirely new expression of the entity called “the church,” we cannot, we must not ever lose sight of the singular fact that THE church, God’s church, the church for which Jesus bled bled and died will never cease to exist until it has completed its full mission in the earth and the marriage of Christ’s Bride to her Betrothed is accomplished.

Even a cursory look at church statistics is enough to cause us to understand that the thing we call "the church” is in deep trouble. Church attendance is almost universally down, churches are closing their doors, selling their properties; denominations are holding emergency meetings to examine what has gone wrong, where they are failing, and what to do to change the direction in which their movements are going.

If you care to spend the time, visit George Barna’s website (www.barna.org/) and read the numbers for yourself. As in every other arena of life, “the numbers don’t lie.”

So what position and attitude should we take regarding this wholesale transitory stage we find the church, and ourselves in? Should we be fearful? Hopeful? depressed?, encouraged? What is happening to the church we once knew, loved and flourished in? Allstate Insurance for years used a television commercial that stated, “You’re in Good Hands, with Allstate." The voice of Allstate was an announcer from Des Moines, Iowa named Ed Reimers, whose deep baritone voice exuded strength, confidence and trust. The message was clear: If you were insured by Allstate, you need not worry about accidents, freak weather, or any other tribulation that life might bring, Allstate would take care of you.

We might say with strong confidence: “You’re in Good Hands with Jesus.” In other words, if the church is God’s idea, if it is His creation and intention, we humans don’t need to lose sleep worrying if the church will continue, succeed or prosper. If God is in control, it would be sin to worry about what will happen to His church.

Understand first of all that the Church of Jesus Christ moves forward – even in historical times when attendance is on the decline, discouragement among pastors is on the increase and every visible indication is that the church, like a punch-drunk boxer is clinging to the ropes, ready to take the proverbial “standing eight count.” Success in Christ’s church is not dependent upon or even gauged by any particular moment of time, current circumstance or momentary indication. The Church of Jesus is both universal and eternal in God's eyes, and so must be judged by the entire scope of history and time and even beyond the confines of time.

If we were to use a spiritual microscope to examine the condition of the church during the infamous “Dark Ages” we would conclude that the church had nearly become extinct and would surely cease to exist if the trends we were examining through the microscope were to continue.

But by using the long lens of a spiritual macroscope - God’s eternal Word - we gain a vastly different impression, diagnosis and prognosis of the church.

Understand that the Church of Jesus bears a Divine Destiny – a destiny determined by God Himself. And that destiny will be fulfilled not because of great leaders or great ideas or great revelations given to men, but because of five simple words, spoken by the very Designer and Architect of the church, Jesus Christ. In Matthew 16:13-20, Jesus declared, “I will build My church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it.”

So while church statistics are almost universally on the decline, and while increasing numbers of people are walking out of and not into the doors of conventional churches, what I and many others refer to as the Institutional Church, I remain fully confident in the future and in the success of the church.

My confidence has nothing to do with social or cultural trends, and it is not because of some new under- standing or development of cutting-edge thinking, but my confidence has everything to do with the words spoken by Jesus that promise me He will build His church!

He said it: “I will build My church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it.” This statement tells me that all the combined fury, rage, anger, hatred and cunning of the enemy of man’s soul cannot frustrate, detain, discourage or stop God’s church because Jesus Himself makes it clear that His church will grow not weaker, but stronger as the days of the end time advance. The destiny of the Church is greater in 2005 than it has ever been in history.

Examine Jesus’ statement with me: Jesus said, “I”; in other words, the building of His church is not dependent upon you, me, some denomination, the Roman Catholic Church, some local church, or any group of holy men. It is the exclusive responsibility and ability of Jesus and no other person, entity, conclave or assemblage to give life and continuation to His church.

A divine structure must have a divine Builder, and Jesus is that Builder, case closed. He said “I will build My church. . .” The use of the first person “I” both relieves and rebukes us from our futile attempts to build anything. We talk about the ministries “we” have built. We speak of “our” ministries. We look at what the anointing of the Holy Spirit has accomplished and are tempted to say "I" did something great for God.

The truth is only Jesus is capable of building what only heaven understands. When David, king of Israel declared “I will build a house for God” the Lord responded by saying, “Will you. . .?” God made it clear to David that He, the Lord would build a house for David. That house was made manifest in the Person of Jesus, the Son of God. And it is Jesus – and only Jesus Who has the ability to build His church. He said “I will build My church. . .” The intention, purpose and determination of heaven is that His church would be built. There is no “if” involved here; no “maybe” or “should the opportunity arise” included. It is the purpose and will of God that His church should exist.

Further, Jesus said “I will build. . .” That is heaven’s intention, and if heaven intends to design, engineer, build, construct a spiritual edifice called “the church,” then it will happen.

He further stated, “I will build My church.” It is His church, expressly, completely, totally, and exclusively. The church does not belong to the Roman Catholics, the Southern Baptists, the Methodists, the Assemblies of God, the Lutherans or any other body, group, denomination or faction. It is His church. He constructed it and paid the mortgage for it with His own, divine blood.

And finally, He said, “I will build My church.” This is the structure, the configuration and the manifestation of His purpose. This also is the great point of tension in our current hour. The great question today should not be “will the church survive?” but rather, “What should the church look like?” Its existence is not in question or in jeopardy; its appearance is.

I find it worthy of note that Jesus began His instruction about the church with the word “I”. Remember Who He is: Jesus is God. Throughout His earthly ministry, Jesus’ emphasis was continually on “I am.”

Recall the incident in Moses’ life at the burning bush. The Voice that answered Moses when he asked, “Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and shall say to them, The God of your fathers hath sent me to you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say to them?” God’s simple response was “I AM THAT I AM: say to them I AM hath sent me to you.”

Now remember Jesus’ conversation with the Samaritan woman at the well in John chapter four: When the woman guessed that Jesus might indeed be the promised Messiah, He said to her, “I who speak to you am He.”

In John chapter six, with the backdrop of a hungry multitude, fed by five fish and two loaves of bread, Jesus said, “I am the Bread of Life.” In John eight, the Scribes and the Pharisees sought to tempt Him, and Jesus responded, “Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM."

In John nine, Jesus encountered a blind man and said, I am the light of the world.” In the next chapter, Mary and Martha wept because their brother, Lazarus had died and Jesus announced, "I am the resurrection and the life.” In John fourteen, He told Thomas and the disciples and you and me, "I am the way, the truth and the life.”

Finally, when Roman soldiers appeared in the garden to arrest Jesus, He asked, “whom do you seek?” When they answered, “Jesus of Nazareth”, He said simply, “I am He” and these rough soldiers fell to the ground at the power and authority of His Name. And if a detachment of soldiers collapses at the name “I AM” what will happen when He declares “I, the I Am, God, very God, will build My church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it?”

There are three thousand different names in the Bible, but one Name towers above all other names, and it is this name, the name of Jesus, a Name greater than any other name, because He was “given a name above every name, That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the the glory of God the Father.

In the book of Revelation, His voice rises once again as He proclaims, “I am the first and the last, I am He Who lives and was dead; and am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of hell and of death.” We hear His voice and we sense His ultimate authority as He announces, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the ending, I am the bright and the morning star” And it is He who has declared "I will build My church.”

Think logically with me: If He built a mighty nation of two million from 70 paltry outcasts under the eyes of Pharaoh in Egypt; If He stacked the waters of the Red Sea in a heap and made a highway for every Israeli foot to pass across on dry ground; If He could produce water from a rock to quench thirsty throats and send manna from heaven to feed hungry bellies, if He healed the blind, cast out devils, called Lazarus to life from the dead; if He defied the royal seal of Caesar, tore away the bars from the grave, and threw the machinery of death into reverse, if He destroyed principalities and powers, triumphing over them in the victory of the Easter Tomb, then I ask you – can He build, sustain, prosper and keep His church in the twenty-first century?

He said "I will. . ." He did not say "I Hope" to build. He began that construction by His own death on the cross. He arose from the dead, ascended into heaven, poured out His Holy Spirit among those who would believe; He possessed them, activated them, motivated them and sent them into the uttermost parts of the earth to preach the good news of salvation in His Name and in so doing, Jesus established His church in every corner of the globe where man is found.

Think about this: At the moment of His crucifixion, He knew what lay ahead for the enterprise we call the church. He understood the difficulties that would come; He knew about the trials and tribulations, the hard- ships and the frustrations that would accompany His followers. He knew about rejection and rebellion, disillusionment and despair that would seek to stop the march of His army. In the very moment that the church was formed in the eternal mind of God, Jesus was aware of every tribulation and calamity the church would ever face.

As He hung there, suspended between heaven and earth atop Golgotha's brow, He knew the weakness and vacillation of His disciples. He realized that Peter had denied Him, Judas had betrayed Him, His followers had forsaken Him. He knew about the persecutions to come in Rome and the ugly wrath of Marcus Arelius and Diocletian. He knew about fiery torches and hungry lions and blood-stained arenas where His followers would seal their faith in blood.

He Knew darkness settle over world. Knew about formalism, liberalism, modernism, postmodernism, He knew full well that the love many wax cold, but said I Will Build My Church not because of us, but in spite of us!

In spite of current predictions of failure; in spite of men departing the faith and evil men growing worse & worse; in spite of it all, I will build My Church! What He began, He is able also to perform. And we can be encouraged: He is and He will build His Church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it!

The great question being asked around the world as I write this is "what shape, what form, what structure will the church have?

Can you imagine the generations of people living in Israel in the inter-testamental period, between the conclusion of the Book of Malachi and the beginning of the New Testament?

Spiritual Israel understood that God would send a Messiah, a mighty Deliverer, a Savior. But what would He look like? What would He sound like? How would He dress? From whence would He come?

Nobody had the answer. Nobody could see clearly the form God's deliverance would take.

A man named Simeon saw Him – a Baby, eight days old, carried to the Temple to fulfill the Law. And Simeon cried out "Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel."

This is the first face of God's Messiah, the first face of the church. Its form, still indefinable, its structure yet to be developed, its shape yet to appear, but Simeon, by the Spirit of God made it clear; this was Messiah – this was the Church. Whether Joseph and Mary or any other Scribe or Pharisee or thinker understood it or not; this was Messiah – this was the Church.

And modern day "Simeon", the prophetic voice in the earth today sees an infant form, an undeveloped structure, and announces once again, "for mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which You have prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles and the glory of Your people Israel." This is the Emerging Church. This is the "yet-to-be-recognized" vessel that will repel every effort of the enemy and will prevail against the very gates of hell. Even now the childlike voice is being heard. Followers of Jesus – and not man's institutions or definitions of church are hearing the sound, inarticulate but distinct, immature but strident, beginning to sound out the first adolescent words that will become the concerto of heaven, the church of the living God, the expression of the Person of Jesus in the earth.

Emerging Church - A Response to our Detractors
Greg Austin

There are buzzwords inclusive to every stratum of society, every organization, movement and conclave of man: There always have been. Sadly, buzzwords and catchphrases seldom define anything with clarity and accuracy.

Perhaps nowhere is there as much potential abuse of "words" than in the arena of spiritual life, eternity, "the church" and religion.

Over the years I have developed what I call "Austin's Laws of Ministry." These are not exclusive to myself, but they are the important "laws" I have observed over 34 years of walking with Jesus and of ministering to people. I only have two laws on my list. When I get smarter, I'll add more laws, but for now, these work for me. Law Number One is this: "People Aren't Stupid." Law Number Two is: "Words Mean Things."

It's Law Number Two that I want to bring into focus for this discussion. When I was a pointy-headed theology student back in prehistoric times, my professors were fond of repeating a sort of "mantra" to we students. Over and over again until it was drilled into our mushy brains we heard the command: "Define your terms." In other words, "words mean things" and we must be clear about how we use words and what definition or meaning is assigned to them.

A case in point: Talk about "church" to any large group of people and ask for individual meanings and understandings of the word. I've done this exercise. It's enlightening to discover how many disparate and varied meanings a simple, single-syllable word can have.

So when we hear or use the term "Emerging Church", we might rightly expect to find a wide variation of meanings and understandings.

I want to be clear: When I personally speak of "Emerging Church" I am not in any way, form, manner or fashion identifying with any certain, tangible group of people. I am a follower of Jesus, not of any organization, movement, fad, group, or classification of people.

I don't care about vogue and popularity. I could care less about "jumping on the bandwagon" of this movement or that movement. I refuse to be categorized as "this" or "that" kind of Christian.

When I speak about "Emerging Church" I am simply referring to the reality that much of what we have been taught, much of what we do, much of our church "practice" has been tainted, mutated, polluted from the original template as revealed by Jesus Christ and His Apostles, and recorded in the Word of God.

Further, when I talk about "Emerging Church" I am referring to the quest to rediscover, to go back to the roots, the origins of spiritual worship; to find an authentic expression of Christ's Body in the earth. To reject denominational differences, the traditions of man, the expressions passed to us by the Roman Catholic Church or the Lutheran Church or of anybody's church except Jesus' church. I know, scoffers will wag their heads at my simplicity and perceived naivety. But knowing that I appear naive, I'm still on the journey; still searching out the authentic; still determined that I will see a church against which the gates of hell will not prevail.

So when I speak of or represent "Emerging Church" I'm not talking about a departure from classical, biblical, evangelical thought or doctrine. I'm talking about a departure from the religious traditions that man has laid on the skeleton of the church to create (in some instances) the monster of religion that looms in our current society.

To me, "Emerging Church" is simply "Authentic Church." It's the Church of Jesus Christ and of the Apostles. It's the true and straightforward appearance of the Body of Christ in the earth, on a mission to bring the earth to faith in Jesus.

I once was asked by a nice Roman Catholic lady, "Are you a Protestant?" My response was, "No, I'm not a Protestant." This confused my friend who said, "But you're not Catholic, so you must be Protestant." I like to have fun, but usually there's a serious meaning in my humor and I said to her "But I'm not protesting anything!" She then asked, "Then what are you?" I said to her, and to you, "I'm a Christian; a learner-follower of Jesus."

The point, Dear Reader is this: Don't label me. Don't try to "massage" my words into some kind of cultish, weird aberration of Christianity. There are "Christian Apologists" (so-called) who rub their hands in glee and cackle like gloating conquerors if they can morph someone's words into their version of heresy or biblical deviation.

Don't try to pigeon-hole me into your contrived lexicon of religious whackos – I won't fit there.

I'll attempt to follow my professors' edict and "define my terms" as I write, but I also don't want to muddy the waters with unnecessary explanations. This means you'll have to make certain basic assumptions as you read: Assumptions such as when I talk about "Christianity" or "Jesus" I'm talking about the spiritual truth revealed in the Bible – and for you "King James Only" folks, I'm talking about the truth revealed via the King James Bible. When I talk about "Jesus" I mean God's only begotten Son, Who was born of a virgin, and Who lived a sinless life and died an atoning death and Who arose from the grave on the third day and ascended into heaven making a new and a living way whereby we might be redeemed and restored in our souls, our spirits, to vital relationship with our Creator-God.

So, unless I give you a peculiar definition for any certain term or statement, you may assume I'm coming from a classical, biblical, evangelical, traditional, historical perspective. Goodness, gracious, the length one must go these days to prevent being labeled as a "this" or "that" kind of Christian! When I started this journey thirty-four years ago I was asked, one day into my new life, "Are you Pentecostal? " I'd never heard of the word "Pentecostal" but thought, "Who knows, maybe I am, even though I don't know what a Pentecostal is" and so answered, "I don't know." I was then asked, "Are you a charismatic?" Now I'd heard of "automatic", "cinematic", "thematic" but I'd never heard of "charismatic" but again thought, "Maybe I am and don't know it" and I said again, "I don't know." My by now frustrated inquisitor then asked in obvious frustration, "Well, what are you?" And in my innocence (and trepidation) I blurted, "I'm a Christian!" And thirty-four plus years later, knowing now what a "Pentecostal" and a "Charismatic" is, I'd still answer, with more conviction than then, "I'm a Christian."

Got it? That's what I am. I'm a Christian. On Saturday, May 18, 1971 at about 9:00 in the morning I told Jesus I was sorry for all the sins, all the rebellion, all the evil, all the foolish things I'd ever done in my life. I repented – I turned and went another way; away from myself and my wants towards God and His wants. I was changed; transformed; born again; redeemed; saved when I prayed that prayer. I was not a child that morning; I was twenty-one years old - Old enough to legally purchase tobacco and alcohol and old enough to vote for the President of the United States. I was considered an "adult" by society's judgment and was in my right mind when I had that conversation with Jesus. In that moment I was forgiven of all my sins. I was washed, purified and made whole by the Blood of Jesus. I was ushered into a living relationship with a living Savior. I was translated from the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of Light. I became a Christian in that moment when Jesus heard my contrition and my godly sorrow. I've been a Christian now for thirty-four years and three months tomorrow.

So to what do I object in the myriad of internet hits one can discover in a simple "Google" search for "Emerging Church?"

Here's a direct "copy and paste" quote from a website purporting to give the reader clear and positive identification of anyone talking about the “Emerging Church.”

...labyrinths, icons, incense, chanting, candles, centering and contemplative prayer...

Without contemplative spirituality, the emerging church would be nothing more than couches and candles.

What? What? “labyrinths, icons, incense, chanting, candles, centering and contemplative prayer...”? In the vernacular, “do what?”

Now I’m sure somebody out there, some spiritual investigator, some inquisitive mind, some experimenter of the realm of the spirit adheres to such folly. I’ve seen enough weird and strange stuff in my lifetime that I don’t doubt there are such folks floating around the fringes of faith, but coupling this statement with the conclusion that “Without contemplative spirituality, the emerging church would be nothing more than couches and candles” is absurd at best and entirely stupid and misleading at worst.

Don’t get your feelings hurt when I say that this kind of judgment-without-the-facts statement is irresponsible and foolish and harmful and just plain wrong. And if I just hurt your feelings, please forgive me, I’m not mad at you, but I won’t retract my observation.

Let’s attempt to define some terms here: “Contemplative Spirituality.” There’s a great place to start, because prior to surfing the web, looking at various treatises on the subject of the “Emerging Church” I had never heard of “Contemplative Spirituality.” So let’s see if I can get this straight: I’ll be back after I’ve read up on the subject to get an understanding.

OK, I’m back. I’ve read a bunch of words about “Contemplative Spirituality” and I’m ready to give you my results.

1) I have no idea what the term “Contempative Spirituality” means. It's beyond me and foreign to my faith and my understanding of the practice of Christianity.

2) I’m not interested in either “Contemplative Spirituality” or “...labyrinths, icons, incense, chanting, candles, centering and contemplative prayer...” I’m interested in knowing Him (Jesus) “in the power of His resurrection and in the fellowship of His suffering.”

3) I don’t like the tone of those who seem to want to attack anybody they don’t like. I never read about Jesus attacking anybody. Oh, He identified people according to their spirits, but He never lashed out, attacked or accused anybody. He loved even His enemies and His opponents and would have gladly forgiven them their sins and befriended them if only they would have allowed Him to do so. Oh, I want to be like Jesus.

4) After having studied about “Contemplative Spirituality” and all the supposed evils of the “Emerging Church” I’ve concluded that while there are some strange ideas floating around the spiritual atmosphere of The Church, neither I nor anybody I know in the “Emerging Church” camp is part of that strangeness. We’re just, as I indicated earlier, “Followers of Jesus” but we are also, and as importantly “Rejecters of Religion.” We hate religion. We hate man-made attempts to get to God. We despise the forms, functions and programs of man-made spirituality, “church”, religion, call it what you will.

5) I think that as a reaction to the man-made religion and religious traditions of men that we've experienced in the past several hundred years, it's normal and expected that exploration of other "ways" of practicing our faith would occur. Whenever one explores unknown territory, there is the occasional foray down dead-end paths, worthless trails and into confusing terrain. Henry Ford wasn't judged by his first attempts at building an automobile, but by the finished product after years of trial and error. Could we please wait to pass judgment on the burgeoning "Emerging Church" movement until sufficient light is shed on the subject and we can see at least a "Model A" appear?

6) As I was taught in college, in theology and in church practice, just as in every discipline of life, one must learn to “eat the meat and spit out the bones” of every teaching, posit or theory. It is a glutton and a child who swallows everything set before him. It is a sign of maturity when a person “tries the spirits” and will “taste and see that the Lord is good.” We must be like the Bereans, who were commended because they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so (Acts 17:11). I'd prefer to measure Emerging Church theology, practice and understanding against the Scriptures rather than against contemporary detractors and antagonists.

So who are we, the people of g2k? Who am I? We are seekers of genuine, authentic, true New Testament, even “primitive” Christianity. We want to know the God of the Bible through His Son by the power of His Spirit. We want to worship in “spirit and in truth” and we’ve discovered that so much of what passes for Christianity is in reality a deviation from the original truths given us by Jesus and by the Apostles. We reject this man-made stuff with all the vigor and strength we possess.

We aren’t followers of Saddleback or Willow Creek or Brian McClaren or The Ooze or any other label, group, element or sect. We are followers of Jesus.

Here’s another statement taken from the same website quoted above, “The Emerging Church is emerging, but not with the gospel of Jesus Christ.” Wow! What a statement! Now, I’m certain that certain elements, certain people who align themselves with the term “Emerging Church” may be devoid of a comprehension or adherence to the gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the Word of God, but to paint all “Emerging Church” folks with the same broad brush is like meeting the Green River Killer, discovering that he possesses citizenship in the United States and determining, “Americans are all serial killers.” Such a determination defies simple logic. The same mistake is being made by applying judgments against everyone who uses the term “Emerging Church.”

And now, in my appraisal, I’ve said enough about the detractors, would-be experts and so-called Apologists who seem to be against nearly anything that isn’t just like them. I’ve got other things to do – such as live out the gospel – the Good News of Jesus Christ and to discover the Church He Himself promised He would build. A church made “not with hands” a church of His design, architecture and purpose, without the dictates, demands and interpretations of man.

Working my way through the “labyrinth” of religion, religiosity and religious men to find the Jesus of the Bible and the church of His design is enough for one man’s life work, I would think.

So, I’m an “Emerging Church” guy, determined not to become a spiritual moth attracted to some false light, but to be a lover of God and a friend of Jesus and of Publicans and Sinners alike, and to point as many souls as possible to the heaven God has prepared for all those “who love His appearing.”

In this world of deceptive voices and of seducing spirits, please know there is a sure way, a true path, and that Jesus’ sheep know His voice. Don’t live in fear. Don’t tremble with trepidation that you are being deceived. Talk to Jesus; the Jesus of the Bible. Tell Him the desire of your heart. Follow Him as His word is revealed to you and as the Holy Spirit guides you into all truth. And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein (Is. 35:8).

Blessings to you on your journey! May you find that authentic and true representation of Jesus in the earth and in your own heart.

In His Grace,

Greg

In Great Famine, Is Great Provision

Maria Magruder

I heard the Lord say, “In great famine is great provision”.

The whole earth is literally now groaning for the sons of God to be made manifest and revealed to the world. With these groanings that have caused major earth events and movements, will surely come famines, as it has been recorded in the Word. Those in covenant with Jehovah, will surely walk through these great famines with His provision, satisfying your every need.

Psalms 37:19 And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

For not only has the earth been groaning for you, but you have been groaning within your spirit for My calling to manifest, for My giftings to be made complete in fullness, for the mantles and anointings to be active in fullness-for what has been pre-destined before time was, will now “be”.

Where the world will be in hardship everywhere, the sons and daughters of God will be made manifest to the world by My mighty hand of power, signs, wonders and creative miracles.

Psalms 33:18-19 Behold the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, On those who hope in His mercy, to deliver their soul from death and to keep them alive in famine.

Fear not the famine, but instead envelope yourself in faith in My Word says, the Lord. For surely where there is faith, there is provision, for that’s where the substance is. It is not in mans grasp, it is not in the wicked’s grasp, but the wealth of the heavens and universe is in My Word and My Word dwells within you My children. Everything you need and desire, for it is My pleasure to shower you all of My goodness and mercy.

As I sustained Elijah, Isaac, Abraham, and Joseph in severe famines, so will I sustain you. These men were obedient to “the call”, and forsook all natural circumstances, and kept their faith in Me, stepping out to what appeared to be famine to them, was only famine to the world, and even though the world was in great famine in those different times, the world was blessed by these men. A whole nation was blessed with provision due to Joseph’s obedience to follow through on the call of God, and so will nations be blessed by you, as you hold fast to all the promises that have been given to you. For you are called to bless whole cities and whole nations, for the greatest provider and supplier lives within you.

Gen 12:3 “…And in your ALL the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

As it is THIS DAY, those who are separated unto Me, will I send the ravens with great blessing, as it is THIS DAY those who are in covenant with Me, will sow during famine and reap one-hundred fold, for those walking by faith and not by sight will be providers and lenders because of the Blessing they are in covenant with. Do not under-estimate the covenant given to you My children.

Duet. 8:18 "And you shall remember the Lord your God for it is He who gives you power to get wealth that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers AS IT IS THIS DAY."

While the world is in times of famine, My body will be in great Blessing. For you are in this world, but not of it. You are not subjected to its system, you aren't a servant of the world, but you are a servant of the living God. Wealth, provision and money are to serve you, not you to serve it. You have been given authority to rule and reign over the world's system, seated in heavenly places with Me.

Prepare yourselves to be "lenders" and "providers" in these times of famine, for the world will look many places to find great provision in a time of great famine.

Duet. 15:6 "For the Lord your God will bless you just as He promised you, you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you."

Many will come to the Church looking for help, looking for their needs to be met in desperate times. For it will come to pass that even the government will turn to the Church, as the government will not be able to accomplish what the Church can, by My Spirit. You will especially see a flood of the fatherless, the widow, and the orphan coming into My house. They will not only be met with material provision, but they will be met with the power of My Spirit unto salvation, healing and deliverance. For the world will begin to look to you My bride, for the greatest wealth that has ever existed dwells within you, for the greatest wells of sustenance, provision, healing, miracles, wisdom and truth have been deposited and implanted in you for such a time as this! Glory!

Get ready, the ones who have come to know Me, trust Me, believe in Me, abide in Me, walking by faith and learning Kingdom principals will now walk fully into their destiny and into their full callings this very year of 2005.

Maria travels, ministering miracle gatherings by the Word of God, equipping the saints for the work of the ministry. Her passion is not only for the harvest, but to see believers walking in the power of God and victory in their every day life.

Is God Limited?

Bill Somers

The Existence of God and The Problem of Evil

In philosophy classes The Belief In God is often challenged in ways that make it out to be a logical absurdity. For example, we are told, if God is all powerful then can he create a rock so heavy that he cannot lift it?

Then there is the idea that everything has a cause, but God is the cause of all, or the First Cause. Then you are asked, well what caused God? How could He cause himself? What caused him to cause himself? And so on.

Let's take a specific example. 'God has put all things under his feet.'

Now remember that word 'all' means all! [Have you ever heard someone teaching error and supporting it by carping on the word 'all'? That is continually repeating that 'all' means all.]

So if God has put all things under his feet, then he must be under his own feet! Is God standing on his head or what? What kind of God is this anyway? Then comes the laughter and ridicule from 'those who profess themselves wise'.

Well for one thing, He is a God who expects you to use a little common sense. Here in this verse from First Corinthians He spells it out, giving us an example of using common sense. [A little common sense is a wonderful antidote to the errors that straightforward logical thinking, i.e. man's wisdom, lead to.]

> For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. (1 Corinthians 15:27)

Now after reading this, can you insist that 'all' always means all, or does common sense tell us that there are some 'obvious' exceptions?

Then there is what the philosophers call The Problem of Evil. If God is Good and he is the Creator, they why is there evil. The stock answer is free will. The free will of man allows for evil to be chosen, and man has to deal with the results. This just puts the question off a bit. Next you are asked well why is there free will if it produces evil. And How do you know there is free will, maybe it's all pre determined and if so then God is the ultimate cause of evil! Then the so called problem of evil becomes blaming God for the evil in the world. So you find people abandoning a belief in God when it should be obvious that He exists.

Now we are going to look at these matters and see first that there are limits to what God can and will do. And secondly we'll see that we can't accuse God of evil because we simply cannot judge things in many situations because there is no way for us to know all the facts. So the simplest and best course is to trust God and not depend on our own minds to figure everything out.

The Limits on God.

This article is partly inspired by something I heard in church once. That is:
God is not like some all powerful oriental despot who can just do anything he wants.

This remark immediately brought forth objections from some in the congregation. What heresy is this? Isn't God all powerful? Aren't all things possible with God?

Well there's that word 'all' again. With a little common sense and a search of the scriptures we can see that there are limits to what God can or will do. And most importantly we can find places where this is spelled out in scripture and illustrated in allegory and parable.

What are some of the limitations of God? Consider these:

He is limited by his nature and his word, as well as common sense and logic.

He cannot do something that is contradictory in nature.

He cannot deny himself.

He cannot swear by any higher, [so he swears by himself.]

He cannot contradict himself or go against his word.

He cannot lie. He cannot make a mistake. He never says 'oops'!

He cannot change what is written in his word. His scripture cannot be broken.

He cannot break his covenant.

He cannot fail to keep his promises.

He cannot let sin go unpunished.

He cannot show mercy where there is no intercessor.

He cannot show mercy where there is no repentance. [Intercessors can repent for others.]

He cannot ignore the cries of his people.

He cannot ignore the cries of the blood of the martyrs.

He cannot simply forgive the sins of all mankind and save everyone. No matter how much he may desire that 'none should perish' the requirements of Justice must be met.

Adam and Eve

When Adam ate the forbidden fruit, God simply could not change his mind and commute the sentence of Death. The seed of the fruit entered into Adam’s flesh and passed to his children. It eventually has to be purged.

This fruit was not an apple as often illustrated. It was a fig. Our clue is the skirts of fig leaves that they made for themselves once they saw they were naked. This is just a clue. The so called philosopher or skeptic may well object that this does not prove that it was a fig tree. Meaning that this scripture does not conclusively prove that it was a fig tree. Right. But we have to remember that God puts everything in his word for a purpose. So we have to take the clues he gives us and all the Holy Ghost to let us see the connection. To the skeptic who demands absolute proof, we can reply with the words of Jesus: 'He that has an ear, let him hear!' If you look at how the fig tree is used in scripture, you can see it’s association with the Law and with the nation of Israel, a people under the Law.

After all what is the knowledge of good and evil but knowledge of the Law?

When you eat an apple, the seeds are discarded with the core. But when you eat a fig, the seeds, which are so tiny and mixed in with the pulp of the fig are eaten too. The fig has no core.

We know the fig tree symbolizes the law and the leaves speak of self righteousness. And we know the letter of the law worketh or produces death. So by eating the fig man allowed the workings of death to enter and become part of his flesh. He took on the sentence of death all on his own. So Death comes not as an externally administered punishment for sin, but as a natural consequence.

Lust produces sin and sin produces death.

Romans tells us that Adam was of fore type of Jesus.

> Ro 5:14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

And here in Timothy we read that Adam was not deceived.

> 1Ti 2:14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the > transgression.

So perhaps this means that Adam deliberately ate of the forbidden fruit, and took on the sentence of death, for the sake of Eve. For we see that Jesus willingly took on the judgment of death for the sake of His bride! Any time you follow the dictates of religion, which is the law, you are eating of the tree of knowledge. It produces death. When you follow the Lord Jesus in close personal relationship, you are eating from the Tree of Life.

Daniel in the Lions Den

In the Story of Daniel in the Lions Den, we can see the heart attitude of the Father reflected in King Darius. It would have been easy for him to use his power and make an exception for Daniel. But to do that, he would have had to break his word. So he refused to use that power. Daniel went into the den and came out again alive. [This speaks of death and resurrection, is there a clue here?.]

And then Daniel's accusers were cast into the den, to their deaths. So it all worked out for the better after all since King Darius got rid of a lot of troublemakers. And since those troublemakers were rulers in his domain, they all had to be replaced. Most likely with people of Daniel's choosing! This is also a picture of the end times when the ruling powers, accusers of the brethren, all of them, shall fall. They are to be replace by the saints who have the honor of judging them. Psalm 149.

David and Absalom

In the case of David and Absalom, the same father's heart is shown in David. Only in this case, David is persuaded by the 'Wise Woman of Tekoa" at the prompting of Joab, to use his power. The results are very instructive.

In the Law of Moses, there are very definite instructions on dispensing justice. The aim of these is clearly stated as So shall thou put away evil from among you [Israel]. Here is an instance in Deuteronomy where this principle is mentioned.

> De 17:6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.
> 7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

In the case of Absalom, justice was not done. Absalom was guilty of murder, but not punished. He was only banished and after hearing the 'wise woman', David decided to bring Absalom home. So for his sin, Absalom was not judged or put away but instead was forgiven without having repented!

Absalom was never confronted with his sin. He was never challenged to confess and repent; and never formally forgiven and healed. He simply had his banishment [a type of sentence of death, or of the second death] cancelled. He was never allowed to see David. That is he could not come into the presence of his father.

David failed to put away evil, with disastrous consequences. Even after the rebellion and civil war, David wished to spare his life. Yet Joab, perhaps regretting his earlier mistake, slew Absalom. David used his power, and perverted justice. What did it get him but more trouble! In the end there was neither justice nor mercy served.

Jesus' Temptation in the wilderness

The temptation of Jesus by Satan is a challenge and attempt to get Him to use His power and reach His goals in the wrong way. That is without satisfying the demands of justice. We are going to look at this in some detail so bear with me.

> Matthew 4:
> 1 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.
> 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.
> 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
> 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

> 5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,
> 6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
> 7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
> 8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;
> 9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.
> 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
> 11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

Let's look at the first phase of the temptation. Jesus was hungry. Don't forget that elsewhere in the bible it tells us that Jesus' food is to do the will of the Father. So Jesus was not hungry for something to eat. He had just begun his ministry by being baptized in Jordan by John. Now after 40 intense days of communing with the Father, he wants to get on with it. He has been wanting to be about his Father's work since he was 12 or even earlier. So he is hungry to get started and do the Father's will.

Satan wants to offer Jesus a way to accomplish his objectives, but it's a way that goes against the father's will and would not accomplish His work.

"If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." Now why make stones into bread. How about some peanut butter too? How about some meat! And why change the stones. Just command some food to appear out of thin air. Just order up a Whopper, fries and a coke! The son of God can do this, can't he?

Joking aside, what we have here is an allegory. There is a lot of meat here if we just look for it. Usually we just skip over such things, but sometimes the Spirit will provide a clue as to the meat is.

Well a clue to understanding this passage can be found in looking at the two elements, Stones and Bread. If you search the bible for verses that contain both words, these will come up.

> Lu 11:11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?
> Mt 7:9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?
> 10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

First note that we are making a double comparison here. Stones and Bread, Serpents and Fish, these elements make up an analogy. As stones are to bread, so serpents are to fish. As Jesus went about seeking to save the souls of men, he used good old figurative language to get his point across. When speaking to farmers, he talked about harvesting wheat. While talking to fishermen, he spoke of catching nets full of fish. Since the wheat makes up our bread, you can see that bread and fish are two major metaphors for saving souls. Stones and serpents stand for the unsaved. So lets expand the analogy like this. As unsaved is to saved so are stones to bread and so are serpents to fish.

The next element to consider is that Jesus speaks of a son asking a father for bread. This refers to Jesus asking His Father for the souls of men. This is found in the Psalms.

> Ps 2:7 ¶ I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.
> 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Elsewhere in scripture you can find mention of the stony heart contrasted with the soft heart or heart of flesh. That comparison parallels the Stones and Bread comparison.

> Eze 11:19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:
> 2Co 3:3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in > fleshy tables of the heart.

The bible also speaks of the temple being made up of living stones. Here those who are saved are described as stones. But you have to contrast them in a different way. Dead stones are the unsaved and living stones are the saved. Both are made from clay, the dust of the earth, but only one has Life!

There is another interesting comparison of Stones and Bread in the law of Moses.

In the passage beginning at Leviticus 23:10 The Lord gives instructions for observing the feast of first fruits. 50 days after that comes Pentecost, and on that day he mentions two loaves of bread.

> Le 23:16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.
> 17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

Now the feast of Pentecost is first celebrated 50 days after the feast of First Fruits. First fruits being the day Moses led the people out of the red sea and on to the far shore. First Fruits commemorates the redemption of the first born which actually took place the night they left Egypt.

That day is traditionally regarded as the day when Moses came down from the mountain bearing two tables of stone. The tables of stone speak of the Law and the Old Covenant. So what do we see happening at later observances of Pentecost? Well the passage above tells us about two loaves of bread. Two tables of stone lead to two loaves of bread. So stones and bread are compared once again. Stone speaks of the old covenant, and the law. The bread speaks of the new covenant and the spirit.

So comparing stones and bread is a symbolic way of discussing the saving of men’s souls by the establishment of a new covenant.

Let’s look back at the temptation again.

In this temptation there are three stages: Stones and Bread; Cast thyself down; and The Kingdoms of the World.

Each of these stages relates to one of Jesus’ purposes in coming here.

Stones and Bread has to do with saving the souls of men.

Cast thyself down is about being willing to give his life.

The kingdoms of the world has to do with regaining the full authority over the earth that Adam lost. He came to give His life for the souls of men, and to destroy the works of Satan.

In each case of the temptation Satan is offering Jesus the easy way out. He is suggesting a simple solution or course of action that will give him what he wants without having to go to a lot of trouble.

A. In the Stones and Bread, Satan is saying: Look here, you want to save the souls of men, right? Well just give the command, you have the power don’t you? Just go ahead and proclaim 'all is forgiven'. It's simple and easy, right? [Sure, look what happened when David did just that.]

B. In Cast thyself Down, Satan is saying: You came here to die didn’t you? Well why go through all the torture and torment that’s in store for you? Just jump off the roof here and have a quick painless death, you won’t feel a thing! It’s so simple anybody could do it!

C. In Kingdom’s of the World, Satan is saying: Alright Jesus, you want to get the kingdoms of the world back? No Problem! Just bow down to me! Just one time! Nobody will ever know! And you can have it all just the way you want!

Would you buy a used car from this character?

If Jesus were to just cast himself down, he would never become the passover lamb for us, never take on the sins of the world, and never fulfill dozens of prophetic scriptures that he must. This was definitely not the way to go. Jesus endured the suffering that the Father required because he had a revelation of the Joy to come as the author and finisher of our faith.

> Heb 12:2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Kingdoms of the World are not just the nations but Spiritual Domains as seen from a high mountain which speaks of the High Places! Jesus cannot just get these kingdoms from Satan. He will take them from Satan. There will come a point when He asks the Father. Then they are given to him by the Father Isaiah 51 speaks of populating the heavens when Satan falls.

> Isa 51:16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

In Revelation 11 we read that the Kingdoms of the world become the Kingdoms of our God and his anointed, Christ and the saints who are in Christ. Some of the saints will be given these kingdoms as their reward.

> Re 11:15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.
> 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,
> 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

We also read there that he takes his power and reigns! This gives the phrase ‘our God reigns’ a whole new meaning.

> Isa 52:7 ¶ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

Now on to other topics. We are going to look briefly at these as each one could be a major study in itself.

He cannot ignore the cries of his people, and He cannot let sin go unpunished. Here are a couple quotes from Genesis.

> Ge 18:20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;
> 21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

> Ge 19:12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:
> 13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

And here's on from Exodus

> Ex 3:7 ¶ And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

And this one is from first Samuel.

> 1Sa 9:16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

He cannot show mercy where there is no intercessor. This quote from Ezekiel is often cited as a proof text.

> Eze 22:29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.
> 30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.
> 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

Unknown Factors present in God's dealings.

These next topics are given to show that our knowledge of God's dealings is always limited. And therefore we simply cannot understand [or judge] what he is up to in many cases.

Interference in the heavenlies.

This next quote from Daniel shows us that there are times we can't understand what God is doing in a situation, because there are things going on in the heavenly realm. And unlike Daniel, we don't have an angel to clue us in on what's really happening.

> Da 10:12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.
> 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

Challenges in the heavenlies.

This quote from Job should make us realize that things can happen to us for reasons we can't understand. And that many things can occur that God did not cause.

> Job 1:8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?
> 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?
> 10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
> 11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.
> 12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

God conceals his plans.

And this quote from Judges should tell us that sometimes it's God's wisdom to conceal his plans from us until the proper time.

> Jg 20:25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.
> 26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.
> 27 And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, > 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

In this case, God's plan was for His People to suffer a series of defeats so as to trick the enemy. Do you think it would have worked if they had known all the details ahead of time? No way Jose!

God has sealed his Word.

Once again this shows that sometimes it's God's wisdom to conceal his plans from us until the proper time.

> Da 12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
> Da 12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

Conclusion.

There is a popular praise song that goes: 'God is Good, all the time!' Once I heard a pastor begin his remarks to the church by saying: "God Is Good!" And the crowd responded: "All the time!" Then someone in the audience yelled out: "He can't help it!" So there is one more thing God can't do. He can't help but be Good!

All this talk of blaming God for our problems comes down to unbelief. When all we have to do is this:

> Pr 3:5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

I Have Chosen California

"It Is No Accident That I Have Chosen California"

giftofgrace44@yahoo.com

"Re-Birth"

"It is no accident that I have chosen California. I have begun to do a re-birth in California that reflects the wealth of the natural resources in this state and I have only just begun to develop the natural resources here.

"Get ready to find new mines, new resources, new groups of fish moving into areas. There will be a re-birth of natural habitats, including habitats for aquatic and marine life -- these things will begin to flourish once again. Get ready for a re-birth in this land that will shake -- and quake -- the foundations that I have already begun to establish in this state.

"California is Thirsty for Truth"

"A new chapter was begun in California when Schwarzenegger was sworn in. I have begun to develop a new governmental infrastructure in California. Now is the time to get involved in government and politics on local and state-wide levels. People will begin to seek out your opinions on political and moral issues like never before. Like a bear seeking for honey will be the Californians seeking for righteousness. A new favor will fall upon you to make a difference in every area of daily life. Californians are being stirred for righteousness and for water. They are thirsty for Truth. Get ready and seek My heart on these matters."

Get ready for new finds. Just as new resources will be found in the areas throughout the state, also get ready to find new "finds" in people around you. California has already been known world-wide for the quality of its fruit. And, in this same manner, there has been much fruit that the Lord has been cultivating here, and it is time for the new harvest to be picked and shipped off.

The Lord says, "There have been many that I have sent here to be trained, equipped, and refined. It is now time for them to be released to the nations as the first fruits of what I will do through this state in the future. Then I will send the next wave of those I will equip here and they will come to take the place of those who will be sent out. It is time for the fathers to release the children, to send them out from the nest."

"The Season of Promotion"

The Lord says, "Even the picked-over will be promoted in this season, the 'not ready's,' the 'bad eggs,' those who were rejected, and especially the women and the youth. These ones will be among those who will be re-introduced as who they really are and their old limitations and self-doubt will fall off.

"I am looking for voices . . . I am like a star crying out in the night for those who will follow Me wherever I send them and who will keep their eyes fixed upon me as their sole source of life, of light, and of nourishment. I will be their only provider and they will be My children."
Get ready to see people in a whole new way -- to see them in a way that you have never seen -- and get ready to see people who have been passed over get promoted.

"Just as the testimony of gold went out from California during the Gold Rush, so have the testimonies of My works that have been taking place in California covered the globe. And just as California's reputation for having the best fruit, wine, and produce went throughout the Earth, so will the reputation that will be given to those who are released from this state.
"I am getting ready to release my special ones, my End Times Army, that will cover the globe with signs and wonders and with power. There are many who I brought to California before I sent them out so that they would be released with the My Blue Ribbon Seal of Approval. They will receive and bear My Blue Ribbon Seal of Approval and they will begin to move in a power not yet seen on this Earth. This is My season of promotion," says the Lord.

> Revelation 21:1-7:
> "Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
> "And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, 'Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain; for the former things have passed away.'
> "Then He who sat on the throne said, 'Behold, I make all things new.' And He said to me, 'Write, for these words are true and faithful.'
> "And He said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water freely to him who thirsts. He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be my Son.'"

Its Harvest Times
Musa Opiyo

A Call To All Believers:
"Its Harvest Times"
Jan 21, 2004

For the Lord would say that yes this is the time I am bringing release to the captives. I am breaking the chains and the bonds that have held My people and they shall move out in great power and expression. I am bringing a new level of creativity to My Bride as a tool to reach the lost. I am unlocking the mysteries and the hidden things that have been sealed in the rooms of heaven. Because I will have a victorious people, a victorious Bride, a victorious army of servants who's motto shall be 'not my will but yours be done'.

I am accelerating the pace at which I am moving across this earth. You shall see a manifestation of this in record numbers coming to know Me this year. For truly this is the harvest. Truly this is the overflow and the overload. I would that you My people were flowing with more of My Spirit, more of My power yet many of you believe that I cannot use you. Am I limited by what man sees as a limitation? Do I not use the foolish things of this earth to confound the wise?
Yes Beloved if you have My name and are called according to My purposes then you definately are going to be used to touch lives if you will believe.

This is truly the year of the harvest. Not only am I going to use the young people, but the Lord would say to those of you who are "retired" in the natural and you think you have seen your days, think again! For I am going to use even those who are old in body but are alive in Me. The days before you shall unparallel what you have already seen before. Did I not say that old men would dream dreams? I am not only going to give you the dream and the vision, but you are going to be alive to see them come to pass. I am even resurrecting the dreams that you thought would never again be a reality.

Yes I am visiting My people with a greater measure of My Glory that Isaiah 61 would come into its fullness. For you My people the Lord says arise and shine for your light has come. I am indeed that light that is shining upon you, for the cries of the Gentiles have reached My ears and it is you that I am sending to bring in the harvest. Great are the days you are living in. For even as there is great light, darkness shall also increase. But My Glory in you will only become clearer as you walk with Me.

Inheritance Is About To Overtake You

Chad Taylor

Like Ruth and Joseph, whatever counter part you are, INHERITANCE is about to overtake you. Not necessarily from a passing family member-

BUT THE ACCUMULATION OF YEARS OF WITHHOLDING THAT IS ABOUT TO BE RELEASED!

Do you understand this? Do you have the perception to grasp this and thus receive it? Isaac knew he had an accumulation of years of withholding coming to him so he sowed in times of famine! (Genesis chp. 26).

When we grasp that we have years of withholding also coming to us because of the time and season we are now living in we too will sow great amounts in times of famine knowing that much more is about to be released!

Listen, the sons of Issachar discerned the times and seasons and acted appropriately. We too are walking in their spirit. Do you know what time it is? HARVEST. There is a powerful footnote in Joshua that illustrates harvest and what it means to us personally:

"And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest..." (Josh 3:15).

"And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do..." (1 Chron 12:32).

IF WE STEP INTO THE SEASON WE WILL BE IN AN OVERFLOW!

Let me say it again in context of the above scripture, if we STEP INTO the season which is harvest, we will experience an overflow! One way to do that at this very moment is to sow in times of famine into those already in harvest!

One more time, SOW IN TIMES OF FAMINE INTO THOSE THAT ARE ALREADY IN THE HARVEST!

I had no idea I would be writing this to all of you or receiving this revelation but I am glad I am! This is a NOW word for you and we must seize the moment and step into the SEASON which is HARVEST and get into the overflow. We have been giving from our want for too long, we must begin to give from our overflow so that this harvest can be reached and reaped.

Do you understand that? It is so critical that this current harvest is reached and reaped and we begin to comprehend the season and begin to step into it and receive the overflow or I fear many will miss it altogether.

Jeremiah best illustrates what I am trying to say, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved..." (Jer 8:20).

We have to be a people that discern the season and step into it. I honestly believe that by your sowing into Ochlocknee,GA. that you are stepping into the river that is overflowing. We have hit the bedrock of harvest here and are in a current overflow. You can be too. Also, we can not afford to look back on what we have already done but what we can do right now! This is not a "then" word it's a "now" word...

I sense a massive breakthrough RIGHT NOW as I write and I believe it will be compounded and increases as each one of you opens and reads this revelation and appeal, not from Chad Taylor but from the Holy Spirit.

It will also be exponentially increased in power and impact as even one of you responds to these current needs and gives above and beyond them. It will unlock the flood gates literally and we will step into this season which is harvest and give and act accordingly. I stand with you in awe of what is about to occur and the overflow each of is going to walk in. We be able to say sincerely as David did, "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want..."

(END OF QUOTE)

One footnote. Our needs that we mentioned to our friends was our current demand for further supplies to complete the public pool we now own in Ochlocknee, GA. If you do not know about this project we have engaged in for nearly 2 years now please see the link below. It is amazing what God will use to reach a city. We also are in transition from our present property to the next accommodations that God is providing and we have a specific need to be fulfilled to complete it. I pray the revelation above moves you in your harvest and overflow now, too much is at stake my friend for it not too...

HIS BLOOD
We overcome him by the Blood of the Lamb and by the word of our testimony and we love not our lives even unto the death.

I begin this with a well-known passage of scripture. I pray that Father God blesses and keeps you in this day when we must come together in unity and love, standing together as an army that cannot be defeated because HE has already won the victory!!. Warriors arise!!!

Solomon Dedicates the Temple
(1 Kin. 8:62-66)
7 When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the *temple. 2 And the priests could not enter the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house. 3 When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the Lord, saying:

"For He is good, For His mercy endures forever."*

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord. 5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. 6 And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the Lord, which King David had made to praise the Lord, saying, "For His mercy endures forever,"* whenever David offered praise by their ministry. The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.
7 Furthermore Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the Lord; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.
8 At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the* Brook of Egypt. 9 And on the eighth day they held a sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. 10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the Lord had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel. 11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the Lord and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the Lord and in his own house.
God's Second Appearance to Solomon
(1 Kin. 9:1-9)
12 Then the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice. 13 When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, 14 if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. 15 Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place. 16 For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. 17 As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments, 18 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.'

Which are called - 7121 - qara' {kaw-raw'} 1) to call, call out, recite, read, cry out, proclaim to call unto, cry (for help), call (with name of God) to summon, invite, call for, call and commission, appoint, call and endow to be called, be named, be called out, be chosen

My Name - 8034 - shem {shame} - reputation, fame, glory, the Name (as designation of God) d) memorial, monument.
Shall Humble - 3665 - kana` {kaw-nah'} - be subdued, be brought down, be low, be under
And Seek - 1245 - baqash {baw-kash'} - to seek, require, desire, exact, request.
And turn - 7725 - shuwb {shoob} - turn back, of dying, in repetition, to restore, refresh, repair (fig), make requital, pay (as recompense), to reverse, revoke.
I specifically want to look at this verse : 14. My people - Who is HE referring to? These people are known of Him. They are called (chosen ones).
1 Peter 2 : And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, [even to them] which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye [are] a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.....For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps...
Chosen - 1588 - eklektos {ek-lek-tos'} - picked out, chosen, the Messiah in called "elect", as appointed by God to the most exalted office conceivable, choice, select, i.e. the best of its kind or class, excellence preeminent: applied to certain individual Christians, RARE!

Called - 2564 - Kaleo {kal-eh'-o} - to call aloud, utter in a loud voice, to receive the name of, receive as a name, to give some name to one, call his name.
We were chosen, selcted and called out. That means we heard HIM calling us by Name?
Rev 2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth [it].
Rev 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, [which is] new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and [I will write upon him] my new name.
Rev 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
Other scriptures for being chosen-

Mat 20:16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

Mat 22:14 For many are called, but few [are] chosen 1588.
This same word Chosen (Elect) 1588 is also used in these scriptures as chosen and elect in translation. Matt. 20:16, 22:14, 24:24, 24:31 & in Mark 13:20, 22 & 27, & in Luke 18 : 7, 23:35 & in Romans 8 : 33, Col. 3 : 12, 1 Tim. 5 : 21, 2 Tim. 2 : 10, Titus 1 : 1 & in 1 Peter 1 : 2, 2: 4, 6 & 9, 2 John 1 : 1 & 13 and finally in Rev. 17 : 14.

So His Chosen ones who HEAR HIS VOICE - His sheep hear His voice, not strangers or hirelings? Are you His Chosen one? Are you listening when HE Calls your name? Are you called by His Name?? He has given you a name? Whose Name must be glorified in all the earth? Do you know when a King makes you part of His household, you bear HIS NAME, His Robe, His Ring??? You give up your reputation to receive HIS Reputation and Glory!!!

John 10 : 27 - 27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.
So whose duty or call is it to come at His call to pray and turn and repent on behalf of the people and the land? It is the elect, chosen ones, isn't it? His Bride, His virgins, His remnant who has saved herself for HIM and Him Alone. To be filled with His Will, Consummated with His Seed!

Remnant!!! There's always a remnant! Who has ears to hear, who listens to the voice of our Lord and Great Shepherd? Who hears the call? Who is HE calling to repent and stand in the gap for a nation, for our land, for the lost, for the injustice, etc.????? If YOU are the remnant, then it is YOU, He is calling not the vast majority!!!! Let that sink in and listen to HIM! Is it you and I?

*How many times in scripture does it say that hearing they do not hear.....Mat 13:13 Therefore speak

I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.
Act 28:27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with [their] eyes, and hear with [their] ears, and understand with [their] heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

Hbr 5:11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
Isaiah 6 : 9 - And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

Let's look at some examples of this! Here is David who offered a sacrifice that cost him for the plague to stop amidst his people.

2 Sam. 24 : 17 - 18 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house. And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite.
Araunah - 728 - 'Aravnah {ar-av-naw'} Araunah = "I shall shout for joy"
= "make ye to shine (2 Sam. 24:16)"
= "joyful shouting of Jah (2 Sam. 24:18)"

Now look at Moses - He stood in the gap for his sister, who had spoken against him. Num. 12 : 13 - And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee. Here is Moses praying on behalf of his sister who had gossiped and judged him. Hmmm, I wonder what we would do?

Then my favorite, Esther!
God always has and still does use a remnant, not everyone else. THE REMNANT!! Because He trusts us to stand in the gap for unborn babies and for His Will and Justice on this earth. He trusts us to listen and hear when HE calls. How many will HE say to "Depart from ME, I never knew you." Did you answer when I called and chose you for such a time as this? Did you hear when I called in the midnight hour?

It's a call of humility and we carry this call out on our knees calling out to God on the behalf of others, not for our own sake! That's what Jesus did, HE did it for lost humanity, didn't HE? Not for the crowds to hear HIM or for recognition, He did it in Blood and great drops of Blood in a garden where mankind lost it all. SO that we could have that communion once again in the Garden with HIM. He wants a body, not body parts, He wants to bring a body into His Presence and Will!! Those Drops came from His Holy Head in intercession in a Garden, form HIS head so our minds could be set free from the entanglements and lusts of this world. So our eyes would see, so our ears would hear, so our lips would be touched with coals of fire to speak only HIS WORDS no longer our own and we would cry out "Here am I Lord, send me." Not for me but for the lost and dying." !

Will we answer the call as His remnant and become of no repute and fall to our knees and be chosen vessels of fire, His Ministers of Fire and Flames and speak His Word into this generation, so they can be set free. Not speak into crowds for our own glory, but the WORD, His SWORD that will bring life and restoration and deliverance. When we speak that Word of life to the hosts of hell, Fire will come down and consume our sacrifice and set the captives free.
God looked and saw no one –

Ezekiel 22 : 30 -31 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

Isa 59:16 And he saw that [there was] no man, and wondered that [there was] no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

Gap - 6556 - perets {peh'-rets} - 1) breach, gap, bursting forth a) bursting forth, outburst b) breach c) broken wall Who will stand in th gap for His People for His land, for the lost!
Does He know you? Will you answer the call and allow yourself to be chosen for whatever HE calls you to???

Jesus said" Mat. 7 : 21 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

Never - 3763 - oudepote {oo-dep'-ot-eh} - Never at any time
Knew - 1097 - ginosko {ghin-oce'-ko} - get a knowledge of perceive, feel, intercourse

John 10 : 14 - I am the good shepherd, and know my [sheep], and am known of mine.
John 10 : 27 - My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

The remnant throughout history has not had a glorious position, have they? BUT they were willing to do whatever it took to know HIM and be always in His Presence.
What fire is coming from our mouths to this generation? Is it directed of God, is it HIS word in our mouth? Or is the fire directed where it belongs, at the enemy?????? Who do we wrestle against, flesh and blood or the enemy?

Eph 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high [places].

Who is the enemy? People? The devil would love for us to believe that it is!
Gal 5:15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

(He said in 2 Chron. 7 : 14 ...and will heal their land
Land - 776 - 'erets {eh'-rets} - whole earth (as opposed to a part) INHABITANTS, people of the land.
John 10 : 16 - And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, [and] one shepherd.
Then look at the promise to those whose hands are feeble and their knees are weak on their faces before God.
If we only realized the power in our mouth/tongues and the way we use it. Curse the devil and his cohorts and bless the people.

Deut. 30 : I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, [that] I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

Jam 3:10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet [water] and bitter?

Rom 12:20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Mat 5:44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

Luk 6:28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

Rom 12:14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

Pro 18:21 Death and life [are] in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

Jhn 7:38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

Isiaiah 35

The Future Glory of Zion

35The wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them, And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose;
2 It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice, Even with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, The excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, The Excellency of our God.
3 Strengthen the weak hands, And make firm the feeble knees.
4 Say to those who are fearful-hearted, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, With the recompense of God; He will come and save you."
5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, And the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.
6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, And the tongue of the dumb sing. For waters shall burst forth in the wilderness, And streams in the desert.
7 The parched ground shall become a pool, And the thirsty land springs of water; In the habitation of jackals, where each lay, There shall be grass with reeds and rushes.
8 A highway shall be there, and a road, And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it, But it shall be for others. Whoever walks the road, although a fool, Shall not go astray.
9 No lion shall be there, Nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; It shall not be found there. But the redeemed shall walk there,
10 And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, And come to Zion with singing, With everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, And sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

And then of course this promise and word Isiaiah 61 -
The Spirit of the Lord GOD [is] upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to [them that are] bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn.....:
6 - But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: [men] shall call you the Ministers of our God...:
10 - 11 - I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh [himself] with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth [herself] with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

So in conclusion, what sacrifice are we willing to make for this land (2 Chron. 7 : 14). There were first sacrifices that were consumed by fire and we must be willing to do whatever HE Wills.
I do not assume to be right or even a teacher, I am just sharing what felt I was receiving from HIS Holy Word. SO whatever is not a witness to you, discard it.

Lord, give us the desire to do Your Will in this earth. Lord, even more importantly draw us near so we can constantly commune with You. Change us into Your Vessels of Glory for Your Purpose alone.
Consume your sacrifices with Holy Fire and make us vessels of pure gold to reflect and shine forth Your Light in the darknees and break fetters that bind the children who are captive.
How do we know that it is not for such a time as this that we are called to lay down all for our nations as Esther did.

Esther 4 : 16 - Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which [is] not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.
Esther 5 : 1 - Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on [her] royal [apparel], and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, [that] she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that [was] in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what [is] thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. Esther 7 : 8 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

Imagine coming into the Kings Presence and having HIM extend His Sceptre of favor to you and asking you what you desire? Then you say, "My Lord that you would spare the lost of Canada? the lost of America? the lost of Haiti? those dying in Australia? Lord, that you would intervene and stop the slaughter of innocent babies? Lord, that You would touch the starving children and reach the orphans? Lord, that You would pierce the hearts of the religious leaders of our nation? O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish.

Hebrews 4 : 16 - Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace*, that we may* obtain mercy*, and* find grace to help in time of need*.*
Time of need - 2121 eukairos {yoo'-kahee-ros}
- seasonable, timely, opportune

Is It Time To Build The Church?

Clay Sikes

Jul 1, 2005

Though the title is intentionally 'catchy,' I ask you to test the meat of this word. Ask God to reveal any truth that may rest in the content of what is written here. As Arthur Burt says, "Test It!"

The Lord has been speaking recently about "The Body" being reconciled back to Him. I have been impressed in my spirit that there is a sequential order to this; that we must not get the cart ahead of the horse. The reconciled Body will build the Church, not the un-reconciled Body. First, The Body must settle into position as the parts that are called to be joined, are joined. As this joining takes place, as with all assembled Armies, God will speak and His purpose released as each part individually finds its part of the wall to build (See the Book of Jeremiah).

Many Christians (both in and out of Church) are busy trying to build the church themselves; this is an indication of the "temple mentality" still residing strong within. These efforts will fall in frustration and discouragement. God's word to us all is:

"REST AND ALLOW ME TO FULLY RECONCILE MY BODY BACK TO ME, AND THEN, I WILL RELEASE YOU TO BUILD MY CHURCH MY WAY."

True rest means that we do nothing outside the leading of God's Spirit; a concept so foreign to our activity based minds that it is hard to grasp. God has called us to "BE," not do "DO." The "DO" will come when we have first learned to "BE." The first "BE" is IN HIS REST, a place of no function without unction.

The reconciled Body uses spirit rather than intellect for direction; is not bound by years of tradition, education, or what has been familiar. The reconciled Body is sensitive to much change and recognizes that resistance to change is likely the force of tradition, the type that hinders God from being able to speak newness and change - "The traditions of men make the word of God to no effect."

The reconciled Body knows that "Sonship" depends on truly being led of God's Spirit (Romans 8:14), and that there is an inheritance upon this earth for every Son (Romans 8:17). The most blessed and powerful men on earth are those whose lives are a testimony of answered prayer (Revelation 12:11). This powerful Army is now emerging in the earth and will lead many into the greatest move of God this earth has ever seen; but we must not get the cart ahead of the horse.

Is It Too Great A Sacrifice?

Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

July 25, 2005

Again I speak of the future, for time grows short and the ears and eyes of man need to be sharpened. For there is much activity that goes on - yet many see and hear it not. Yet the angels keep asking, "Is it time yet, Lord? Is it time?" And I say back to them, "Yes, it is almost time." For there are many refusing to listen and many refusing to see what is right in front of them. Then there are those who see and hear, and yet say, "But it is not my problem for I am not in authority over that / them.

But do you believe that I would allow you to see or hear something, if I were not also giving you the authority to "DO SOMETHING" about it? For understand this, when you see or hear something that is not of Me, I would not be allowing it, were I not wanting you to pray about it. I would not allow it, were I not giving you the authority to pray into it. I am not allowing it for you to merely comment on it, to say that it is "too bad…." Know this – that nothing is by chance and that I, who am so great as to have created everything, that I - do not allow things to happen by chance, but I know well in advance, of what you will be seeing and hearing, for am I not God of All?

Some would say, "but God, that means I might be praying 24/7 because there is an ever increasing amount of things going on around me. God, is that what you are asking of me – to be in constant petition to you, My Lord and Master?"

I have shown you and taught you that prayer has many forms – for there is praise and worship, there is declaration / proclamation, fasting of many types, fervent intercession and wailing, shouts of joy and exaltation, there is weeping and travail and birthing of many sorts, many use My Word as a sword in their prayers of praise, thanksgiving, and deliverance. So am I asking too much that you would be in prayer 24/7? Even obedience to Me can be seen as a type of prayer and giving of yourself to Me, as being obedient to Me can be the hardest thing I may ask you to do. Remember Abraham and Isaac and the altar? Remember My Son, in the Garden of Gethsemane? Neither of these was easy to do yet they both did as I asked. Do you know and fully understand what that did to satan and his minions?

Yes, I say there are many types of prayer. So do you still think that My asking you to be in prayer 24/7 is too much of a sacrifice for you to do? Do you recall David playing his harp / lyre before Saul? Do you not understand how it quieted the demons within Saul? That many of you suffering from bondage could ease the torment and harassment and get a measure of deliverance from simply surrounding yourself with praise and worship music that honors Me. Do you not understand that the demons within cannot stand praise and worship that honors Me? They would rather leave, than to constantly have to hear it and to hear you sing and or dance with it.

Do you not understand what a powerful weapon of warfare music is and why the enemy uses it so effectively and efficiently with people of all ages? For if he can get you to listen to it – you have opened a door to your spirit which will not be easily shut. For he seeks to have his music seep / creep into your spirit that it becomes a part of you. Many do not realize what they are doing by listening to it, or its' oftentimes "lasting" effect, which can only be "cured" through My Son. For you must repent and seek cleansings of any and all that you have heard that it would be purged from you that you would be filled with My Holy Spirit, Holiness and Purity. But I say, that should you be tempted of this - then there is a deeper root. I say, "Ask Me, that I might reveal to you – that you might get rid of the "cause" from its root, not just the effect that manifests. Be careful what you see and hear for your eyes and ears can be open doors to your spirit.

That which you see can be just as dangerous. Why do you think the enemy has used technology and computers so effectively and efficiently? For it opens the doors of your ears and eyes to your spirit. Be careful what you see and hear. Seek Me, Seek Me, Seek Me – for I know what you see and hear. I know what you say. I KNOW.

So again I ask, is it too much for you to pray 24/7? Am I asking too much of you? Is this too great of a sacrifice for you to make to Me on behalf of yourself and others and for My glory?

How much are you willing to sacrifice to Me, Your Father that My Kingdom will manifest on earth? How much? Have you put a limit on what you are willing to give Me or are you willing to GIVE ME ALL?

Know that by placing limits on yourself you may be placing limits on Me. Yes, I will do what I will do – but do you always accept it? Understand this, You have gotten in the way of My destiny for you many times – by refusing to do as I have asked. You have created your own detours, reaped the consequences and have lengthened the time prior to walking in My destiny for you.

So I ask again, would you be willing to pray 24/7, if I were to ask it of you? Is it too great a sacrifice to make on behalf of yourself, others, and My kingdom?

Your answer will determine your future. For even now, I am knocking on the doors to many hearts. Even now, I am saying Pray, Pray, PRAY like you never have before. Because again I say, the fate of this nation and many others will rest with those who are willing to pray and intercede in whatever form I have called you to use at this time and this hour. Will it take prayer 24/7 to stop this assignment of death and destruction that is coming against this nation and many others. Yes, it will take this from many who will be obedient to My call, who will hear Me knocking on the doors to their hearts. It will take much – but it is possible. As all things are possible through My grace and mercy.

Again I say, Seek Me, Seek Me, Seek Me. Ask for revelation and be obedient to My call. Seek and I will answer.

It Is The Season Of Explosions
Susan Cummings

It is the Season of Explosions. For I have began the release of My Purposes in many arenas and areas. It is time to focus and stand firmly.

The explosions will occur in many levels and dimensions for I am birthing forth and establishing My government and Order again.

I am exploding within My House. I am uncovering all that is covered, hidden, and entrenched within My people, and within My House. I will have a Holy People, who serve Me freely and without any hindrances, control, or wavering.

I am exploding within My Remnant Church. I am bringing all the idols down within the hearts, the minds, and the lives of all. There will be no idols within her, or she will not be Mine.

I am exploding in the religious systems of men. I am bringing Truth to the inward parts, and what is not Truth will fall before Me. My Holiness is now burning across the Land and it will consume all the dross and sin, and bring down the structures of men. What is not founded and built upon Me, will not stand before Me. The clean and the unclean will no longer agree.

I am exploding in the earth and in the heavens. Great signs will be seen in both, as I move within the realms of men, to deal with the sin. The shaking has not yet even fully began, but only the birth pangs. Men will know that I AM. Creation travails to give birth, and will release the pressure, for it cannot be held back any longer.

I am exploding in the government systems of men. What was hidden will become open. The hidden plans will be disclosed and men who are looking for Truth will see the truth of it all. Men will have their final day to rule, but it will swiftly come to an end, as I bring all things to completion.

I am exploding in the reaping and the sowing. Both natural and spiritual.
Natural reaping will bear the weight of sin, as increased pestilence and plagues sweep across the lands. Men have experimented with and have changed my natural laws for their own uses, and will reap their folly. Men have waited to release many things for their own purposes and wickedness. They love the darkness more than the Light. But My Own will know My Hand upon them as the waves move across the land.

Spiritual reaping will also occur as Mine will reap from their intercessions. Great spiritual advances will occur as Mine are launched forth and into their places and they will set free many from the captivity. It is time for reaping that which is Mine, from that which is not. I AM Jealous over Mine, and will release them from their chains and draw them to Myself.

It is time for the Horses to run and Mine to mount their steeds. For the days of Fire have begun.

Grace Is Not Grace Until You Embrace It
Susan Cummings

Grace is not Grace, until you embrace it, child. For it cannot do it's work within you unless you let it in. My Grace is always available to you, but it never works it's work, unless you embrace it's fullness.

Transformation comes when you totally surrender to My Grace. For My Grace is your invitation to draw closer and to be changed. It is up to you to respond, and then to be obedient to My Voice in that time. If you cannot embrace it, then it cannot work within and without you.

You need my Judgments and My Grace to be fully complete. My Judgments are My Grace. My Grace is more than just My Judgments, it is also My Mercy, My Love, My Truth, and My Holiness. It is so much more. It is available to you. Take My Hand and walk with Me, and allow Me to change you even more.

I am unveiling My Grace to you so that you can be free from some of the entanglements that come against you from time to time. Many of your struggles stem from your weaknesses and some from your strengths. But all of them come from your lack of trust in Me. You must trust Me in all areas.

Remain rooted and grounded in Me. Do not waver, but keep your trust in Me. Do not try to please others, but please Me. For I am able to keep thee. I am able to change thee. I am able to set thee free. Do not fear what others think and keep your feet from wandering as you walk. But place your footsteps within Mine.

I am moving. Keep moving as I move.

Don't allow thoughts of inferiority to weigh heavily upon you. You know what I have said to you. Keep to My Word. Allow My Grace to be sufficient for you. I am able to keep you from falling and straying, if you embrace My Grace today.

Leave tomorrow to Me.

In Jesus’ Name We Pray

Bill Somers
Mount Gilead Ohio USA

www.etpv.org
September 3, 2009

I have gotten in the habit of ending all my praying with the phrase ‘In Jesus name we pray’. It’s almost as if this phrase is a magical formula that guarantees our praying will be effective. This is a habit I picked up early in my Christian walk from others who prayed that same way. Occasionally one of them would remind people that this is all based on a scripture.

> John 15:16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name*, he may give it you.*
> John 16:23-24
> 23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name*, he will give it you.*
> 24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

The problem with that is that it just doesn’t automatically work every time. Unless there is an anointing on it, there is no truth in it. Why? Simple logic. The anointing indicates the presence or inspiration of the Spirit of God who is also the Spirit of Truth, and of Grace. No anointing means no Spirit and therefore no truth.

Now we are not talking about praying the name of Jesus or using the name ‘Jesus’ in prayer. That is very powerful regardless. But there is a difference between using Jesus name in prayer and praying in the name of Jesus. And the promises Jesus gives in John 15 and 16 mentioned above have to do with praying in Jesus name.

What does it mean to Pray in Jesus’ Name?

In biblical language, your name is not just a word that you are called by. It indicates your nature, character and authority. So to Pray in Jesus’ Name means you must pray in his nature, character and authority, simple as that.

Character

We are called to be conformed to the image of Jesus, that would mean showing forth the character of Jesus..

> Romans 8:29-30
> 29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.
> 30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

That image we are to be conformed to is the Jesus who learned perfect obedience by the things he suffered.

> Hebrews 5:8-9

> 8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;
> 9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

Nature
We are also to be ‘partakers of the Divine nature.’

> 2 Peter 1:4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Authority
With these two in place, we are then to be able to speak God’s word with the authority of Jesus. And we know there is no limit to the authority of Jesus.

> Matthew 28:18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

This is what he is promising in John 15 and 16 quoted above. It’s not just a simple formula to get prayers answered.

So how does the fulfillment of this promise come about?

When God gives you a new name, it means he is changing your nature, character and authority. In Genesis, for example, he did it for Jacob who became Israel.

> Genesis 32:28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

A New Name
Here are a couple passages where God speaks of giving a new name.

> Isaiah 62:2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.
>
> Revelation 2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.
> Revelation 3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

Isaiah 62 has an end time context and of course, the book of Revelation has an end time context. So first we see that this is something to happen in the end times. Next, notice that the verses from Revelation tell us that the new name is given to ‘him that overcometh’. God’s not looking for survivors; he’s looking for overcomers. The overcomers are those who get the new name, which means a new nature, a new character and new authority.

> Revelation 2:26-27
> 26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

> 27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.
> Revelation 12:5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

This is the same group of overcomers we see in Revelation 14. They are with the Lamb [Jesus] and they have his father's name [nature, character and authority] written in their foreheads.

> Revelation 14:1-5
> 1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.
> 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:
> 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.
> 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.
> 5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

These are also said to be not defiled, virgins, i.e. pure; having no guile; without fault before God and to follow the lamb wherever he goes. These are the ones that will pray, according to the Name of Jesus. And their prayers will be answered by the father.

In Luke 24, the bible speaks of Jesus commissioning his disciples to go and preach. Note verse 45 which speaks of understanding the scriptures. This is a prophetic picture of the overcomers in the end times who receive the Revelation of Jesus Christ, that they might understand the scriptures and preach in his name.

> Luke 24:45-47
> 45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,
> 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:
> 47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Illumination

Brenda Dowdin

Beloved Ones:

I recently returned from a family vacation to the Atlanta area, to visit extended family. On the return trip while flying over the Denver area I had a vivid vision. What I saw looked like the weather channel. I saw the winds swirling around, and weather fronts moving across the U.S. I heard the Lord say that Georgia would be visited by a fierce wind. I saw an oppression coming as what looked like storm fronts descending upon the face of the United States. Then after I returned home this Saturday, I read of the various earth quakes we've had here in California.

I began to ask the Lord about these things and this is what I sensed:

"The darkness is coming upon the land, but a great illumination of my presence will ascend from my Beloved Ones. I will use you to bring light to the darkness. I will even reveal hidden mysteries. I will open up portals that have been closed to man until this time. Murders, that have been shrouded in darkness will be solved as I give new discoveries to science. The Marilyn Monroe Murder and J.F. Kennedy Murder will be just a few of those that I will bring to the light. Light will illuminate the darkness and I will reveal my glory through these scientific phenomenon. Seasons will begin to change, and weather patterns will change. This will be a sign and wonder that the earth realm has stepped in to a new spiritual season. Places that have had heat will have cooler weather and those places that have been dry will experience rains. This is not a "global warming", but a "global warning" of the times and season the earth has entered in to. As the darkness becomes greater, so will my glory illuminate in my own.

Revival is coming.

You ask, What does it look like? It looks like love. It looks like serving one another in love. It looks like forgiveness. Brokenness, a contrite spirit. There is a pouring out of wrath that is coming, and a pouring out of my spirit. Little ones, I don't say these things to bring you fear, but to keep you in an alert and prayerful place- resting in me. My watchmen must stay alert, keeping their ears pressed up against my chest to hear my heart beat. They must warn my people. They must cry out for their land. They must be attentive to my spirit, and listen. I will hold them accountable for not communicating my heart. They must speak my heart in love. They must deliver the message, for they are only the messenger.

Be careful to not speak evil of my watchmen, for they only speak of what I show them. If they speak on their own I will discipline them. But, be careful to not judge them. Pray for them and bless them. Times are serious and the message of the Lord must come and be delivered....." "You are in the days of Acts, I will not tolerate open defiance any longer. Yes, there is still grace, but after a season of training, willful disobedience will be punished! Times are serious and this is a wake up call for my people."

Peace in the midst of chaos....

Our family arrived at the Atlanta airport at 5:00Am this last Saturday, for a scheduled flight at 6:30AM. As soon as we checked our baggage in they closed the airport. All they told everyone was, "There's been an emergency and no one is flying out or in right now." At first I wondered if it was a bomb, or a terrorist attack, but I felt a Shalom. We waited around an hour or so with at least a thousand others waiting patiently in line. Then we were released to fly. Apparently there was a fire in the Airport Tram that takes you to the airline gates. What I found interesting is we made it home still on time, no hitches in the trip. I sensed the Lord saying although there may be hindrances, his peace will be with us and that we will be in His timing. When you are moving with the Lord he has time under his control~ and in the palm of his hand! When we arrived in Denver we got off our plane and ran to the next terminal. Our second plane was waiting for us. We boarded, and with in 10 minutes were off in flight again.

Heavenly Gates.... The Lord began to speak to me about the gates staying open. When it seems that you have been delayed by hindrances, the gates of the Lord will stay open for you. Even if others are already on board with the Lord, he will wait for all of us! If circumstances are holding you up, and they are out of your control, trust the Lord. He's holding the keys and keeping the gates open to usher you through and you will arrive right on schedule!

I leave these thoughts and words with you all for your discernment. I realize we are in serious times and I take to heart the things I have related here. I am only a vessel, and I pray my words are accurate, but please offer me grace as I endeavor to hear him clearly, and then only through a glass dimly.....

Lovingly In Him, Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Standing At The Gate
Brenda Dowdin

My Child,

The greatest battle is at the gate...you stand at the gate. The gate of decision, the gate of breakthrough, the gate of destiny. Don't hide your face from me right now. I take your chin in my hands and gently raise it up as I gaze in to your lovely eyes. You have eyes only for me, just as doves eyes. I am the true gate keeper and I hold the gate wide open for you to enter. I will clear away all distractions and hindrances. Trust me. As you have entered a new season, set yourself aside for me, lean into me more. Yes you are feeling oppression, and apathy, like you are in a sedentary state. I beckon you to let me lift your face towards mine, look in to my eyes and worship me. Worship will release your mind, will and emotions... Its a new season and I stand at the gate to usher you through in to victory!

2 Chronicles 20: 21-22 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the Lord, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying: "Praise the Lord, For his mercy endures forever." Now when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated!"

Be encouraged Beloveds... Lovingly in Him, Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

> For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem Romans 15:26

A look at the theme of Paul's return in Romans as an allegory of the Lord's return, and its implications for the Church

Introduction

In Romans, Paul spends a lot of time talking about his return. Right in chapter 1 he speaks of wanting to come, and then goes into reasons he has not yet done so. In chapter 15 he returns to the topic, speaking of his journey into Spain, but first he has to go to Jerusalem. He mentions that the people of Macedonia and Achaia have made a contribution to the poor saints at Jerusalem; that this is his reason for going there first.

[It is commonly taught that Paul was speaking of finances here, that he was bringing a sum of money collected in Greece to give to the Church at Jerusalem.]

I believe that there is an end time lesson here. Paul's proposed journey is an allegory for the Second Coming Of Christ. The reasons for his delay have to do with things that must happen before he returns. His first stop on the trip is Jerusalem, where Jesus will also again set foot on the mount of olives. Of course we are talking about natural or physical Second Coming, not the spiritual second coming.

The people of Macedonia and Achaia represent the gentile church, and the poor saints at Jerusalem are the Jews who get saved at the very end. The gentiles contribution to those at Jerusalem is the sacrifice of their lives under end time persecution. These are the overcomers who 'avenge not themselves' but 'give place to wrath' because 'they loved not their lives even unto death'.

Revelation speaks of a certain number of martyrs that must be killed, during the end times, before God will avenge their blood. Once this remaining number comes in, things start to happen very rapidly. This remaining number of martyrs is what is spoken of in Romans 11 as the fullness of the Gentiles. And when they come in means they are harvested into heaven, by martyrdom. After this the blindness over Israel will be removed, so they can see clearly their need to call upon the Lord for their salvation.

How does this happen? We know that when the Lord returns, he first carries out judgment on the heavenly powers, before he actually returns to earth. This is important because it is these heavenly powers that form the veil of spiritual blindness over Israel, so that removing them removes the veil. Why then does he wait for a certain number of martyred saints before taking action?

A clue is found in Isaiah [34:4], where he speaks of stars falling from heaven as a leaf falling off the vine, or a fig off a fig tree. The stars falling from heaven are ruling demonic powers coming down. The leaves falling off the vine are saints which are martyred. If there is a correlation between the two, then the number of saints has to equal or better the number of 'stars' for the judgement to be complete. Which means that there is a set number that must be reached. This only happens by a great end time harvest with multitudes getting saved and then martyred so the fullness of the gentiles comes in.

Once the wicked rulers in high places are disposed of, the veil is removed from Israel and they are grafted back into the body of Christ, the olive tree {Romans 11]. This is referred to as life from the dead, and has a double meaning. You see, this also speaks of the resurrection of the saints at this time. Which is followed right away by the translation or rapture of the remnant of the saints who are still left alive after all the persecution.

That sums up what I believe the Lord has shown me about this topic. Before we get into the details of how scripture supports this viewpoint, a word about method.

Understanding Scripture

Approach the scripture with two things in mind. First, that every word is divinely inspired and has a purpose. Second, that the bible is primarily non literal.

I recall a time when I was explaining how the Lord had shown me the handwriting on the floor in John 8. I made a claim that the woman taken in adultery is a type of the church. "Well how do you know that she is a type of the church, how can you find these types all over the place?" someone asked. I didn't have a ready answer at the moment, but I learned to explain it this way. You have to expect it. You have to expect to find types, symbols and allegories in the bible. Once you see that this is how the Lord puts things into the scripture, it's much easier for him to reveal them to you. Then when you come across a type in the bible, you are prepared to see the correspondence between the type and the thing it points to. You cannot force a comparison or depend strictly on your own logic. It must not come by 'flesh and blood' but from the Spirit revealing it to you. But if you do not expect to find types, or your theological background has taught you to treat these topics as strictly literal, then you'll be stuck. You won't be able to go past the literal face value of the word, ever learning, but never coming into deeper knowledge.

Let's start with an illustration of how this works.

> For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life
> But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead
> Who delivered us from so great a death ….2 Corinthians 1:8-10

This is written by Paul, describing his experiences on one of the trips he took through Asia. That's the literal face value of this passage. How can you go deeper? Here's a clue. Jerusalem is also in Asia. If you substitute Jerusalem for Asia, you see that these words could have been spoken by Jesus after his resurrection. The same thing that happened to Paul had also happened to Jesus. [Just because it happened later makes no difference.] Here is a case where Jesus is speaking to us directly through Paul.]

The bible was produced by men writing down what the Spirit directed them to write. So all of it is God speaking to man. Parts of it have the appearance of historical record, or personal memoirs. But that is just the surface meaning. The real meat is below the surface. Here it seems as though Jesus is speaking through Paul, because he really is speaking through Paul. Many of the other things that happened to Jesus also happened to Paul. Paul is used as a type of Jesus in many cases; and he is also used as a type of the church in many places.

Romans

We're going to look at parts of the book of Romans. And we're going to filter out some of the details that pertain only to Paul, to look beneath the surface and see the parts where Jesus is speaking directly to us. And we'll cross reference other passages to bring out the fuller meaning.

The Trip

In Romans 1 we find the first mention of Paul's desire to make a journey and return to them.

> *First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world
> For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;
> *Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you
> For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;*
> That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
> Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. Romans 1:8-13

One especially significant phrase is where he says without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;. This is a case where God uses hyperbole, that is exaggeration, to give us a clue that there is a deeper meaning. It's exaggeration for Paul to say that he prays without ceasing, but if we see that this is Jesus speaking through him, it makes sense. This is because we know from Hebrews 7 that Jesus is always interceding for us at the Father's throne.

> Wherefore he [Jesus] is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. Hebrews 7:25

Now one of the things Jesus is praying for is His return. His request is that "I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you For I long to see you ...."

Conditions

But something is preventing Jesus return. Now if we look at what reasons Paul gives for his return being delayed we can see that they parallel Jesus reasons for delay.

> Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. Romans 1:13

The phrase 'was let hitherto' is sometimes translated 'hindered until now'; and 'Gentiles' can also be translated as 'nations'. So this is saying that the journey has been delayed so he can have fruit among the nations or Gentiles. Lets look at what is meant by fruit.

> Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me
> I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. John 15:4-5

Here we find that there are two ideas involved. One is being attached to the vine and the second is to then bring forth fruit. These correspond to the meanings of bringing forth fruit.

What is meant by Fruit?

Bringing forth fruit has two main meanings. The individual believer having the fruit of the spirit in their lives, and the fruit of the earth. Recall in Genesis where this is first mentioned. Here God commands the fruit of the earth to come forth on the Third Day. Prophetically, The Third Day is a Day of Harvest.

> And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. Genesis
> And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good
> And the evening and the morning were the third day. Genesis 1:11-13

The fruit of the spirit is the evidence of Christ being formed in the believer. The fruit of the earth speaks of the harvest of souls into the kingdom of God. The fruit harvest that coincides with the Feast of Tabernacles, celebrated in the fall of the year, speaks of this harvest of souls.. Both of these are vital to our end time understanding.

First comes the harvest of souls that will come with preaching the gospel. This is touched on in both Matthew and Mark.

> And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Matthew 24:14

> And the gospel must first be published among all nations. Mark 13:10

So looking back at Romans 1:8-13 what Jesus, speaking through Paul, is saying it this. He desires to return to us, but cannot until the gospel is preached to all the nations [Gentiles] and there is a harvest of souls from all nations. And these are not just political nations but ethnic nations as seen in Revelation 5:9.

> And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; Revelation 5:9

Second comes the fruit of the Spirit, here itemized in Galatians 5.

> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: ….. Galatians 5:22-23

Now how does this fruit of the Spirit come forth. In Colossians 1 we find this discussed along with other topics. Here are the key verses pertaining to our essay.

> We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
> Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
> For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
> Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth: Colossians 1:3-6
>
> If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; Colossians 1:23
> To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: Colossians 1:27

Now this is quite a mouthful. Let's simplify it by bringing out the basic sentence structure of verses 3-6. When we do this is what we get:

> We give thanks for the hope.

Next, the hope is described several ways one of them is that it brings forth fruit in you.

> Which brings forth fruit in you.

Since the fruit is in us, we know this speaks of fruit of the spirit. Now there is a condition given; that is if we continue in the faith and do not move away from it.

> If you continue in the faith.

Then we see this hope described as a mystery and identified as the hope of glory.

> This mystery is Christ in you, the hope of Glory.

We'll describe continuing in the faith as obedience, and we'll see that obedience to the gospel is an idea that is brought out in later verses. To summarize this discussion so far, Jesus is delayed in returning because he is waiting for fruit among the nations. Fruit of the Earth which is the harvest and Fruit of the Spirit which is Christ indwelling his body. This is often described in terms of an equivalent idea, death to self. He must increase, we must decrease. So as He is formed in us, we must die to self.

And once we are dead to self, there is no fear of death. Then we can overcome the enemy who once held us in bondage by that same fear of death. So that facing martyrdom without fear is proof that we have overcome the wicked one.

We say that the fruit of the earth comes with preaching of the gospel; and the fruit of the spirit comes with obedience to the gospel.

[What exactly will obedience to the gospel require? Except martyrdom, for me to live is Christ and to die is gain!]

Notice also in this passage from Colossians, that it mentions continual prayer, verse 3. And it speaks of the gospel coming to all the world, verse 5 and 6, and being preached to every creature, verse 23. And verse 27 mentions the gentiles.

Now lets look back at Romans 1:8-13. We said the phrase 'was let hitherto' is sometimes translated 'hindered until now'. What or when is the 'now' he is talking about?

> Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you

He has been hindered till now, but now at length [after all this time] he says, I might come to you. Paul is talking about a present situation when he is writing this. But we find that Jesus, speaking through him, is speaking of a future time when he can say that the hindrances have been removed and the conditions met for his return. So this discussion is prophetic of a time yet to come when this will take place.

Here are some verses where we see this spoken of.

> But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. Romans 10:18
> Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Romans 15:19

There are many issues and themes in Romans, but [to avoid getting bogged down in side issues] we are going to concentrate on the discussion of the return found in chapter 15, with references to Chapters 11 and 12.

The Gentiles

Chapter 15 opens with an exhortation to serve one another, to receive one another and to have one mind and mouth to glorify God. This speaks of unity in the body, the kind of unity we see prophesied in Psalm 133. It's an end time unity that comes when the body of Christ is assembled together, a fruit of the spirit.

Then we read as follows.

> Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers
> And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. Romans 15:8-9

Let's break that down by rephrasing it somewhat.
Saying that Jesus was a minister of the circumcision is saying that he was a minister of the covenant to the people of the covenant, the Jews. Circumcision was a sign of the covenant.
To add for the truth of God is to say he preached to them the gospel of the kingdom.
To continue and say to confirm the promises made unto the fathers speaks of confirming the covenant and fulfilling the scriptures. All of which he clearly did, at least those pertaining to the first coming.

Then he starts in discussing the Gentiles [nations].
We read And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy and so on.

[How exactly might the Gentiles Glorify God? Jesus told Peter how in this passage from John

> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not
> This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had > spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. (John 21:18-19 KJV)}

The use of 'and' at the beginning of this sentence "And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy" breaks Jesus' ministry into two objectives. One is to minister to the Jews and the other is to bring salvation to the Gentiles.

The Jews

Look now to Romans 11 starting with verse 8..

> 8. (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
> 9. And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them
> 10. Let their eyes be darkened that they may not see, and bow down their back always
> 11. I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy
> 12. Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?
> 13. For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office
> 14. If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them
> 15. For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? Romans 11:8-15

Here in verse 11 it says through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles. Because the Jews fell in unbelief, the Gentiles could be saved.

Lets go over that again. Jesus came to the Jews, the lost sheep of Israel, but they could not accept him. We read in verse 8 above that God had given them a spirit of slumber … unto this day [until now]. I believe this is what is meant by giving them up in Micah 5:3

> Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel. Micah 5:3

Therefore the gospel could be preached to the Gentiles, i.e. all the world. Now verse 12 is very interesting in that it describes the fall of the Jews as the 'riches of the world' and the diminishing of them as the 'riches of the Gentiles'. But then this is contrasted with their fullness, which he implies will be much greater when he says how much more their fullness? First their falling then comes their fullness. Verse 15 speaks of their casting away as the reconciling of the world and their restoration as something much greater, life from the dead. First comes their casting away, then their receiving back.

Then in verses 16-24 there is a long discussion comparing the Jews to natural branches of a good olive tree and the Gentiles to branches of a wild olive tree, grafted into the good. This is because the natural branches are broken off. Then it is followed by mention of grafting the natural branches back into the tree.

> 16. For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches
> 17. And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree
> 18. Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee
> 19. Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in > 20. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear
> 21. For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee

> 22. Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off
> 23. And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again
> 24. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? Romans 11:16-24

Micah, above, speaks of this process as the giving up of the Jews followed by their return. Paul here has three ways he describes it.
A. Their fall followed by their fullness.
B. Their casting away followed by their being received back again.
C. And their being broken off followed by their being grafted back in again.

Now these terms, fullness, receiving back and grafted back all refer to one and the same thing, their salvation.

Here is Romans 11:25-32.

> 25. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in > 26. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
> 27. For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins
> 28. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes
> 29. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance
> 30. For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief
> 31. Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy
> 32. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. Romans 11:25-32

And now we find it spelled out plainly in verse 26 thusly: And so all Israel shall be saved.

Also here God is laying out his ultimate aim in verse 32, that he might have mercy upon all. In order to do so, he must first bring blindness upon Israel. Thus he says: blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. If the fullness of Israel is their salvation, then the fullness of the Gentiles is their salvation also. After the salvation of the Gentiles will come the salvation of Israel, the Jews.

Let's look at verses 26 -27. Rearranging the word order so it makes a little more sense we get this.

> For this is my covenant unto them, all Israel shall be saved when I shall take away their sins; as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

All Israel shall be saved when I shall take away their sins; written that way it sounds pretty obvious doesn't it.

Now a look at 28-29:

> 28. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes
> 29. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance

They are enemies of the Gospel. [Don't be surprised at this.] It's for your sake means that this had to happen for salvation to be available to the Gentiles [the readers of Romans]. They will continue to be enemies of the Gospel till the blindness is removed. But they are beloved as touching the election.

The election is the choice i.e. they are chosen. This is because of the covenant made with their fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. That the gifts and calling of God are without repentance means that they cannot be changed, this applies to that covenant.

Now let's look very carefully at verses 30-31

> 30. For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief
> 31. Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy

You, Gentiles, were in unbelief. Now you have mercy because of their unbelief.

They, the Jews, are in unbelief. They will obtain mercy through your mercy! Or in other words, they will obtain salvation through your salvation. And your salvation is what us meant by the fullness of the Gentiles coming in.

We note that the wording here is fullness of the Gentiles be come in. [One might expect this to mean "the full number of the Gentiles".] If fullness speaks of salvation, what does it mean to say it has come in? And where is it come into? And why is the word fullness used to mean salvation?

Without writing another essay on salvation, let's argue this. We who are alive and remain on this earth, who know and follow the Lord, are being saved. Those who have passed on to be with Him in eternity are the saved or have been saved. They have come in to the heavenly city and are those who stand worshipping before the throne and/or cry from beneath the altar. They have been harvested.

Now there are people continually being saved and continually passing on to be with Him, so how can we speak of a time, a fixed point of time, when the fullness of the Gentiles comes in?

Well look at how the Lord speaks of the fullness of Israel in Romans 11:12 and later makes that equivalent to saying all Israel shall be saved in verse 26. If the fullness of Israel is all Israel, then the fullness of the Gentiles is all the Gentiles. [And no, we're not teaching universal salvation here.]

Does this mean that a full number of the Gentiles will come in and no more after that? Here we must realize that the Lord can use generalities, just as we do. It does not mean that no Gentiles were saved before Jesus came. It does not mean that no Jews were saved after Jesus ascended to heaven. It does not mean that no Jews are being saved today. Nor can it mean that no Gentiles can be saved after 'all Israel is saved'.

It's referring to a significant event in which a large significant number of Gentiles come in all at once. That event is spoken of in Revelations.

> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. (Revelations 13:7 KJV)

And then, after that, a large significant number of Jews come in all at once. That event is spoken of in Zechariah.

> And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. (Zechariah 12:9-10 KJV)

The fullness of the Gentiles must come in before the blindness is removed from Israel. Then all Israel gets saved. So there is some kind of cause effect relationship between these two events.

We said earlier that God is laying out his ultimate aim in verse 32, that he might have mercy upon all. After the Gospel is preached to all the world, the fullness of the Gentiles can come in. His instruction to the Gentiles then is found just after completing chapter 11 and rolling on to chapter 12 where we read this.

> I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Romans 12:1

Here the word 'therefore' points back to the goal stated in chapter 11. That All Israel be saved. The phrase present your bodies a living sacrifice speaks of laying down our lives for the Lord. This is the martyrdom of the Church, the Saints spoken of in Revelation 6.

> 9. And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held
> 10. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth
> 11. And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Revelation 6:9-11

Here the martyrs in heaven are told that after a 'little season' the rest of those, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. This speaks of a certain number whose martyrdom is required and a certain condition that must be fulfilled.

The Gentiles

Now lets go back to Romans 15 where we left off.

> 8. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers

Continuing on from there we read.

> 9. And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name
> 10. And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people
> 11. And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people
> 12. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust

Now here we find 4 out of context quotes where the Lord reminds us that the Gentiles were always part of His Plan. [The word for Gentiles can also be translated heathen or nations.] The first, in verse 9, is from 2 Samuel 22:50, and s repeated in Psalm 18:49. The Second in verse 10 is found in Deuteronomy 32:43. The third found in verse 11 comes from Psalm 117:1. And the last in verse 12 is taken from Isaiah 11:10.

> 13. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost
> 14. And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another

Look at how He describes the believers in verses 13-14. Is this a description of today's church? Not exactly, rather it is a portrait of the End Time Church, one that's filled with righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost, one where the Kingdom of God is established; and where belief equals obedience. A Church where the people are overcomers because they love not their lives, even unto death. It's a Church that is bearing the Fruit of the Spirit!

> 15. Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God
> 16. That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost

These last 4 verses are very important. What he is saying here is something like this.

> I am praying that you be of a certain mind. [Ready, willing and obedient.]
> I already know that you are of this certain mind.
> Nevertheless, I write boldly to remind you to be of this certain mind.

SO THAT the offering up [not just the offering] of the Gentiles might be acceptable. Here he is looking back to Romans 12:1, where he speaks of a sacrifice acceptable unto God.

> I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Romans 12:1

Now here the phrase which is your reasonable service speaks of obedience. Service in this verse is sometimes translated 'worship'. It means that we can worship God by being obedient and offering up [or laying down] our lives as a holy sacrifice.

> 17. I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God
> 18. For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed

Notice here once again the emphasis on the Gentiles obedience to the gospel. This is described as obedience in word and deed showing that there is fruit of the spirit present.

Continuing on in Romans 15:

> 19. Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ
> 20. Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation
> 21. But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand
> 22. For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you

These verses once again speak of the gospel being preached unto all the world. Firstly as something that is finally accomplished, and secondly reminding us that it had to be done before He could come to us. It's the fruit among the Gentiles. It's the fruit of the earth that gives us the number of saints in the end time harvest. It's the fruit of the spirit that gives the obedience that makes the sacrifice acceptable.

> And the gospel must first be published among all nations. Mark 13:10

Continuing on we read.

> 23. But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you
> 24. Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company

But now, he says, I take my journey! This meaning, now that the gospel has been preached to all the world, the fullness of the gentiles is come in. The Fruit is harvested. And so now I can come again.

> 25. But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints

And now I go unto Jerusalem, where as we read in Zechariah:

> Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.
> And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, … (Zechariah 14:3-4 KJV)

Continuing on we read.

> 26. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem

Because, the Gentiles, Macedonia and Achaia, [two witnesses, if you will], have made the contribution of martyrdom in obedience to the gospel.

How exactly is this a contribution?

Because these martyrs contribute to the required number that must be killed. Once the remaining number of martyrs have come in, the Lord will arise and take vengeance for their spilled blood.

> God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet. Psalm 47:5

When the Lord returns, he first carries out judgment on the heavenly powers, before he actually returns to earth.

> For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth. Micah 1:3

Why does there have to be a certain number?

Simply because there is a certain number of His enemies that must be judged. In Isaiah 34 we read of this judgment.

> And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree
> For my sword shall be bathed in heaven …. (Isaiah 34:4-5 KJV)

Here the context is the Second Coming. The reference to the vine and fig tree is a reference to the Church. So to speak of a leaf falling from the vine or a fig from the fig tree is to speak of one of the saints falling in martyrdom. To speak of the host of heaven falling down is to speak of the fall of one of the heavenly powers, wicked rulers in high places. Psalm 82 mentions this when it depicts the Lord pronouncing judgment on the gods.

> But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes
> Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations. (Psalms 82:7-8 KJV)

So Isaiah is talking about the coming judgment of demonic powers of the air, [stars or hosts of heaven] comparing it to the martyrdom of the saints. There is a correlation between the two, then the number of saints has to equal or better the number of 'stars' for the judgement to be complete. Which means that there is a set number that must be reached.

The Missing Ingredient

But wait, there is a missing ingredient here. We know from reading Matthew 23 that there is another condition for Jesus to come to Jerusalem. He must be invited!

> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!
> Behold, your house is left unto you desolate
> For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. (Matthew 23:37-39 KJV)

That condition is met, I believe in the passage we quoted from Zecharaiah above, describing how the Jews will be grafted back in.

> And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be > in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. (Zechariah 12:9-10 KJV)

The fullness of the Jews implies that they will indeed call upon him saying Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

The Second Coming

Once the powers of heaven are fallen, the blindness is lifted. The heavens are open and then the Lord pours out the spirit of grace and of supplications upon his brethren, kinsmen according to the flesh. This initiates the Second Coming.

If the blindness is lifted earlier or by some other means, the fullness of the Jews would come before the fullness of the gentiles, leaving many unsaved. This is why the Second Coming awaits the fullness of the Gentiles.

> 26. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem
> 27. It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things
> 28. When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain
> 29. And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. Romans 15:8-29

Summary:

Paul's proposed journey in the Book of Romans is an allegory for the Second Coming Of Christ. The reasons for his [Jesus} delay have to do with things that must happen before he returns. Paul's first stop on the trip is Jerusalem, where Jesus will also again set foot on the mount of olives.

The people of Macedonia and Achaia represent the gentile church, and the poor saints at Jerusalem are the Jews who get saved at the very end. The gentiles contribution to those at Jerusalem is the sacrifice of their lives under end time persecution. These are the overcomers who 'avenge not themselves' but 'give place to wrath' because 'they loved not their lives even unto death'.

Revelation speaks of a certain number of martyrs that must be killed, during the end times, before God will avenge their blood. Once this remaining number comes in, things start to happen very rapidly. This remaining number of martyrs is what is spoken of in Romans 11 as the fullness of the Gentiles. And when they come in means they are harvested into heaven, by martyrdom. After this the blindness over Israel will be removed, so they can see clearly their need to call upon the Lord for their salvation.

How does this happen? We know that when the Lord returns, he first carries out judgment on the heavenly powers, before he actually returns to earth. This is important because it is these heavenly powers that form the veil of spiritual blindness over Israel, so that removing them removes the veil. Why then does he wait for a certain number of martyred saints before taking action?

A clue is found in Isaiah [34:4], where he speaks of stars falling from heaven as a leaf falling off the vine, or a fig off a fig tree. The stars falling from heaven are ruling demonic powers coming down. The leaves falling off the vine are saints which are martyred. If there is a correlation between the two, then the number of saints has to equal or better the number of 'stars' for the judgement to be complete. Which means that there is a set number that must be reached. This only happens by a great end time harvest with multitudes getting saved and then martyred so the fullness of the gentiles comes in.

Once the wicked rulers in high places are disposed of, the veil is removed from Israel and they are grafted back into the body of Christ, the olive tree {Romans 11]. This is referred to as life from the dead, and has a double meaning. You see, this also speaks of the resurrection of the saints at this time. Which is followed right away by the translation or rapture of the remnant of the saints who are still left alive after all the persecution. All of which takes place just before the Second Coming.

Imagination
Gailyn Van Rheenen

Feb 2, 2005
Recently Randy Harris of Abilene Christian University spoke at a Mission Alive retreat for church planters about the spiritual gift of imagination. Imagination is the spiritual gift whereby Christians reflect upon scripture and natural revelation within their life situations to envision what God wants. It is "seeing things as God sees them, catching a dream as big as God is" (Harris 2004). Christian leaders, using this gift, image alternative worlds. For example, Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech envisioned a world of equality, where black and white live in harmony, without discrimination.

This Monthly Missiological Reflection images six transformations that the church must undergo in order to be faithful to God within contemporary urban cultures. The transformations generally deal with the incipient syncretism of Christian forms and beliefs with Modernity. It seeks to answer the question, "What does the church look like if it truly reflects the nature and 'passion' of Christ?"

Imagining Christ's Church in the City

From a Cognitive Cathedral to a Holy People Walking with God

Churches developed during the Modern era generally exist to dispense information. Unbelievers become Christians by receiving new information and grow in Christ to become leaders through enhanced understandings. The role of the preaching minister or pastor is that of teacher, dispensing information to the flock. Churches thus became cognitive groups ascribing to a set of teachings and meeting for a few hours each week in a palace of bricks and mortar to receive additional teaching.

God, however, expects more. He desires that his people not only know about him but that they also walk personally with him.

Envision churches full of people whose lives exist in relationship with God, where members passionately, whole-heartedly pursue full devotion to Christ. As Christians look toward the glory of God, they are "being transformed into his likeness with ever increasing glory, which comes from the Lord" (2 Cor. 3:18). Like the early Christian church, they devote "themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer" (Acts 2:42).

From Attenders to Community

People "go to church" for many different reasons: It is their duty. It is a place to meet people of influence. Their children receive moral instruction. Attending church assuages guilt and declares to self and others that they are religious. The church fulfills what Maslow calls "self-actualizaton needs." All is well because a responsibility has been discharged.

Turning to God, relating intimately with him in Christian community, discovering his will, and developing the discipline to implement a Christian lifestyle are frequently secondary motivations. Church is considered "a place" to go rather than a people of God in community.

Imagine churches where Christians are not merely spectators but live in community. Christians practice the "one-another" relationships descriptive of Christian fellowship in the Bible. They are God's holy people "clothed . . . with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience." They "bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances [they] have against one another. [They] forgive as the Lord has forgiven [them]" (Col. 3:13). Love "binds them all together in perfect harmony" (Col. 3:14). The church is a community of God on a pilgrimage through life helping each other to continue as Christ's disciples and encouraging others to join them on the journey to reach heaven.

Consider, for example, Jim and Julie, who are struggling with their marriage, their children, and relationships in the workplace. Jim is wrestling specifically with sins of pornography and pride and Julie with depression and the fear of not being an adequate mother. Without the church their marriage will likely disintegrate. But the church as a one-another fellowship of the kingdom of God enables them to overcome sins and provides direction in their relationships. Their fellowship, typically a small group in a larger congregation or a house church, gives them the spiritual direction to live as God's people.

From Members to Ministers

Frequently church is equated with a "place" to attend rather than a fellowship for equipping God's servants for works of service. Church strength is naively gauged by church attendance. The result is that hundreds are mere spectators! Many "Christians" have merely "placed membership" by publicly declaring their affiliation or following a few easy steps to become members. Such understandings of membership have little to do with genuine Christian discipleship.

The Kipsigis of Kenya have a proverb that says, "Magisiche logok si kebagach" ("We do not have children and then leave them."). While we understand this concept with physical children, the concept has not been applied to "baby Christians." The focus continues to be placed upon initial conversion with less emphasis placed on nurturing new Christians to walk with God and equipping them as participating ministers in the kingdom of God. The sad result is that less than 20 percent of the Christians in a typical church do more than 80 percent of the ministry.

Imagine churches where all members have a place of ministry within the body, where leaders focus on training Christians for works of service as the church reaches into the world. Ephesians 4 says that Christ is the prime mover of leadership development since he has provided, by his grace and power, specific gifts to the body (vv. 7-9, 10). He gifted some to be apostles, others to be prophets, and still others to be evangelists and pastors/teachers. These leaders are to "to prepare God's people for works of service." No task is more important for these leaders. Note the progress in the text: The small initial body planted in a locality must be "built up" until it reaches "unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God" so that it becomes "mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ" (vs. 13). The church, then, is no longer composed of "infants, tossed back and forth by the waves and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their scheming" (vs. 14). "Instead, speaking the truth in love" enables the church to "grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ" (vs. 15). The result is a body "joined and held together by every supporting ligament" which "grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work" (vs. 16). Ephesians 4:16 thus describes a mature body, equipped by its leadership for ministry. Doug Murren reports that churches that grow 25% or more each year always have 60% of their attending adults serving in some form of ministry (Murren 2002).

Christians must be nurtured to become Christ-focused, Spirit-led participants in the kingdom of God.

From the Strong to the Weak

In Western culture where they are voluntary associations of individuals, churches strive to gain the loyalty of searchers and to maintain the loyalty of members. Evangelical churches typically opt into this market-driven culture by becoming "vendors of religious goods and services" (Guder 1998, 84). Generally, the focus is on the rich and powerful who have the ability to create and maintain expensive church structures. The church, consequently, looks and sounds more like a business enterprise. Christian leaders begin to view themselves, despite disclaimers, as jars of gold, silver, or bronze rather than simple clay jars, or clay lamps through whom the light of the gospel shines to demonstrate the "all-surpassing power of God" (2 Cor. 4:7).

Imagine churches whose theme is authenticity, where all confess their weaknesses and acknowledge God's sovereign leading. Envision churches reflecting God's nature by caring for the weak, i.e., the children and the poor, those with no means to survive on their own.

Imagine children of unbelievers feeling excitement about God and Jesus, an excitement that then ripples into the family leading to the conversion of mother, father, and other relatives. Children's ministry, consequently, serves as a catalyst for evangelism, an entry point into the church. Barna records that 85 percent of those who come to Christ do so before the age of 15, and that human spiritual foundations are largely formed by age 9 (Barna 2003). Lisa Jones of Christ's Church of the Valley in Philadelphia says that parents have a natural inclination to be involved in their children's activities. These parents are invited to help with the children's ministry and willingly "do it for the kids." Searchers are then incorporated as helpers in the youth program because, "The best way to learn something is to teach it." An evangelistic children's ministry thus provides the relationships that serve to incorporate these searchers into small groups on their journey to know God (Jones 2004).

Envision churches with Jesus' compassion for the poor. At the inception of his ministry, Jesus quoted Isaiah, "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, and release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor" (Luke 4:18-19). Acts of kindness done for the poor are in actuality done to Jesus because he lives among the poor (Matt. 25:31-46).

Although the nature of ministry to the poor may vary, it is not optional. Mission Arlington models an identificational approach to planting multiple apartment churches among the poor while simultaneously ministering to their needs. They believe in "taking church to the people" (www.missionarlington.org). Victory Outreach evangelizes and disciples hurting people through a confrontational, charismatic approach in the prisons, streets, and projects of urban cities (http://www.victoryoutreach.org/; cf. Mathison 1997). No church, even in suburbia, should isolate itself from issues of poverty and injustice. All churches must embody Christ's concern for the poor and disenfranchised. For example, the Adventure Christian Church in Roseville, California, has grown to 6,000 members in the suburbs of Sacramento in ten years while actively supporting and ministering in the inner-city (www.adventurechristian.org).

Paradoxically, much growth comes from the margins of society because of the church's concern for the weak.

In this ministry Christian leaders must posture themselves as fragile jars of clay (literally, clay lamps) through whom the light of the Gospel shines. Never should they portray themselves as prestigious, powerhouses, jars of gold, silver, or bronze.

From Cultural Accommodators to Kingdom Participants

Many churches, significantly influenced by Enlightenment thinking, have been molded to think in rational, propositional categories and have neglected to spiritually form followers of Christ to think of themselves as participants of God's mission and instruments of his kingdom. A syncretism, a blending of Christian beliefs and practices with those of the dominant culture, occurred so that Christianity spoke with a voice reflective of its culture. The church began to lose it moorings and was swept here and there by the ebb and flow of cultural currents. This process continues today with devastating results.

Many Christians are practicing Deists. They diligently study the Bible without expecting God to act in the same way he did in Scripture. They pray for the sick, yet expect God to work only through doctors' hands. God--who created the world, selected Israel to become his chosen people, and gave resurrection power to his Son - is viewed as a clockmaker: "God wound up the clock of the world once and for all at the beginning, so that it now proceeds as world history without the need for his further involvement" (MacDonald 1984, 304-305). In these churches God's "truth is too distant, his grace is too ordinary, his judgment is too benign, his gospel is too easy, and his Christ is too common" (Wells 1994, 30). Thus, Christians who seek to be faithful to the God of the Bible must break from their Enlightenment heritage to believe that God is "majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders" (Ex. 15:11).

Church Growth practitioners also absorb this Modern stance. Assuming that they can chart their way to success by their ingenuity and creativity, they focus on what humans do in missions rather than on what God is doing. Although they advocate faithfulness to God, decisions are based upon anthropological analysis and pragmatic strategies. Theological frameworks are not intentionally developed and formative to practical ministry. They assume the gospel rather than intentionally allow gospel to shape their identities and methodologies.

Thus their illustrations and video clips frequently affirm the connection of the Gospel to popular culture by emphasizing similarity rather than diversity. Hesselgrave writes, "A method of communication that is over dependent on the discovery and utilization of similarities is open to question. In the long run, the dissimilarities between beliefs and practices may be more important and utilitarian. . . . If one's objective is to convert and disciple, the number and importance of these differences will far outweigh the number and importance of supposed similarities" (Hesselgrave 2004, 147, 149).

Because of the church's propensity to accommodate to the prevailing worldviews of popular culture, the church must consistently define itself in itself biblical terms. The church, although contextualized for the contemporary situation, must seek to restore God's intentions for the church in every era.

Imagine churches who perceive themselves as part of the mission and kingdom of God. Church leaders base their identities upon scripture and then move from these theologies to practice. Their terminologies change. They do not "set the DNA" of churches, "build" the church, or "establish" the kingdom. Rather, they "enter into" the mission of God; they "serve" as participants in the kingdom of God.

Their understanding of the church also changes. The church is depicted in theological rather than human terms. The purpose of the church is to reflect the glory of God rather than to provide "religious goods and services." The church is understood to be "a unique community in the world created by God through the Spirit as both holy and human" (Love 2003) and as "a distinctive community formed by the calling and sending of God and reflecting the redemptive reign of God in Christ" (Guder 1998, 77-109). The church is composed of living stones built around the chief cornerstone to become "a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 2:4-5).

In Ephesians 2:19-22 Paul uses multiple metaphors to describe the nature of the church. The church is a new nation: Newly converted Christians are "no longer foreigners and aliens" but "fellow citizens" in a community of faith (2:19). The church is a family, or "God's household" (2:19). The church is a holy temple, well constructed with each part joined together and built around Jesus Christ, the chief cornerstone. This fellowship comes into existence through conversion: Those dead in sin (2:1-3) are made alive with Christ (2:4-7) by God's grace (2:8-10). Paul stacks metaphors one on another to illustrate a redeemed fellowship "brought together under . . . Christ" (1:3-11) and existing "for the praise of his glory" (1:12). These perspectives form an inspired picture of God's divine community.

From Monocultural to Multicultural

Despite the foundational Christian belief that "God does not show favoritism but accepts people from every nation who hear him and do what is right" (Acts 10:34-35), 11:00 a.m. on Sunday morning continues as perhaps the most segregated hour of the week in North America. The social distances, the alienation, and interracial suspicion in popular culture are also in the church. Christ, however, is "our peace" who brings together the nations, destroying the walls that divide them (Eph. 2:14).

Imagine fellowships where there is no "Jew or Gentile, bond or free." All are accepted in their rich cultural diversity within the church. Envision churches which borrow aspects of many cultures and incorporate them in unique ways. These churches draw from a collage of cultural metaphors, motifs, and parables from various world cultures to creatively draw and illustrate a Christian worldview. The diversity of God's kingdom is also reflected in the multicultural nature of lay and full-time Christian leaders. George Yancey's One Body, One Spirit: Principles of Successful Multiracial Churches is a practical guide to help churches sensitively enter other cultures within a city and intentionally become God's community of nations in urban, multicultural contexts.

To facilitate this transition, Christian leaders must view themselves as missionaries to the nations in urban North America.

Missional Transition

Churches rooted in modernity will continue to stagnate and dwindle. Most are in the maintenance mode. They look inward, taking care of their own immediate needs. They seldom perceive themselves as God's people on the journey through life helping fellow travelers to be God's disciples and encouraging others to join them on this God-directed and Jesus-inspired journey.

God, however, is working through both church renewal and church planting. This article defines some of the major transitions that the church must undergo to faithfully reflect the kingdom of God in this generation. Churches must focus on . . . .

spiritual formation community
equipping members for ministry caring for the weak their missional, kingdom identity multicultural ministry

. . . . to restore God's intention for his church.

Image Transition

Paul N. Ekemezie

Nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

1 Corinthians 15: 49—And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven.

We pray and expect to receive great anointing of the Holy Spirit very soon. We will be clothed with the glory of God. This new clothing is the image or likeness of the man from heaven. Right now we bear the image or likeness of the first man, Adam. We pray and expect that image transition will occur very soon.

John 17:5—And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.

This was Jesus praying. He took the position of Adam and prayed for the restoration of Adam to his Gen 1:27 condition of being in the image of God, that is, being clothed with the glory of God. We must remember though that by the time Jesus prayed the above prayer, Adam was now a giant tree with many branches (Matt 13:32), and the prayer was for the whole tree.

Did God answer Jesus' prayer? When?

I believe that God's answer to Jesus' prayer is both continuous and conditional. By this I mean that starting from the time Jesus prayed the prayer, God started answering the prayer and has continued to answer that prayer. That was why Jesus included in the prayer, "My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message" (John 17:20). Even though Adam has many branches, only the branches that get detached from the old tree and are grafted onto the new tree of Christ and who abide in the new tree are restored (John 15:1-6).

We then see that anyone that detaches from Adam and attaches to Christ is a candidate for restoration to God's glory. The candidacy remains while the person remains attached, and the restoration happens eventually for those who remain to the end. How does detachment from Adam and attachment to Christ take place? Both happen at the Cross.

Galatians 6:14—May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Through faith in the work that Jesus did for us on the Cross the world is crucified to us and us to the world. The world refers to the fallen man. Through the Cross, we are no longer part of the fallen man. How?

Galatians 3:13—“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”

It was the curse which came upon mankind due to sin that made man a fallen being. Any person who is redeemed from the curse is no longer fallen. Our redemption comes by faith in (the finished work of) Jesus Christ (on the Cross). We must cling to the Cross, in every condition. To cling to the Cross means to always hold on to the fact that Jesus’ death on the Cross has redeemed us. We have been detached from Adam by the death of Jesus, and have been attached to Christ. Does this free us from the troubles of this world, which is easily seen as the operation of the curse?

For some time we may not be freed from the troubles of this world. In fact, the troubles may even escalate. It is for the testing of our faith. That is why Jesus says that we must abide in the faith in His finished work. Satan may buffet us, but our victory has been secured on the Cross, so we need to endure just for a while. We are in a battle. The enemy may throw any weapons at us, but we need not fear any evil since we are not under curse. When we have proved the seriousness of our faith, finally, the image transition happens. Before Jesus started His public ministry, He apparently suffered great deprivation. He must have lived below poverty line. Being the eldest son in a family that had lost the father it was tough on Him. He had to offer up prayer with deep cries to God, and He was heard because of His reverent submission (Heb 5:7). When His submission had been fully tested, he was then anointed with Holy Spirit and power. It was then that everyone got to know that He was not an ordinary man.

Rom 8:18—I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

Let us hold on to the Cross. Let us not give up because of all that the enemy is throwing at us. We are already victorious. The image transition will happen very soon.

Impinging Borders
Brenda Dowdin

May 13, 2005

There are boundary lines in the spirit and the enemy has crossed over these lines. Lines of generations, lines of authority, lines in space, lines in time, lines of latitude and longitude, these lines have brought my church in to a warped mind set. I am re-aligning my angelic beings and bringing things back in to proper alignment. As I do people will be repositioned in my kingdom. Some will move, some will step down from places they are serving, others will step up. Generational strongholds will sovereignly be removed by my grace. (A supernatural grace will be released to get free of generational strongholds. Just as I freed the children of Israel from Egypt, so will I free my people.) Lines of authority are being re-established and I am shifting righteous leaders in to positions of authority. There is a changing of the guards, and a lining up that has begun. This shift is global and will be felt as such.

Look for signs and wonders in the heavenly realm, for a lining up has been placed in to motion. Even the ground shall prophecy this.

Science will stand in amazement and wonder and so will the church!

Blessings to you, firebrand007@hotmail.com

I Heard The Snapping Of Bands
Brenda Dowdin

May 13, 2005

While driving down Highway 99E, I heard the snapping of bands.....

This is what I sensed the Lord saying....

Bands that are attached to God's people are breaking. The Lord is bringing an alignment and shift and as we shift with Him, the power of the enemy is being broke from over our lives, like an old rubber band that is breaking apart. Strongholds are fleeing like the blinds over a window being rolled up quickly and suddenly.

I also see many in the Body of Christ who have felt they haven't quite fit in. They have had familiar spirits, generational spirits who have brought forth an oppression over their lives, and many for all of their lives have suffered from this. Some in the church have even judged these different ones because of not understanding the spiritual dynamics involved here. The Lord is bringing restoration and double honor for these precious ones. Watch for a sudden break through, its coming soon!

Finally, I heard the Father say this, "I am the Father of Lights, watch for Me!" Watch in the heavenlies for what I sense is a solar storm (war in heaven) ? I see stars exploding, like the Fourth of July fireworks. A new freedom is coming upon the Bride. The captive will be set free! Look for the Father of Lights....as you see the stars colliding know that my angels are waging war on your behalf....The heavens will prophecy and it will be a sign and wonder, an amazement to science. Don't be afraid for I am giving you a "Light Show of my Glory!"...

Blessing Beloved Ones... Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

In 2005 my judgments will be in all the earth. The whole world will know that I AM God and that I AM the God of Israel and that there is no God like unto Me, saith the Lord. My judgments will cause a mighty influx of souls into the house of the Lord. This mighty influx of souls will bring revival, and you will experience marvelous works, and you will see signs and wonders as never before seen by man. In those places of worship where my name is exalted and my word is not compromised you will experience miracles that are considered impossible by man, but I say unto you that there is absolutely nothing too hard for me, saith the Lord. I will turn the hearts of my ministers back to the word of God, and I will cause them to be touched by my Spirit. There will be a mighty refreshing in the whole body of Christ as I cause my ministers to be consumed with a burden for souls and a vision for revival. Yes, 2005 is the year of revival. It will not be as in the past. I will bring forth a new thing, saith the Lord. I will cause revival fires to break out all over the world. In 2005 you will experience a mighty harvest of souls, saith the Lord. Yes, in 2005 there will be a mighty outpouring of my Spirit all over the whole world. The gospel will be preached in every corner of the world. Millions of souls will be saved. Prodigal sons and daughters will come home. Marriages will be healed. Relationships will re restored. I will heal the broken hearted and I will set the captive free, saith the Lord.

In 2005 I will remember my covenants that I have made with you, saith the Lord. Yes, in 2005 you will see the fulfillment of my promises. It will be a time of jubilee and a time of celebration. In 2005 I will cause you to remember that I have chosen you and that my election and my calling are without repentance. I will no longer allow you to halt between two opinions. You will be forced to choose between me and the things of the world. Listen to me my children for I say unto you that 2005 will be the year that you will experience the fullness of your calling, saith the Lord. Many of you will surrender to the calling on your life. Some of you will teach. Others of you will become pastors. Some of you will go forth as prophets. Some will become apostles and build churches, and others of you will be sent to the uttermost parts of the earth to preach the gospel to the poor.

In 2005 I will raise up Josephs from the prisons and I will cause them to have dreams and I will give them the interpretation of those dreams. I will certainly give them my favor and I will cover them with many spiritual gifts. Yes, I will cause these Josephs to stand before kings and the whole world will know that I have chosen them, saith the Lord. In 2005 I will go into the wilderness and raise up men and women like unto my servant Moses who done more miracles than anyone other than myself, saith the Lord. The ones whom I have chosen with anointings like unto my servant Moses will know who they are. They will not have to be told. In 2005 I will also chose Aarons from the midst of the unknowns and I will anoint them with a royal priesthood, saith the Lord. I will cause their rods to bud and the whole world will know that I have chosen them, saith the Lord. Yes, 2005 will be the year that I raise up my chosen ones, and 2005 will be the year of revival, saith the Lord.

In 2005, God is going to use the foolish things to confound the wise.

Recently, I had a dream, which involved a family from my church sitting on a platform in ministry. This family had faced trouble and heartbreak. This family had been despised and rejected, but God chose to elevate and promote them. The Lord, revealed to me that He is actually raising this family up for His glory and purpose. Some people will rejoice and marvel at the hand of God on this family's life while others will question and be puzzled by what they see. However, who God chooses to promote and favor will not be for man's understanding.

This year, God is going to promote, increase, and elevate those who have been rejected, despised, and scorned by the religious crowd. The first shall be last, and the last shall be first. Right now, the Lord is in the process of bringing those who have been wounded in spiritual battle to the forefront. He is dressing them up in royal garments and crowning them with His glory. These in line for promotion are those whose hearts stayed near to God even though they faced tests and trails and experienced wilderness and desert moments. Their experiences will be used to bless and reach out to others the general church has not touched.

God is removing the shame of widows. The Lord is adorning them with pearls and dressing them with garments of praise. This is the year God will restore and set things in order. In 2005, God will use the foolish things to confound the wise.

INUNDATED BY TASKS
Precious, the world will take every second of your time if you let it. Learn the boundaries of your gifts and calling and then find the joy of expression within that place. Delegate everything that you can outside of that place so that all may divide the load, and so you may rightfully stay where you are most effective. My Word to you right now is, LET GO. Release all that steals your time from what I have called you to do. Hunt and diligently find others who have been prepared for these tasks. Train them and let go. You can not embrace the fullness I have for you when you have grown beyond your past responsibilities. I have prepared others to fill these places, release them to grow and prosper in the ground that you have planted.

Phil 4:6-7 NKJV
Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Honoring Free Will

HONORING FREE WILL
Beloved ones, honoring the free will of mankind is a hard lesson to learn. As you walk in your callings and fulfill what I have asked of you, you will face natural and spiritual obstacles. I AM teaching you how to resist the spiritual obstructions and stand strong against opposition. However, the strongholds and mind-sets of man are something you need to hurdle more gracefully.

There are times when the will of man directly opposes your calling. Yes, you are to stand for truth, but remember, your war is not against flesh and blood. I have not called you to argue or use the weapons of man to push it through.

It is in My very nature to truly give man freewill and I really do want volunteer lovers. Free will to choose is even the law, which I have set for My own limitations. If I force anyone, then it is a puppet life with no relationship. My very Identity is Love. Just like you, I want a real family, not one where one third will betray Me.

When you do not honor the free will of man, you inappropriately apply your faith to My backing your calling. I cannot endorse your faith-filled expectations to thwart the choices of those who oppose you, when I Myself live inside that limitation. Yes, because I AM Love, I even limit My own self to the same limitations.

This does not mean that I will not melt hearts to give you favor and open doors in the place of locked ones. Nevertheless, after a season of testing, if you still stand against a strong, closed mind, be willing to hurdle over it, walk around it or leave it behind. Understand that as My servant, what you have to give in your calling is never enforced, only given. It is true that in one sense, the boundaries of your calling are limited to man's receptivity, which is true of My own limitations. I do not force man to receive what I have to say. As it is said in My Word, "Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family." And because of their unbelief, he couldn't do any mighty miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them." (Mark 6:4-5 NLT) Therefore, regardless of whatever you lose through the loss of one, I shall multiply it repeatedly on earth and in heaven, and you will receive the fullness of the rewards of your calling.

Rev 22:11 AMP
He who is unrighteous (unjust, wicked), let him be unrighteous still; and he who is filthy (vile, impure), let him be filthy still; and he who is righteous (just, upright, in right standing with God), let him do right still; and he who is holy, let him be holy still. [Dan 12:10.]

Dan 12:10 AMP

Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and be tried, smelted, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but the teachers and those who are wise shall understand. [Dan 11:33-35.]

No More Froth

Your life, your anointing and your time is too important to waste on those who are not teachable and who are not hearing My voice through you. There are so many out there who do desire and want to hear what I have given you. Do not waste your time defending yourself, explaining yourself, or talking back to anyone. This results in a downward spiral, which is not profitable for them or for you. Simply walk away from all argument, and strife; stay silent when accused. Give it to Me and let Me be your defense. Repent when you need to repent, and apologize when it is the right thing to do. But don't bother with the dogs who bite and nip at your anointing. Just walk away and leave them to their foaming mouths.

Jude 13 NLT
They are like wild waves of the sea, churning up the dirty foam of their shameful deeds. They are wandering stars, heading for everlasting gloom and darkness.

In The Fear Of God

IN THE FEAR OF GOD
Most lives are busy walking to and fro.
We give ours to Abba that we might know.
We long to hear Him - as we endear Him.
And we do fear Him, He's a holy God.
Just one look from the Father's direction
Is enough for a lifetime of correction.

He is awesome and Mighty, He is power.
Supreme in His doings, yes, all do cower.
He is reigning most Sovereign over all.
Nothing escapes Him and nothing does fall
Without His knowledge, without His grand plan,
As we try escaping being mere men.

Humanity puffs up without knowledge of Him
Vanity and blindness put us out on a limb.
But He is so merciful to love us at best.
He gave us Jesus Christ to do all the rest.
It's by grace that we come. And grace that we stand.
By grace we receive and follow His commands.

To be a member of His family - to rule and to reign,
To really know the concept - we would never live the same.
Who is this God man Who came in the flesh?
He was Jesus Christ the Son Who gave us His best.
The Father chose to multiply Jesus' sacrifice for all,
His blood pouring from His veins redeems Adam's fall.

For in the fall of Adam, all men truly died.
But through the gift of Jesus Who was crucified,
We were brought back to living from among the dead.
Set free from sinning to embrace His love instead.
Now we are raised and resurrected with Him,
With joy in His cup it is filled to the rim.

He was firstborn among many brothers.
Soon this, the earth, will be filled with others
Just like Jesus Who laid down His life,
Many will be laying down their strife.
They will love in word and deed it is true.
They will die for their belief, for Who they knew.

We'll swallow His cup with our hearts at rest.
All that matters to us is to lay on His chest,
Laying everything down to give Him the glory,
Willingly sharing to sacrifice our story.
To the One we do love our yearning hearts will sing.
For the One we love we will sell everything.

Rom 8:20 NKJV
For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God .

Hearing Under

HEARING UNDER
The power to listen is understanding that you only know in part. As you speak little and listen much, it releases the flow. It opens a faucet and draws out the hidden wealth of another. Few find access to this place for very long. It takes discipline and effort.

Your heart is like a sponge. As the words you hear flow past your ears upon your heart, the wisdom soaks in and penetrates places that have lasting impact. The longer you stay under the spout, the deeper the impact. True listening is a place of submission. It is a place of deep humility, where your ear bows low and remains content to stay there. It is in that place of submission that you will find the hidden gems. Thank you dear one for listening to Me.

Prov 5:1-2 NLT
My son, pay attention to my wisdom; listen carefully to my wise counsel. Then you will learn to be discreet and will store up knowledge.

James 1:19-20 KJV
Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak , slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
